My recent research suggests that (a) Google starts to manipulate your opinions from the very first character you type, and (b) by fiddling with the suggestions it shows you, Google can turn a 50â... 50 split among undecided voters into a 90â... 10 split with no one knowing. I call this manipulation the Search Suggestion Effect (SSE), and it is one of the most powerful behavioral manipulations I have ever seen in my nearly 40 years as a behavioral scientist.

How will you know whether Google is messing with your election-related search suggestions in the weeks leading up to the election? You wonâ... t.

3. The Targeted Messaging Effect (TME)

If, on Nov. 8, 2016, Mr. Zuckerberg had sent go-out-and-vote reminders just to supporters of Mrs. Clinton, that would likely have given her an additional 450,000 votes. Iâ... ve extrapolated that number from Facebookâ... s own published data.

Because Zuckerberg was overconfident in 2016, I donâ... t believe he sent those messages, but he is surely not overconfident this time around. In fact, itâ... s possible that, at this very moment, Facebook and other companies are sending out targeted register-to-vote reminders, as well as targeted go-out-and-vote reminders in primary races. Targeted go-out-and-vote reminders might also favor one party on Election Day in November.

My associates and I are building systems to monitor such things, but because no systems are currently in place, there is no sure way to tell whether Twitter, Google, and Facebook (or Facebookâ... s influential offshoot, Instagram) are currently tilting their messaging. No law or regulation specifically forbids the practice, and it would be an easy and economical way to serve company needs. Campaign donations cost money, after all, but tilting your messaging to favor one candidate is free.

4. Opinion Matching Effect (OME)

In March 2016, and continuing for more than seven months until Election Day, Tinderâs tens of millions of users could not only swipe to find sex partners, they could also swipe to find out whether they should vote for Trump or Clinton. The website iSideWith.comâfounded and run by âtwo friendsâwith no obvious qualificationsâclaims to have helped more than 49 million people match their opinions to the right candidate. Both CNN and USA Today have run similar services, currently inactive.

I am still studying and quantifying this type of, um, helpful service, but so far it looks like (a) opinion matching services tend to attract undecided votersâprecisely the kinds of voters who are most vulnerable to manipulation, and (b) they can easily produce opinion shifts of 30 percent or more without peopleâs awareness.

At this writing, iSideWith is already helping people decide who they should vote for in the 2018 New York U.S. Senate race, the 2018 New York gubernatorial race, the 2018 race for New York District 10 of the U.S. House of Representatives, and, believe it or not, the 2020 presidential race. Keep your eyes open for other matching services as they turn up, and ask yourself this: Who wrote those algorithms, and how can we know whether they are biased toward one candidate or party?

5. Answer Bot Effect (ABE)

More and more these days, people donât want lists of thousands of search results, they just want the answer, which is being supplied by personal assistants like Google Home devices, the Google Assistant on Android devices, Amazonâs Alexa, Appleâs Siri, and Googleâs featured snippetsâthose answer boxes at the top of Google search results. I call the opinion shift produced by such mechanisms the Answer Bot Effect (ABE).

My research on Googleâs answer boxes shows three things so far: First, they reduce the time people spend searching for more information. Second, they reduce the number of times people click on search results. And third, they appear to shift opinions 10 to 30 percent more than search results alone do. I donât yet know exactly how many votes can be shifted by answer bots, but in a national election in the United States, the number might be in the low millions.

6. Shadowbanning

Recently, Trump complained that Twitter was preventing conservatives from reaching many of their followers on that platform through shadowbanning, the practice of quietly hiding a userâs posts without the user knowing. The validity of Trumpâs specific accusation is arguable, but the fact remains that any platform on which people have followers or friends can be rigged in a way to suppress the views and influence of certain individuals without people knowing the suppression is taking place. Unfortunately, without aggressive monitoring systems in place, itâs hard to know for sure when or even whether shadowbanning is occurring.

7. Programmed Virality and the Digital Bandwagon Effect

Big Tech companies would like us to believe that virality on platforms like YouTube or Instagram is a profoundly mysterious phenomenon, even while acknowledging that their platforms are populated by tens of millions of fake accounts that might affect virality.

In fact, there is an obvious situation in which virality is not mysterious at all, and that is when the tech companies themselves decide to shift high volumes of traffic in ways that suit their needs. And arenât they always doing this? Because Facebookâs algorithms are secret, if an executive decided to bestow instant Instagram stardom on a pro-Elizabeth Warren college student, we would have no way of knowing that this was a deliberate act and no way of countering it.

The same can be said of the virality of YouTube videos and Twitter campaigns; they are inherently competitiveâexcept when company employees or executives decide otherwise. Google has an especially powerful and subtle way of creating instant virality using a technique Iâve dubbed the Digital Bandwagon Effect. Because the popularity of websites drives them higher in search results, and because high-ranking search results increase the popularity of websites (SEME), Google has the ability to engineer a sudden explosion of interest in a candidate or cause with no oneâ€¦ perhaps even people at the companies themselvesâ€¦ having the slightest idea theyâ€¦ ve done so. In 2015, I published a mathematical model showing how neatly this can work.

8. The Facebook Effect

Because Facebookâ€¦ s ineptness and dishonesty have squeezed it into a digital doghouse from which it might never emerge, it gets its own precinct on my list.

In 2016, I published an article detailing five ways that Facebook could shift millions of votes without people knowing: biasing its trending box, biasing its center newsfeed, encouraging people to look for election-related material in its search bar (which it did that year!), sending out targeted register-to-vote reminders, and sending out targeted go-out-and-vote reminders.

I wrote that article before the news stories broke about Facebookâ€¦ s improper sharing of user data with multiple researchers and companies, not to mention the stories about how the company permitted fake news stories to proliferate on its platform during the critical days just before the November electionâ€¦ problems the company is now trying hard to mitigate. With the revelations mounting, on July 26, 2018, Facebook suffered the largest one-day drop in stock value of any company in history, and now itâ€¦ s facing a shareholder lawsuit and multiple fines and investigations in both the United States and the EU.

Facebook desperately needs new direction, which is why I recently called for Zuckerbergâ€¦ s resignation. The company, in my view, could benefit from the new perspectives that often come with new leadership.

9. Censorship

I am cheating here by labeling one category â€¦ censorship,â€¦ because censorshipâ€¦ the selective and biased suppression of informationâ€¦ can be perpetrated in so many different ways.

Shadowbanning could be considered a type of censorship, for example, and in 2016, a Facebook whistleblower claimed he had been on a company team that was systematically removing conservative news stories from Facebookâ€¦ s newsfeed. Now, because of Facebookâ€¦ s carelessness with user data, the company is openly taking pride in rapidly shutting down accounts that appear to be Russia-connectedâ€¦ even though company representatives sometimes acknowledge that they â€¦ donâ€¦ t have all the facts.â€¦

Meanwhile, Zuckerberg has crowed about his magnanimity in preserving the accounts of people who deny the Holocaust, never mentioning the fact that provocative content propels traffic that might make him richer. How would you know whether Facebook was selectively suppressing material that favored one candidate or political party? You wouldnâ€¦ t. (For a detailed look at nine ways Google censors content, see my essay â€¦ The New Censorship,â€¦ published in 2016.)

10. The Digital Customization Effect (DCE)

Any marketer can tell you how important it is to know your customer. Now, think about that simple idea in a world in which Google has likely collected the equivalent of millions of Word pages of information about you. If you randomly display a banner ad on a web page, out of 10,000 people, only five are likely to click on it; thatâ€¦ s the CTRâ€¦ the â€¦ clickthrough rateâ€¦ (0.05 percent). But if you target your ad, displaying it only to people whose interests it matches, you can boost your CTR a hundredfold.

Thatâ€¦ s why Google, Facebook, and others have become increasingly obsessed with customizing the information they show you: They want you to be happily and mindlessly clicking away on the content they show you.

In the research I conduct, my impact is always larger when I am able to customize information to suit peopleâ€¦ s backgrounds. Because I know very little about the participants in my experiments, however, I am able to do so in only feeble ways, but the tech giants know everything about youâ... even things you donâ... t know about yourself. This tells me that the effect sizes I find in my experiments are probably too low. The impact that companies like Google are having on our lives is quite possibly much larger than I think it is. Perhaps that doesnâ... t scare you, but it sure scares me.

The Same Direction

OK, you say, so much for Epsteinâ... s list! What about those other shenanigans weâ... ve heard about: voter fraud (Trumpâ... s explanation for why he lost the popular vote), gerrymandering, rigged voting machines, targeted ads placed by Cambridge Analytica, votes cast over the internet, or, as I mentioned earlier, those millions of bots designed to shift opinions. What about hackers like Andr s Sep lveda, who spent nearly a decade using computer technology to rig elections in Latin America? What about all the ways new technologies make dirty tricks easier in elections? And what about those darn Russians, anyway? To all that I say: kid stuff. Dirty tricks have been around since the first election was held millennia ago. But unlike the new manipulative tools controlled by Google and Facebook, the old tricks are competitiveâ... itâ... s your hacker versus my hacker, your bots versus my bots, your fake news stories versus my fake news storiesâ... and sometimes illegal, which is why Sep lvedaâ... s efforts failed many times and why Cambridge Analytica is dust.

 ... Cyberwar, ... a new book by political scientist Kathleen Hall Jamieson, reminds us that targeted ads and fake news stories can indeed shift votes, but the numbers are necessarily small. Itâ... s hard to overwhelm your competitor when he or she can play the same games you are playing.

Now, take a look at my numbered list. The techniques Iâ... ve described can shift millions of votes without peopleâ... s awareness, and because they are controlled by the platforms themselves, they are entirely noncompetitive. If Google or Facebook or Twitter wants to shift votes, there is no way to counteract their manipulations. In fact, at this writing, there is not even a credible way of detecting those manipulations.

And what if the tech giants are all leaning in the same political direction? What if the combined weight of their subtle and untraceable manipulative power favors one political party? If 150 million people vote this November in the United States, with 20 percent still undecided at this writing (thatâ... s 30 million people), I estimate that the combined weight of Big Tech manipulations could easily shift upwards of 12 million votes without anyone knowing. Thatâ... s enough votes to determine the outcomes of hundreds of close local, state, and congressional races throughout the country, which makes the free-and-fair election little more than an illusion.

Full disclosure: I happen to think that the political party currently in favor in Silicon Valley is, by a hair (so to speak), the superior party at the moment. But I also love America and democracy, and I believe that the free-and-fair election is the bedrock of our political system. I donâ... t care how â... rightâ... these companies might be; lofty ends do not justify shady means, especially when those means are difficult to see and not well understood by either authorities or the public.

Can new regulations or laws save us from the extraordinary powers of manipulation the Big Tech companies now possess? Maybe, but our leaders seem to be especially regulation-shy these days, and I doubt, in any case, whether laws and regulations will ever be able to keep up with the new kinds of threats that new technologies will almost certainly pose in coming years.

I donâ... t believe we are completely helpless, however. I think that one way to turn Facebook, Google, and the innovative technology companies that will succeed them, into responsible citizens is to set upsophisticated monitoring systems that detect, analyze, and archive what theyâ... re showing peopleâ... in effect, to fight technology with technology.

As I mentioned earlier, in 2016, I led a team that monitored search results on multiple search engines. That was a start, but we can do much better. These days, Iâ... m working with business associates and academic colleagues on three continents to scale up systems to monitor a wide range of information the Big Tech companies are sharing with their usersâ... even the spoken answers provided by personal assistants. Ultimately, a worldwide ecology of passive monitoring systems will make these companies accountable to the public, with information bias and online manipulation detectable in real time.

With November drawing near, there is obviously some urgency here. At this writing, itâ... s not clear whether we will be fully operational in time to monitor the midterm elections, but weâ... re determined to be ready for 2020.

Dear Public:

They use criminally corrupt and illicit operations designed to steal taxpayer monies and they character assassinate, defame, murder, black-list, and monopolize industries against anyone who speaks out against them.

They formed a business and political manipulation â... Cartelâ... intended to inflict corruption upon the United States Federal Government, The New York State Government and the California State Government, as defined by law under RICO Racketeering Statutes for the purpose of manipulating the value of stock market holdings and controlling political policy decisions. They violated â... Treasonâ... laws against the nation.

The criminally corrupt are enabled by criminally corrupt law firms who spend all day operating legal evasion schemes. Public efforts took down the Brobeck law firm and hundreds of others that were doing such crime cover-ups. There are many more needing to be terminated. Wilson Sonsini, Perkins Coi, Covington and Burling are targeted for termination next. Watch the TV show called â... Queen Of The Southâ... and watch how the cartel lawyer for the main drug queen is actually running the system. Every lawyer like that needs to be hunted down and 100% legally terminated.

These criminally corrupt people, companies and organizations are now going to experience payback, for their crimes against society, for the rest of their time on Earth. Their historical legacy after they die will remember each of them, in every history book, as: â... ...political criminals, insider trading mobsters and crony taxpayer abusing scum...â... .

Society provides only 3 options when these people try to take your life and your ethical society: 1.) Kill them â... This is illegal. 2.) Sue them - While it is easy to sue them for their crimes, their criminally corrupt law firms will only blockade and/or delay such litigation. 3.) Expose them and boycott them â... This has proven to work best.

Because they are scumbags who have been accused, by reporters, employees, spouses and tipsters, of very evil bribery, sex abuse, drug deals, political crimes, tax evasion, crony government payola, industry black-lists, money laundering, defamation, libel, slander, misogyny, stock market rigging, election manipulation, global search engine fake news, employee abuse and other horrific crimes against society. Exposing them, and their enablers, is proven method to take them down. A person, company or organization who commits crimes has always, according to historical forensics data, been indicative as only just one small part of a deeply infected body which is fully corrupt and one which requires termination.

The take-down effort must last for the rest of their lives. It must not just be a passing fad inspired by a single news exposeâ... . Society must never forget about what they did and never forgive them for attacking and damaging you, as a citizen, and for damaging and abusing society.

You will learn how to wipe out their eco-system. You will investigate, expose and demand prosecution of their corrupt:

- A.) Law Firm Corporations
- B.) CPA Firms
- C.) Investment Banks
- D.) Crony Politicians
- E.) Fake Money Laundering â... Charitiesâ...
- F.) False Front Stock Market Accounts
- G.) Covert Family Trust Funds And Shell Corporations
- H.) Internet Search Engine Manipulation Services
- I.) PR And Advertising Agency News Cover-Up Services
- J.) Offshore Money Laundering Services
- K.) And Every Other Intermediary Money Laundering Conduit...

There are now massive free database software systems the public can use to build your collaborative case files. CERN in Switzerland uses billions of dollars of free global database software that you can use too. You will use the web to create shared public collaboration peer-to-peer crime interdiction databases. The databases have every piece of information about the bad guys that was ever created, ie: all of their addresses, account numbers, tax records, bank accounts, dating site records, phone numbers, fax numbers, IMEI device records, IP addresses, device serial numbers, every lover they cheated on, service calls, drug deals, hookers, rent boys, Uber and

Lyft trip addresses, neighbors, GPS records, etc. All of this information can be legally acquired by the public. These narcissistic criminals put most of it out on the web themselves. The public has already built their own versions of Palantir, XKEYSCORE, and other CSI database tools. You must now use these tools to end corruption.

If you have the funds, you can hire ex-FBI, CIA, NSA, GCHQ and other top intelligence and crime interdiction experts. They have ways of watching the bad guys every second of every day. Many of them are already doing it out of a sense of public service and you can find them on Voat.co, Reddit.com, 4Chan and tens of thousands of online web sleuth and citizen investigator sites.

Did you know that WiFi and the ceramic objects around you can make it look like there are not even walls where the bad guys are right now? Science has created a new world in which technology can see through walls and there is, LITERALLY, no place crooks can hide!

Face recognition can also source up every image of them that was on security cameras, store cameras, restaurant cameras, Google and Bing image databases, social networks, dating sites, traffic cameras, hotel and motel cameras and everything that has ever recorded their face; which is public domain. Everything they are connected to will be connected to them and psychologically analyzed. A map of every â... secretâ... meeting they had each day can now be computer generated in minutes.

If these political crooks ever, for the rest of their life, cheat on taxes, take money off-the-books, lie on an application, get arrested, get sued, buy drugs, buy sex, cheat, hide money, use off-shore conduits, set-up an illicit trust fund or shell corporation, get an STD, lie on a dating site, abuse or extort an employee, abuse a co-worker, plagiarize, break the law, run a real estate scam, hide insider stock trading, provide political campaign services without filing detailed and accurate FEC disclosures, support a political campaign, spend or receive any money that they do not report, etcâ...! THE PUBLIC CAN NOW CATCH THEM!

There is now no place on Earth a corrupt politician or their corrupt financier can hide from the crowd-sourced investigations. The public now has investigators online across the globe. The public can now count on friends in Congress, journalists, law enforcement and the intelligence community to help taxpayers never let the corrupt out of their sights!

You, as a PUBLIC INVESTIGATOR never have to do creepy illicit things, like they do, so you have nothing to worry about.

THEY have PLENTY to worry about. These tactics only work on Bad Guys like them!

Each of these crooks are, today, sitting at the edge of the same precipice that BILL COSBY, FOREX, SOLYNDRA, ABOUND SOLAR, A123, ENERDEL, AMY PASCAL, E.F.HUTTON, RADIO SHACK, ENRON, MCI WORLDCOM, EASTERN AIRLINES, STANDARD OIL, ERIC HOLDER, STEVEN CHU, ARTHUR ANDERSON, DELOREAN, PETS.COM, BEAR STEARNS, BEATRICE FOODS, HEALTHSOUTH, ALLEN STANFORD, TYCO, LANCE ARMSTRONG, PARMALAT, BANINTER, HSBC, GLOBAL CROSSING LTD., BLACKBERRY, HIH INSURANCE, IMCLONE, DEUTSCHE BANK (SPY CASE), URBAN BANK, JEROME KERVIEL, BARCLAYS BANK, BRE-X, FISHER, BARINGS BANK, PATRICIA DUNN, SIEMENS AG, PETROBAS, FERNANDO MARCOS, KELLOG BROWN AND ROOT, BAE SYSTEMS, KERRY KHAN, ALCATEL-LUCENT SA, PRESIDENT RICHARD NIXON, HARVEY WEINSTEIN, ERIC SCHNIDERMAN, JAMES COMEY...and many, many more, sat at just before they slid down their filthy funnels straight to hell. We all hope they enjoy the ride! Our public efforts took those players down! If the crooks think they are immune, they are 100% wrong! Google, Facebook, Twitter, Kliener Perkins, Snapchat, Musk, and the rest of the Silicon Valley Cartel should expect a life-time of investigations.

Here are a few of the thousands of 100% legal methods for wiping out creeps like them.

These corrupt politicians, the Silicon Valley Mafia, their political shills and their crony companies can be terminated from the comfort of any voter's living room.

This only works on criminals and the corrupt.

The "good guys" have nothing to fear.

Our goal is to get over 300 million voters working on these efforts ASAP:

Step-By-Step Termination Instructions For The Public To Use On Corrupt Targets:

" - Make sure your interdiction of their illicit deeds lasts the rest of their life. Make it your hobby and engage in it every month. Put it on your calendar to have a monthly action day.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single advertising director for EVERY company that advertises with them to show them the evidence and encourage them to stop advertising with the suspect under threat of boycott.

- List out every past employee of the tabloid that was used to attack the taxpayers.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single employee that works for them to show them the evidence and encourage them to quit.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single investor that funds them to show them the evidence and encourage them to divest.

- Use "Espionage Journalism" like Project Veritas does. Sneak in to the bad guys operation using your cell phone as a broadcast camera and film the crooks doing crooked things.

- Contact billionaire's (ie: Peter Thiel, Larry Ellison, etc.) to get them to sponsor a RICO, or other kind of lawsuit, against these corrupt parties. Use proxies to sue the corrupt (ie: Get Thiel to pay for some other guy to sue Gawker for you). The Legal Proxy is one of your biggest assets. You can get billions of dollars of lawsuits executed against corrupt mega giants. Make Hulk Hogan be YOUR proxy. He takes all of the risk and YOU get to see a criminally corrupt oligarch (ie: Nick Denton and Gawker/Gizmodo Media) ground into the dirt. Read the news daily and PACER.GOV and FIND YOUR PROXY!

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY user of their company, via mass media and personal out-reach, to show them the evidence and encourage them to cancel their subscriptions and â... poisonâ... their data by filling their profiles with fantasy data.

- See the movie: â... DARK MONEYâ... ! Understand what â... Dark Moneyâ... is. Then cut off every possible source of the bad guys â... Dark Money and expose every party involved in Dark Money schemes.

- Write every government agency with a short, concise, detailed complaint letter and say IN YOUR LETTER that â... THIS LETTER IS ON FOIA PUBLIC RECORDâ... . These days, all government documents are leaked, hacked or FOIAâ... d so assume the public will be reading your letter. Compose your letter as if you were writing it for the audience of the Jerry Springer show so that the public will be interested in it, excited about it and amused by it. This will help the public help you to push your issue. Audacious controversy gets traction.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single member of Congress and regulatory agencies to show them the evidence and demand, in writing, a federal investigation.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by exposing corrupt sources of supply to the news and the public; ie: Elon Musk uses â... blood cobaltâ... mines in the Congo which rely on child labor and mercenaries to operate the cobalt mineral mines.

- Expose the covert sex cults (ie: Pizza Gate, NXIUM, Burning Man, Mission Control, Power Exchange, etc.) that they frequent.

- Look on Linkedin and other databases to contact their former interns to see if they sexually or mentally abused that intern and help that intern find lawyers (ie: Lawless Firm, AllRed, etc.).

- All of the data of famous corrupt persons and corporations has been hacked and acquired by many, many parties over the last decade. Watch for it to get leaked on the web or go search the ICIJ, Wikileaks and related databases for keywords about your targets. Expose what you find to the public. Cross reference what you find with the Palantir, Taleo, Bitcoin Trace, PayPal Trace, VISA Trace, D&B Insider, Gust-Scan, etc. commercially available databases and you will have an even more powerful search than the NSAâ... s XKEYSCORE tool.

- Expose the trust funds, shell corporations and real estate contracts that they and their family own and make sure the IRS and SEC knows about those slush fund pots. Find all of their insider trading payola scams and expose them.

- Expose every reporter and â... stock analystâ... that is actually a shill for the corrupt. Call them out by name in press releases and your own news articles. Demand to see their financial records if they claim to have never been paid by the corrupt entity in question.

- Expose the racist, tribal, misogynist organizations that the majority of their executive hires are part of.

- Investigate them and share your investigation data, from public data resources, on databases. All of their addresses, account numbers, tax records, bank accounts, dating site records, phone numbers, fax numbers, IMEI device records, IP addresses, device serial numbers, etc. are on public record.

- As Comey, et al; proved, there are crooks at the FBI...but there will always be, at least, one Elliot Ness kind of good guy at the FBI. DO report your findings to the FBI, in writing, but report to EVERY main, and regional FBI office, in writing, with a carbon copy to the media. It only takes one good FBI agent to get an official FBI case going. The same goes for the SEC, The EU and the CFTC.

- These incredibly abusive people have an inordinate number of divorce lawsuits for abusive behavior. Showcase the most revealing text from those abusive divorce court filings.

- Write â... Request For Prosecutionâ... requests to every major law enforcement agency and send copies of those requests to every other law enforcement agency and independent news reporters.

- If they run for office, confront them (legally) at public speaking events and hand out one page fliers about their crimes to the public at these events. Name their crony financial backers out loud at these events.

- File charges with the FEC for campaign finance violations. Ie: In one year Google reported a million in campaign contribution cash to one party but they actually provided many billions of campaign contributions via search engine rigging and perception manipulation services. Report that to the FEC and demand to know what the FEC is doing about it. Ask the FEC, in writing, every month until you get an answer in writing.

- Donâ... t just â... follow the moneyâ... . Make fun charts and diagrams of the illicit funds routes and mass distribute those graphics.

- Meme them forever.

- Uncover every: illicit sex partner and who they cheated on; drug deals; hooker; rent boy; Uber and Lyft trip route; neighbors who complained about them; GPS records, social media posting that hinted at a political agenda, etc. All of this information can be legally acquired. They put most of it out on the web themselves and agreed to let Facebook, Uber and Google sell the data.

- Search every face recognition database with automated search tools. They agreed to allow their image on databases for security cameras, Walmart cameras, restaurant cameras, Google and Bing image databases, social networks, dating sites, traffic cameras, hotel and motel cameras and everything that has ever recorded their face; which is public domain. Check out what they were doing at each place they were recorded.
- Report every illicit deed done by the corrupt to large Congressional, news writer, social network and voter mass distribution systems.
- Learn â... Corporate Veil Protection Strategiesâ... and How to Bust Them With Doxing And Public Lawsuitsâ... .
- Break their cover-ups. Carbon copy every Inspector General (IG), reporter and social media resource you can find. Never allow only a few people to be the only ones that know what you uncovered. Tell everyone and never stop finding new people to tell. Use the â... Streisand Effectâ... .
- If they ever, for the rest of their life: cheat on taxes, take money off-the-books, lie on an application, get arrested, get sued, buy drugs, buy sex, cheat, hide money, use off-shore conduits, set-up an illicit trust fund or shell corporation, get an STD, lie on a dating site, abuse or extort an employee, abuse a co-worker, plagiarize, break the law, run a real estate scam, hide insider stock trading, provide political campaign services without filing detailed and accurate FEC disclosures, support a political campaign, spend or receive any money that they do not report, etc.; THEN YOU EXPOSE THEM AND THE ILLICIT ACTIONS THEY TOOK.
- Educate yourself by typing this phrase into the top 5 non-Google search engines: â... How To Be A Private Investigatorâ... and read all of the results. Try more searches, like: â... Investigation methodsâ... or â... Background check methodsâ... or â... Investigate a politicianâ... , etc. There are thousands of other legal techniques in addition to those few listed here. They all work if you are persistent.
- Learn how to put a covert media alarm in â... Corporate Poison Pillsâ... and find â... Criminal Back-Datingâ... .
- Track the spouses finances of corrupt Senators and expose the crony deals to the world.
- Make certain that you find every other voter and community group who might help you. Support their efforts and share what you have uncovered with them. Use the web to guarantee that there is no place on Earth they can hide from justice. Work to mesh investigators, Congress, journalists, law enforcement, intelligence community, voters and your friends and family to never let them out of your sights!
- Use social media, press releases, direct mail, PR and publicity stunts to seek out and join every other person or group, in the world, who also hates corruption. Share these notes with them and ask them to â... pass them around...â...

Hundreds of corrupt public officials have now been terminated since the main public web corruption purge efforts began in 2009. The corrupt are fools if they think they are immune. There is no â... invisible cloak of corruptionâ... . Every single day a shocking new set of revelations ends the career or some, now notorious, well known political figure.

Dating sites sell their user data and all of their server records, since inception, are available to the public, investigators and law enforcement with a single credit card purchase thanks to Facebook, Google and Axiom. They caught two different NY AGâ... s by reading their Match.com messages.*

The Russians, Chinese, activists and bored teens have been entering the electronic device back doors on every router and consumer electronics device for decades and vacuuming up every record and file on every corporate and government network. Now they sell, or freely provide, those records to every public-interest law suit litigant to help them sue corrupt politicians and their financiers.

If they ever beat or abused a woman or child, it will be uncovered and reported just like Harvey, Humaâ... s Weiner and the New York AG were outed!

Hundreds of thousands of new non-main-stream, non-party-controlled, non-corporate owned news outlets have been created and they now reach the majority of the voting public. Hundreds of thousands of new voters are invited to these sites every hour, around the world. These news sites are exposing them and exposing the â... Main Stream Fake Newsâ... that the corrupt thought they controlled.

There is no under-age sex scheme that they are involved in that will not be found out and exposed.

There is no male or female prostitute that they used that will not be found out and exposed.

There are no abuse charges in your divorce filings and other documents that will not be uncovered.

There is no intern that they sexually abused that will not be protected when they tell their story about them.

TIPS FOR THE TAXPAYING PUBLIC:

For major anti-corruption lawsuit efforts we had to find the hidden money that corrupt Silicon Valley political financing billionaires had spent billions of dollars to hide. How hard was it to peel the skins off of Google's onion? Thanks to modern law enforcement and intelligence technology, it was not hard at all.

The fluency and practice of piercing the corporate veil & alter ego liability shields of political manipulation bosses such as George Soros, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Elon Musk and their colleagues, has become increasingly important in recent years due to changes in the law and business cycles.

As more small taxpayers need to help hunt down the corrupt, it is increasingly critical for taxpayers to be fluent with the cutting-edge techniques and best tools to pierce & dissolve the corporate veil, as well as determine alter ego liability. The growing number of bankruptcies, foreclosures, and judgments has dramatically increased the need for forensic experts proficient in the science of effective judgment enforcement and asset recovery against the Silicon Mafia collection of corrupt California tech companies.

IE: Any corrupt Department of Energy employer or contractor can now be sued, lose their home and have the courts transfer all of their assets away.

It is critical for action groups to understand the best strategies to suck dry the corporate assets in judgments for cases and how to sue individual State and Federal workers.

Any member of the public can now begin piercing of the Google corporate veil, navigating complex determinations on corporate liability, strategies involving legal alter ego, and breaking open both corporate & personal liability with your home computer.

We use tools that not only include, but exceed, the capabilities of XKEYSCORE, Palantir, Taleo, Bitcoin Trace, PayPal Trace, VISA Trace, D&B Insider, Gust-Scan, and hundreds of other executive asset tracking and intelligence engines.

You, as a voter, need to learn how to:

From the underlying substantive law to practical aspects of asset protection planning (i.e., what works and what does not), new groups are teaching the public everything they need to know about dissolving corporate and executive asset protection like butter on a frying pan.

From Gawker to Enron and from Solyndra to Nigerian War Lords, From Steven Chu and Eric Holder to Brian Goncher and Steve Jurvetson; taxpayers are now only a few mouse clicks away from the deepest family trust fund hide-aways and the darkest sexual services transactional relationship disclosure.

The public can now see how to uncover assets from tort plaintiffs, lenders, government entities and other creditors, hidden in thousands of corporations, partnerships, LLCs and offshore entities. Online web sleuths who are distinguished CIA-FBI-NSA-Class staff will teach you specific approaches and solutions, including the most effective tactics, best practices, and the cutting-edge strategies to peel an Eric Schmidt or a John Doerr veil open like a Taco, 100% legally.

*The public is learning various ways, from the very simple to the very sophisticated, to expose specific assets of State and Federal corrupt employees and illicit contractors: houses, bank and brokerage accounts, private islands, billionaire bunkers, hookers with billionaires homes in their names, rent-boy services, rental real estate, businesses and professional practices and retirement plans. Not only is this effort 100% legal, it is your moral obligation to undertake it. Even if you donâ... t care about the moral issues, you should care about the fact that your personal assets will increase and the quality of your life will improve as this program increases in effectiveness.

In â... The 25% Revolutionâ... How Big Does a Minority Have to Be to Reshape Society?â... David Noonan describes how this sort of program by a committed few can influence the many and sweep away social conventions. In fact MASS, PEER-TO-PEER, CROWD-SOURCED POLITICAL CORRUPTION INTERDICTION has already moved to the influence of many.

Social changeâ... from evolving attitudes toward gender and marijuana to the rise of Donald Trump to the emergence of the Black Lives Matter and #MeToo movementsâ... is a constant. It is also mysterious, or so it can seem. For example, â... How exactly did we get here?â... might be asked by anyone who lived through decades of fierce prohibition and now buys pot at one of the more than 2,000 licensed dispensaries across the U.S.

A new study about the power of committed minorities to shift conventional thinking offers some surprising possible answers. Published this week in Science, the paper describes an online experiment in which researchers sought to determine what percentage of total population a minority needs to reach the critical mass necessary to reverse a majority viewpoint. The tipping point, they found, is just 25 percent. At and slightly above that level, contrarians were able to â... convertâ... anywhere from 72 to â... This is not about a small elite with disproportionate resources,â... says Arnout van de Rijt, a sociologist at Utrecht University in the Netherlands who studies social networks and collective action, and was not involved in the study. â... It's not about the Koch brothers influencing American public opinion. Rather, this is about a minority trying to change the status quo, and succeeding by being unrelenting. By committing to a new behavior, they repeatedly expose others to that new behavior until they start to copy it.â...

The experiment was designed and led by Damon Centola, associate professor in the Annenberg School of Communications at the University of Pennsylvania. It involved 194 people randomly assigned to 10 â... independent online groups,â... which varied in size from 20 to 30 people. In the first step group members were shown an image of a face and told to name it. They interacted with one another in rotating pairs until they all agreed on a name. In the second step Centola and his colleagues seeded each group with â... a small number of confederatesâ...[who attempted to overturn the established convention (the agreed-on name) by advancing a novel alternative.â...

For the second step, as Centola explains it, the researchers began with a 15 percent minority model and gradually increased it to 35 percent. Nothing changed at 15 percent, and the established norm remained in place all the way up to 24 percent.

The magic number, the tipping point, turned out to be 25 percent. Minority groups smaller than that converted, on average, just 6 percent of the population. Among other things, Centola says, that 25 percent figure refutes a century of economic theory. â... The classic economic modelâ... the main thing we are responding to with this studyâ... basically says that once an equilibrium is established, in order to change it you need 51 percent. And what these results say is no, a small minority can be really effective, even when people resist the minority view.â... The teamâ... s computer modeling indicated a 25 percent minority would retain its power to reverse social convention for populations as large as 100,000.

But the proportion has to be just right: One of the groups in the study consisted of 20 members, with four contrarians. Another group had 20 members and five contrariansâ... and that one extra person made all the difference. â... In the group with four, nothing happens,â... Centola says, â... and with five you get complete conversion to the alternative norm.â... The five, neatly enough, represented 25 percent of the group population. â... One of the most interesting empirical, practical insights from these results is that at 24 percentâ... just below the thresholdâ... you donâ... t see very much effect,â... adds Centola, whose first book, How Behavior Spreads: The Science of Complex Contagions, comes out this month. â... If you are those people trying to create change, it can be really disheartening.â... When a committed minority effort starts to falter there is what Centola calls â... a convention to give up,â... and people start to call it quits. And of course members have no way to know when their group is just short of critical mass. They can be very close and simply not realize it. â... So I would say to Black Lives Matter, #MeToo and all of these social change movements that approaching that tipping point is slow going, and you can see backsliding. But once you get over it, youâ... ll see a really large-scale impact.â...

Real-life factors that can work against committed minorities... even when they reach or exceed critical mass... include a lack of interaction with other members, as well as competing committed minorities and what's called active resistance... which pretty well describes the way many people in 2018 respond to political ideas with which they disagree. But even with such obstacles, Centola says the tipping point predicted in his model remains well below 50 percent.

Certain settings lend themselves to the group dynamics Centola describes in his study, and that includes the workplace. Businesses are really great for this kind of thing, he says, because people in firms spend most of their day trying to coordinate with other people, and they exhibit the conventions that other people exhibit because they want to show that they're good workers and members of the firm. So you can see very strong effects of a minority group committed to changing the culture of the population.

The other environment in which the 25 percent effect is particularly evident, Centola says, is online where people have large numbers of interactions with lots of other people, many of them strangers. This raises some tricky questions: Can a bot stand in for a member of a committed minority? And can a committed minority be composed of bots and the real people the bots influence, so that bots are actually driving the change? According to Centola, In a space where people can't distinguish people from bots, yes. If you get a concerted, focused effort by a group of agents acting as a minority view, they can be really effective.

You owe it to society, and yourself, to fight against political and corporate corruption.

Taxpayers cannot afford to let corrupt corporate bullies win!

POLITICAL KILL ORDERS AND STATE-SPONSORED CHARACTER ASSASSINATIONS

How A Modern Character Assassination and Political "Kill Order" Is Executed By the Silicon Valley Oligarchs and their total control of propaganda media

Patrick George At Jalopnik attacks outsiders under contract with Elon Musk and the DNC. Silicon Valley campaign finance oligarchs hire him to run hatchet jobs on innocent outsiders and then Gawker-Gizmodo-Jalopnik uses their financial partnership with the DNC's Google to push the character assassination articles to the top of Google web products and searches. Patrick George, Adrian Covert, John Hermann and Nick Cook are the sexually degenerate cabin boys that report to boy-loving sleaze-tabloid oligarch Nick Denton. They created the Fake News crisis in the media by flooding the internet with defamation posts and reprisal hatchet job articles designed to damage political enemies of the Socialists. They coordinate a large number of the character assassination efforts at Gawker, Gizmodo, Jalopnik, CNN, New York Times and other propaganda outlets. These Millennial boys are "Media Rapists" and should be treated as abusers.

How and why did a Donald Trump stripper-date named "Stormy" or an Elon Musk sex party or a Kavanaugh drinking incident or the Moonves and Weinstein indiscretions suddenly hit the news at about the same time in news history?

In addition to actual murder, Politicians and Silicon Valley Oligarchs hire operatives to end people's lives in other creative ways.

It is all part of the modern trend in vendetta, revenge and political payback when a Senator or a tech oligarch issues a "kill order" on an opponent.

The client does not like to get their hands dirty so the actual social hit job is performed by companies such as:

IN-Q-Tel - (DNC); Gawker Media - (DNC); Jalopnik - (DNC); Gizmodo Media - (DNC); K2 Intelligence - (DNC); WikiStrat - (DNC); Podesta Group - (DNC); Fusion GPS - (DNC/GOP); Google - (DNC); YouTube - (DNC); Alphabet - (DNC); Facebook - (DNC); Twitter - (DNC); Think Progress - (DNC); Media Matters - (DNC); Black Cube - (DNC); Mossad - (DNC); Correct The Record - (DNC); Sand Line - (DNC/GOP); Blackwater - (DNC/GOP); Undercover Global Ltd (DNC/GOP) Stratfor - (DNC/GOP); ShareBlue - (DNC); Wikileaks (DNC/GOP); Cambridge Analytica - (DNC/GOP); Sid Blumenthal- (DNC); David Brock - (DNC); PR Firm Sunshine Sachs (DNC); Covington and Burling - (DNC), Buzzfeed - (DNC) Perkins Coie - (DNC); Wilson Sonsini - (DNC) and hundreds of others...!These are the people and companies that except cash, revolving door jobs, political appointments, insider trading stock in Silicon Valley tech companies, prostitutes and real estate in exchange for destroying the lives of others.

These attackers deserve to be punished for the rest of their lives for taking away the lives of others in exchange for cash. Any company who is corrupt enough to hire any of these assassins should be forced out of business. These attack services are responsible for 90% of the "Fake News" problem in the world because they are the authors of most fake news. Congress must act to make these kinds of companies illegal!

These digital assassination services offer hit-jobs, character assassinations and economic reprisal programs to famous billionaires and corrupt politicians who are seeking revenge, retribution and vendetta executions.

In the case of reporters getting targeted for attacks, President Donald Trump has been accused by the liberal corporate media of whipping up a hateful frenzy against the press. But while CNN's Jim Acosta grandstands against Trump, real journalists are still reeling from the draconian extrajudicial measures that Barack Obama and his administration used to target them for exposing truth.

This secretive targeting occurred while Obama speechwriter and hate-filled ANTIFA supporter Ben Rhodes was running "Operation Echo Chamber," which reportedly continues, in which he fed information to willing corporate media scribes. "They literally know nothing," Rhodes said of the twentysomething journalists he easily manipulated.

The Freedom of the Press Foundation's Trevor Timm published documents showing how former attorney general Eric Holder changed the rules to more effectively intimidate and surveil members of the press.

Timm writes: "Today, we are revealing for the first time the Justice Department's rules for targeting journalists with secret FISA court orders. The documents were obtained as part of a Freedom of Information Act lawsuit brought by Freedom of the Press Foundation and Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University."

Trending: Brennan and Clapper Accused of Hacking John Roberts To Blackmail Him

Here is the memo published by the Foundation, which dropped the documents in their entirety:

Obama is also clearly linked to the plot to obtain fraudulent FISA warrants on President Trump's team, as evidenced by Peter Strzok and Lisa Page's texts confirming that Obama was overseeing their fly-by-night operation.

Larry Schweikart reported for Big League Politics:

For months pundits and researchers have been pondering the mystery of the FISA approval that led to the illegal and historically titanic scandals to ever hit the U.S. government. Some have argued that Assistant Attorney General Rod Rosenstein knew the FISA was bogus when he extended it. Others have wondered if Special Counsel Robert Mueller knew about the fraudulent basis of the FISA when he used it, in part, to indict Michael Flynn. Other still, that Mueller was fooled by the FBI.

This is what President Trump calls "SPYGATE."

It may well be that the surveillance that was conducted began with UK intelligence services and then was fed back to the White House of Barack Obama. Here's the kicker:

President Barack Obama did not need a FISA warrant to authorize spying/electronic surveillance on Trump because Obama all along had legal authorization to by-pass the normal court vetting process. According to 50 U.S. Code 1802, the "Electronic Surveillance Authorization" "Foreign intelligence in relation to a US person (Trump or his associates) is information that is necessary for the US to protect against attack, hostile acts, sabotage, . . . as well as other clandestine activities by a foreign power . . . OR . . . information relevant to national defense/security of the US, or the conduct of foreign affairs of the U.S." Such an authorization by Obama required certification by Attorney General Loretta Lynch that must be logged with the FISC court. ("The [AG] shall immediately transmit under seal to the court [FISC] a copy of his certification.")

In short, the DOJ has this. If we are correct, a copy of that certification is currently under seal at least with the DOJ and the FISC.

This is what they are hiding.

However, the Act requires the AG to keep the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Senate Committee on Intelligence informed of these authorizations and unmaskings therein. See 1803 (a) (1) (C) If indeed this is what happened, did Lynch reportâ... or only selectively reportâ... to the committees in a way that excluded non-friendlies? Can you see why Adam Schiff, Mark Warner, and their ilk are terrified?

- 1) Obama authorized spying/electronic surveillance on Team Trump, by-passing normal judicial oversight.
- 2) To create â... foreign intelligence,â... John Brennan and others organized for UK intelligence to conduct surveillance on Trump and his associates, either from the UK or from UK assets within the U.S. This is another reason revealing this will unleash an excrement storm: the UK is about to be caught meddling bigly in an American election.
- 3) Lynch certified Obamaâ... s authorization which is now held under seal by DOJ (and FISC).

From this authorization, all unmaking followed, as well as the FBI fraudulent counter intel investigation and perhaps the FISA warrant too. Obama knew this was all fake when he made the authorization; Lynch knew it was fake when she certified it; the entire inner circle, including the FBI, all knew. This takes the U.S. into uncharted territory, and could imperil any politician in the British government who supported this or had knowledge of it. Proving any of this would be difficult, as if confronted Lynch would almost certainly cover up and Obama would simply deny knowledge. Without a paper trail, a conviction might be a bridge too far. This is only one of thousands of "kill order" tactics introduced by the Obama Administration.

These are the playbook tactics that Senators and tech oligarchs most often use to destroy the lives of their political and business enemies:

- Government agency bosses sometimes solicit the target victims with false promises of future loans, contracts or grants from their agency and cause the target victims to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for projects which those government bosses had covertly promised to their friends. They use the target victims as a â... smokescreenâ... to cover their illegal government slush-funds for the victims competitors and personal enemies. By using this tactic, the attackers can drain the target victims funds and force them into an economic disaster in plain view of everyone without the government bosses fearing any reprisal for their scam.

- Every match.com, okcupid.com, Plenty Of Fish, Seeking Arrangements and all other IAC-owned, or similar, dating sites (IAC is managed by Hillary Clinton's daughter) have had their profiles, texts, and inter-member communications, since those companies were started, hacked or purchased. The attack service providers use Palantir and In-Q-Tel financed data analysis software to analyze every activity in those dating services in order to find honey-trap, blackmail, sextortion and social conflict exploitation opportunities. If you had a bad date with someone, that someone will be hunted down and convinced to help harm, #metoo or "rape charge" the intended target. All dates involve a search for sex, so the likelihood that a sexual disappointment experience will exist in each persons dating history is high. Searching every past dating email and text of a subject is quite easy with modern software and hacking techniques. A synthetically amplified, PR-agency optimized sex scandal can destroy any target. Your dating experiences from the 70's or 80's will come back to haunt you decades later. Most dates involve drinking alcohol and taking drugs. If you were unattractive or had bad sexual skills your bad date will be called "date rape", "drugging your date for sex" and related twisted narratives that are designed to shame you, the target. If you try to get a date in the future, your potential date will be contacted by a third party who will slander and libel you to make sure your potential first date gets cancelled. Your social life will, essentially, end. Every photo on every dating site is cross checked with every other photo on the internet in order to cull your Facebook, LinkedIn, Snapchat and other social media together to create a total psychological manipulation profile data file on you. A single photo on a dating site can be cross searched on every mugshot archive, photo album and corporate database in the worth within minutes using modern super-computers. Your sex life will be on public record in a flash.

- Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits are stone-walled. Applications of targets are â... lostâ... . Files in the application process â... disappearedâ... . Lois Lerner hard drive â... incidentsâ... are operated in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- Government officials and tech oligarchs contact members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national â... black-listsâ... to blockade target victims from ever receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Stry and in published testimony. If Silicon Valley political campaign finance oligarchs black-list you (see the "AngelGate" Scandal and the "High Tech No Poaching Class Action Lawsuit" cases) you will never get investor funding again.

- FOIA requests are hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- State and federal employees will play an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed. This can bankrupt a target victim.

- Some Victims found themselves strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case. Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after their work with the Department of Energy weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if these â... targetsâ... were intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of these people were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via DOE, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which DOE officials knew were required.

- Victims employers are called, and faxed, and ordered to fire target victims from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic.

- On orders from Obama White House officials, DNC-financed Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produce attack articles and defamation videos. Google locks this attack media on the internet on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world. This attack-type uses over $40 million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging. The forensic data acquired from tracking some of these attacks proves that Google rigs attacks against individuals on the internet and that all of Googleâ... s â... impressionsâ... are manually controlled by Googleâ... s executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. This data was provided to the European Union for itâ... s ongoing prosecution of Googleâ... s political manipulation of public perceptions.

- Victims HR and employment records, on recruiting and hiring databases, are embedded with negative keywords in order to prevent the victim targets from ever gaining future employment.

- Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani and many other whistle-blowers in these matters, turned up dead under strange circumstances. It is very possible that some of these attack services, operated by former CIA operatives, even offer discrete murder-for-sale services using high-tech assassination tools that make murders look like heart attacks and brain failures.

- Disability and VA complaint hearings and benefits are frozen, delayed, denied or subjected to lost records and "missing hard drives" as in the Lois Lerner case.

- Paypal (A DNC-biased operation) and other on-line payments for on-line sales are de-platformed, delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for target victims who competed with the attackers interests and holdings.

- DNS redirection, "website spoofing" sends target victims websites to dead ends where no sales orders or customer inquiries actually get back to the target. These internet revenue activity manipulations are conducted using Google and Amazon servers. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by target victims, will have had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by a massively resourced facility located in Virginia, Texas or Palo Alto, California in order to terminate revenue potentials for the target victims.

- Over 50,000 trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments are deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about victims in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility.

- Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors are hired by campaign financiers to attack the friends and family members of the target victim in order to create low morale for the target victims psyche and motivation.

- Are you getting weird headaches and hearing a "buzzing sound" in your head? The U.S. Government has now acknowledged that the Cuban, Chinese and other embassy "sonic attacks" are from a known microwave beam weapon. Any one of the technical departments of the attack services listed at the top of this article can build such a biological harassment weapon. It can be aimed at the target victims office, bedroom or vehicle and, within a week, have caused biological and emotional damage using a weapon that has no visible track of trajectory. It is designed to make the target victim think they are "going crazy" or "hearing sounds in their head". While this may sound pretty out there, web search "Embassy sonic attacks" on the top 5 non-Google search engines and read the very credible reports of these attacks.

- In one case covert political partner: Google, transferred large sums of cash to dirty tricks contractors and then manually locked the media portion of the attacks into the top lines of the top pages of all Google searches globally, for years, with hidden embedded codes in the links and web-pages which multiplied the attacks on Victims by many magnitudes.

- Covert Cartel financier: Google, placed Google's lawyer: Michelle Lee, in charge of the U.S. Patent Office and she, in turn, stacked all of the U.S. Patent Office IPR and ALICE review boards and offices with Google-supporting employees in order to rig the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google from being prosecuted for the vast patent thefts that Google engages in. Google has hundreds of patent lawsuits for technology theft and a number of those lawsuits refer to Google's operations as "... Racketeering...", "... Monopolistic Cartel..." and "... Government Coup-like..." behaviors. Thousands of articles and investigations detail the fact that Google, "... essentially..." ran the Obama White House and provided over 80% of the key White House staff. A conflict-of-interest unlike any in American history. Google's investors personally told Applicant they would "... kill him..." . Google and the Obama Administration were "... the same entity..." . Applicant testified in the review that got Michelle Lee terminated and uncovered a tactical political and social warfare group inside Google who were financed by Federal and State funds.

- Honeytraps and moles were employed by the attackers. In this tactic, people who covertly worked for the attackers were employed to approach the "... target..." in order to spy on and misdirect the subject.

- Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Snopes, SPLC and other hired media assassins will be retained to produce "hatchet job" character assassination articles about you. Then those articles will be faxed, mailed and emailed to your employer and investors with a note saying: "You don't want to have anything to do with this person, do you..?" in order to get you fired from your job and get your loans or financing pulled. The attackers will use their round one attack media, that they authored, to create a round two second wave attack designed to end your life via economic warfare.

- Mortgage and rental applications will have had red flags added to them in databases to prevent the targets from getting homes or apartments.

- Krebs On Security, Wired, Ars Technica, The Wall Street Journal and most major IT publications have reported that hundreds of spy "back-doors" have been found on every Intel, AMD, Apple, Xfinity, Cisco, Microsoft, Juniper Networks motherboard, chip-set and hardware component set. This means that any kid with the "key" code can open any computer, server, router, cloud-network or other network connected device and read every file, photo, video, your calendar and email on your devices at any time from any location on Earth. The key codes have been released to every hacker community in the world for over ten years. There is now no government, corporate or personal data that can't be hacked, even data from decades ago. Every single one of your darkest secrets can be in the hands of your enemy within 60 minutes, or less. Important meetings you had planned with potential investors, employers, clients, dates, suppliers and others will suddenly get cancelled at the last minute. They will get cancelled because your enemies are reading your calendar remotely and covertly sending slander information to those you had hoped to engage with in order to sabotage your life. Nothing you have ever typed on a computer or Smartphone is safe. it WILL be acquired and it WILL be used against you.

- McCarthy-Era "Black-lists" are created and employed against target victims who competed with Obama Administration executives and their campaign financiers to prevent them from getting funding and future employment.

- Obama Administration targets were very carefully placed in a position of not being able to get jobs, unemployment benefits, disability benefits or acquire any possible sources of income. The retribution tactics were audacious, overt..and quite illegal.

- There are thousands of additional Dirty Tricks tactics being used by these Attack Services yet Congress refuses to pass laws out-lawing such attack services. The cost of an attack on a person ranges from $150,000.00 to over $50,000,000.00. While a Silicon Valley billionaire can afford to launch counter-measures to these attacks, any regular taxpayer will be utterly destroyed, and incapable of fighting back, against even the smallest version of one of these "kill orders". A number of modern office shootings are the results of these attacks against an individual who has lost everything because of the attack and has no options left.

Federal law enforcement, the United States Congress and the highest level investigators in the U.S., and abroad, have documented (per the â... FISA Memoâ... , Congressional Reports and federal employee testimony) and proven the fact that the Obama Administration regularly engaged in the operation of retribution, vendetta and reprisal campaigns known as â... hit-jobsâ... against domestic natural born U.S. citizen domestic taxpayers. The Federal Court, in at least one previous court case, has ruled that Applicants, in this particular matter, were the victims and target of a number of these attacks designed to inflict permanent medical, emotional, character assassination, brand negation, economic and career damage.

!!!! Mueller Hears That Silicon Valley Has Been Manipulating The Entire BREXIT Campaign !!!!!

- Second former employee of controversial data firm to be questioned by special counselâ€¦ s inquiry into Russia collusion

By Carole Cadwalladr

Brittany Kaiser is said to be cooperating fully with the Mueller inquiry.

A director of the controversial data company Cambridge Analytica, who appeared with Arron Banks at the launch of the Leave.EU campaign, has been subpoenaed by the US investigation into possible collusion between the Trump campaign and the Russian government.

A spokesman for Brittany Kaiser, former business development director for Cambridge Analytica â€¦ which collapsed after the Observer revealed details of its misuse of Facebook data â€¦ confirmed that she had been subpoenaed by special counsel Robert Mueller, and was cooperating fully with his investigation.

He added that she was assisting other US congressional and legal investigations into the companyâ€¦ s activities and had voluntarily turned over documents and data.

Kaiser, who gave evidence to the UK parliament last April in which she claimed Cambridge Analytica had carried out in-depth work for Leave.EU, is the second individual connected to the firm subpoenaed by the special counsel. The Electoral Commission has said its investigation into Leave.EU found no evidence that the campaign â€¦ received donations or paid for services from Cambridge Analytica â€¦!beyond initial scoping workâ€¦ .

Damian Collins, chairman of parliamentâ€¦ s inquiry into fake news, said it was â€¦ no surpriseâ€¦ that Kaiser was under scrutiny by Mueller because â€¦ her work connected her to WikiLeaks, Cambridge

Analytica and [its parent company] SCL, the Trump campaign, Leave.EU and Arron Banksâ... .

He said it was now vital Britain had its own inquiry into foreign interference: â... We should not be leaving this to the Americans.â...

Tom Watson, the deputy leader of the Labour party, echoed Collinsâ... s statement, saying: â... This is the first evidence that a significant player in the Leave.EU campaign is of interested to the global Mueller inquiry. People will be bewildered that the British government has no interest in establishing the facts of what happened.â...

In August, Sam Patten, a US political consultant who had worked for Cambridge Analytica on campaigns in the US and abroad, struck a plea deal with Mueller after admitting he had failed to register as a foreign agent for a Ukrainian oligarch.

He became a subject of the special counselâ... s inquiry because of work done with Paul Manafort, Trumpâ... s campaign manager, in Ukraine. He had also set up a business with Konstantin Kilimnik, a key figure who Mueller has alleged has ties to Russian intelligence and who is facing charges of obstruction of justice. In a 2017 statement to the Washington Post, Kilimnik denied any connection to intelligence services. Kaiser, however, is the first person connected directly to both the Brexit and Trump campaigns known to have been questioned by Mueller.

The news came to light in a new Netflix documentary, The Great Hack, which premiered at the Sundance film festival last month and is expected to be released later this spring. Film-makers followed Kaiser for months after she approached the Guardian, including moments after she received the subpoena. She claims the summons came after the Guardian revealed she had visited WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange while still a Cambridge Analytica employee in February 2017, three months after the US election.

One part of Muellerâ... s investigation focuses on whether the Trump campaign sought to influence the timing of the release of emails by WikiLeaks before the election. Investigators are looking at communications between them. In the film, Kaiser says that she has gone from being a cooperating witness to a subject of investigation because of her contact with Assange.

In October 2017, it was revealed that Alexander Nix, the chief executive of Cambridge Analytica, had contacted Assange in August 2016 to try to obtain emails from Hillary Clintonâ... s presidential campaign â... which indictments from Muellerâ... s team say were obtained by Russian military intelligence â... to use in Donald Trumpâ... s campaign. When Kaiser gave evidence to parliament last year, she was asked about her relationship with Assange and WikiLeaks but failed to reveal that she had met Assange.

In the documentary, Kaiser is shown after receiving an email from the Guardian last June asking about meeting Assange and alleged donations of cryptocurrency to WikiLeaks. Kaiser did not respond to the email at the time, but on camera says: â... She knows I met Assange. And she knows I donated money to WikiLeaks in bitcoin.â...

Her legal representatives later wrote to the paper to say that the allegations, including that she had â... channelledâ... donations to WikiLeaks, were false. Kaiser said she had received a small gift of bitcoin in 2011 â... long before she worked at Cambridge Analytica â... and, not knowing what else to do with it, gave it to WikiLeaks, because she had benefited from material it had released over the years.

Her lawyer told the Observer that the meeting with Assange came about after a chance encounter in London with an acquaintance who knew him. It lasted 20 minutes and consisted mainly of Assange telling her â... about how he saw the worldâ... . He said they did not discuss the US election.

Patten and Kaiser were involved in a controversial election campaign in Nigeria in January 2015, which former Cambridge Analytica employees say had â... unsettlingâ... parallels to the US presidential election.

The Guardian revealed that the data firm had worked alongside a team of unidentified Israeli intelligence operatives on the campaign. Ex-Cambridge Analytica employees described how the Israelis hacked the now-president of Nigeriaâ... s emails and released damaging information about him to the press weeks before the election.

CBS NEWS 60 MINUTES Lara Logan "Iâ... m Being â... Targetedâ... For Saying the Media is â... Mostly Liberal"

by Tamar Auber

On Wednesday, former CBS News foreign correspondent Lara Logan spoke with Fox News Sean Hannity about her recent comments slamming the media as â... mostly liberal.â...

Logan told Breitbart podcaster Mike Ritland the remarks made on his show â... which drew widespread attention online â... amounted to â... professional suicide.â...

Defending her remarks on Hannityâ... s show, Logan said that as the result of her speaking out about how the media is â... mostly liberalâ... she has been targeted because she is an independent voice.

â... Any journalists who are not beating the same drum and giving the same talking points,â... she insisted â... pay the priceâ... for not going along with the liberal crowd.

She also called out her targeters by name.

â... I know theyâ... re going to come after me,â... she told Hannity. â... Michael Calderone who is at the Huffington Post. I can give you the script now. I can tell you who the players are. Joe Hagan. Brian Stelter.â...

She added: â... They smear you personally. They go after your integrity. They go after your reputation as a person and a professional. They will stop at nothing. I am not the only one. And I am just, I am done, right, I am tired of it. And they do not get to write my story anymore. They donâ... t get to speak for me, I want to say loudly and clearly to anybody who is listening, I am not owned. Nobody owns me, right? Iâ... m not owned by the left or the right.â...

Logan made headlines recently when, during a scorched earth podcast interview with Ritland, she said that there was a lot of â... weightâ... in most news organizations on â... one side of the political spectrum.â...

â... The media everywhere is mostly liberal. But in this country, 85 percent of journalists are registered Democrats. So thatâ... s just a fact, right?â... she told Ritland.

She also trashed reporting based on single, anonymous government sources.

â... Thatâ... s not journalism, thatâ... s horseshit,â... Logan stressed. â... Responsibility for fake news begins with us. We bear some responsibility for that, and weâ... re not taking ownership of that and addressing it. We just want to blame it all on somebody else.â...

Internal documents from a private Israeli intelligence firm called Psy-Group show that, at the time of many incidents, the company, and possibly other private investigators, were targeting U.S. citizens because they spoke up about crimes.

Psy-Group's intelligence and influence operations, which included a failed attempt in the summer of 2017 to sway a local election in central California, were detailed in a New Yorker investigation that I co-wrote earlier this month. Before it went out of business (ie: changed it's name) , last year, Psy-Group was part of a new wave of private-intelligence firms that recruited from the ranks of Israel's secret services and described themselves as 'private Mossads.' Psy-Group initially stood out among its rivals because it didn't just gather intelligence; its operatives used false identities, or avatars, to covertly spread messages in an attempt to influence what people believed and how they behaved. In 2016, Psy-Group held discussions with the Trump campaign and others about conducting covert influence operations to benefit the candidate. Psy-Group's founder and C.E.O., Royi Burstien, a veteran Israeli intelligence officer who established the firm in 2014, told me that his talks with the Trump campaign went nowhere. The company's posturing, however, attracted the attention of Robert Mueller, the special counsel, who has been investigating interference in the 2016 Presidential race.'

FED BOMBSHELL: Fusion GPS Bribed Dozens of MSM Journalists With Cash To Run Character Assassinations, While News Companies Paid Firm to Dig Dirt on Trump

High-ranking FBI insiders are pulling back the curtain on Fusion GPS, the firm that commissioned and spread the bogus Trump dossier.

It appears the embattled intelligence firm was quite busy paying off Big Media reporters, according to federal sources who have traced dozens of transactions between TD Bank and media members as well as media organizations, sources confirm.

But stunningly, Big Media organizations have employed Fusion GPS to dig dirt on politicians and D.C.'s elite - namely Donald Trump.

'Fusion GPS was on the payroll of the media and in turn had members of the media on its payroll,' one FBI insider said.

Bombshell revelations.

FBI insiders confirm Fusion GPS employed law firms as well as shell companies to send and receive funds to and from media and reporters. But the embattled firm also used its accounts at TD Bank to directly commission reporters. Likewise, Fusion GPS received funds from media companies into its own accounts at TD Bank, FBI insiders said,

'There are dozens of payments from the media flowing into their (Fusion GPS's) account,' one federal law enforcement official said. 'One company wired funds to Fusion (GPS) more than a dozen times.'

Why would media companies commission Fusion GPS? Likely to dig dirt on enemies or secure records that reporters could not legally obtain, one federal law enforcement insider said. One FBI insider said the payments to Fusion GPS coincide with Donald Trump's run for the White House.

The payments were made between Sept. 2015 and Sept. 2017, records show.

The unthinkable: The mainstream media paying Fusion GPS for dirt on Trump to the same firm the Democratic National Committee paid to fund the bogus Trump dossier. And at the same time Fusion GPS bribing journalists to place stories â... likely negative about Trump, as well as spread the bogus Trump dossier around.

Stunning.

Was BuzzFeed â... the only company to publish the full bogus dossier â... on that list?

And who is on the payroll? We are trying to run that information down.

And why arenâ... t these people behind bars?

PROOF OBAMA AGENCIES DID Engage in â... Financially Ruinousâ... Targeting of Opposition Groups

by Cristina Laila 509mmments

- 1.5KShare
- 383Tweet
- Email

Conservative watchdog group, Judicial Watch obtained IRS documents Thursday revealing backstabber Senator John McCainâ... s former staff director urged the IRS, including the corrupt Lois Lerner to engage in â... financially ruinousâ... targeting of conservative Tea Party groups.

And they did.

The IRS Conservative Targeting Scandal involved:

- Hundreds of conservative groups were targeted
- At least 5 pro-Israel groups
- Constitutional groups
- Groups that criticized Obama administration
- At least two pro-life groups
- An 83 year-old Nazi concentration camp survivor
- A 180 year-old Baptist paper
- A Texas voting-rights group
- A Hollywood conservative group was targeted and harassed
- Conservative activists and businesses
- At least one conservative Hispanic group
- IRS continued to target groups even after the scandal was exposed
- Andâ...! 100% of the 501\(c\)\(4\) Groups Audited by IRS Were Conservative

Now thisâ...!

Via Judicial Watch:

Judicial Watch today released newly obtained internal IRS documents, including material revealing that Sen. John McCainâs former staff director and chief counsel on the Senate Homeland Security Permanent Subcommittee, Henry Kerner, urged top IRS officials, including then-director of exempt organizations Lois Lerner, to â audit so many that it becomes financially ruinous.â Kerner was appointed by President Trump as Special Counsel for the United States Office of Special Counsel.

The explosive exchange was contained in notes taken by IRS employees at an April 30, 2013, meeting between Kerner, Lerner, and other high-ranking IRS officials. Just ten days following the meeting, former IRS director of exempt organizations Lois Lerner admitted that the IRS had a policy of improperly and deliberately delaying applications for tax-exempt status from conservative non-profit groups.

Lerner and other IRS officials met with select top staffers from the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee in a â marathonâ meeting to discuss concerns raised by both Sen. Carl Levin (D-MI) and Sen. John McCain (R-AZ) that the IRS was not reining in political advocacy groups in response to the Supreme Courtâs Citizens United decision. Senator McCain had been the chief sponsor of the McCain-Feingold Act and called the Citizens United decision, which overturned portions of the Act, one of the â worst decisions I have ever seen.â

In the full notes of an April 30 meeting, McCainâs high-ranking staffer Kerner recommends harassing non-profit groups until they are unable to continue operating. Kerner tells Lerner, Steve Miller, then chief of staff to IRS commissioner, Nikole Flax, and other IRS officials, â Maybe the solution is to audit so many that it is financially ruinous.â In response, Lerner responded that â it is her job to oversee it all:â

Henry Kerner asked how to get to the abuse of organizations claiming section 501 (c)(4) but designed to be primarily political. Lois Lerner said the system works, but not in real time. Henry Kerner noted that these organizations donât disclose donors. Lois Lerner said that if they donât meet the requirements, we can come in and revoke, but it doesnât happen timely. Nan Marks said if the concern is that organizations engaging in this activity donât disclose donors, then the system doesnât work. Henry Kerner said that maybe the solution is to audit so many that it is financially ruinous. Nikole noted that we have budget constraints. Elise Bean suggested using the list of organizations that made independent expenditures. Lois Lerner said that it is her job to oversee it all, not just political campaign activity.

President of Judicial Watch, Tom Fitton had this to say about the newly obtained IRS documents showing more proof the agency was weaponized under Obama:

â... The Obama IRS scandal is bipartisan â... McCain and Democrats who wanted to regulate political speech lost at the Supreme Court, so they sought to use the IRS to harass innocent Americans. The Obama IRS scandal is not over â... as Judicial Watch continues to uncover smoking gun documents that raise questions about how the Obama administration weaponized the IRS, the FEC, FBI, and DOJ to target the First Amendment rights of Americans.â...

Government-provided legal counsel and compensation for damages, expenses, back-salaries and monies owed. To be paid by the Defendants

The Silicon Valley Tech Cartel is an anti-trust violating organized crime operation based on quid-pro-quo. They manipulated the Dept of Energy to only fund political favorites and to sabotage the competitors of those favorites in an epic violation of anti-trust and anti-racketeering laws.

Dept of Energy staff own the stock of Tesla and Solyndra - they work, in total conflict-of-interest, as slush-fund bankers for crony insiders! Steven Chu and his agency cronies defrauded all of the non-crony applicants out of their life savings and now they are getting doxed, investigated and sued forever as punishment for their corruption! the crooked senators behind this got tens of millions of dollars of dirty profits from it while their constituents got defrauded!

We are seeking compensation from the perpetrators of these financial crimes and attacks that harmed us. Victims have already gotten over 150 of them fired from their government jobs and directly sued some of them for corruption! The longer this goes unresolved: the more lawsuits and political embarrassments these crooks can count on!

Says one victim group: " If you add up all the money the Department of Energy has spent on our FOIA's, lawsuits and federal investigations since 2008 you can see that the Department of Energy has now spent more money fighting with us than the amount they would have spent simply settling with us and paying our damages. You can see in the last lawsuit we got free White House and Congressional lawyers. Lawyers love to beat up DOE for corruption for free. All those lawyers are now looking for something to do. We can keep doing this for another hundred years and embarrass every politician and their financiers forever. The Department of Energy could do the federal budget, the tax-paying public, the Court system, Justice and themselves a HUGE favor by simply paying us our damages and being done with it. We have been blockaded from getting our legal rights, from getting fair legal representation and from getting a jury trial because they know, in a fair un-rigged jury trial, we will win and they will be shamed and forced to pay up!"

A large part of the crimes involved trillions of dollars of payola involving rare earth mining schemes for minerals for cell phone and electric car components:

WITNESS STATEMENT 1:

"... this is about corruption that we experienced. it involves trillions of dollars of government monies! famous politicians partnered with corrupt crony-capitalist Silicon Valley bully tech oligarchs to do these felony dark-money crimes! if you hate injustice, collusion, monopolistic bullies and bribes then you will love this case! it is widely documented that famous politicians including Dianne Feinstein, Barack Obama, John Podesta, Nancy Pelosi and many others hire media assassins and attack operatives to covertly destroy those they do not like or those who compete with their stock market ownership. we caught the people they hired to attack us! note that in the last 2 stimulus bills, tens of billions of dollars, in California, disappeared in fraud matters connected to politicians. the facts presented here are from police and court records, congressional investigations and eye-witness reports..."

WITNESS STATEMENT 2:

*"...State sponsored hacking teams from Russia, China and Iran, ( Ie: Solarwinds, Supernova, Spectre, and hundreds of other hacks) along with thousands of bored teenagers have stolen all of the CIA, NSA and Fire Eye hacking tools and hacked 20 years of the bad guys emails, files, text messages and voicemails and sent them to the press, public-interest groups and the enemies of these oligarchs. Corruption has no place to hide now. All of the dirty secrets of their crimes, bribes and quid-pro-quo are on the table and no oligarch or crooked politician will ever be safe again! On top of the hacks and leaks, we have supported new open-source artificial-intelligence based software which operates autonomously (around-the-clock) tracking the covert cash of every politician, their family, and their tech oligarch bosses. When you follow the money with these bot programs the proof of the bribes and payola is crystal clear! These crooks all use the same group o: 1.) dirty law firms like Wilson Sonsini, Perkins Coie, etc.; 2.) corrupt CPA's like Deloitte, etc., 3.) Goldman Sachs investment bankers, 4.) bribery-based lobbyists and Media Matters/ David Plouffe-like attack operatives. See how we are taking these crooks down AT THIS LINK. ## COUNTER-MEASURES BEING TAKEN AGAINST THE PERPETRATORS:

How the "Corruption Kill Box" works: A CKB Procedure combines federal police investigations created by formal filed criminal referrals and Form 302 overview drafts, public class-action lawsuits, massive news media disclosure blasts, formal regulatory agency complaint filings, individual lawsuits against political and agency executives, documentary film production and distribution, the promotion and organization of Congressional hearings, crowd-sourced social media public forensics and open-source AI financial crimes tracking software. The procedure is an extinction-level event with a 100% success rate against corrupt entities. CKB's only work on the corrupt, so non corrupt parties are safe from it's effects. ANY member of the public can engage in these totally legal anti-corruption actions. Just do it! - <http://www.the-truth-about-the-dept-of-energy.com>

VICTIM REPORT #142:

An Actual Example Of A State-Sponsored Vendetta Attack:

In the case of one victim of this corruption, letâ... s call him â... Applicant Aâ... , the dirty deeds of public officials are illuminated in all of their darkest forms. He saw, first-hand, how modern politics turns public servants into criminal mobsters. Here is what was in his FBI report:

In college, "Applicant A" was a criminology student on the multi-campus â... Core Curriculumâ... which was offered through Stanford, SFSU and Berkeley campuses. He lived in San Francisco, with a woman who was the best friend of Kathryn Feinstein, daughter of the future mayor of San Francisco. The womanâ... s mother, in fact, worked for Dianne Feinstein. Kathryn Feinstein often stayed at "Applicant A"â... s home and partied there in the hot tub in the back yard and in the downstairs living room. There she told tales and gossip about the deep inside scoop on San Francisco politics. This led to "Applicant A"â... s recording and production of an award-winning investigative film series about the characters in San Francisco politics.

Mayor George Moscone was then assassinated one day while â... Applicant Aâ... was on his way to City Hall for a meeting at the Mayorâ... s office. This assassination made Diane Feinstein the Mayor of San Francisco and, later, a U.S. Senator.

As further proof of the connection, Mayor Feinstein issued a large published City Hall proclamation to â... Applicant Aâ... for his work on a major project for the City of San Francisco, a tribute to George Moscone, viewed by millions of citizens and also had â... Applicant Aâ... produce many socialite events at City Hall for, and with, the Mayorâ... s friend Charlotte Maillard.

â... Applicant Aâ... knew hundreds of top political officials, dated top officials from the White House or Congress and was constantly being solicited to run for office.

"Applicant A" was one of two producerâ... s creating a major event for The City but a rift developed between "Applicant A" and another group. The opposing group (Comprised of competitors to â... Applicant Aâ... ) were being accused of embezzling civic funds. That other group was headed by two personal friends of Diane Feinsteinâ... s. The failures of the opposition group became national news as it was also backed by David Rockefellerâ... s money man, who also financed Diane Feinstein.

At this time "Applicant A", had numerous law enforcement and intelligence credentials, commendations and certifications and was approached to assist with a sting operation involving some of those officials. The sting operation required that "Applicant A" run for a major office in San Francisco because only a major candidate could have access to the proper people, information and proximity needed for such an operation. Department of Justice, FBI, California Fair Political Practices Commission and other entities had an interest in these task force-type efforts. The combined efforts resulted in one famous City Hall official being arrested for running an underage prostitution ring for San Francisco public officials, co-managed by a SFPD official, and another candidate for mayor, associated with the old school North Beach mob, being run out of politics and having his young daughter removed by the police to protect her from attempted abuse. Both of the indicted officials had close relationships with Diane Feinstein.

"Applicant A" ran the opening ceremonies of one of David Rockefeller's big projects in San Francisco which Rockefeller, Feinstein and James Bronkema were key players in. James Bronkema, The head of the City business council, had his mistress intermediate a potential peace treaty between "Applicant A" and his Cartel. He later sought to invite "Applicant A" into the Bay Area political Cartel he ran and disclosed the insider scheme to "Applicant A", hoping to entice him. Bay Area VC Tom Perkins also made "Applicant A" this offer and confirmed the existence, operation and scope of this Cartel which included famous politicians.

Subsequently, the Feinstein family became the investors, government financial agent, contractors, HR providers, staffing liaison, and friends for Elon Musk and managed the State and Federal gifts of billions of dollars of tax payer funds to Musk, which the Feinstein family profited from.

At the same time, "Applicant A" was operating a U.S. Government funded electric vehicle manufacturing company and an energy production company that competed with Elon Musk's companies. "Applicant A" contacted the Fremont, California NUMMI plant which Elon Musk had publicly stated he had no use for NUMMI. "Applicant A" had been in negotiations and had arranged the first request to re-task NUMMI. A major Washington DC consulting group and CBS News 60 Minutes Producer: Bob Simon, then had communications with Diane Feinstein's Chief of Staff who threatened "Applicant A" against having anything to do with the NUMMI plant. Subsequently Elon Musk announced he had stepped back in and was taking over the NUMMI plant in a surprise announcement made, in person by Diane Feinstein, whose family was managing the leasing, hiring and contracting for the NUMMI and next door Solyndra buildings.

It turned out that a large rare earth minerals mining scam was underway to manipulate TRILLIONS of dollars of corrupt mining profits and federal tax dollars and that "Applicant A" federally funded technology obsoleted that plan.

Just after Russia evacuated Afghanistan, a particular set of Russian geological survey reports called: The Afghan Metals Treasure Maps were found by CIA researchers in Kabul. They were said to show where many trillions of dollars worth of copper, lithium, indium and other rare earth technology minerals were hidden in the Afghan plains.

That lithium and indium could power Elon Musk's cars and Solyndra, Fisker's, Abound's Cleantech (if only a certain group of Silicon Valley billionaires had a way to monopolize that...hmmmm?) But; were those Treasure Maps a trick or a treat?

To this day, controversy exists across the intelligence communities, of many nations, about whether, or not, those maps were a scam created to trick the American's or the actual locations of trillions of dollars of mining deals that were antibody's for the taking. The papers that the CIA geologists pulled out of that archival library in Kabul, Afghanistan still read to be a bit too convenient for what happened next. Decades later, after an invasion or two, and vast expenditures of cash, political capitol and lives, very little of the promised golden mining treasure has materialized. What has materialized is epic corruption, political payola, campaign secrets, deaths and controversy.

Goldman Sachs, McKinsey Consulting and Deloitte helped a few rogue CIA buddies distribute a huge number of white papers and press releases which used the buzz words: "Trillions of dollars of lithium in Afghanistan" and "Afghanistan is the Saudi Arabia of Lithium". Why would those particular companies put so much effort into hyping a pile of dirt on the other side of the planet? Because their investors (John Doerr, Elon Musk, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Steve Westly, etc.) had a quid pro quo deal with some members of The White House.

"Applicant A" had received a Congressional commendation, federal funding under contract to The Department of Energy and famous seminal patent awards for his work in the electric vehicle technologies; now used in the Honda, Toyota and Hyundai cars.

Subsequently, the FBI discovered (confirmed via a declassified congressional report) that Daniel Jones, a former intelligence committee staffer for Sen. Dianne Feinstein, hired Fusion GPS and Christopher Steele to push the Russian story and used Fusion GPS, and other services to put hit-jobs on people for Feinstein. Additionally, the FBI discovered that high level Chinese spies worked for Feinstein, including driving her around and that her husband's partner: Mart Bailey, was in China setting up deals that the CIA was concerned about. Fusion GPS, Media Matters, Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media Google and Youtube were subsequently found to have been hired by "a famous politician" to operate over $30M of character assassination reprisal media defamation attacks against "Applicant A" to punish him for helping law enforcement in these cases. It is well known that Feinstein, Pelosi, Harris, Reid and other Senators commonly use intelligence agency resources and "dirty tricks" to attack citizens they are mad at.

"Applicant A" and his co-workers were cooperating with agency investigations at this time. In order to discourage, threaten and intimidate "Applicant A", he and his peers were attacked with the aforementioned $30M state-sponsored reprisal attack which included the following attack tactics:

- 1.) Defrauding Applicants via fake government requests to invest in rigged government contracts;
- 2.) Placing moles and spying inside Applicant's companies;
- 3.) Blockading legal counsel for plaintiffs;
- 4.\) Character assassination and sophisticated contracted defamation media attacks;
- 5.) Offshore factory processed social media attacks;
- 6.) Government benefits from SSA, HUD, etc, blockades and manipulations;
- 7.) Jobs and venture capital funding blacklisting;
- 8.) FOIA obfuscation for official government FOIA filings;
- 9.) Arbitrary government deadline manipulation for SSA, DOE, HUD and other applications;
- 10.) Creation of endless fake hurdles in agency applications (ie: DOE) to protect rigged "winners";

- 11.) Toxic workplace poisonings like the Salisbury, Nalvany, Litvinenko poisonings;
- 12.) Workplace sabotage and obstruction of Applicant's companies;
- 13.) Media defamation attacks via Gawker, Gizmodo, Jalopnik, Google, Youtube, etc.;
- 14.) Commercial employment database "lois lerner-ing" and red-flagging;
- 15.) Murders of peers (ie: Rajeev Motwani, Seth Rich, Gary D. Conley and 120+ others);
- 16.) Revenue blockades and internet income re-direction;
- 17.) Troll farm attack teams hired from Chinese attack farms;
- 18.) Fusion GPS, Media Matters, David Plouffe attack contracts issued targeting whistle-blowers;
- 19.) Manual search engine lock-in attacks on Google, YouTube, LinkedIn;
- 20.) U.S. patent office manipulation to blockade revenue;
- 21.) Honey-traps sent out targeting the whistle-blowers;
- 22.) Fake news tabloid empires created just for defamation attacks;
- 23.) Housing access and financing blockades created to reprisal harass whistle-blowers;
- 24.) Ongoing hacking of plaintiffs devices;
- 25.) Tech industry black-list coordination within the National Venture Capital Association;
- 26.) HUD and USDA mortgage rights blockades;
- 27.) DNS and IP routing manipulation to prevent victims from selling anything online;
- 28.) Digital attacks designed to put horrific fake news about target in front of 7.5 billion people...

and more spy agency type "dirty tricks" that cost the victims their lives, life savings, income and other disabling losses...

The Department Of Energy (DOE) acts under White House orders to only give money to White House political financiers and sabotage the competitors of those political insiders. DOE says they don't do what David Axelrod, Rahm Emanuel, or the latest Oval Office lackey, tells them to do, but by now everyone knows that assertion is a complete and total lie!

Some of the people that laid siege to Congress at the start of 2021 believed they were â... doing the right thingâ... , others thought they were insane. Department of Energy staff are just as â... insaneâ... in that they are hired to lie, cheat and manipulate funding in order to help their political favorites and harm the competitors to those â... favoritesâ... who they perceive as political â... enemiesâ... . Department of Energy staff are as devoted to cronyism as an ISIS attacker is to sawing off someone's head with his knife. Neither of them perceive themselves as â... crazy zealotsâ... , both groups think they are â... doing the right thingâ... , but those on the outside can see the truth.

When an Applicant for government funding receives a letter simply stating that their loan application under the Advanced Technology Vehicles Manufacturing (ATVM), LGP, Battery funds, etc. or other Program, has been rejected it is because the Applicant did not bribe the right people. Bright Automotive famously published a national letter about how the Dept of Energy had lied to them. XP sued the Dept of Energy for corruption and won. Congress has held ongoing hearings about the corruption and payola at the Department of Energy.

No logical reasons are ever given in the DOE letters and only after several attempts at phoning the Department of Energy office can you ever get the so-called "reasons" orally. You may never receive the reasons in writing. Over a hundred Applicants like Bright, Zap, Brammo, EcoMotors, XP Vehicles, Elio, Lordstown and others have been lied to, led down the garden path, stone-walled, delayed and sabotaged in order to protect political insiders Tesla, Solyndra, Abound, Brightsource and other White House financiers.

One could understand a rejection if the reasons given were applicable to an Applicant's actual loan application. However, in each case, they were not. Many reasons did not even reflect what was included in the Applicant's submissions if the Applicant was a competitor to Elon Musk. Department of Energy staff simply made up data that was not even submitted in order to help Tesla and harm Bright Automotive, for example. In many cases a rejected electric car Applicant was told that their car "did not use enough gasoline" or that their windmill project used "too much sun" or similar nonsense.

All of Steven Chu's Department of Energy staff were friends of, investors in, or associates of Elon Musk's Cartel. They stayed on, many of them even still in place in 2021, waiting for Jennifer Granholm to get in and start the old Chu regime back up to hand out cash to the insiders from the Silicon Valley Mafia. In each case, after several attempts at receiving more clarification from the Dept of Energy and ATVM offices, no one from DOE has been in further contact with any outsider Applicant. For years, each Applicant is still requesting additional information about their loan applications and more applicable reasons for rejections.

Most of the competitors to Elon Musk, had cars that could go further than a Tesla, cost up to 80% less than a Tesla, used no gasoline, were easier to repair and build than a Tesla, saved your life better than a Tesla in a crash, didn't blow up like a Tesla, did not get hacked as easy as a Tesla, were faster on torque-factors than a Tesla, were not about to go bankrupt like Elon Musk was at the time, did not require an extension cord to trip over like Tesla does, did not rely on foreign labor like Tesla did, did not have the horrific debt ratio that Tesla had, did not cause genocide and rape around the globe in corrupt lithium and cobalt child labor camps like Elon Musk did and, generally had every advantage over Tesla except: 1.) the Elon Musk partnership that Musk had with Dianne Feinstein's family and the 2.) conduit of cash between Musk and political candidates.

Most of the other Applicant's had thousands of customers lined up who wanted to buy their unique and very "green" cars. The public were eager to buy their products but those products were better and more competitive than Elon Musk's. If you line up every Applicant's merits in a spreadsheet, the DOE winners would lose. The metrics were ignored or rigged in order to favor Tesla and Solyndra and harm outsiders who competed with them.

One of the rejection reasons that DOE gave an Applicant was that their car "did not use E85 gasoline". It was an ELECTRIC CAR which uses NO gasoline which one would think that an Obama Administration had as a goal our country should want to attain. Crony insiders Tesla Motors and Fisker also used no gasoline and they were handed the DOE funds with almost no scrutiny. At no point was E85 gasoline ever mentioned, discussed, commented on or requested by DOE. In fact the topic was particularly avoided by DOE staff.

Another reason an Applicant (XP Vehicles) was given was that that "they were not planning on making millions of cars." Any intelligent auto industry expert knows you have to ramp up production from a few thousand cars in order to get to a few million cars. The Department of Energy was not offering enough money to start making millions of cars right out of the gate. No car company EVER FUNDED by the Dept of Energy, to this day, has ever been capable of making millions of cars from the get go. In fact, XP, who proposed 50,000 vehicles, turned out to be EXACTLY correct based on industry history. Dept of Energy reviewers turned out to be EXACTLY wrong on their comments...or they were making things up to protect Musk. The rejection point was that Applicants were not planning to make enough cars. This was a false statement by DOE. The company would like to build and sell more cars than any other car company. They were fully willing to produce millions of vehicles if provided with the appropriate funding as they quantified millions of fleet buyers for its vehicles. No DOE entity ever asked them to adjust, discuss or amend their numbers. They were more than willing to adjust those numbers if anyone had even bothered to ask. One must start out with small steps and were planned to ramp up to a massive number over time. To suggest that one do otherwise would demonstrate questionable judgment by DOE reviewers. The validity of this comment was based on either lies or manipulated interpretations by DOE staff designed to harm Applicant ratings over Musk.

Applicant XP, whose business plan was based on selling vehicles to the government was told they were rejected by DOE because they were â... .. not planning to sell cars to the governmentâ... .. That determination was 100% false. It was a bald faced lie by Department of Energy staff. It was clearly stated in XPâ... .. s application that the core sales plan of the company is based on government fleet sales. The Dept of Defense wanted a particular light-weight version of the XP car for air-dropped rescues. One cannot help but wonder if DOE even read the applications or just rubber-stamped all non-crony applications as â... .. rejectedâ... ..

In another example of a failure to read the applications, The Dept of Energy asserted that factory cost estimates were too low because â... .. the metal body fabrication systemsâ... .. were not calculated high enough. The Applicant did not use much metal fabrication in its bodies, which Dept of Energy staff would have known if they had even read the first page of the application.

Banks and every other business lender takes a few weeks to decide on business funding. The Dept of Energy stonewalled Applicants for YEARS and received numerous write-ups from the GAO as one of the most screwed up organizations in Washington DC.

DOE reviewers never even talked to the founders, inventor, engineers, project leads or primary contractors from non crony Applicants. Outsider Applicants were even told, over and over again, that everything in their application was good and that no additional information was needed. This is despite the fact that the reasons given for outsider rejections did not reflect the technology being used and therefore the ATVM reviewers did not understand our concept and product. Tesla Motors received over 100 hours of staff meetings and attention to guide them through the DOE. Non-crony Applicant's got zero help.

It was discovered that McKinsey Consulting was hired to write all of the global white-papers designed to promote the Cleantech investors stock market holdings. They were also hired to staff the Department of Energy entirely with Elon Musk's and Solyndra's friends. They were also the lobbying consultants to Google, Facebook and the Silicon Valley Cartel.

After nearly a year of waiting, accompanied by written, verbal and in-person DOE proclamations that â... .. everything was fineâ... .. , â... .. everything is on-trackâ... .. , â... .. you appear to meet every criteriaâ... .. , etc. and after staff expended the majority of their personal funds based on these positive assertions, the applications were suddenly and mysteriously rejected. Why was staff at DOE during the course of the year, positive about the outcome and never asked for additional information? It was because they all knew, from December 2008 forward, that only those friends on a secret insiders list were ever going to be approved. Every other "Applicant A" was being defrauded and used as a smoke screen to make it look like things were â... .. in processâ... .. . Applicant's were promised, assured and relied on "things are looking good" statements from Dept of Energy staff who were lying. Dept of Energy staff knew from December of 2008 that the money was hard-wired for Tesla and a couple of others.

At the start of the DOE application process DOE's Lachlan Seward, Matt Rogers, Steven Chu, Kathy Zoi, Carol Battershal, and ALL of the senior DOE staff told each Applicant that the review would "be very interactive"... but there was no interaction for non-crony outsiders while Elon Musk and Solyndra folks, who applied later, were reviewed earlier, had hundreds of hours of in-person hand-holding interaction with DOE and had already been awarded their funds. No outsiders got any of this help or "interaction"...

Rejection comments supplied by Chris Foster of DOE seemed to be unrelated to the business of each rejected company and had no foundation in fact. It was as if Dept of Energy staff would make anything up to keep competitors against Silicon Valley political campaign financiers from getting to market.

Rejected Applicants provided $100 million+ of asset collateral opportunity for only a $40M loan. To repeat, non-crony "Applicant A"s provided over TWICE the collateral of the value of the loan. How is this not as secure of a structure as any of the other Applicants. Elon Musk did not have any collateral like this!

Tesla was in such bad trouble that they had to borrow money from the Middle East and Detroit in order to temporarily cook their books so that DOE could release their cash. In reality, Tesla is a book-cooking stock market valuation manipulation operation and not a car company, as such.

The Department of Energy determined that three of the Applicant's were "most likely" to obsolete and put Elon Musk's company out of business because they beat the competitive metrics factors for price, range, safety, cost-to-produce...literally, THEY BEAT MUSK ON EVERYTHING! Department of Energy staff are beholden to Elon Musk and HIS political financiers so they could not let any competitors into the market. The Department of Energy is the gate-keeper of who gets to exist in the American auto industry according to Elon Musk's own marketing director: Daryl Sirry. No American bank or VC will finance a car company without DOE insider say-so. The Department of Energy blockades funding for those who directly might compete with Elon Musk because they get paid by Elon Musk and his financiers with stock, jobs, perks, political appointments, etc.

DOE top staff told Applicants that if they paid $50,000.00 then they could get a full review. One Applicant got investors to fund the $50K fee. The investors agreed if a DOE staffer would tell them once on the phone or email that that was the case. The (lying bastard) DOE staffer (Foster) refused to come to the phone or reply to any fedex or email until an hour after the deadline to wire the fee, even though he was recorded in his office, hiding from the calls. The staffer then sent an email saying "you missed the deadline to pay the fee, you are rejected", even though he had organized the missing of the fee by refusing any communication that he promised, in writing, to have with the investors who were to pay the fee. Elon Musk did not have to pay the fee until much later after Tesla got caught not paying the fee.

The state is wielding extraordinary power these days "power to close businesses, to directly impact people's livelihoods and even lives" and so it owes it to the public to disclose how and why it makes those decisions that appear to only benefits campaign financiers and insiders. Hiding the identities and processes of the Department of Energy reviewers is a criminal act.

This secrecy is exactly the wrong approach here and will only breed further mistrust, confusion and contempt for the crucial role of government in bringing alternative energy vehicles to market.

Dept of Energy reviewers told non-crony Applicants that "electric motors and batteries were considered" by the DOE reviewers to be "too futuristic of a technology and not developed for commercial use even though they have been in use in over 40 industries for over 20 years, including by NASA. By the way, Tesla, Nissan and Fisker used the same exact electric motors. What was the rationale for this DOE argument aside from cronyism? In the case of XP, every part of the XP car was to be purchased from existing commercial sources with multiple points of supply, so it is not possible to see how a reviewer might think the vehicle had any significant technical acquisition hurdles. Over 100 major supplier companies, that have been building parts for the auto, aerospace and industry for decades) were to deliver the component parts for XP Vehicles. The U.S. Congress said that the primary purpose of this loan program was to develop advanced technology and further reduce U.S. dependence on gasoline. The non crony car "Applicant A"s used no gasoline and got over 125 miles per battery charge. How is the DOE claim that electric cars are not compliant not in direct conflict with the precepts of the Section 136 law?

DOE staff would constantly â... Lois Lernerâ... (or lose) non-crony Applicants paperwork. A DOE staffer named Brent even revealed that Lachlan Seward had ordered some documents shredded for cover-up purposes. Congressional investigations have documented hundreds of such corruption actions at DOE.

Soâ...! we thought: â... How could the U.S. Government engage in such insane criminal bull shit?â...

So, we legally acquired the public Office Of Personnel Management records, social media postings, LinkedIn records, FOIA revelations, voting and contribution records of every Department of Energy contractor and employee who had even the most remote contact with the funding process, from 2008 forward...and LOOKIE, LOOKIE! We have not been able to find a single one of them who was not financially involved with the handful of people who got they Dept of Energy funds. They were the most insider-trading, conflict-of-interest based, sleeping-with-the-recipient bunch of crooks and liars you could ever find. Why is the Dept of Energy allowed to hire only their friends and insider trading associates? Why is every office at DOE not required to have a 50/50 staff mix? The deciders and lobbyists are connected by sexual culture and greed and defrauded each of the non-crony people who they induced to apply. The Department of Energy knew from Dec. 1, 2008 that nobody was ever going to get Dept of Energy funding except the previously hard-wired crony insiders. Each "Applicant A" who was not an insider lost millions of dollars and years of their lives because of the lies of the U.S. Department of Energy. The Department of Energy has never apologized or paid their bills for the damages!

"Applicant A", at this time, discovered that he had been exposed to toxic materials, possibly intentionally as â... political poisoningâ... (ie: The Salisbury Poisonings and the Alexander Litvinenko poisoning), as a reprisal tactic, from his work with the Department of Energy and Kaiser laboratories. "Applicant A" filed for his benefit rights,, which he had full credits for, but political officials from Senate offices ordered those funds frozen and used intelligence agency dirty tricks to manipulate and alter government records. The â... Solarwindsâ... , â... Supernovaâ... , â... Spectreâ... and hundreds of other hacks show that the very servers that "Applicant A"â... s records were on were, in fact, penetrated.

Agency staffers manipulated Applicantâ... s filed benefits applications with SSA, HUD and other agencies, in order to cut off their funds in reprisal for assistance in corruption investigations.

Congressional officials then assisted some of the whistle-blowers and their peers with a first-ever federal anti-corruption lawsuit. This case set many new legal precedents. The victims team won the lawsuit proving that government agencies â... infected by corruptionâ... had manipulated, blockaded and stone-walled the Applicant's government funding.

These citizens instigated Congressional corruption investigations and hearings against the most senior members of the State and Federal government. These actions resulted in the termination of very famous public officials and their crony criminal embezzlement scams and almost resulted in the President being forced to leave office, mid-term, based on revelations of a massive crony kick-back scheme which began to be exposed after the FBI raid of Solyndra. The director of the FBI was fired for assisting in cover-ups related to this matter.

It was revealed that White House executives ordered government agencies to harm members of the public and to reprisal with-hold public resources from the public. This was a violation of tort, RICO and anti-trust laws.

The victims fought back.

They used 100% legal tools to interdict the corruption.

First, with a unique new kind of pioneering federal lawsuit, victims established â... FOR THE FIRST TIME IN LEGAL HISTORY â... that political cronyism is a valid basis for a claim of arbitrary-and-capricious agency action under the Administrative Procedure Act. See: Federal Case One, (D.D.C. 2015).

Second, they prevailed in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit on their appeal of the district court's ruling that an agency may escape judicial review of its action by requesting a voluntary remand but refusing to reconsider its initial denial of an application. See: Case Federal Two, (D.C. Cir. 2017). The Washington DC Circuit agreed with the victims that an agency may only seek a remand if it promises to reconsider its initial decision. It is because of that victory that the government, under court order is now re-doing the victims applications and GAO, FBI, IG's and Congressional oversight offices are watching to assure effective ethics and transparency.

Third, these cases placed, on permanent public record, one of the most detailed documentation sets, ever assembled, about how modern political "Dark Money" conduits operate. The legal team hired ex-FBI, CIA and SEC experts to track down covert bank accounts, revolving door bribes, insider stock trades and other payola between the victim's competitors and public officials. This documentation now prevents the use of those kinds of criminal efforts, in the future, by exposing their tactics to the public.

Fourth, the victim's team engaged in the interdiction and termination of corrupt agency executives, contractors and their financiers. This included some of the most well-known names in Washington, DC, at the time. Many of them were, and are still being, investigated and surveilled by the FBI, GAO, SEC and Congress.

Fifth, and most important, the effort put every corrupt political scheme on notice that they WILL be found out and interdicted!

The bottom line? The victims group WON on every single aspect of their public-interest goals but still have yet to be recompensed for their damages!

Now the "bad guys" have less options to engage in the corruption of our Democracy!

Not only did the Department of Energy engage in reprisal attacks. SSA staff and officials from the SSA have been shown to have run political reprisals on "Applicant A". History has shown that some Bay Area SSA staff since 2007 have gone on to work for politicians in dispute with "Applicant A" or for ANTIFA-like political activism groups that advocate attacks. SSA has been forced to remove at least four officials from their SSA jobs and more are under investigation. Dianne Feinstein, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris, Harry Reid and other Senators have the staff and power to manipulate any SSA, HUD, CMA, DOE and other agency decisions, files, results and benefits against any citizen they are pissed of at. All of those Senators own the stock market assets of all of the competitors to "Applicant A" and have the owners of those competing companies over to parties and home dinners on a regular basis.

Nearly a thousand public officials including White House, FBI (and other agency most senior officials) have been removed from their jobs for using the government for revenge, reprisal, retaliation actions against those they competed with. The published facts, Congressional reports, Inspector General investigations and testimony prove that government officials attack citizens on a regular basis.

In the event of â... Applicant Aâ... â... s death an â... insurance policyâ... of devastating encrypted files has been pre- distributed to certain reporter and legal groups.

WITNESS STATEMENT #4:

"...the 2008 and 2020 "stimulus funds" are quid pro quo scams to pay off political insiders. We reported these crimes (with FBI-class evidence) to every law enforcement agency in writing ( FBI, DOJ, SEC, IG, FTC, OSC, FEC, etc.). apparently, citizens are ignored if the crimes involve politicians and their billionaires. the cover-ups are off-the-charts! these mobsters (Google, Tesla, Facebook, LinkedIn, Netflix, In-q-tel, Kleiner Perkins, Greylock, etc; acting in a coordinated, collusion-based, operation) are paying billions of dollars of political bribes (...via cash, real estate, sex trafficking, pacs, search engine rigging, crony jobs, biased censoring, campaign funds, stock market manipulations, ukrainian money laundering, etc.) to delay justice and blockade our, and your, rights! There can be no question about the fact that Google, Facebook, Netflix, Tesla and the Silicon Valley Cartel control the Obama and Biden White House. For example: Elon Musk ordered the politicians who are his bitches to sabotage his competitors. He gave those political insiders: cash, stock in his cartel, revolving-door jobs, campaign funding, sex workers, off-shore money laundering, and other quid pro quo. Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Mark Zuckerberg, and the rest of the tech mob, all worked together on these crimes. The hacks and leaks of their documents prove it. Government agency bosses are covering up these crimes to protect their jobs and their corrupt stock market holdings. Musk and Goldman Sachs have gotten over FIFTEEN BILLION DOLLARS of free taxpayer cash and monopolized exclusives to pay for Musk's drugs, sex parties and mansions. This is one of the largest violations of anti-trust laws in history. The politicians and agencies that are supposed to stop him are getting money from him. Musk exists entirely from quid pro quo bribes! Musk's banks, including Deutsche Bank, have had to pay more than $100 million to settle charges related to violating anti-bribery laws and engaging in money laundering. While the Musk-controlled media bloviate on the god-like image of Musk, he and his buddies are just crooks and mobsters. It is now almost impossible for the public to reach any media source that is not controlled by the Silicon Valley Cartel via synchronized talking points. Politicians who say that their only motivation is to "save" the helpless billionaire Elon Musk and his unicorns: 1.) sabotage any companies who are not making Tesla's, 2.) have sex with Tesla lobbyists and bankers, 3.) own the stock in Tesla Motors, 4.) are venture capital partners in Kleiner Perkins (ie: Gore) and Greylock capital insiders, 5.) trade revolving door jobs with the Elon Musk cartel, 6.) gave Musk over $15B of free taxpayer money, 7.) get campaign financing from Musk, 8.) order government agencies to freeze funding for Musk's competitors, 9.) and engage in a vast number of other corruption and anti-trust crimes.

Politicians talk a big game about coming down on the Silicon Valley Cartel but they never really seem to move on their threats or declarations because they are receiving bribes FROM the Silicon Valley Cartel.

It has been proven that Google does indeed pick and choose what search results come up at the top of every search in order to help Google's friends and harm Google's enemies. Google, Facebook, Netflix and Tesla covertly spend billions of dollars influencing Congress.

The monopoly of the Silicon Valley Cartel is distinct and different from somebody like the New York Times, for example, or any major media platform that does not have legal immunity because they are publishers. All other publishers do pick and choose what news stories they publish, what letters to the editorâ... s are printed, what kind of op-eds are put on their platform, and they make those decisions knowing they are legally liable. Google bribed the 230 law into existence as an exclusive law just for Google to get away with crimes.

Via agreements to collude, the Silicon Valley Cartel platforms are acting as publishers as they are making editorial decisions while maintaining a legal immunity under section 230 which allows them to attack others without consequences. Google has parties and members of congress will go and pick up their checks. Facebook will have a big reception and Congress members go and say "hey, whereâ... s my check?"â... . That is outright bribery! READ THIS LINK: How Silicon Valley, in a Show of Monopolistic Force, Destroys Competitors.pdf The reason no one is acting on big tech is that the companies are inviting our elected members of congress into their very deep pockets. This is a massive abuse of power on several levels and if our elected officials canâ... t resist the temptation of extra money in their pockets, then they need to be removed by recall elections, lawsuits and doxing.... "

WITNESS STATEMENT #5:

"...they stole our lives - now we are taking their entire cartel down...without breaking a single law! Hundreds of public officials, at famous government agencies, and dozens of sociopath billionaires are profiteering in these crimes. they are blocking our requests for justice. they are running felony cover-ups to protect their sinister dark money scams. the public is sick and tired of their criminal corruption. attached to this site you will find millions of pages of evidence from federal investigators and top reporters proving each assertion herein. (ie: HTTP://WWW.THE-TRUTH-ABOUT-THE-DEPT-OF-ENERGY.COM)

These felony crimes affect every citizen in the nation. The public must demand new laws to make bribery via stock market securities and 'revolving doors' have a mandatory and severe prison sentence with no more loop-holes for politicians! these tech oligarchs and dirty senators need to be arrested by the fbi and by citizen arrest! none of these scum-bags should ever be allowed to be "white house advisors" again! 98% of the politicians, and their family members, that own stock, use it as payment for bribes, payola and corruption. how can you trust any politician whose family makes most of their money off of stocks they are making the laws for? forbid any politicians from owning stock! Each voter should sue each politician that engages in corruption! That will solve the problem!..."

DEMANDS:

OUR PERSONAL DEMAND TO THE PRESIDENT, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, THE FBI DIRECTOR, THE INSPECTOR GENERAL AND CONGRESS:

"...WE DEMAND PAYMENT FROM THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AND THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR OUR DAMAGES, FEES, BACK-PAY AND STATE-CAUSED LOSSES FROM THIS POLITICAL CORRUPTION AND THE RELATED COVER-UPS AND PROVEN HIT-JOBS THAT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS OPERATED. POLITICIANS DEFRAUDED US OUT OF OUR LIFE SAVINGS THROUGH THEIR ORGANIZED CRIME SCAMS USING GOVERNMENT RESOURCES.

Financial investigator Jim Mintz, GAO and FBI forensic analysts and hundreds of others have proven that Senators and White House bosses gave their friends Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Mark Zuckerberg, Elon Musk and their other political financiers over $45 BILLION dollars of free taxpayer-funded cash. The politicians owned profits in those oligarch's companies and put over $200M of dirty profits in their covert family bank accounts. Those politicians (ie; Feinstein, Harris, Reid, Pelosi, etc.) cut off our funds, benefits and human rights, and ran media attacks on us (we are the competitors of those oligarchs), to protect their corrupt profiteering scams. Their companies had crappier products, that killed or abused more Americans, that cost more, that avoided giving Americans jobs, that had racist and sex abusing cultures and that relied on payola and quid-pro-quo...they got the money because they paid bribes and for no other reason... " Schmidt, Page, Zuckerberg, Musk, etc. each spend over $500M per election to manipulate elections! How much does the average citizen get to spend to steer election results? How much do you spend to rig elections? Is it right, or fair, that a crooked billionaire gets to buy elections with covert money while you, the public, languishes?

Every politician who was supposed to be helping us was an owner of our competitors, having sex with our competitors, running a Dark Money payola scam with our competitors and attacking us using taxpayer money. Their leaked emails and financial records prove it!

The victims were specifically and illegally excluded from participation in funding, benefits, jobs and income by major political figures, including U.S. Senators and White House executives who they knew, and those politician's corrupt Silicon Valley oligarch financiers. The tech Cartel and politicians attacked the victims because they would not cooperate with the crooked: sex trafficking, tax evasion, off-shore money laundering, political bribery quid-pro-quo, revolving door payola scams, foreign nation-sponsored domestic manipulations, stock market rigging, internet censorship and search engine manipulation and other crimes. They attacked the victims because they reported the crimes to federal police. They attacked the victims because their products obsoleted the products the Senators owned the stock of (ie: Tesla, Google, Facebook, Netflix are covertly owned by California politicians). They attacked the victims using taxpayer-funded state resources. That is a felony violation of the law. The ongoing cover-up of these crimes and attacks is also a felony violation of the law. The victims their are owed damages compensation, witness fees and back-pay. Multiple Inspector General hearings, Congressional hearings and undercover videos have proven, beyond a doubt, that public officials order reprisal hit-jobs on citizens funding, SSA benefits, housing, permits, government applications and other things in order to harm them as political revenge for speaking out!

Federal investigators have proven (via records-tracking, financial data, surveillance, insider tips, leaks, etc.) that White House executives, government agency executives (SSA, LSC, DOE, USPTO, etc.) and California political bosses, including California U.S. Senators, owned interests in the victims competitors worth many billions of dollars. Any citizen can confirm these assertions via public records and the evidence in this report. The FBI has been arresting major political figures in this organized crime ring in San Francisco City Hall. Those government officials ordered, financed and executed whistle-blower reprisals and anti-trust violating attacks on the victims using state-sponsored, taxpayer-funded resources. Using government resources, they engaged in the illegal reprisal attacks on the victims. Those harms are listed in detail in the claim section of the filed Victim Demand entitled: â... The Specific Attacks And Harms Undertaken Against Plaintiffsâ... .

Corrupt government officials manipulated SSA, HHS, DOE, USPTO, DOJ, and other agency, payments, funds, benefits and rights in order to harm and economically damage the victims. They produced and financed a massive media defamation campaign using their Paypal Mafia-based â... Silicon Valley Cartelâ... . This â... Cartelâ... : 1.) finances the political campaigns of the Senators and the other politicians that own stock in their Silicon Valley dirty tech companies, 2.) is the competitor of the victims, 3.) shared staff with the named politicians, 4.) is the nearly exclusive beneficiary of policy actions by those politicians, and 5.) has a massive number of conflict-of-interest relationships with each of the charged politicians. The victims reported the attackers crimes to the FBI, DOJ, IG and other officials and got attacked for reporting the crimes, for busting up the organized crime effort and for running companies whose product technologies obsoleted those of the tech Cartel. The victims are claiming their rights to their damages and fee compensation, but those same public figures have blocked them from an equitable jury trial to address the matter. The government has provided the attacker/political campaign financiers/competitors of the victims with tens of billions of dollars of free government cash yet the victims have gotten nothing but grief from the public officials who are supposed to help them because a criminal cover-up is in process. The politicians who got those â... bad guysâ... that free taxpayer-provided money, own the stock of those criminalâ... s companies, are best friends with those oligarchs and are politically financed by those corrupt players. This organized crime cartel operates the most audacious and corrupt scheme in American political history.

No public official should hire, and seek to replicate, the entire crony corruption payola staff from the Obama Administration. Nobody who owns stock in, or has revolving door payola from, Silicon Valley tech weasels should EVER be allowed to work in our government. Those officials only made policy that put cash in their stock market accounts and were extremely corrupt; at the expense of every member of the public!

In addition to the above, agency bosses changed federal criteria from "first-to-apply/first-come-first-served" to "who-are-friends-are" in order to let their friends in line for funding ahead of everyone that applied first.

In order to manipulate the stock market and create a monopoly, Google/YouTube hyped Google insider Elon Musk and hid all of his competitors. Google/YouTube also accepted payments in order to run attack videos and character assassinations on his competitors, some of which were paid for by politicians who owned Google/Tesla stock. Those politicians got Musk and Larry Page government cash hand-outs! Google/Youtube manually manipulates servers to help friends and destroy competitors.

NOTICE TO THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS:

JENNIFER GRANHOLM: FIX THE CORRUPT CRONY CAPITALISM QUID-PRO-QUO PAYOLA AT THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY. DON'T BE PART OF IT AGAIN!

Part of the staff at the U.S. Department of Energy are political fan-girl zealots who will lie, stone-wall, cheat, shred, manipulate and defraud in order to exploit their political cause and advance their careers. They will do anything to help their "girlfriends": Elon Musk, Eric Schmidt, Mark Zuckerberg, George Soros and their brethren. They will do anything they can to harm the competitors of those insiders. Nothing that happens at the D.O.E. is not based in bribery and payola!

EVERY new Department of Energy staff has said: "We won't do those bad things the last guys did"; but they have each been found to have lied! Jennifer must be ordered to pay the damages of the past victims and eliminate all of the programs that have been proven to have been corrupt.

Even if you spend years providing data for a Dept of Energy funding application, even though you get approved, at the last minute the White House will covertly whisper orders to cancel your funding because you compete with a financier of The President.

The lying sycophant scumbags at the Department of Energy are covering up these crimes because they own stock in, and get contracts and revolving door jobs from, Elon Musk, Google, et al. The Department of Energy is a deep, dark, smug abyss of crony payola, kick-backs, market monopolization, bribes and insider corruption beholden to the tech cartel. Google, Facebook and Silicon Valley are a private government that is more powerful than the U.S. Government. They use the U.S. Government as their bitch! These people put mobster-like 'hit-jobs' on the victims and operated state-sponsored attacks against them because they reported the crimes to law enforcement.

Don't be a SUCKER and fall for the lies that the Department of Energy dishes up. The Advanced Technology Vehicle Manufacturing and loan programs are insider controlled, quid pro quo, payola scams to pay off friends and campaign financiers. NO NON-POLITUCAL INSIDER HAS EVER GOTTEN MONEY FROM THE DEPT OF ENERGY! No Secretary of Energy in the last 20 years was not a political lackey. No non-insider has ever gotten the DOE funds. Every outsider who competed with an insider was sabotaged, stone-walled, lied to and shut down by the DOE stooges.

If you don't believe that Silicon Valley is operated by an organized crime cartel of sociopath frat boys that are protected by famous Senators and public officials, who own their stock and get their campaign cash, then here is absolute proof of the crimes and the cover-ups that go all the way to the White House. We conducted an exhaustive, decades-long, investigation deep into the roots of modern political corruption and here is how it works and how to destroy it!

Have you noticed that all of the "stimulus" money always goes to the politicians friends and benefits their stock market accounts but almost none of the cash goes to the voting citizens? That is the kind of BS we are stopping here!

These tech kleptocrats have tried to hide all their dirty cash all over the world but distinct, AI computer-tracked patterns have emerged that have caught them! The moves and tricks they like to use each contain the seeds of their own destruction. We have been catching them at every stage and those patterns reveal how California politicians and dirty Google/Facebook/Tesla crooks hide their dirty money.

In all these corruption cases, these corrupt people took the same steps to conceal their assets. They each took the money in secret ways. The main ways are 1.) via Dark Money stealth political funds; 2.) bribes paid via insider trading ( notice that most of these crooks marry an investment banker to run their dirty schemes) and 3.) getting government contracts, loans and grants for their friends that they get kick-backs from. They then had their dirty law firms and CPA's shove the money into their standardized covert financial structure to hide it. They use family members to run the operation. Their dirty family members and lawyer/CPA teams cover up their tracks. They then have intermediaries spend the money to get them islands, yachts, mansions, hookers, Tesla's, etc.

They use Switzerland, The Ukraine, The Cayman Islands, Mexico, China, Cyprus, Russia and New Zealand as money laundering centers. They create a tsunami of offshore shell companies on islands and crazy places that few could find on a map. It is all a sham.

They keep moving the money around and buying sham real estate. These Senators and tech oligarchs will just lie and lie and lie because no major law enforcement agency ever has the will to arrest them. If public officials won't do their jobs then the public must do it for them!

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE BLOCKADING VICTIMS RIGHTS TO A TRIAL AND TO LEGAL COUNSEL:

"Government staff and contractors have told us: â... just sue usâ... . This was their response to trying to resolve this issue.

That response, by government officials, is a felony violation of Constitutional law, human rights law, State and Federal public policy directives, the expectations of the national citizenry and the principles of Democracy.

The government response is, thus legally â... non-responsiveâ... and a threat to every voter and citizen.

Our previously filed demand, attached hereto as a PDF document under the title: â... VICTIM DEMAND Jan 12 2020.pdfâ... proves that no care or attention was paid to Plaintiffs previously filed complaint by your office except to operate a cover-up campaign. Any cover-up campaign of this felony organized crime matter subjects each, and every, government employee and contractor involved in said cover-up to felony arrest and prosecution.

You have blocked Plaintiffs from getting a lawyer or getting any legal help. That is a felony violation of the law and an abhorrent violation of U.S. and State Constitutional and human rights.

The current tactics being used to prevent Plaintiffs from their legal rights include:

A. Plaintiffs have been â... black-listedâ... . Even though the law in California (Cal. Lab. Code Â§ Â§ 1050 to 1053) says that an entity can't prevent or attempt to prevent former workers from getting work or representation through misrepresentation, knowingly permitting or failing to take reasonable steps to prevent blacklisting, or make a statement about why an employee was discharged or left employment, implying something other than what is explicitly said, or providing information that was not requested: It is done every day in Silicon Valley. The "Silicon Valley No Poaching Black-List" class-action lawsuit was about this issue. Federal FAR Section 9.104-1 (d), and related laws, apply. Blacklisting is a key part of the IC Vendetta Cycle attacks. The victims also suffered damage to their rights under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) (29 USC Sec. 621, et seq.); the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 USC Sec. 12181, et seq.); the Civil Rights Acts - (42 USC Sec. 2000, et seq.); the Davis-Bacon Act (40 USC Sec. 276a, et seq.); the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) (29 USC Sec. 1001, et seq.); the Equal Pay Act (29 USC Sec. 206[d]) and other violations.

B. Each and every law firm capable of handling Plaintiffs case has been contracted, paid and/or influenced so that they are â... conflicted outâ... from representing Plaintiffs. Law firm Mofo was threatened if they helped Plaintiffs. Lawyer Amy Anderson was threatened and lost her license for attempting to help Plaintiffs. Every lawyer or law firm who attempts to help Plaintiffs is hired by Defendants, or their agents and threatened or compromised in order to prevent them from helping Plaintiffs because this case affects trillions of dollars of energy industry profits, the White House, billionaire oligarchs and multi millionaire corrupt Senators. In fact, this issue lies at the root of this entire corruption case. Sociopath over-moneyed Silicon Valley oligarchs have hire Morrison Foerster, Wilson Sonsini, Perkins Coie, Covington Burling and every other major law firm and lobbyist and told them to â... kill everyone and destroy everything that I donâ... t likeâ...!â... . These law firms (controlled by Mark Zuckerberg, Elon Musk, Larry Page, Eric Schmidt, Steve Westly, Vinod Khosla, Laurene Powell Jobs, Nancy Pelosi, etc. All of whom have nearly a trillion dollars of funds at their disposal) have carte blanche and unlimited payments to run coups, character assassination campaigns, money laundering and other crimes for the oligarchs. They have the staffing to do these things and zero incentive to not do crimes. These law firms are the dirty deeds teams for the mobster-like suspects and there is no law enforcement body with the will nor resources to stop them. It is a violation of the U.S. Constitution to tell Plaintiffs to â... go get a law firmâ... when EVERY possible, equitable, law firm works for, and is massively compensated by, the criminals that need to be sued. Both the politicians AND the tech oligarchs charged with these crimes have hired the very law firms that government agencies have told Plaintiffs to go out and hire.

C. There is a precedent that was set in the US Supreme Court case: Gideon v. Wainwright, (1963) that clarifies that you have a right to a lawyer even if you don't have money for one. The Sixth Amendment, as applied to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment Due Process Clause gives one their Due Process rights. One needs to kill someone, though, to most easily get your free lawyer, since the court-appointed lawyer is rarely ever appointed, on citizens behalf, in a case like this. Even if a defendant is represented by an attorney of his or her choosing, he or she may be entitled to relief on appeal if the attorney did not provide adequate representation. A defendant must demonstrate that the attorney's performance fell below an objective standard of reasonableness and that this was prejudicial to the case. See: Strickland v. Washington ( <https://supreme.justia.com/cases/federal/us/466/668/case.html> ) , 466 U.S. 668, 688-92 (1984). A few free lawyers, that victims had tried, turned out to be working for the opposition side.

D. The federal organization: <https://www.lsc.gov> is required to help but has refused because its administrators were friends with, and appointed by, the public officials charged with corruption in this case.

E. Plaintiffs have personally asked the Attorney General, The Director of the FBI and the U.S. Attorney's office for representation but they have been told not to respond because the case is politically embarrassing to major public officials and their corrupt Silicon Valley financiers.

F. The government agencies who have told Plaintiffs that Plaintiffs should hire a law firm and sue them, in order to resolve this matter, are the same government agencies that have cut-off, or blockaded Plaintiffs income sources in order to prevent Plaintiffs from being able to afford to hire a law firm to sue them.

G. A federal agency provided Plaintiffs with a list of free lawyers. Upon FBI-level investigation of every free lawyer on the list, (via their financial contributions, voting records, leaked emails, social media postings, event attendance, public records, social connections lists online and other surveillance data) they all worked for, or with the opposition interests and could not have possibly provided unbiased services. In fact, multiple lawyers have contacted Plaintiffs who turned out to be working for the opposition. They were sent in to delay, or redirect, Plaintiffs in order to keep the cases from being filed or properly prosecuted in order to protect the suspects. This is a common infiltration procedure widely documented in CIA, British secret service, Russian FSB and Snowden leaks documents on IC dirty tricks tactics.

The government is, at the same time, telling us to sue the government, yet blockading us from getting a lawyer per our Constitutional rights.

Agency staff were ordered to harm Applicants by manipulating their benefits in order to deny, delay, obfuscate and reduce their income as reprisal for their assistance to law enforcement in a political corruption and money laundering matter. Agency staff, ranging from the lowest level staff and up to the director headquarters offices, participated in this reprisal-vendetta-revenge action to harm Applicants.

Applicant's peers have filed DOJ and FBI criminal referrals, launched federal investigations and the assertions have been proven in numerous IG, FBI, Congressional and major news media investigations. Agency offices have failed to provide responsive FOIA requested data, hearing investigation data and fair responses because some of their staff are STILL operating a criminal cover-up which has now been update-reported to the FBI, Congress, the IG, the AG and investigative reporters.

Other federal agencies have complied, verified and provided the requested deliverables. SSA and DOE have pointed the searchlight of suspicion on themselves, laser-like, by their overt failure to comply, unlike every other agency. Ironically, the political financing of their executives and their personal relationships â... happensâ... to be with the exact same Silicon Valley oligarchs under felony criminal investigations. The stock market brokerage records, family trust accounts, PAC trace-routing, Interpol records and SEC investigation records proves it!

Unfortunately for the crooked agency staff, some Applicants have the authority, law enforcement credentials and training to arrest any person at their home or office and remand them to the FBI, DOJ or Sheriff. For example: Every â... unsignedâ... SSA email is tracked to the individual author by their IP address, device IMEI, web camera, building key card, door camera, parking lot use chart, building camera, vehicle tracking circuits, text dba records, keyboard UI/UX patterns, motherboard ID #, DNS routing, stingray read-outs and a vast number of other metrics. Applicant investigation peers know the exact person that wrote every SSA email or document or file request. There is no such thing as an anonymous SSA email. Transparency is the Applicants middle name. The FBI and CIA people that SSA and DOE insiders think are their â... buddiesâ... may actually be the APPLICANTS buddies!

You will either give the Applicant his money and damages compensation, or suffer the consequences of the rapid acceleration of one of the largest investigations in modern history, supported by millions of voters with a shared peer-to-peer forensics social media network, the FBI and Congress. With the push of a single button, our latest info can be in the inbox of every blogger and independent investigative journalist in the world, in minutes.

History has proven that non-corrupt portions of federal agencies and public service law and community action firms have executed on their willingness to expend millions of dollars of resources to fight this injustice. Every individual involved in this at SSA and DOE are on a forensic database. No person at SSA or DOE who uses our government as a garage sale for corruption favors or a kill mill for political reprisals will avoid the 100% legally executed consequences. They will be targeted and prosecuted even more profoundly than the Applicants were targeted with IC-type hit jobs.

This felony criminal investigation case, is documented on thousands of websites and in dozens of federal court case records in which Applicant won the case or was vindicated in the case and in thousands of news websites.

Applicants researchers and investigators disagree with any decision by any agency which causes a delay in response which puts the applicants in jeopardy for their life and safety.

Testifying, and/or reporting about this crime has resulted in the death, potentially by murder, of the following individuals who reported to the authorities about this crime matter:

Rajeev Motwani; Gary D. Conley; Seth Rich; Philip Haney; David Bird; Doug Bourn; Misti Epstein; Joshua Brown; Kenneth Bellando; Moritz Erhardt; Imran Aliev; Kate Matrosova; David Drye; Vincent Foster; Kathy Ferguson; Duane Garrett; Eric S. Fox; Judi Gibbs; Berta Caceres; Suzanne Coleman; L.J. Davis; John Hillyer; Stanley Huggins; Sandy Hume; Shawn Lucas; Gary Johnson; John Jones; John F. Kennedy, Jr.; Stephen Ivens; Mary 'Caity' Mahoney; Eric Butera; Danny Casolara; John Ashe; Tony Moser; Larry Nichols; Joseph Rago; Ron Brown; Bob Simon; Don Adams; Peter Smith; Victor Thorn; Lori Klausutis; Gareth Williams; Daphne Caruana Galizia; James D Johnston; Dave Goldberg; Loretta Fuddy; Paul Wilcher; Gary Webb; Beranton J. Whisenant Jr; Stanley Meyer; Jon Parnell Walker; Tyler Drumheller; Barnaby Jack; Dominic Di-Natale; Barbara Wise; Ilya Zhitomirskiy; Jeff Joe Black; Robin Copeland; John Wheeler; Ashley Turton; Michael Hastings; Antonin Scalia; David Koschman; David Werner; Alex Okrent; Kam Kuwata; Larry Frankel; And hundreds more connected to this case who suddenly, and strangely, turned up dead in this case and, ironically, their deaths all benefit the suspects in this case. Applicants are also whistle-blowers who have been previously attacked in reprisal and who have been threatened with continued harm and death.

Any delay, obfuscation, cover-up, FOIA refusal or other obscuring tactic by each and every member of an agency employee or contracting entity will be prosecuted on a person-by-person basis. Each employee or official who causes, by their action, further harm to the Applicants will be sued personally, have their assets garnished and will have a formal criminal referral authored and submitted to the FBI, DOJ, FTC, Congress and the news media. Applicants have sued the highest level personnel in the government for corruption, launched FBI and Congressional investigations against them and had them removed from their jobs and placed under permanent surveillance. The court and news records prove this fact. Do not imagine that any reprisal action by a public agency staffer will go unnoticed or unpunished by federal law enforcement, public forensics and major independent news media investigations.

The suggestion, by certain agency bosses, that one should "just file an IG report" is like telling someone to file a complaint against Hitler at the suggestion box at Nazi SS headquarters. You won't make it through the night! IG reports seem to accomplish nothing more than painting a target on your own back. Court records and news headlines prove that almost every citizen who reported similar political corruption through "official channels" was targeted with hit-jobs and economic blockades....ask Snowden!

Pay the Plaintiffs their damages compensation, whistle-blower fees, back-fees and offset monies NOW!
Millions of citizens, around the globe, have all of the same evidence you now have and each day of delay only hurts YOUR agencies position in the eyes of the world and in the eyes of the voting population of the nation!"

THE SILICON VALLEY TECH CARTEL IS A RACKETEERING CRIME MOB:

We are fighting the battle to save the internet and now you are part of it!

( ie: <http://silicon-valley-mobsters.com>)

(Please share this with your peers and friends and post it on your social media)

What would you do if you found out that your politicians (ie: Dianne Feinstein, Nancy Pelosi, Harry Reid, Kamala Harris) had put over one hundred million dollars in their covert family bank accounts which they got from sabotaging your business, because it competed with them, and from blockading your money because their tech oligarch insiders told them to? Our forensic investigators can 'swear, warrant and certify' that the politicians did the asserted crimes and corruption.

Like a social Terminex(c) pest control service, we are eliminating every single tech asshole in Silicon Valley (like the roaches that they are) using 100% legal, law enforcement approved, resources.

You are probably asking: "How Did Palo Alto, California Became Populated Entirely By Assholes"?

Why is the Tesla THE OFFICIAL CAR OF TONE-DEAF ARROGANT PRICK ASSHOLES!?

A glut of recent feature films ( ie: The feature film: Assholes: A Theory ) have excoriated the likes of Sand Hill Road and University Avenue scumbags...but pointing them out is not enough. They must be exterminated. You can verify the following facts, yourself, via court records, police records, FBI reports, FOIA and Congressional records.

As U.S. Marshal Raylan Givens (Timothy Olyphant) famously opined on the TV show "Justified", "... You run into an asshole in the morning, you run into an asshole at lunch. You run into assholes all day..." ; America on the precipice of the fallout of a monumental presidential election, it seems that assholes are not only everywhere you turn... in newspapers, on cable TV, at political rallies and protests, and all over social media... but that they, and their behavior, has been normalized because they own the media. Silicon Valley has a tsunami of "assholery"... underway. This reality is covered in the philosophy of professor Aaron James... non-fiction book and new documentary aimed at both 1.) precisely defining the term "... asshole,... and 2.) investigating how those who fit that bill have increasingly come to dominate key spheres of modern public life.

Stanford University graduates are inspired by the likes of corrupt Elon Musk and corrupt Italian Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi... the forerunner of the media-manipulating populist-criminal-strongman trend that... s recently swept through Western nations... or passages discussing Facebook, Twitter and Google... s prioritization of profit over their responsibility to safeguard democracy from hate speech and disinformation. Stanford and Yale have proven to be the key training grounds for beginner assholes. Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Elon Musk, Jack Dorsey, Reid Hoffman, John Doerr, Vinod Khosla and Mark Zuckerberg are the embodiment of this problem. They flout all of the rules and standards of common decency. They have made it appear acceptable, and in fact rewarding, to act in the worst possible manner as a means of achieving one... s selfish ends. Their Silicon Valley is the pit of American assholery. You can spot an asshole, easily, when they are driving the official car of assholes: A Tesla, but what about the ones that are more under-cover?

Most people that have been tech raped by a Palo Alto Sandhill Road scumbag feel the same way as Mr. Sun, who says: " Silicon Valley Oligarchs must be punished. Without breaking a single law and WITH the help of the largest law enforcement and investigative resources on the planet, my task force has killed off every single motherfucker that has come after me with their anti-trust violating schemes, including some of the largest entities in the world! My peers and I use lawsuits, federal investigations, news reports, whistle-blowers, new public regulations, anti-trust filings, tens of millions of crowd-sourced voters and unique AI-based forensics. Our private investigators have found my every person and organization on the globe that hates the oligarchs. We gathered them together and aimed them all at the tech assholes! My rule is that Anyone who attacks me stays on the shit list for the rest of their lives plus the next 100+ years of internet time. When you Zuckerbergs, Larry Page;'s Elon Musk's, John Doerr's, Reid Hoffman's, etc., come for me, prepare to suffer. Every stock you buy is a notice to my team to bankrupt the company that you invested in. Even if I am dead, your punishment will be carried out by a legacy team of public volunteers. It may happen to you tomorrow or it may be a slow-drip over the next 15 years. Never stop looking over your shoulder. If you decided to cheat against our businesses rather than fairly compete against us, then start carving your tombstone. If you hired media attackers, expect 100 times what you did to us to come back at you and your family forever! We are fine with "forgive-and-forget", except when it comes to criminal bullies: They are terminated!

He has pledged millions of dollars, from his family trust, to the effort. His AI database lists every investor, VC and executive in Silicon Valley, their family data and their "asshole ranking". Most of the people attacked and ripped off by the tech oligarchs feel the same way. None of the victims have the monopolized control of the big tech law firms like the tech oligarchs do. None of the victims can afford to have an army of crooked law firms (ie: Mofo, Covington & Burling, Perkins Coie, Wilson Sonsini, etc.) working around the clock to enable financial crimes, corruption and Democracy abuses.

To grasp the argument that these people are assholes, one need only listen to the Silicon Valley Assholes's basic description. As many state, â... The asshole is the guy who allows himself special advantages in Bay Area cooperative life out of an entrenched sense of entitlement that immunizes him against the complaints of other people.â... In other words, heâ... s the individualâ... generally male, although as John Cleese candidly admits, his mother probably was one tooâ... who thinks the general rules donâ... t apply to them because theyâ... re somehow smarter, better, or more special than their fellow citizens. Jamesâ... example is a surfer who violates the right-of-way customs in the ocean. Yet the type is universal, whether in line at the grocery store, on the road in traffic, or at work. Theyâ... re the arrogant creeps convinced theyâ... re fundamentally superior, and thus free to conduct themselves in whatever way they see fit. That IS the essence of scumbag megalomaniacs: Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Elon Musk, Jack Dorsey, Reid Hoffman, John Doerr, Vinod Khosla and Mark Zuckerberg!!!

The way "they see fit", of course, is often hateful, perverse and idiotic. The Assholes thrive in a bubble of trophy wives, rent boys and superficial TED conferences. In the midst of ongoing protests and debate over Americaâ... s own domestic culture, which has long had a tradition of closing ranks and demonizing critics, every Silicon Valley employee ordeal sounds eerily familiar among every worker at Google and Facebook.

Such attitudes, according to the Silicon Valley Assholes are created by Stanford University Fraternities which are breeding grounds for horrid group-think mindsets about women and sex. The tech financial sector encourages greed, ruthlessness, and vulgarity as the best way to get ahead. Google executives champion initiation-ritual abuse in service of its own greater good. You can see the movies: Animal House, The Wolf of Wall Street and Full Metal Jacket to see the underscore of the notion that these milieus are all rife with a similar brand of assholery in which arrogance and entitlement justify all manner of despicable ideas and deeds. Every major rape fraternity in the USA eventually sent those abusive boys to run Sandhill Road venture capital companies and Google or Facebook departments.

Every executive at Google knows that they are doing crimes, lying to Congress and the public and operating the biggest scam in history. That is why they will come up with any lie, re-interpretation of the facts or denial to hide the truth!

Any Presidential Administration that puts sociopath, Epstein-like Eric Schmidt, Larry Page or ANY Google executive IN their Administration is either proving their tone-deaf lack of awareness of the facts or that their President is such a bitch to Googleâ... s campaign cash that they could not possibly be trusted by any world leader or any citizen. ( See: <https://therevolvingdoorproject.org/letter-to-oppose-eric-schmidt/> ) ( <https://nymag.com/intelligencer/2013/07/eric-schmidt-penthouse-new-york-photos-apartment.html> )

The Silicon Valley Assholes Process proves that real Silicon Valley VC and tech assholes probably donâ... t know they are one; central to this condition is the certainty that all bad behavior is actually OK.

This is detectable in the media posts of workers from Greylock, Kleiner, Andressen and other tech asshole firms. Many of the tech interns freely admit that that they only pay attention to other social media users if thereâ... s a personal benefit to connecting with them. That type of me-first worldview is crucial to Palo Alto Sandhill Road's conception of twisted reality. Asshole-rich Silicon Valley America (where â... exceptionalismâ... is ingrained from an early age) lives in contrast to asshole-light Canada (where folks tend to be more agreeable and accommodating)(Justin, though, is a novel kind of asshole).

The most compellingâ... and enragingâ... realities concerns Silicon Valley, where Mark Zuckerberg and like-minded CEOs have bred a culture of trampling on competitors, laws, historical norms, and the bedrock tenets of democracy in pursuit of additional eyeballs, clicks, and revenue streams. In a place where young men team up in a desperate quest to develop the innovative next big thing thatâ... Il turn them into tech moguls (â... bro-grammingâ... ), nothing matters but the self-centered end goal. And though Facebook, Twitter, Google, Kleiner Perkins, Greylock and their ilk could alter this landscape by simply cracking down on the horridness that permeates their platforms, they choose not to because of the negative financial consequences and their lust for hookers, private jets and cocaine.

To travel through Silicon Valley is to take a gravely depressing survey of a 21st century in thrallâ... in several crucial arenasâ... to humanityâ... s worst impulses.

So what is being done about this crisis of society?

We have hired the best investigators who used to work with the FBI, CIA, FTC, DOJ, SEC, GAO, IG and Interpol.

We have also been teaching every voter in the world how to be a top notch criminal investigator and how to use digital forensic AI tools to "follow-the-money" and bust these crooks. Imagine the entire resources of Palantir, XKEYSCORE, Splunk, Axcion, Fusion GPS and Taleo aimed at people like Zuckerberg, Hoffman, Musk and Schmidt. They will never survive it!

Every single asshole in Silicon Valley can expect to have accurate, highly professional, criminal charges and referrals filed against them with every federal law enforcement and regulatory agency. Those reports are being BCC'd to the news media and the public.

When you see reports like these, you can clearly see that: Every Tech CEO And Investor In Silicon Valley Is A Predatory, Parasitic, Sex Trafficking, Misogynist, Money Laundering, Politician Bribing, Exclusionary, Black-Listing Criminal:

Theranos CEO Elizabeth Holmes and former president Ramesh "Sunny" Balwani were charged with an "elaborate, years-long fraud."

A viral thread has busted the MYTH about "Famous Billionaires Starting Out â... Poorâ... . Jonas GrineviÄ ius and Justinas Keturka have revealed that we all love stories about scrappy underdogs who overcome the odds and make it big through relentless hard work, unwavering grit, and sheer force of will. However, the stories about how some of the richest and most powerful people made their millions (and billions) are too romanticized and gloss over some very important details. Thatâ... s the point that Aidan Smith made in a viral Twitter thread where he explained how Jeff Bezos and others had a huge leg-up when it came to helping lay the foundations of their business empires. Namelyâ... having families with lots of money.

Google used taxpayer funds to start its monopoly per

<https://medium.com/insurge-intelligence/how-the-cia-made-google-e836451a959e> and

<https://qz.com/1145669/googles-true-origin-partly-lies-in-cia-and-nsa-research-grants-for-mass-surveillance/>

Not only does Google not pay tens of billions of dollars of its taxes to sponsor firemen and teachers but Google used public resources to start its company! Billions of dollars of citizen funds were used by Google to create it's evil empire. Google gets away with this crap because it bribes major U.S. politicians from California!

Aidan told Bored Panda that the US isnâ... t the only country where a lot of people believe myths about businessmen while the truth is a Google search away. It's far from a U.S.-exclusive phenomenon, but in America, it's easier for most people to imagine becoming a billionaire themselves than it is to imagine an economic order in which a handful of people own half the world's wealth. Social mobility from working-class to middle-class is increasingly out of reach and the illusion that one can conceivably amass a net worth of over a billion dollars is a comforting fantasy for many people.

The indisputable facts are the assertions that the Silicon Valley oligarchs:

1. Control business and politics like a crime Cartel
2. Are a white male fraternity who attack outsiders in organized manners
3. Come from dynastic families that systematically ran them through Stanford, Harvard and Yale sociopath-in-training men's clubs
4. Were socially trained and programmed to operate in a closed, tribal, exclusionary manner
5. Operated the "Angelgate" collusion scandal and most every other financial crime in America.
6. Operated the "Silicon Valley High Tech Employee Collusion" for which they were sued in a famous class-action case
7. Controlled the White House and traded most of the key staff with the Administration.
8. Have been sued, indicted and charged in divorce proceedings with an unusually massive amount of sex trafficking matters
9. Use the same 10 law-firms who have been charged with public policy manipulation
10. Control internet news, media and information
11. "Own" certain U.S. Senators by virtue of direct bribe payments and securities/stock payola payments
12. Use a variety of tools like GUST, Private Google Docs sites, covert Facebook pages and similar, to secret conspire and plan collusion and organized monopolistic practices
13. Have their venture capitalists spy on entrepreneurs and copy their technology to be deployed by Google, or Facebook under a new name
14. Are a Mafia-like criminal organization.

Who are some of the biggest, elitist, self-aggrandizing, entitled, tone-deaf assholes in Silicon Valley?

The Tech Crunch Silicon Valley database-of-assholes provides that answer. They include: David Krane, Brian Bendett, Brendan Bulik-Sullivan, Terri Burns, Blake Byers, Tim Draper, Steve Jurvetson, Elon Musk, Steve Westly, Steve Spinner, Tyson Clark, Frederique Dame, Tom Perkins, Scott Davis, Reid Hoffman, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Jared Cohen, David Drummond, Karim Faris, Tom Hulme, Joe Kraus, John Lyman, Vinod Khosla, Laura Melahn, Dave Munichiello, Erik Nordlander, Anthony Philippakis, Sridhar Ramaswamy, David Reshef, Ben Robbins, Issi Rozen, David Schenkein, Vidu Shanmugarajah, M.G. Siegler, Graham Spencer, Bethany Tsui, Jessica Verrilli, Andy Wheeler, Krishna Yeshwant, Asheem Chandna, Jerry Chen, Mike Duboe, Sarah Guo, Christine Kim, Josh McFarland, Saam Motamedi, Sridhar Ramaswamy, Corinne Riley, Jason Risch, Seth Rosenberg, David Sze, David Thacker, David Wadhvani, Manuel Bernal,

You can see that most of them have the same facial deformities that make them all look like yuppie frat or sorority clones with Moonie/Scientology dead eyes and fake smiles that broadcast their blind zealotry and sports bar fakery to the world. Every email, phone call, text, condo, office and brothel that these people use should be bugged by the FBI. These scammers built an insider-trading bubble of TED conferences and tech parties in which they mutually promote their Elizabeth Holmesian fantasies of holier-than-thou idiocracy. Emily Chang's book: "Brotopia" covers these scum-bags in great length.

The Silicon Valley cartel propagandizes climate issues because they own all the companies that will get government cash for climate issues. Are climate issues a bigger deal than: CANCER, SEX TRAFFICKING, POOR EDUCATION SYSTEMS, POLICE BRUTALITY, RACISM, HOUSING PRICES, PANDEMICS, MEDICAL COVERAGES, WARS, DRUG TRAFFICKING, CARTELS, STDâ... S, MONOPOLIES, POLITICAL BRIBERY, THE SPACE RACE, TOXIC FOODS, SEX ABUSE AT WORK, AND THOUSANDS OF OTHER ISSUESâ...!???? The Silicon Valley Cartel says â... They care about CASH!

As a Hoover Fellow puts it: "...Elite arrogant asshole dynasties send their kids to Stanford University. Stanford puts the kids in asshole frat houses to train them to get away with rape and run monopolies. When they graduate they either go up the hill to Sandhill Road and start a venture capital clone operation or they get their frat friends on Sandhill Road to racketeer-fund their start-up or political campaign using money scammed from your parents pension funds. They only work with their frat buddies and insiders in a tribal 'old boys club' manner. They steal all the technology and markets they want because they control all of the tech lawyers and politicians via bribes and revolving doors. Most of the money in Stanford University bank accounts is from Foreign and Hollywood oligarchs delivered as bribes meant to get their snot-nosed brats into Stanford. Stanford bosses keep all of this covered-up and covertly fund political campaigns to grease the wheels of political corruption. They then sexually extort some Stanford interns in Rosewood Hotel rooms, get the most 'trophy wife' ones pregnant, and start the cycle all over again. Alas, Stanford is the training ground for abuse, corruption and 'Bro-Crime'..."

Everyone asks: " How Does Elon Musk Maintain His Corrupt Empire Of Lies Without Getting Shut Down By The Government?"

Elon Musk has spent more money creating fake fame for his narcissist personality disorder than any other person in history! Musk is obsessed with buying troll farm outputs, Chinese click-bait processing service orders, fake Facebook likes, fake Twitter follows, Reddit self-glory lie-blogger services and PR hype media articles about himself. Musk can't stand to go a single day without trying to make people think he is a god-like deity when he is just a scamming tech mobster!

Elon Musk runs a RICO-violating, stock market-manipulating, anti-trust-violating organized crime cartel! He is the high tech Godfather of financial crime and he is many times more â... untouchableâ... than Al Capone! Public officials should be embarrassed to death that Musk waltzes around with such impunity. Musk maintains his immunity with BRIBES to Congress, bribes to the DOT, bribes to the NHTSA, and other political agencies. He acts as a conduit to pass free government cash he scams from politicians through his organization and back out, covertly, to those same politicians like Harris, Pelosi, Feinstein, et al.

HOW THE SILICON VALLEY SCAMS WORK:

Elon Musk, and the Silicon Valley Cartel, have over 1000 people at Goldman Sachs that are dedicated to keeping this corrupt empire operating on smoke and mirrors in order to hype up the stock via dirty tricks such as these:

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Pools"

Agreements, often written, among a group of traders to delegate authority to a single manager to trade in a specific stock for a specific period of time and then to share in the resulting profits or losses." [5] In Australia section 1041B prohibits pooling. ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-5 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Churning"

When a trader places both buy and sell orders at about the same price. The increase in activity is intended to attract additional investors, and increase the price.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Stock bashing"

This scheme is usually orchestrated by savvy online message board posters (a.k.a. "Bashers") who make up false and/or misleading information about the target company in an attempt to get shares for a cheaper price. This activity, in most cases, is conducted by posting libelous posts on multiple public forums. The perpetrators sometimes work directly for unscrupulous Investor Relations firms who have convertible notes that convert for more shares the lower the bid or ask price is; thus the lower these Bashers can drive a stock price down by trying to convince shareholders they have bought a worthless security, the more shares the Investor Relations firm receives as compensation. Immediately after the stock conversion is complete and shares are issued to the Investor Relations firm, consultant, attorney or similar party, the basher/s then become friends of the company and move quickly to ensure they profit on a classic Pump & Dump scheme to liquidate their ill-gotten shares. (see P&D)

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Pump and dump"

A pump and dump scheme is generally part of a more complex grand plan of market manipulation on the targeted security. The Perpetrators (Usually stock promoters) convince company affiliates and large position non-affiliates to release shares into a free trading status as "Payment" for services for promoting the security. Instead of putting out legitimate information about a company the promoter sends out bogus e-mails (the "Pump") to millions of unsophisticated investors (Sometimes called "Retail Investors") in an attempt to drive the price of the stock and volume to higher points. After they accomplish both, the promoter sells their shares (the "Dump") and the stock price falls, taking all the duped investors' money with it.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Runs"

When a group of traders create activity or rumours in order to drive the price of a security up. An example is the Guinness share-trading fraud of the 1980s. In the US, this activity is usually referred to as painting the tape. [6] Runs may also occur when trader(s) are attempting to drive the price of a certain share down, although this is rare. (see Stock Bashing) ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Guinness\_share-trading\_fraud )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Ramping (the market)"

Actions designed to artificially raise the market price of listed securities and give the impression of voluminous trading in order to make a quick profit. [7] (

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-7 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Wash trade"

In a wash trade the manipulator sells and repurchases the same or substantially the same security for the purpose of generating activity and increasing the price.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Bear raid"

In a bear raid there is an attempt to push the price of a stock down by heavy selling or short selling.<sup>[8]</sup> ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-8 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Lure and Squeeze"

This works with a company that is very distressed on paper, with impossibly high debt, consistently high annual losses but very few assets, making it look as if bankruptcy must be imminent. The stock price gradually falls as people new to the stock short it on the basis of the poor outlook for the company, until the number of shorted shares greatly exceeds the total number of shares that are not held by those aware of the lure and squeeze scheme (call them "people in the know"). In the meantime, people in the know increasingly purchase the stock as it drops to lower and lower prices. When the short interest has reached a maximum, the company announces it has made a deal with its creditors to settle its loans in exchange for shares of stock (or some similar kind of arrangement that leverages the stock price to benefit the company), knowing that those who have short positions will be squeezed as the price of the stock sky-rockets. Near its peak price, people in the know start to sell, and the price gradually falls back down again for the cycle to repeat.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Quote stuffing"

Quote stuffing is made possible by high-frequency trading programs that can execute market actions with incredible speed. However, high-frequency trading in and of itself is not illegal. The tactic involves using specialized, high-bandwidth hardware to quickly enter and withdraw large quantities of orders in an attempt to flood the market, thereby gaining an advantage over slower market participants.<sup>[9]</sup> ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-9 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Cross-Product Manipulation"

A type of manipulation possible when financial instruments are settled based on benchmarks set by the trading of physical commodities, for example in United States Natural Gas Markets. The manipulator takes a large long \(short\) financial position that will benefit from the benchmark settling at a higher (lower) price, then trades in the physical commodity markets at such a large volume as to influence the benchmark price in the direction that will benefit their financial position.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Spoofing (finance)"

Spoofing is a disruptive algorithmic trading entity employed by traders to outpace other market participants and to manipulate commodity markets. Spoofers feign interest in trading futures, stocks and other products in financial markets creating an illusion of exchange pessimism in the futures market when many offers are being cancelled or withdrawn, or false optimism or demand when many offers are being placed in bad faith. Spoofers bid or offer with intent to cancel before the orders are filled. The flurry of activity around the buy or sell orders is intended to attract other high-frequency traders (HFT) to induce a particular market reaction such as manipulating the market price of a security. Spoofing can be a factor in the rise and fall of the price of shares and can be very profitable to the spoofer who can time buying and selling based on this manipulation.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Price-Fixing"

A very simple type of fraud where the principles who publish a price or indicator conspire to set it falsely and benefit their own interests. The Libor scandal for example, involved bankers setting the Libor rate to benefit their trader's portfolios or to make certain entities appear more creditworthy than they were.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "High Closing (finance)"

High closing is an attempt to manipulate the price of a security at the end of trading day to ensure that it closes higher than it should. This is usually achieved by putting in manipulative trades close to closing.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Cornering the market"

In cornering the market the manipulators buy sufficiently large amount of a commodity so they can control the price creating in effect a monopoly. For example, the brothers Nelson Bunker Hunt and William Herbert Hunt attempted to corner the world silver markets in the late 1970s and early 1980s, at one stage holding the rights to more than half of the world's deliverable silver.[\[10\]](#) ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-TEXAS-10 ) During the Hunts' accumulation of the precious metal, silver prices rose from $11 an ounce in September 1979 to nearly $50 an ounce in January 1980.[\[11\]](#) ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-NYT-11 ) Silver prices ultimately collapsed to below $11 an ounce two months later,[\[11\]](#) much of the fall occurring on a single day now known as Silver Thursday, due to changes made to exchange rules regarding the purchase of commodities on margin.[\[12\]](#) ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-TimeBubble-12 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "The Political Campaign Conduit Double Blind"

In this scam, government money is given to a Tesla, Solyndra, etc. who then money launder the cash through executive-held 501 c3 and c4 charities; and company assets and then provide DARK MONEY cash and services to political campaigns like Obama and Clinton election funds. In the case of Tesla, Google (an investor and boyfriend of Musk) supplied billions of dollars of web search rigging. Stock ownership in the companies and deals is traded for campaign funds. David Brock is a master of this kind of Dark Money money-laundering for political campaigns using PACS and pass-through spoofing.

Tesla and Solyndra investors have used ALL of the above tactics and more. Goldman Sachs and JP Morgan have thousands of staff who PROVIDE these stock market manipulation tricks to people like Elon Musk, Larry Page, Eric Schmidt, et al. These kinds of financial crimes and corruption account for the manipulation of over ONE TRILLION DOLLARS of ill-gotten profits annually!

They all run a constant shell game and ponzi scheme using shell corporations, fake family trusts, hookers, facade real estate, dirty CPA's, dirty corporate law firms, David Plouffe and James Halderman-type dirty operatives, lobbyists who are just bribery bag men, crooked CIA and FBI insiders and other criminal tools.

THE PUBLIC CAN NOW HUNT THESE CORRUPT PIGS DOWN LIKE DOGS:

Given the massive stimulus packages that are in force today and expected to be implemented going forward, regulators need to set clear guidelines for how and when such privileged information can be disclosed, and impose rigorous trading restrictions for investors with access to private information. Failure to do so always gives unfair advantage to some and damages the level playing field in financial markets.

To avoid providing such unfair advantage to selected executives, the SEC and the Department of Justice need to develop new procedures to incorporate potential illegal transactions derived from information about government intervention through diverse channels. Plaintiffs advocate for a more transparent and consistent protocol on information disclosure regarding government's loan programs to prevent similar events from recurring. For example, the government could channel the release of news about COVID-19-related stimulus interventions through a common platform to prevent leakage from diverse sources and reduce information asymmetry among investors.

The corrupt DFC loan to Kodak is the first of its kind under the Defense Production Act but not the first ever because DOE already created the pump-and-dump scheme for tech oligarchs. Nobody should be surprised by Kodak trying a proven corruption scam. Since we are in unprecedented times, government agencies and regulators need to make changes to adapt to the current situation and fulfill their mission to ensure a level playing field for investors even during this difficult period. Regulation never happens in these scams because most California Senators and their families profit from these crimes and corruption.

In addition to Musk's insidious army of corruption douche-bag enablers at Goldman Sachs, there are also:

- An army of worker-bee financial scam artist operatives at corrupt Wells Fargo and Deutsche Bank. There are about 120 people in that set of insider operatives
- Jared Birchall, the head of Elon Musk's family office Excession LLC is a front man and bag man for the outside layer of Musk's public-facing scams
- Deloitte Consulting has 17 financial advisors dedicated to ponzi scheming the appearance of liquidity in the Musk Empire
- Law firm Wilson Sonsini has 42 lawyers and admins dedicated to delaying, deferring and holding off law-suits and anti-trust filings against Musk.
- McKinsey Consulting has 120 staff dedicated to authoring and distributing bullshit hype and white papers to Congress that sell budget ideas to the government that exclusively benefit Elon Musk. McKinsey is also in charge of getting people appointed or hired by the government who will provide payola and quid pro quo back to the Musk empire.
- Corrupt law firm Covington and Burling has 27 people dedicated to influencing and changing laws and public policy that will exclusively protect Musk. They put Eric Holder, Steven Chu and other top officials into the Obama Administration based on promises by those officials to protect and fund Musk.
- James Howard is one of over 56 private investigators that Musk has hired to dig up dirt on people that Musk does not like and to run attacks on them.
- In-Q-Tel is a rogue off-shoot of the CIA. Musk has hired a large number of In-Q-Tel staff to engage in CIA-class dirty tricks against competitors and former employees who expose Musk's lies.
- Gawker Media, AKA Gizmodo Media are a tabloid character-assassination-for-hire operation which Musk contracts and owns interest in. They are mission-ed to to destroy the lives of others, in cooperation with Google's servers. Payments for attack services, between all of the parties, have been uncovered.
- Google is an investor in Musk's operations and the bosses of Google are bro-mance boyfriends of Musk. Google controls most perceptions on the internet using psychological manipulation tactics taught to them by their investor: In-Q-Tel. In-Q-Tel also works for and with Musk. Larry Page, of Google, and Musk got an apartment together and plan political schemes together.
- Elon Musk, or his associates have hired every high tech law firm that could go after him in order to conflict-out and law firms that might get hired to go after him. His top corrupt manipulator partners-in-legal crime include: Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, Fenwick & West, Connolly & Williams, Perkins Coie, Steven Farina, Raol Campos and hundreds of others. In fact, a competitor of Musk's was seeking a law firm to sue Musk and was told by Law firm Wilson Sonsini: "You can't sue Elon Musk because he and his Sandhill road Cartel control every high tech law firm in America..." In some cases, Musk has sent some of his lawyers to smaller business entities that want to sue Musk. Musk's lawyers pretend to be lawyers who are "offering to help" the opposition company but they are really there to covertly sabotage their legal efforts in order to protect Musk.

Tesla and CEO Elon Musk are facing dozens of lawsuits and investigations, according to public filings.

The costs of defense and settlements burden the car maker financially at a time when Tesla is already cutting headcount, closing stores and delaying loan repayments.

Among Tesla's most recent legal woes, the Securities and Exchange Commission has filed a motion to hold Musk in contempt of court. The financial regulators argue that Musk violated the agreement they finalized with him and Tesla in October 2018 requiring the CEO to submit his tweets for review by the company's in-house counsel if they contained material business information and could potentially affect the company's stock price.

Musk is represented in this matter by John C. Hueston, formerly the lead prosecutor for the federal trial of Enron's Jeffrey Skilling.

Beyond the contempt case, here are some of the other cases and investigations Tesla and Musk are facing that could most impact the company.

- NHTSA and NTSB regularly investigate crashes involving Tesla vehicles and the use of "Autopilot" features. These agencies initiated new investigations in March 2019, after another Tesla-involved incident proved fatal for a Model 3 driver who collided with a semi-trailer in Delray Beach, Florida.
- According to a Department of Justice statement, a former Tesla employee named Salil Parulekar was indicted in November 2018 for allegedly embezzling $9.3 million from Tesla by diverting payments from one supplier to another. The potential case, which hasn't moved past the indictment, could reveal more about troubles with Tesla's supply chain.
- Two former Tesla security employees, Karl Hansen and Sean Gouthro, filed whistleblower complaints via the law firm Meissner Associates to the SEC. They claim, among other things, that Tesla spied on workers, and covered up theft and narcotics trafficking at its battery plant in Sparks, Nevada.
- A former employee, Marcus Vaughn, is pursuing a class-action lawsuit against Tesla in California alleging that the company ignored black employees' reports of rampant racism. Tesla is trying to compel arbitration, and the plaintiff's lawyers say they are fighting Tesla's motions.
- The National Labor Relations Board filed a complaint in August 2018 accusing Musk of violating labor laws with a tweet on May 20 that employees wouldn't have stock options if they formed a union.

- Tesla-owned SolarCity has been the subject of multiple SEC investigations dating back to 2012, according to Probes Reporter, a firm that publishes FOIA research for investors. (As of May 2108, SolarCity was still under at least one SEC investigation, said Probes Reporter CEO John P. Gavin.)
- Musk is being sued by spelunker Verne Unsworth, whom Musk claimed without evidence was a pedophile and child rapist. Musk lobbed those dramatic accusations at Unsworth after the cave diver questioned the Muskâ... s attempts to aid in the rescue of a Thai boysâ... soccer team. Unsworth was part of the successful rescue effort and was critical of Muskâ... s approach.
- In a Delaware Chancery Court, shareholders are suing Tesla alleging that the companyâ... s acquisition of SolarCity in 2016 was improperly handled by the board, benefitted six out of seven of Teslaâ... s then-board members, and was ultimately a detriment to the company and its minority shareholders.

Analysis by legal research firm Plainsite found at least 38 securities actions filed against Tesla or Elon Musk (or both) since 2010, the year the company went public. Plainsite â... which founder Aaron Greenspan describes as a â... legal transparency initiativeâ... â... scans public records across the US legal system to document the volume and types of litigation effecting major U.S. corporations. (Greenspan personally holds puts in Tesla today.)

By way of comparison, Greenspan says he found only 1 securities lawsuit against Ford Motor Company filed since 2016, and only 4 since 1996, although this does not include all Ford subsidiaries.

Along with the securities litigation, Plainsite also found 43 workersâ... rights cases, 14 deposit theft cases, and 20 vendor and government non-payment cases filed against Tesla since it went public in 2010. Of the 20 non-payment cases, 6 were from tax agencies in different states, Greenspan said.

Tesla also faces dozens of lawsuits around specific car-related issues, including allegations that Bluetooth doesnâ... t work, that Autopilot has caused Tesla cars to swerve into the wrong lanes and more. Most car-specific lawsuits against Tesla focus on the Model X. But Greenspan expects Model 3-related lawsuits to grow as the company sells more of these electric sedans. Even with all of these lawsuits, Musk has the taxpayer provided cash to buy off any judge, any court, any politician and any influence dynamic.

- Steve Davis runs operations to manipulate actual intent for Muskâ... s The Boring Company.
- The pretend CFOâ... s in Muskâ... s cartel including Zachary Kirkhorn, Vaibhav Taneja, Deepak Ahuja, Eric Branderiz, etc., are fully aware of the lies and financial crimes that Muskâ... s shell game is based. They need to be in prison too.
- Above and beyond the army of over 3000 corruption implementation employees and contractors, Musk #1 protection scheme is lobbyists and political intermediaries who pay bribes and produce quid pro quo and revolving door payola. Podesta Group, Roberti Global, David Plouffe, Jeff Burton, and over 150 other groups and individuals transfer the cash, PAC omerta funds, jobs, real estate, sex and other goodies to politicians. Senator Dianne Feinsteinâ... s go from working for Feinstein to working for Musk like a political conveyor belt. Bribes hidden via family trust funds and elaborate shell game corporations and off-shore snake holes are the bread-and-butter of the Musk existence.

These facts are known, they are documented in FBI, SEC, FTC, FEC and Congressional records. It is pathetic that Musk can operate and that he is not sitting in a federal prison cell! Elon Musk is a scammer, mobster, liar, pervert, drug abusing, narcissist, Senator-bribing sociopath! Musk can run and try to hide in Texas but there is now no place he can hide!

NOTICE: To the editors allowing idiot child "reporters" to support Elon Musk's BS:

We file complaints against each one of your writers who has accepted compensation in order to use your publication to promote falsehoods, lies and contrived public relations tripe for Elon Musk's narcissist self-aggrandizement campaign designed to cover-up his crimes, scams and corruptions. Your writers have full knowledge of the proven facts in investigative documents such as:

If your reporters ignore these facts then your publication will suffer revenue loss, stock market hits, devaluation, reports of your sex abuses and other sadness!

We file formal complaints against each one of these shills with industry associations, your investors and on public forums.

Your writers who selectively author fake-news hype instead of investigative journalism will be exposed and punished. Your publication's market value and credibility will be greatly diminished by this information manipulation. (ie, You WILL LOSE YOUR MONEY!) Such fake news articles should be removed and accurate counter-point should be published. Without the proper correction, it is impossible to see how your publication could not follow Gawker, San Diego Magazine, The Outline, and the rest into the spiral of bankruptcy and termination.

THE CRONY CAPITALISM THAT POWERS THE U.S. DEPT OF ENERGY

White House Staff including Rahm Emanuel, Bill Daley, Jay Carney, David Plouffe, Robert Gibbs, Steve Rattner, David Axelrod, John Podesta, et al; and The Secretary of Energy Steven Chu and the Chief Counsel for the United States Department of Energy Daniel Cohen and Bill Cooper were, (from 2007 forward), either financed by, friends, with, sleeping with, dating the staff of, holding stock market assets in, promised a revolving door job or government service contracts from, partying with, personal friends with, photographed at private events with, exchanging emails with, business associates of or directed by; our business adversaries, or the Senators and Department of Energy politicians that those business adversaries pay campaign finances to, or supply political digital search manipulation services to. Criminal U.S. Senators coordinated and profited in these schemes. Their own family members have now supplied evidence against them. Elon Musk and his frat boys display their self-aggrandizing vanity in sociopath glory because nobody tells them "no". Now we are calling them out!

From 2007 forward, The White House and The Department Of Energy were controlled by the Silicon Valley tech oligarchs for monopolistic profiteering! That is a violation of the law, the Constitution and the American Way. The named person's we have presented to the FBI, DOJ, SEC and other agencies, engaged in crimes to personally profit in the stock market and political venues. At the same time they operated the command and control of millions of dollars of defamation, character assassination and black-list attacks against us for reporting their crimes. These perpetrators are now being exposed, arrested, indicted and drained of their ill-gotten profits. We are owed our damages compensation and we will not rest until we get it! Every member of the public is invited to help crowd-source the termination of these corrupt crooks.

We worked for, with, in and around the White House and The Department of Energy. We were at the homes of the most famous people in government and their Silicon Valley financiers. We have cooperated with top law enforcement and Congressional investigators. Additional whistle-blowers have provided our effort with even more evidence. Ourselves, and investigating agencies, have absolute proof of the crimes, corruption and illicit activities and the ongoing cover-ups.

STATE SPONSORED REVENGE AND REPRISAL PROGRAMS ARE OPERATED BY PUBLIC OFFICIALS

Agency staff were ordered to harm Applicants by manipulating their benefits in order to deny, delay, obfuscate and reduce their income as reprisal for their assistance to law enforcement in a political corruption and money laundering matter. Agency staff, ranging from the lowest level staff at the San Francisco, San Mateo, Los Angeles and Marin offices, and up to the director headquarters offices, participated in this reprisal-vendetta-revenge action to harm Applicants. Applicant's peers have filed DOJ and FBI criminal referrals, launched federal investigations and the assertions have been proven in numerous IG, FBI, Congressional and major news media investigations. Agency offices have failed to provide responsive FOIA requested data, hearing investigation data and fair responses because some of their staff are STILL operating a criminal cover-up which has now been update-reported to the FBI, Congress, the IG, the AG and investigative reporters.

Other federal agencies have complied, verified and provided the requested deliverables. SSA and DOE have pointed the searchlight of suspicion on themselves, laser-like, by their overt failure to comply, unlike every other agency. Ironically, the political financing of their executives and their personal relationships happen to be with the exact same Silicon Valley oligarchs under felony criminal investigations. The stock market brokerage records, family trust accounts, PAC trace-routing, Interpol records and SEC investigation records proves it!

Unfortunately for the crooked agency staff, some Applicants have the authority, law enforcement credentials and training to arrest any person at their home or office and remand them to the FBI, DOJ or Sheriff. SSA and DOE staff should not longer screw around! For example: Every unsigned SSA email is tracked to the individual author by their IP address, device IMEI, web camera, building key card, door camera, parking lot use chart, building camera, vehicle tracking circuits, text dba records, keyboard UI/UX patterns, motherboard ID #, DNS routing, stingray read-outs and a vast number of other metrics. Applicant investigation peers know the exact person that wrote every SSA email or document or file request. There is no such thing as an anonymous SSA email. Transparency is the Applicants middle name. The FBI and CIA people that SSA and DOE insiders think are their buddies may actually be the APPLICANTS buddies!

You will either give the Applicant his money and damages compensation, from his 2007 benefits filings, forward, or suffer the consequences of the rapid acceleration of one of the largest investigations in modern history, supported by millions of voters with a shared peer-to-peer forensics social media network, the FBI and Congress. With the push of a single button, our latest info can be in the inbox of every blogger and independent investigative journalist in the world, in minutes.

History has proven that non-corrupt portions of federal agencies and public service law and community action firms have executed on their willingness to expend millions of dollars of resources to fight this injustice. Every individual involved in this at SSA and DOE are on a forensic database. No person at SSA or DOE who uses our government as a garage sale for corruption favors or a kill mill for political reprisals will avoid the 100% legally executed consequences. They will be targeted and prosecuted even more profoundly than the Applicants were targeted with IC-type hit jobs.

This felony criminal investigation case, is documented on thousands of websites and in dozens of federal court case records in which Applicant won the case or was vindicated in the case and in thousands of news websites. Applicants researchers and investigators disagree with any decision by any agency which causes a delay in response which puts the applicants in jeopardy for their life and safety. Testifying, and/or reporting about this crime has resulted in the death, potentially by murder, of the following individuals who reported to the authorities about this crime matter: Rajeev Motwani; Gary D. Conley; Seth Rich; Philip Haney; David Bird; Doug Bourn; Misti Epstein; Joshua Brown; Kenneth Bellando; Moritz Erhardt; Imran Aliev; Kate Matrosova; David Drye; Vincent Foster; Kathy Ferguson; Duane Garrett; Eric S. Fox; Judi Gibbs; Berta Caceres; Suzanne Coleman; L.J. Davis; John Hillyer; Stanley Huggins; Sandy Hume; Shawn Lucas; Gary Johnson; John Jones; John F. Kennedy, Jr.; Stephen Ivens; Mary 'Caity' Mahoney; Eric Butera; Danny Casolara; John Ashe; Tony Moser; Larry Nichols; Joseph Rago; Ron Brown; Bob Simon; Don Adams; Peter Smith; Victor Thorn; Lori Klausutis; Gareth Williams; Daphne Caruana Galizia; James D Johnston; Dave Goldberg; Loretta Fuddy; Paul Wilcher; Gary Webb; Beranton J. Whisenant Jr; Stanley Meyer; Jon Parnell Walker; Tyler Drumheller; Barnaby Jack; Dominic Di-Natale; Barbara Wise; Ilya Zhitomirskiy; Jeff Joe Black; Robin Copeland; John Wheeler; Ashley Turton; Michael Hastings; Antonin Scalia; David Koschman; David Werner; Alex Okrent; Kam Kuwata; Larry Frankel; And hundreds more connected to this case who suddenly, and strangely, turned up dead in this case and, ironically, their deaths all benefit the suspects in this case. Applicants are also whistle-blowers who have been previously attacked in reprisal and who have been threatened with continued harm and death.

Because this case involves a huge number of deaths, spies, trillions of dollars of energy industry funds, hit-jobs and epic political dirty tricks contracts there is a warning in effect to every suspect on "the list". "If any other principle whistle-blower in this case is killed, within 24 hours of their death, every person on "the list" will experience the worst possible outcome!"

Any delay, obfuscation, cover-up, FOIA refusal or other obscuring tactic by each and every member of an agency employee or contracting entity will be prosecuted on a person-by-person basis. Each employee or official who causes, by their action, further harm to the Applicants will be sued personally, have their assets garnished and will have a formal criminal referral authored and submitted to the FBI, DOJ, FTC, Congress and the news media. Applicants have sued the highest level personnel in the government for corruption, launched FBI and Congressional investigations against them and had them removed from their jobs and placed under permanent surveillance. The court and news records prove this fact. Do not imagine that any reprisal action by a public agency staffer will go unnoticed or unpunished by federal law enforcement, public forensics and major independent news media investigations.

Pay the Applicants their damages compensation, whistle-blower fees, back-fees and offset monies NOW!

The solipsistic self-aggrandizing corrupt pigs in San Francisco's City Hall and Pacific Heights are being hunted down (100% legally) and eviscerated by the FBI, public task forces like ours, the news media, private citizens and the biggest email leaks in history. Hundreds of people will be taken down. The few arrests you have read about in the media are only the beginning. We are all starting at the bottom of the cesspool and working our way up, all the way through Elon Musk, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, et al, and up to the White House. They will not escape, even in death. Roger Boas, Jeffrey Epstein, et al, may not still be lurking around but the truth about them will live on FOREVER!

THE PERPETRATORS:

The Organized Crime Bosses And Their Assassin Operatives That Are Being Terminated.

These are the people known as "The Deep State", "The Silicon Valley Cartel", "The Tech Mafia", et al:

â... To date, every single one of the targets that attacked us: 1.) have been sued; 2.) investigated by the government and our private investigators; 3.) had case files opened on them by the IRS, DOJ, GAO, FBI, FEC, SEC, FTC and others; 4.) placed under surveillance; 5.) had whistle-blowers and ex-staff expose them; 6.) been tracked across every social media post that has ever been made about them; 7.) had all of their illicit campaign funding and covert PAC cash exposed; 8.) had all of their family trust and shell corporation hiding places tracked and exposed by AI forensic software that works around-the-clock and 9.) placed on law enforcement watch-lists. Even the â... untouchablesâ... like Musk, Tesla, Google, Facebook, et al, now have nut-crunching law-suits filed against them, with more coming. There is no place to hide! You tried to kill us and we killed you back you criminal scum-bags!â...

The following Parties participated in the scam, thought they were â... untouchableâ... and found out that the arm of the law is very long, the hatred of the public for corruption is profound and that hundreds of public service groups have identified, tracked and assisted in their termination. This is the current list of the primary political mobster-scammers in this corruption who are all connected by financial, email and forensic FBI, SEC, FTC and CIA-class evidence. It is well known that every significant hacking and surveillance tool from the CIA, NSA, Fire-Eye and the FSB has been leaked on to the internet. Every teenage hacker is now exposing the last 20 years of these crooks crimes. They are all under deep investigation, surveillance and targeted for 100% legal termination using all the info found freely on the web and whistle-blower tips:

The Mob Bosses That Are Going Down:

- Google/Alphabet/YouTube â... Hiding under the guise of "Alphabet"; Charged with manipulation by multiple nations and national organizations; charged with crimes; charged with privacy harvesting frauds against the public; raided for tax fraud; loss of public trust; charged with campaign rigging by TV shows, presidential candidates, federal investigators and news media; under investigation for stock market pumping;

- Steven Chu â... Secretary of Energy (Sent packing/fired/forced to resign. Sued for corruption, publicly shamed by news media and Congress. Under ongoing investigation and surveillance)
- The NVCA, or National Venture Capital Association, is the lobbyist and Cartel organizer behind much of the misdeeds of this group, they bribe politicians, organize anti-patent campaigns and promote a RICO-violating anti-trust law violating set of tactics to protect their members and to harm competitors, most of the women and blacks that have worked at the NVCA have said they experienced abuse.
- SpaceX and their Star Link Web satellites are a domestic spying operation. They send all of the data that goes over their links to privacy abusers, data harvesters, and political spying operations. Friends don't let friends use Star Link. Any 14 year old hacker can hack into Star Links web streams. Star Link is a danger to global privacy on an epic scale.
- Lachlan Seward â... Manager to Steven Chu (Sent packing/fired/forced to resign. Sued for corruption. publicly shamed by news media and Congress. Under ongoing investigation and surveillance))

Please report your complaints about Tesla, Google, Match.com, OK Cupid, Netflix, Facebook, Kleiner Perkins, Sony Pictures (and the other tech cartel members) for the active investigations and federal lawsuits now in progress. By filing a complaint and telling your story, you can help identify trends and patterns of questionable business practices that will contribute to law enforcement and consumer protection efforts. You can be certain that these particular cases will get driven hard and pushed before Congress. The more reports we can get filed on these bad guys, the bigger the cases we can get processed. Are you wondering why you don't see any of the true facts on the "mainstream" internet or "news" sites. The tech Taliban of the internet have colluded to become an information and ideological control empire. If they can make you think, act and vote like they want then they can put their candidates in office who will give them trillions of dollars of government contracts. It has already worked. They all: sleep with each other; go to each other's parties; hire the same lobbyists, lawyers, Goldman Sachs fund managers; marry and date only people from the same frat houses and sororities; have the same homosexual agenda; finance the same PAC's; hide their money in the same off-shore bolt holes; instruct their HR departments to only hire young, naive, easily brainwashed, radical dyed-hair hippie-types; have bank accounts that have received CIA or In-Q-Tel cash; control the National Venture Capital Association so that nobody who competes with them can get funded; practice exclusionary culture, ie: while screaming about women's rights and BLM they never hire women or blacks; buy off the U.S. Patent Office to keep from having to pay for stealing most of their technology; own the servers and control equipment that operates 90% of the internet; etc. The Tech Taliban are: Netflix, Google, Alphabet, Youtube, LinkedIn, Amazon, AWS, CNN, Facebook, Tesla, SpaceX, Survey Monkey, etc.

TAKING THEM DOWN:

The greatest success in shutting down their efforts has come from two tactics:

1.) Forcing government agencies to sue them with RICO and Anti-trust lawsuits and by gathering groups of people to sue them with Class Action lawsuits. Lawyers will do Class Actions at no cost to you if you get enough people together.

2.) Using a CKB Procedure on each one. How the "Corruption Kill Box" (CKB) works: A CKB Procedure combines federal police investigations created by formal filed criminal referrals (which any member of the public can submit) and Form 302 overview drafts, public class-action lawsuits, massive news media disclosure blasts, formal regulatory agency complaint filings, individual lawsuits against political and agency executives, documentary film production and distribution, crash the crooks stocks, the promotion and organization of Congressional hearings, crowd-sourced social media public forensics and open-source AI financial crimes tracking software. The procedure is an extinction-level event with a 100% success rate against corrupt entities. CKB's only work on the corrupt, so non corrupt parties are safe from it's effects.

ANY member of the public can engage in these totally legal anti-corruption actions. Don't sit around and complain about these criminals. They own parts of the government.

YOU have to do something!

Just do it!

A Pentagon whistleblower was stripped of his security clearance and demoted after complaining about questionable government contracts with both FBI informant spy Stefan Halper and a company headed by Chelsea Clinton's "best friend" for whom then-Secretary of State Hillary Clinton arranged meetings, reports the Washington Times.

Adam Lovinger, a Trump supporter and 12-year veteran of the Pentagon's Office of Net Assessment (ONA), filed a whistleblower reprisal complaint with the Defense Department's inspector general in May against ONA boss James Baker - who hired Halper, 73, to "conduct foreign relations" and kept the details of the spy's contracts "close to the vest." Baker was appointed chief of the ONA in 2015 by Obama Defense Secretary, Ashton Carter.

At that point, Lovinger wouldn't have known was a spy working with the FBI/DOJ on operation "Crossfire Hurricane" - the code name for the Obama administration's counterintelligence operation against the Trump campaign.

In an internal October 2016 email to higher-ups, Mr. Lovinger wrote of â... the moral hazard associated with the Washington Headquarters Services contracting with Stefan Halper,â... the complaint said. It said Mr. Baker hired Mr. Halper to â... conduct foreign relations,â... a job that should be confined to government officials.

In the fall of 2016, as the election loomed, Mr. Lovinger sent emails to Mr. Baker and other officials at the Office of Net Assessment complaining about the entire outside contracting process. He also said the office failed to write papers on long-term threats presented by radical Islam, China and Iran.

And in September 2016, Lovinger sent an email directly to Baker summing up the perceived problems, which reads in part:

â... Some of our contractors distribute to others their ONA work for personal and professional self-promotion,â... wrote Lovinger. â... Another part is the growing narrative that ONAâ... s most high-profile contractors are known for getting paid a lot to do rather peripheral work."

â... On the issue of pay, our contractors boast about how much they get paid from ONA. Such boasting, of course, generates jealousy among those outside the club, and particularly from those who have tried to secure ONA contracts unsuccessfully.â...

"On the issue of quality, more than once I have heard our contractor studies labeled â... derivative,â... â... college-levelâ... and based heavily on secondary sources. One of our contractor studies was literally cut and pasted from a World Bank report that I just happened to have read the week before reading the contractor study itself. Even the font was the same."

Halper - an Oxford University professor, former US government official and longtime FBI / CIA asset (who was married to the CIA deputy director's daughter at one point), received over $400,000 for a 2016 contract which Lovinger complained about.

According to USASpending.gov, Mr. Halper was paid $411,000 by Washington Headquarters Services on Sept. 26, 2016, for a contract that ran until this March.
-Washington Times

In total, the American citizen teaching abroad received over \$1 million from contracts dated between 2012 and 2016.

Lovinger's attorney, Sean M. Bigley, filed the second of four complaints on July 18 with the Pentagon's senior ethics official, claiming that Lovinger's bosses punished him on May 1, 2017 by abusing the security clearance process to yank his credentials and relegate him to clerical chores. Lovinger's complaint also names the Washington Headquarters Services, a support agency within the Pentagon that awarded the Halper contracts.

â... As it turns out, one of the two contractors Mr. Lovinger explicitly warned his ONA superiors about misusing in 2016 was none other than Mr. Halper,â... wrote Bigley in the ethics complaint, which referred to the contracts as â... cronyism and corruption.â...

â... Nobody in the office seemed to know what Halper was doing for his money,â... said Bigley.
â... Adam said Jim Baker, the director, kept Halperâ... s contracts very close to the vest. And nobody seemed to have any idea what he was doing at the time. He subcontracted out a good chunk of it to other academics. He would compile them all and then collect the balance as his fee as a middleman. That was very unusual.â...

A longtime CIA and FBI asset who once reportedly ran a spy-operation on the Jimmy Carter administration, Halper was enlisted by the FBI to spy on several Trump campaign aides during the 2016 U.S. election, including Carter Page and George Papadopoulos.

Halper's $411,575 award came three days after a September 23 Yahoo! News article by Michael Isikoff about Trump aide Carter Page, which used information fed to Isikoff by "Steele dossier" creator Christopher Steele. The FBI would use the Yahoo! article along with the largely unverified dossier as supporting evidence in an FISA warrant application for Page.

The unassuming university professor approached Page during an election-themed conference at Cambridge on July 11, 2016, six weeks after the September 26 DoD award start date. The two would stay in contact for the next 14 months, frequently meeting and exchanging emails.

He said that he first encountered the informant during a conference in mid-July of 2016 and that they stayed in touch. The two later met several times in the Washington area. Mr. Page said their interactions were benign. -New York Times

And as the Daily Caller reported, Halper used a decades-old association with Paul Manafort to break the ice with Page.

Page noted that in their first conversation at Cambridge, Halper said he was longtime friends with then-campaign chairman Paul Manafort. A person close to Manafort told TheDCNF that Manafort has not seen Halper since the Gerald Ford administration. Manafort and Page are accused in the Steele dossier of having worked together on the campaignâ... s collusion conspiracy, but both men say they have never met. -Daily Caller Halper would continue to spy on Page after the election. Two days after the second installment of Halper's 2016 DoD contract, On July 28, he emailed Page with what the Trump campaign aide describes as a "cordial" communication, which did not seem suspicious to him at the time.

In the email to Page, Halper asks what his plans are post-election, possibly probing for more information. "It seems attention has shifted a bit from the 'collusion' investigation to the 'contretemps' [sic] within the White House and, how--or if--Mr. Scaramucci will be accommodated there," Halper wrote.

Clinton connection

The other complaint lodged by Lovinger concerns a string of contracts totaling $11 million to Long Term Strategy Group - a D.C. consulting firm headed by self-described "best friend" of Chelseal Clinton, Jacqueline Newmyer Deal.

In October, the Washington Free Beacon reported that then-Secretary of State Hillary Clinton arranged meetings in 2009 between Deal and Pentagon officials to discuss contracts - to which Deal says no award "resulted directly or indirectly from the actions or influence of Secretary Clinton."

According to one 2009 email, Clinton said she recommended Deal to Michele Flournoy, the newly installed undersecretary of defense for policy, who was seeking young women to mentor.

Deal, a specialist in China affairs who worked at the White House as a press aide for First Lady Clinton in the 1990s, wrote back to Clinton saying she would meet Flournoy on May 5, 2009, and stated "thank you very much for making this happen."

Later that month, Deal thanked Clinton for "all your encouragement and help with DoD, " shorthand for the Defense Department. -Free Beacon

In a statement, Deal said: "Jacqueline Deal and the Long Term Strategy Group (LTSG) are justifiably proud of their collaboration with the US Department of Defense across multiple administrations over the last two decades, beginning under the administration of President George W. Bush. LTSG's work has consistently earned the highest respect and confidence of its clientele in government and has won LTSG a reputation for producing research and analysis of exceptional quality."

I'll reiterate my desire to serve America as public executioner for political criminals.

Cleaning up this mess, is what the eye used to be good for.

None of these people are going to see the inside of a court room, they have too much dirt on too many other powerful people, it's just impossible.

They have the DOJ in the palm of their hand, and if they didn't have that they would still have every judge within 50 miles of DC, or buy a jury member, if they didn't have the judge.

Baker Testimony Reveals Perkins Coie Lawyer Provided FBI With Information For Smear Campaign By DNC

By Jeff Carlson

Closed-door testimony by former top FBI lawyer James Baker revealed that Michael Sussmann, a lawyer and partner at Perkins Coie, gave Baker information alleging a Russian bank was communicating with a server in Trump Tower... an allegation later proven false.

Former FBI General Counsel James Baker.

Sussmann, whose firm had been retained by the Democratic National Committee (DNC) and Hillary Clinton... s 2016 presidential campaign, provided information to Baker and at least one journalist ahead of the FBI... s application for a FISA warrant on Trump campaign foreign policy advisor, Carter Page.

Perkins Coie also was the law firm that had hired Fusion GPS... on behalf of the Clinton campaign and the DNC... which in turn hired former British MI6 agent Christopher Steele to produce the dossier that has become known as the Steele dossier.

Sussmann... s identity as an outside source to Baker had previously been reported. But new details regarding the specific information that Sussman provided to Baker, their interactions and timing, along with the FBI... s response were revealed in Baker... s testimonies.

Baker... s testimonies before the House judiciary and oversight committees were conducted on Oct. 3 and Oct. 18 in an unclassified setting with legal counsel present. The transcripts have not been publicly released, but were obtained for this article. (Note: Sussmann... s name is spelled incorrectly as â... Sussman... in the transcript from Day One. The transcript from Day Two contains the correct spelling.)

Sussmann... s name came up during the first day of Baker... s testimony when he was asked whether it was â... normal practice for general counsel to talk to confidential human sources?â...

Mr. Baker: There is another occasion that I can think of where somebody brought material to me, based on a preexisting relationship. They gave the material to me. Same situation [as Corn]. I was quite concerned about it. I gave it to the investigator â...

Rep. Meadows: And who was that?

Mr. Baker: Who was that?

Rep. Meadows: Yeah.

Mr. Baker: Michael Sussman.

Baker acknowledged that he had a â... personal relationshipâ... with Sussmann as they had previously â... both worked in the criminal division together at the Department of Justice.â...

Michael Sussmann, partner at Perkins Coie, the law firm hired by the DNC and the Clinton campaign during the 2016 elections. (Courtesy Perkins Coie)

Sussmann had sought out Baker directly, going so far as to make an appointment in advance. As the FBIâ... s general counsel, Baker advised senior FBI leaders, including FBI Director James Comey and Deputy FBI Director Andrew McCabe, on the legal aspects of key investigations and served as the liaison with the Department of Justice (DOJ).

The significance and importance of Bakerâ... s position within the FBI was noted by the lawmakers. At one point during testimony, Rep. Jim Jordan (R-Ohio) asked Baker, â... is it fair to say that any materials passed by the FBI general counsel automatically have a reliability and a level of credibility attached to them? Youâ... re the FBIâ... s general counsel, if youâ... re getting information from an outside source and passing it, [sic] on that means something.â... Baker responded, â... I suppose so, Congressman.â...

By using his personal relationship with Baker, Sussmann was able to ensure that the information he was bringing to the FBI would immediately receive investigative attention. Which is precisely what happened:

Rep. Jordan: And people are going to take seriously when the FBI general counsel has some source giving them information related to a pretty darn important investigation, theyâ... re going to take that pretty seriously and follow up on it.

Mr. Baker: Within the organization, the Bureau?

Rep. Jordan: Yes.

Mr. Baker: Yes, I would say so.

During their initial meeting, Sussmann told Baker â... he had cyber experts that had obtained some information that they thought they should get into the hands of the FBI.â... Who these â... cyber expertsâ... were and where they got their information was not disclosed.

According to Bakerâ... s testimony, the information provided by Sussmann appeared to be substantial:

Mr. Baker: It was like â... my recollection was it was a stack of material I donâ... t know maybe a quarter inch half inch thick something like that clipped together, and then I believe there was some type of electronic media, as well, a disk or something.

Sussmann, whose Perkins Coie bio describes him as â... a nationally-recognized privacy, cybersecurity and national security lawyer,â... was also the lawyer the DNC turned to on April 28, 2016, after discovering the alleged hack of their servers. Immediately following the alleged discovery, DNC CEO Amy Dacey called Sussmann at Perkins Coie. After speaking with Dacey, Sussmann contacted Shawn Henry, CSO and president of cybersecurity technology firm CrowdStrike.

Sussmann was never interviewed by the FBI, which Baker found surprising, noting â... It is logical to me that we would go back and interview [Sussmann].â... Sussmann was interviewed by the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence on Dec. 18, 2017.

Under questioning, Baker revealed that the information from Sussmann was â... unrelated to the [Steele] dossier, itâ... s another investigative matter.â... Baker was then asked if the information pertained to the â... Trump-Russia matter.â...

After some interjection by the FBI lawyer from Bakerâ... s old division, the Office of General Counsel, Baker acknowledged the information Sussmann brought to him did indeed relate to the FBIâ... s Trump-Russia investigation.

Baker was asked whether this meeting with Sussmann occurred â... before the election or after the election?â... Baker noted that he thought it occurred before the election. From there, his memory became less clear.

During Bakerâ... s second day of testimony, lawmakers came to the interview with Bakerâ... s calendar in their possession and provided an initial meeting date between Baker and Sussmann of Sept. 19, 2016. This date would later prove to be significant.

According to Bakerâ... s testimony, there appears to have been at least three meetingsâ... the first in person and at least two subsequent meetings by phone.

Baker was asked if this type of interaction with an outside counsel had ever occurred before. In response, Baker admitted that his interaction with Sussmann was singularly unique:

Rep. Jordan: [This] is the first time and to your recollection the only time an outside counsel had information and was wanting to make sure it got to the general counsel of the FBI, and it happened to deal with the Russia investigation.

Mr. Baker: I that thatâ... s correct. Sitting here today, thatâ... s the only one I can remember.

Sussmannâ... s Leak to the Media

During the second day of Bakerâ... s testimony, he said that during a subsequent, â... follow-upâ... conversation he understood that Sussmann was also talking to the media, noting that Sussmann had told him â... some elements of the press had this information as well and were going to publish something about it.â...

In either the second or third conversation, Baker came to understand The New York Times was also in possession of Sussmannâ... s information. As would become clear later, other members of the media also had this same information.

Comey and McCabe Appear to Have Been Involved

According to Baker, this created a problem for the FBI, which had already begun to investigate the information provided by Sussmann. After FBI leadership realized that Sussmann was speaking with the media, Baker was asked, possibly by FBI Director James Comey himself, to go back to Sussmann and see if he would be willing to get The New York Times to delay publishing:

Rep. Jordan: [And] the people who asked you to make that call back to Mr. Sussman and ask him, you know, to delay, who were those people?

Mr. Baker: I don't specifically recall, but I believe it was the â...

Rep. Jordan: Priestap.

Baker: I think it was Priestap, and I think it might be â...

Rep. Jordan: Strzok? Peter Strzok?

Baker: It may have been, but I am also thinking it was the director and/or the deputy director.

As Sussmann was actually the source for The New York Times, he had the ability to force the paper to hold off on publishing, which they apparently did:

Mr. Baker: He was the source â... he told me the New York Times was aware of this. We, the FBI, went to the New York Times and then started a series of conversations with them to try to get them to slow down

Baker testified there were a number of high-level FBI officials involved in the investigation of Sussmann's information:

Rep. Jordan: But McCabe, Comey, Priestap, and Strzok you believe were involved, that is the â... weâ... who came to you and said call Mr. Sussman back and â...

Mr. Baker: Some combination of those people in a set of conversations over some period of time, yes. I know that is vague. I apologize, but that is what I recall.

Baker made several mentions of McCabe but also noted Comey's involvement during his testimony, telling lawmakers â... we briefed him on it.â... Notably, Baker said he didn't â... remember Lisa [Page] being involved in this part.â... Interestingly, the texts between Lisa Page, who served as McCabe's personal counsel, and FBI agent Peter Strzok make it appear as if they were jointly involved in most facets of the various investigations.

Baker had avoided discussing exactly what information Sussmann had provided, but late on the second day of his testimony, Baker was asked some specific questions about an article published in Slate Magazine:

Rep. Jordan: It talks about some bank in Russia, Alfa-Bank, communicating with some Trump financial institutions in the server there.

None of that kind of conversation was related to you by Mr. Sussmann when you met?

Baker: Oh, yes. I mean, that is what he told me about. Yeah, absolutely.

After consultation with FBI legal counsel, Baker said he would describe the information he received from Sussmann in a general sense.

â... He was describing a â... what appeared to be a surreptitious channel of communications â... communication between some part of President Trumpâ... s, Iâ... ll say organization but it could be his businesses. I donâ... t mean like The Trump Organization, per se. I mean his enterprises with which he was associated. Some part of that and a â... an organization associated with â... a Russian organization associated with the Russian Government.â...

Baker was describing alleged communications between Alfa Bank and a server in the Trump Tower. These allegations, later proven to be false, became the subject of much media speculation.

Sussmann Meeting Followed New Steele Memos

Bakerâ... s initial meeting with Sussmann took place on Sept. 19, 2016. The timing is particularly notable as Steele had just produced a series of three new memos dated Sept. 14, 2016. One of these memos directly referenced Alfa Bankâ... misspelled in Steeleâ... s memo as â... Alpha.â...

On Sept. 23, Michael Isikoff of Yahoo News published his article on Carter Page, â... U.S. Intel Officials Probe Ties Between Trump Adviser and Kremlin.â... His article, which came from information provided by Steele, would later be cited by the FBI in the Page FISA application.

The same day, Hillary for America released a statement touting Isikoffâ... s â... bombshell reportâ... with the full article attached.

At exactly the same time, on Sept. 23, Politico published a lengthy article, â... Who Is Carter Page? The Mystery of Trumpâ... s Man in Moscow.â... by Julia Ioffe. Within the article were a number of intriguing hints as to what was transpiring behind the scenes:

â... As I started looking into Page, I began getting calls from two separate â... corporate investigatorsâ... digging into what they claim are all kinds of shady connections Page has to all kinds of shady Russians. One is working on behalf of various unnamed Democratic donors; the other wonâ... t say who turned him on to Pageâ... s scent.â...

Ioffe noted that â... Seemingly everyone I talked to had also talked to the Washington Post, and then there were these corporate investigators who drew a dark and complex web of Pageâ... s connections.â...

Ioffe had also been told of rumors regarding Alfa Bank:

â... In the interest of due diligence, I also tried to run down the rumors being handed me by the corporate investigators: that Russiaâ... s Alfa Bank paid for the trip as a favor to the Kremlin; that Page met with Sechin and Ivanov in Moscow; that he is now being investigated by the FBI for those meetings because Sechin and Ivanov were both sanctioned for Russiaâ... s invasion of Ukraine.â...

The Alfa Bank Allegations

The information that Sussmann provided to Baker on Alfa Bankâ... s alleged communications with a Trump Tower server was later detailed in a since-debunked article by Slate, â... Was a Trump Server Communicating With Russia.â... The article, which was published on Oct. 31, 2016, concerned allegations regarding a server in the Trump Tower that had allegedly been communicating with a server at Alfa Bank in Russia. Both the FBI and The New York Times found the allegations to be unfounded. Nevertheless, the article was used in the promotion of the Trump-Russia collusion narrative.

On the very same day, Oct. 31, 2016, two other articles were also published. The first, â... Investigating Donald Trump, F.B.I. Sees No Clear Link to Russia,â... by the New York Times, appeared to be an updated version of the article they had intended to publish before the FBI asked them to delay their reporting:

â... In classified sessions in August and September, intelligence officials also briefed congressional leaders on the possibility of financial ties between Russians and people connected to Mr. Trump. They focused particular attention on what cyberexperts said appeared to be a mysterious computer back channel between the Trump Organization and the Alfa Bank, which is one of Russiaâ... s biggest banks and whose owners have longstanding ties to Mr. Putin.

F.B.I. officials spent weeks examining computer data showing an odd stream of activity to a Trump Organization server and Alfa Bank. Computer logs obtained by The New York Times show that two servers at Alfa Bank sent more than 2,700 â... look-upâ... messagesâ... a first step for one systemâ... s computers to talk to anotherâ... to a Trump-connected server beginning in the spring. But the F.B.I. ultimately concluded that there could be an innocuous explanation, like a marketing email or spam, for the computer contacts.â...

The other article published on Oct. 31, â... A Veteran Spy Has Given the FBI Information Alleging a Russian Operation to Cultivate Donald Trump,â... by Mother Jones reporter David Corn, provided the first public reporting on the existence of the Steele dossier:

â... A former senior intelligence officer for a Western country who specialized in Russian counterintelligence tells Mother Jones that in recent months he provided the bureau with memos, based on his recent interactions with Russian sources, contending the Russian government has for years tried to co-opt and assist Trumpâ... and that the FBI requested more information from him.â...

Notably, Cornâ... s article also mentioned Alfa Bank:

â... (In recent weeks, reporters in Washington have pursued anonymous online reports that a computer server related to the Trump Organization engaged in a high level of activity with servers connected to Alfa Bank, the largest private bank in Russia. On Monday, a Slate investigation detailed the pattern of unusual server activity but concluded, â... We donâ... t yet know what this [Trump] server was for, but it deserves further explanation.â... In an email to Mother Jones, Hope Hicks, a Trump campaign spokeswoman, maintains, â... The Trump Organization is not sending or receiving any communications from this email server. The Trump Organization has no communication or relationship with this entity or any Russian entity.â... )â...

All three articles came out on Oct. 31, 2016, including The New York Times article. Recall, the The New York Times had been asked to refrain from publishing while the FBI was investigating the matter. Which begs the question, were the authors of these other two, highly-coincidentally timed articles also asked to delay their publication? It certainly seems as if all three were given the green light at the same time.

This raises the question of whether Sussmann was also leaking to Franklin Foer of Slate and David Corn of Mother Jones. Or whether Fusion GPS co-founder Glenn Simpson, whose firm had hired Steele, was acting as a conduit to these individuals.

Itâ... s possible another explanation exists for the same-day publication of all three articles, but the concurrent timing, along with details from Bakerâ... s testimony, appears to suggest otherwise.

On the same day, Oct. 31, Hillary Clinton sent a tweet which included a statement from Jake Sullivan, a Senior Policy Advisor:

â... Computer scientists have apparently uncovered a covert server linking the Trump Organization to a Russian-based bank.â...

Sullivanâ... s statement referenced the Slate article and included the following:

â... This could be the most direct link yet between Donald Trump and Moscow. Computer scientists have apparently uncovered a covert server linking the Trump Organization to a Russian-based bank.

This secret hotline may be the key to unlocking the mystery of Trumpâ... s ties to Russia. It certainly seems the Trump Organization felt it had something to hide, given that it apparently took steps to conceal the link when it was discovered by journalists.â...

With this statement from the Clinton campaign, combined with the Slate article and the Corn article, the Alfa Bank story took offâ... despite the same-day story from the New York Times, which specifically noted the FBI had investigated that matter and found nothing untoward.

Sussmannâ... s decision to choose Baker as his FBI contact proved highly effective.

Podesta Center for American Progress Fires Two After Intercept Scrutiny

By Julia A. Seymour |

The liberal media outlet The Intercept reported that its scrutiny of the liberal Center for American Progress recently led to the firing of two CAP employees â suspectedâ of leaking emails. Leaked emails showed concern among some staff about United Arab Emiratesâ influence at the liberal group.

CAP is one of the most well-known liberal groups in Washington, D.C. and is supported by a host of prominent left-wing names including George Soros and Tom Steyer. Soros gave more than $12 million to CAP between 2005 and 2014 and more since.

The CAP site indicated Sorosâ Open Society Foundations gave another â $1 million or moreâ in 2015, 2016 and 2017. Impeach Trump advocate Tom Steyerâ foundation donated $1 million or more each year from 2014 through 2017. He is also on its board of directors. The Embassy of the UAE was also listed as a â \$500,000 to \$999,999â donor for 2017.

In late 2018 or early 2019, The Intercept inquired about an â internal debateâ at CAP over its statement about the murder of columnist Jamal Khashoggi by Saudi Arabian officials in Istanbul after it obtained leaked emails (which they said did not come from CAP staff).

The Intercept stated that itâ request for comment about another story â prompted an internal leak investigation at CAP, which included searching employeesâ emails without their knowledge.â

The emails it obtained showed Gulf expert Brian Katulis of CAP objecting to the Khashoggi statementâ s â specific consequencesâ for Saudi Arabia â specifics that were dropped before the statement was released.

According to the Jan. 16, Intercept story, Katulis is â close with the UAEâ s ambassador in Washingtonâ and â The UAE, Saudi Arabiaâ s closest ally, is one of the top donorsâ to CAP. Itâ s attempts to get comment on an email exchange about the statement provoked an internal investigation at CAP looking for the source of the leaks.

In July 2017, The Intercept also published a story critical of the UAEâ s coziness with a number of left-wing groups in D.C. based on â hacked emailsâ from the ambassadorâ s account. The Hackers referred to themselves as GlobalLeaks. One of those emails written by the ambassador mentioned working with Katulis â to plan and execute an Embassy-supported study tour of national security experts to the UAE this spring.â

Following the internal investigation, CAP fired senior national security staffer Ken Gude and an unnamed second individual, but told The Intercept, â We are not going to discuss internal personnel matters, but no one was fired at CAP for leaking or whistleblowing.â

The Intercept reported that â neither of the former employees was The Interceptâ s source.â It added later, â The CAP Email exchange about Khashoggiâ s killing was not leaked to The Intercept by a CAP staffer; its substance was described by a source outside CAP.â

Political Operative Admits: We Have Been Rigging Elections for 50 Years

Written by Selwyn Duke

It's a very easy thing for Republicans to say, "Well, they're bussing people in." Well, you know what? We've been bussing people in to deal with you f*****g a*****s for 50 years and we're not going to stop now." So said Scott Foval, until recently the national field director for left-wing group Americans United for Change. The people he described so vulgarly are Republicans, and by "deal with" he was referring to committing vote fraud.

You know, that crime Democrats claim doesn't exist.

Captured on video by a Project Veritas undercover reporter posing as a Democrat donor aiming to perpetrate a vote-fraud plot, Foval's startling admissions come on the heels of an undercover video showing New York City's Democrat election commissioner, Alan Schulkin, admitting that "there is a lot of voter fraud." But while Schulkin actually lamented that political operatives "bus people in," Foval is one of the election thieves orchestrating the bussing proudly (video below).

Despite the above, GOP presidential nominee Donald Trump was still asked at Wednesday's debate whether he'd accept the November 8 election outcome, unconditionally; this is much like asking baseball fans if theyâ... d accept their teamâ... s loss even though itâ... s known the umpires are biased against their side and that the other team intends to cheat. And this political skullduggery has already been honed. As Zero Hedge reports, Project Veritas head James O'Keefe â... reveals how people, like Foval, successfully organize massive voter fraud in key swing states. Among other things, Foval goes into great details about how fraudulent out-of-state voters are hired on at fake â... shell companiesâ... just so they can register to vote and are then paid for their votes through â... paychecksâ... from those same entities. Foval goes on to detail how the operatives bring people in to different states, using their own personal vehicles or by having shell companies rent vehicles, instead of using busses which would make it easier to prove a conspiracy.â... (Emphasis in original.)

The Project Veritas video also features a co-conspirator, Robert Creamer, whom Breitbart describes as â... a veteran Chicago activist and convicted felon who is thought to have planned Democratsâ... political strategy during the push for Obamacare in 2009 and 2010. Creamer is also the co-founder of Democracy Partners, a consulting group that, according to Project Veritas videos, apparently contracts directly with the Hillary Clinton campaign and the DNC, and that works with an array of super PACs and consultants to organize, film and publicize their provocations.â... In fact, Creamer is so deeply embedded in the Democrat machine that he has visited the Obama White House 342 times since 2009.

Not surprisingly, Foval expressed admiration for this older manipulator, saying:

Bob Creamer is diabolical and I love him for it. I have learned so much from that man over the last twenty years, I canâ... t even tell you. And he calls me to be his firefighter a lot of the time, because there are people who in our movement will not do what it takes to get s**t done. And Iâ... m not that person. Iâ... m the one they send when everything has gone to s**t. And so he spends a lot of time on the phone with my boss asking me to go places that I donâ... t wish to go.

And what gets done? Foval explained, â... We manipulated the vote with money and action, not with laws.â... The fraudster continued:

Itâ... s a pretty easy thing for Republicans to say, â... Well, theyâ... re bussing people in!â... Well, you know what? Weâ... ve been bussing people in to deal with you f*****g a*****s for 50 years, and weâ... re not going to stop now. Weâ... re just going to find a different way to do it. So, I mean I grew up with that idea. They used to bus people out to Iowa. If they needed people there weâ... d bus people out to Iowa.

As for future schemes, Foval mentioned two other swing states, saying, â... Honestly, the ripest environment to do it in? Two, within striking distance: Michigan, Indiana. Least restrictive donation caps and campaign finance laws and investigative arms, and any of that. Like they have weakened it so bad in those three states [sic], you could f*** your mother in front of the governor and not go to jail â... if you have enough money to do this.â...

What may enrage American patriots even more is that Foval put the Project Veritas reporter in touch with a Democrat operative who was willing to help facilitate a vote-fraud scheme â... and who is also a Mexican-born illegal alien. The manâ... s name is Cesar Vargas, a New York lawyer and Creamer ally who is co-founder of the Dream Action Coalition. As for his criminal dream, he stated:

Like I said, this is not gonna happen this election. So I think itâ... s about, for us, letâ... s see who the next president is. If it ... if itâ... s Donald Trump, it even makes more sense. The issue will be more credible and itâ... ll give us more opportunity to jump in there. If itâ... s Secretary Clinton, and the voter ID laws are losing and we have much more opportunity to vote, and we have immigration reform, itâ... s not going to be as significant, right?

Vargas also said in no uncertain terms, â... Yeah, and for me I totally get it, this is illegal; this is something that can be done.â€¦

As for Foval, he had expressed his determination to expand the scheme, saying that it could be put into practice â€¦ on a much bigger scale. You implement a massive change in state legislatures and in Congress. So you aim higher for your goals, and you implement it across every Republican-held state.â€¦

Foval helped make clear part of the reason why vote fraud is mainly a Democrat province, saying in part 1 of the Project Veritas vote-fraud investigation (the video cited above is part 2), â€¦ There is a level of adherence to rules on the other side [Republicans] that only when youâ€¦ re at the very highest level, do you get over.â€¦ But he clearly has no such moral encumbrances, saying in the video that it â€¦ doesnâ€¦ t matter what the frigginâ€¦ legal and ethics people say, we need to win this m****r****r.â€¦

And Foval worried no more about the law than the â€¦ legalâ€¦ people, telling the Project Veritas journalist, â€¦ The question is, whether when you get caught by a reporter, does that matter? Because does it turn into an investigation or not? In this case, this state [Wisconsin], the answer is no, because they donâ€¦ t have any power to do anything.â€¦ And perhaps heâ€¦ s right. Explaining why Project Veritasâ€¦ first vote-fraud video didnâ€¦ t get wider exposure, James Oâ€¦ Keefe said that many media outlets â€¦ spiked the story at the last minute. Our sources tell us the reason they did so was fear of retaliation and retribution from a future Hillary Clinton Administration.â€¦

Nonetheless, Foval was fired Monday by the Americans United for Change, which claimed that it â€¦ has always operated according to the highest ethical standards,â€¦ while Creamer announced Tuesday that heâ€¦ d be â€¦ stepping backâ€¦ from his work with the Democratic campaign for Hillary Clinton. Of course, itâ€¦ s almost a given that after a six-month hiatus, theyâ€¦ ll be back, with a different organization and perhaps in a different guise.

For more shocking evidence of how bad vote fraud has become, view the Fox News Sunday Morning Futures video below, which presents an investigation into the matter.

So how bad is vote fraud? The Washington Post reported in 2014 on a study showing that non-citizen voters might have already tipped US elections in Democratsâ€¦ favor. And the problem wonâ€¦ t go away if we just cede elections, say nice words, and abide by a rule of lawlessness.

â€¦ Itâ€¦ s a very easy thing for Republicans to say, â€¦ Well, theyâ€¦ re bussing people in.â€¦ Well, you know what? Weâ€¦ ve been bussing people in to deal with you f*****g a*****s for 50 years and weâ€¦ re not going to stop now." So said Scott Foval, until recently the national field director for left-wing group Americans United for Change. The people he described so vulgarly are Republicans, and by â€¦ deal withâ€¦ he was referring to committing vote fraud.

You know, that crime Democrats claim doesnâ€¦ t exist.

Captured on video by a Project Veritas undercover reporter posing as a Democrat donor aiming to perpetrate a vote-fraud plot, Fovalâ... s startling admissions come on the heels of an undercover video showing New York Cityâ... s Democrat election commissioner, Alan Schulkin, admitting that â... there is a lot of voter fraud.â... But while Schulkin actually lamented that political operatives â... bus people in,â... Foval is one of the election thieves orchestrating the bussing â... proudly (video below).

Despite the above, GOP presidential nominee Donald Trump was still asked at Wednesdayâ... s debate whether heâ... d accept the November 8 election outcome, unconditionally; this is much like asking baseball fans if theyâ... d accept their teamâ... s loss even though itâ... s known the umpires are biased against their side and that the other team intends to cheat. And this political skullduggery has already been honed. As Zero Hedge reports, Project Veritas head James O'Keefe â... reveals how people, like Foval, successfully organize massive voter fraud in key swing states. Among other things, Foval goes into great details about how fraudulent out-of-state voters are hired on at fake â... shell companiesâ... just so they can register to vote and are then paid for their votes through â... paychecksâ... from those same entities. Foval goes on to detail how the operatives bring people in to different states, *using their own personal vehicles or by having shell companies rent vehicles, instead of using busses which would make it easier to prove a conspiracy.*â... (Emphasis in original.)

The Project Veritas video also features a co-conspirator, Robert Creamer, whom Breitbart describes as â... a veteran Chicago activist and convicted felon who is thought to have planned Democratsâ... political strategy during the push for Obamacare in 2009 and 2010. Creamer is also the co-founder of Democracy Partners, a consulting group that, according to Project Veritas videos, apparently contracts directly with the Hillary Clinton campaign and the DNC, and that works with an array of super PACs and consultants to organize, film and publicize their provocations.â... In fact, Creamer is so deeply embedded in the Democrat machine that he has visited the Obama White House 342 times since 2009.

Not surprisingly, Foval expressed admiration for this older manipulator, saying:

Bob Creamer is diabolical and I love him for it. I have learned so much from that man over the last twenty years, I canâ... t even tell you. And he calls me to be his firefighter a lot of the time, because there are people who in our movement will not do what it takes to get s**t done. And Iâ... m not that person. Iâ... m the one they send when everything has gone to s**t. And so he spends a lot of time on the phone with my boss asking me to go places that I donâ... t wish to go.

And what gets done? Foval explained, â... We manipulated the vote with money and action, not with laws.â... The fraudster continued:

Itâ... s a pretty easy thing for Republicans to say, â... Well, theyâ... re bussing people in!â... Well, you know what? Weâ... ve been bussing people in to deal with you f*****g a*****s for 50 years, and weâ... re not going to stop now. Weâ... re just going to find a different way to do it. So, I mean I grew up with that idea. They used to bus people out to Iowa. If they needed people there weâ... d bus people out to Iowa.

Political Smear Job? Perkins Coie Seems To Sell Political Hit-Jobs

Over the July 4th holiday, NBC News posted an article detailing alleged sexual abuse at Ohio State University. At the center of the story, NBC News implicated one of the most well-known members of the Republican party, Rep. Jim Jordan of Ohio.

Former wrestlers that Jordan coached over two decades ago at OSU accuse him of failing to stop the team doctor from molesting students.

It's obvious to anyone paying attention that Jim Jordan is on the rise. Already a member of the Freedom Caucus, his name has been thrown around by many for the next Speaker of the House. Jordan has also led the charge against the corruption at the FBI and DOJ - known for many heated debates in hearings.

To note, the University opened an investigation into the accusations that Dr. Richard Strauss - who died in 2005 - abused students when he was the doctor for the wrestling team during his tenure from the mid-70s to late 90s back in April. The timing of Jordan's name being thrown into the mess is not the only suspect element regarding this scandal!

Enter Perkins Coie, the firm heavily involved in the investigation into whether or not Russia influenced the 2016 Presidential election. When DNC servers were hacked, Perkins Coie did not go to authorities with proof of the hack but instead hired CrowdStrike, a cybersecurity firm with ties to Hillary Clinton, to investigate the breach.

As FMShooter reported back in 2017:

On top of all of this, Crowdstrike was the only one to come to a conclusion on the â... Russiaâ... conspiracy. The FBI never even inspected the hacked DNC servers and simply went off of Crowdstrikeâ... s conclusion that Russian hackers did infiltrate DNC servers when there is absolutely no proof behind their claim.

Perkins Coie also sits at the center of the FISA abuse scandal. The Steele dossier was the first piece of evidence used in FISA warrants to surveil former Trump team member, Carter Page. Both the Hillary Clinton campaign and Democratic National Committee helped fund research into the Steele dossier through Perkins Coie â... the very same law firm that is now looking into the accusations against Strauss and Jim Jordan.

For proof, OpenSecrets has Perkins Coieâ... s major contributions laid bare.

Of course, the DNC tops the list with Hillary For America, Obama for America, and Priorities USA Action â... David Brockâ... s former PAC â... also making appearances; along with many other high-profile Democratic fundraising efforts.

Notably, Perkins Coie was hired by OSU to investigate the accusations less than a month after the University shut down their office that helped sexual-assault victims. In a statement, OSU said:

To date, Perkins Coie has interviewed more than 150 former students and witnesses and is engaged in further investigative efforts. Ohio State has shared all additional information that has come to the attention of the university with the independent investigators whose work is ongoing.

This isn't even mentioning the shaky history of Jordan's accusers, raising questions about their authenticity.

One of the accusers, Mike DiSabato is being accused by the widow of a marine for intimidating and bullying her over a memorial fund set up in her husband's name. Another accuser served time in prison for a $1.8 million fraud scheme.

While OSU did notify local police and prosecutors, it's strange that they immediately selected a law firm (and stranger that it was Perkins Coie) instead of letting police handle the investigation. Perkins Coie has no power to convene a grand jury or bring charges of perjury; nor do they have police powers or are able to compel someone to testify.

Certainly, an investigation into these accusations is warranted. However, giving the case to a law firm with proven bias isn't how to go about getting to the truth. Perkins Coie are already involved in numerous scandals and being involved in this investigation further complicates the process. Perkins Coie has proven that politics is more important than the truth - therefore, can any conclusion they reach in this case really be trusted?

While OSU did notify local police and prosecutors, it's strange that they immediately selected a law firm (and stranger that it was Perkins Coie) instead of letting police handle the investigation. Perkins Coie has no power to convene a grand jury or bring charges of perjury; nor do they have police powers or are able to compel someone to testify.

Certainly, an investigation into these accusations is warranted. However, giving the case to a law firm with proven bias isn't how to go about getting to the truth. Perkins Coie are already involved in numerous scandals and being involved in this investigation further complicates the process. Perkins Coie has proven that politics is more important than the truth - therefore, can any conclusion they reach in this case really be trusted?

Over the July 4th holiday, NBC News posted an article detailing alleged sexual abuse at Ohio State University. At the center of the story, NBC News implicated one of the most well-known members of the Republican party, Rep. Jim Jordan of Ohio.

Former wrestlers that Jordan coached over two decades ago at OSU accuse him of failing to stop the team doctor from molesting students.

It's obvious to anyone paying attention that Jim Jordan is on the rise. Already a member of the Freedom Caucus, his name has been thrown around by many for the next Speaker of the House. Jordan has also led the charge against the corruption at the FBI and DOJ - known for many heated debates in hearings.

To note, the University opened an investigation into the accusations that Dr. Richard Strauss - who died in 2005 - abused students when he was the doctor for the wrestling team during his tenure from the mid-70s to late 90s back in April. The timing of Jordan's name being thrown into the mess is not the only suspect element regarding this scandal!

BEIJING: The US embassy in China issued a health alert on Wednesday (May 23) after a US government employee experienced an "abnormal" sound and suffered a mild brain injury - in an incident reminiscent of a mysterious illness that hit diplomats in Cuba.

US and Chinese authorities are investigating the matter after the employee, who was assigned to the southern city of Guangzhou, was diagnosed with mild traumatic brain injury (MTBI), said embassy spokeswoman Jinnie Lee.

Advertisement

In an alert emailed to US citizens in China, the embassy said it does not know what caused the symptoms or of any similar situations in the country.

In Cuba last year, the US disclosed that 24 diplomats and their family members had fallen victim to an unsolved mysterious attack that left them with injuries resembling brain trauma. Ten Canadian diplomats and their relatives also suffered a strange illness.

"We cannot at this time connect it with what happened in Havana but we are investigating all possibilities," a US embassy official in Beijing told AFP on the condition of anonymity.

The embassy's health alert says the government employee "recently reported subtle and vague, but abnormal, sensations of sound and pressure".

"The US government is taking these reports seriously and has informed its official staff in China of this event," the message says.

"While in China, if you experience any unusual acute auditory or sensory phenomena accompanied by unusual sounds or piercing noises, do not attempt to locate their source. Instead, move to a location where the sounds are not present," it says, urging people with medical problems to consult a doctor.

Lee said the employee experienced "a variety of physical symptoms" between late 2017 through April 2018. The person was sent to the United States and diagnosed with MTBI on May 18.

"The (State) Department is taking this incident very seriously and is working to determine the cause and impact of the incident," Lee said.

"The Chinese government has assured us they are also investigating and taking appropriate measures."

The Chinese foreign ministry could not be immediately reached for comment.

CUBAN CASE

In Cuba, the American victims had associated the onset of their symptoms with "unusual sounds or auditory sensations", a State Department physician told the US Senate in January.

Charles Rosenfarb, a doctor and director of the State Department bureau of medical services, said the symptoms were mixed but consistent with brain trauma.

The victims suffered headaches, hearing loss, disorientation and some loss of cognitive ability.

Initially officials suspected the Americans had been targeted by some sort of acoustic weapon, although in public senior officials were more cautious, speaking of "health attacks". Media reports have suggested that the FBI has not been able to verify any evidence to support the sonic weapon theory.

The US government has held Cuba responsible, arguing that Raul Castro's authoritarian state must have either carried out the assaults or at least known who was behind them.

The incident prompted the United States last year to withdraw more than half of its personnel at the embassy in Havana, which reopened in 2015 as the two nations re-established diplomatic relations that had ruptured in 1961.

Canada announced last month that it was bringing home the families of its diplomats in Cuba after a year-long investigation into the illness failed to reveal a cause.

"The cause (of their symptoms) remains unknown but could be human-made," the Canadian government concluded.

Canadian and US authorities had initially suspected a "sonic attack" or a "mass psychosomatic incident".

The symptoms included dizziness, headaches and a lack of ability to concentrate.

Unlike their American counterparts, however, no Canadian envoy reported hearing any suspicious sound prior to falling ill.

U.S. warns citizens in China after 'abnormal' sound injures consulate worker

BEIJING (Reuters) - An American citizen working at the U.S. consulate in the southern Chinese city of Guangzhou has reported suffering from abnormal sounds and pressure leading to a mild brain injury, the U.S. embassy said on Wednesday.

The embassy, which issued a health alert to Americans living in China, said it could not link the case to health issues suffered by U.S. government staff in Cuba dating back to late 2016.

The unnamed American citizen assigned to the consulate in Guangzhou had reported a variety of physical symptoms dating from late 2017 to April this year, the U.S. embassy in Beijing said in an email.

The worker was sent to the United States for further evaluation. The clinical findings of this evaluation matched mild traumatic brain injury (MTBI), the embassy said.

The State Department was taking the incident very seriously and working to determine the cause and impact, the embassy said.

It added the Chinese government told the embassy it is also investigating and taking appropriate measures.

We cannot at this time connect it with what happened in Havana, but we are investigating all possibilities, a U.S. embassy official told Reuters.

China's Foreign Ministry did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

The U.S. government on Wednesday issued a health alert to Americans in China, warning them about the incident it described as subtle and vague, but abnormal, sensations of sound and pressure.

While in China, if you experience any unusual acute auditory or sensory phenomena accompanied by unusual sounds or piercing noises, do not attempt to locate their source. Instead, move to a location where the sounds are not present, the emailed alert said.

The U.S. government in October expelled 15 Cuban diplomats from the United States for what it said was Cuba's failure to protect staff at the U.S. embassy in Havana from mysterious health incidents at one point thought to possibly have been acoustic attacks.

Staff there reported symptoms including hearing loss, dizziness, fatigue and cognitive issues, though Cuban officials dismissed the idea of acoustic strikes as science fiction and accused Washington of slander.

The cause of those incidents remains unresolved.

The Canadian government in April said it would remove families of diplomats posted to Cuba after Canadian personnel there in 2017 also reported similar health symptoms.

VATICAN CITY (AP) â... Pope Francis is denouncing the way some governments seek to discredit their critics through "whisper" campaigns, using the media to defame anyone who represents a threat.

During his morning homily Thursday, Francis said such slander campaigns can infect relations in families, parishes and dioceses, as well as global politics.

He said the damage done by the "sin of whispering" is particularly grave in politics "when a government isn't honest and seeks to sling mud at its adversaries with whispers, defamation, calumny."

Francis didn't single out any country, but said dictatorial governments are known for taking control of the media to "diminish anyone who represents a threat."

Francis this year is dedicating his annual peace message to urging greater responsibility in politics.

Potential Problem With Silicon Valley Whistle-Blower Project

By Justin Howard

There are a thousand James Damore's ready to come forward and spill the beans on the Silicon Valley Mafia but the tales of Gary Webb and many other dead whistle-blowers has them on edge.

Gary D. Conley, Rajeev Motwaini, Forrest Hayes and a host of other claimed Silicon Valley whistle-blowers turned up mysteriously dead. The Silicon Valley Mafia seems to be brutal.

In addition, one of the whistle-blower sponsors: Pierre Omidyar, of the Intercept, is already accused of being a "Ringer".

Peter Thiel's people, Congressional staff and federal law enforcement staff have expressed concerns about Omidyar. Some feel that he is a watch-dog friend of the Silicon Valley Mafia who is on standby to alert them of any red flags.

Omidyar is the money behind Gawker Media, The Intercept, Ebay and huge political machinations. Glenn Greenwald, who writes for the Intercept, is certainly not going to bite the hand that feeds him.

At least two potential whistle-blowers told me that Pierre Omidyar has used his Gawker Media tabloid empire to run "hit-jobs" and character assassinations against whistle-blowers in order to prevent them from speaking out.

A whistle-blower sponsoring organization must be squeaky clean. As long as Gawker Media's Omidyar is on board. It is not. Gawker Media also receives funding from a Russian mobster on the CIA's and FBI's organized crime "Watch List". The company you keep reflects the organization within. Can the Signals Network be a force for good or just another compromised facade? Time will tell:

Whistleblowers are being offered a â... witness protection schemeâ... to expose â... wrongdoingâ... in the technology industry. An American non-for-profit organisation founded by a French entrepreneur and philanthropist has said it will provide individuals working within â... big dataâ... financial and legal support if they are able provide information that shows how the public is being â... harm[ed], exploited or misledâ... .

The Signals Network, which was set up last year, is working with a consortium of journalists around the world and aims to provide assistance to potential whistle-blowers to ensure that powerful corporations can be investigated.

Newspapers and websites in America and Europe, including The Telegraph, have issued a â... call for informationâ... to people working in â... big dataâ... who are able to show how the public are being misled or that the information they have provided is being misused.

Other organisations involved in the project include Mediapart, which was set up by the former editor of Le Monde, Die Viet in Germany, the Intercept and WikiTribune.

The reporters will work together to examine information that is provided and a committee will decide whether potential sources have provided sufficiently strong information to warrant support from the organisation.

In recent years, concerns have arisen about the role of technology companies and how â... big dataâ... may be being misused by firms.

Earlier this year, it emerged that a Cambridge professor used a personality quiz on Facebook to obtain data from 50 million users without their knowledge.

Founder Gilles Raymond CREDIT: THE SIGNALS NETWORK

The academic then allegedly passed the data to a company called Cambridge Analytica, in violation of Facebookâ... s rules and without the company knowing.

It also emerged that Cambridge Analytica harvested data on 50 million Americans without their permission and failed to ensure the data was deleted â... it was allegedly used to develop an algorithm used in the US presidential election to target voters for the Trump campaign.

The controversy led to more than $36 billion (£26 billion) being wiped off the value of Facebook, as investors reacted to the revelations. The firm have denied that the data available to Cambridge Analytica constituted a data breach and any wrongdoing.

Earlier this month, experts said that social media and online gaming firms should have a â... duty of careâ... to protect children from mental ill health, abuse and addictive behaviour, amid concerns that social media firms are cynically targeting children using addictive â... hooksâ... .

The Signals was set up by French businessman Giles Raymond and has an operating budget of several hundred of thousands of dollars to provide financial, legal, psychological and public relations assistance to individuals who are able to provide information that exposes wrongdoing.

Mr Raymond found a company News Republic that was bought by Cheetah Mobile in 2016 for $57 million. In 2017, he founded the Signals Network.

The Signals Network aims to provide the equivalent of a witness protection program for whistle-blowers.

Today's Call for Information, which was made by the newspapers and websites, asked for whistle-blowers to provide information that exposed wrongdoing, but also that could shed light on commonly misunderstood or questioned practices, for example, why companies have chosen specific product updates and their effect on consumers.

Once the information has been provided to the reporters, each case will be vetted by a committee, and, based on the public interest and risk exposure, the Signals Network will decide on the level of protection to be offered.

Mr Raymond said: "Talking to whistle-blowers we identified key needs and expectations". To help support them the organisation "will set up its own equivalent of the witness protection program for qualifying whistleblowers", he said.

Just because she was crazy doesn't mean she was totally wrong.

The woman who shot and wounded three people before shooting herself to death in Tuesday's attack on YouTube's headquarters in San Bruno, California, was apparently furious that the video-sharing website had arbitrarily blacklisted her videos to keep them from getting wide distribution.

From Conservative Post:

The shooter in Wednesday's attack has been identified as Nasim Najafi Aghdam, a 39-year-old vegan activist from San Diego who believed YouTube had cut into her viewers by relegating her videos to a... age-restricted status, according to Ars Technica.

On her now-deleted website, Aghdam wrote that the age restriction on an exercise video she maintained was not sexual in nature amounted to suppression of unpopular views.

â... There is no free speech in real world & you will be suppressed for telling the truth that is not supported by the system,â... she wrote, according to Ars Technica. â... Videos of targeted users are filtered & merely relegated, so that people can hardly see their videos!

â... There is no equal growth opportunity on YOUTUBE or any other video sharing site, your channel will grow if they want to!!!!â...

On another video, she called YouTube â... close-minded.â...

Stipulating again that nothing justifies the kind of attack like the one Aghdam carried out on Tuesday, her complaints about arbitrary content decisions being made by social media giants have already been backed up by a former Twitter employee who didnâ... t know he was being recorded.

In an expose released by video provocateur James Oâ... Keefeâ... s Project Veritas in January, a man identified as former Twitter engineer Abhinov Vadrevu explained how it works.

â... One strategy is to shadow ban so you have ultimate control,â... he said, according to Project Veritas.

â... The idea of a shadow ban is that you ban someone but they donâ... t know theyâ... ve been banned, because they keep posting and no one sees their content. So they just think that no one is engaging with their content, when in reality, no one is seeing it.â...

That, obviously, has political ramifications â... especially when the targets of the â... shadow banâ... are almost always conservatives.

In one of the Project Veritas interviews, a man identified as Mo Norai, a former content review agent for Twitter, laid out why that was.

â... A lot of unwritten rules, and being that weâ... re in San Francisco, weâ... re in California, very liberal, a very blue state,â... Norai said. â... You had to be â... I mean as a company you canâ... t really say it because it would make you look bad, but behind closed doors are lots of rules.â...

â... There was, I would say â... Twitter was probably about 90 percent anti-Trump, maybe 99 percent anti-Trump.â...

RATFUCKING

WIKIPEDIA states that â... Ratfuckingâ... is an American slang term for political sabotage or dirty tricks, particularly pertaining to elections. It was brought to public attention by Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein in the book which chronicled their investigative reporting of the Watergate affair, All the President's Men (1974).

Woodward and Bernstein's account in All the President's Men reports that many Republican staffers (H. R. Haldeman (pre-1948),<sup>[citation needed]</sup> Donald Segretti (early 1960s), White House aide Tim Elbourne, Ronald Louis Ziegler, and Dwight Chapin) had attended the University of Southern California and participated in the highly competitive student elections there. At USC, future Watergate scandal participants Dwight L. Chapin, Tim Elbourne, Donald Segretti, Gordon C. Strachan, Herbert Porter, and Ron Ziegler were members of Trojans for Representative Government. UPI reporter Karlyn Barker sent Woodward and Bernstein a memo, "Notes On the USC Crowd", that outlined the connection. Fraternities, sororities, and underground fraternal coordinating organizationsâ... such as Theta Nu Epsilon and their splintered rival "Trojans for Representative Government"â... engaged in creative tricks and underhanded tactics to win student elections.<sup>[1][2]</sup> Officially, control over minor funding and decision-making on campus life was at stake, but the positions also gave bragging rights and prestige. The tactics were either promoted by or garnered the interest of major political figures on the USC board of trustees, such as Dean Rusk and John A. McCone.<sup>[3][4]</sup> The young operators called these practices ratfucking.

The term received media attention in Australia after it was reported that Prime Minister Kevin Rudd used the term in a speech at the 2009 Copenhagen Climate Change Summit.<sup>[5][6]</sup>

During the 2016 Republican Party presidential primaries, candidate Ted Cruz said "Trump may be a rat, but I have no desire to copulate with him", a euphemized reference to the term.<sup>[7][8]</sup>

In August 2017, journalist Marcy Wheeler received the disapproval of the Federal Communications Commission when she used the term in a radio broadcast. Wheeler maintained that the word has become a term of art in political science and is thus not an obscenity; FCC officials disagreed.<sup>[9]</sup>

A more benign use of the term "ratfucking" was commonplace in Southern California (and possibly other) college slang from the late 1950s to at least the early 1960s, meaning a prank. Around that time, Tony Auth was the cartoonist for the Daily Bruin. One of his cartoons showed a large, inebriated rat suggesting to another rat, "Let's go PF-ing tonight!", a play on ratfucking or "RF-ing". The lead story in the January 6, 1961, California Tech, Caltech's student newspaper, was headlined, "Tech Scores First Televised RF". The article chronicled the Great Rose Bowl Hoax, which had just taken place. A political context was irrelevant to such usage. At the end of the article, an Editor's Note both explained and bowdlerized: "RF (for Royal Flush) is a contemporary college colloquialism for a clever prank."<sup>[10]</sup>

The term ratfucking (rat in this case is shorthand for ration) is a slang term used by U.S. military personnel to mean the targeted pillaging of MREs (Meals, Ready-To-Eat), which the U.S. military calls "field stripping". It refers to the process of opening a case of MREs, which are packed 12 in a box, opening up individual MRE packages, removing the desired items (generally M&M's and other sweets), and leaving the unenticing remainder.<sup>[11]</sup>

On May 23, 2019, Svetlana Lokhova filed a claim in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia against Stefan Halper, claiming that "Stefan Halper is a ratfucker and a spy" with a footnote that "Ratfucking" is a well-known political term.<sup>[12]</sup>

After the results of the 2020 presidential election were called for Joe Biden and Donald Trump refused to concede, John Oliver, host of Last Week Tonight with John Oliver, said on one of his shows following the set up of the Trump voter fraud hotline that "a political term for election shenanigans is rat[s fucking]. So if you, say, happen to have any access to images of Pennsylvania-based rats fucking, it's frankly your patriotic duty to send them to the Trump campaign straight away." While saying this, Oliver displayed an image of rats engaged in sexual intercourse and the online link to the voter fraud hotline's website.[\[13\]](#)

In light of the fact that THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES is verified to have commonly ordered this tactic to be used to attack American citizens who displeased the White House, it is verified that such tactics exist and are used by the United States Government.

For example: Plaintiff has reported to the San Francisco, New York and Washington, DC FBI for decades. One government official, though, told Plaintiff that: â... ..the FBI canâ... t invite you in to conduct an official interview because then they will have to fill out an FBI form 302. If they do that then any member of Congress can request a copy of it. If Congress sees that they have been caught doing these crimes then the jig is up. The best way to run a cover-up is to keep 302 FBI forms from getting writtenâ...!â...

Journalist Chuck Ross (Who has millions of readers) reported the following:

- Director Christopher Wrayâ... s Use Of FBI Jet Amounts To â... Embezzlement.â... Current, Ex-Agents Allege
- FBI Whistleblower Says Bureau Using Excessive Tactics To Ensure â... Process Is The Punishmentâ...

Two FBI officials who briefed Facebook ahead of its decision to censor news stories about Hunter Bidenâ... s laptop donated to Democrats in 2020, according to court filings and campaign finance records.

Laura Dehmlow, the unit chief for the FBIâ... s Foreign Influence Task Force, and Elvis Chan, the head of the FBIâ... s San Francisco cyber division, were â... involvedâ... in the communications between the FBI and Facebook that led to the social media giantâ... s â... suppression of the Hunter Biden laptop story,â... according to a court filing on Thursday. The FBIâ... s interactions with Facebook have been of interest since Mark Zuckerberg said in August that Facebook blocked access to an October 2020 New York Post article about Bidenâ... s laptop because the FBI had earlier warned the company to be on â... high alertâ... for Russian efforts to release derogatory information about the Bidens before the election.

According to campaign finance records, Dehmlow gave $60 to the Democratic National Committee in 2020. Chan contributed $50 each to Democratic Georgia Sens. Jon Ossoff and Raphael Warnock for their runoff campaigns in November 2020. According to the court filing, Facebook parent company Meta identified Dehmlow and Chan in response to a subpoena for records of interactions with the Biden administration. The filing, released by the Missouri attorney generalâ... s office on Monday, does not detail Dehmlow and Chanâ... s interactions with Facebook or any other social media companies. The attorney generalâ... s office is suing the Biden administration for allegedly colluding with social media companies to â... censor free speech.â...

The contributions are likely to revive longstanding concerns about political bias in the FBIâ... s probe of Hunter Biden, who is under federal investigation over his taxes and foreign business dealings. Republican lawmakers have accused the FBI of shutting down aspects of the investigation into Biden and of inaccurately referring to reports about the Biden familyâ... s business dealings as Russian disinformation.

Sens. Chuck Grassley (R., Iowa) and Ron Johnson (R., Wis.) have for months pressed the FBI for information about who met with social media companies to warn them about the Postâ... s laptop story, which cited Hunter Bidenâ... s emails with his Ukrainian business partners. After Zuckerbergâ... s comments, the Republicans asked the FBI and Justice Department to detail interactions with social media companies and accused the agencies of â... falselyâ... portraying negative reports about the Biden family as Russian disinformation.

Twitter joined Facebook in censoring the Postâ... s story about Hunter Biden based on information from intelligence officials. Yoel Roth, the head of Twitterâ... s site integrity unit, has said he blocked access to the story because the officials, who have not been identified, said there were â... rumorsâ... that Russia would release derogatory material about Hunter Biden.

Facebook and Twitter executives have acknowledged they were wrong to censor the Biden story. There is no evidence that Russia hacked Hunter Biden or released his emails. A computer repair shop owner in Delaware says Biden dropped off his laptop for repairs in April 2019 but never retrieved it. The shop owner, John Paul Mac Isaac, provided a copy of Biden's hard drive to the FBI in late 2019, and released another copy to the media in 2020.

According to Grassley and Johnson, FBI whistleblowers claim that an FBI official in the Washington Field Office who oversaw aspects of the Hunter Biden investigation shut down inquiries into derogatory allegations about him in October 2020. The official, Timothy Thibault, criticized Republicans in multiple social media posts.

FBI director Christopher Wray established the Foreign Influence Task Force in 2017 to identify and counteract malign foreign influence operations targeting the United States. According to the FBI, the task force has focused primarily on foreign influence operations in which foreign actors use false personas and fabricated stories on social media platforms to discredit U.S. individuals and institutions.

Chan, who works in the FBI's San Francisco field office, has spoken publicly about his interactions with social media companies in the run-up to the 2020 election. He said he "was very involved in helping to protect the U.S. elections in 2020" and that the FBI "worked in conjunction with the private sector." He said he met with technology and social media companies "on a weekly basis" before the election to share intelligence regarding any "unusual" activity on their networks.

"That's where the FBI and the U.S. government can actually help companies," he said.

The FBI has been dogged by allegations of political bias since the investigation into former president Donald Trump's possible ties to Russia. Peter Strzok, who led the investigation, was fired after the discovery of anti-Trump text messages he exchanged with FBI attorney Lisa Page. Another FBI attorney who worked on the investigation, Kevin Clinesmith, sent text messages after the 2016 election urging "Viva le resistance," a reference to anti-Trump groups that emerged after the election.

The FBI and Facebook did not respond to requests for comment.

*Laura Dehmlow was involved in conversations between the FBI and Facebook ahead of the social media company's decision to censor the story surrounding the contents of Hunter Biden's laptop before the 2020 election, the Washington Free Beacon reported. She also said subversive content on social media could weaken public support for the U.S. government. ## Scandal-Ridden San Francisco FBI Field Office Involved in Pelosi Investigation

Given the highly partisan nature of the FBI, and the San Francisco field office in particular, there is no reason to believe FBI brass will do anything more than run cover for the Pelosis.

By Julie Kelly

No one should accept at face value the strange account of what happened to Paul Pelosi, husband of House Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.), at their California home last week.

Plenty of factorsâ... a wholly dishonest news media, unsubstantiated claims the attacker was a foiled assassin who planned to kill the speaker of the House, and Mr. Pelosiâ... s recent legal troubles, to name a fewâ... feed justified skepticism surrounding the alleged break-in and hammer attack that occurred in the wee hours of October 28. Details continue to change while leading Democrats including Hillary Clinton blame the incident, without evidence, on Republicans and Donald Trump.

This situation is yet another example of how the publicâ... s complete lack of faith in major institutions is fueling doubt and suspicion. Unfortunately, that level of distrust extends to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a once-revered agency that has blown its reputation in service to the Democratic Party. And news that the San Francisco FBI field office is taking a lead role in the Pelosi investigation offers little comfort that the American people will ever find out the truth of the matter.

The San Francisco field office, like the bureauâ... s Washington, D.C. headquarters and many other offices across the country, is mired in scandal. Itâ... s particularly true as it relates to the FBIâ... s cozy ties to Big Techâ... and the San Francisco FBI office is ground zero for that quid pro quo relationship. Rather than investigate the nearly 300 Big Tech companies within its Silicon Valley jurisdiction for various offenses such as election interference, the San Francisco FBI office appears instead to be in cahoots with these powerful corporate interests to do the Democratic Partyâ... s dirty work.

Few people benefit more than Nancy Pelosi, who of course happens to live in San Francisco. Democratic candidates and lawmakers are flush with campaign donations from Big Tech; in 2020 alone, Facebook and Twitterâ... the latter located in Pelosiâ... s congressional district and the former located just outside its boundariesâ... donated at least $5.5 million to Democrats and only a paltry $435,000 to Republicans, a 12-1 ratio in favor of Pelosiâ... s party. Conversely, threats made by leading Democrats to break up Big Tech or hold congressional hearings into alleged malfeasance have been slow-walked since Pelosi reclaimed the speakerâ... s gavel.

Fortunately, a lawsuit recently filed by Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt laid bare how this lucrative back-scratching operation works. Elvis Chan, a top cyber FBI agent working in the San Francisco office, was in routine communication with Big Tech giants prior to the 2020 election to warn companies of â... foreign disinformationâ... spread on their platformsâ... and the discussions just happened to coincide with the release of explosive materials found on Hunter Bidenâ... s laptop. Chan is named as a co-defendant in Schmittâ... s sweeping civil suit seeking to hold accountable government officials working behind-the-scenes with Big Tech to censor information considered hostile to the regime.

â... Defendant Elvis M. Chan is Supervisory Special Agent of Squad in the San Francisco Division of the FBI.â... Schmitt wrote in a recent filing. â... On information and belief, he has authority over cybersecurity issues for FBI in that geographical region, which includes the headquarters of major social-media platforms, and he plays a critical role for FBIâ... in coordinating with social-media platforms relating to censorship and suppression of speech on their platforms. Meta [Facebookâ... s parent company] has identified Elvis Chan as involved in the communications between the FBI and Meta that led to Facebookâ... s suppression of the Hunter Biden laptop story.â...

Chan, for his part, publicly brags about his influence in Silicon Valley, boasting how he â... was very involved in helping to protect the U.S. elections in 2020â... by communicating â... on a weekly basisâ... with Big Tech titans â... Thatâ... s where the FBI and the U.S. government can actually help companies,â... Chan said during a June 2022 podcast interview.

In other words, Chan is the power coupleâ... s hand holder. (The Department of Justice is fighting a court order for Chanâ... s deposition on the grounds his involvement in the Hunter Biden laptop suppression effort was misrepresented.) And there is no indication the partnership will end anytime soon. Social media platforms continue to collaborate with the FBI to excavate incriminating evidence from the deleted accounts of January 6 defendants; Facebook is collecting private messages between users expressing â... anti-governmentâ... or â... anti-authorityâ... sentimentâ... read: conservativesâ... and turning over those texts to the FBI without a subpoena.

The Intercept reported Monday that the FBI and Department of Homeland Security plan to accelerate its joint effort to censor â... misinformationâ... spread online. Targeted topics include posts critical of COVID vaccines, the botched withdrawal from Afghanistan, and support for Ukraine. FBI counterterrorism agents are being â... reassignedâ... from critical surveillance of potential threats overseas to spy on American citizens.

â... They work on an undercover basis online to penetrate social networking chat rooms, online forums, and blogs to detect, enter, dismantle, and disrupt existing and emerging terrorist organizations via online forums, chat rooms, bulletin boards, blogs, websites, and social networking.â... one anonymous FBI agents told The Intercept.

There are other problems at the San Francisco FBI office. In early October, a California jury convicted a former FBI special agent for accepting at least $150,000 in cash and gifts on behalf of a corrupt Armenian businessman with ties to organized crime. Babak Broumand was the head of national security investigations at the San Francisco FBI field office at the time of his arrest in 2018. According to the indictment, â... Broumand accepted cash, checks, private jet flights, a Ducati motorcycle, hotel stays, escorts, meals, and other items of value from an organized crime-linked lawyer.â...

He was found guilty of four counts including bribery of a public official; Broumand will be sentenced in January and faces up to 45 years in prison.

Which could explain why FBI Director Christopher Wray quietly replaced the head of the San Francisco field office in September. Robert Tripp was just moved from the bureauâ... s inspection division (the FBIâ... s version of internal affairs) in Washington to take over the San Francisco operation.

Late Monday afternoon, Tripp and Justice Department officials announced federal charges against the alleged attacker, David DePape, including the attempted kidnapping of Speaker Pelosiâ... a confusing charge, considering Pelosi wasnâ... t home and DePape clearly had no physical or mental capacity to do so. It appears more than anything to be political narrative-building by Bidenâ... s Justice Department to bolster the idea that Trump and Republicans inspired another â... kidnappingâ... attempt. The complaint, signed by a special agent assigned to domestic terror investigations in the San Francisco FBI office, also offers a conflicting account as to what happened when officers arrived and an incomplete timeline of events.

Given the highly partisan nature of the FBI, and the San Francisco field office in particular, there is no reason to believe FBI brass will do anything more than run cover for the Pelosis and conceal any damaging or contradictory facts about the confrontation. Prayers for Paul Pelosi are in order as he remains hospitalized for his injuriesâ... a full investigation free from political interference also is in order. Itâ... s unlikely, however, the FBI will proceed accordingly.

The FBIâ s Million-Dollar Men

*Three high-profile trials are shining much-needed light on how the bureau uses highly paid informants as political hit men.

By Julie Kelly

Proceedings underway in three U.S. courtrooms are providing a coordinated view into the abuse of the FBIâ s confidential human source (CHS) program, a cash-flush operation now primarily used to bolster Democratic Party narratives instead of detecting and preventing crime.

As Iâ ve reported, the FBI spends an average of $42 million per year to pay informants and does so with absolutely no financial or legal accountability. Confidential human sources are paid in cash; they can offer their services for a variety of reasons including financial need or to obtain a change in immigration status. FBI agents are required to keep at least one informant on the books, an FBI whistleblower told me; successfully using a CHS to bust up a crime is one way to get promoted.

But ongoing trials related to the Trump-Russia collusion hoax, January 6, and the Whitmer fednapping case are once again shining a light on the way the bureau hires snitches to advance political goals.

After numerous investigations over the course of more than six yearsâ not to mention an obsessive fixation by the national mediaâ the scandal known as Russiagate produced another bombshell revelation during the perjury trial of Igor Danchenko, the key source for the Steele dossier. The FBI offered to pay Christopher Steele, its author, up to $1 million in cash if he could verify the dossierâ s declarations about Donald Trumpâ s alleged ties to Russia. He could not.

Described for years as a â former British intelligence officer,â Steele, in fact, was a private consultant with several paymasters in 2016. Hillary Clintonâ s campaign and the Democratic National Committee retained Steele to write his dossier that alleged shadowy connections between the Kremlin and Trump associates. At the same time, Steele was lobbying the U.S. government on behalf of Oleg Deripaska, a Russian oligarch who ran afoul of the Obama Administration.

When the cash offer was made in October 2016, Steele also was working as an informant for the FBI. (Itâ s unknown how much he was paid.) He moved seamlessly between the bureau, other government agencies including the State Department, and the national news media almost until Election Day. Steele met with journalists and editors in the fall of 2016 to spin the dossierâ s content as legitimateâ and some outlets took the bait.

The bureau severed the arrangement in late October 2016 after learning Steele had met with reporters, but the damage was done. Steeleâ s fabricated dirt seeded the Trump-Russia election collusion hoax.

Turns out, Steele wasnâ t the only paid FBI informant tied to the dossier. Testimony revealed the FBI hired Danchenko as an informant in March 2017 and paid him at least $200,000 until the FBI cut him loose in October 2020â the same month Attorney General William Barr named U.S. Attorney John Durham as special counsel. (Stefan Halper, another FBI informant, also aided the FBIâ s effort to smear Trump via Russiagate.)

Itâ s unclear exactly what Danchenko did as an informant. Was he used as a behind-the-scenes leaker to give oxygen to the Russiagate hoax in the media? Did the bureau hire him as an informant to protect him, and the FBI, from the prying eyes of investigators?

Either way, itâ s clear the FBI didnâ t hire these informants because the government had cause to suspect Trump was in cahoots with Russia to rig the 2016 election. To the contrary, the informants manufactured the falsehood, giving FBI partisans and the news media fabricated evidence to sabotage Trump with the FBIâ s imprimatur.

Seditious Conspiracyâ Or Entrapment?

The bureauâ s crusade against Trump continued, climaxing with the events of January 6, 2021. Down the interstate from Danchekoâ s trial in Virginia is the seditious conspiracy trial of five members of the Oath Keepers. Prosecutors working under U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia Matthew Graves, a Biden campaign advisor, are trying to convince a D.C. jury that the Oath Keepers tried to overthrow the government that day.

The case rests largely on inflammatory posts in group chats and social media; none is accused of committing violence that day, in fact, those who legally brought firearms from various states kept their weapons behind in a Virginia hotel on January 6. Evidence suggests they tried to help police calm the crowd insideâ two never even entered the building.

That isn't stopping Graves's office from insisting the Oath Keepers, a group of former military and law enforcement officers, plotted a traitorous coup. But at the last minute, the government admitted five informants had been embedded in the group, likely before the Capitol protest.

Prosecutors, however, do not want jurors to hear much about those informants, particularly their work in past investigations... code for past entrapment schemes. (The New York Times reported last year that FBI informants had infiltrated the Proud Boys, another alleged militia charged in the Capitol breach, months before January 6. The group's leader himself is a former confidential human source for the FBI.)

Other unknowns in the Oath Keepers case raise serious questions about the FBI's deeper involvement. A man who created an encrypted group chat and can be heard urging at least one Oath Keeper to commit violence remains unidentified and uncharged... following a pattern of other unindicted instigators such as Ray Epps. Dozens of alleged Oath Keepers who participated in similar conduct also are not charged. And defense counsel discovered that at least 20 FBI and ATF agents were near the group on January 6.

Doing what, exactly? If federal agents were in the city that day, why didn't they protect the Capitol and lawmakers inside?

None of it adds up.

A History of Entrapment

About 800 miles away, three Michigan men are on trial for a very similar conspiracy case. In 2020, state prosecutors charged Joe Morrison, Pete Musico, and Paul Bellar for providing material support for a terrorist act... related to the plot to kidnap and kill Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer. But two separate federal trials exposed how the scheme was engineered by multiple FBI agents and informants. (Two men were acquitted by a federal jury in April amid an FBI entrapment defense. That jury hung on two other defendants but they were convicted at a second trial in August.)

At least a dozen informants worked the kidnapping hoax; the total cost to taxpayers has not yet been disclosed. The lead FBI informant, Dan Chappel, took the stand last week in the state trial to explain his role. As we reported, the FBI compensated Chappel at least $60,000 in cash and personal items to stitch the random targets together. An FBI agent handed Chappel an envelope with $23,500 in cash in December 2020, two months after the arrests were made in the case.

But Chappel's testimony and defense filings show how he lured the men into the FBI's trap. Chappel created encrypted chat groups to foster talk of violence while giving the FBI direct access to the secret communications. He organized meetings where he recorded every word, even when the targets were drunk or stoned. On two occasions, Chappel drove his main target to Whitmer's vacation cottage, the scene of the potential crime, on a surveillance trip that in reality was a stunt to produce photographs later used as evidence against the man.

Chappel, however, broke FBI protocol in several instances including suggesting criminal acts and becoming a commander in the fake militia the FBI invented exclusively for the kidnapping caper. Defense attorneys grilled Chappel last week about the veracity of the government's explanation as to how Chappel became an informant; turns out, his previous claim that he went to the FBI after being alarmed at seeing violent, anti-law enforcement chatter on a website wasn't true.

Chappel also couldn't explain why he didn't receive a Purple Heart if he indeed suffered injuries during the Iraq War, a representation made by both Chappel and the government. This witness can't get away with misrepresenting his conduct, his service, his valor which I would argue is stolen valor in this matter to these 15 people, one defense attorney said in court.

The nexus of all three trials is, of course, Donald Trump. In Russiagate, the goal was to portray Trump as a tool of the Kremlin, a president illegitimately elected with the help of Russia. In the other two cases, innocent men entrapped then prosecuted by the government are pawns to prove that domestic violent extremists loyal to Donald Trump are prone to violence on his behalf.

Over the weekend, Representative James Comer (R-Ky.) said if Republicans take control of the House, he would support establishing a committee to investigate the FBI. â... We have a huge problem with the FBI and the fact is, the American people have lost faith in the FBI,â... Comer told Fox Newsâ... Maria Bartiromo. â... Itâ... s going in the wrong direction.â...

It sure is. Republican voters want a full-scale investigation into the investigators; House GOP leaders would be wise to include the investigatorsâ... long list of highly-paid political hit men known as FBI informants.

FBI Agents awaiting promotions in the New Haven, Connecticut field office realized they might have to wait for a long time.

Epecially after Special Agent in Charge Patricia Ferrick passed over decorated agents and instead promoted her husband who worked in the same office, a fact that agents say has helped the office earn its reputed reputation in FBI lore.

A reputation as the worst FBI field office in America.

Welcome to New Haven, a quaint town that boasts Yale University and its tony suburbs along with an FBI office ruled by â... fear and intimidation,â... as one internal FBI report deemed it. A place where agents tail other agents and where FBI brass designate outliers as potential terrorists so they can win employment grievances.

The chronic shenanigans at the FBIâ... s New Haven field office are literally costing taxpayers millions of dollars.

â... I had a buddy who was assigned to New Haven when we were working in New York City and I said â... No, donâ... t go. Donâ... t do it. Itâ... s a career disaster,â... â... said one veteran FBI agent.

Turns out, for many FBI agents, he was right. And it is even worse. Current and former agents told True Pundit working in New Haven caused severe depression and even thoughts of suicide.

Yes, suicide. The FBIâ... s little known and ugly secret, often referred to as â... eating my gunâ... when FBI agents describe their thoughts of escaping bad working conditions gone haywire. Even when many FBI agents end their own lives, it is seldom reported as a suicide.

The stress of taking on the FBIâ... s culture can attribute to such severe depression. When agents buck the system and press for their rights in employment disputes they are met with a fierce backlash that many say is not waged to dispute the agentâ... s grievance but instead ruin that agentâ... s life. Ruin their career, sink them in legal bills, debt, foreclosure, break up a marriage, depression, even suicide.

You want to take on the Bureau even if youâ... ve been treated capriciously, prepare for the fight of your life. Itâ... s the same techniques the FBI and Justice Department employ against criminal defendants who wonâ... t work a plea deal or seek a jury trial.

If things are that bad, why doesnâ... t someone in the Justice Department or Washington, D.C. do something about it. Ferrick who runs the office is a close associate of recently defrocked and fired FBI Deputy Director Andrew McCabe. Under McCabeâ... s supervision, agents seldom filed complaints because they feared they would be ignored. Often, they were. Others who did file complaints were put through a vicious gauntlet designed by FBI brass.

SAC Patricia Ferrick

McCabeâ... s influence and management philosophy still has tentacles throughout numerous key FBI field offices, sources said. That includes New Haven, although it is on a much smaller scale compared to Las Vegas, Los Angeles or even Little Rock where McCabeâ... s influence is still seen in the Bureauâ... s leadership of each office.

Ferrick and her inner circle are accused of, among other infractions, running an office plagued with pay-for-play, favoritism, hundreds of thousands spent in legal fees to fight lawsuits and internal complaints, alleged illegal surveillance on their own agents.

And retaliation. Lots of retaliation.

â... New Haven has been a real shit show for a long time,â... one DEA agent said. â... Everyone in the northeast knows it, not just FBI. The U.S. Attorneyâ... s office up here is no better because they cover for them.â...

Two agents in New Haven have uncovered just how rife the office is with corruption and downright pettiness that is costing taxpayers untold millions of dollars.

Special Agent Kurt Siuzdak filed a federal lawsuit against the Justice Department and then-Attorney General Eric Holder in 2014 for serious workplace problems in New Haven. Now, four years later, that case is still active but a federal judge has directed the FBI and Justice Department to settle the case, sources said.

â... The judge said if this gets in front of a jury and goes public, it will become a major black eye for the FBI,â... one FBI insider said. â... The judge has coaxed the Justice Department to pull the plug and save itself the embarrassment. Settle it. Pay the agent and walk away.â...

It turns out the New Haven FBI might have messed with the wrong agent. Siuzdak is a 21-year FBI veteran and also a trial lawyer who worked in New York as a legal attache to Iraq for the Bureau before joining New Haven in 2009.

Thatâ... s when the trouble began for the former Army veteran who was also one of the FBI agents who responded to and worked the World Trade Center bombings on September 11, 2001.

Siuzdak maintains he was passed over for promotions because New Havenâ... s FBI leadership awarded promotions based on social affiliations: popularity, not achievement. Just like a high school prom committee. When Siuzdak complained that New Havenâ... s leadership was feckless, dysfunctional and arbitrary, he was professionally minimized, harassed, retaliated against and even subjected to a baseless internal investigation.

That included being followed by colleagues like a common criminal, sources said.

It is hard to understand why Siuzdak was targeted so viciously. It was not a surprise â... even after the agent blew the whistle â... that New Haven wasnâ... t the FBIâ... s shining field office on a hill.

According to internal FBI employment surveys in 2012 and 2013, agents hammered the office with brutally-low ratings for leadership, employee treatment and overall office morale. A January 2013 an inspection by FBI headquarters of New Havenâ... s violent crime task forces found that â... senior management was described as leading by fear and intimidation, negatively impacting both internal personnel and the liaison relationships with the FBIâ... s external partners.â...

As FBI Director, James Comey visited the New Haven office in 2014 and vowed to clean it up. He also apologized to agents in a speech for the Bureauâ... s past transgressions of workplace slights in New Haven. Four years later, agents said the office is worse than ever.

Just ask New Haven FBI Special Agent Omar Montoya.

Montoyaâ... s case is entwined with Special Agent Kurt Siuzdakâ... s case in a somewhat strange way. Before any FBI agent can file a case in federal court, they are required to file the grievances within the FBIâ... s office of Equal Employment Opportunity Affairs (â... EEOâ... ). Montoya, who worked as a GS-11 electronics technician for the FBI, was also the internal FBI EEO counselor who was assigned to another agentâ... s case in 2015.

Sources said Montoya recognized the unnamed agentâ... s case was so well documented that he told supervisors and FBI brass in New Haven that they should settle the case, it was doubtful the FBI would win the case, specially if it reached federal court, sources said.

Outraged that Montoya would not string out a decision for a referral on the case â... delay the case to frustrate the agent â... FBI brass harassed and retaliated against Montoya.

From Montoyaâ... s federal lawsuit:

On or about April 24, 2015, plaintiff assisted an FBI Special Agent (â... SA1â... ) initiate an EEO complaint against his FBI supervisors, including SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline. SA1â... s EEO complaint alleged, inter alia, claims of discrimination and retaliation against his FBI supervisors, including but not necessarily limited to SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline.

On or about April 24, 2015, as part of his duties as an EEO counselor, plaintiff interviewed both SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline in connection with SA1â... s EEO complaint and in an effort to mediate a resolution to the EEO complaint. When he interviewed SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline, however, both FBI supervisors resisted plaintiff's efforts to explore a mediated solution and demonstrated contempt for the EEO process. In fact, when plaintiff met with ASAC Kline to discuss SA's EEO complaint, he became angry with plaintiff and attempted to intimidate him.

Soon after plaintiff interviewed SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline in his capacity as an EEO counselor in connection with SA's EEO complaint and provided SA with his Notice of Right to File an EEO complaint, his FBI supervisors began to harass him and treat him differently and less favorably than other FBI employees.

On or about July 1, 2015 and shortly after he had interviewed SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline in connection with SA's EEO complaint plaintiff sent an e-mail to the FBI executive management at the FBI, NHD, including SAC Ferrick and ASAC Kline, reporting what he believed to have been an abuse of authority by an FBI supervisor.

Montoya maintains New Haven FBI brass canceled a promotion by falsely mischaracterized and misrepresented plaintiff's work performance as deficient in an effort to ensure that he would be denied a promotion to the GS-12 level.

No such promotion was given. Montoya began to suffer medical problems from the stress at the New Haven FBI.

So far, FBI agents in New Haven have sued Eric Holder, the FBI, Jeff Sessions, Christopher Wray and that list could grow larger. Other cases working their way through the FBI's internal complaint process could blossom into federal civil cases, sources said.

Each case whether it reaches federal court or not requires lawyers from the Justice Department. And that gets expensive. If the FBI loses a case, the Justice Department has to not only underwrite its legal fees to fight the case, but also pay the plaintiff's legal fees. Then, taxpayers are on the hook for cash settlements which normally top out at $300,000 though many can exceed that amount based on back pay and lost promotions and benefits, sources said.

Then there are the man hours when supervisors assigned FBI agents to surveillance of other FBI agents who make formal complaints.

Cars sat parked outside our house for weeks at a time, following us, keeping tabs on everywhere we went, one FBI source said. These agents weren't working cases, they were intimidating their colleagues and getting paid handsomely to do it.

These are mutts. Who would listen to a supervisor and sit on an agent's house? The lowest of the low. It hurts morale. Kills it.

And it is expensive. Very expensive.

That said, the shenanigans at the FBI's New Haven field office are literally costing taxpayers millions of dollars.

And while Montoya's lawsuit fails to detail another toll unseen on a balance sheet, FBI sources said FBI brass in New Haven targeted Montoya with a dirty trick that likely contributed to his stress-induced medical woes and health decline.

Montoya emigrated to the United States from Ecuador in 1993 and became a legal resident of the United States. By 1994, he was a legal citizen as was enrolled in the Army from 1994 through 2002, deployed to Saudi Arabia and South Korea. From 2003 to 2006 he was employed as a civilian contractor the U.S. Armed Forces, deployed to Iraq and central America as an aircraft mechanic. Then he enrolled in college and got his bachelor's degree.

The American dream, really.

At the time, FBI sources said Peter Strzok was running a program in Washington D.C. called the Post-Adjudication Risk Management plan, or PARM, an FBI program initiated to catch problematic and criminal associations of FBI agents with foreign contacts. FBI insiders said Strzok used PARM to label Montoya an insider threat because of his international travel and service for the U.S. military and being that he was born in Ecuador.

It's the equivalent of being linked to terrorism inside the FBI, one insider said. Your career is frozen when you are designated an insider threat. McCabe and Strzok used this to silence many agents and Kerrick was behind this in New Haven. She dialed up McCabe to try and ruin Montoya, there is not doubt.â€¦

Just to win a grievance over a promotion.

Sources said Montoya suffered multiple health issues after this and missed time at work, including a stint where he had to file for disability pay in order to keep up with his familyâ€™s bills and obligations because FBI brass didnâ€™t want to pay him any more.

This is what the FBI does with agents who take on the system. They break good people. Some never come back. They â€¦ eatâ€¦ their guns.

An no one in D.C. headquarters even blinks.

If the FBI does this to its own, just imagine what they are capable of doing to you.

And just like Crooked Hillary did during the 2016 election, Obamaâ... s camp hid the payments to Fusion GPS through the law firm Perkins Coie.

Chuck Ross of the Daily Caller reported:

The Barack Obama presidential campaign hired Fusion GPS in 2012 to dig up dirt on Republican presidential candidate Mitt Romney, according to a book released on Tuesday.

The Obama campaign hid its payments to Fusion GPS through its law firm, Perkins Coie. The arrangement is similar to the one that the Clinton campaign and Democratic National Committee used to pay Fusion for its investigation of then-aDonald Trump in 2016.

Whenever any criminal conspiracy begins to unravel, one overriding question always emerges, about the fate of each low-level perp who actually carried out the felonious instructions of Mr. Big.

The question is: Will he stand up?

No. Next question.

Will he fold under pressure? As Joe Pesci famously asked in â... Goodfellas.â...

Absolutely yes, he will fold under pressure.

The small-timers always rat out the boss. Thatâ... s the true mark of a thug â... snitching on oneâ... s fellow criminals.

Forget the nonsense about honor, or omerta. Once the dominoes start tumbling, itâ... s every stool pigeon for himself. Itâ... s like being at the bakery on a Sunday morning â... everybodyâ... s grabbing a number to get in line to spill the beans.

Ask yourself: Would you go to prison to protect the likes of James Comey? Or John Brennan? Or James Clapper?

After all their fantastic lies about Russian conspiracies, all the perjury in front of Congressional committees, all the fawning puff pieces in the fake-news media, the sky is finally dark with chickens coming home to roost.

At long last, the walls are closing in, as they have tut-tutted about President Trump so many times. The nooses are tightening â... around them.

Did you see the agitprop this week in the Deep Stateâ... s modern version of Pravda, The New York Times? The feds were said to be â... scrutinizingâ... the phone and email records of Brennan in order to â... assessâ... his involvement in what the Times still refuses to admit was a failed coup dâ... etat against the duly elected president of the United States.

Notice, the honest cops are not said to be â... investigatingâ... or â... probingâ... him â... the usual words for a criminal investigation. No, theyâ... re merely â... scrutinizingâ... the CIAâ... s clownish Keystone Cop.

This is professional courtesy, because Brennan is one of them â... he voted for the Communist candidate for president in 1976, back when the Soviet Union actually posed a real threat to the United States.

But whatever duplicity the fired commissars of the Deep State use to spin their debunked dossiers on those cable-news networks nobody watches, the end game is coming into view.

As always, the capos have lined up some fall guys â... like the goateed little FBI lawyer who fabricated evidence that was submitted to the FISA court to continue the illegal surveillance on Trumpâ... s people.

Does anyone believe that weasel was freelancing when he left a paper trail of his obstruction of justice? I know that G-boy voted for Hillary and he simply adores avocado toast, but he canâ... t possibly be that dumb.

Lucky for him, the G-boy has somebody to trade up â... whichever comrade ordered him to falsify the evidence, or else.

Remember: For every Whitey Bulger, thereâ... s always a Kevin â... Twoâ... Weeks.

The prosecutorsâ... pitch is always the same. They tell the nervous snitch, the train is pulling out of the station, and it behooves you to â...! get on board, because otherwise, youâ... ll be going to a place where you wonâ... t be seeing any Judy Garland movies for a very long time.

All aboard!

Same deal with the â... whistleblower,â... who by the way used to work for Brennan, and had his photo taken with his hero, Barack Obama. (In the photo, the whistleblower is the one with the goatee â... squirrely facial hair is a recurring theme in this Beltway B movie.)

Itâ... s clear why the â... whistleblowerâ... has vanished â... under no circumstances can his corrupt handlers allow him to testify under oath about who directed him to concoct that bogus story about a â... quid pro quoâ... between Trump and the Ukrainian president.

Ditto, he must never be allowed to reveal who directed him to that pinko mouthpiece who was speculating on social media about a â... coupâ... against the Republic as early as January 2017.

Anybody seen Stefan Halper or Joseph Mifsud lately? Why do you suppose John Durham, the U.S. attorney in charge of breaking up this Red sedition ring, keeps traveling to Italy? These days, itâ... s a lot safer to keep your witnesses stashed outside the country â... just ask Jeffrey Epstein.

Itâ... s not Trump supporters these â... soldiersâ... of le Resistance have to worry about as the target letters start going out, itâ... s their own comrades. Does the name Vince Foster ring a bell?

â... Iâ... m just a patsy,â... Lee Harvey Oswald once said. Look what happened to him.

My advice to that crooked FBI lawyer and the â... whistleblowerâ... and all the other future witnesses against the Deep State: Shave your goatees. Donâ... t make it any easier for them to find you.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - During today's House Judiciary Committee hearing regarding the Democrats' rush to impeach President Trump, Congressman Guy Reschenthaler (PA-14) outlined that House Democrats' focus on impeachment is nothing more than a political hit job aimed at preventing President Trump from winning re-election.

What does the word "hit job" mean? I found it in two different newspaper articles: "Russian athletics officials say Wada report is 'a political hit job'" and "Ben Carson condemns 'political hit job' amid questions over personal story" I guess it probably means something like "attack," "criticism," and "condemnation," but I'm not so sure.

How A Modern Character Assassination and Political "Kill Order" Is Executed By the Silicon Valley Oligarchs and their total control of propaganda media

Patrick George At Jalopnik attacks outsiders under contract with Elon Musk and the DNC. Silicon Valley campaign finance oligarchs hire him to run hatchet jobs on innocent outsiders and then Gawker-Gizmodo-Jalopnik uses their financial partnership with the DNC's Google to push the character assassination articles to the top of Google web products and searches. Patrick George, Adrian Covert, John Hermann and Nick Cook are the sexually degenerate cabin boys that report to boy-loving sleaze-tabloid oligarch Nick Denton. They created the Fake News crisis in the media by flooding the internet with defamation posts and reprisal hatchet job articles designed to damage political enemies of the Socialists. They coordinate a large number of the character assassination efforts at Gawker, Gizmodo, Jalopnik, CNN, New York Times and other propaganda outlets. These Millennial boys are "Media Rapists" and should be treated as abusers.

How and why did a Donald Trump stripper-date named "Stormy" or an Elon Musk sex party or a Kavanaugh drinking incident or the Moonves and Weinstein indiscretions suddenly hit the news at about the same time in news history?

In addition to actual murder, Politicians and Silicon Valley Oligarchs hire operatives to end people's lives in other creative ways.

It is all part of the modern trend in vendetta, revenge and political payback when a Senator or a tech oligarch issues a "kill order" on an opponent.

The client does not like to get their hands dirty so the actual social hit job is performed by companies such as:

IN-Q-Tel - (DNC); Gawker Media - (DNC); Jalopnik - (DNC); Gizmodo Media - (DNC); K2 Intelligence - (DNC); WikiStrat - (DNC); Podesta Group - (DNC); Fusion GPS - (DNC/GOP); Google - (DNC); YouTube - (DNC); Alphabet - (DNC); Facebook - (DNC); Twitter - (DNC); Think Progress - (DNC); Media Matters - (DNC); Black Cube - (DNC); Mossad - (DNC); Correct The Record - (DNC); Sand Line - (DNC/GOP); Blackwater - (DNC/GOP); Undercover Global Ltd (DNC/GOP) Stratfor - (DNC/GOP); ShareBlue - (DNC); Wikileaks (DNC/GOP); Cambridge Analytica - (DNC/GOP); Sid Blumenthal- (DNC); David Brock - (DNC); PR Firm Sunshine Sachs (DNC); Covington and Burling - (DNC), Buzzfeed - (DNC) Perkins Coie - (DNC); Wilson Sonsini - (DNC) and hundreds of others...!These are the people and companies that except cash, revolving door jobs, political appointments, insider trading stock in Silicon Valley tech companies, prostitutes and real estate in exchange for destroying the lives of others.

These attackers deserve to be punished for the rest of their lives for taking away the lives of others in exchange for cash. Any company who is corrupt enough to hire any of these assassins should be forced out of business. These attack services are responsible for 90% of the "Fake News" problem in the world because they are the authors of most fake news. Congress must act to make these kinds of companies illegal!

These digital assassination services offer hit-jobs, character assassinations and economic reprisal programs to famous billionaires and corrupt politicians who are seeking revenge, retribution and vendetta executions.

In the case of reporters getting targeted for attacks, President Donald Trump has been accused by the liberal corporate media of whipping up a hateful frenzy against the press. But while CNN's Jim Acosta grandstands against Trump, real journalists are still reeling from the draconian extrajudicial measures that Barack Obama and his administration used to target them for exposing truth.

This secretive targeting occurred while Obama speechwriter and hate-filled ANTIFA supporter Ben Rhodes was running â... Operation Echo Chamber,â... which reportedly continues, in which he fed information to willing corporate media scribes. â... They literally know nothing,â... Rhodes said of the twentysomething journalists he easily manipulated.

The Freedom of the Press Foundationâ... s Trevor Timm published documents showing how former attorney general Eric Holder changed the rules to more effectively intimidate and surveil members of the press.

Timm writes: â... Today, we are revealingâ... for the first timeâ... the Justice Departmentâ... s rules for targeting journalists with secret FISA court orders. The documents were obtained as part of a Freedom of Information Act lawsuit brought by Freedom of the Press Foundation and Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University.â...

Here is the memo published by the Foundation, which dropped the documents in their entirety:

Obama is also clearly linked to the plot to obtain fraudulent FISA warrants on President Trumpâ... s team, as evidenced by Peter Strzok and Lisa Pageâ... s texts confirming that Obama was overseeing their fly-by-night operation.

Larry Schweikart reported for Big League Politics:

For months pundits and researchers have been pondering the mystery of the FISA approval that led to the illegal and historically titanic scandals to ever hit the U.S. government. Some have argued that Assistant Attorney General Rod Rosenstein knew the FISA was bogus when he extended it. Others have wondered if Special Counsel Robert Mueller knew about the fraudulent basis of the FISA when he used it, in part, to indict Michael Flynn. Other still, that Mueller was fooled by the FBI.

This is what President Trump calls â... SPYGATEâ... .

It may well be that the surveillance that was conducted began with UK intelligence services and then was fed back to the White House of Barack Obama. Hereâ... s the kicker:

President Barack Obama did not need a FISA warrant to authorize spying/electronic surveillance on Trump because Obama all along had legal authorization to by-pass the normal court vetting process. According to 50 U.S. Code 1802, the â... Electronic Surveillance Authorizationâ... () â... Foreign intelligence in relation to a US person (Trump or his associates) is information thatâ... s necessary for the US to protect against attack, hostile acts, sabotage, . . . as well as other clandestine activities by a foreign power . . . OR . . . information relevant to national defense/security of the US, or the conduct of foreign affairs of the U.S.â... Such an authorization by Obama required certification by Attorney General Loretta Lynch that must be logged with the FISC court. (â... The [AG]+ shall immediately transmit under seal to the court [FISC] a copy of his certification.â... )

In short, the DOJ has this. If we are correct, a copy of that certification is currently under seal at least with the DOJ and the FISC.

This is what they are hiding.

However, the Act requires the AG to keep the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Senate Committee on Intelligence informed of these authorizations and unmaskings therein. See 1803 (a) (1) (C) If indeed this is what happened, did Lynch reportâ... or only selectively reportâ... to the committees in a way that excluded non-friendlies? Can you see why Adam Schiff, Mark Warner, and their ilk are terrified?

- 1) Obama authorized spying/electronic surveillance on Team Trump, by-passing normal judicial oversight.
- 2) To create "foreign intelligence," John Brennan and others organized for UK intelligence to conduct surveillance on Trump and his associates, either from the UK or from UK assets within the U.S. This is another reason revealing this will unleash an excrement storm: the UK is about to be caught meddling bigly in an American election.
- 3) Lynch certified Obama's authorization which is now held under seal by DOJ (and FISC).

From this authorization, all unmaking followed, as well as the FBI fraudulent counter intel investigation and perhaps the FISA warrant too. Obama knew this was all fake when he made the authorization; Lynch knew it was fake when she certified it; the entire inner circle, including the FBI, all knew. This takes the U.S. into uncharted territory, and could imperil any politician in the British government who supported this or had knowledge of it. Proving any of this would be difficult, as if confronted Lynch would almost certainly cover up and Obama would simply deny knowledge. Without a paper trail, a conviction might be a bridge too far. This is only one of thousands of "kill order" tactics introduced by the Obama Administration.

These are the playbook tactics that Senators and tech oligarchs most often use to destroy the lives of their political and business enemies:

- Government agency bosses sometimes solicit the target victims with false promises of future loans, contracts or grants from their agency and cause the target victims to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for projects which those government bosses had covertly promised to their friends. They use the target victims as a "smokescreen" to cover their illegal government slush-funds for the victims competitors and personal enemies. By using this tactic, the attackers can drain the target victims funds and force them into an economic disaster in plain view of everyone without the government bosses fearing any reprisal for their scam.

- Every match.com, okcupid.com, Plenty Of Fish, Seeking Arrangements and all other IAC-owned, or similar, dating sites (IAC is managed by Hillary Clinton's daughter) have had their profiles, texts, and inter-member communications, since those companies were started, hacked or purchased. The attack service providers use Palantir and In-Q-Tel financed data analysis software to analyze every activity in those dating services in order to find honey-trap, blackmail, sextortion and social conflict exploitation opportunities. If you had a bad date with someone, that someone will be hunted down and convinced to help harm, #metoo or "rape charge" the intended target. All dates involve a search for sex, so the likelihood that a sexual disappointment experience will exist in each persons dating history is high. Searching every past dating email and text of a subject is quite easy with modern software and hacking techniques. A synthetically amplified, PR-agency optimized sex scandal can destroy any target. Your dating experiences from the 70's or 80's will come back to haunt you decades later. Most dates involve drinking alcohol and taking drugs. If you were unattractive or had bad sexual skills your bad date will be called "date rape", "drugging your date for sex" and related twisted narratives that are designed to shame you, the target. If you try to get a date in the future, your potential date will be contacted by a third party who will slander and libel you to make sure your potential first date gets cancelled. Your social life will, essentially, end. Every photo on every dating site is cross checked with every other photo on the internet in order to cull your Facebook, LinkedIn, Snapchat and other social media together to create a total psychological manipulation profile data file on you. A single photo on a dating site can be cross searched on every mugshot archive, photo album and corporate database in the worth within minutes using modern super-computers. Your sex life will be on public record in a flash.

- Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits are stone-walled. Applications of targets are "lost". Files in the application process "disappeared". Lois Lerner hard drive "incidents" are operated in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- Government officials and tech oligarchs contact members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national "black-lists" to blockade target victims from ever receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Stry and in published testimony. If Silicon Valley political campaign finance oligarchs black-list you (see the "AngelGate" Scandal and the "High Tech No Poaching Class Action Lawsuit" cases) you will never get investor funding again.

- FOIA requests are hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- State and federal employees will play an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed. This can bankrupt a target victim.

- Some Victims found themselves strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case. Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after their work with the Department of Energy weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if these "targets" were intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of these people were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via DOE, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which DOE officials knew were required.

- Victims employers are called, and faxed, and ordered to fire target victims from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic.

- On orders from Obama White House officials, DNC-financed Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produce attack articles and defamation videos. Google locks this attack media on the internet on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world. This attack-type uses over $40 million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging. The forensic data acquired from tracking some of these attacks proves that Google rigs attacks against individuals on the internet and that all of Google's "impressions" are manually controlled by Google's executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. This data was provided to the European Union for its ongoing prosecution of Google's political manipulation of public perceptions.

- Victims HR and employment records, on recruiting and hiring databases, are embedded with negative keywords in order to prevent the victim targets from ever gaining future employment.

- Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani and many other whistle-blowers in these matters, turned up dead under strange circumstances. It is very possible that some of these attack services, operated by former CIA operatives, even offer discrete murder-for-sale services using high-tech assassination tools that make murders look like heart attacks and brain failures.

- Disability and VA complaint hearings and benefits are frozen, delayed, denied or subjected to lost records and "missing hard drives" as in the Lois Lerner case.

- Paypal (A DNC-biased operation) and other on-line payments for on-line sales are de-platformed, delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for target victims who competed with the attackers interests and holdings.

- DNS redirection, "website spoofing" sends target victims websites to dead ends where no sales orders or customer inquiries actually get back to the target. These internet revenue activity manipulations are conducted using Google and Amazon servers. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by target victims, will have had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by a massively resourced facility located in Virginia, Texas or Palo Alto, California in order to terminate revenue potentials for the target victims.

- Over 50,000 trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments are deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about victims in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility.

- Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors are hired by campaign financiers to attack the friends and family members of the target victim in order to create low morale for the target victims psyche and motivation.

- Are you getting weird headaches and hearing a "buzzing sound" in your head? The U.S. Government has now acknowledged that the Cuban, Chinese and other embassy "sonic attacks" are from a known microwave beam weapon. Any one of the technical departments of the attack services listed at the top of this article can build such a biological harassment weapon. It can be aimed at the target victims office, bedroom or vehicle and, within a week, have caused biological and emotional damage using a weapon that has no visible track of trajectory. It is designed to make the target victim think they are "going crazy" or "hearing sounds in their head". While this may sound pretty out there, web search "Embassy sonic attacks" on the top 5 non-Google search engines and read the very credible reports of these attacks.

- In one case covert political partner: Google, transferred large sums of cash to dirty tricks contractors and then manually locked the media portion of the attacks into the top lines of the top pages of all Google searches globally, for years, with hidden embedded codes in the links and web-pages which multiplied the attacks on Victims by many magnitudes.

- Covert Cartel financier: Google, placed Google's lawyer: Michelle Lee, in charge of the U.S. Patent Office and she, in turn, stacked all of the U.S. Patent Office IPR and ALICE review boards and offices with Google-supporting employees in order to rig the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google from being prosecuted for the vast patent thefts that Google engages in. Google has hundreds of patent lawsuits for technology theft and a number of those lawsuits refer to Google's operations as "Racketeering", "Monopolistic Cartel" and "Government Coup-like" behaviors. Thousands of articles and investigations detail the fact that Google, essentially, ran the Obama White House and provided over 80% of the key White House staff. A conflict-of-interest unlike any in American history. Google's investors personally told Applicant they would "kill him". Google and the Obama Administration were "the same entity". Applicant testified in the review that got Michelle Lee terminated and uncovered a tactical political and social warfare group inside Google who were financed by Federal and State funds.

- Honeytraps and moles were employed by the attackers. In this tactic, people who covertly worked for the attackers were employed to approach the "target" in order to spy on and misdirect the subject.

- Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Snopes, SPLC and other hired media assassins will be retained to produce "hatchet job" character assassination articles about you. Then those articles will be faxed, mailed and emailed to your employer and investors with a note saying: "You don't want to have anything to do with this person, do you..?" in order to get you fired from your job and get your loans or financing pulled. The attackers will use their round one attack media, that they authored, to create a round two second wave attack designed to end your life via economic warfare.

- Mortgage and rental applications will have had red flags added to them in databases to prevent the targets from getting homes or apartments.

- Krebs On Security, Wired, Ars Technica, The Wall Street Journal and most major IT publications have reported that hundreds of spy "back-doors" have been found on every Intel, AMD, Apple, Xfinity, Cisco, Microsoft, Juniper Networks motherboard, chip-set and hardware component set. This means that any kid with the "key" code can open any computer, server, router, cloud-network or other network connected device and read every file, photo, video, your calendar and email on your devices at any time from any location on Earth. The key codes have been released to every hacker community in the world for over ten years. There is now no government, corporate or personal data that can't be hacked, even data from decades ago. Every single one of your darkest secrets can be in the hands of your enemy within 60 minutes, or less. Important meetings you had planned with potential investors, employers, clients, dates, suppliers and others will suddenly get cancelled at the last minute. They will get cancelled because your enemies are reading your calendar remotely and covertly sending slander information to those you had hoped to engage with in order to sabotage your life. Nothing you have ever typed on a computer or Smartphone is safe. it WILL be acquired and it WILL be used against you.

- McCarthy-Era "Black-lists" are created and employed against target victims who competed with Obama Administration executives and their campaign financiers to prevent them from getting funding and future employment.

- Obama Administration targets were very carefully placed in a position of not being able to get jobs, unemployment benefits, disability benefits or acquire any possible sources of income. The retribution tactics were audacious, overt..and quite illegal.

- There are thousands of additional Dirty Tricks tactics being used by these Attack Services yet Congress refuses to pass laws out-lawing such attack services. The cost of an attack on a person ranges from $150,000.00 to over $50,000,000.00. While a Silicon Valley billionaire can afford to launch counter-measures to these attacks, any regular taxpayer will be utterly destroyed, and incapable of fighting back, against even the smallest version of one of these "kill orders". A number of modern office shootings are the results of these attacks against an individual who has lost everything because of the attack and has no options left.

Federal law enforcement, the United States Congress and the highest level investigators in the U.S., and abroad, have documented (per the â... FISA Memoâ... , Congressional Reports and federal employee testimony) and proven the fact that the Obama Administration regularly engaged in the operation of retribution, vendetta and reprisal campaigns known as â... hit-jobsâ... against domestic natural born U.S. citizen domestic taxpayers. The Federal Court, in at least one previous court case, has ruled that Applicants, in this particular matter, were the victims and target of a number of these attacks designed to inflict permanent medical, emotional, character assassination, brand negation, economic and career damage.

!!!! Mueller Hears That Silicon Valley Has Been Manipulating The Entire BREXIT Campaign !!!!!

- Second former employee of controversial data firm to be questioned by special counselâ... s inquiry into Russia collusion

By Carole Cadwalladr

Brittany Kaiser is said to be cooperating fully with the Mueller inquiry.

A director of the controversial data company Cambridge Analytica, who appeared with Arron Banks at the launch of the Leave.EU campaign, has been subpoenaed by the US investigation into possible collusion between the Trump campaign and the Russian government.

A spokesman for Brittany Kaiser, former business development director for Cambridge Analytica â... which collapsed after the Observer revealed details of its misuse of Facebook data â... confirmed that she had been subpoenaed by special counsel Robert Mueller, and was cooperating fully with his investigation.

He added that she was assisting other US congressional and legal investigations into the companyâ... s activities and had voluntarily turned over documents and data.

Kaiser, who gave evidence to the UK parliament last April in which she claimed Cambridge Analytica had carried out in-depth work for Leave.EU, is the second individual connected to the firm subpoenaed by the special counsel. The Electoral Commission has said its investigation into Leave.EU found no evidence that the campaign â... received donations or paid for services from Cambridge Analytica â...!beyond initial scoping workâ... .

Damian Collins, chairman of parliamentâ... s inquiry into fake news, said it was â... no surpriseâ... that Kaiser was under scrutiny by Mueller because â... her work connected her to WikiLeaks, Cambridge Analytica and [its parent company] SCL, the Trump campaign, Leave.EU and Arron Banksâ... .

He said it was now vital Britain had its own inquiry into foreign interference: â... We should not be leaving this to the Americans.â...

Tom Watson, the deputy leader of the Labour party, echoed Collinsâ... s statement, saying: â... This is the first evidence that a significant player in the Leave.EU campaign is of interest to the global Mueller inquiry. People will be bewildered that the British government has no interest in establishing the facts of what happened.â...

In August, Sam Patten, a US political consultant who had worked for Cambridge Analytica on campaigns in the US and abroad, struck a plea deal with Mueller after admitting he had failed to register as a foreign agent for a Ukrainian oligarch.

He became a subject of the special counsel's inquiry because of work done with Paul Manafort, Trump's campaign manager, in Ukraine. He had also set up a business with Konstantin Kilimnik, a key figure who Mueller has alleged has ties to Russian intelligence and who is facing charges of obstruction of justice. In a 2017 statement to the Washington Post, Kilimnik denied any connection to intelligence services. Kaiser, however, is the first person connected directly to both the Brexit and Trump campaigns known to have been questioned by Mueller.

The news came to light in a new Netflix documentary, The Great Hack, which premiered at the Sundance film festival last month and is expected to be released later this spring. Film-makers followed Kaiser for months after she approached the Guardian, including moments after she received the subpoena. She claims the summons came after the Guardian revealed she had visited WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange while still a Cambridge Analytica employee in February 2017, three months after the US election.

One part of Mueller's investigation focuses on whether the Trump campaign sought to influence the timing of the release of emails by WikiLeaks before the election. Investigators are looking at communications between them. In the film, Kaiser says that she has gone from being a cooperating witness to a subject of investigation because of her contact with Assange.

In October 2017, it was revealed that Alexander Nix, the chief executive of Cambridge Analytica, had contacted Assange in August 2016 to try to obtain emails from Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign which indictments from Mueller's team say were obtained by Russian military intelligence to use in Donald Trump's campaign. When Kaiser gave evidence to parliament last year, she was asked about her relationship with Assange and WikiLeaks but failed to reveal that she had met Assange.

In the documentary, Kaiser is shown after receiving an email from the Guardian last June asking about meeting Assange and alleged donations of cryptocurrency to WikiLeaks. Kaiser did not respond to the email at the time, but on camera says: "She knows I met Assange. And she knows I donated money to WikiLeaks in bitcoin."

Her legal representatives later wrote to the paper to say that the allegations, including that she had channelled donations to WikiLeaks, were false. Kaiser said she had received a small gift of bitcoin in 2011 long before she worked at Cambridge Analytica and, not knowing what else to do with it, gave it to WikiLeaks, because she had benefited from material it had released over the years.

Her lawyer told the Observer that the meeting with Assange came about after a chance encounter in London with an acquaintance who knew him. It lasted 20 minutes and consisted mainly of Assange telling her about how he saw the world. He said they did not discuss the US election.

Patten and Kaiser were involved in a controversial election campaign in Nigeria in January 2015, which former Cambridge Analytica employees say had unsettling parallels to the US presidential election.

The Guardian revealed that the data firm had worked alongside a team of unidentified Israeli intelligence operatives on the campaign. Ex-Cambridge Analytica employees described how the Israelis hacked the now-president of Nigeria's emails and released damaging information about him to the press weeks before the election.

CBS NEWS 60 MINUTES Lara Logan "I'm Being Targeted For Saying the Media is Mostly

by Tamar Auber

On Wednesday, former CBS News foreign correspondent Lara Logan spoke with Fox News Sean Hannity about her recent comments slamming the media as â... mostly liberal.â...

Logan told Breitbart podcaster Mike Ritland the remarks made on his show â... which drew widespread attention online â... amounted to â... professional suicide.â...

Defending her remarks on Hannityâ... s show, Logan said that as the result of her speaking out about how the media is â... mostly liberalâ... she has been targeted because she is an independent voice.

â... Any journalists who are not beating the same drum and giving the same talking points,â... she insisted â... pay the priceâ... for not going along with the liberal crowd.

She also called out her targeters by name.

â... I know theyâ... re going to come after me,â... she told Hannity. â... Michael Calderone who is at the Huffington Post. I can give you the script now. I can tell you who the players are. Joe Hagan. Brian Stelter.â...

She added: â... They smear you personally. They go after your integrity. They go after your reputation as a person and a professional. They will stop at nothing. I am not the only one. And I am just, I am done, right, I am tired of it. And they do not get to write my story anymore. They donâ... t get to speak for me, I want to say loudly and clearly to anybody who is listening, I am not owned. Nobody owns me, right? Iâ... m not owned by the left or the right.â...

Logan made headlines recently when, during a scorched earth podcast interview with Ritland, she said that there was a lot of â... weightâ... in most news organizations on â... one side of the political spectrum.â...

â... The media everywhere is mostly liberal. But in this country, 85 percent of journalists are registered Democrats. So thatâ... s just a fact, right?â... she told Ritland.

She also trashed reporting based on single, anonymous government sources.

â... Thatâ... s not journalism, thatâ... s horseshit,â... Logan stressed. â... Responsibility for fake news begins with us. We bear some responsibility for that, and weâ... re not taking ownership of that and addressing it. We just want to blame it all on somebody else.â...

Internal documents from a private Israeli intelligence firm called Psy-Group show that, at the time of many incidents, the company, and possibly other private investigators, were targeting U.S. citizens because they spoke up about crimes.

Psy-Groupâ... s intelligence and influence operations, which included a failed attempt in the summer of 2017 to sway a local election in central California, were detailed in a New Yorker investigation that I co-wrote earlier this month. Before it went out of business (ie: changed it's name) , last year, Psy-Group was part of a new wave of private-intelligence firms that recruited from the ranks of Israelâ... s secret services and described themselves as â... private Mossads.â... Psy-Group initially stood out among its rivals because it didnâ... t just gather intelligence; its operatives used false identities, or avatars, to covertly spread messages in an attempt to influence what people believed and how they behaved. In 2016, Psy-Group held discussions with the Trump campaign and others about conducting covert â... influenceâ... operations to benefit the candidate. Psy-Groupâ... s founder and C.E.O., Royi Burstien, a veteran Israeli intelligence officer who established the firm in 2014, told me that his talks with the Trump campaign went nowhere. The companyâ... s posturing, however, attracted the attention of Robert Mueller, the special counsel, who has been investigating interference in the 2016 Presidential race.'

FED BOMBHELL: Fusion GPS Bribed Dozens of MSM Journalists With Cash To Run Character Assassinations, While News Companies Paid Firm to Dig Dirt on Trump

High-ranking FBI insiders are pulling back the curtain on Fusion GPS, the firm that commissioned and spread the bogus Trump dossier.

It appears the embattled intelligence firm was quite busy paying off Big Media reporters, according to federal sources who have traced dozens of transactions between TD Bank and media members as well as media organizations, sources confirm.

But stunningly, Big Media organizations have employed Fusion GPS to dig dirt on politicians and D.C.â... s elite â... namely Donald Trump.

â... Fusion GPS was on the payroll of the media and in turn had members of the media on its payroll,â... one FBI insider said.

Bombshell revelations.

FBI insiders confirm Fusion GPS employed law firms as well as shell companies to send and receive funds to and from media and reporters. But the embattled firm also used its accounts at TD Bank to directly commission reporters. Likewise, Fusion GPS received funds from media companies into its own accounts at TD Bank, FBI insiders said, â... There are dozens of payments from the media flowing into their (Fusion GPSâ... ) account,â... one federal law enforcement official said. â... One company wired funds to Fusion (GPS) more than a dozen times.â...

Why would media companies commission Fusion GPS? Likely to dig dirt on enemies or secure records that reporters could not legally obtain, one federal law enforcement insider said. One FBI insider said the payments to Fusion GPS coincide with Donald Trumpâ... s run for the White House.

The payments were made between Sept. 2015 and Sept. 2017, records show.

The unthinkable: The mainstream media paying Fusion GPS for dirt on Trump to the same firm the Democratic National Committee paid to fund the bogus Trump dossier. And at the same time Fusion GPS bribing journalists to place stories â... likely negative about Trump, as well as spread the bogus Trump dossier around.

Stunning.

Was BuzzFeed â... the only company to publish the full bogus dossier â... on that list?

And who is on the payroll? We are trying to run that information down.

And why arenâ... t these people behind bars?

Bahar, Robert Spencer 5083

Robert Spencer, founder and director of Jihad Watch and author of â... The History of Jihad: From Muhammad to ISIS,â... warned of expanding online left-wing political censorship via large technology companies. He offered his remarks in a Friday interview with Breitbart News Editor-in-Chief Alex Marlow on SiriusXMâ... s*Breitbart News Today*.

Spencer said, â... The social media giants, now, have more control over the means of communication than the Soviet Union did in its heyday, or Nazi Germany, and they are pursuing a genuinely totalitarian initiative, and itâ... s based largely on the work of Southern Poverty Law Center, which is a far-left group trying to demonize all dissent from the leftist agenda by lumping in legitimate conservative voices with groups like the KKK and neo-Nazis. If you end up on the Southern Poverty Law Center's hate-group list, then the tech media giants will deplatform you on that basis with no recourse, no appeal, discussion; nothing.

LISTEN:

The George Soros-funded Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) described Spencer as an anti-Muslim propagandist and Jihad Watch as a Muslim-bashing website.

Despite its operations, the SPLC enjoys tax-free status with the IRS as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in its solicitation of donations.

Spencer reflected on Patreon's recent termination of his fundraising profile, ostensibly via Mastercard's directive. He further warned of the expansion of political left-wing digital censorship.

In the United States, of course, we have demonization and deplatforming," said Spencer. "People who are telling unwelcome truths are simply silenced, and they're throwing us off social media. Of course it didn't start with me and it won't end with me."

Spencer added, "This is the thing. People say, 'Oh, I don't like Alex Jones, and they shut him up. That doesn't matter. I don't like Gavin McInnes. I don't like Robert Spencer,' but they're going to keep coming until every voice that dissents from their agenda is silenced.â€¦

Marlow shared Spencerâ€¦ s concern of increasing online censorship.

Marlow said, â€¦ This is just the beginning, theyâ€¦ re just doing test cases that they think theyâ€¦ ll be able to get out of there [and] offline without having too much of a backlash. â€¦! Ultimately, theyâ€¦ re going for anyone right of center in America.â€¦

Spencer framed amplified left-wing political censorship online as a response to the 2016 presidential election.

Spencer stated, â€¦ This is an all-out effort to make sure what happened in 2016 doesnâ€¦ t happen in 2018. They know, they control establishment media, academia, the entertainment industry, everything, but they didnâ€¦ t control the internet; and it was on the internet that truth got out , and they ascribe Trumpâ€¦ s election to that. Theyâ€¦ re trying to make sure it doesnâ€¦ t happen again by cutting us all off.â€¦

Spencer cast preservation of free speech and expression online as the timeâ€¦ s ultimate political issue.

â€¦ The Republican establishment [needs] to dictate some action to try to pursue antitrust laws,â€¦ advised Spencer. â€¦ Anything. Because these groups are virtual monopolies. They hold more power over the means of communication today than any totalitarian state ever dreamed of holding. This ought to be the foremost issue that anybody who dissents from the leftist agenda is pursuing. If we donâ€¦ t pursue it, then weâ€¦ re not going to be able to pursue any others because weâ... re not going to have any voice at all.â...

Spencer went on, â... We need to create altogether different and independent platforms. This is going to take a long while. It might be that they succeed in 2018 because we simply wonâ... t have a voice to oppose them in time.â...

Unchecked left-wing political censorship online will squelch all dissent, cautioned Spencer: â... The bubble is shrinking, and if it shrinks altogether, then weâ... re going to be in 1984, where Big Brother tells us what to think and we donâ... t really have any alternative.â...

Spencer recently began a fundraising endeavor on GoFundMe, telling Marlow, â... Weâ... ll see how long that lasts [in this] rapidly totalitarianizing environment.â...

Ronan Farrow, HBO Team for Doc About Threats Against This Site And Other Journalists

The project is the first to go into production under a multi-film deal the 'Catch and Kill' author signed with the premium cable outlet in 2018.

Ronan Farrow and the directors of the Oscar-nominated Jesus Camp are teaming for an HBO documentary investigating threats against journalists worldwide.

The untitled documentary is the first to go into production under a multi-film deal the Catch and Kill author signed with the premium cable outlet in 2018. The three-year pact calls for him to produce and front a series of investigative documentary specials for HBO.

Heidi Ewing and Rachel Grady of Loki Films will direct the film and executive produce with Farrow.

"Around the world, journalists are under fire," said Farrow. "They're being spied on using new surveillance technology, imprisoned, even murdered. And we're seeing evolving tactics deployed against reporters in the United States, too, against the backdrop of a new era of misinformation campaigns and rhetoric that seeks to undermine the very idea of objective reporting. I'm so grateful to have the opportunity to work with Rachel, Heidi and HBO to tell these stories."

"We cannot think of a better place than HBO to bring audiences the firsthand stories of reporters taking huge risks in order to fight misinformation and to defend a free and informed society," said Ewing. Grady added, "Reporters covering this upcoming political cycle will be working in a vitriolic, deeply divided country and our cameras will bear witness to this make or break moment for America's dedication to a free press."

Farrow was himself the target of surveillance as he reported on sexual assault and harassment allegations against Harvey Weinstein, as he recounts in Catch and Kill. He writes in the book that operatives from private intelligence firm Black Cube compiled dossiers on both Weinstein's accusers and reporters covering the story.

"Now more than ever, as evidenced by Ronan's recent reporting, unbiased investigative journalism is both essential and under siege," said HBO Programming president Casey Bloys. "We're excited to provide a platform for Ronan, Heidi and Rachel to shed light on the harrowing circumstances thrust upon journalists in their tireless pursuit of the truth."

Farrow executive produces via his Glass Cannon Inc., in association with Ewing and Grady (HBO's 12th & Delaware, Showtime's upcoming Love Fraud) of Loki Films. Nancy Abraham and Lisa Heller will executive produce for HBO.

Separately, he told WSJ that "government power was used to spy on American citizens...I can't imagine any world where we wouldn't take a look and make sure that was done properly."

Barr has doubled-down on using the term 'spying', which has angered Democrats, after first using it during Senate committee testimony from April 10, where he uttered the now-infamous phrase "I think spying did occur."

The AG has declined to elaborate on what prompted these concerns, though he has said he'd be interested to see the underlying intelligence that sparked the FBI decision, in the summer of 2016, to open a counterintelligence investigation. At this point, Durham's review isn't a criminal investigation, and Barr hasn't offered a timetable for when the investigation might be completed. Ultimately, the probe could lead to changing FBI protocols involving investigations into political campaigns.

Appearing to respond to Barr's interviews, President Trump declared that his campaign was "conclusively" spied on.

As far as we know, the FBI first started investigating the campaign after an Australian ambassador told his superiors that George Papadopoulos had appeared to know about Russian plans to release 'dirt' on Hillary Clinton. The FBI later sent an informant, Stefan Halper, and a woman who identified herself as a research assistant, to meet with Papadopoulos and push him to say whether Russia was helping the Trump campaign.

In a recently published letter by the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, there are questions pertaining to the coordination between FBI leadership and CNN with regards to the Steele dossier. E-mails from Andrew McCabe and the memos from Comey show a high level of coordination between top FBI leadership and CNN in an attempt to give CNN the â... news hookâ... they needed to run the story. It should be noted that James Clapper is the one who suggested Comey brief Trump on the dossier when he did, and Clapper is now a CNN contributor.

This is of course the same CNN who gave debate questions to Hillary Clinton prior to a debate with Sen. Bernie Sanders during the primaries. Now that we see this type of collusion between the media and the FBI it certainly leaves us wondering when the media decided they were an arm of the government, but we know theyâ... ve felt that way for a long time now. A Democratic senator outsourced parts of the investigation into possible Trump-Russia collusion to a former Senate staffer with links to George Soros and Fusion GPS, according to a New Yorker report.

The New Yorker reports the unidentified senator contacted Daniel Jones, a former Senate Intelligence Committee staffer, around March 2017 to review data regarding a possible link between the computer servers of the Trump Organization and a Russian bank called Alfa Bank.

Jones, who worked under California Democratic Sen. Dianne Feinstein when she chaired the intelligence panel, had just formed a non-profit group called the Democracy Integrity Project. The organization worked closely with Fusion GPS and former British spy Christopher Steele, the tag-team duo that produced the Democrat-funded dossier accusing the Trump campaign of colluding with the Kremlin.

Jones's operation was also funded by a small group of billionaires, including left-wing philanthropist George Soros. Jones told the FBI in March 2017 that between 7 and 10 billionaires had put up $50 million to continue an investigation into Russian meddling in elections.

Jones also told the FBI that he had secured the services of Steele and Fusion GPS to continue exposing Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. Presidential election. â READ MORE

STUNNING TEST RESULTS Reveal How MULTIPLE Email Providers Helped To Fix Midterm Elections For Democrats

While lawmakers grapple with how to deal with the censorship of conservatives by tech giants, Facebook, Twitter and Google, a new report by a group called imge., reveals that email providers may also be working behind the scenes to tilt the scales in favor of Democrats and against Republicans, ultimately affecting the outcome of critical elections.

imge., a full-service digital firm founded in 2013 that specializes in designing and executing integrated digital campaigns wondered if email providers were attempting to influence the outcome of elections, so they decided to run a test and find out. The results are nothing short of stunning.

imge. asked:

Is the world of email biased against conservatives?

Trending: MEMORY OF A LIFETIME: Bald Eagle Shocks Cotton Bowl Fan After National Anthem: â... I was scared craplessâ...

Many partisans often mutter such an accusation against Silicon Valley. Yet, few digital professionals take the time to investigate whether such a bold claim is true.

Poor email deliverability doesnâ... t just suppress a candidateâ... s message, it decreases the engagement of campaign supporters. That means fewer donations, fewer volunteers, and fewer advocates. If Republicans underperform in email deliverability, they face a disadvantage on Election Day.

So we decided to test the rumors. Our team created email addresses with different email providers and signed up for the email lists of around fifty different candidates, committees, and political nonprofits. In the month leading up to the election, we tracked how many emails were sent from each entity, and what percentage of those emails made it into our inbox. To keep it consistent, we opened every email, every day â... regardless of where it was placed.*

To put these numbers in perspective, let's examine two closely contested Senate races.

In Nevada, Democrat Jacky Rosen averaged over 90% placement in inboxes, compared to Dean Heller's over 90% placement in spam.

In Florida, 100% of Republican Rick Scott's emails went to spam in Yahoo, while 100% of Bill Nelson's emails went to our Yahoo inbox.

While these were the most dramatic examples, this pattern emerged in every toss-up Senate race we tracked

What Factors Might Play into Email Deliverability?

One might ask: well, were these conservatives spamming their supporters? Across the five toss-up Senate races we tracked, Democrats sent over four times the quantity of emails than their Republican opponents. Only one Senate candidate used a double opt-in, and it was a Republican: Kevin Cramer, who performed the best among the Republicans.

Making it into inboxes, however, takes more than sending the right amount of email. Email deliverability is a complex animal. List quality, content quality, knowledge of best practices, proper verifications â€¦ all of these factors feed into whether an email goes into the spam folder.

To be sure, some accusations of â€¦ biasâ€¦ against conservatives on digital platforms can be attributed to a lack of digital sophistication. But these findings are consistent across multiple entities serviced by multiple professional firms. The answer to this disparity might be structural bias, bad strategy, or some blend of both. Regardless of the reason, it is clear that Republicans need to find this answer to remain competitive in email marketing.

According to imge., email is a significant part of their overall strategy to promote a political candidate. Imagine their shock to find out email providers may be acting as gatekeepers to determine which political candidateâ€™s message can or cannot be viewed in their email box.

GOP lawmakers demand that 'alarming' memo on FISA abuses be made public

By Catherine Herridge | Fox News

Lawmakers review memo alleging gov't surveillance abuse

The House Intelligence committee made the memo available to all lawmakers, but some called for its release; Catherine Herridge goes in-depth for 'Special Report.'

A four-page memo circulating in Congress that reveals alleged United States government surveillance abuses is being described by lawmakers as "shocking," "troubling" and "alarming," with one congressman likening the details to KGB activity in Russia.

Speaking with Fox News, the lawmakers said they could not yet discuss the contents of the memo they reviewed on Thursday after it was released to members by the House Intelligence Committee. But they say the memo should be immediately made public.

"It is so alarming the American people have to see this," Ohio Rep. Jim Jordan said.

"It's troubling. It is shocking," North Carolina Rep. Mark Meadows said. "Part of me wishes that I didn't read it because I don't want to believe that those kinds of things could be happening in this country that I call home and love so much."

Florida Rep. Matt Gaetz said he believed people could lose their jobs after the memo is released.

"I believe the consequence of its release will be major changes in people currently working at the FBI and the Department of Justice," he said, referencing DOJ officials Rod Rosenstein and Bruce Ohr.

"You think about, is this happening in America or is this the KGB? That's how alarming it is," Pennsylvania Rep. Scott Perry said.

The House Intelligence Committee on Thursday approved a motion by New York Rep. Pete King to release the memo on abuses of FISA, or the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, to all House members.

HEAD OF HOUSE INTELLIGENCE PANEL FINDS EVIDENCE OF ABUSE IN US GOVERNMENT SURVEILLANCE

A source close to the matter said the memo details the Intelligence Committee's oversight work for the FBI and Justice, including the controversy over unmasking and FISA surveillance.

The vote Thursday morning on releasing the memo to lawmakers was along party lines, with Democrats voting against making it available for all members.

The process for releasing it to the public involves a committee vote, a source said. If approved, it could be released as long as there are no objections from the White House within five days.

House Intelligence Committee Chairman Devin Nunes, R-Calif., told Fox News in December that his investigators have already uncovered evidence of abuse in the U.S. government's surveillance practices.

â... I believe there's evidence that abuses have occurred," Nunes said at the time.

Nunes pointed to the leaked conversation of former national security adviser, Gen. Mike Flynn with the Russian ambassador.

On Thursday, the Senate voted 65-34 to reauthorize a FISA provision that allows U.S. spy agencies to conduct surveillance on foreign targets abroad for six years. The bill, which already has been passed by the House, now heads to the White House, where President Donald Trump has said he will sign it into law.

Senate documents show FBI trying to suppress release of new Trump dossier info

Republican senators Charles Grassley (Iowa) and Lindsey Graham (S.C.) on Monday released a letter they sent to the FBI asking that ex-British spy Christopher Steele be investigated for possible criminal violations. Steele authored the anti-Trump â... dossierâ... that was full of false or unverified information, provided to the FBI and leaked to the press in 2016.

The FBI secretly used the Steele dossier to convince a Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court to permit one of the most sensitive invasions of privacy against a U.S. citizen: electronic surveillance by the government. Top Obama and Trump officials signed four wiretap applications against Trump adviser Carter Page starting in fall of 2016 â... a month before the presidential election â... relying, in part, on the dossier. Thatâ... s according to House Republicans who, on Friday, released a summary of classified documents they reviewed.

The FBIâ... s reliance on the anti-Trump dossier is questionable because while the judge was reportedly told the author had political motivations, the FBI allegedly did not disclose who funded it: Donald Trumpâ... s chief opponent in the presidential race â... the Hillary Clinton campaign â... and the Democratic National Committee.

Not only that, the newly-released criminal referral says Steele actually incorporated information that was funneled to him through Clinton associates and the U.S. State Department where Clinton had served as Secretary of State from 2009 to early 2013. In a memo dated Oct. 19, 2016, Steele wrote that a foreign source who was in touch with â... a friend of the Clintonsâ... passed him material through a U.S. State Department connection.

Even more problematic, the FBI may have violated strict rules â... Woods Procedures â... that forbid it from presenting even a single unverified fact to the special court, let alone a lengthy dossier full of them.

The criminal referral unveiled today says Steele's possible violations involve claims he reportedly made about his dealings with the media. Conflicting accounts arose as part of a lawsuit in Great Britain where Steele is defending a libel claim made by a Russian businessman. Steele publicly accused him of hacking the Democratic Party. The criminal referral is not a formal accusation of wrongdoing against Steele, but a request for an investigation.

Conflicts of interest?

In the bigger picture, the criminal referral highlights conflicts of interest questions emerging in the wide-ranging investigations:

The Steele criminal referral in essence asks the FBI to investigate a source with whom FBI officials collaborated, and whose evidence they used in a fashion thatâ... s under congressional investigation.

The referral was addressed to Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein who himself signed at least one of the questionable wiretap applications using the Steele dossier.

It was also addressed to FBI Director Christopher Wray whose choice for general counsel, Dana Boente, also signed at least one of the wiretap applications. Boente replaced James Baker, a confidante of former FBI Director James Comey, who signed three of the wiretap applications. (Baker was reassigned in December after questions arose about leaks promoting the anti-Trump material in the dossier. Last June, Comey admitted that he secretly orchestrated a leak to the press to prompt a special counsel investigation of any Trump-Russia ties. Robert Mueller was appointed two days later.)

- As walls close in on FBI, the bureau lashes out at its antagonists

Other potential conflicts of interest became apparent when senators Grassley and Graham asked the FBI for permission to release the Steele criminal referral last month. Grassley says the FBI stonewalled â... then claimed that unclassified information was actually classified and said it could not be released.

Unlike the House of Representatives, which has processes allowing members to release formerly classified material without FBI approval, the Senate requires the FBIâ... s permission.

Thatâ... s why the documents released today still contain significant blacked out or redacted portions. The FBIâ... s explanation for that is also partly redacted. FBI Assistant Director for Congressional Affairs Gregory Bower stated â... the FBI cannot and will not weaken its commitment to protecting [redacted]. Public reporting about [redacted] does not affect the FBIâ... s policy with respect to classification [redacted] nor does it diminish our obligations [redacted].â...

Page, the target of at least four secret government wiretaps, has not been accused of any wrongdoing.

Just about the only bulwark against being silenced by the modern-day tech-corporate-NKVD-Stasi is Patreon.

If you do a search of shadow banning, you'll find sites that claim to help you identify whether Twitter or Instagram has shadow banned your account. The basic idea of shadow banning is to spoof the shadow-banned user into believing their public posts are visible to all while in reality the posts are visible only to the user or in some cases to the users' followers.

Wikipedia's definition of shadow banning is:

"Shadow banning (also called stealth banning, ghost banning or comment ghosting) is the act of blocking or partially blocking a user or their content from an online community such that it will not be readily apparent to the user that they have been banned."

Here is whatis.com's description: "Shadow banning is controversial because it allows an administrator or moderator to effectively become a censor and prevent specific users from interacting with other members of an online community on an equal basis."

Shadow banning and outright banning are only the tip of the iceberg: everyone who posts content on the web or social media is subject to much more subtle and completely opaque controls on how much of your digital presence has been ghosted--not just in social media communities but in searches and how links to your site/content and re-posts of your content are handled by the tech cartel that controls what's visible and "found" on the web and social media.

This cartel is dominated by Google and Facebook. Google controls over 90% of all search: what search results are displayed, the weight given to links (the page-rank assigned to websites) and a variety of other factors that can be depreciated, removed, omitted or blocked by algorithms and/or human censors (a.k.a. administrators) without recourse and without the site or user being informed.

While this chart displays the dominance of Facebook and Google in digital ad revenues, it is a rough proxy for their dominance in mindshare, user data collected and control over what is displayed and not displayed in search results and social media.

We are all digital ghosts now, and how much of your digital shadow is visible to the world is secret / opaque. If you violate company policies or applicable censorship laws (as interpreted by the company attorneys), the corporation will notify you that your account has been frozen or banned.

In these instances, users and content creators are informed of their purported violation.

But this visible part of web / social media censorship is only the tip of the iceberg. Most of the censorship is invisible and undetectable. Here's an example of how this might work.

Facebook has reportedly based one of its censorship programs on the demonstrably bogus (and anonymously produced) PropOrNot list that was hyped by the Washington Post in 2016. The list of sites accused of being Russian propaganda outlets was a grab-bag of left, right and center websites whose only "crime" was publishing some bit of skepticism about the coronation of Hillary Clinton.

So a bogus anonymous list becomes the foundation of Facebook's censorship efforts. This is precisely how the former Soviet Union's secret police operated: a falsely reported association became the foundation of surveillance and the setting of various traps and snares to catch anti-social elements in the act of undermining the regime.

That the association was false no longer matters. What matters is your name is on the list. It turns out oftworldminds.com made it on the modern-day NKVD-Stasi list of PropOrNot, which despite being debunked has taken on a life of its own in the *New Police State of Facebook, Google, et al.

You might have heard about a targeted website's traffic suddenly plummeting 30% or 40% literally overnight. Well, it's true. Many sites left and right report their traffic mysteriously and suddenly plummets without any explanation by the organs of censorship (Facebook, Google, et al.)

It happened to oftworldminds.com this month. I have traffic data going back to 2005, and my traffic (visits and page views) has been remarkably steady for years. The number of my posts per week remains the same, my engagement on social media remains the same (as far as I can tell, heh) and my page rank remains the same (5) (again, as far as I can tell).

So when my traffic drops like a light switch was flipped, I notice.

I hope you'll enjoy the irony that many if not most of the charts published on my site are from the Federal Reserve Economic Data site (FRED). But this is akin to the innocent citizen snagged by the NKVD or Stasi for unspecified crimes against the people protesting his innocence and good citizenship: none of that matters. What matters is your name is on the list, and our administrators are obligated to track your digital presence and digitally ghost you by adjusting search results to depreciate your presence, underweight links from other sites, jam attempts to re-post your content and so on.

None of this is visible or reported. It all happens behind the closed doors of Facebook, Google et al. Just as loyal employees of the NKVD and the Stasi were constantly told they were the bulwark of the people against enemies of the state, employees of Facebook, Google et al. are told they're weeding out "fake news" and "propaganda" (like those charts from the Federal Reserve Economic Database) that is disruptive and divisive.

In other words, they're good Germans doing their masters' bidding, for very handsome salaries, bonuses and stock options.

Meanwhile, the incomes of those secretly ghosted without trial or recourse plummet along with their traffic. The net result of the perverse magic of tech cartel censorship is only the wealthy few can afford to keep posting original content after they've been ghosted.

Should Facebook, Google et al. reassure us we haven't been ghosted, why should we believe them? Since the entire apparatus of censorship is operated by private, for-profit corporations in complete secrecy, on what basis would their assurances be credible or verifiable?

Just about the only bulwark against being silenced by the modern-day tech-corporate-NKVD-Stasi is Patreon--individuals who provide financial support of independent voices and analysis because they value those independent analysts and content creators.

It doesn't matter whether you consider yourself left, right or center. If you want to resist secret censorship of both the left and the right, then please consider supporting the independent commentators and analysts who have enhanced your life with value, insight or entertainment. Thank you, patrons and financial supporters of oftentimes.com and other independent content creators. Thanks to you, the tech cartel can ghost us and our content but they can't erase it entirely.

At least not yet.

Sharyl Attkisson Accuses Obama DOJ of Secretly Swapping Out Her Computer Hard Drive

CHAT 45 COMMENTS

Former CBS correspondent Sharyl Attkisson accused the Department of Justice (DOJ) of monkeying around with her hard drive while her computer was in their possession. She tweeted on Thursday, "What would you think if I told you the hard drive of one of my personal computers was secretly switched out w/another while in custody of the Justice Dept. Inspector General-- before they gave it back to me?"

You may recall that Attkisson's computer was hacked back in 2012 while she was working for CBS and reporting on the Benghazi scandal. CBS News spokeswoman Sonya McNair said at the time that a cybersecurity firm hired by CBS News "has determined through forensic analysis" that "Attkisson's computer was accessed by an unauthorized, external, unknown party on multiple occasions in late 2012."

Sharyl Attkisson Explains the Origins of the 2016 'Fake News' Narrative in TedX Talk

"Evidence suggests this party performed all access remotely using Attkisson's accounts," McNair said. "While no malicious code was found, forensic analysis revealed an intruder had executed commands that appeared to involve search and exfiltration of data. This party also used sophisticated methods to remove all possible indications of unauthorized activity, and alter system times to cause further confusion. CBS News is taking steps to identify the responsible party and their method of access."

In her memoir, Attkisson recalled that a source connected to a government agency implicated "a sophisticated entity that used commercial, nonattributable spyware that's proprietary to a government agency: either the CIA, FBI, the Defense Intelligence Agency or the National Security Agency" in the breach.

She's suing the Justice Department, accusing the Obama administration of illegally surveilling her computers, and seeking $35 million in damages. An excerpt from an affidavit in the case claims:

In several subsequent tweets, Attkisson revealed more details about the DOJ's handling of her computer while it was in the inspector general's possession.

Democrats Are Headed for a World of (Deserved) Hurt

"I asked them to look at one of them some years ago after the govt intrusion," she tweeted. "Not the main one but one of my personal computers involved to see if they might come up with more info. Instead, they... withheld the report from me, did a lot of weird stuff." Attkisson says that her team of forensic experts discovered the replaced hard drive and said they have "the forensic record and chain of custody documents" to prove it.

Attkisson wrote on her blog last August:

The IG investigators found and described to me significant suspicious anomalies in that system much like the CBS laptop, unearthing similar efforts by someone to erase data and evidence. However, when the IG computer experts finished their review, the findings went to higher ups and the resulting report was inexplicably withheld from me in its entirety.

I was shut out.

Many months later, under pressure from Congress, the IG eventually released a very different-sounding summary of its forensics report to the press. It recast or excluded much of what the investigators had told me theyâ€¦ d found. I attempted to obtain the full report and original notes, some of which I reviewed while the investigation was underway, describing the suspicious activity found on my personal computer. However, the IG has stonewalled my Freedom of Information (FOI) requests for these documents for several years. If the Department of Justice wonâ€¦ t comply with FOI law, then what recourse does a citizen have?

"The Justice Departement is fighting us," she tweeted today, singling out Inspector General Michael Horowitz, an Obama administration holdover who still holds the position. This is the same Michael Horowitz who was appointed by Attorney General Jeff Sessions to oversee the FISA abuses investigation.

Attkisson tweeted that career attorneys at DOJ "are getting orders from higher up. "I don't know the names of exactly who," she said.

This new information about her hard drive will become part of her lawsuit against the Departement of Justice, she said.

Sharyl Attkisson: I Don't Think I Was the Only Reporter the Government Surveilled

BY DEBRA HEINE

CHAT COMMENTS

Although investigative journalist Sharyl Attkisson has strong forensic evidence that her home computer was remotely accessed by government entities, nothing has been done about it. The Department of Justice should be paying attention, because Attkisson believes she wasn't the only person who was improperly spied on during the Obama years.

Attkisson shared her story during a House Oversight and Reform hearing on Tuesday about H.R. 4382, the Free Flow of Information Act, which would enshrine journalist-source protection into federal law.

Reps Jamie Raskin (D-MD) and Jim Jordan (R-OH) introduced the Free Flow of Information Act in November of 2017 "to protect the exercise of freely reporting critical information to the American public by establishing federal protection from compulsory disclosures for journalists."

Attkisson was reporting on the Benghazi scandal for CBS News in late 2012 when her computer records were surveilled by a government entity on multiple occasions. She is now the host of Full Measure, a Sunday public affairs program.

She told Rep. Mark Meadows (R-NC) at the hearing on Tuesday that there was no doubt in her mind that the government had intruded into her computer.

"There's an actual fingerprint on the software that is used for this that they recognize themselves -- or that can be recognized -- that it's very unique," she explained. "It's a government proprietary software. And not only that, they didn't just look at my computer records, according to forensics. They planted three classified documents in my computer, they had a keystroke monitoring program in there, they used Skype -- which was on my computer -- to secretly activate it to exfiltrate files and listen in on audio."

She noted that a lot of people, including her, didn't know that Skype could be used for such purposes, but it's just one of many tools spooks use to access your computer remotely.

"I don't believe I was unique in terms of the only journalist this happened to," she added. "I was just one who found out about it because I had intel sources."

Attkisson explained to Rep. Jim Jordan (R-OH) that it had never occurred to her that the government would be spying on her, as it sounded "so wildly crazy." However, two different individuals in the intelligence community -- who didn't know each other -- had approached her with the information indicating that she was being surveilled. She said the intelligence sources told her that they were seeing practices being employed that "used to be strictly forbidden or controlled, but were now being done more liberally."

Attkisson continued: "With help of another confidential source, and a FBI unit chief who helped connect me, we were able to get the first forensics exam, and they were literally blown away, according to them, when they saw this evidence. They were so shocked because there was a time when this would never have been done."

She noted that she could not and would not reveal her source, but "it's a government-connected person who knows exactly what government surveillance software does and looks like," she explained.

Before she and her legal team were able to present all of the evidence in court, her case was dismissed, Attkisson said.

"We presented some overviews and it was considered at the time plausible and we survived many motions to dismiss along the way, but after we added a telephone company to the lawsuit a couple months back, there was new considerations and the case was dismissed."

But Attkisson encouraged interested parties to look at the forensics -- especially at the DOJ, "for the sake of trying to find who did it or identify for their own purposes. Because I think they should be concerned and I don't think I was the only one. I think they really ought to be on that, personally," Attkisson added.

Attkisson has good reason to feel frustrated.

In 2013, she turned to DOJ Inspector General Michael Horowitz for help, handing over one of her personal home laptops to be examined. The investigation seemed to begin honestly and diligently, but over time became a half-baked exercise in obfuscation and stonewalling.

In a post at The Hill on March 1, 2018, Attkisson admits that she was advised by some of her intel sources not to trust the IG with her computer. She writes: "... But I figured there was little downside. We already had our irrefutable forensics findings from our examinations. If the IG probe was competent and honest, as I expected it might be, then it could turn up names of the government actors responsible. If not, no harm done..."

When the investigation was complete, the IG's office stonewalled Attkisson, refusing to let her see the final report. She was advised to file a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. She writes: "... I did so; under the law, a response was due within about 30 days. It's been years."

The IG eventually released what Attkisson's attorney called a "... wiped summary -- not the actual report or notes -- with spin that implied there had been no intrusion. This was quickly presented, publicly, by then-Sen. Al Franken (D-MN), who had gotten a copy of the summary with lightning speed; and it was dutifully reported by some in an unquestioning press."

In late February of this year, Attkisson discovered that the hard drive of one of her personal computers was secretly switched out with another while it was in the custody of the Justice Dept. inspector general:

Attkisson explains:

Not long ago, my forensics team asked if I used that Apple computer after the IG returned it. My team was conducting a new exam. â... No,â... I replied, â... it hasnâ... t functioned since before I gave it to the IG. I just stored it when they returned it. Why?â...

â... Because -- thatâ... s not your hard drive inside the computer they gave back to you,â... they told me. â... â...! We know the serial number on the hard drive when you bought it. We recorded the same serial number on our earlier forensics exams. This is a different hard drive. Completely different serial number. Not even close.â...

I would never have known if we hadnâ... t gone back in that computer for additional forensics.

In addition to somebody changing the scope of the IG investigation midstream, and the office withholding from me the notes and the report on my own complaint, somebody also switched out my hard drive before the IG returned it to me.

Attkisson asks: "What does all this mean to the integrity of the DOJâ... s inspector general?"

Nothing good obviously, since the same IG botched its report on the FBI Hillary Clinton email investigation, and is currently investigating the FISA abuse scandal involving the FBI and DOJ.

The New York Times published a story Sunday on the hundreds of thousands of dollars being spent to support women willing to come forward with sexual misconduct accusations against Donald Trump. The Times reports that a group founded by David Brock secretly gave $200,000 to attorney Lisa Bloom while another progressive donor gave her $500,000 for the same purpose.

SEE ALSO: Trump on Bannon calling him a â... great manâ... : He changed his tune pretty quick, didnâ... t he?

A nonprofit group founded by the Democratic activist David Brock, which people familiar with the arrangements say secretly spent $200,000 on an unsuccessful effort to bring forward accusations of sexual misconduct against Mr. Trump before Election Day, is considering creating a fund to encourage victims to bring forward similar claims against Republican politiciansâ...!

Ms. Allredâ... s daughter, the lawyer Lisa Bloom, seized on the political potency of sexual harassment charges against Mr. Trump not long after he clinched the Republican presidential nomination. She said she reached out to a pro-Clinton â... super PACâ... â... though she declined to identify which one â... for money to help her vet a sexual misconduct claim against Mr. Trump.

That case collapsed one week before Election Day, but as a result of the attention it generated, several donors reached out to Ms. Bloom â... asking how they could help,â... she said. She told them that she was working with â... a few other womenâ... who might â... find the courage to speak outâ... against Mr. Trump if the donors would provide funds for security, relocation and possibly a â... safe house.â...

Ms. Bloom would not identify the donors. But two Democrats familiar with the arrangements said a nonprofit group founded by Mr. Brock, American Bridge 21st Century Foundation, gave $200,000, while the fashion entrepreneur Susie Tompkins Buell, a major donor to Mr. Brockâ... s suite of groups, gave $500,000 to Ms. Bloomâ... s firm for the last-ditch effort.

Two weeks ago the Hill reported that Lisa Bloom was negotiating with an unnamed woman who claimed Trump had made an â... unsolicited advanceâ... on her years earlier. Bloom initially offered the woman $10,000 to come forward, then $50,000. As the date of the election grew closer, the figure kept going up:

Double down: DoJ reopening Hillary e-mail scandal?

â... Another donor has reached out to me offering relocation/security for any woman coming forward. Iâ... m trying to reach him,â... Bloom texted the woman on Nov. 3, 2016. Later she added, â... Call me I have good news.â... â...!

The figured jumped to $200,000 in a series of phone calls with Bloom that week, according to the woman. The support was promised to be tax-free and also included changing her identity and relocating, according to documents and interviews.

The unnamed woman finally requested a payment of $2 million. Bloom says she rejected that request but the Hill reported Bloom did fly from California to make a last-ditch offer of $750,000 just two days before the election. That amount matches roughly with the amount of money the New York Times reports was offered by the two donors, i.e. $700,000. But the unnamed accuser never did come forward. Another accuser who did come forward, Jill Harth, admits that donors arranged by Lisa Bloom paid off the mortgage on her apartment. Bloom claims she didnâ... t discuss any of her activities with the Clinton campaign.

According to the Times, Bloom returned the $500,000 donated by Susie Tompkins Buell but kept the money given by American Bridge 21st Century Foundation. Neither Buell nor David Brock would comment on the arrangement.

Sidney Blumenthal proves Bob Woodward has been an FBI asset since Deep Throat

By Thomas Lifson

It's déjà vu all over again, in Yogi Berra's memorable expression: senior unelected FBI officials conspiring with the Washington Post and New York Times to drive a Republican president from office.

Kudos to Jim Hoft of Gateway Pundit for spotting a 2014 State Department email from SecState Hillary's aide Sid Blumenthal that was declassified and released in 2015. In it, Blumenthal states as a fact that Bob Woodward has been an "FBI asset" since the days of Deep Throat. See for yourself:

Deep Throat revealed himself in 2006 as Mark Felt, who had been the number-two official at the FBI and who was apparently enraged that President Nixon passed him over for promotion to the top spot. Given his senior position there, rather like that formerly held by Andrew McCabe, it might not be so surprising if he actively leaked to the Washington Post duo, and formed a mutual relationship between the bureau and the useful journalists, obtaining revenge while demonstrating the fearsome power of the FBI over elected officials.

It might also explain why Woodward's latest book, Fear, is such an attack on President Trump.

Bob Woodward in 2016 (via Wikipedia).

Thanks to Sara Carter's latest scoop, we know that the FBI lovebirds Strzok and Page were playing the same game with the same newspapers that broke Watergate via leaks:

A series of text messages released Wednesday reveal that former FBI Special Agent Peter Strzok was in contact with reporters at the New York Times and Washington Post regarding stories they published about the FBI's investigation into alleged collusion between Russia and President Trump's campaign during the spring of 2017, according to a series of texts obtained by SaraACarter.com.

The text messages suggest that Strzok, along with his paramour, former FBI Attorney Lisa Page, had been in contact with reporters from both newspapers. Strzok specifically mentioned two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning New York Times writer Michael Schmidt his text message to Page.

Strzok wrote, "Also, apparently Times is angry with us about the WP (Washington Post) scoop and earlier discussion we had about the Schmidt piece that had so many inaccuracies. Too much to detail here, but I told Mike (redacted) and Andy they need to understand we were absolutely dealing in good faith with them." Strzok texted to Page on April 14, 2017. "The FISA one, coupled with the Guardian piece from yesterday." (The New York Times did not respond immediately for comment. The Washington Post also did not respond immediately for comment.)

It is all so familiar: unelected senior people in the FBI conspiring with liberal media to harm â€¦ and eventually drive out of office â€¦ a Republican president whom they hate.

MORE: POLITICS

The House Intelligence Committee's just-released report on Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election reveals in a footnote that an ongoing, private investigation into Trump-Russia claims is being funded with $50 million supplied by George Soros and a group of 7-10 wealthy donors from California and New York.

This effort was originally revealed in February and reported on by The Federalist, after a series of leaked text messages between Senator Mark Warner (D-VA) and lobbyist Adam Waldman suggested that Daniel J. Jones - an ex-FBI investigator and former Feinstein staffer, was "intimately involved with ongoing efforts to retroactively validate a series of salacious and unverified memos published by Christopher Steele, a former British intelligence agent, and Fusion GPS."

In short, Jones is working with Fusion GPS and Christopher Steele to continue their investigation into Donald Trump, using a $50 million war chest just revealed by the House Intel Committee report.

Daniel J. Jones

In a bizarre twist Waldman, the lobbyist, notably represents Kremlin-linked Russian oligarch Oleg Deripaska, head of Russian aluminum giant Rusal and who was the target of Trump's recent sanctions, as well as Russian foreign minister Sergey Lavrov. He met with Jones on March 16, 2017 according to the Daily Caller.

Jones, meanwhile, runs the Penn Quarter Group - a "research and investigative advisory" firm whose website was registered in April of 2016, days before Steele delivered his first in a series of Trump-Russia memos to Fusion GPS. Jones also began tweeting out articles suggesting illicit ties between the Trump campaign and Russia as early as 2017.

Steele's work during the 2016 election culminated in the salacious and unverified 35-page "Steele dossier" used to obtain a FISA warrant against then-President Trump (which, as we reported on Friday, former Director of National Intelligence James Clapper leaked the details to CNN's Jake Tapper prior to the seemingly coordinated publication by *BuzzFeed).

The recently released House Intel Report notes that in March 2017, Jones told the FBI that he was working with Steele and Fusion GPS, with funding to the tune of $50 million.

â... In late March 2017, Jones met with FBI regarding PQG, which he described as â... exposing foreign influence in Western election,'â... reads the House Intel report. â... [Redacted] told FBI that PQG was being funded by 7 to 10 wealthy donors located primarily in New York and California, who provided approximately $50 million.â...

â... [Redacted] further stated that PQG had secured the services of Steele, his associate [redacted], and Fusion GPS to continue exposing Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. Presidential election,â... reads the report, which adds that Jones â... planned to share the information he obtained with policymakersâ...and with the press.â...

As the Daily Caller's Chuck Ross notes, Jones "also offered to provide PQG's entire holdings to the FBI" according to the report, citing a "FD-302" transcript of the interview he gave to the FBI.

Of note, during Congressional testimony last year when Rep. Adam Schiff (D-CA) asked Glenn Simpson, co-founder of Fusion GPS, if he was still being paid for work related to the dossier, Simpson refused to answer. And while the dossier came under fire for "salacious and unverified" claims, a January 8 New York Times profile of Glenn Simpson confirmed that dossier-related work continues.

Sean Davis of The Federalist reported in February that Jones' name was mentioned in a list of individuals from a January 25 Congressional letter from Senators Grassley and Graham to various Democratic party leaders who were likely involved in Fusion GPS's 2016 efforts. The letter sought all communications between the Democrats and a list of 40 individuals or entities, of which Jones is one.

Some of those communications - at least according to the encrypted text messages between Warner and Waldman, (and leaked to Fox News), discuss efforts by Warner to secure a testimony from Steele.

â... I spoke w Steele,â... Waldman wrote on April 25, 2017. â... He repeated the same position which is that he wants to be helpful but is fearful of the triumvirate of cost, time suck and reputation.â...

â... He asked me what your concern was about a letter first and I explained it but he would still like as a first protective step from you and [Sen. Richard] Burr asking him and his partner to assist w the investigation by answering questions,â... Waldman added. â... He [Steele] said he will also speak w Dan Jones whom he says is talking to you.â...

â... I pointed out there is no privilege in that discussion although Dan [Jones] is a good guy and very trustworthy guy. I encouraged him again to engage with you for the sake of the truth and of vindication of the dossier,â... he wrote. -Adam Waldman to Mark Warner

Meanwhile, Federal disclosures required by the Foreign Agents Registration Act show that Waldman collected nearly $1.1 million from Deripaska in 2016 and 2017. Some questions:

- Why would Waldman, a Russian oligarch's foreign agent, be the official cutout for both a U.S. senator and Christopher Steele?
- Why would he recommend Daniel Jones - a former top Feinstein aide who worked for the FBI - as a point of contact and an information broker?

And now Jones has a $50 million war chest - from a group of mysterious "7 to 10" donors - to continue the grande Trump-Russia witch hunt with Christopher Steele and Fusion GPS - coordinated in part by a guy (Waldman) who represents Russian oligarch Oleg Deripaska and Russian foreign minister Sergey Lavrov. Seems somewhat collusive, no?

Social Security Whistleblowers Reveal Political Retribution Acts By SSA Officials Against Citizens

| By The Association of Mature American Citizens |

From watchdog.org By M.D. Kittle

MILWAUKEE — In the wake of Wisconsin Watchdog's investigation into allegations of incompetence, misconduct, and retaliation in Social Security disability appeals offices, several employees have taken their complaints to a Senate committee led by Wisconsin Sen. Ron Johnson.

An official with knowledge of the complaints said the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee, chaired by the Oshkosh Republican, has received emails and other contacts from "certain people" inside the Social Security Administration's Office of Disability Adjudication and Review.

The initial complaints came from an employee inside the Milwaukee office following Wisconsin Watchdog's opening investigative report that found some claimants waiting more than 1,000 days for an appeals decision on their disability benefits claim.

Following Wednesday's story of a whistleblower in the Madison ODAR office, the committee has received more specific complaints about retaliation against employees, the source said.

Committee staff members sent the latest Watchdog piece to SSA administrators hoping they will "cooperate," the source said. To date, the agency has been less than cooperative.

"This is an ongoing process, and they are not always as forthcoming as we'd like them to be," the source said. "Hopefully with your continued reporting, this is an issue they can't duck."

A Senate committee member said officials there are working with the Office of Special Counsel on "multiple whistleblower retaliation claims." The committee continues to request information from the SSA.

The whistleblower in the Madison office claims management retaliated against her after she was called to testify in a misconduct case. The incident involved â... inappropriate behaviorâ... by an administrative law judge, she said.

â... They are so corrupt. Itâ... s absolutely horrible,â... said the woman, a lead case technician in the Madison Office of Disability Adjudication and Review.

She spoke on condition of anonymity, fearing more retribution from her supervisors. While she said recounting her particular experiences will more than likely betray her identity anyway, the ODAR case worker insisted she has had enough.

â... Iâ... m at point where they donâ... t care about me, I donâ... t see why Iâ... m protecting them. This is my last resort,â... she said. â... I want to do my work without fear of retaliation.â...

She said she has contacted the Senate committee.

â... I forwarded my information to them and I got an email back from them. They said people are coming out of the woodwork with their complaints (about ODAR) following your story,â... the whistleblower said.

Ronald Klym, a long-time senior legal assistant in the Milwaukee ODAR office, alleges he has been retaliated against by supervisors for going public with his charges of incompetence and misconduct in the agency.

The federal employee, who has worked for SSA for 16 years, provided Wisconsin Watchdog with documents showing extremely long wait times for claimants appealing their denied applications for benefits.

Doug Nguyen, SSA regional spokesman, in a previous story said the agency acknowledges that Milwaukee ODAR has a â... high average processing time for disability appeal hearings, and we are working to address the issue.â...

Beyond the delays is what Klym calls the â... shell game,â... the wholesale transferring of cases to other parts of the country by administrators to make the Milwaukee officeâ... s numbers look better than they are.

The Madison office whistleblower confirmed Klymâ... s allegations, saying at one point she saw 2,000 cases from the Milwaukee office handed off to the Oak Brook operation.

Nguyen has said he cannot comment on internal personnel matters.

By Katie Hind For The Mail On Sunday

Harry Styles' record company has been accused of using 'dirty tricks' to ensure his single won the charts battle with Eurovision hero Sam Ryder .

Industry sources say Sony was determined to have the former One Direction star's track, As It Was, in top spot as his new album Harry's House was released this weekend.

To help drive sales, the company released limited-edition hand- numbered CDs on May 13, the first day of the chart week which runs from Friday to Friday.

Just as Styles' website began distributing the limited records for Â£2.49 â... 70p more than a standard CD â... excitement about Ryder's track Spaceman and its prospects of winning Eurovision the following day was growing.

Critics suggest that Sony calculated that because physical CD sales register more points towards achieving the No 1 spot than the purchase of a stream, they could secure victory by promoting the hand-numbered CDs.

Whatever the strategy, Sony achieved success on Friday as Styles, 28, notched up his seventh week at No 1 â... with Ryder at No 2.

Sources close to Sony last night pointed out that the hand-numbered CDs were available to pre-order before May 13 and insisted it was always part of Styles' carefully managed campaign.

No rules were broken and the insider scoffed at suggestions that it was a deliberate strategy to scupper Ryder's No 1 hopes.

But another industry source said: 'Sam was doing so well and actually overtook Harry in the midweeks, but the chatter is that Sony decided to make sure that Harry was home and dry by releasing the hand- numbered CDs.

'CDs count more than streams so having numbered ones made it all much more appealing for his fans.

Sam made Eurovision history as he scored the most points Great Britain has had in decades

'Sam was at a disadvantage because people didn't really start looking for him properly until Saturday, a day after the chart week began.' Ryder, 32, who was hailed for coming second in the Eurovision song contest final â€¦ the UK's highest finish since 1997 â€¦ played down his rivalry with Styles. Liberal billionaire George Soros provided $1.35 million to a "nonpartisan" government watchdog organization last year that is hitting the Trump administration with a steady flow of complaints and lawsuits in an attempt to "damage" his presidency, according to tax filings provided to the Washington Free Beacon.

Separate state filings also reveal that the "nonpartisan" watchdog shares employees with the liberal Media Matters for America, an organization that was founded by Democratic operative and Clinton loyalist David Brock. Confidential documents handed out by Brock to big money donors in early 2017 and obtained by the Free Beacon previously shed light on how Brock planned to attack Trump over the course of his presidency using his constellation of organizations.

Soros gave $1.35 million to Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (CREW), a Washington, D.C.-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit that does not reveal its donors. The group has been involved with a number of high-profile lawsuits and complaints against Trump and other Republicans. Its top members regularly appear on news programs attacking the administration and members of the GOP but are rarely identified as having a left-wing mission by the outlets and on-air personalities.

Soros's donations to CREW came from two entities in his Open Society Foundations network including \$1.250.000 from the Foundation to Promote Open Society and \$100.000 from the Open Society Policy Center, according to a review of his groups' most recent tax forms covering the 2017 fiscal year that were provided by Soros's spokesperson.

CREW's most recent tax forms, which were provided by the organization, show that the group more than quadrupled its contributions from $1,853,672 in 2016 to $7,773,524 in 2017.

The drastic uptick was a byproduct of its planned expansion as Trump took office, documents handed out by Brock to deep-pocketed donors at a January 2017 retreat revealed. The gathering was attended by more than 100 wealthy liberals who huddled alongside Brock at the posh Turnberry Isle Resort just outside Miami as they mapped out how they would "kick Donald Trump's ass" in the upcoming years.

The Free Beacon was on site for the retreat and obtained the confidential documents that show how the seasoned liberal operative planned to damage Trump using Media Matters, American Bridge, Shareblue, and CREW.

Brock chaired CREW's board from 2014 to late 2016 but stepped down from the position as he did not want the organization to appear overly partisan as Trump was entering the White House.

"Due to my stepped-up political activities in the American Bridge opposition research super PAC, I decided to step off CREW's board to ensure its public reputation for non-partisanship," Brock said at the time. "I'm very proud of the work CREW has accomplished during my two years on board, and its work is more relevant now than ever."

Brock's influence on the organization can still be felt, however.

The internal memo explained how CREW would focus on afflicting Trump with "a steady flow of damaging information, new revelations, and an inability to avoid conflicts issues," forcing the Trump administration to defend "illegal conduct in court," reducing the influence of powerful industries and interest groups, and making dark money a political liability in key states.

The documents boasted of CREW's communications team placing regular stories in the Washington Post, New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and other publications. The organization also gloated that the group partners "with top reporters to move major stories forward."

Its budget was set at $5.8 million for 2017, which would "double" its size from the previous year, to allow them to expand its staff and scope of their investigations.

"In 2017 CREW is planning to expand to a staff of at least 38," the documents read. "We will more than double the size of our legal team, and add to our research and communications shop (including web and social media). We will also expand our administrative and paralegal capabilities. The increased budget will also cover outside legal services, web and social media services, and research and investigative resources."

In October of this year, as CREW was renewing its registration in North Carolina, the group submitted an independent auditor's report that reveals they share employees with Media Matters, a search of state records found.

"The organization shares employees and other related expenses with Media Matters for America (MMFA), a not-for-profit organization exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code," the report states. "As of December 31, 2017, $4,790 was owed to MMFA, which is included in accounts payable in the accompanying Statement of Financial Position."

CREW's address on its 2017 tax forms is the same as Media Matters, American Bridge, and Shareblue. However, the address listed on its website is a different location that is a 10-minute walk from Brock's main headquarters. This is due to the group leasing office space at two locations, according to the auditor's report.

CREW's spokesperson did not respond to emails seeking comment on the Soros donation, the group being located at the same address as Brock's other organizations, and its sharing of employees with Media Matters after Brock "left" the group.

CREW is an approved organization of the Democracy Alliance, the left's biggest secretive dark money donor network whose members each vow to steer hundreds of thousands in funding to its network of progressive groups each year.

Soros, a member of the alliance, and Brock were both in attendance at the alliance's 2017 fall investment conference in Carlsbad, Calif. The Free Beacon was also present at the resort during its gathering and obtained its confidential agenda, which did not list Brock, although he was spotted at the resort. Media Matters is also an approved group of the secretive club.

CREW has been involved with a number of complaints and lawsuits against Trump since he took office, including the recent high-profile suit accusing Trump of violating the Constitution's emoluments clause, which bars foreign governments from paying U.S. officials through his private businesses.

The lawsuit was filed by the attorneys general in D.C. and Maryland and mimicked an earlier suit filed by CREW in New York that was ultimately dismissed by a federal judge.

The suit was identical in nature because it was aided by top executives from CREW.

Noah Bookbinder, CREW's executive director, and Stuart McPhail, CREW's litigation counsel, are both listed on the original lawsuit under the respective attorneys general.

CREW reported spending $1,645,270 on "large scale litigation" and filed "numerous ethics complaints and administrative complaints and legal complaints with the Office of Government Ethics, the Department of Justice, and other agencies against executive branch officials and members of Congress" throughout 2017. The group additionally reports filing complaints with the Federal Election Commission, Internal Revenue Service, and other agencies "concerning violations of finance and tax laws" by government officials.

In a fundraising email this week, the group took credit for its "pioneering legal and investigative work" and an IRS complaint they say laid the groundwork for the New York Attorney General's investigation that recently led to the Trump Foundation agreeing to shut down its operations.

Soros's spokesperson did not reply to an inquiry on the donations from the financier and his relationship with Brock by press time.

Efforts by high-ranking officials in the CIA, FBI, Department of Justice (DOJ), and State Department to portray President Donald Trump as having colluded with Russia were the culmination of years of bias and politicization under the Obama administration.

The weaponization of the intelligence community and other government agencies created an environment that allowed for obstruction in the investigation into Hillary Clinton and the relentless pursuit of a manufactured collusion narrative against Trump.

A willing and complicit media spread unsubstantiated leaks as facts in an effort to promote the Russia-collusion narrative.

The Spygate scandal also raises a bigger question: Was the 2016 election a one-time aberration, or was it symptomatic of decades of institutional political corruption?

This article builds on dozens of congressional testimonies, court documents, and other research to provide an inside look at the actions of Obama administration officials in the scandal thatâ€¦ s become known as Spygate.

To understand this abuse of power, it helps to go back to July 2011, when DOJ Inspector General Michael Horowitz was appointed.

From the very start, Horowitz found his duties throttled by Attorney General Eric Holder, who placed limitations on the inspector generalâ€¦ s right to have unobstructed access to information. Holder used this tactic to delay Horowitzâ€¦ s investigation of the failed sting operation known as Operation Fast and Furious.

â€¦ We got access to information up to 2010 in all of these categories. No law changed in 2010. No policy changed. â€¦ It was simply a decision by the General Counselâ€¦ s Office in 2010 that they viewed, now, the law differently. And as a result, they werenâ€¦ t going to give us that information,â€¦ Horowitz told members of Congress in February 2015.

On Aug. 5, 2014, Horowitz and other inspectors general had sent a letter to Congress asking for unimpeded access to all records. Deputy Attorney General Sally Yates responded on July 20, 2015, with a 58-page memorandum, titled â€¦ Memorandum for Sally Quillian Yates Deputy Attorney General,â€¦ written by Karl R. Thompson, the principal deputy assistant attorney general of the Office of Legal Counsel (OLC).

The July 20, 2015, opinion was widely criticized. But it accomplished what it was intended to do. The opinion limited IG Horowitzâ€¦ s oversight from extending to any information collected under Title IIIâ€¦ including intercepted communications and national security letters. (Notably, The New York Times disclosed that national security letters were used in the surveillance of the Trump 2016 presidential campaign.)

In response, on Aug. 3, 2015, IG Horowitz sent a blistering letter to Congress. The letter was signed not only by Horowitz but by all other acting inspectors general as well:

â... The OLC opinionâ... s restrictive reading of the IG Act represents a potentially serious challenge to the authority of every Inspector General and our collective ability to conduct our work thoroughly, independently, and in a timely manner. Our concern is that, as a result of the OLC opinion, agencies other than DOJ may likewise withhold crucial records from their Inspectors General, adversely impacting their work.

Horowitz continued to push Congress for oversight access and encouraged passage of the Inspector General Empowerment Act. Horowitz would ultimately win his battle, but only as President Barack Obama was leaving office. On Dec. 16, 2016, Obama finally signed the Inspector General Empowerment Act into law.

It is against this backdrop of minimal oversight that Spygate took place.

Ironically, the Clinton email server investigation, known as the â... Mid-Year Exam,â... originated from a disclosure contained in a June 29, 2015, memo sent by the inspectors general for both the State Department and the Intelligence Community to Patrick F. Kennedy, then-undersecretary of state for management.

The IGsâ... memo included an assessment that Clintonâ... s email account contained hundreds of classified emails, despite Clintonâ... s claims that there was no classified information present on her server.

On July 6, 2015, the IG for the Intelligence Community made a referral to the FBI, which resulted in the official opening of an investigation into the Clinton email server by FBI officials Randall Coleman and Charles Kable on July 10, 2015.

A Hand-Picked Team

At this time, Peter Strzok was an assistant special agent in charge at the FBIâ... s Washington Field Office. The assistant director in charge at the Washington Field Office during this period was Andrew McCabe, a position he assumed on Sept. 14, 2014.

On July 30, 2015, within weeks of the FBIâ... s opening of the Clinton investigation, McCabe was suddenly promoted to the No. 3 position in the FBI. With his new title of associate deputy director, McCabe was transferred to FBI headquarters from the Washington Field Office, and his direct involvement in the Clinton investigation began.

Strzok would follow shortly. Less than a month after McCabe was transferred, FBI headquarters reached out to the Washington Field Office, saying it needed greater staffing and resources â... based on what they were looking at, based on some of the investigative steps that were under consideration,â... Strzok told congressional investigators in a closed-door hearing on June 27, 2018.

Strzok was one of the agents selected, and in late August 2015, he was assigned to the Mid-Year Exam team and transferred to FBI headquarters. Strzok, in his comments to lawmakers, acknowledged that the newly formed investigative team was largely made up of hand-picked personnel from the Washington Field Office and FBI headquarters.

Starting in October 2015 and continuing into early 2016, FBI Director James Comey made a series of high-profile reassignments that resulted in the complete turnover of the upper-echelon of the FBI team working on the Clinton email investigation:

- Oct. 12, 2015: Louis Bladel was moved to the New York Field Office.
- Dec. 1, 2015: Randall Coleman, assistant director of Counterintelligence, was named as executive assistant director of the Criminal, Cyber, Response, and Services Branch, and was replaced by Bill Priestap.
- Dec. 9, 2015: Charles â... Sandyâ... Kable was moved to the Washington Field Office.

- Feb. 1, 2016: Mark Giuliano retired as FBI deputy director and was replaced by Andrew McCabe.
- Feb. 11, 2016: John Giacalone retired as executive assistant director and was replaced by Michael Steinbach.
- March 2, 2016: Gerald Roberts, Jr. was moved to the Washington Field Office.

Comey is the only known senior FBI leadership official who remained involved throughout the entire Clinton email investigation. McCabe had the second-longest tenure.

On Jan. 29, 2016, Comey appointed McCabe as FBI deputy director, replacing the retiring Giuliano, and McCabe assumed the No. 2 position in the FBI, after having held the No. 3 position for just six months.

It was at this point that FBI lawyer Lisa Page was assigned to McCabe as his special counsel. This was not the first time that Page worked directly for McCabe. James Baker, the FBI's former general counsel, told congressional investigators that Page had worked for McCabe at various times during McCabe's career, going back as far as 2013.

By early 2016, the three participants in the infamous "insurance policy" meeting—McCabe, Strzok, and Page—were now in place at the FBI.

In January 2016, Bill Priestap was named as head of the FBI's Counterintelligence Division, replacing Coleman and inheriting the Clinton email investigation in the process.

According to Priestap, Coleman had "set up a reporting mechanism that leaders of that team would report directly to him, not through the customary other chain of command" in the Clinton email investigation. Priestap, who said he didn't know why Coleman had "set it up," kept the chain of command in place when he assumed Coleman's position in January 2016.

This new structure resulted in some unusual reporting lines that went outside normal chains of command. Strzok, who would not normally fall under Priestap's oversight, was now reporting directly to him.

As Priestap described it, the team involved in the Clinton investigation comprised three different but intertwined elements: the primary team, the filter team, and the senior leadership team.

The primary team was small, consisting only of Strzok, FBI analyst Jonathan Moffa, and, to varying degrees, filter team leader Rick Mains and FBI lawyer Sally Moyer. Mains reported to Strzok and Moffa, who in turn, along with Moyer, provided briefings to Priestap.

Below Strzok and Moffa was the day-to-day investigative "filter" team of approximately 15 FBI agents and analysts that was overseen by Mains, a supervisory special agent.

The senior leadership team was more fluid, consisting of higher-level FBI officials who provided briefings and updates to Comey and/or McCabe. In addition to Priestap, Strzok, and Moffa, frequent attendees included Moyer, Page, Deputy General Counsel Trisha Anderson, chief of staff Jim Rybicki, and General Counsel James Baker.

While the elements of the day-to-day investigative team differed for the Clinton email investigation and the Trump-Russia investigation, the primary team remained the same throughout both cases—as did the lines of communication between the FBI and the DOJ. According to testimony by Page, John Carlin, who ran the DOJ's National Security Division (NSD), was receiving briefings on both investigations directly from McCabe.

Story Laundering: Fusion GPS, Fake News, Russians and Reporters

The media's real business is story laundering.

November 3, 2017

Daniel Greenfield

"The average reporter we talk to is 27 years old, and their only reporting experience consists of being around political campaigns," Ben Rhodes gloated. "That's a sea change. They literally know nothing."

Rhodes, the White House's Obama whisperer, was explaining how he had pulled the wool over the media's eyes on the Iran Deal to a journalist. The media responded to the story by attacking the journalist who reported it, not Rhodes for viewing them as easily manipulated useful idiots.

The media knew that it knew nothing. And it didn't care. It just didn't want outsiders to know it.

What ties together the debate about Russian collusion, fake news and Fusion GPS is the implosion of the media. What were the professional reporters doing while Rhodes was manipulating the 27-year-olds? They were working at places like Fusion GPS and story laundering narratives to the kiddies.

The media markets its investigative journalism chops even as investigative journalism no longer fits into its business model. Companies like Fusion GPS and political manipulators like Ben Rhodes step into the vacuum by covertly providing them with the core product. Much of the media is really in the business of story launderingâ... by rewriting talking points, smears and hit pieces from organizations like Fusion GPS.

The readers get talking points served to them without ever knowing who actually produced them. The forensic examination of the Trump dossier answered some of these questions. Hillary Clinton hired Fusion GPS. Fusion GPS hired a British former intelligence officer. And he got his material from, among other sources, a Russian intelligence officer. And they passed the material to the media and the FBI.

It took a great deal of effort, including a congressional subpoena, a national scandal and the threat of impeachment, to peel back the workings of the media and expose how the dossier sausage got made. Most packaged media stories never receive this level of scrutiny. And the media is quick to indignantly defend its lack of transparency and reliance on anonymous sources in its Trump hit pieces.

But what the current controversy really reveals is the decline and fall of the media.

The media has outsourced story generation to the shadowy underworld that produced the Trump dossier. Much as NPR outsourced its coverage of the Iran Deal to Ploughshares and the Iran Lobby in exchange for $100K. This isnâ... t bias in the conventional sense. Itâ... s native advertising all the way. The media â... rentsâ... space to outside interests. It rewrites their stories in the house style and runs them.

Sometimes, like NPR, thereâ... s a financial arrangement. Other times the media gets stories that it lacks the resources and the time to generate on its own. Or access. And sometimes itâ... s just a political alliance.

The media is trying to cash in on the institutional legacy of the corporations that bear the old names, but have no functional resemblance to what the news business used to be. Todayâ... s media isnâ... t in the news business. Its outlets report the news only to the degree that they have to. And when they do, they rely on viral stories or rewriting an original report. The mediaâ... s real business is serving as a clearinghouse for narratives. These clearinghouses operate out of major urban power centers. They know next to nothing about much of the country. And they donâ... t care. Itâ... s why they didnâ... t see Trumpâ... s victory coming.

Trump doesnâ... t just outrage the media politically. Heâ... s a threat to their business model. The mediaâ... s new business is political gatekeeping as the intermediary between political interests and the public. If you want to give Iran a blank check to develop its nukes, touch off a panic over the environment or make anthem protests into a trend, you go to the media. And then your business deal with Iran, your solar panel investments or your hijacked family foundation pushing black nationalist chic will thrive.

The existence of President Trump undermines the mediaâ... s gatekeeping powers. He is a living reminder that the mediaâ... s power is limited. Thatâ... s why he has become the mediaâ... s number one target.

The internet is the mediaâ... s other problem. Gatekeeping was easier when broadcasting was expensive and hard. The media used Trumpâ... s victory to corral Facebook and Google, the big search and social media companies, into letting them serve as the gatekeepers of online news under the guise of fighting fake news. But the mediaâ... s fake news crusade is entirely a consequence of its own corruption.

The public turned to alternative news, both real and fake, because it doesnâ... t trust the media. And the Trump dossier case is more evidence that the media canâ... t be trusted. Everything from satire sites to Russian influence operations thrive in the alternative media space because there is no longer a consensus about truth or ethics. And itâ... s the media that destroyed truth and ethics in journalism.

As the media moved from biased reporting to political gatekeeping, it sharply narrowed the range of permissible opinions. Every story became an â... adâ... for one cause or another. Fewer stories existed for their own sake. Instead each story promoted a political or cultural agenda. Even if a story was not overtly political, a political â... advertisementâ... of some kind had to be slipped in there somehow.

Most people didnâ... t realize that they were reading, watching and hearing a bunch of non-stop political ads disguised in a thousand different styles from reporting (â... Gun Violence Strikes Again in American City) to explainers (â... 10 Things You Need to Know About Gun Violenceâ... ), but they found the product stifling and artificial. When everything is an ad, then nothing feels real.

The Russians were perfectly adapted to enter this space because the media had become â... Russianâ... . It was a collective propaganda organ with close links to the government blasting identical content from its interchangeable outlets. As in Russia, the public instinctively distrusted the media. Different became authentic. The more different, the more authentic.

And instead of trying to regain public trust, the media decided to censor the internet.

The media wasnâ... t prepared for there to be a debate about the meaning of â... fake newsâ... . It wants the power to define what â... newsâ... and â... fake newsâ... are. This is not the agenda of an institution dedicated to public service, but of a cartel whose entire identity is tied up with total control over a product.

The product isnâ... t news. Itâ... s narrative.

The media is a narrative cartel. Forget the five Ws of journalism, who, what, where, when and why. It isnâ... t interested in what happened. It wants to make certain things happen. And when you want to make things happen, youâ... re no longer an observer. Youâ... re not the fifth estate. Youâ... re one of the first two.

And so the media is in a power struggle with the White House not, as it pretends, over access, transparency or truth, but over policy. And itâ... s acting as a proxy in this power struggle for assorted interests, some named and some nameless, as it did with Hillaryâ... s anti-Trump dossier.

The media is no longer a journalistic institution. Itâ... s a political institution. Itâ... s a component of a political infrastructure of unelected officials, bureaucracies and institutions that controls our government.

Fake news, Fusion GPS, internet censorship and all the rest are symptoms of this overriding problem.

THE "HATCHET-JOB" LAW

It does not have anything to do with First Amendment or Freedom-of-Speech issues. It is about making it a felony to exchange remuneration for "killing people".

Oh! You thought there was already a law against that? There is not!

When Nick Denton, Adrian Covert, and their "hit-men" at Google, exchange goods, jobs, contracts, stock and services in order to process over thirty million dollars of "media services" to try to end someone's life using defamation, character assassination, hacking, server manipulation, search engine rigging, DNS manipulation and other dirty tricks, that "kills" the targeted victim.

It is murder of a person, their brand, their family and their revenue. It does not matter that a President, a Senator or a tech oligarch hired them. It is a criminal endeavor.

We have worked with the finest law enforcement, intelligence and forensic investigators to track the money, the accounts, the covert funding routes and the clients.

While we terminate, 100% legally, every party involved in the attacks, we have asked Congressional leaders to enact this law.

Those who do not sponsor this law are part of the problem!

The law simply says that it is a felony to exchange compensation for trying to assassinate a person in America using conspired media distribution for economic advantage.

THE ASSASSINS OF SILICON VALLEY

By Brent Easton and Shelley Connors

There are teams of former Mossad members you can hire to kill people in undetectable ways. You have seen the names of Black Cube, Black Water, ShoaX, Fusion GPS, IN-Q-Tel, Palantir, EDS and others in the news lately. These companies are private CIA services. Some of them kill for cash.

There are now a number of dead executives who were a competitive or whistle-blower risk to famous Silicon Valley Oligarchs Jared Cohen, Vinod Khosla, David Drummond, John Doerr, Eric Schmidt, Elon Musk, Larry Page and Mark Zuckerberg.

Did one, or more of these famous digital big shots have their operatives kill for them?

The black operations people involved use shell fish toxins, nerve warfare chemicals, reverse electric heart devices, fires, exotic gas, high frequency nervous system interrupters and all sorts of other James Bond-type tools to kill.

Each of the tools makes the death look like an ordinary heart attack or other natural death.

You are dead and no ordinary coroner can detect the difference between a murder and a bizarre 'accidental' death.

Gary D. Conley was a Silicon Valley competitor and whistle-blower against all of the suspects. He was found behind Beale Air Force Base in Northern California with a bullet in his head. All of the videos from the nearby base security cameras have gone "missing". A witness claims that there was a man in the back seat of the car Conley was in on the way to the field Conley told others, in emails and phone calls, that he knew the suspects had a 'Silicon Valley Cartel that was out to get him' and he said to others that he was 'spilling the beans on them'. His family and friends say he would never have killed himself. California Attorney General Kamala Harris refused to investigate the case because the suspects are her campaign financiers.

Silicon Valley Oligarchs are generally thought to be sociopaths who have little, or no, respect for laws and who seek to manipulate politics in order to steer trillions of dollars of taxpayer cash into their pockets.

If that seems suspicious, take a look at THIS LIST OF SILICON VALLEY CONNECTED BIZARRE DEATHS

The Big Profits Driving Online Censorship

This summer we have witnessed the increasing demand by mainstream media, Democratic Party legislators, and even former disgraced intelligence agency heads, for the silencing of dissenting viewpoints. Although the most recent wholesale ban on Alex Jones and Infowars on just about every social media platform out there is the most glaring and chilling example of outright censorship, the efforts of the Deep State to silence any voices of dissent or for presenting a narrative counter to that being peddled by the almost complete monopoly of social and mainstream media that serves them has been building in intensity for quite some time. The claims that the big tech companies that control all social media platforms through virtual monopoly are not required to meet the constitutional protections of the 1st amendment, because they are not governmental agencies, but private businesses, is patently false.

Immediately following the blanket ban on Alex Jones related accounts on social media platforms, a multitude of mass media writers and pundits appeared to argue why such a move was both vital and wholly legal. Perhaps a more reasonable opinion in this regard was presented in the Washington Examiner. In an opinion piece by Erin Dunne, published on August 6th, the author makes too basic assertions. Firstly, she argues correctly, that there is no â... hate speechâ... exception to the First Amendmentâ... s protection of speech. Secondly, she argues that private companiesâ... powers to regulate what speech is acceptable are not governed by the First Amendment. She succinctly states:

â... Private companies, unlike government, are not beholden to courtâ... s decisions on free speech. Facebook, Apple, and YouTube can all decide for themselves how to define hate speech and enforce that definition.

That makes sense. As private companies catering to users they have an obligation to shareholders to make a profit so they will pick a definition of hate speech that their users want and then enforce that.â...

â... For those who donâ... t like the chosen definition, there is also a simple solution: Donâ... t use those sites. This is how the market works. If you donâ... t like the terms of service then there are other options (or soon will be). Companies want your business.

Unlike subscribing to the laws of the United States, the user agreements of social media companies are optional.â...

Under most circumstances I would agree with Ms. Dunneâ... s second point, but the current case in question is quite different than any past case study in a private entityâ... s constitutional requirements where freedom of speech are concerned. Firstly, just a handful of big tech companies control virtually all social media platforms, effectively operating an illegal, anti-free market monopoly. This is not a normal, or even legal form of private business in the United States. Secondly, these companies are banning individuals and groups in coordination with one another and at the behest of special interests groups, including current federal government legislators, the mass media, and former federal intelligence agency officials. This â... usual suspectsâ... line-up, representing what is now acknowledged as the Deep State, even by the mainstream media outlets that serve as its propaganda operation, are basically contracting a private company to do what they are legally prevented from doing so themselves. So, Facebook, Google, Twitter and YouTube are working as independent contractors to conduct the type of censorship of the internet that the federal government would like to conduct through agencies such as the FCC or even the CIA and the NSA, but is legally prohibited from doing so.

Only six corporations own all print, radio and broadcast media in the United States. Keep in mind that Comcast is owned by General Electric. General Electric ranks number 31 out of the top 100 corporations with federal government contacts, including a $637 million contract awarded just last month for the repair, replacement and program support of engine components used on the F-18 platform aircraft.

Are these monolithic tech companies acting as â... the beardâ... for the federal government? By working through Facebook and Google, the federal government has plausible deniability, and has removed itself from legal responsibility. This is only true, if one cannot connect the dots and establish a very clear ideological and economic relationship between these tech giants and the intelligence agencies of the federal government. As convenient a tool for communication and collaboration that social media platforms have become, we all have to recognize that they are an intrinsic component of the Deep State apparatus.

Google, the largest online search engine by far, which also owns YouTube, won its first federal government contract to provide Google apps and cloud services to the GSA in 2010. This contract, worth $6.7 million at the time, was just the first of many. They are currently in the running to provide cloud services (coined JEDI) to the Department of Defense worth an estimated $10 billion. Other service providers competing for the business, some of which already provide similar services for federal government agencies, include Microsoft Azure, Amazon Web Services, CSRA, and IBM. Google had a contract to aid the Department of Defense in developing AI technology (Project Maven), but announced its intent not to continue the work after tens of thousands of engineers employed by the company signed a petition sighting the unethical nature of the work. This principled stance by rank and file employees (not company executives) is encouraging.

Could they be more â... Hey rich people! Weâ... I do pretty much any evil thing you want if the price is rightâ... ?

This is a standard, private service that you can hire if you have enough money. Theyâ... I work through your lawyerâ... s office, so that everything they do is legally protected by attorney-client privilege. You get a personal army of thugs and manipulators to hamstring, bully, silence, surveille or coerce anybody you want, trained by one of the most depraved intelligence agencies on the planet. If you can afford it.

Itâ... s stupid to think that Kroll and Black Cube are the only ones trying to offer the wealthy these services, and itâ... s stupid to think that Weinstein is the only rich asshole using such services to cover up his personal evils. Weinstein got caught because he happens to have a fetish for women of means, who became wealthy themselves and who can with enough effort can get their voices heard. Imagine crossing a wealthy person and not having such means at your disposal. This has doubtless happened to countless people.

Harvey Weinstein is not one of the richest men in America. Imagine the kind of services whoever bought Paul Newmanâ... s watch could afford? What kind of private services are available to someone who has $6 million to throw at someone whoâ... s inconveniencing them? Or $60 million? Or $600 million? You live in a country where if you cross someone who has enough money, anything could happen to you.

My conservative followers bitch about â... class warfareâ... when I speak about how the billionaire class rules their country in exactly the same way a king rules a kingdom, but the war is already happening, brothersâ... â... â... I didnâ... t start it. The donor class has bought up the US federal government to the point where non-wealthy Americans have functionally zero influence over its policies or behavior, and if they abuse that immense power it turns out that theyâ... re not only protected by the judicial system, but they have their own private extrajudicial army as well!

Class warfare has been happening for generations, and ordinary people are only just now waking up to that fact. Itâ... s like someoneâ... s been punching us in the face for years, and weâ... re only just beginning to realize â... Hey wait a minute, this guyâ... s not my friend! Iâ... m in a fight! Iâ... d better hit back or heâ... I'll kill me!â...

Iâ... m not advocating violence here, but Iâ... m also not advocating allowing ourselves to be intimidated by these revelations into sitting down and shutting up. The Weinstein case has showed us exactly how to beat these bastards: enough women coming forward at once made his old tactics for silencing them ineffective. If enough people decide not to let a few hundred plutocrats rule their world anymore, we can shrug them off like a heavy coat on a warm day just by crippling the plutocracy... s propaganda machine and waking mainstream America up to their manipulations. They cannot rule without their consent-manufacturer. We can beat them without firing a shot.

Six hundred thousand. Thatâ... s not a lot of money to have your own Mossad-trained psyops and espionage team at your disposal. Most of Silicon Valley could find that sort of dinero if they were really motivated. And right now, itâ... s all legal. Thereâ... s no suggestion that anyone will go to jail for acting as Weinsteinâ... s goon squad. There is no penalty for Weinstein for using these agents to continue stalking and psychologically abusing his victims long after his initial assaults were over. No heads will roll for using tacit intimidation and harassment as a means to silence victims and the journalists who are trying to tell their story.

Itâ... s exactly the same with the recently released Paradise Papers. Thereâ... ll be public outcry from some of the things revealed there, but itâ... s unlikely that many will suffer meaningful legal repercussions for the ways they hid their money to prevent any of it from going toward helping society. Thatâ... s the real problem here: corruption and economic injustice are not illegal. Improper? Maybe. Illegal, no.

Not yet, anyway. Letâ... s change that.

In the fall of 2016, Harvey Weinstein set out to suppress allegations that he had sexually harassed or assaulted numerous women. He began to hire private security agencies to collect information on the women and the journalists trying to expose the allegations. According to dozens of pages of documents, and seven people directly involved in the effort, the firms that Weinstein hired included Kroll, which is one of the world's largest corporate-intelligence companies, and Black Cube, an enterprise run largely by former officers of Mossad and other Israeli intelligence agencies. Black Cube, which has branches in Tel Aviv, London, and Paris, offers its clients the skills of operatives "highly experienced and trained in Israel's elite military and governmental intelligence units," according to its literature.

Two private investigators from Black Cube, using false identities, met with the actress Rose McGowan, who eventually publicly accused Weinstein of rape, to extract information from her. One of the investigators pretended to be a women's-rights advocate and secretly recorded at least four meetings with McGowan. The same operative, using a different false identity and implying that she had an allegation against Weinstein, met twice with a journalist to find out which women were talking to the press. In other cases, journalists directed by Weinstein or the private investigators interviewed women and reported back the details.

The explicit goal of the investigations, laid out in one contract with Black Cube, signed in July, was to stop the publication of the abuse allegations against Weinstein that eventually emerged in the New York Times and The New Yorker. Over the course of a year, Weinstein had the agencies â target,â or collect information on, dozens of individuals, and compile psychological profiles that sometimes focussed on their personal or sexual histories. Weinstein monitored the progress of the investigations personally. He also enlisted former employees from his film enterprises to join in the effort, collecting names and placing calls that, according to some sources who received them, felt intimidating.

In some cases, the investigative effort was run through Weinsteinâ s lawyers, including David Boies, a celebrated attorney who represented Al Gore in the 2000 Presidential-election dispute and argued for marriage equality before the U.S. Supreme Court. Boies personally signed the contract directing Black Cube to attempt to uncover information that would stop the publication of a Times story about Weinsteinâ s abuses, while his firm was also representing the Times, including in a libel case.

Boies confirmed that his firm contracted with and paid two of the agencies and that investigators from one of them sent him reports, which were then passed on to Weinstein. He said that he did not select the firms or direct the investigatorsâ work. He also denied that the work regarding the Times story represented a conflict of interest. Boies said that his firmâ s involvement with the investigators was a mistake. â We should not have been contracting with and paying investigators that we did not select and direct,â he told me. â At the time, it seemed a reasonable accommodation for a client, but it was not thought through, and that was my mistake. It was a mistake at the time.â

Techniques like the ones used by the agencies on Weinsteinâ s behalf are almost always kept secret, and, because such relationships are often run through law firms, the investigations are theoretically protected by attorney-client privilege, which could prevent them from being disclosed in court. The documents and sources reveal the tools and tactics available to powerful individuals to suppress negative stories and, in some cases, forestall criminal investigations.

In a statement, Weinsteinâ s spokesperson, Sallie Hofmeister, said, â It is a fiction to suggest that any individuals were targeted or suppressed at any time.â

In May, 2017, McGowan received an e-mail from a literary agency introducing her to a woman who identified herself as Diana Filip, the deputy head of sustainable and responsible investments at Reuben Capital Partners, a London-based wealth-management firm. Filip told McGowan that she was launching an initiative to combat discrimination against women in the workplace, and asked McGowan, a vocal womenâ s-rights advocate, to speak at a gala kickoff event later that year. Filip offered McGowan a fee of sixty thousand dollars. â I understand that we have a lot in common,â Filip wrote to McGowan before their first meeting, in May, at the Peninsula Hotel in Beverly Hills. Filip had a U.K. cell-phone number, and she spoke with what McGowan took to be a German accent. Over the following months, the two women met at least three more times at hotel bars in Los Angeles and New York and other locations. â I took her to the Venice boardwalk and we had ice cream while we strolled,â McGowan told me, adding that Filip was â very kind.â The two talked at length about issues relating to womenâ s empowerment. Filip also repeatedly told McGowan that she wanted to make a significant investment in McGowanâ s production company.

Filip was persistent. In one e-mail, she suggested meeting in Los Angeles and then, when McGowan said she would be in New York, Filip said she could meet there just as easily. She also began pressing McGowan for information. In a conversation in July, McGowan revealed to Filip that she had spoken to me as part of my reporting on Weinstein. A week later, I received an e-mail from Filip asking for a meeting and suggesting that I join her campaign to end professional discrimination against women. â I am very impressed with your work as a male advocate for gender equality, and believe that you would make an invaluable addition to our activities,â she wrote, using her wealth-management firmâ s e-mail address. Unsure of who she was, I did not respond.

Filip continued to meet with McGowan. In one meeting in September, Filip was joined by another Black Cube operative, who used the name Paul and claimed to be a colleague at Reuben Capital Partners. The goal, according to two sources with knowledge of the effort, was to pass McGowan to another operative to extract more information. On October 10th, the day The New Yorker published my story about Weinstein, Filip reached out to McGowan in an e-mail. â... Hi Love,â... she wrote. â... How are you feeling? . . . Just wanted to tell you how brave I think you are.â... She signed off with an â... xx.â... Filip e-mailed McGowan as recently as October 23rd.

In fact, â... Diana Filipâ... was an alias for a former officer in the Israeli Defense Forces who originally hailed from Eastern Europe and was working for Black Cube, according to three individuals with knowledge of the situation. When I sent McGowan photos of the Black Cube agent, she recognized her instantly. â... Oh my God,â... she wrote back. â... Reuben Capital. Diana Filip. No fucking way.â...

Ben Wallace, a reporter at New York who was pursuing a story on Weinstein, said that the same woman met with him twice last fall. She identified herself only as Anna and suggested that she had an allegation against Weinstein. When I presented Wallace with the same photographs of Black Cubeâ... s undercover operative, Wallace recalled her vividly. â... Thatâ... s her,â... he said. Like McGowan, Wallace said that the woman had what he assumed to be a German accent, as well as a U.K. cell-phone number. Wallace told me that Anna first contacted him on October 28, 2016, when he had been working on the Weinstein story for about a month and a half. Anna declined to disclose who had given her Wallaceâ... s information. Over the course of the two meetings, Wallace grew increasingly suspicious of her motives. Anna seemed to be pushing him for information, he recalled, â... about the status and scope of my inquiry, and about who I might be talking to, without giving me any meaningful help or information.â... During their second meeting, Anna requested that they sit close together, leading Wallace to suspect that she might be recording the exchange. When she recounted her experiences with Weinstein, Wallace said, â... it seemed like soap-opera acting.â... Wallace wasnâ... t the only journalist the woman contacted. In addition to her e-mails to me, Filip also e-mailed Jodi Kantor, of the Times, according to sources involved in the effort.

The U.K. cell-phone numbers that Filip provided to Wallace and McGowan have been disconnected. Calls to Reuben Capital Partnersâ... number in London went unanswered. As recently as Friday, the firm had a bare-bones Web site, with stock photos and generic text passages about asset management and an initiative called Women in Focus. The site, which has now been taken down, listed an address near Piccadilly Circus, operated by a company specializing in shared office space. That company said that it had never heard of Reuben Capital Partners. Two sources with knowledge of Weinsteinâ... s work with Black Cube said that the firm creates fictional companies to provide cover for its operatives, and that Filipâ... s firm was one of them.

Black Cube declined to comment on the specifics of any work it did for Weinstein. The agency said in a statement, â... It is Black Cubeâ... s policy to never discuss its clients with any third party, and to never confirm or deny any speculation made with regard to the companyâ... s work. Black Cube supports the work of many leading law firms around the world, especially in the US, gathering evidence for complex legal processes, involving commercial disputes, among them uncovering negative campaigns. . . . It should be highlighted that Black Cube applies high moral standards to its work, and operates in full compliance with the law of any jurisdiction in which it operatesâ... strictly following the guidance and legal opinions provided by leading law firms from around the world.â... The contract with the firm also specified that all of its work would be obtained â... by legal means and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.â...

Last fall, Weinstein began mentioning Black Cube by name in conversations with his associates and attorneys. The agency had made a name for itself digging up information for companies in Israel, Europe, and the U.S. that led to successful legal judgments against business rivals. But the firm has also faced legal questions about its employeesâ... use of fake identities and other tactics. Last year, two of its investigators were arrested in Romania on hacking charges. In the end, the company reached an agreement with the Romanian authorities, under which the operatives admitted to hacking and were released. Two sources familiar with the agency defended its decision to work for Weinstein, saying that they originally believed that the assignment focussed on his business rivals. But even the earliest lists of names that Weinstein provided to Black Cube included actresses and journalists.

On October 28, 2016, Boiesâ... s law firm, Boies Schiller Flexner, wired to Black Cube the first hundred thousand dollars, toward what would ultimately be a six-hundred-thousand-dollar invoice. (The documents do not make clear how much of the invoice was paid.) The law firm and Black Cube signed a contract that month and several others later. One, dated July 11, 2017, and bearing Boiesâ... s signature, states that the projectâ... s â... primary objectivesâ... are to â... provide intelligence which will help the Clientâ... s efforts to completely stop the publication of a new negative article in a leading NY newspaperâ... and to â... obtain additional content of a book which currently being written and includes harmful negative information on and about the Client,â... who is identified as Weinstein in multiple documents. (In one e-mail, a Black Cube executive asks lawyers retained by the agency to refer to Weinstein as â... the end clientâ... or â... Mr. X,â... noting that referring to him by name â... will make him extremely angry.â... ) The article mentioned in the contract was, according to three sources, the story that ultimately ran in the Times on October 5th. The book was â... Brave,â... a memoir by McGowan, scheduled for publication by HarperCollins in January. The documents show that, in the end, the agency delivered to Weinstein more than a hundred pages of transcripts and descriptions of the book, based on tens of hours of recorded conversations between McGowan and the female private investigator.

Read

The contract between a private security firm and one of Harvey Weinsteinâ... s lawyers.

Weinsteinâ... s spokesperson, Hofmeister, called â... the assertion that Mr. Weinstein secured any portion of a book . . . false and among the many inaccuracies and wild conspiracy theories promoted in this article.â...

The July agreement included several â... success feesâ... if Black Cube met its goals. The firm would receive an additional three hundred thousand dollars if the agency â... provides intelligence which will directly contribute to the efforts to completely stop the Article from being published at all in any shape or form.â... Black Cube would also be paid fifty thousand dollars if it secured â... the other halfâ... of McGowanâ... s book â... in readable book and legally admissible format.â...

The contracts also show some of the techniques that Black Cube employs. The agency promised â... a dedicated team of expert intelligence officers that will operate in the USA and any other necessary country,â... including a project manager, intelligence analysts, linguists, and â... Avatar Operatorsâ... specifically hired to create fake identities on social media, as well as â... operations experts with extensive experience in social engineering.â... The agency also said that it would provide â... a full time agent by the name of â... Annaâ... (hereinafter â... the Agentâ... ), who will be based in New York and Los Angeles as per the Clientâ... s instructions and who will be available full time to assist the Client and his attorneys for the next four months.â... Four sources with knowledge of Weinsteinâ... s work with Black Cube confirmed that this was the same woman who met with McGowan and Wallace.

Black Cube also agreed to hire â... an investigative journalist, as per the Client request,â... who would be required to conduct ten interviews a month for four months and be paid forty thousand dollars. Black Cube agreed to â... promptly report to the Client the results of such interviews by the Journalist.â...

In January, 2017, a freelance journalist called McGowan and had a lengthy conversation with her that he recorded without telling her; he subsequently communicated with Black Cube about the interviews, though he denied he was reporting back to them in a formal capacity. He contacted at least two other women with allegations against Weinstein, including the actress Annabella Sciorra, who later went public in The New Yorker with a rape allegation against Weinstein. Sciorra, whom he called in August, said that she found the conversation suspicious and got off the phone as quickly as possible. â... It struck me as B.S.,â... she told me. â... And it scared me that Harvey was testing to see if I would talk.â... The freelancer also placed calls to Wallace, the New York reporter, and to me.

Two sources close to the effort and several documents show that the same freelancer received contact information for actresses, journalists, and business rivals of Weinstein from Black Cube, and that the agency ultimately passed summaries of those interviews to Weinsteinâ... s lawyers. When contacted about his role, the freelancer, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said that he had been working on his own story about Weinstein, using contact information fed to him by Black Cube. The freelancer said that he reached out to other reporters, one of whom used material from his interviews, in the hopes of helping to expose Weinstein. He denied that he was paid by Black Cube or Weinstein.

Weinstein also enlisted other journalists to uncover information that he could use to undermine women with allegations. A December, 2016, e-mail exchange between Weinstein and Dylan Howard, the chief content officer of American Media Inc., which publishes the National Enquirer, shows that Howard shared with Weinstein material obtained by one of his reporters, as part of an effort to help Weinstein disprove McGowanâ... s allegation of rape. In one e-mail, Howard sent Weinstein a list of contacts. â... Letâ... s discuss next steps on each,â... he wrote. After Weinstein thanked him, Howard described a call that one of his reporters made to Elizabeth Avellan, the ex-wife of the director Robert Rodriguez, whom Rodriguez left to have a relationship with McGowan.

Avellan told me that she remembered the interview. Howardâ... s reporter â... kept calling and calling and calling,â... she said, and also contacted others close to her. Avellan finally called back, because â... I was afraid people might start calling my kids.â... In a long phone call, the reporter pressed her for unflattering statements about McGowan. She insisted that the call be off the record, and the reporter agreed. The reporter recorded the call, and subsequently passed the audio to Howard.

In subsequent e-mails to Weinstein, Howard said, â... I have something AMAZING . . . eventually she laid into Rose pretty hard.â... Weinstein replied, â... This is the killer. Especially if my fingerprints r not on this.â... Howard then reassured Weinstein, â... They are not. And the conversation . . . is RECORDED.â... The next day, Howard added, in another e-mail, â... Audio file to follow.â... (Howard denied sending the audio to Weinstein.) Avellan told me that she would not have agreed to coöperate in efforts to discredit McGowan. â... I donâ... t want to shame people,â... she said. â... I wasnâ... t interested. Women should stand together.â...

In a statement, Howard said that, in addition to his role as the chief content officer at American Media Inc., the *National Enquirer*â... s publisher, he oversaw a television-production agreement with Weinstein, which has since been terminated. He said that, at the time of the e-mails, â... absent a corporate decision to terminate the agreement with The Weinstein Company, I had an obligation to protect AMIâ... s interests by seeking outâ... but not publishingâ... truthful information about people who Mr. Weinstein insisted were making false claims against him. To the extent I provided â... off the recordâ... information to Mr. Weinstein about one of his accusersâ... at a time when Mr. Weinstein was denying any harassment of any womanâ... it was information which I would never have allowed AMI to publish on the internet or in its magazines.â... Although at least one of Howardâ... s reporters made calls related to Weinsteinâ... s investigations, Howard insisted that he strictly divided his work with Weinstein from his work as a journalist. â... I always separated those two roles carefully and completely... and resisted Mr. Weinstein's repeated efforts to have AMI titles publish favorable stories about him or negative articles about his accusers," Howard said. An A.M.I. representative noted that, at the time, Weinstein insisted that the encounter was consensual, and that the allegations were untrue.

Hofmeister, Weinstein's spokesperson, added, "... In regard to Mr. Howard, he has served as the point person for American Media's long-standing business relationship with The Weinstein Company. Earlier this year, Mr. Weinstein gave Mr. Howard a news tip that Mr. Howard agreed might make a good story. Mr. Howard pursued the tip and followed up with Mr. Weinstein as a courtesy, but declined to publish any story."

Weinstein's relationship with Kroll, one of the other agencies he contracted with, dates back years. After Ambra Battilana Gutierrez, an Italian model, accused Weinstein of sexually assaulting her, in 2015, she reached a settlement with Weinstein that required her to surrender all her personal devices to Kroll, so that they could be wiped of evidence of a conversation in which Weinstein admitted to groping her. A recording of that exchange, captured during a police sting operation, was released by The New Yorker last month.

During the more recent effort to shut down emerging stories, Kroll again played a central role. E-mails show that Dan Karson, the chairman of Kroll Americas' Investigations and Disputes practice, contacted Weinstein at his personal e-mail address with information about women with allegations. In one October, 2016, e-mail, Karson sent Weinstein eleven photographs of McGowan and Weinstein together at different events in the years after he allegedly assaulted her. Three hours later, Weinstein forwarded Karson's e-mail to Boies and Weinstein's criminal-defense attorney, Blair Berk, and told them to "... scroll thru the extra ones." The next morning, Berk replied that one photo, which showed McGowan warmly talking with Weinstein, "... is the money shot."

Berk defended her actions. "... Any criminal defense lawyer worth her salt would investigate unproven allegations to determine if they are credible," she said. "... And it would be dereliction of duty not to conduct a public-records search for photographs of the accuser embracing the accused taken after the time of the alleged assault."

Another firm, the Los Angeles-based PSOPS, and its lead private investigator, Jack Palladino, as well as another one of its investigators, Sara Ness, produced detailed profiles of various individuals in the saga, sometimes of a personal nature, which included information that could be used to undermine their credibility. One report on McGowan that Ness sent to Weinstein last December ran for more than a hundred pages and featured McGowan's address and other personal information, along with sections labelled "... Lies/Exaggerations/Contradictions," "... Hypocrisy," and "... Potential Negative Character Wits," an apparent abbreviation of "... witnesses." One subhead read "... Past Lovers." The section included details of acrimonious breakups, mentioning Avellan, and discussed Facebook posts expressing negative sentiments about McGowan. (Palladino and Ness did not respond to multiple requests for comment.)

Other firms were also involved in assembling such profiles, including ones that focussed on factors that, in theory, might make women likely to speak out against sexual abuse. One of the other firm's profiles was of Rosanna Arquette, an actress who later, in The New Yorker, accused Weinstein of sexual harassment. The file mentions Arquette's friendship with McGowan, social-media posts about sexual abuse, and the fact that a family member had gone public with an allegation that she had been molested as a child.

All of the security firms that Weinstein hired were also involved in trying to ferret out reporters' sources and probe their backgrounds. Wallace, the reporter for New York, said that he was suspicious when he received the call from the Black Cube operative using the pseudonym Anna, because Weinstein had already requested a meeting with Wallace; Adam Moss, the editor-in-chief of New York; David Boies; and a representative from Kroll. The intention, Wallace assumed, was to "... come in with dossiers slagging various women and me.â... Moss declined the meeting.

In a series of e-mails sent in the weeks before Wallace received the call from Anna, Dan Karson, of Kroll, sent Weinstein preliminary background information on Wallace and Moss. â... No adverse information about Adam Moss so far (no libel/defamation cases, no court records or judgments/liens/UCC, etc.),â... Karson wrote in one e-mail. Two months later, Palladino, the PSOPS investigator, sent Weinstein a detailed profile of Moss. It stated, â... Our research did not yield any promising avenues for the personal impeachment of Moss.â...

Similar e-mail exchanges occurred regarding Wallace. Kroll sent Weinstein a list of public criticisms of Wallaceâ... s previous reporting and a detailed description of a U.K. libel suit filed in response to a book he wrote, in 2008, about the rare-wine market. PSOPS also profiled Wallaceâ... s ex-wife, noting that she â... might prove relevant to considerations of our response strategy when Wallaceâ... s article on our client is finally published.â...

In January, 2017, Wallace, Moss, and other editors at New York decided to shelve the story. Wallace had assembled a detailed list of women with allegations, but he lacked on-the-record statements from any victims. Wallace said that the decision not to run a story was made for legitimate journalistic reasons. Nevertheless, he said, â... There was much more static and distraction than Iâ... ve encountered on any other story.â...

Other reporters were investigated as well. In April, 2017, Ness, of PSOPS, sent Weinstein an assessment of my own interactions with â... persons of interestâ... â... a list largely consisting of women with allegations, or those connected to them. Later, PSOPS submitted a detailed report focussing jointly on me and Jodi Kantor, of the Times. Some of the observations in the report are mundane. â... Kantor is NOT following Ronan Farrow,â... it notes, referring to relationships on Twitter. At other times, the report reflects a detailed effort to uncover sources. One individual I interviewed, and another whom Kantor spoke to in her separate endeavor, were listed as having reported the details of the conversations back to Weinstein.

For years, Weinstein had used private security agencies to investigate reporters. In the early aughts, as the journalist David Carr, who died in 2015, worked on a report on Weinstein for New York, Weinstein assigned Kroll to dig up unflattering information about him, according to a source close to the matter. Carrâ... s widow, Jill Rooney Carr, told me that her husband believed that he was being surveilled, though he didnâ... t know by whom. â... He thought he was being followed,â... she recalled. In one document, Weinsteinâ... s investigators wrote that Carr had learned of McGowanâ... s allegation in the course of his reporting. Carr â... wrote a number of critical/unflattering articles about HW over the years,â... the document says, â... none of which touched on the topic of women (due to fear of HWâ... s retaliation, according to HW).â...

Weinsteinâ... s relationships with the private investigators were often routed through law firms that represented him. This is designed to place investigative materials under the aegis of attorney-client privilege, which can prevent the disclosure of communications, even in court.

David Boies, who was involved in the relationships with Black Cube and PSOPS, was initially reluctant to speak with The New Yorker, out of concern that he might be â... misinterpreted either as trying to deny or minimize mistakes that were made, or as agreeing with criticisms that I donâ... t agree are valid.â...

But Boies did feel the need to respond to what he considered â... fair and importantâ... questions about his hiring of investigators. He said that he did not consider the contractual provisions directing Black Cube to stop the publication of the Times story to be a conflict of interest, because his firm was also representing the newspaper in a libel suit. From the beginning, he said, he advised Weinstein â... that the story could not be stopped by threats or influence and that the only way the story could be stopped was by convincing the Times that there was no rape.â... Boies told me he never pressured any news outlet. â... If evidence could be uncovered to convince the Times the charges should not be published, I did not believe, and do not believe, that that would be averse to the *Times*â... interest.â...

He conceded, however, that any efforts to profile and undermine reporters, at the Times and elsewhere, were problematic. â... In general, I donâ... t think itâ... s appropriate to try to pressure reporters,â... he said. â... If that did happen here, it would not have been appropriate.â...

Although the agencies paid by his firm focussed on many women with allegations, Boies said that he had only been aware of their work related to McGowan, whose allegations Weinstein denied. â... Given what was known at the time, I thought it was entirely appropriate to investigate precisely what he was accused of doing, and to investigate whether there were facts that would rebut those accusations,â... he said.

Of his representation of Weinstein in general, he said, â... I donâ... t believe former lawyers should criticize former clients.â... But he expressed regrets. â... Although he vigorously denies using physical force, Mr. Weinstein has himself recognized that his contact with women was indefensible and incredibly hurtful,â... Boies told me. â... In retrospect, I knew enough in 2015 that I believe I should have been on notice of a problem, and done something about it. I donâ... t know what, if anything, happened after 2015, but to the extent it did, I think I have some responsibility. I also think that if people had taken action earlier it would have been better for Mr. Weinstein.â...

Weinstein also drafted individuals around him into his effortsâ... willingly and not. In December, 2016, Weinstein asked the actress Asia Argento, who ultimately went public in The New Yorker with her allegation of rape against Weinstein, to meet in Italy with his private investigators to give testimony on his behalf. Argento, who felt pressure to say yes, declined after her partner, the chef and television personality Anthony Bourdain, advised her to avoid the meeting. Another actress, who declined to be named in this story, said that Weinstein asked her to meet with reporters to extract information about other sources.

Weinstein also enlisted two former employees, Denise Doyle Chambers and Pamela Lubell, in what turned out to be an effort to identify and call people who might speak to the press about their own, or othersâ... , allegations. Weinstein secretly shared the lists they compiled with Black Cube.

Hofmeister, speaking on Weinsteinâ... s behalf, said, â... Any â... listsâ... that were prepared included names of former employees and others who were relevant to the research and preparation of a book about Miramax. Former employees conducting interviews for the book reported receiving unwanted contacts from the media.â...

Doyle Chambers declined an interview request. But Lubell, a producer who worked for Weinstein at Miramax decades ago, told me that she was manipulated into participating. In July, 2017, Lubell visited Weinsteinâ... s offices to pitch him on an app that she was developing. In the middle of the meeting, Weinstein asked Lubell if they could have a private conversation in his office. Lubell told me that a lawyer working with Weinstein was already there, along with Doyle Chambers. Weinstein asked if Lubell and Doyle Chambers could write a â... fun book on the old times, the heyday, of Miramax.â... â... Pam,â... she recalled him saying, â... write down all the employees that you know, and can you get in touch with them?â...

A few weeks later, in August, after they had made the list, Weinstein â... called us back into the office,â... Lubell recalled. â... And he said, â... You know what, weâ... re going to put a hold on the book.â... â... He asked Doyle Chambers and Lubell to â... call some of your friends from the list and see if they got calls from the press.â... In early September, Weinstein summoned Lubell and Doyle Chambers to his office and asked them to start making calls to people connected to several actresses. â... It got kind of intense,â... Lubell recalled. â... We didnâ... t know these people, and all of a sudden this was something very different from what we signed up for.â... Several of the targeted women said that they felt the calls they received from Lubell and Doyle Chambers, and from Weinstein himself, were frightening.

Lubell told me that hours before the first Times story broke, on October 5th, Weinstein summoned her, Doyle Chambers, and others on his team, including the attorney Lisa Bloom, who has since resigned, to his office. â... He was in a panic,â... Lubell recalled. â... He starts screaming, â... Get so-and-so on the phone.â... â... After the story was published, the team scrambled to respond to it. Bloom and others pored over pictures that, like the ones featured in the Kroll e-mails, showed ongoing contact between Weinstein and women who made allegations. â... He was screaming at us, â... Send these to the board members,â... â... Lubell recalled. She e-mailed the photographs to the board ahead of the crisis meeting at which Weinsteinâ... s position at his company began unravelling.

Since the allegations against Weinstein became public, Lubell hasnâ... t slept well. She told me that, although she knew that Weinstein â... was a bully and a cheater,â... she â... never thought he was a predator.â... Lubell has wondered if she should have known more, sooner.

After a year of concerted effort, Weinsteinâ... s campaign to track and silence his accusers crumbled. Several of the women targeted, however, said that Weinsteinâ... s use of private security agencies deepened the challenge of speaking out. â... It scared me,â... Sciorra said, â... because I knew what it meant to be threatened by Harvey. I was in fear of him finding me.â... McGowan said that the agencies and law firms enabled Weinsteinâ... s behavior. As she was targeted, she felt a growing sense of paranoia. â... It was like the movie â... Gaslight,â... â... she told me. â... Everyone lied to me all the time.â... For the past year, she said, â... Iâ... ve lived inside a mirrored fun house.â...

THE F.U. PLAN HAS BROUGHT DIRTY COMPANIES AND CORRUPT CHARACTER ASSASSINS TO THEIR KNEES

By Conner Evers

Recently, a number of corrupt entities have received the following notice. Right afterwards, those entities went bankrupt, or suffered billions of dollars of losses due to being exposed in the media. Would you consider changing "your evil ways" if you got one of these in the mail?:

You have expressed an intent to attack and harm us for illicit purposes.

Clearly, you have not fully considered the implications of our notoriously world famous â... FUCK YOUâ... PLAN which was created decades ago for people exactly like YOU!

You are now going to experience the program under this Plan, for the rest of your time on Earth and even into your historical legacy after you die.

It costs us between $120,000.00 and $1.2M to sue your pathetic ass into oblivion. Anybody can do that to a weasel such as you. Thatâ... s the easy part of the Plan and it is only 2% of what will now happen to you.

Because you are a scumbag who has been accused, by reporters and tipsters, of very evil bribery, sex, drug, political, tax evasion, money hiding, misogyny, abuse and other things, many people might consider hiring an MS-13 street gang or a Russian drug Cartel to torture and kill you.

We would never do that!

We find that our 100% legal FUCK YOU Plan is far more effective.

First of all, the Fuck You Plan will last for the rest of your life. We will never forget about what you did and we will never forgive you. (Unless, of course, you want to pay us at least ten million dollars for the legal, personal, economic, brand and related damages you cost us).

Next we are putting you in our, and others, special crime prevention databases. The databases have every piece of information about you that you ever created, ie: all of your addresses, account numbers, tax records, bank accounts, dating site records, phone numbers, fax numbers, IMEI device records, IP addresses, device serial numbers, every lover you cheated on, service calls, drug deals, hookers, rent boys, Uber and Lyft trip addresses, neighbors, GPS records, etc. All of this information is legally acquired. You put most of it out on the web yourself.

We work with, and retain, ex-FBI, CIA, NSA, GCHQ and other top intelligence and crime interdiction experts. They have ways of watching you every second of every day. Did you know that WiFi and the ceramic objects around you can make it look like there are not even walls where you are right now?

Science has created a new world in which there is, LITERALLY, no place you can hide!

Face recognition is also sourcing up every image of you on security cameras, Walmart cameras, restaurant cameras, Google and Bing image databases, social networks, dating sites, traffic cameras, hotel and motel cameras and everything that has ever recorded your face; which is public domain. Everything you are connected to will be connected to you and psychologically analyzed.

If you ever, for the rest of your life, cheat on taxes, take money off-the-books, lie on an application, get arrested, get sued, buy drugs, buy sex, cheat, hide money, use off-shore conduits, set-up an illicit trust fund or shell corporation, get an STD, lie on a dating site, abuse or extort an employee, abuse a co-worker, plagiarize, break the law, run a real estate scam, hide insider stock trading, provide political campaign services without filing detailed and accurate FEC disclosures, support a political campaign, spend or receive any money that you do not report,

There is no place on Earth you can hide from us. Our investigators and our friends in Congress, our journalist buddies, law enforcement and the intelligence community will never let you out of their sights!

We do not do creepy illicit things, like you do, so we have nothing to worry about. You have PLENTY to worry about.

You are, today, sitting at the edge of the same precipice that Richard Nixon, Bill Cosby, Harvey Weinstein and other scum sat at just before they slid down their filthy funnels straight to hell. Enjoy the ride!

Here are a few of the thousands of 100% legal methods for wiping out creeps like you, corrupt politicians, The Silicon Valley Mafia, their political shills and their crony companies that the public can undertake from the comfort of any voter's living room. This only works on criminals and the corrupt. The "good guys" have nothing to fear:

Step-By-Step Termination Instructions For The Public To Use On Corrupt Targets:

- Make sure your interdiction of their illicit deeds lasts the rest of their life. Make it your hobby and engage in it every month. Put it on your calendar to have a monthly action day.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single advertising director for EVERY company that advertises with them to show them the evidence and encourage them to stop advertising with the suspect under threat of boycott.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single employee that works for them to show them the evidence and encourage them to quit.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single investor that funds them to show them the evidence and encourage them to divest.

- Contact billionaire's (ie: Peter Thiel, Larry Ellison, etc.) to get them to sponsor a RICO, or other kind of lawsuit, against these corrupt parties. Use proxies to sue the corrupt (ie: Get Thiel to pay for some other guy to sue Gawker for you)

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY user of their company, via mass media and personal out-reach, to show them the evidence and encourage them to cancel their subscriptions and "poison" their data by filling their profiles with fantasy data.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single member of Congress and regulatory agencies to show them the evidence and demand, in writing, a federal investigation.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by exposing corrupt sources of supply to the news and the public; ie: Elon Musk uses "blood cobalt" mines in the Congo which rely on child labor and mercenaries to operate the cobalt mineral mines.

- Expose the covert sex cults (ie: Pizza Gate, NXIUM, Burning Man, Mission Control, Power Exchange, etc.) that they frequent.
- Look on Linkedin and other databases to contact their former interns to see if they sexually or mentally abused that intern and help that intern find lawyers (ie: Lawless Firm, AllRed, etc.).
- All of the data of famous corrupt persons and corporations has been hacked and acquired by many, many parties over the last decade. Watch for it to get leaked on the web or go search the ICIJ, Wikileaks and related databases for keywords about your targets. Expose what you find to the public. Cross reference what you find with the Palantir, Taleo, Bitcoin Trace, PayPal Trace, VISA Trace, D&B Insider, Gust-Scan, etc. commercially available databases and you will have an even more powerful search than the NSA's XKEYSCORE tool.
- Expose the trust funds, shell corporations and real estate contracts that they and their family own and make sure the IRS and SEC knows about those slush fund pots. Find all of their insider trading payola scams and expose them.
- Expose every reporter and stock analyst that is actually a shill for the corrupt. Call them out by name in press releases and your own news articles. Demand to see their financial records if they claim to have never been paid by the corrupt entity in question.
- Expose the racist, tribal, misogynist organizations that the majority of their executive hires are part of.
- Investigate them and share your investigation data, from public data resources, on databases. All of their addresses, account numbers, tax records, bank accounts, dating site records, phone numbers, fax numbers, IMEI device records, IP addresses, device serial numbers, etc. are on public record.
- As Comey, et al; proved, there are crooks at the FBI...but there will always be, at least, one Elliot Ness kind of good guy at the FBI. DO report your findings to the FBI, in writing, but report to EVERY main, and regional FBI office, in writing, with a carbon copy to the media. It only takes one good FBI agent to get an official FBI case going. The same goes for the SEC, The EU and the CFTC.
- These incredibly abusive people have an inordinate number of divorce lawsuits for abusive behavior. Showcase the most revealing text from those abusive divorce court filings.
- Write Request For Prosecution requests to every major law enforcement agency and send copies of those requests to every other law enforcement agency and independent news reporters.
- If they run for office, confront them (legally) at public speaking events and hand out one page fliers about their crimes to the public at these events. Name their crony financial backers out loud at these events.

- File charges with the FEC for campaign finance violations. Ie: In one year Google reported a million in campaign contribution cash to one party but they actually provided many billions of campaign contributions via search engine rigging and perception manipulation services. Report that to the FEC and demand to know what the FEC is doing about it. Ask the FEC, in writing, every month until you get an answer in writing.
- Donâ... t just â... follow the moneyâ... . Make fun charts and diagrams of the illicit funds routes and mass distribute those graphics.
- Meme them forever.
- Uncover every: illicit sex partner and who they cheated on; drug deals; hooker; rent boy; Uber and Lyft trip route; neighbors who complained about them; GPS records, social media posting that hinted at a political agenda, etc. All of this information can be legally acquired. They put most of it out on the web themselves and agreed to let Facebook, Uber and Google sell the data.
- Search every face recognition database with automated search tools. They agreed to allow their image on databases for security cameras, Walmart cameras, restaurant cameras, Google and Bing image databases, social networks, dating sites, traffic cameras, hotel and motel cameras and everything that has ever recorded their face; which is public domain. Check out what they were doing at each place they were recorded.
- Report every illicit deed done by the corrupt to large Congressional, news writer, social network and voter mass distribution systems.
- Learn â... Veil Protection Strategiesâ... and How to Bust Themâ... .
- Break their cover-ups. Carbon copy every Inspector General (IG), reporter and social media resource you can find. Never allow only a few people to be the only ones that know what you uncovered. Tell everyone and never stop finding new people to tell. Use the â... Streisand Effectâ... .
- If they ever, for the rest of their life: cheat on taxes, take money off-the-books, lie on an application, get arrested, get sued, buy drugs, buy sex, cheat, hide money, use off-shore conduits, set-up an illicit trust fund or shell corporation, get an STD, lie on a dating site, abuse or extort an employee, abuse a co-worker, plagiarize, break the law, run a real estate scam, hide insider stock trading, provide political campaign services without filing detailed and accurate FEC disclosures, support a political campaign, spend or receive any money that they do not report, etc.; THEN YOU EXPOSE THEM AND THE ILLICIT ACTIONS THEY TOOK.
- Educate yourself by typing this phrase into the top 5 non-Google search engines: â... How To Be A Private Investigatorâ... and read all of the results. Try more searches, like: â... Investigation methodsâ... or â... Background check methodsâ... or â... Investigate a politicianâ... , etc. There are thousands of other legal techniques in addition to those few listed here. They all work if you are persistent.

- Learn how to put a covert media alarm in â... Corporate Poison Pillsâ... and find â... Criminal Back-Datingâ... .

- Make certain that you find every other voter and community group who might help you. Support their efforts and share what you have uncovered with them. Use the web to guarantee that there is no place on Earth they can hide from justice. Work to mesh investigators, Congress, journalists, law enforcement, intelligence community, voters and your friends and family to never let them out of your sights!

THE HATCHET MEN OF FUSION GPS, BLACK CUBE, GIZMODO AND ALL THE OTHER MEDIA ASSASSINS

Glenn Simpson and Peter Fritsch tried to keep the American people in the dark as long as possible. For most of 2017, the founders of Fusion GPS hid the truth about the origins of their now-infamous dossier on President Trump. The real story behind their fight to keep its partisan funding a secret is very different from the version the journalists-for-rent tell in their recent book, Crime in Progress. I know, because I was there.

They smear me, and my former boss, Sen. Chuck Grassley, who was chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee. Then they paint themselves as victims of â... ruthlessly partisanâ... McCarthyite tactics. The irony is rich, given that these former journalists collected a million bucks from one political party to accuse the other of acting as agents of Russia.

The dossier they peddled ignited hysteria about alleged traitors in our government more than anything else has since Joe McCarthyâ... s Enemies from Within speech nearly 70 years ago. Unlike traditional opposition research, the dossier relied on anonymous foreign sources to allege an international criminal conspiracy between the Trump campaign and the Russian government. Two independent reviews have since gutted its sensational claims.

The report by the Justice Departmentâ... s independent inspector general exposed how the FBI improperly used the dossier to justify domestic spying (a Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act warrant). The IG made it clear that the dossier was clearly unreliable. Special counsel Robert Mueller was unable to find sufficient evidence to charge a single American with the dossierâ... s collusion conspiracy despite two years, $32 million, 500 witnesses, and 2,800 subpoenas-worth of additional investigation.

Like the dossier itself, Fusionâ... s attempt to defend its work in Crime in Progress cannot withstand scrutiny. It devotes a chapter to denouncing Grassley for asking inconvenient questions about Fusion and the dossier. The essentially fictitious story casts Simpson as â... Captain America":

Working to â... protect the republic at all costsâ... from a Manchurian Candidate, with the First Amendment as his only shield, Simpson battles Congressional persecutors who were â... trashing the Bill of Rightsâ... by subpoenaing his bank to learn who funded the dossier.

Fusionâ... s founders target me, as then-counsel to Grassley, for supposedly â... pulling the stringsâ... that led to outing their secret. They had promised never to reveal who bankrolled the project. Why? Their book concedes a â... more strategic reasonâ... to stonewall: They wanted to control the larger political narrative.

As they write in Crime in Progress: â... If it came out too soon that the dossier had been paid for by the Clinton Campaign, that revelation would allow the Republicans to depict [Christopher] Steeleâ... s work as a partisan hit job.â... It was â... a fact that Fusion managed to keep secretâ... for nearly 11 months after the dossier became public.

During those 11 months, Fusionâ... s clients denied their involvement, and Fusion fought to keep anything from coming to light that would contradict those denials. Grassley tried to learn more about the dossierâ... s claims and Fusionâ... s involvement. Fusionâ... s founders claim they would have been willing â... to explain their past workâ... without a protracted battle if â... Grassley had simply approached Fusion in good faith and asked.â...

Actually, we tried. When I called Simpson, he immediately refused to talk. He lawyered up. Heâ... s also one of only two people who refused to cooperate with the inspector general. Without voluntary cooperation, prying any information loose would prove to be a challenge. Absent a full committee vote, no subpoena could be issued without Ranking Member Sen. Dianne Feinsteinâ... s agreement. Contrary to Fusionâ... s caricature of our efforts as hyperpartisan, we adopted those new rules in early 2017 to strengthen the committeeâ... s hand in what we expected would be bipartisan oversight work during the Trump administration.

Feinstein was initially willing to question Fusion, but bipartisan efforts to look into the dossier and its allegations soon disappeared. In the beginning, she co-signed document requests to Fusion, which its founders misrepresent in their book as ominous partisan threats solely from Grassley. Feinstein also agreed to subpoena Simpson to testify at a public hearing in the summer of 2017, but he refused to appear, citing his Fifth Amendment rights. We later negotiated a limited voluntary interview in private, where he refused to answer questions on many topics, including who funded the dossier.

Feinstein increasingly began to resist any dossier-related line of inquiry. At the time, Grassley and his staff were unaware the Democratic National Conventionâ... s law firm had funded the dossier or that that a former Feinstein staffer, Daniel Jones, had privately claimed to the FBI that he raised $50 million from â... seven to 10 wealthy donors primarily in New York and California.â... That money reportedly funds Fusionâ... s ongoing postelection efforts to vindicate the dossier. Itâ... s unclear how much Feinstein and her staff knew about this at the time.

Grassley played it straight. He supported the Mueller investigation and bucked his own GOP leadership in the Senate to shepherd a bipartisan bill protecting Muellerâ... s independence through his committee. He worked to conduct vigorous oversight and ask tough questions of everyone, even threatening to subpoena Trumpâ... s son to ensure Democrats had an unlimited opportunity to question him on the record. Of course, Fusionâ... s narrative omits this evidence of good faith.

The House Intelligence Committee subpoenaed Fusionâ... s bank records, and in late October 2017, its clients confessed to funding the dossier after it became clear they were going to lose in court. New York Times senior White House correspondent Maggie Haberman wrote, â... Folks involved in funding this lied about it, and with sanctimony, for a year.â... A nonpartisan, nonprofit organization complained to the Federal Election Commission that campaign disclosures falsely described payments to Fusion for opposition research as â... legal services.â...

During the court battle, Fusion unleashed â... a blizzard of filingsâ... in which it â... piled on new allegationsâ... of supposed congressional misconduct. The court rejected all of them.

One of the failed tactics that Fusion considered â... centralâ... was to argue that the House Intelligence Committee learned â... Fusion had an account at TD Bank from someone in Grassleyâ... s staffâ... and to imply that was somehow improper. While it is true that we had asked about the bank during Simpsonâ... s voluntary interview on the Senate side, it is false to claim, as Fusion does, that we learned the bankâ... s name from his â... confidentialâ... interview and that the information was unavailable elsewhere.

Anyone reading the transcript (p. 17-18) can see that committee staff already knew the bankâ... s name and mentioned it first. Fusionâ... s attorney did not ask how we learned it, and we wouldnâ... t have answered if he had. The committee protects whistleblowers and confidential sources, just as the press does. Fusion had apparently made little effort to keep its bankâ... s name confidential up to that point. Not only did Simpson voluntarily confirm it when asked, but we also had reason to believe he listed it on invoices to clients, so it was hardly a state secret.

Casting aspersion on the congressional investigators who forced the truth about the dossierâ... s funding into the open is no more effective in Fusionâ... s book than it was in the court proceedings. In the end, itâ... s merely a distraction from the bigger issues with the dossierâ... s unreliability, which go far beyond the partisan motives of its sponsors.

Although the special counsel and inspector general reports dealt devastating blows to its credibility, Simpson and Fritsch still maintain in their book that â... time will tellâ... whether the dossier â... deserves to take its place amongâ... documents that have â... bent the course of history,â... such as the Pentagon Papers or the Warren Report. A more apt analogy might be the phony list of traitors hyped by McCarthy. But, unlike the Americans targeted in the dossier, a few of McCarthyâ... s victims actually were colluding with the Russians.

Tapes Show Brennan Started Spying On Trump Years Ago In Reno

President Donald Trump's phone calls during his time as a private citizen were routinely spied on by a complex surveillance system overseen by Obama administration CIA director John Brennan and Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, according to claims made by real estate mogul Timothy Blixseth in an audiotaped conversation released by a federal judge in Arizona.

Big League Politics reached out to the listed number for eTreppid Technologies, the fly-by-night operation in Reno, Nevada allegedly overseen by Brennan and Clapper. The results were eerie and bizarre. The operation was supposed to monitor possible terrorist signals in Al-Jazeera television, but instead it reportedly took on a much more sinister agenda.

Here, I explain how Brennan operative Peter Strzok's documented work for the CIA ... not the FBI, where he held a merely ceremonial title ... puts Brennan squarely in the center of Obama's SpyGate scandal. Now, evidence shows that Brennan has been planning this operation for more than a decade.

Trending: Linda Sarsour, Muslim Candidates Tied To Father Of Jihadi Who Trained Children To Become ... School Shooters... In New Mexico

Timothy Blixseth claims that he saw records from a government contractor proving that Obama CIA director John Brennan oversaw repeated spying on the phone calls of President Donald Trump and millions of other private American citizens. An audiotape of an interview Blixseth gave ... released by Federal Judge G. Murray Snow as part of a civil case ... is presented below.

In the audiotaped interview ... conducted before Trump ever ran for president ... Blixseth spoke to former Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio and detective Mike Zullo. The audio was released in connection with a civil contempt case that the Department of Justice filed against Arpaio. The audio of this conversation appears to only be preserved in one location on the Internet, on a whistleblower Soundcloud page.

... This guy showed me 900 million phone calls. And I see myself in there. I see people I know. I see Donald Trump in there a zillion times, and Bloomberg is in there, ... Blixseth said on the tape, referring to information that a whistleblower named Dennis Montgomery allegedly showed him.

Dennis Montgomery is a computer expert, former CIA and NSA contractor and whistleblower who is represented by attorney Larry Klayman. Klayman urges House Intelligence Committee chairman Devin Nunes to call Montgomery to testify about his work on the alleged secret program.

LISTEN TO THE TAPES HERE

Blixseth became involved with Montgomery through his ex-wife, who allegedly financed a private business operation that employed Montgomery, according to a source. Montgomery was cited in the press in 2009 for his involvement in an effort to decode terrorist signals in the Al Jazeera television network. Intelligence from Montgomery's firm eTreppid reportedly caused President Bush to raise the terror alert level for Christmas 2003. Montgomery, Blixseth's ex-wife Edra Blixseth, and eTreppid reached a 2008 settlement concerning ownership of software that had been developed during their working relationship.

... He's a very genius computer guy, ... Blixseth said of Montgomery. ... What they did is, they were actually working for the CIA. And they mask it as ... I'm sure you ... I remember this ... the contracts with the CIA, of which I had many copies, said that they were decoding Al-Jazeera television, said that there was broadcast embedded, remember that? Owned by Gore? Al Gore's got part of it now. But it was all bullshit. That was bullshit. That was a front by the CIA. And this guy [Montgomery] worked for Brennan and Clapper. Those were the two guys running it,â... Timothy Blixseth told Arpaio and Zullo on the tape.

â... He started out in 2004 with another partner in Reno, Nevada, called eTreppid. They collected about $40 million from the CIA. Top security clearance. All kinds of lettersâ...!In 2006 they started a new company that [my ex-wife] owns, and they started doing the same business for the government. What it really turns out they were doing is they were hacking into all of America.â...

Big League Politics called the listed number for eTreppid Technologies, but we were told that Montgomery no longer works there. â... That company closed down years ago, sir,â... a representative said of eTreppid Technologies. When asked what the company is called now, the representative said, â... Iâ... m sorry, I canâ... t discuss any more with you.â...

Blixseth claimed in his conversation with Zullo and Arpaio that Brennan and Clapper were running the operation.

â... Everything they said they didnâ... t do, that Brennan said recently, mainly Clapper. Itâ... s all bullshit. And Iâ... ve got it right here,â... Blixseth said.

â... [Montgomery] said, â... What I really did as a government subcontractor was, I hacked into all of America for Brennan and Clapper.â... And I said, wow, thatâ... s pretty heavy stuff. Can you prove it?â...!Finally, he starts giving more evidence, more evidence. And it just, it just blew me away. So I call Fox News. And Carl Cameron, you know the reporter? Carlâ... s been there 27 years and I trust Carl. Carl came flying out with his film crew and they filmed for a week.

â... Heâ... s pissed off at the administration. He got a death threat in writing last week,â... Blixseth said of Montgomery.

â... He said, â... Snowden is a punk, he doesnâ... t have any information like Iâ... ve got.â... So he starts showing me what he has. And Iâ... m going, holy shit. Heâ... s got 900 million phone calls recorded.,,what date, what time of dayâ...!on a government computer, paid for by the government, in Fort Washington Maryland. Riverview Road, in Fort Washington.â...

â... Then heâ... s got bank accounts with the passwords and the usernames that the government got. Just randomly, all over the country. 153,000 in this county alone. 153,000 people were hacked in by Brennan and Clapper,â... Blixseth said.

â... Time goes by, and Brennan is now CIA. About three or four months ago, this guy showed me 900 million phone calls. And I see myself in there. I see people I know. I see Donald Trump in there a zillion times, and Bloomberg is in there,â... Blixseth said.

Brennan became President Obamaâ... s CIA director after conducting these surveillance activities on Trump and others, according to Blixseth.

Big League Politics asked Senator Marco Rubio if he has read or listened to any statements by Dennis Montgomery, after Rubio criticized the claims made by Congressman Devin Nunes that Donald Trump was the subject of surveillance. Rubio did not answer the question.

Attorney Larry Klayman wrote a letter to Nunes asking the congressman to call Montgomery to testify. Klayman identified Montgomery as a former CIA and NSA contractor.

Blixseth, who served 14 months in prison on financial charges after giving his interview to Arpaio and Zullo, did not return a request for comment for this report.

Inspector Generals Open Probes Into Alleged Retaliation By Obama Executives

The Pentagon's Inspector General has launched a preliminary investigation into charges of vendettas and reprisals against whistle-blowers. Charges include those that James H. Baker, the director of the Defense Department's Office of Net Assessment (ONA), is retaliating against whistleblowers who warned of "rigged" contracts to outside consultants. CIA, DOE, DOT and many other Agency Inspector Generals are now taking up the glut of Obama Era reprisal cases.

The Adam Lovinger Case -

Acting IG, Glenn A. Fine, initiated a formal "Whistleblower Reprisal Investigation" Sept. 28 to look into allegations that Baker unleashed various reprisals against, Adam Lovinger, a senior ONA official.

Lovinger warned about potential sweetheart deals to politically-connected outside contractors, including one with a woman Chelsea Clinton has referred to as her "best friend."

The IG is investigating Baker's actions under Presidential Policy Directive-19, an October 2012 directive designed to protect members of the intelligence community who report waste, fraud and abuse. The directive pointedly states that it "prohibits retaliation against employees for reporting waste, fraud, and abuse."

Baker is an Obama holdover appointed by Secretary Ashton Carter in May 2015, who remains the ONA director 11 months into the Trump administration. Lovinger specifically protested $11.2 million in

ONA contracts awarded over a decade to the Long Term Strategic Group (LTSG), a company owned by Jacqueline Newmyer, a childhood friend of Chelsea Clinton. Clinton and Newmyer first met each other while attending Sidwell Friends School, an exclusive private Quaker school in the nation's capital. They were in each other's weddings, and in 2011 Chelsea referred to Newmyer as her "best friend."

Lovinger's attorney, Sean M. Bigley, accuses Baker of continuing the LTSG contract in the hopes it could help him in a Clinton presidency. (RELATED: Chelsea's "Best Friend" Wins $11 MIL in Defense ### Contracts With No Clearance)

"We submit that Baker's interest was his awareness of the LTSG-Clinton connection; his presumptive desire to exploit that to his advantage in the event of a Clinton election win; and the fact that contractors like LTSG served as a lucrative landing pad for ONA retirees," Bigley charged in a Sept. 13 letter to Rear Admiral Kevin Sweeney, the chief of staff for Defense Secretary James Mattis.

The IG's decision to launch a preliminary investigation occurred as former high-profile national security officials are beginning to publicly weigh in about Baker's allegedly retaliatory actions.

Richard Perle, Ronald Reagan's former Assistant Secretary of Defense, said of Lovinger, "He's been treated so badly. It's a disgrace."

Perle called Baker, "a shallow and manipulative character that should have gone with the change in administration."

Across the Atlantic, Richard Kemp, the former commander of British troops in Afghanistan, who worked for four years at 10 Downing Street for British Prime Minister Tony Blair, also denounced Baker's alleged act of retaliation.

"... He is a highly respected analyst across the board," Kemp said, referring to Lovinger. "... The way he has been treated is deeply troubling."

Lovinger, a GS-15 attorney and strategic foreign affairs analyst, successfully served at ONA for 12 years and each year received the highest possible "E" rating in his performance review. The "E" means

"... exceptional... performance."

Lovinger was also the 2006 recipient of the "Secretary of Defense Exceptional Civilian Service Award," the highest career award for civil servants in Office of Secretary of Defense.

But Baker poorly rated Lovinger in 2017, after he raised issues about the ONA's reliance on outside contractors, including LTSG.

ONA is a highly-classified think tank housed within the office of the Secretary of Defense. It conducts sensitive strategic research, especially for the Defense Secretary, and the office is supposed to serve as a model of performance. For 42 years, ONA was led solely by one director, Andrew Marshall, who Lovinger alleges initially authorized many of the sweetheart deals with outside contractors. Marshall retired from ONA at the age of 93. Baker took the helm four months later.

IG Fine's investigation into possible wrongdoing by Baker is being carried out by his "Investigations of Senior Officials Directorate." That unit investigates "allegations of misconduct against the most senior DoD officers (three-star and above and equivalents), senior officials in the Joint or Defense Intelligence Community, and members of the Senior Executive Service," according to the latest IG semi-annual report to Congress that is current as of March 31, 2017.

IG investigations under the Presidential Policy Directive-19 appear to be extremely rare.

From 2013 to 2017, only three cases were confirmed under PPD-19 among the 239 cases the IG "substantiated" across all the military services and civilian Defense Department employees, according to the IG's semi-annual report.

Several IG investigators personally met with Lovinger for four and a half hours Oct. 5, examining the charges of how Baker retaliated against the analyst, according to Bigley. The original meeting was expected to last no more than three hours. The IG office is formally attempting to determine if they need to intervene in the Baker case, according to a source with direct knowledge of the investigation. Fine's office customarily does not provide any public information about the pace of IG investigations.

The first inkling of retaliation against Lovinger came Jan. 12, 2017, when Baker suddenly issued a series of charges against him. This was the same day that the National Security Council officially invited Lovinger to leave ONA and join the NSC as a senior director.

Lovinger entered the Trump White House on Inauguration Day, but was dogged by Baker.

After Baker issued his latest set of allegations against Lovinger, the Washington Headquarters Services, a bureaucratic arm of the Pentagon, temporarily suspended Lovinger's security clearance May 1 and removed him from his NSC post. Lovinger now works at a Defense Department annex where he currently is doing clerical work.

Baker dropped charges in two of the three of his initial investigations after they were challenged by Thomas Spencer, Lovinger's first attorney. Bigley said the allegations against his client are "demonstrably false" and called Baker "partisan and highly vindictive" in an interview.

Baker has leveled four separate charges against Lovinger. The counts include an "unauthorized" trip to Israel, taking home unclassified academic papers to read, reading a classified document in an airplane, and having "unauthorized" contacts with the Indian government.

Baker's accusation that the trip to Israel was "unauthorized" particularly rankles Lovinger.

Prior to the trip, Lovinger said that he notified ONA of an expected personal trip to Israel to commemorate his oldest son's Bar Mitzvah. The Lovinger family traveled with their close family friends, the Wiesels, whose patriarch, Elisha, is the son of legendary Holocaust survivor and Nobel Laureate Eli Wiesel.

Lovinger said that they only did "tourist stuff" and did not meet with a single Israeli official.

Another charge is that Lovinger conducted "unauthorized" contacts with the Indian government.

Lovinger's 2017 performance review includes a statement from Secretary Carter, commending him for his work with the Indian government. "Two days prior to departing for the NSC, on January 18, 2017, the Secretary of Defense highlighted in an official letter Lovinger's exceptional performance on collaborative net assessment with the Government of India," the performance review states.

Nevertheless, in the same review Baker rated Lovinger poorly. "I do not endorse the characterization set forth in the employee input (that) Adam performed successfully," Baker said.

As for taking home papers, Baker sent an email to all ONA staff Nov. 1, 2016, in which he said, "Team-acknowledging our cluttered workspace: we all read widely and have to as part of the job" all source, often all mixed together. Given the volume of reading, you may sometimes take reports and so forth home. (I certainly do)." all Lovinger did carry a document aboard an airplane during a Sept. 14, 2016 official trip. Anthony Russell, the ONA investigator of the incident, noted in an Oct. 18 memo for the record that the document "is marked without security markings in the header, but with â... Classification Pending.'â... Russell concluded: â... It is reasonable to conclude that there was no compromise given the content of the document in question and its close control either on Mr. Lovingerâ... s person or in his assigned lodging on a military base for a relatively short period of time. For these reasons, no violation is believed to have occurred.â...

â... He clearly was the target, for political reasons, of an effort to push him out of government,â... Perle said of Lovinger. â... And this was done consciously and deliberately. Heâ... s a Trump loyalist, and it was launched and sustained by an Obama holdover.â...

â... This cries out for an investigation of Baker,â... Perle added. Kemp called the sidelining of Lovinger â... a great loss.â... â... He is very much a creative thinker and heâ... s not constrained by sort of narrow lines that affect so many people in government,â... Kemp said.

â... As I understand it, he questioned the actions of various organizations within the U.S. Government, particularly the Office of Net Assessment. And of course, these may not be always welcomed by oneâ... s superiors,â... Kemp said. As for the use of outside contractors, Kemp said, â... Iâ... m aware they [ONA] did depend a lot on in the past on external contractors. Itâ... s not necessarily a good thing,â... â... To get rid of someone like that on what appeared to be questionable grounds is potentially problematic for the effectiveness of the U.S. intelligence organization,â... Kemp added.

Robert Reilly, who served for 25 years in the national security field, including as a senior advisor to Secretary Donald Rumsfeld and as a White House special assistant to Reagan said, â... Iâ... m very familiar with the use of investigations to politically destroy people.â... â... That they would yank a top security clearance on what seemed to be unsubstantial grounds is shocking,â... Reilly said.

Reilly also said he didnâ... t think the punishment fit the crime for Lovinger, and that it appeared Lovinger committed insignificant security infractions. â... Thereâ... s a disproportion here that immediately raises suspensions,â... he said. â... What was the crime and how does the punishment fit the crime?â... Heather Babb, a public affairs officer who spoke on behalf of ONA stated in an email, â... As a matter of policy, we do not comment on current investigations.â...

The David and the DOE Case -

The United States Department of Energy Inspector General, The FBI and the Pentagonâ... s Inspector General have now been informed of over one thousand retaliation, reprisal and vendetta attacks against those who reported corruption during the Obama Administration. Another case involves a California man and his technology team.

â... Davidâ... has been employed since 1973. He worked for his community and his country as a law enforcement and intelligence researcher (law/IC) in which he closed cases that saved Americans billions of dollars. He held numerous state and federal certifications and credentials to this effect and was certified as an investigator under the State Government at the California Office Of Consumer Affairs. He also worked as a CEO, Inventor and Product Development Director for which the U.S. Government has awarded him dozens of seminal patent awards for products in use by Microsoft, Sony and other major companies to provide products and services to billions of people. He has received a vast number of commendation letters from U.S. Presidents, Agency heads and Mayors. He is pictured in videos, photographs, articles, meetings and personal correspondence with some of the most famous public and White House figures in America.

After he, and his team, reported corruption in a trillion dollar Department of Energy embezzlement scam involving crooked uranium (The Uranium One Scandal is now in the news headlines), lithium, indium and other mining scams, he was attacked. He reported the crimes to both the DoD and DOE Inspector Generals in the Obama Administration and got a massive number of attacks aimed at him for his efforts to help law enforcement.

The pay for his peers, and his own past compensation, started at $10,000 per month in the local technology market for those with even less hours, less patent awards, less past work reference letters and less experience than him. He has now been forced to try to live on $800.00 per month because of the attacks by government officials.

He has filed for compensation and reprisal review since 2007 and every year thereafter. He started filing lawsuits in 2009 and has been filing them against federal agencies ever since. He has received no day-in-court and no justice, yet, from those lawsuits. The law suits have simply highlighted the epic degree of stone-walling, â... missing hard-drivesâ... and obfuscation that Obama DOJ, DOE and DoD officials are willing to descend to in order to operate their cover-ups.

He and his supporters believe that he has been intentionally discriminated against as part of a reprisal. The federal courts and law enforcement have ruled in his ongoing cases, and hold proof, that he was subjected to reprisal, vendetta and revenge tactics by State and Federal employees. Even though official proof of the attacks are on public record. Nothing has been done to help him.

In the Energy Department case, his task force helped FBI, GAO and Congress hunt down and terminate well-known public officials who embezzled taxpayer funds.

Even though he has been a productive, working member of his community and the U.S. Government and he has organized companies and programs which have paid millions of dollars in taxes to that Government, he is only afforded the most minimal benefits possible and has received no offsets for the reprisal crimes committed against him.

His current benefits amount is so low it is impossible to live on. County officials have suggested he â... move to Panamaâ... where it is cheaper. Even Panama, and other third world countries, wonâ... t let you live there unless you are receiving at least $1000.00 to $1500.00 in benefits. You heard it right, Government officials are asking native-born Americans to leave the country. Did you think that the taxes you were paying were to underwrite State and Federal agencies who are trying to send natural born citizen taxpayers to third-world countries and deplete the nation of its human resources. Is THAT the â... American Dreamâ... ?

State and Federal agency officials who made tens of millions of dollars off of his losses have cost him his life savings and nearly a billion dollars of potential income by intentionally sabotaging and terminating his operating, Congressionally financed, electric car company and his national energy company because they competed with Senator's and Agency bosses business investments.

To be clear: corrupt State and Federal employees did this because his companies competed with their stock market holdings. These are the very same public officials who have interdiction capability at the very same state and federal agencies that decide the fate of his reprisal claims and work benefits. That is an epic conflict-of-interest.

These public officials, including U.S. Senators, defrauded him by asking him to invest in their program. It turns out, though, they were using his, and his group's, business ventures to cover their crimes at the expense of him and the taxpayers.

Part of his work involved creating America's next national energy solutions. He worked with the U.S. Department of Energy, HUD, NAHB and related entities in work with the national weapons and energy labs since 2000. He worked with nuclear, heavy metals, sintered rare earth metals, extreme solvents and nano-particulated exotic chemistries and won a historical Congressional commendation, first-ever patents, industry and press acclaim, customer acclaim and a multi-million dollar lab research grant in the Congressional Iraq War Bill.

He was one of the people tasked with building America's back-up energy technologies.

In the course of his work he, and his Team, uncovered a nearly one trillion dollar Energy Department corruption matter which led to the termination of senior staff at the U.S. Department of Energy, the FBI raid on their facilities and an ongoing FBI investigation. This also led to a suspected reprisal exposure to toxic materials which will remain in his body, at a cellular level, for the rest of his life. This also led to black-listing and HR database manipulation attacks by attack firms such as Fusion GPS, Stratfor, In-Q-Tel, Gawker, David Brock Group, PD Group, Black Cube and related contract reprisal services featured in contemporary news headlines. They were hired to poison him and his brand and to terminate him and his career (in every sense of the word).

Because of their service to their country, Adam Lovinger, David, and many others, have been denied their legal rights, their rights to a home and safety and are forced to live like refugees. Their U.S.

Constitution and State Constitutional rights have been denied because they did the right thing and helped law enforcement.

The social media and independent news outlets have picked up on these kinds of cases and are doxing and exposing the corrupt politicians involved in these cover-ups. The family, friends, supporters, reporters and the public will now never let these matters lapse without a fair review. Every unbiased third-party review of this matter has concluded that these whistle-blowers got screwed by the federal and state officials who were supposed to represent them. Those very same state and federal officials own portions of David's competitors business and stock market ventures. In the opinion of the taxpaying public: That us a felony conflict of interest!

The FBI case files, City police case files, GAO case files, associated cases federal court files (which have already had rulings confirming the victims assertions) and Congressional investigation case files prove that government staff corruption and a system of organized vendetta campaigns are operating against these victims hundreds of their associates.

This is not about politics. Neither Lovinger nor David are associated with any political party.

This is about vendettas and revenge. The U.S. Attorney General, The Head of the White House Press Office, The Director of the FBI, The Secretary of Energy and his staff have been fired, or forced to quit, because of these cases. This is a very large matter but it is not about politics. It is about felony level crime and the physical, toxicological, emotional, reputational, brand and strategic attacks on the public by government officials who held stock market holdings in competing interests.

Senior federal and state executive government officials, and their campaign financiers at Google and Tesla Motors, ordered, operated and paid for the disabling attacks described herein and those disabling states are life-long and, indeed, disabling. These victims have been subjected to hacking; HR database rigging at Taleo, Axcion and all of the hiring computer networks; toxic poisoning, death threats; blacklisting; character assassination and internet trolling and bot-attacks; benefits stone-walling, and worse.

These targeted individuals, and their advisors, have asked the FBI, The GAO, The NLRB, Journalists and Congressional Investigation committees to track this next stage of their appeals because of previous conflicts of interest by state and federal reviewers and consultants in these cases. In the earlier portions of their requests for help, up to this date, most of the reviewers, judges, administrators, and consultants, providing input or rulings have been shown, by investigators, to have had a political and economic affiliation with the DNC. All of the parties that their cases has caused to be fired, arrested and otherwise terminated had a political and economic affiliation with the DNC as proven by their archived emails, social media data, photographic postings, event attendance, campaign contributions and forensic records.

Said David: "...My donation to The City of San Francisco of the Clean Tech Green community center building and my electric car company, along with my extensive spoke-person work for green energy and my help in producing the Federal Jobs Act Law would lead one to believe that I would receive support from DNC entities rather than hit-jobs. The organized crime profiteering by DNC bosses seems to have led things in another direction. Even though I have no political involvements, I have been targeted and victimized by the corrupt State and Federal officials who are seeking to run reprisals because of their embedded emotional political triggers and SEC-tracked stock market schemesâ...!â...

While Agencies has denied these conflicts, FBI/Congressional-class forensic evidence on every party who has handled the cases, so far, proves otherwise. Over 500 lawsuits and federal investigations on other peopleâ... s cases for VA, IRS (ie: The Lois Lerner Case), DOE, etc., have proven that state and federal agencies do indeed conduct illegal reprisal decisions against whistle-blowers, witnesses and others such as these folks. Now these victims are taking a harder stand. Said one: "...If any other participant in my review is found to have such an unreported conflict of interest, I and my associates will pursue that continued violation of my rights as a felony, with the full force of the law, the media and the public resources...â...

Tens of thousands of pages of evidence and hours of videos proving these assertions have been posted on-line by multiple journalists and investigation organizations, on multiple web site copies globally, for the convenience of the court and related investigators. The mirrors include such free peer-to-peer public web Wikiâ... s as <http://www.outloud.biz> (<http://www.outloud.biz>) and thousands more.

Since 2008, Government has spent ten times more taxpayer money and time delaying these cases than if they had approved the original filings in a fair review. It would seem to be a smarter bargain for the Agencies, and the taxpayers, to simply settle these matters with the victims and end these disputes.

The victims have asked the courts to correct the record and bring fairness and justice to the finalization of these cases but their cases keep getting assigned to DNC judges who have financially and administratively supported the Obama Administration.

The growing numbers of victims are determined people. They, and their associates, will pursue this forever, through the media, law enforcement and alternative means ...until it is fairly resolved.

There are now over one thousand such cases and in almost every case, the victim is receiving no help or resources from the very government agencies they sought to help. The U.S. Government is destroying lives, life savings, careers, futures, reputations and the American dream, all for the sake of political corruption.

THE REPRISALS

Other companies and individuals who suffered the same harms as Plaintiff, operated by U.S. Government employees and contractors, at the direction of White House, Congressional and Government agency executives, have filed confirming reports. Bright Automotive has filed public open letters, Eco Motors and ZAP Automotive staff have made public comments, former Tesla employees have filed validating lawsuits. There are now hundreds of parties who have confirmed Plaintiff's assertions. A capsule of the comments include such revelations as:

â... ...The U.S. Government hired us to fix America's energy infrastructure. The mission was accomplished and we were one of the few teams to not go bankrupt or embezzle the funds in the Cleantech Crash. Then the U.S. Government asked us to invest our life savings and years of our time, in a follow-on project. We did and we were defrauded out of our life savings and years of our time because the government had secretly hard wired the money and market access to our competitors, who almost every official involved, on the government's side, covertly owned the stock of, and partied with. After we helped law enforcement and regulatory agencies investigate this corruption, White House and Congressional executives paid for a multi-million dollar vendetta/revenge series of attacks on us in reprisal. We sued in Washington, DC, for corruption, and were the first people to win a case, of this kind, against federal corruption, per a Supreme Court judge.

From 2005, forward, we, and other whistle-blowers, told the Department of Energy and The White House that: 1.) Lithium ion batteries become deadly explosive as they age; 2.) That special interest public officials covertly owned the lithium ion industry stocks and covered up the dangers to protect their profits; 3.) That making the chemicals for lithium ion relied on child labor, rape, genocide and 'blood minerals'; 4.) That most of the minerals to mine for lithium ion were inside of nation's that hated the USA; 5.) That there were not enough mineral deposits on Earth to service the car market with lithium ion without causing wars and massive corruption; 6.) That fumes from lithium ion batteries on fire are deadly and cancer-causing to people and unborn babies; 7.) That water makes lithium ion batteries explode and fireman can't put them out when they set your car on fire; 8.) That Toyota, Honda, Hyundai, and all non-Detroit car companies, have proven that they can power every car on Earth with Fuel Cells but Detroit and the Oil Industry bribe Senators and Dept of Energy officials to keep Fuel Cells out of the USA...and 40+ other dangers.

Those warnings were intentionally and maliciously covered up because famous Senators and government agency heads covertly own stock market interests in Tesla, Fisker and their suppliers. Every single one of our warnings has turned out to be 100% accurate, as history has proven.

Now we want our damages paid and every single one of the crooks put out of business, fired and/or indicted. Investigators have prepared FBI-grade dossiers on every single perpetrator, politician, operative and political financier oligarch involved.

Have you noticed that none of the current decisions in politics help you and your family? The current Washington DC and Sacramento policy decisions only help the politicians, and their insider Big Tech financiers, with their insider stock market profits!

Your Senators and public officials own the insider companies that they give government money, tax breaks, exclusive government contracts and other perks to. They make government decisions based on influence peddling, revolving door jobs and stock market quid pro quo from those insider companies. Google, Twitter, Tesla, Facebook, LinkedIn, Netflix and the tech Cartel are all of the same guys, in the same

Northern California counties, with the same little group of dirty bankers, CPA's, lobbyists, hookers, rent-boys and payola deals with Senators. It is an organized crime Cartel using our government like a civil garage sale of greed and corruption. They sabotage outsiders and those who compete with their company investments. They order the government agencies, who are supposed to prosecute them, to 'take-no-action'. They are political mobsters.

Ever since 2008, The United States Department of Energy has been used as a scam crony insider slush-fund to give quid pro quo payola to political financiers. All of the Dept of Energy people own the stock of Elon Musk's companies and his Silicon Valley Big Tech insiders. On this site you can see a list of over 1000 illicit and fraud charges against Musk but Musk's Payola Politicians (ie: Feinstein, Harris, Pelosi, Newsom) protect him from prosecution. The Dept of Energy blockades competitors to Musk because DOE staff have engaged in the largest insider trading scam in history.

Below you will find tens of thousands of articles, by tens of thousands of indiependent news reporters and federal investigators, proving these assertions to be true. Why are none of these big shots getting arrested? Because they bribe agency heads!

Federal investigators and the nation's top investigative journalists revealed that your politicians, and government officials at various agencies, particularly the Department of Energy, Congress and the White House, were either: financed by; friends with; sleeping with; dating the staff of; holding stock market assets in; promised a revolving door job or government service contracts from; partying with; personal friends with, photographed at private events with; exchanging emails with; business associates of, or directed by; applicant's business adversaries; or the Senators and agency politicians that those business adversaries pay campaign finances to, or supply political digital search manipulation (ie: Google & Facebook supply web manipulation rigging) services to. For example, in one of our biggest cases, every person involved in reviewing, or managing the Department of Energy program worked for, or owned, the competitor, in total violation of RICO and anti-trust laws.

Over 100 government employees and contractors ( ie: <https://www.dailywire.com/news/read-it-fbis-brutal-draft-letter-firing-disgraced-agent-peter-strzok-revealed> ) have been fired for corruption but it has barely made a dent in the criminal stock market schemes of the politicians.

Every main member of the Department of Energy is an investor in Tesla Motors or lithium batteries owned by Silicon Valley. Steven Chu went to work at a lithium battery company. Dating Game actress Jennifer Granholm owns Proterra lithium. They only allow White House political financiers to get funds and Dept of Energy insiders sabotage their competitors. This is proven by their voting records, family stock ownerships, campaign funding and other financial records. The Department of Energy is used as a political payola SLUSH FUND to pay off oligarchs in exchange for political campaign support because it is easy to conduit cash from the DOE to Russian, Chinese and Silicon Valley Oligarchs.

As if that was not bad enough, the investigators also detailed the bribes that these politicians took in order to harm the taxpayers and competitors who were competing with the companies that these politicians covertly owned.

These bribes include: A.) Billions of dollars of Google, Twitter, Facebook, Tesla, Netflix and Sony Pictures stock and stock warrants which is never reported to the FEC; B.) Billions of dollars of Google, Twitter, Facebook, Tesla, Netflix and Sony Pictures search engine rigging and shadow-banning which is never reported to the FEC; C.) Free office, airfield and condo rent; D.) Male and female prostitutes; E.) Cars; F.) Dinners; G.) Party Financing; H.) Sports Event Tickets; I.) Political campaign printing and mailing services "Donations"; J.) Secret PAC Financing; Jobs in Corporations in Silicon Valley For The Family Members of Those Who Take Bribes; K.) "Consulting" contracts from McKinsey as fronted pay-off gigs; L.) Overpriced "Speaking Engagements" which are really just pay-offs conduited for donors; M.) Private jet rides and use of Government fuel depots (ie: Google handed out NASA jet fuel to staff); N.) Real Estate; O.) Fake mortgages; P.) The use of Cayman, Boca Des Tores, Swiss and related money-laundering accounts; Q.) Bribes to Stanford officials to admit their kids to college; R.) The use of HSBC, Wells Fargo, Goldman Sachs and Deutsche Bank money laundering accounts and covert stock accounts; S.) Free spam and bulk mailing services owned by Silicon Valley corporations; T.) Use of high tech law firms such as Perkins Coie, Wilson Sonsini, MoFo, Covington & Burling, etc. to conduit bribes to officials; and other means now documented by forensic experts, FINCEN, The FBI, the FTC, The SEC, The FEC and journalists.

By far, the biggest bribery tactic used by these people is stock market Dark Money exchanges. Every One of these financial scam tricks ( https://www.sec.gov/files/Algo\_Trading\_Report\_2020.pdf ) is used daily by the suspects in this case via their insider teams at Goldman Sachs, etc. We can all only hope that the Great Stock Crash of 2022 wipes them all out as Karma for their abuses of Democracy.

Here are the stock manipulation tricks these politicians, and their families, use:

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Pools"

Agreements, often written, among a group of traders to delegate authority to a single manager to trade in a specific stock for a specific period of time and then to share in the resulting profits or losses. "[5] In Australia section 1041B prohibits pooling. ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-5 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Churning"

When a trader places both buy and sell orders at about the same price. The increase in activity is intended to attract additional investors, and increase the price.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Stock bashing"

This scheme is usually orchestrated by savvy online message board posters (a.k.a. "Bashers") who make up false and/or misleading information about the target company in an attempt to get shares for a cheaper price. This activity, in most cases, is conducted by posting libelous posts on multiple public forums. The perpetrators sometimes work directly for unscrupulous Investor Relations firms who have convertible notes that convert for more shares the lower the bid or ask price is; thus the lower these Bashers can drive a stock price down by trying to convince shareholders they have bought a worthless security, the more shares the Investor Relations firm receives as compensation. Immediately after the stock conversion is complete and shares are issued to the Investor Relations firm, consultant, attorney or similar party, the basher/s then become friends of the company and move quickly to ensure they profit on a classic Pump & Dump scheme to liquidate their ill-gotten shares. (see P&D)

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Pump and dump"

A pump and dump scheme is generally part of a more complex grand plan of market manipulation on the targeted security. The Perpetrators (Usually stock promoters) convince company affiliates and large position non-affiliates to release shares into a free trading status as "Payment" for services for promoting the security. Instead of putting out legitimate information about a company the promoter sends out bogus e-mails (the "Pump") to millions of unsophisticated investors (Sometimes called "Retail Investors") in an attempt to drive the price of the stock and volume to higher points. After they accomplish both, the promoter sells their shares (the "Dump") and the stock price falls, taking all the duped investors' money with it.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Runs"

When a group of traders create activity or rumours in order to drive the price of a security up. An example is the Guinness share-trading fraud of the 1980s. In the US, this activity is usually referred to as painting the tape.[6] Runs may also occur when trader(s) are attempting to drive the price of a certain share down, although this is rare. (see Stock Bashing) ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Guinness\_share-trading\_fraud )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Ramping (the market)"

Actions designed to artificially raise the market price of listed securities and give the impression of voluminous trading in order to make a quick profit.[7] ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-7 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Wash trade"

In a wash trade the manipulator sells and repurchases the same or substantially the same security for the purpose of generating activity and increasing the price.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Bear raid"

In a bear raid there is an attempt to push the price of a stock down by heavy selling or short selling.[8] ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-8 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Lure and Squeeze"

This works with a company that is very distressed on paper, with impossibly high debt, consistently high annual losses but very few assets, making it look as if bankruptcy must be imminent. The stock price gradually falls as people new to the stock short it on the basis of the poor outlook for the company, until the number of shorted shares greatly exceeds the total number of shares that are not held by those aware of the lure and squeeze scheme (call them "people in the know"). In the meantime, people in the know increasingly purchase the stock as it drops to lower and lower prices. When the short interest has reached a maximum, the company announces it has made a deal with its creditors to settle its loans in exchange for shares of stock (or some similar kind of arrangement that leverages the stock price to benefit the company), knowing that those who have short positions will be squeezed as the price of the stock sky-rockets. Near its peak price, people in the know start to sell, and the price gradually falls back down again for the cycle to repeat.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Quote stuffing"

Quote stuffing is made possible by high-frequency trading programs that can execute market actions with incredible speed. However, high-frequency trading in and of itself is not illegal. The tactic involves using specialized, high-bandwidth hardware to quickly enter and withdraw large quantities of orders in an attempt to flood the market, thereby gaining an advantage over slower market participants.[9] ( https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-9 )

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Cross-Product Manipulation"

A type of manipulation possible when financial instruments are settled based on benchmarks set by the trading of physical commodities, for example in United States Natural Gas Markets. The manipulator takes a large long (short) financial position that will benefit from the benchmark settling at a higher (lower) price, then trades in the physical commodity markets at such a large volume as to influence the benchmark price in the direction that will benefit their financial position.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Spoofing (finance)"

Spoofing is a disruptive algorithmic trading entity employed by traders to outpace other market participants and to manipulate commodity markets. Spoofers feign interest in trading futures, stocks and other products in financial markets creating an illusion of exchange pessimism in the futures market when many offers are being cancelled or withdrawn, or false optimism or demand when many offers are being placed in bad faith. Spoofers bid or offer with intent to cancel before the orders are filled. The flurry of activity around the buy or sell orders is intended to attract other high-frequency traders (HFT) to induce a particular market reaction such as manipulating the market price of a security. Spoofing can be a factor in the rise and fall of the price of shares and can be very profitable to the spoofer who can time buying and selling based on this manipulation.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Price-Fixing"

A very simple type of fraud where the principles who publish a price or indicator conspire to set it falsely and benefit their own interests. The Libor scandal for example, involved bankers setting the Libor rate to benefit their trader's portfolios or to make certain entities appear more creditworthy than they were.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "High Closing (finance)"

High closing is an attempt to manipulate the price of a security at the end of trading day to ensure that it closes higher than it should. This is usually achieved by putting in manipulative trades close to closing.

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "Cornering the market"

In cornering the market the manipulators buy sufficiently large amount of a commodity so they can control the price creating in effect a monopoly. For example, the brothers Nelson Bunker Hunt and William Herbert Hunt attempted to corner the world silver markets in the late 1970s and early 1980s, at one stage holding the rights to more than half of the world's deliverable silver.[10]

(https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-TEXAS-10) During the Hunts' accumulation of the precious metal, silver prices rose from $11 an ounce in September 1979 to nearly $50 an ounce in January 1980.[11] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-NYT-11) Silver prices ultimately collapsed to below $11 an ounce two months later,[11] much of the fall occurring on a single day now known as Silver Thursday, due to changes made to exchange rules regarding the purchase of commodities on margin.[12] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Market\_manipulation#cite\_note-TimeBubble-12)

** The Silicon Valley Stock Scam Called: "The Conduit Double Blind"

In this scam, government money is given to a Tesla, Solyndra, etc. who then money launder the cash through executive-held 501 c3 and c4 charities; and company assets and then provide DARK MONEY cash and services to political campaigns like Obama and Clinton election funds. In the case of Tesla, Google (an investor and boyfriend of Musk) supplied billions of dollars of web search rigging. Stock ownership in the companies and deals is traded for campaign funds. David Brock is a master of this kind of Dark Money money-laundering for political campaigns using PACS and pass-through spoofing. Tesla and Solyndra investors have used ALL of the above tactics and more. Goldman Sachs and JP Morgan have thousands of staff who PROVIDE these stock market manipulation tricks to people like Elon Musk, Larry Page, Eric Schmidt, et al. These kinds of financial crimes and corruption account for the manipulation of over ONE TRILLION DOLLARS of ill-gotten profits annually!

If you are a citizen: DEMAND THAT THE SEC BE GIVEN THE POWER TO ARREST THESE CROOKS!

The next biggest bribe payment tactic is the character assassination of the politicians opponents and competitors via "kill services".

THE MEDIA ASSASSINS THAT THE WHITE HOUSE AND SENATORS, LIKE PELOSI, HARRIS, REID AND FEINSTEIN HIRE:

POLITICAL KILL ORDERS AND STATE-SPONSORED CHARACTER ASSASSINATIONS

â... How A Modern Character Assassination and Political â... Kill Orderâ... Is Executed By the Silicon Valley Oligarchs and their total control of propaganda media. Patrick George At Jalopnik attacks outsiders under contract with Elon Musk and the DNC. Silicon Valley campaign finance oligarchs hire him to run hatchet jobs on innocent outsiders and then Gawker-Gizmodo-Jalopnik uses their financial partnership with the DNCâ... s Google to push the character assassination articles to the top of Google web products and searches.

---- Patrick George, Adrian Covert, John Hermann and Nick Cook are the sexually degenerate cabin boys that report to boy-loving sleaze-tabloid oligarch Nick Denton. They created the Fake News crisis in the media by flooding the internet with defamation posts and reprisal hatchet job articles designed to damage political enemies of the Socialists. They coordinate a large number of the character assassination efforts at Gawker, Gizmodo, Jalopnik, CNN, New York Times and other propaganda outlets. These Millennial boys are â... Media Rapistsâ... and should be treated as abusers.

â... How and why did a Donald Trump stripper-date named â... Stormyâ... or an Elon Musk sex party or a Kavanaugh drinking incident or the Moonves and Weinstein indiscretions suddenly hit the news at about the same time in news history?

â... In addition to actual murder, Politicians and Silicon Valley Oligarchs hire operatives to end peopleâ... s lives in other creative ways.

â... --- It is all part of the modern trend in vendetta, revenge and political payback when a Senator or a tech oligarch issues a â... kill orderâ... on an opponent. â... The client does not like to get their hands dirty so the actual social hit job is performed by companies such as: IN-Q-Tel â... (DNC); Gawker Media â... (DNC); Jalopnik â... (DNC); Gizmodo Media â... (DNC); K2 Intelligence â... (DNC); WikiStrat â... (DNC); Podesta Group â... (DNC); Fusion GPS â... (DNC/GOP); Google â... (DNC); YouTube â... (DNC); Alphabet â... (DNC); Facebook â... (DNC); Twitter â... (DNC); Think Progress â... (DNC); Media Matters â... (DNC); Black Cube â... (DNC); Mossad â... (DNC); Correct The Record â... (DNC); Sand Line â... (DNC/GOP); Blackwater â... (DNC/GOP); Undercover Global Ltd (DNC/GOP) Stratfor â... (DNC/GOP); ShareBlue â... (DNC); Wikileaks (DNC/GOP); Cambridge Analytica â... (DNC/GOP); Sid Blumenthal- (DNC); David Brock â... (DNC); PR Firm Sunshine Sachs (DNC); Covington and Burling â... (DNC), BuzzFeed â... (DNC) Perkins Coie â... (DNC); Wilson Sonsini â... (DNC) and hundreds of othersâ... These are the people and companies that except cash, revolving door jobs, political appointments, insider trading stock in Silicon Valley tech companies, prostitutes and real estate in exchange for destroying the lives of others.

â... These attackers deserve to be punished for the rest of their lives for taking away the lives of others in exchange for cash. Any company who is corrupt enough to hire any of these assassins should be forced out of business.

---- These attack services are responsible for 90% of the â... Fake Newsâ... problem in the world because they are the authors of most fake news. Congress must act to make these kinds of companies illegal! â... These digital assassination services offer hit-jobs, character assassinations and economic reprisal programs to famous billionaires and corrupt politicians who are seeking revenge, retribution and vendetta executions.

---- Google, Facebook, Linkedin, Twitter and YouTube are simply fake web sites designed to collude in the manipulation of political information. They are coordinated propaganda and stock market manipulation sites.

â... In the case of reporters getting targeted for attacks, President Donald Trump has been accused by the liberal corporate media of whipping up a hateful frenzy against the press. But while CNNâ... s Jim Acosta grandstands against Trump, real journalists are still reeling from the draconian extrajudicial measures that Barack Obama and his administration used to target them for exposing truth.

â... This secretive targeting occurred while Obama speechwriter and hate-filled ANTIFA supporter Ben Rhodes was running â... Operation Echo Chamber,â... which reportedly continues, in which he fed information to willing corporate media scribes. â... They literally know nothing,â... Rhodes said of the twentysomething journalists he easily manipulated.

---- The Freedom of the Press Foundationâ... s Trevor Timm published documents showing how former attorney general Eric Holder changed the rules to more effectively intimidate and surveil members of the press.

â... Timm writes: â... Today, we are revealingâ... for the first timeâ... the Justice Departmentâ... s rules for targeting journalists with secret FISA court orders. The documents were obtained as part of a Freedom of Information Act lawsuit brought by Freedom of the Press Foundation and Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University.â...

â... Obama is also clearly linked to the plot to obtain fraudulent FISA warrants on President Trumpâ... s team, as evidenced by Peter Strzok and Lisa Pageâ... s texts confirming that Obama was overseeing their fly-by-night operation.

â... Larry Schweikart reported for Big League Politics: For months pundits and researchers have been pondering the mystery of the FISA approval that led to the illegal and historically titanic scandals to ever hit the U.S. government.

---- Some have argued that Assistant Attorney General Rod Rosenstein knew the FISA was bogus when he extended it. Others have wondered if Special Counsel Robert Mueller knew about the fraudulent basis of the FISA when he used it, in part, to indict Michael Flynn. Other still, that Mueller was fooled by the FBI. This is what President Trump calls â... SPYGATEâ... . â... It may well be that the surveillance that was conducted began with UK intelligence services and then was fed back to the White House of Barack Obama. Hereâ... s the kicker: President Barack Obama did not need a FISA warrant to authorize spying/electronic surveillance on Trump because Obama all along had legal authorization to by-pass the normal court vetting process. According to 50 U.S. Code 1802, the â... Electronic Surveillance Authorizationâ... () â... Foreign intelligence in relation to a US person (Trump or his associates) is information thatâ... s necessary for the US to protect against attack, hostile acts, sabotage, . . . as well as other clandestine activities by a foreign power . . . OR . . . information relevant to national defense/security of the US, or the conduct of foreign affairs of the U.S.â... Such an authorization by Obama required certification by Attorney General Loretta Lynch that must be logged with the FISC court. (â... The [AG]+ shall immediately transmit under seal to the court [FISC] a copy of his certification.â... )

â... In short, the DOJ has this. If we are correct, a copy of that certification is currently under seal at least with the DOJ and the FISC.

â... This is what they are hiding. â... However, the Act requires the AG to keep the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Senate Committee on Intelligence informed of these authorizations and unmaskings therein. See 1803 (a) (1) (C) If indeed this is what happened, did Lynch reportâ... or only selectively reportâ... to the committees in a way that excluded non-friendlies? Can you see why Adam Schiff, Mark Warner, and their ilk are terrified?

â... These are the playbook tactics that Senators and tech oligarchs most often use to destroy the lives of their political and business enemies: â... Government agency bosses sometimes solicit the target victims with false promises of future loans, contracts or grants from their agency and cause the target victims to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for projects which those government bosses had covertly promised to their friends. They use the target victims as a â... smokescreenâ... to cover their illegal government slush-funds for the victims competitors and personal enemies.

---- By using this tactic, the attackers can drain the target victims funds and force them into an economic disaster in plain view of everyone without the government bosses fearing any reprisal for their scam.- Every match.com, okcupid.com, Plenty Of Fish, Seeking Arrangements and all other IAC-owned, or similar, dating sites (IAC is managed by Hillary Clintonâ... s daughter) have had their profiles, texts, and inter-member communications, since those companies were started, hacked or purchased. The attack service providers use Palantir and In-Q-Tel financed data analysis software to analyze every activity in those dating services in order to find honey-trap, blackmail, sextortion and social conflict exploitation opportunities.

If you had a bad date with someone, that someone will be hunted down and convinced to help harm, #metoo or â... rape chargeâ... the intended target. All dates involve a search for sex, so the likelihood that a sexual disappointment experience will exist in each persons dating history is high. Searching every past dating email and text of a subject is quite easy with modern software and hacking techniques. A synthetically amplified, PR-agency optimized sex scandal can destroy any target. Your dating experiences from the 70â... s or 80â... s will come back to haunt you decades later. Most dates involve drinking alcohol and taking drugs. If you were unattractive or had bad sexual skills your bad date will be called â... date rapeâ... , â... drugging your date for sexâ... and related twisted narratives that are designed to shame you, the target.

---- If you try to get a date in the future, your potential date will be contacted by a third party who will slander and libel you to make sure your potential first date gets cancelled. Your social life will, essentially, end. Every photo on every dating site is cross checked with every other photo on the internet in order to cull your Facebook, Linkedin, Snapchat and other social media together to create a total psychological manipulation profile data file on you. A single photo on a dating site can be cross searched on every mugshot archive, photo album and corporate database in the worth within minutes using modern super-computers. Your sex life will be on public record in a flash.- Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits are stone-walled. Applications of targets are â... lostâ... .

---- Files in the application process â... disappearedâ... . Lois Lerner hard drive â... incidentsâ... are operated in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

â... Government officials and tech oligarchs contact members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national â... black-listsâ... to blockade target victims from ever receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Stry and in published testimony. If Silicon Valley political campaign finance oligarchs black-list you (see the â... AngelGateâ... Scandal and the â... High Tech No Poaching Class Action Lawsuitâ... cases) you will never get investor funding again.

â... FOIA requests are hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.- State and federal employees will play an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed. This can bankrupt a target victim.- Some Victims found themselves strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case.

---- Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after their work with the Department of Energy weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if these â... targetsâ... were intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of these people were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via DOE, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which DOE officials knew were required.

â... Victims employers are called, and faxed, and ordered to fire target victims from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic. â... On orders from Obama White House officials, DNC-financed Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produce attack articles and defamation videos. Google locks this attack media on the internet on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world.

---- This attack-type uses over $40 million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging. The forensic data acquired from tracking some of these attacks proves that Google rigs attacks against individuals on the internet and that all of Googleâ... s â... impressionsâ... are manually controlled by Googleâ... s executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. This data was provided to the European Union for itâ... s ongoing prosecution of Googleâ... s political manipulation of public perceptions. â... Victims HR and employment records, on recruiting and hiring databases, are embedded with negative keywords in order to prevent the victim targets from ever gaining future employment. â... Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani and many other whistle-blowers in these matters, turned up dead under strange circumstances. It is very possible that some of these attack services, operated by former CIA operatives, even offer discrete murder-for-sale services using high-tech assassination tools that make murders look like heart attacks and brain failures.

---- Disability and VA complaint hearings and benefits are frozen, delayed, denied or subjected to lost records and â... missing hard drivesâ... as in the Lois Lerner case.- Paypal (A DNC-biased operation) and other on-line payments for on-line sales are de-platformed, delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for target victims who competed with the attackers interests and holdings.- DNS redirection, â... website spoofingâ... sends target victims websites to dead ends where no sales orders or customer inquiries actually get back to the target. These internet revenue activity manipulations are conducted using Google and Amazon servers. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by target victims, will have had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by a massively resourced facility located in Virginia, Texas or Palo Alto, California in order to terminate revenue potentials for the target victims.

---- Over 50,000 trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments are deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about victims in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility.

â... Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors are hired by campaign financiers to attack the friends and family members of the target victim in order to create low morale for the target victims psyche and motivationâ...!.

Any homeless person could have done everything that Elon Musk has done if they too were handed billions of taxpayer dollars, tax free perks, thousands of investment bankers and outside engineers and the exclusive favors of The White House. Musk has never built a car or a rocket. He has invented nothing and has only taken the innovations of others. His cars and rockets blow up; he tortured huge numbers of animals for his 'brain chip' experiments; his hole making company is ridiculous' his father is a pedo, blood mineral exploiter and incest violator; his mother was an escort, and his brother is a scammer. He is part of Jeffrey Epstein and Steve Jurvetson's sex ring. He is a mobster. His whole family is a pack of racist, perverted, privileged assholes.

All of the 'glowing' news articles about him that ignore his lies were paid for by Musk's PR staff. Feinstein and Pelosi own Musk assets and rig Congress on his behalf for their own profits. SpaceX is never going to Mars, that is just a smoke-screen tale to hide the fact that all SpaceX does is satellites that spy on people. Musk gets so many girls pregnant because he subscribes to the Deep Breeder scheme of Jeffrey Epstein. Musk is a narcissistic, drug abusing, sociopath that hires In-Q-Tel and Black Cube to attack others. His Tesla Cars have more safety defects than any car in the world. Obama shut down part of NASA, fired NASA staff and then gave that same part to Musk as political quid pro quo. His controlled news articles only talk about the few things that have worked and ignore the thousands of Musk things that have failed horrifically. Corrupt political families conspire to give government funds, contracts, tax waivers, buildings, stock market profits and other insider perks to themselves and their friends. They also conspire to blockade, harm, sabotage and black-list those who compete with them and their friends. These corrupt politicians are never prosecuted for their crimes, and can laugh in the face of those who point out their crimes, because they control the prosecution system. Their Quid Pro Quo criminal corruption is the single largest cause of the taxpayer hatred of Congress.

What Went Wrong With The Electric Car Industry?

Only men seem to start car companies. Most psychologists say that this is because men see cars as dick insecurity emblems.

Elon Musk is known to be a wildly insecure narcissist who feels that he must get every woman, that he can find, pregnant in order to prove his manhood to his abusive father, who got his sister pregnant.

Musk embodies the ultimate expression of â... car-as-dickâ... thinking because Musk was not only molded by his purse-swinging, kept-woman, mother, abusive father and crooked brother but also by the Silicon Valley frat boy rape-culture.

Silicon Valley is, of course, the Eden of modern misogyny and tech-bro douche-baggery.

Musk dragged all of the biggest assholes from Silicon Valley, The DNC and Goldman Sachs into his Tech Cartel. Together they created a temporary monopoly in the electric car industry by exchanging stock market payola with Senators and White House staff who, in exchange, locked off the electric car and space industries just for Musk.

But that scheme was not sustainable. It was amazingly crooked and lucrative but, it could not last. It was Big Techâ... s Roman Empire and it was doomed to fail spectacularly.

Musk counted on Obama and Biden to stick with his original quid-pro-quo deal to trade government cash for election rigging via his boyfriends at Google and Facebook. Tesla was the money conduit for a bunch of political scammy.

Biden and his cheerleader actress front girl: Jennifer Granholm, bounced into office with a Wizard of Oz promise to give everybody electric cars. They were so wrong about the pitfalls of their plan and they hired so many idiot sex freaks and unicorn fart unaware fools that their scheme blew up...instantly and literally.

"You can't put out the fires when his batteries explode"

"The fumes from his thermal battery vapors give you cancer, lung and brain damage"

You may have run across Muskâ... s self promoting, narcissistic, multi-billion dollar, self-aggrandizing PR hype but here is the other side of his hype-coin. Here is who Elon Musk really is:

We know these facts from personal interaction with Musk, his companies and his politicians. Everything in this report can be proven in a jury trial, Congressional hearings or live TV debates.

Musk will do anything to keep this information from getting out butâ... it is too late for him!

While Musk's dirty deeds sound like a bad Hollywood movie script. It all really happened and there is now massive hard copy evidence to prove it.

Elon Musk exists because he bribed DNC politicians including Obama, Clinton and Senators Feinstein, Reid, Boxer, Harris, Spier and Pelosi to give him free taxpayer cash and government resources from the Department of Energy and the California political tax pool. This is proven when you follow-the-money and the insider trading, stock ownership and crony payola kick-backs. The payola between Musk, his scummy cronies and the politicians included:

Billions of dollars of Google (Where Musk's boy buddy Larry Page works), Twitter, Facebook, Tesla, Netflix and Sony Pictures stock and stock warrants which is never reported to the FEC; Billions of dollars of Google, Twitter, Facebook, Tesla, Netflix and Sony Pictures search engine rigging and shadow-banning which is never reported to the FEC; Free rent; Male and female prostitutes; Cars; Dinners; Party Financing; Sports Event Tickets; Political campaign printing and mailing services "Donations"; Secret PAC Financing; Jobs in Corporations in Silicon Valley For The Family Members of Those Who Take Bribes And Those Who Take Bribes; "Consulting" contracts from McKinsey as fronted pay-off gigs; Overpriced "Speaking Engagements" which are really just pay-offs conduited for donors; Private jet rides and use of Government fuel depots (ie: Google handed out NASA jet fuel to staff); Real Estate; Fake mortgages; The use of Cayman, Boca Des Tores, Swiss and related money-laundering accounts; The use of HSBC, Wells Fargo, Goldman Sachs and Deutsche Bank money laundering accounts and covert stock accounts; Free spam and bulk mailing services owned by Silicon Valley corporations; Use of high tech law firms such as Perkins Coie, Wilson Sonsini, MoFo, Covington & Burling, etc. to conduit bribes to officials; and other means now documented by us, The FBI, the FTC, The SEC, The FEC and journalists.

INSIDE THE MUSK CORRUPTION OPERATION

The U.S. Energy Dept (DOE) has been covering-up organized political crime activities in which government funds are being used as a slush-fund to pay off political campaign financiers and to pay for CIA/GPS Fusion-Class attacks on Silicon Valley business competitors.

Political campaign financiers and government agency staff share stock market holdings with each other under family trusts, shell corporations and layered Goldman Sachs accounts.

The Musk scam-deal was: "Obama funds Tesla, Musk conduits campaign funds to Obama, top Obama staff profit off of insider Musk stocks..."

Elon Musk is a criminal, a mobster, an asshole, a balding fake-hair wearing, plastic surgery-addicted, bi-sexual douchebag, woman-abusing, sex addicted, tax evader. We can put this in writing because all of those identifications regarding Musk can be proven in court and are documented in existing lawsuits and news stories.

Musk exploits poor people and child slaves in the Congo and Afghanistan to mine his lithium and Cobalt. Look up this phrase on the top search engines: "child labor electric car batteries" .

Musk spends billions per year to hire Russian trolls, fake blogger fan-boys and buy fake news self-glory look-at-me articles about himself. Musk thinks he is the 'Jesus' of Silicon Valley and he will do anything to make the public think so. Musk is insecure because his father was abusive and his trophy wife's mother is overbearing so he developed sociopath-like mental issues. Musk has been professionally diagnosed as a 'psychotic narcissist. He public stated on an investor call that he uses drugs and alcohol to get through the night. We have the tapes.

Musk relies on Google and the DNC Main Stream News (MSN) to hide bad news about him. Fake News manipulator Google is run by Larry Page. Larry is Musk's investor and bromance buddy. They share an apartment. Musk uses massive numbers of shell companies and trust funds to self-deal, evade the law and hide his bribes and stock market insider trading. His brother ran Solar City and is now under federal investigation for securities fraud.

A huge number of Tesla drivers have been killed; pedestrians and oncoming drivers have also been killed, and Musk covers it up.

Extremist politicians and their controlled news outlets refuse to allow any articles about Musk's crimes to be printed because they benefit from Musk's crimes.

Investor oligarch's Tim Draper and Steve Jurvetson are so fanatical about not being embarrassed from a Tesla bankruptcy that they will pump the TSLA stock and threaten anybody who might disclose the Musk misdeeds.

Peter Thiel, a Musk boyfriend, also protects Musk. Musk, and his cronies, use Palantir, Google and related software to scan the entire internet every few minutes for any occurrence of the words: Musk, Tesla, or Tesla Fire. They send trolls and fake bloggers (Many of them Russian) to put pro-Musk comments on the comments section of any blogs or articles discussing those topics and try to flood out the truth about Musk.

In EVERY blog that you read that mentions 'Musk', at least 1/3 of the comments have been placed there by Musk's paid shills. There are no Tesla Fan Boys. All of the fanatic Tesla comments on the internet are Musk's, Thiel's, Jurvetson's and Draper's fake fanboy trolls. Musk, himself, stays up late at night pretending to be a Tesla Fan Boy on blogs.

The 'Silicon Valley Mafia; cartel of frat boy sociopath venture capitalists like Steve Jurvetson, Tim Draper, Eric Schmidt, et al; threaten those who do not support the cult of Tesla or their political candidates.

Musk holds the record for getting sued for fraud by his investors, wives, former partners, employees, suppliers and co-founders. Elon Musk has gone out of his way to hire hundreds of ex-CIA and In-Q-Tel staff and assign them to "dirty tricks teams" to attack his competitors and elected officials who Musk hates.

Musk never founded his companies. He took Tesla away from the founder: Marty, in a hostile take-over!

Musk's "Starlink" satellites are domestic spy and political manipulation tools - never get your internet from one. SpaceX is entirely a spy satellite operation.

The same kind of EMF radiation proven to cause cancer from cell phones exists in massive amounts in a Tesla.

Musk can't fix a car or build a rocket and has almost no mechanical skills.

If you pull a report of every VIN# of every Tesla ever built and cross reference that with insurance, repair and lawsuit records you will find that the "per volume" fire, crash, death and defect rate is THE WORST of any car maker in history!

Musk is a lying con artist and partners with Goldman Sachs to rig the stock market. Sachs has a dedicated team of 18 men who rig stocks and valuation bumps for Musk.

Over 1000 witnesses can prove every one of those claims in any live televised Congressional hearing! Senators Dianne Feinstein, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris and their associates own the stock in Tesla Motors and/or it's suppliers and mining companies. That is why they criminally help cover-up investigations of Tesla! All of this was reported, in writing, to James Comey, Patricia Rich and David Johnson at the FBI.

Why aren't all of those parties in prison if it is so easy to prove the crime? Think back to recent history: the heads of the Department of Energy, the FBI, The DOJ and the U.S. Attorney General were kicked out of their jobs for corruption. THIS was the corruption they were doing. They all knew about this crime but they were covering it up.

Musk took over Tesla Motors in a hostile take-over in order to exploit lithium, cobalt and other mining corruption deals for his business partners. Let's take a look at the lithium in Musk's horrifically miss-engineered lithium ion batteries:

His batteries cause wars in the Congo, Afghanistan and Bolivia from the corrupt mining deals involved with mining lithium and cobalt. Lithium ion batteries are insider trading-owned by ex-CIA boss Woolsey and DOE Boss Chu. Lithium ion batteries excrete chemicals that mutate fetuses when they burn; destroy your brain, lungs and nervous system when they burn; kill the factory workers who make them; cause Panasonic to be one of the most corrupt companies in the world; poison the Earth when disposed of; can't be extinguished by firemen; poison firemen when they burn; are based on criminally corrupt mining schemes like URANIUM ONE; Have over 61 toxic chemicals in them; come from an industry that spends billions on internet shills and trolls used to say all other forms of energy; and are insider-trading owned by corrupt U.S. Senators who are running a SAFETY COVER-UP about their dangers.

Apple products with lithium ion batteries have been exploding and setting people on fire. Over time the chemical dendrites, or deposits, inside each battery grow worse and increase the chances of explosion as they age - LITHIUM ION BATTERIES BECOME MORE AND MORE LIKELY TO EXPLODE AS TIME GOES

ON AND AS THEY AGE. This is not a theory. This is a scientific fact. That is why you hear about more and more lithium batteries catching fire and blowing up. Additionally, scientists also speculate that the increasing presence of low energy nuclear background energy and wifi energy in the environment is making lithium ion batteries explode more often lately. This theory is upheld by the increasing number of FAA reports about commercial airline cabins suddenly â... filling up with toxic smokeâ... as some lithium ion battery explodes in someones overhead luggage. As commercial jets go higher they lose the protection of the atmosphere and are subjected to more gamma (and other) radiation from overhead. This makes the already unstable lithium ion batteries on board blow up.

"Bad Guys" have figured out how to make them explode remotely in devices by making the device electronics cause the batteries to overload. The dangers of lithium ion batteries are hidden by CNN and Main Stream News (MSN) because pretty much only the DNC people profit from them and the DNC folks control CNN and the MSN.

The Obama Administration promised Silicon Valley oligarchs the market monopoly on lithium ion batteries and the sabotage of fuel cells in exchange for campaign financing and search engine rigging; United States Senators that are supposed to protect us from these deadly products own the stock market assets of them so they protect them and stop the FDA, OSHA, DOT & NHTSA from outlawing them.

Tom Steyer is a notorious DNC financier. His partner, Margaret Sullivan ran, the federal USAID agency, USAID sent all of the DNC campaign financiers in Silicon Valley a federal â... reportâ... from USAID that said there was â... A TRILLION DOLLARS OF LITHIUM IN AFGHANISTANâ... and promised to give those lithium mines, EXCLUSIVELY, to the Silicon Valley venture capitalists if they funded and web search manipulated the election for Obama to take over the White House. We have the documents proving this. In other words, a re-up of the Afghan War was caused by Elon Musk and it killed American soldiers so that Musk could buy more mansions and trophy wives.

Alkaline, NiCAD and hundreds of other battery chemistries DO NOT have all of these problems but Lithium Ion batteries get a monopoly because of politician insider trading ownerships.

Tesla Motors has caused far more deaths and injuries than the world generally knows about. A recent fire on U.S. Highway 101 near Mountain View, CA, burned the driver alive and killed him. In Florida two kids died in a Tesla, burned alive, screaming in agony. A man died in agony in a Tesla crash in Malibu that set Malibu Canyon on fire. A young woman, at the start of life, and her boyfriend were burned alive in their crashed Tesla. There are many more deaths and crashes than you have seen in the Main Stream News (MSN) The deaths and the cover-ups are endless.

Senators Dianne Feinstein, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris and their associates own the stock in Tesla Motors and/or it's suppliers and mining companies and they cover-up and halt investigations and laws designed to save the public. They, and their crony's, spend over $1B a year to shill and troll hype about lithium ion batteries and cover-up the dangers. Lithium ion EVs are more prone to battery fires. Experts say that their lithium-ion batteries can fuel hotter fires that release toxic fumes and are more difficult to put out. Lithium ion fires keep reigniting which explains why it takes so long and requires copious amounts of water or foam (it is an electric fire, after all) to smother the flames. Tesla employee Bernard Tse and his team warned Elon Musk about these dangers in 2008 and they got fired and/or warned to "say nothing" by Musk. Three top Tesla engineers died in a plane crash next to Tesla offices in San Carlos after two of them agreed to become whistle-blowers.

The DNC bosses, Congress people and federal executives own the stock in lithium, Solar and EV markets and use kickbacks from those markets (Especially via convoluted campaign finance laundering via Elon Musk) to finance the DNC.

The DNC bosses and Musk use character assassination as their main political tool against any member of the public who speaks out against their felony stock market scams and PizzaGate-like scandals. The Harvey Weinstein reports by Ronan Farrow show that they have teams of hired goons that they pay to destroy people's lives.

They use Black Cube, Mossad, In-Q-Tel, Stratfor, Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Media Matters, David Brock, Sid Blumenthal, NY Times, Google servers, Facebook servers, Podesta Group, Perkins Coie, Covington & Burling and a host of "media assassins".

Gawker and Gizmodo Media set-up the attack stories and, in paid partnership with Google, Google kicks their attack links around the globe, in front of 8 Billion people, forever. Google locks the attack articles of its enemies on the front top search results of Google search results forever, on purpose! Google and Musk are partners-in-crime. Larry Page steals technology for Google and Musk meets with Larry Page to advise him on which technologies to steal and how to bypass FEC laws. Musk has exceeded FEC campaign finance limits by billions of dollars via â... in-kindâ... services.

ELON MUSK AND HIS CRONY STOCK MARKET SLUSH-FUND PAYOLA

- Why We Know That Elon Musk Is A Criminal

By Susan T. and Andrew H.

We saw Elon Musk commit crimes and we saw the Obama White House cover-up those crimes.

We, and our associates, worked for Bright Automotive, Zap Electric, Aptera, Eco Motors, XPV, The United States Department of Energy and the federal Office of Management and Budget and Tesla Motors itself.

Americans have an expectation that their tax dollars will be used in a fair and legal manner and not to pay off crony campaign financiers like Elon Musk. Americans have an expectation that fair market competition will decide which companies get to live or die and that no campaign financiers gets to order the White House to produce the death or success decision about any American business. Elon Musk's operation exists entirely because of criminal corruption and all of his companies must be shut down by federal law enforcement.

For nearly a decade, the U.S. Department of Energy has refused to comply with Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests for copies of Tesla Motors entire D.O.E. funding application documents. Former D.O.E. employees have shredded copies of those documents in order to keep them from being exposed to the public and the media. Why would they do that? Because those documents reveal felony criminal fraud by Tesla Motors, federal violations of the Section 136 law requirements and manipulations of the "hard-wiring" of the entire D.O.E. program. Those documents, which we have seen (and some Senate staff have private copies of) prove that, in a side-by-side comparison with all other applicants, the Tesla application was manipulation, rigged, false-reviewed and crony-advanced in order to pay-off certain campaign financiers and damage their competitors. Tell the U.S. Congress to demand that the U.S. Department of Energy stop breaking the law and comply with the FOIA requests to stop hiding the incriminating evidence in the Tesla files. Demand that the public be shown the original paper and not the later, "doctored" versions.

We saw Elon Musk operate an entirely illegal and unethical program based on State and Federal corruption. We told this, in writing and in person to the U.S. Attorney General: Eric Holder, who then quit his job after we reported these facts to him.

We reported that Elon Musk lied about vast number of dangers of the lithium ion chemistry he was using. Nothing was done.

We reported that our associates at the Department of Energy were having their safety reports on lithium ion danger suppressed. Nothing was done.

We reported that Elon Musk's credit rating and financial records were fraudulent and amounted to â... cooking the booksâ... . Nothing was done.

We reported bribes paid by Musk's lobbyists and associated to government officials in order to grease the skids for his crony payola. Nothing was done.

We reported that Goldman Sachs and Tesla Motors were operating a stock fraud pump-and-dump scam to manipulate Elon Musk's stock holdings. Nothing was done.

We reported over a hundred illegal and corrupt actions by Elon Musk and his mob of Silicon Valley gangsters. Nothing was done.

TESLA MOTORS: CREATED BY CORRUPTION, BRIBES AND LIES!

- DEMAND THAT A FEDERAL SPECIAL PROSECUTOR REVIEW ALL OF THESE CHARGES IN A PUBLIC HEARING!

** If you have an ounce of morality, then you will not want to help Musk & Tesla profit from the crony political corruption that created them. Musk exists because he bribes politicians & acts as an illegal campaign financing conduit.

** DOT/NHTSA has covered up years of reports about an acceleration surge issue that can suddenly crash your Tesla into walls and drive it off cliffs. It is either a known hacking attack or the effect of WiFi on Tesla electronics. Either can kill you.

** Musk & Tesla are pure evil & exist because of hyper-corruption. You don't want to contribute to their evil or be part of it in any way. You are funding evil & supporting criminal corruption by buying a Tesla or any Elon Musk owned product like Solar City, Tesla, Space X, Hyperloop, etc.!

** Elon Musk spent more money, than any other car company in history, to do the exact same things that any other car has done, or could do, for 20 times less money. Musk's Tesla was $100,000.00 over budget, per car, at the time that Musk was handed his crony Dept. of Energy funds by Steven Chu. Musk has no clue how to operate a car company.

** In one lawsuit it is noted that: "...Plaintiff and Tesla both applied for funds at the same time, in the same funding cycle in the same program. Tesla had the historically epic number of horrific issues listed below, which were known to DOE at the time of application, and Plaintiffs had NONE of these issues. How can any court, or rational person, believe that Plaintiffs were not intentionally bypassed, targeted and damaged for political reasons while Tesla was simultaneously approved for political reasons, when the comparative metrics between the two applicants prove the largest merit disparity in the entire recorded history of the U.S. Department of Energy...the singular, and only, review criteria used by Department of Energy officials was: WHICH ONE BRIBED THE CAMPAIGN FINANCE GROUP FOR BARACK OBAMA?!"; Thus proving that Tesla exists because of organized-crime level political corruption.

** Elon Musk's self-driving autopilot feature, which keeps crashing and failing, is his attempt to scam taxpayer cash from Dept. of Transportation and Dept. of Energy public funds. He is only trying to do it to get more free federal cash.

** The inventor of lithium ion batteries has confessed that lithium ion batteries blow up eventually. He says that deadly dendrites plague lithium-ion battery technology. The dendrites accumulate as part of the standard charging and recharging cycle and eventually cause a short circuit that often results in a smoldering or burning battery. These dendrites are destined to eventually blow up most Tesla cars and many electronic devices using lithium ion!

** The CIA's software designed to take over any Tesla on Earth and kill the driver, passengers and bystanders has been released in the wild and every hacker on Earth can now easily get a copy of it and kill you in your Tesla!

** Ex-employees have leaked faked financial records, evidence of massive click-farm fake social media manipulation and evidence of unreported deaths and accidents. They say that most Tesla's have one kind of defect or another.

** If you read about the dirty deeds and cocaine dealings with the In-Q-Tel airplanes called Cocaine 1 & Cocaine 2, & the corruption behind the company called In-Q-Tel & Musk's software programmer who ran The Silk Road drug & murder service then you must be concerned that many In-Q-Tel people work for Musk. Why does Musk need dirty druggies & spies on his payroll unless he is running covert drug and business spying activities?

** Ex-employees, Gawker writers and gay lawyers from Covington & Burling have leaked stories that Elon Musk, Reid Hoffman, Larry Page are buddies.

** Musk is anti-American and Anti-Worker Rights and has been caught flying in H1-B cheap offshore labor and exploiting immigrants for his deadly profits. Musk hates unions and worker rights efforts.

** Elon Musk gets the Cobalt chemical to make his lithium ion batteries from slave trade and blood-money corruption in the Congo!

** The lithium ion batteries that Musk uses also blow up when they naturally encounter Low Energy Nuclear (LENR) effects in the ambient environment. Millions of chemicals don't blow up from LENR but lithium ion does!

** If you are a Democrat then know that Elon Musk cost you the Hillary Clinton campaign because of his payola schemes. If you are a Republican, know that Elon Musk is the epitome of the worst form of DNC crony corruption you ever saw!

\* Musk bribed California politicians to give him hundreds of millions of dollars of taxpayer dollars & resources he never earned or worked for. He only got those crony payola perks handed to him because he operated as an illicit front for corrupt campaign financing for Dianne Feinstein, Jerry Brown, Harry Reid, Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton.*

\* Multiple parties have filed â... Demands For The Arrest of Elon Muskâ... with the FBI, DOJ, AG, FTC, SEC and other law enforcement agencies. It is not likely that Musk, or his companies will survive a full investigation.*

\* Tesla and Solyndra sit on the same land in Fremont, CA. Solyndra was raided by the FBI for corruption. Tesla SHOULD be raided by the FBI for corruption. Both companies had kick-back crony payola schemes with Senator Dianne Feinstein. She owned the land, lease, HR, construction company and supplier interests and stock for both companies in one of the most massive conflict-of-interest crony financing schemes in U.S. history. Elon Musk and the Feinsteins are corruption partners.*

\* People who see you in a Tesla think of you as a â... Tone Deaf Douchebagâ... , â... Tesla Tool!â... , â... Arrogant Prickâ... , â... Ostentatious Obama Oafâ... , â... Sheepâ... , â... Mindless Yuppie Scumâ... , â... Misogynistic Silicon Valley Cloneâ... , â... Self-promoting Elitist Doucheâ... , â... Fake News Reading Main Stream Boobâ... , â... Naive Idiotâ... or other bad things.*

\* Elon Musk is one of the main financiers behind Barack Obama & Hillary Clinton, both of whom have been charged with corruption. Musk endlessly tweets lies & â... ..No I didnâ... t do those bad thingsâ... BS but nobody else supports him.*

\* Tesla financial records are â... cookedâ... in a fraudulent manner to make the stock market valuation of Tesla a falsely manipulated factor. Musk uses â... pre-ordersâ... , by his own investors, to fake sales and wrote emails to customers asking them to put small deposits down so he could book them as fully paid sales in one of a large number of stock and loan valuation frauds. Musk and his investors practice stock market skims, pump-and-dumps and Flash Boy manipulations.*

\* Lithium ion batteries are blowing up, starting fires &, generally, destroying peopleâ... s homes, cars, electronics & physical health. Boeing was ordered to stop flying the 787 Dreamliner because it's Lithium ion batteries are catching fire spontaneously. A group of silicon valley venture capitalists forced/leveraged the government to buy & pay for these specific batteries, that they have stock in, in order to benefit their profit margins. Other batteries donâ... t have these problems. They knew about the dangers from day one, but put greed ahead of safety. There are thousands & thousands of reports of spontaneous lithium ion fires but the VC's who back lithium ion pay to keep this information hushed up. Millions of these batteries have been recalled for fire risk. The VC's tried to push as many as they could before they got caught. Now they are caught. These VC's & the Senators they bribed own stock in lithium mining companies too. HERE IS THE PROOF: HTTP://LITHIUMBATTERYCOVERUP.COM*

\* Tesla Motors has filed a patent which states the following , THESE ARE TESLA MOTORS WORDS warning about a crisis, the level of which they never disclosed to the consumer: â... Thermal runaway is of major concern since a single incident can lead to significant property damage &, in some circumstances, bodily harm or loss of life. When a battery undergoes thermal runaway, it typically emits a large quantity of smoke, jets of flaming liquid electrolyte, & sufficient heat to lead to the combustion & destruction of materials in close proximity to the cell. If the cell undergoing thermal runaway is surrounded by one or more additional cells as is typical in a battery pack, then a single thermal runaway event can quickly lead to the thermal runaway of multiple cells which, in turn, can lead to much more extensive collateral damage. Regardless of whether a single cell or multiple cells are undergoing this phenomenon, if the initial fire is not extinguished* immediately, subsequent fires may be caused that dramatically expand the degree of property damage. For example, the thermal runaway of a battery within an unattended laptop will likely result in not only the destruction of the laptop, but also at least partial destruction of its surroundings, e.g., home, office, car, laboratory, etc. If the laptop is on-board an aircraft, for example within the cargo hold or a luggage compartment, the ensuing smoke & fire may lead to an emergency landing or, under more dire conditions, a crash landing. Similarly, the thermal runaway of one or more batteries within the battery pack of a hybrid or electric vehicle may destroy not only the car, but may lead to a car wreck if the car is being driven or the destruction of its surroundings if the car is parkedâ... . See <http://whoiselonmusk.com> for more...

\* Tesla's own staff, & every fire department, have now admitted that once a lithium ion fire gets started in a Tesla, that it is impossible to extinguish burning lithium ion material. This is Telsaâ... s own words in THEIR patent filing, (You can look it up online) saying that the risk is monumental. Tesla has 6800 lithium ion batteries, any one of which can â... go thermalâ... , start a chain reaction and blow up all of the rest of the 6800+ deadly batteries! Tesla drivers have been burned alive in thermal globs of flaming lithium ion, plastics & metal. Bystanders have heard their horrific screams of unutterable pain & terror as they were burned alive! Tesla fires canâ... t be extinguished & the bodies are burned into â... unrecognizable lumps of charred fleshâ... , according to fireman.*

\* Tesla only exists to exploit Elon Muskâ... s bribes. The lithium ion batteries blow up when they get: wet, hot, bumped, over-charged, struck by energy fields, exposed to air or squashed. Lithium ion batteries poison the Earth & that they poison & kill the workers that make them. Lithium ion batteries come from war profiteering in Afghan & Bolivian corruption.*

\* Panasonic is Elon Muskâ... s partner. Panasonic is one of the most corrupt companies in the world. Panasonic has been charged, on multiple continents with: Product dumping, bribery, collusion, price fixing, anti-trust law violations, racketeering, worker abuse, toxic poisoning of workers, & other crimes. It is no wonder that Elon Musk & Panasonic are partners. Tata Motors executive Karl Slym was killed for exposing this fact.*

\* Your tax dollars were stolen in order to make Tesla Motors, as part of a political financing kick-back scam. In other words, part of your paycheck was taken away from you in order to buy hookers, rent-boys & private jets for Musk & company.*

\* Teslaâ... s are forged in criminal corruption, so anybody who drives a Tesla must be either ignorant, a weasel or one of the corrupt. The whole world now knows all of the facts in this list so you can never plead ignorance to these crimes.*

\* Telsaâ... s have a huge amount of highly documented defects. The defects are so extensive that Tesla made buyers sign confidentiality agreements to try to hide how messed up their cars are.*

\* Teslaâ... s have killed more people than the main-stream news has reported. The full Tesla death-list is covered up.*

\* Musk lied about why he wanted to make electric cars, when, in fact, he actually poisons the environment because Tesla investors wanted to exploit toxic minerals & materials which can't be recycled in a clean manner*

\* No other electric car has been so mundane, & yet had so many problems with it, since the electric car was first sold in the 1800's. There is nothing â... novelâ... or â... amazingâ... about the Tesla aside from dime store parlor tricks for PR hype.*

\* More drunks have crashed Tesla's, than any other per capita car in the world, per volume of cars made*

\* Elon Musk's co-founders, investors, partners, wives, investors, suppliers & employees have sued him for being a fraud &, essentially, called him an "asshole" in court records.*

\* Elon Musk lied on this Department of Energy funding application and the Obama Administration refuses to allow any federal employees or witnesses to testify to these facts in public due to the devastating potential results of these facts.*

\* More owners of Tesla's have been found to cheat on their taxes, & be involved in abuse-based divorces, than almost any other car brand owner. Tesla owners are bad people who rationalize their poor life choices. Owning a Tesla is a red-flag for a tax audit!*

\* Elon Musk will lie, cheat & steal in order to self-aggrandize & glorify his egotistical mania. Musk has been documented engaging in over 100 lies which were later proven to be false. He has spent tens of millions of dollars to buy fake news about himself on Twitter, Facebook & Google because he is such a mentally disturbed ego-maniac.*

\* None of Elon Musk's companies would exist if not for taxpayer funded handouts given to him by corrupt politicians in exchange for illegal campaign finance deals with him & his investors.*

\* Google, & Tesla, who are financial & political partners, have both been caught spying on consumers & manipulating Internet data in order to cover-up their complicity in huge political corruption & kick-back deals*

\* Musk took U.S. taxpayer dollars from the government & then hired cheap off-shore labor & fired U.S. Union workers & domestic workers. He lied to & screwed the NUMMI workers that were working at the Fremont plant.*

\* Musk has put over 18 surveillance devices in the Tesla. Anybody can hack those devices & monitor you. WORSE YET, foreign agents have hacked the Tesla & taken over the controls & driven Teslaâ... s into bystanders & over cliffs.*

\* When Erick Strickland was head of the NHTSA he was confronted about DOT safety cover-ups of the Tesla to protect Obama. He quit 48 hours later. The DOT safety cover-ups to protect the Obama campaign finance payola scheme continue to this day. Obamaâ... s Gibbs, Emanuel, Plouffe, Axelrod and Carney quit within a week of being threatened with exposure.*

\* Teslaâ... s have had a large number of recalls but Elon Musk refuses to call them â... recallsâ... . Teslaâ... s have had multiple recalls for SEVERE safety dangers. DOT has been told this, in writing, for years, but wont take action in order to protect Obama.*

\* Tesla is a severe public safety hazard that has been systematically covered up by corrupt politicians.*

\* Large numbers of Ex-CIA staff and In-Q-Tel spy staff work for Musk. Why does he need spies to build cars?*

\* Tesla Motors batteries were promoted by those who wished to exploit the Afghanistan War for personal profit by controlling the Afghan lithium mining fields. Kleiner Perkins and Draper Fisher hyped the â... ..trillions of $ of lithium in Afganistan.â...*

\* Per Federal MSDS disclosure documents, Tesla Motors batteries emit cancer-causing vapors when they burn.*

\* Tesla Motors Vehicles toxicity poison bystanders, nearby vehicular passengers, airline passengers in planes carrying said batteries in their holds, & environments where such incidents occur.*

\* Tesla Motors batteries blow up when bumped by the same level of car incident that would, otherwise, only dent a normal car bumper.*

\* In an accident, when a Tesla rolls over, molten metal & plastic can drip on & burn the occupants alive.*

\* Tesla has multiple sexual harassment and unsafe work-place lawsuits against the company.*

\* Per MSDS documents, Tesla Motors batteries emit chemicals, burning, or not, that can damage an unborn fetus.*

\* Per MSDS documents, Tesla Motors batteries emit chemicals that can cause lung damage.*

\* Per MSDS documents, Tesla Motors batteries emit chemicals that can cause liver damage.*

\* Per published lawsuits & news reports, the factories that make Tesla Motors batteries have been charged with the deaths, & potentially fatal illness, of over 1000 workers & the poisoning of nearby towns.*

\* Tesla Motors batteries become even more dangerous over time, particularly when tasked by electric transportation systems like Hover-boards & Tesla's. The chemistry in a lithium ion battery changes to become more unstable over time.*

\* Tesla Motors batteries were never designed to be used in automobiles. Tesla used non-automotive batteries in one of the most dangerous configurations possible.*

\* Elon Musk's Space X vehicles & Tesla Motors vehicles have both had a higher-than-average number of explosions. This has caused outside experts to doubt Musk's ability to place safety considerations over his need for hyped-up PR.*

\* Tesla's own â... Superchargersâ... & home 3-prong chargers have set Tesla's, homes & businesses on fire.*

\* Consumer rights groups contacted Erick Strickland, the head of the NHTSA, & charged him with a cover-up. He quit days later. The NHTSA then issued a safety investigation request to Tesla Motors, which would have more publicly exposed these dangers, but the safety investigation was never under-taken due to White House requests & lobbyist bribes, from Tesla, which got the investigation shut down.*

\* NEPA regulations for the Tesla NUMMI factory in California & the Nevada Tesla â... Gigafactoryâ... have been violated relative to environmental safety standards. See <http://xyzcase.xyz> for details.*

\* Tesla Motors vehicles are not â... Factory Builtâ... â... like Fordâ... builds cars, as Tesla professes. They are hand built in small volumes & subjected to numerous defects. Blogs have documented hundreds of defects, as listed by Tesla owners. Tesla has lost at least one LEMON CAR LAWSUIT for defective manufacturing.*

\* Tesla's â... showroomsâ... are often â... pop-upâ... retail storefronts that are in tight-proximity retail centers, putting it's neighbors at risk of total loss from fire damage.*

\* Tesla Motors vehicles have been hacked & taken over. Their doors, steering, listening devices & navigation have been taken over by outside parties. Multiple Tesla have suddenly swerved off the road, over cliffs & into other vehicles, killing bystanders & Tesla drivers.*

\* Three Tesla top engineers & two competing senior executives, all of whom had whistle-blown on Tesla, who were in perfect health one day, suddenly died mysteriously the next day.*

\* Multiple employees, founders, investors, marital partners, suppliers & others have sued Tesla Motors, &/or it's senior executives for fraud. Musk had nothing to do with creating Tesla. He ran a hostile take-over of Tesla from the founders.*

\* In addition to suing him, many of his former staff & partners have described Musk as an â... Arrogant Prickâ... .*

\* Main-Stream Media (MSM) have agreed not to provide news coverage of the deadly defects of the Tesla because the MSM are owned by the same politicians who own Tesla Motors. It is now legal to sue The New York Times for hiding these deadly defects, though, particularly if your family member was injured or killed because they covered-up the danger for political reasons.*

\* If you think the above bullet-points are bad there are over a 1000 more. Find the book â... Is Elon Musk A Fraudâ... online or visit <https://stopelonfromfailingagain.com/> or thousands of other sites that expose the truth about Musk & Tesla!*

BANKRUPT MUSK â... NO CASH FOR CRONY CORRUPTION. Print this out & freely re-post it on blogs & social media. Post this on bulletin boards. Put this on the windshield of every Tesla you find. Print this out & hand these out in front of every Tesla dealership: Nobody can stop you from handing these out, it is your

U.S. Constitutional First Amendment Right! Pass the word! We are prepared to back up every single fact on here at any public meeting with the FBI, Congress, FTC, GAO, SEC or before a Federal Special Prosecutor.

The crash of a Tesla Model X through the home of South Korean singer and actor Ji Chang Son. The crash ended with the nose of the vehicle in Ji Chang Son's living room after the Tesla malfunctioned. Hundreds of such Tesla crashes have occurred, resulting in the deaths and injuries of Tesla owners, passengers, bystanders, oncoming drivers and others.

Following accusations by a Korean celebrity that a Tesla car spontaneously drove through a wall, the carmaker has replied that the crash was "entirely due to the man's horrible driving" in an ongoing effort, by Tesla, to steer the blame away from Tesla faulty engineering

Actor and singer Son Ji-chang (identified as Ji Chang Son in court documents) claimed he was parking his Tesla Model X SUV when the vehicle suddenly lurched forward into his living room.

In a lawsuit filed last week in California, Son claimed that the crash was due to "sudden unintended acceleration" and sought class-action status with other Model X owners.

In a nod to the car's ability to sense and avoid crashes, the lawsuit also hinted that the Model X should not be allowed take actions that the car "knows will result in the collision with a fixed object."

But Tesla contends its Model X was only dutifully following Son's instructions to plough through his house.

"The evidence, including data from the car, conclusively shows that the crash was the result of Mr. Son pressing the accelerator pedal all the way to 100 per cent," said Tesla in a statement to Reuters.

Although most new cars are equipped with "black box" technology to record driver actions in the event of a crash, Tesla is unique for amassing vehicle data as detailed as whether a driver's hands are on the steering wheel.

The data is collected to aid in research and design, but Tesla user agreements also reserve the carmaker's right to use it to defend itself in court.

The term "sudden unintended acceleration" has a checkered recent history. Most famously, between 2009 and 2011 Toyota recalled more than eight million vehicles following widespread allegations that the vehicles were subject to unexpected acceleration.

But a subsequent investigation by the U.S. Department of Transportation found that most of the reported cases of â... sudden unintended accelerationâ... were simply drivers stepping on the gas instead of the brake â... with only a handful of incidents being due to pedals getting stuck on floor mats.

In June, another California-based Model X owner, Puzant Ozbag, similarly claimed that his Model X spontaneously accelerated through a parking lot and into a wall. In that case, too, Tesla reviewed vehicle records and reported that the actual culprit was Ozbag jamming his foot down on the accelerator. A special prosecutor is needed to investigate Tesla due to the huge number of cover-ups, by Tesla and the Obama Administration, to protect campaign financier Elon Musk. Jeff Sessions needs to hire a lawyer from outside the government appointed by Sessions as attorney general or, in the United States, by Congress to investigate a government official for misconduct while in office. A reasoning for such an appointment is that the governmental branch or agency may have political connections to those it might be asked to investigate. Inherently, this creates a conflict of interest and a solution is to have someone from outside the department lead the investigation. The term "special prosecutor" may have a variety of meanings from one country to the next, from one government branch to the next within the same country, and within different agencies within each government branch. Critics of the use of special prosecutors argue that these investigators act as a "fourth branch" to the government because they are not subject to limitations in spending, nor do they have deadlines to meet.

Attorneys carrying out special prosecutor functions in either federal or state courts of the United States are typically appointed ad hoc with representation limited to one case or a delineated series of cases that implicate compelling governmental interests, such as: Fraud (SEC, Complex, Cybercrime, Mortgages), Public Corruption, Money Laundering & Asset Forfeiture, Civil Rights, Racketeering Across State lines, Environmental Protection, National Security, Tax & Bankruptcy, Organized Crime, or International cases where the US is a party).<sup>[1]</sup> Special prosecutors in courts of the United States may either be appointed formally by one of the three branches of government in a criminal proceeding, or when dictated by federal law or regulation, or informally in civil proceedings, and also by one of the three branches of government, or by a non-governmental entity to prosecute alleged unlawful conduct by government agents. When appointed by the judicial branch to investigate and, if justified, seek indictments in a particular judicial branch case, the attorney is called special prosecutor.<sup>[2]</sup> When appointed/hired particularly by a governmental branch or agency to investigate alleged misconduct within that branch or agency, the attorney is called independent counsel.<sup>[3]</sup> When appointed/hired by the state or political subdivision to assist in a particular judicial branch case when the public interest so requires, the attorney is called special counsel.<sup>[3]</sup> When appointed/hired by an organization, corporation, person or other non-governmental entity to investigate and, if justified, seek indictments against one or more government officials for acts committed under color of law, the attorney may be called special counsel or special prosecutor, but not independent counsel.<sup>[3]</sup>

On January 3, 1983, the United States federal government substituted the term independent counsel for special prosecutor.<sup>[4]</sup> Archibald Cox was one of the most notable special prosecutors. However, special prosecutor Archibald Cox today would be called independent counsel Archibald Cox in the United States.

The term is sometimes used as a synonym for independent counsel, but under the former law authorizing the independent counsel, the appointment was made by a special panel of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. The Ethics in Government Act expired in 1999, and was effectively replaced by Department of Justice regulation 28 CFR Part 600, under which Special Counsel Patrick Fitzgerald was appointed to look into the Plame affair. The Tesla Motors and Elon Musk Case requires a Special Prosecutor.

THE CORRUPTION, FRAUD AND BRIBERY CHARGES AGAINST ELON MUSK AND TESLA MOTORS

Update 2.7

The following, culled from a variety of news articles, lawsuits and investigative reports, demonstrates the profound number of illicit actions charged against Elon Musk and his Silicon Valley cartel insiders. While any given, unbiased, expose on Musk covers some of these issues, it is important to examine the width and breadth of Musk's culture of corruption. Expert witnesses, former employees and investigators are able to fully detail and confirm, with extended evidence, the following charges, in court, or Congressional public hearings:

A.\) ELON MUSK AND TESLA FACE CRIMINAL FRAUD CHARGES BY FEDS! MUSK FINALLY EXPOSED!

B.\) SEC subpoenas TESLA over Musk tweets...

C. Whistleblower posts 'flawed cars' details...

D.) Elon Musk's Incredible Smoke And Mirrors Dance. Elon Musk's untraceable money laundering and political bribery scam has now been exposed. It is called an "Invisible Bridge". It is the way that covert funds move through a secret conduit of close associates and family members. Elon Musk is at the head of the conduit and his mother, brother and associates Tim Draper, Steve Jurvetson, and George Soros round out the other tentacles. With operational links through Wells Fargo Bank, Silicon Valley Bank and Goldman Sachs, the scheme is perfected corruption. The "bridge" uses a combination of fake tax evasion charities and business assets, passes through Senator's pockets and is never visible to the FBI, the FEC and the SEC unless they have very good agents assigned to the matter.

F.) The overt and arrogant Musk misdeeds have now become "obvious and RICO-violating..."

G.) He is protected by Senators Reid, Harris, Pelosi and Feinstein. They are beneficiaries of the scam. Muskâ... s self promoting, narcissistic, multi-billion dollar, self-aggrandizing PR hype. Elon Musk exists because he bribed DNC politicians including Obama, Clinton and Senators Feinstein, Reid, Boxer, Harris, Spier and Pelosi to give him free taxpayer cash and government resources from the Department of Energy and the California political tax pool. This is proven when you follow-the-money and the insider trading, stock ownership and crony payola kick-backs.

H.) He is protected by the Clinton and Obama organizations along with most of the DNC. He finances these politicians via this scheme.

I.) The U.S. Dept of Energy (DOE) has been covering-up organized crime activities at DOE in which DOE funds are being used as a slush-fund to pay off DNC campaign financiers and to pay for Fusion-GPS attacks on Silicon Valley business competitors.

J.) DNC campaign financiers and DOE staff share stock market holdings with each other under family trusts, shell corporations and layered Goldman Sachs accounts. The deal was: Obama funds Tesla, Musk conduits campaign funds to Obama, top Obama staff profit off of insider Musk stocks.

K.) Elon Musk is a criminal, a mobster, an asshole, a balding fake-hair wearing, plastic surgery-addicted, bi-sexual douchebag, woman-abusing, sex addicted, tax evader.

L.) Musk exploits poor people and child slaves in the Congo and Afghanistan to mine his lithium and Cobalt. Look up this phrase on the top search engines: "child labor electric car batteries" .

K.) Musk spends billions per year to hire Russian trolls, fake blogger fan-boys and buy fake news self-glory look-at-me articles about himself. Musk thinks he is the 'Jesus' of Silicon Valley and he will do anything to make the public think so. Musk is insecure because his father was abusive and his "trophy wife" Mother is overbearing so he developed sociopath-like mental issues.

M.) Musk has been professionally diagnosed as a 'psychotic narcissist.

N.) Musk has publicly stated on an investor call that he uses drugs and alcohol to get through the night. We have the tapes.

O.) Musk relies on Google and the DNC Main Stream News (MSN) to hide bad news about him. Fake News manipulator Google is run by Larry Page. Larry is Musk's investor and bromance buddy. They share an apartment.

P.) Musk uses shell companies and trust funds to self-deal, evade the law and hide his bribes and stock market insider trading. His brother ran Solar City and is now under federal investigation for securities fraud.

Q.) A huge number of Tesla drivers, per capita, have been killed; pedestrians and oncoming drivers have also been killed, and Musk covers it up.

R.) The DNC and the MSM refuse to allow any articles about Musk's crimes to be printed because they benefit from Musk's crimes.

S.) VC's Tim Draper and Steve Jurvetson are so fanatical about not being embarrassed from a Tesla bankruptcy that they will pump the TSLA stock and threaten anybody who might disclose the Musk misdeeds.

T.) Peter Thiel, a Musk "boyfriend" also protects Musk. Musk, and his cronies, use Palantir, Google and related software to scan the entire internet every few minutes for any occurrence of the words: "Musk", "Tesla" or "Tesla Fire". They send trolls and fake bloggers (Many of them Russian) to put pro-Musk comments on the comments section of any blogs or articles discussing those topics and try to flood out the truth about Musk. In EVERY blog that you read that mentions 'Musk', at least 1/3 of the comments have been placed there by Musk's paid shills.

U.) There are no "Tesla Fan Boys". All of the fanatic Tesla comments on the internet are Musk's, Thiel's, Jurvetson's and Draper's fake fanboy trolls. Musk, himself, stays up late at night pretending to be a "Tesla Fan Boy" on blogs.

V.) Main Stream DNC-biased News organizations who refuse to cover the story reveal themselves as shills for Musk.

W.) The Silicon Valley Mafia promotes Musk as a "Tech God" leader but, in reality Musk is the same kind of "Leader" as Charles Manson, Jim Jones, David Koresh, Swami Rajneesh and Al Capone.

X.) His own people have sued him for fraud and lies once they realized that Musk-ism and Scientology had so much in common.

Y.) The 'Silicon Valley Mafia; cartel of frat boy sociopath venture capitalists like Steve Jurvetson, Tim Draper, Eric Schmidt, et al; threaten those who do not support the cult of Tesla or their political candidates.

Z.) Musk holds the Silicon Valley record for getting sued for fraud by his investors, wives, former partners, employees, suppliers and co-founders.

A1.) Elon Musk has gone out of his way to hire hundreds of ex-CIA and In-Q-Tel staff and assign them to "dirty tricks teams" to attack his competitors and elected officials who Musk hates.

A2.) Musk and his culture are being sued for abuse to women and blacks and the Unions hate him for lying to them.

A3.) <https://stopelonfromfailingagain.com> reveals even more Musk lies.

A4.) Musk never founded his companies. He took Tesla away from the founder: Marty, in a hostile take-over!

A5.) Musk's "Starlink" satellites are domestic spy and political manipulation tools - never get your internet from anything SpaceX has launched. SpaceX is entirely a domestic spy operation.

A6.) Musk's "Mars" scheme is just a PR distraction.

A7.) The same kind of EMF radiation proven to cause cancer from cell phones exists in massive amounts in a Tesla.

A8.) Musk can't fix a car or build a rocket and has almost no mechanical skills.

A9.) If you pull a report of every VIN# of every Tesla ever built and cross reference that with insurance, repair and lawsuit records you will find that the "per volume" fire, crash, death and defect rate is THE WORST of any car maker in history! Musk's lobbyists have bribed DOT and NHTSA to stall safety inspections.

A10.) NO COMPLETE UNCOMPROMISING SAFETY REPORT ON TESLA CARS HAS EVER BEEN PUBLISHED but we have a copy of a hushed up report that would put Tesla out of business.

A11.) Musk's 'Autopilot' system is a scam to get government cash BUT IT NEVER WORKS. The Tesla 'Autopilot' has crashed into police cars, pedestrians, swamps and driven owners over cliffs.

A12.) Musk is a lying con artist and partners with Goldman Sachs to rig the stock market. Sachs has a dedicated team of 18 men who rig stocks and valuation bumps for Musk.

A13.) The "Silk Road" Cocaine and Murder-For-Hire website was created at Musk's SpaceX A14.) Musk's In-Q-Tel staff ran two transport planes filled with drugs; listed as "Cocaine 1" on FAA records.

A15.) Senators Dianne Feinstein, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris and their associates own the stock in Tesla Motors and/or it's suppliers and mining companies. That is why they criminally help cover-up investigations of Tesla!

A16.) All of this was reported, in writing, to James Comey, Patricia Rich and David Johnson at the FBI.

A17.) Tesla and Solyndra sit on the same land and share staff, contracts and lobbying. California politicians own parts of both companies.

A18.) Musk took over Tesla Motors in a hostile take-over in order to exploit lithium, cobalt and other mining corruption deals for his business partners.

A19.) The â... lithiumâ... in Muskâ... s horrifically miss-engineered lithium ion batteries cause wars in the Congo over mining corruption.

A20.) Afghanistan and Bolivian mobsters benefit from the corrupt mining deals involved with mining lithium and cobalt for Elon Musk's batteries.

A21.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries are insider trading-owned by ex-CIA boss Woolsey and DOE Boss Chu and they engaged in extreme conflict-of-interest to help Musk.

A22.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries excrete chemicals that mutate fetuses when they burn.

A23.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries destroy your brain, lungs and nervous system when they burn.

A24.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries kill the factory workers who make them.

A25.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries cause Panasonic to be one of the most corrupt companies in the world.

A26.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries poison the Earth when disposed of.

A27.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries can't be extinguished by firemen because water makes them explode even more and then explode again hours later.

A28.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries have chemical dendrites and deposition massing issues (revealed by X-Ray analysis) which makes them more and more likely to explode as they age.

A29.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries poison firemen when they burn.

A31.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries have over 61 toxic chemicals in them.

A32.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries come from an industry that spends billions on internet shills and trolls that they hire to nay say all other forms of energy

A34.) Apple products with lithium ion batteries have been exploding and setting people on fire.

A35.) Over time the chemical dendrites, or deposits, inside each battery grow worse and increase the chances of explosion as they age - LITHIUM ION BATTERIES BECOME MORE AND MORE LIKELY TO EXPLODE AS TIME GOES ON AND AS THEY AGE. This is not a theory. This is a scientific fact. That is why you hear about more and more lithium batteries catching fire and blowing up. Additionally, scientists also speculate that the increasing presence of low energy nuclear background energy and wifi energy in the environment is making lithium ion batteries explode more often lately. This is upheld by the increasing number of FAA reports about commercial airline cabins suddenly â... filling up with toxic smokeâ... as some lithium ion battery explodes in someones overhead luggage. As commercial jets go higher they lose the protection of the atmosphere and are subjected to more gamma (and other) radiation from overhead. This makes the already unstable lithium ion batteries on board blow up.

A36.) Tesla owner's had had more DUI's, abuse filings in divorce proceedings and crashes than any other car maker PER VOLUME. This makes Tesla the #1 car for douche bags and scummy people.

A37.) Tesla's own federal patent filing records confirm that Tesla batteries are as dangerous as this document reports.

A38.) "Bad Guys" have figured out how to make Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries explode remotely in devices by making the device electronics cause the batteries to overload.

A39.) The dangers of Elon Musk's Lithium ion batteries are hidden by CNN and Main Stream News (MSN) because pretty much only the DNC people profit from them and the DNC folks control CNN and the MSN.

A40.) George Soros owns part of Tesla Motors so that Soros can help conduit DNC cash.

A41.) The Obama Administration promised Silicon Valley oligarchs the market monopoly on lithium ion batteries and the sabotage of fuel cells in exchange for campaign financing and search engine rigging.

A42.) United States Senators that are supposed to protect us from these deadly products own the stock market assets of them so they protect them and stop the FDA, OSHA, DOT & NHTSA from outlawing them.

A43.) There have been thousands of defect reports filed on Tesla cars.

A44.) Tom Steyer is a notorious DNC financier. His partner, Margaret Sullivan ran, the federal USAID agency, USAID sent all of the DNC campaign financiers in Silicon Valley a federal â... reportâ... from USAID that said there was â... A TRILLION DOLLARS OF LITHIUM IN AFGHANISTANâ... and promised to give those lithium mines, EXCLUSIVELY, to the Silicon Valley venture capitalists if they funded and web search manipulated the election for Obama to take over the White House. We have the documents proving this. In other words, a re-up of the Afghan War was caused by Elon Musk and it killed American soldiers so that Musk could buy more mansions and trophy wives.

A45.) If a Tesla battery gets wet it will explode and cause all of the other batteries to explode in a "cascade of explosions".

A46.) Water makes Tesla batteries explode.

A47.) In an accident, when a Tesla rolls over, molten metal & plastic can drip on & burn the occupants alive and seal them in molten metal.

A48.) Alkaline, NiCAD and hundreds of other battery chemistries DO NOT have all of these problems but Lithium Ion batteries get a monopoly because of politician insider trading owner-ships.

A49.) Tesla Motors has caused far more deaths and injuries than the world generally knows about.

A50.) A recent fire on U.S. Highway 101 near Mountain View, CA, burned the driver alive and killed him.

A51.) In Florida two kids died in a Tesla, burned alive, screaming in agony.

A52.) A man died in agony in a Tesla crash in Malibu that set Malibu Canyon on fire.

A53.) A young woman, at the start of life, and her boyfriend were burned alive in their crashed Tesla.

A54.) There are many more deaths and crashes than you have seen in the Main Stream News (MSN) The deaths and the cover-ups are endless.

A55.) Senators Dianne Feinstein, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris and their associates own the stock in Tesla Motors and/or it's suppliers and mining companies and they cover-up and halt investigations and laws designed to save the public.

A56.) Elon Musk's Lithium ion battery partners spend over $1B a year to shill and troll hype about lithium ion batteries and cover-up the dangers.

A57.) Lithium ion EVs are more prone to battery fires.

A58.) Experts say that their lithium-ion batteries can fuel hotter fires that release toxic fumes and are more difficult to put out. Lithium ion fires keep reigniting which explains why it takes so long and requires copious amounts of water or foam (it is an electric fire, after all) to smother the flames.

A59.) Tesla employee Bernard Tse and his team warned Elon Musk about these dangers in 2008 and they got fired and/or warned to "say nothing" by Musk.

A60.) Three top Tesla engineers died in a plane crash next to Tesla offices in San Carlos after two of them agreed to become whistle-blowers. Another whistle-blower has suggested they were killed in a "Boston Brakes" hit-job.

A61.) The DNC bosses, Congress people and federal executives own the stock in lithium, Solar and EV markets and use kickbacks from those markets (Especially via convoluted campaign finance laundering via Elon Musk) to finance the DNC.

A62.) The DNC bosses and Musk use character assassination as their main political tool against any member of the public who speaks out against their felony stock market scams and PizzaGate-like scandals. The Harvey Weinstein reports by Ronan Farrow show that they have teams of hired goons that they pay to destroy people's lives.

A63.) They use Black Cube, Mossad, In-Q-Tel, Stratfor, Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Media Matters, David Brock, Sid Blumenthal, NY Times, Google servers, Facebook servers, Podesta Group, Perkins Coie, Covington & Burling and a host of "media assassins".

A65.) Musk buddies: Gawker and Gizmodo Media set-up the attack stories and, in paid partnership with Google, Google kicks their attack links around the globe, in front of 8 Billion people, forever. Google locks the attack articles of its enemies on the front top search results of Google search results forever, on purpose! Google and Musk are partners-in-crime.

A66.) Larry Page steals technology for Google and Musk meets with Larry Page to advise him on which technologies to steal and how to bypass FEC laws.

A67.) Musk has exceeded FEC campaign finance limits by billions of dollars via â... in-kindâ... services.

A68.) Had the full scope of these facts been acted on during the Obama Administration, Barack Obama would have become the first modern sitting President to have been arrested in the White House. Barack Obama was fully aware of these schemes, crony payola deals and corruption crimes and discussed the implementation of these crimes, daily, with Rahm Emanuel, David Plouffe, Steven Rattner, Robert Gibbs, John Podesta, David

A70.) THIS is why the federal budget analysis reports are showing TRILLIONS of dollars of 'untraceable' losses from the United States Treasury from 2006 up to today!

A71.) THIS is why a large number of reporters, whistle-blowers and prosecutors suddenly, and mysteriously turned up dead!

A72.) The company that Elon Musk built to usher in the electric-car future might not have enough cash to make it through the calendar year.

A73.) Tesla again fell far short of its own production targets for the mass-market Model 3 sedan A74.) Another person died in a crash involving its assisted-driving feature.

A75.) Musk entered into a public dispute with federal safety regulators.

A76.) Tesla's once high-flying stock, buffeted by a downgrade from credit analysts, has dropped 24 percent from its peak in September.

A77.) No one has raised or spent money the way Elon Musk has; Nor has any other chief executive officer of a public company made a bankruptcy joke on Twitter at a time when so much seemed to be unraveling.

A78.) Tesla is going through money so fast that, without additional financing, there is now a genuine risk that the 15-year-old company could run out of cash in 2018. The company burns through more than $6,500 every minute, according to data compiled by Bloomberg. Free cash flow... the amount of cash a company generates after accounting for capital expenditures... has been negative for five consecutive quarters. That will be a key figure to watch when Tesla reports earnings May 2. Read the full story here: <https://www.bloomberg.com/graphics/2018-tesla-burns-cash/> A79.) In years to come, we will all look back and wonder how so many people were taken in by this shyster, who makes Enron look honest.

A80.) One of Tesla's greatest strengths is its ability to monetize the patience and goodwill of its customers and loyal fans. The company is sitting on a staggering $854 million in customer deposits as of the end of 2017.

A81.) Since Tesla sells its products direct to consumers, without relying on a dealer network, customer deposits are cash payments that essentially serve as interest-free loans... and these loans can stretch on for years. If Tesla were to go bankrupt, those deposit holders would likely be wiped out.

A82.) Tesla is holding customer deposits for two vehicles that aren't even in production yet: an electric Tesla Semi ($20,000 deposit) and a next-generation Roadster (either $50,000 down or the $250,000 retail price paid up front to reserve a limited edition). Even customers interested in installing an array of solar roof panels or the company's Powerwall home battery must hand over $1,000 to place an order.

A83.) Tesla doesn't break out deposit numbers by car, but the vast majority comes from $1,000 reservations for the Model 3. When Musk first introduced the lower-priced sedan in March 2016, fans stood in long lines at Tesla stores. Two years later, the slower-than-expected pace of production means that most of the more than 400,000 reservation holders are still waiting. And new people appear to be joining the queue: As of April, the company reported a... net Model 3 reservations remained stable.a...

A84.) Thereâ... s an additional source of free money from loyal believers: An unknown number of customers have paid up for vehicle featuresâ... $3,000 for â... Full Self Drivingâ... capability, for exampleâ... that Tesla thus far hasnâ... t figured out or released to anyone.

A85.) Elon Musk cooked the books by emailing interested sales prospects and asked them to put a deposit down before each quarter ended so he could book their tiny deposits as fully transacted $60K+ "sales" before each quarter closed.

A86.) Elon Musk and SpaceX are being sued by multiple employees for "lying about safety standards, safety records" and deadly safety defects.

A87.) The Elon Musk Tesla Money Laundering Board Of Directors is as full of fraud and corruption as Musk. Birds of a feather stick together and the Jurvetson, Draper, Musk, et al; clan of corruption runs deep. The Board of Directors can't operate their scam without the whole pack of thieves and liars in place. An outsider will break theirs swamp of tax evasion, Dark Money political bribes, off-shore cash, self-dealing, book-cooking, real estate fraud, expense padding and other nefarious deeds.

A88.) Dianne Feinstein's family member: Herb Newman of Sausalito, California's HR firm: Newman Search (415 332-8425) has a company as of 1972 with the sole purpose of setting up investment bank deals with the Peopleâ... s Republic of China. Feinstein arranged for Newman to provide the staffing for Tesla and Solyndra. Dianne Feinstein has been under investigation for spy activities with China and her senior aide was arrested as a Chinese top spy. In 1973 Mr. Newman arrived in Canton at the invitation of the Chinese Council for the Promotion of International Trade. (CCPIT). He and his company MVTC were one of fifty businesses to be invited to the Canton Trade Fair held in Kwangchow China. In 1978 Mr. Newman founded China Investments and in partnership with California Trade Delegations both companies as members of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce began taking US Corporations to China. Mr. Newman along with one of his associates at the time Mr. Darryl Schoon helped organize Senator Dianne Feinstein's first trip to China in conjunction with the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Herb Newman, Mart Bailey and Feinstein's Husband; Dick Blum are on intelligence agency watch-lists, and under electronic surveillance, for potentially corrupt deals with China, Tesla and Solyndra.

A89.) Dianne Feinstein's husband owns CBRE which owns the real estate contracts for both Tesla and Solyndra.

A90.) Dianne Feinstein's family owns interests in the construction companies hired by both Tesla and Solyndra.

A91.) Dianne Feinstein had her staff warn other California businesses away from using the NUMMI car factory in order to protect the real estate deal for both Tesla and CBRE, which is owned by her husband.

A92.) Tesla began real estate deals in multiple states and then cancelled them at the last minute, which got them sued for fraud and charged with "lying" to different communities. They started, and then pulled out of these different building (San Jose, Southern California, New Mexico, Etc.) deals, because CBRE and Feinstein were trying to leverage real estate profit exploitation using taxpayer funding.

A93.) Panasonic and Tesla have known for decades that the Panasonic 18650 batteries used in the Tesla suffer from multiple chemistry degradation defects which will almost always make them eventually explode or "go thermal". The defects include: 1.) LENR activation, 2.) Dendrite lengthening, 3.) Particle congealing, 4.) Chemistry evolution and other defects. The Tesla projects is, essentially, a failed product product dumping effort of a failed and dangerous battery product.

A94.) Elon Musk has demanded that his employees sign "loyalty pledges", "vows" and engage in Omerta's in order to keep the corruption details of Tesla from being exposed to the public.

A95.) Tesla insider Antonio Gracias is the mob boss insider at Tesla who arranges media hit-jobs on those who displease Musk.

A96.) The NHTSB has issued requests to Tesla for safety tests and data that Tesla never complied with. Instead, Tesla paid bribes, which were referred to as "fees" to avoid having to complete those tests. An independent group of outside investigators issued a damning safety report to the NHTSB demanding that Tesla be compelled to produce the safety tests in 2010 but Obama appointed NHTSB executives buried the report and protected Tesla in order to keep the connection between Obama's funding and Tesla protected. NHTSB boss: Strickland, an Obama insider, was confronted with this in Washington, DC and resigned from his job 48 hours later. NHTSB has still not acted on the severe Tesla safety defects that have been reported since 2009.

A97.) An SEC investigation of Musk uncovered horrific evidence of Musk corruption but the SEC could not report or act on it because Obama congressional bosses and lobbyists got the SEC investigation "limited" to only examine a single Twitter "Tweet" from Musk.

A98.) Elon Musk is protected by top DOJ, SEC, CFTC, FEC and other Obama left-over staff as well as 45 U.S. Senators and top Federal Reserve members and Goldman Sachs, who live in terror that exposure of the entire Elon Musk financial food-chain will topple the entire DNC Dark Money payola scam. This is the reason that Tesla can get away with so much obvious and overt corruption and still continue operations. Tesla Motors book-cooking, financial frauds and political payola conduits, if fully revealed, would change the course of political influence in America.

A99.) Elon Musk has been sued by a man that Musk called a "Pedo", yet Musk's own father has been accused of child sex abuse, racism and, indeed, got his own daughter pregnant!

A100.) Elon Musk's mother has been accused of being a "self-indulgent trophy wife" who Musk was trained by to be an arrogant elitist. Her hatred of black people was imbued on Musk who has been sued by black people at his company for "running a racist culture".

A101.) Elon Musk divorced the same woman twice because she knew his dirty little secret and threatened to out him if he did not keep the deal going. She was hired to "act" as his wife.

A102.) Musical artist Iggy Azalea was at a Musk Party, with other friends, who captured Elon Musk on video on drugs and in weird sex acts. Musk had Iggy's camera stolen at the party to hie the evidence but he did not get the other cameras and did not realize that some of those cameras placed their images and videos directly on the Cloud, where hackers acquired them.

A103.) With cover-up help from Eric Holder, Steven Chu, Obama, Valarie Jarret, DNC FBI agents, Perkins Coie, Covington and Burling, Wilson Sonsini, etc; sociopath Musk actually believes he is "untouchable" and that he can get away with anything. His downfall will be the same downfall of every narcissist sociopath oligarch throughout all of recorded history.

A104.) Elon Musk is a drug addict. A simple urine and blood test proves it. Musk's downfall and the downfall of John DeLorean are seeming to align.

Who is violating the law protecting Tesla by withholding investigations and prosecutions?

Why are they allowing American citizens to continue to die from the 1.) "sudden acceleration electronics defect"; 2.) "The failed Auto-pilot electronics defect"3.) "The deteriorating and deadly lithium ion batteries" and 4.) numerous other defects widely documented in the news media and filed lawsuits?

-----

By Former Tesla Staff

You may have run across Musk's self promoting, narcissistic, multi-billion dollar, self-aggrandizing PR hype but here is the other side of the coin. We know these facts from personal interaction with Musk, his companies and his politicians. Everything in this letter can be proven in a jury trial, Congressional hearings or live TV debates. Musk will do anything to keep this information from getting out but... it is too late for him! While this may sound like a bad Hollywood movie script. It all really happened and there is now massive hard copy evidence to prove it.

Elon Musk exists because he bribed DNC politicians including Obama, Clinton and Senators Feinstein, Reid, Boxer, Harris, Spier and Pelosi to give him free taxpayer cash and government resources from the Department of Energy and the California political tax pool. This is proven when you follow-the-money and the insider trading, stock ownership and crony payola kick-backs.

The Energy Dept (DOE) has been covering-up organized crime activities at DOE in which DOE funds are being used as a slush-fund to pay off DNC campaign financiers and to pay for CIA/GPS Fusion-Class attacks on Silicon Valley business competitors. The deal was: Obama funds Tesla, Musk conduits campaign funds to Obama, top Obama staff profit off of insider Musk stocks.

Elon Musk is a criminal, a mobster, an asshole, a balding fake-hair wearing, plastic surgery-addicted, bi-sexual douchebag, woman-abusing, sex addicted, tax evader. We can put this in writing because all of those identifications regarding Musk can be proven in court and are documented in existing lawsuits and news stories.

Musk exploits poor people and child slaves in the Congo and Afghanistan to mine his lithium and Cobalt. Look up this phrase on the top search engines: "child labor electric car batteries" .

Musk spends billions per year to hire Russian trolls, fake blogger fan-boys and buy fake news self-glory look-at-me articles about himself. Musk thinks he is the 'Jesus' of Silicon Valley and he will do anything to make the public think so. Musk is insecure because his father was abusive and his trophy wife... Mother is overbearing so he developed sociopath-like mental issues. Musk has been professionally diagnosed as a 'psychotic narcissist. He publicly stated on an investor call that he uses drugs and alcohol to get through the night. We have the tapes.

Musk relies on Google and the DNC Main Stream News (MSN) to hide bad news about him. Fake News manipulator Google is run by Larry Page. Larry is Musk's investor and bromance â... Butt buddyâ... . They share an apartment. Musk uses massive numbers of shell companies and trust funds to self-deal, evade the law and hide his bribes and stock market insider trading. His brother ran Solar City and is now under federal investigation for securities fraud.

A huge number of Tesla drivers have been killed; pedestrians and oncoming drivers have also been killed, and Musk covers it up.

The DNC and the MSM refuse to allow any articles about Musk's crimes to be printed because they benefit from Musk's crimes. VCâ... s Tim Draper and Steve Jurvetson are so fanatical about not being embarrassed from a Tesla bankruptcy that they will pump the TSLA stock and threaten anybody who might disclose the Musk misdeeds. Peter Thiel, a Musk â... boyfriendâ... also protects Musk. Musk, and his cronies, use Palantir, Google and related software to scan the entire internet every few minutes for any occurrence of the words: â... Muskâ... , â... Teslaâ... or â... Tesla Fireâ... . They send trolls and fake bloggers (Many of them Russian) to put pro-Musk comments on the comments section of any blogs or articles discussing those topics and try to flood out the truth about Musk. In EVERY blog that you read that mentions 'Musk', at least 1/3 of the comments have been placed there by Musk's paid shills. There are no â... Tesla Fan Boysâ... . All of the fanatic Tesla comments on the internet are Muskâ... s, Thielâ... s, Jurvetsonâ... s and Draperâ... s fake fanboy trolls. Musk, himself, stays up late at night pretending to be a â... Tesla Fan Boyâ... on blogs. Main Stream News organizations who refuse to cover the story reveal themselves as shills and are then targeted for bankruptcy (ie: Time, Gawker, etc.) because they serve no public service.

The Silicon Valley Mafia promotes Musk as a "Tech God" leader but, in reality Musk is the same kind of "Leader" as Charles Manson, Jim Jones, David Koresh, Swami Rajneesh and Al Capone. His own people have sued him for fraud and lies once they realized that Musk-ism and Scientology had so much in common.

The 'Silicon Valley Mafia; cartel of frat boy sociopath venture capitalists like Steve Jurvetson, Tim Draper, Eric Schmidt, et al; threaten those who do not support the cult of Tesla or their political candidates.

Musk holds the record for getting sued for fraud by his investors, wives, former partners, employees, suppliers and co-founders. Elon Musk has gone out of his way to hire hundreds of ex-CIA and In-Q-Tel staff and assign them to "dirty tricks teams" to attack his competitors and elected officials who Musk hates.

Musk and his culture are being sued for abuse to women and blacks and the Unions hate him for lying to them. <https://stopelonfromfailingagain.com> reveals even more Musk lies.

Musk never founded his companies. He took Tesla away from the founder: Marty, in a hostile take-over!

Musk's "Starlink" satellites are domestic spy and political manipulation tools - never get your internet from anything SpaceX has launched. SpaceX is entirely a domestic spy operation. Musk's "Mars" scheme is just a PR distraction.

The same kind of EMF radiation proven to cause cancer from cell phones exists in massive amounts in a Tesla.

Musk can't fix a car or build a rocket and has almost no mechanical skills.

If you pull a report of every VIN# of every Tesla ever built and cross reference that with insurance, repair and lawsuit records you will find that the "per volume" fire, crash, death and defect rate is THE WORST of any car maker in history! Musk's lobbyists have bribed DOT and NHTSA to stall safety inspections. NO COMPLETE UNCOMPROMISING SAFETY REPORT ON TESLA CARS HAS EVER BEEN PUBLISHED but we have a copy of a hushed up report that would put Tesla out of business. Musk's 'Autopilot' system is a scam to get government cash BUT IT NEVER WORKS. The Tesla 'Autopilot' has crashed into police cars, pedestrians, swamps and driven owners over cliffs.

Musk is a lying con artist and partners with Goldman Sachs to rig the stock market. Sachs has a dedicated team of 18 men who rig stocks and valuation bumps for Musk. The "Silk Road" Cocaine and Murder-For-Hire website was created at Musk's SpaceX and Musk's In-Q-Tel staff ran two transport planes filled with drugs; listed as "Cocaine 1" on FAA records.

Over 1000 witnesses can prove every one of those claims in any live televised Congressional hearing! Senators Dianne Feinstein, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris and their associates own the stock in Tesla Motors and/or it's suppliers and mining companies. That is why they criminally help cover-up investigations of Tesla! All of this was reported, in writing, to James Comey, Patricia Rich and David Johnson at the FBI. Tesla and Solyndra sit on the same land and share staff, contracts and lobbying. California politicians own parts of both.

Why aren't all of those parties in prison if it is so easy to prove the crime? Think back to recent history: the heads of the Department of Energy, the FBI, The DOJ and the U.S. Attorney General were kicked out of their jobs for corruption. THIS was the corruption they were doing. They all knew about this crime but they were covering it up.

Musk took over Tesla Motors in a hostile take-over in order to exploit lithium, cobalt and other mining corruption deals for his business partners. Let's take a look at the lithium in Musk's horribly miss-engineered lithium ion batteries:

His batteries cause wars in the Congo, Afghanistan and Bolivia from the corrupt mining deals involved with mining lithium and cobalt. Lithium ion batteries are insider trading-owned by ex-CIA boss Woolsey and DOE Boss Chu. Lithium ion batteries excrete chemicals that mutate fetuses when they burn; destroy your brain, lungs and nervous system when they burn; kill the factory workers who make them; cause Panasonic to be one of the most corrupt companies in the world; poison the Earth when disposed of; can't be extinguished by firemen; poison firemen when they burn; are based on criminally corrupt mining schemes like URANIUM ONE; Have over 61 toxic chemicals in them; come from an industry that spends billions on internet shills and trolls used to say all other forms of energy; and are insider-trading owned by corrupt U.S. Senators who are running a SAFETY COVER-UP about their dangers.

Apple products with lithium ion batteries have been exploding and setting people on fire. Over time the chemical dendrites, or deposits, inside each battery grow worse and increase the chances of explosion as they age - LITHIUM ION BATTERIES BECOME MORE AND MORE LIKELY TO EXPLODE AS TIME GOES ON AND AS THEY AGE. This is not a theory. This is a scientific fact. That is why you hear about more and more lithium batteries catching fire and blowing up. Additionally, scientists also speculate that the increasing presence of low energy nuclear background energy and wifi energy in the environment is making lithium ion batteries explode more often lately. This theory is upheld by the increasing number of FAA reports about commercial airline cabins suddenly filling up with toxic smoke as some lithium ion battery explodes in someones overhead luggage. As commercial jets go higher they lose the protection of the atmosphere and are subjected to more gamma (and other) radiation from overhead. This makes the already unstable lithium ion batteries on board blow up.

Tesla owner's had had more DUI's, abuse filings in divorce proceedings and crashes than any other car maker PER VOLUME. This makes Tesla the #1 car for douche bags and scummy people.

Tesla's own federal patent filing records confirm that Tesla batteries are as dangerous as this document reports.

"Bad Guys" have figured out how to make them explode remotely in devices by making the device electronics cause the batteries to overload. The dangers of lithium ion batteries are hidden by CNN and Main Stream News (MSN) because pretty much only the DNC people profit from them and the DNC folks control CNN and the MSN. George Soros owns part of Tesla Motors so that Soros can help conduit DNC cash.

The Obama Administration promised Silicon Valley oligarchs the market monopoly on lithium ion batteries and the sabotage of fuel cells in exchange for campaign financing and search engine rigging; United States Senators that are supposed to protect us from these deadly products own the stock market assets of them so they protect them and stop the FDA, OSHA, DOT & NHTSA from outlawing them. There have been thousands of defect reports filed on Tesla cars.

Tom Steyer is a notorious DNC financier. His partner, Margaret Sullivan ran, the federal USAID agency, USAID sent all of the DNC campaign financiers in Silicon Valley a federal â... reportâ... from USAID that said there was â... A TRILLION DOLLARS OF LITHIUM IN AFGHANISTANâ... and promised to give those lithium mines, EXCLUSIVELY, to the Silicon Valley venture capitalists if they funded and web search manipulated the election for Obama to take over the White House. We have the documents proving this. In other words, a re-up of the Afghan War was caused by Elon Musk and it killed American soldiers so that Musk could buy more mansions and trophy wives.

If a Tesla battery gets wet it will explode and cause all of the other batteries to explode in a "cascade of explosions". Water makes Tesla batteries explode. In an accident, when a Tesla rolls over, molten metal & plastic can drip on & burn the occupants alive and seal them in molten metal.

Alkaline, NiCAD and hundreds of other battery chemistries DO NOT have all of these problems but Lithium Ion batteries get a monopoly because of politician insider trading owner-ships.

Tesla Motors has caused far more deaths and injuries than the world generally knows about. A recent fire on U.S. Highway 101 near Mountain View, CA, burned the driver alive and killed him. In Florida two kids died in a Tesla, burned alive, screaming in agony. A man died in agony in a Tesla crash in Malibu that set Malibu Canyon on fire. A young woman, at the start of life, and her boyfriend were burned alive in their crashed Tesla. There are many more deaths and crashes than you have seen in the Main Stream News (MSN) The deaths and the cover-ups are endless.

Senators Dianne Feinstein, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi, Kamala Harris and their associates own the stock in Tesla Motors and/or it's suppliers and mining companies and they cover-up and halt investigations and laws designed to save the public. They, and their crony's, spend over $1B a year to shill and troll hype about lithium ion batteries and cover-up the dangers. Lithium ion EVs are more prone to battery fires. Experts say that their lithium-ion batteries can fuel hotter fires that release toxic fumes and are more difficult to put out. Lithium ion fires keep reigniting which explains why it takes so long and requires copious amounts of water or foam (it is an electric fire, after all) to smother the flames. Tesla employee Bernard Tse and his team warned Elon Musk about these dangers in 2008 and they got fired and/or warned to "say nothing" by Musk. Three top Tesla engineers died in a plane crash next to Tesla offices in San Carlos after two of them agreed to become whistle-blowers.

The DNC bosses, Congress people and federal executives own the stock in lithium, Solar and EV markets and use kickbacks from those markets (Especially via convoluted campaign finance laundering via Elon Musk) to finance the DNC.

The DNC bosses and Musk use character assassination as their main political tool against any member of the public who speaks out against their felony stock market scams and PizzaGate-like scandals. The Harvey Weinstein reports by Ronan Farrow show that they have teams of hired goons that they pay to destroy people's lives.

They use Black Cube, Mossad, In-Q-Tel, Stratfor, Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Media Matters, David Brock, Sid Blumenthal, NY Times, Google servers, Facebook servers, Podesta Group, Perkins Coie, Covington & Burling and a host of "media assassins".

Gawker and Gizmodo Media set-up the attack stories and, in paid partnership with Google, Google kicks their attack links around the globe, in front of 8 Billion people, forever. Google locks the attack articles of its enemies on the front top search results of Google search results forever, on purpose! Google and Musk are partners-in-crime. Larry Page steals technology for Google and Musk meets with Larry Page to advise him on which technologies to steal and how to bypass FEC laws. Musk has exceeded FEC campaign finance limits by billions of dollars via â... in-kindâ... services.

Had the full scope of these facts been acted on during the Obama Administration, Barack Obama would have become the first modern sitting President to have been arrested in the White House. Barack Obama was fully aware of these schemes, crony payola deals and corruption crimes and discussed the implementation of these crimes, daily, with Rahm Emanuel, David Plouffe, Steven Rattner, Robert Gibbs, John Podesta, David Axelrod, Eric Holder and Jay Carney in the Oval Office.

THIS corruption is what all of the big political scandals are about today!

THIS corruption involves TRILLIONS of dollars of corrupt mining deals, automotive and energy monopolies!

THIS is why the federal budget analysis reports are showing TRILLIONS of dollars of 'untraceable' losses from the United States Treasury from 2006 up to today!

THIS is why a large number of reporters, whistle-blowers and prosecutors suddenly, and mysteriously turned up dead!

THIS can all be proven in jury trial and in live televised Congressional hearings!

There is so much more to reveal but you get the picture.

This is all being covered up because top State and Federal officials are in on it, own the stock in it and are so deeply involved in it that they could go to Federal prison when this all comes out.

This is Part 1. There is more to be released. Show this document to the United States Senate and see what they say about all this..."

A complete guide to how Elon Musk has raised, and then spent, billions of dollars, mostly from your tax money and pension funds.

The company that Elon Musk built to usher in the electric-car future might not have enough cash to make it through the calendar year.

The anxieties that lurk beneath the tremendous ambition of Tesla Inc. moved into the forefront in recent weeks. The company again fell far short of its own production targets for the mass-market Model 3 sedan, another person died in a crash involving its assisted-driving feature and Musk entered into a public dispute with federal safety regulators. Tesla's once high-flying stock, buffeted by a downgrade from credit analysts, has dropped 24 percent from its peak in September.

There's a good reason to worry: No one has raised or spent money the way Elon Musk has. Nor has any other chief executive officer of a public company made a bankruptcy joke on Twitter at a time when so much seemed to be unraveling.

Tesla is going through money so fast that, without additional financing, there is now a genuine risk that the 15-year-old company could run out of cash in 2018. The company burns through more than $6,500 every minute, according to data compiled by Bloomberg. Free cash flow—the amount of cash a company generates after accounting for capital expenditures—has been negative for five consecutive quarters. That will be a key figure to watch when Tesla reports earnings May 2.

<https://www.bloomberg.com/graphics/2018-tesla-burns-cash/>

In years to come, we will all look back and wonder how so many people were taken in by this shyster, who makes Enron look honest.

A lot of Musk's money has been extracted from suckers, who think he is God's gift, as Bloomberg report:

One of Tesla's greatest strengths is its ability to monetize the patience and goodwill of its customers and loyal fans. The company is sitting on a staggering $854 million in customer deposits as of the end of 2017.

Since Tesla sells its products direct to consumers, without relying on a dealer network, customer deposits are cash payments that essentially serve as interest-free loans—and these loans can stretch on for years. If Tesla were to go bankrupt, those deposit holders would likely be wiped out.

Tesla is holding customer deposits for two vehicles that aren't even in production yet: an electric Tesla Semi ($20,000 deposit) and a next-generation Roadster (either $50,000 down or the $250,000 retail price paid up front to reserve a limited edition). Even customers interested in installing an array of solar roof panels or the company's Powerwall home battery must hand over $1,000 to place an order.

Tesla doesn't break out deposit numbers by car, but the vast majority comes from $1,000 reservations for the Model 3. When Musk first introduced the lower-priced sedan in March 2016, fans stood in long lines at Tesla stores. Two years later, the slower-than-expected pace of production means that most of the more than 400,000 reservation holders are still waiting. And new people appear to be joining the queue: As of April, the company reported a net Model 3 reservations remained stable.

There's an additional source of free money from loyal believers: An unknown number of customers have paid up for vehicle features—$3,000 for Full Self Driving capability, for example—that Tesla thus far hasn't figured out or released to anyone.

The consumer psychology that sees hundreds of thousands of people essentially extending an interest-free loan to a public company is unusual, to say the least. Consider the devotion of Bruce Sidlinger, a 60-year-old aerospace engineer who lives in Flagstaff, Arizona:

â... The morning after the Roadster was announced, I put a deposit down. Putting down $50,000 for a Roadster that wonâ... t be out for a few years is kind of like buying a bond that returns zero. Elon Musk is one of our planetâ... s great hopes. I would offer a kidney to him if he needed it.â...

Keep in mind that Sidlinger already owns both a Model S and a Model X. He drove across the country to Florida earlier this year in a car made by one Musk company so he could watch a rocket made by another Musk company take flight for the first time.

I think the phrase â... more money than senseâ... rather sums it up

Apple and Google also named in US lawsuit over Congolese child cobalt mining deaths for Elon Musk's Tesla Cars

A landmark legal case has been launched against the worldâ... s largest tech companies by Congolese families who say their children were killed or maimed while mining for cobalt used to power smartphones, laptops and electric cars, the Guardian can reveal. Apple, Google, Dell, Microsoft and Tesla have been named as defendants in a lawsuit filed in Washington DC by human rights firm International Rights Advocates on behalf of 14 parents and children from the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC). The lawsuit accuses the companies of aiding and abetting in the death and serious injury of children who they claim were working in cobalt mines in their supply chain. The families and injured children are seeking damages for forced labour and further compensation for unjust enrichment, negligent supervision and intentional infliction of emotional distress. It is the first time that any of the tech companies have faced such a legal challenge. Cobalt is essential to power the rechargeable lithium batteries used in millions of products sold by Apple, Google, Dell, Microsoft and Tesla every year. The insatiable demand for cobalt, driven by desire for cheap handheld technology, has tripled in the past five years and is expected to double again by the end of 2020. More than 60% of cobalt originates in DRC, one of the poorest and most unstable countries in the world. Aerial view of the Kasulo neighborhood of Kolwezi. In the first picture, taken May 2016, there are just residential houses. By May 2019, Congo DongFang International Mining (a subsidiary of chinese company Huayou Cobalt) have built a mining site, with a walled perimeter and processing buildings (in blue).

The pink tarps cover tunnels used for mining. The extraction of cobalt from DRC has been linked to human rights abuses, corruption, environmental destruction and child labour. The lawsuit argues that Apple, Google, Dell, Microsoft and Tesla all aided and abetted the mining companies that profited from the labour of children who were forced to work in dangerous conditions â€¦ conditions that ultimately led to death and serious injury. The families argue in the claim that their children were working illegally at mines owned by UK mining company Glencore. The court papers allege that cobalt from the Glencore-owned mines is sold to Umicore, a Brussels-based metal and mining trader, which then sells battery-grade cobalt to Apple, Google, Tesla, Microsoft and Dell.

Other plaintiffs in the court documents say they worked at mines owned by Zhejiang Huayou Cobalt, a major Chinese cobalt firm, which the lawsuit claims supplies Apple, Dell, and Microsoft and is likely to supply the other defendants.

In the court documents, the Congolese families describe how their children were driven by extreme poverty to seek work in large mining sites, where they claim they were paid as little as $2 (Â£1.50) a day for backbreaking and dangerous work digging for cobalt rocks with primitive tools in dark, underground tunnels.

The families claim that some of the children were killed in tunnel collapses while others were paralysed or suffered life-changing injuries from accidents.

I saw the unbearable grief inflicted on families by cobalt mining. I pray for change

Read more

Another child, referred to as John Doe 1, says that he started working in the mines when he was nine. The lawsuit claims that earlier this year, he was working as a human mule for Kamoto Copper Company, carrying bags of cobalt rocks for $0.75 a day, when he fell into a tunnel. After he was dragged out of the tunnel by fellow workers, he says he was left alone on the ground at the mining site until his parents heard about the accident and arrived to help him. He is now paralysed from the chest down and will never walk again.

Other families included in the claim say that their children were killed in tunnel collapses or suffered serious injuries such as smashed limbs and broken spines while crawling through tunnels or carrying heavy loads. The families say that none were paid any compensation for the deaths and injuries.

One of the central allegations in the lawsuit is that Apple, Google, Dell, Microsoft and Tesla were aware and had â€¦ specific knowledgeâ€¦ that the cobalt they use in their products is linked to child labour performed in hazardous conditions, and were complicit in the forced labour of the children.

The families argue in the court papers that all companies named as defendants entered into commercial â€¦ venturesâ€¦ with the mining companies operating in DRC, and all gained significant financial advantages from the widespread illegal mining of cobalt by children, which continues to enter global supply chains.

Children digging for cobalt near Lake Malo. Photograph: Siddharth Kara The court papers claim that Apple, Dell, Microsoft, Google and Tesla all have the authority and resources to supervise and regulate their cobalt supply chains and that their inability to do so contributed to the deaths and injuries suffered by their clients. A spokesperson for Glencore said: â€¦ Glencore notes the allegations contained in a US lawsuit filed on 15th December 2019.

â... Glencore supports and respects human rights in a manner consistent with the universal declaration of human rights.

â... Glencoreâ... s production of cobalt in the DRC is a by-product of our industrial copper production. Glencoreâ... s operations in the DRC do not purchase or process any artisanally mined ore.

â... Glencore does not tolerate any form of child, forced, or compulsory labour.â...

Huayou, Apple, Google, Dell, Microsoft and Tesla have also been approached for comment.

THE BOTTOM LINE ON ELON MUSK:

The facts are:

- That an organized crime program exists between Silicon Valley tech oligarchs, investment banks, U.S. Senators, government agency staff and White House staff to engage in these crimes.
- That public officials knowingly participate in these crimes by failing to report their associates who engage in these illicit actions and by hiring suppliers who operate these illicit activities.
- That the suspects manipulate government funds for their personal profiteering at the expense of domestic citizen taxpayers like us.
- That the suspects operate a vast stock market manipulation program, as a core function of their operations, and those illicit deeds function at the expense of the public to render unjust gain to public officials.
- That the suspects contract a known group of lobbyists, corrupt law firms, unethical CPA's, corrupt investment banks and specialized corruption services providers to attack, defame, physically harm, character assassinate, black-list and/or kill those they dislike and they harmed us with those acts.
- That the suspects operate an Epstein-like sex-trafficking network of prostitutes and sexual extortion activities and locations for the engagement of said activities and for the bribery of cohorts via sex workers.
- That the suspects engage in electronic attacks and manipulations including hacking, election manipulation, media censorship and internet search results manipulation in order to mask their schemes.
- That the suspects engage in Lois Lerner-like, SPYGATE-like, VA whistleblower-like reprisal and retribution attacks using government agencies like SSA, DOJ, FBI, LSC, HUD, HHS, DOE, Etc.

We demand that Elon Musk be arrested on RICO Racketeering, Anti-Trust, Tax Evasion, Bribery, and related charges!

What a twisted, raging, sick pervert, narcissist, vengeful, anti-competitive, monopolistic, Goldman Sachs sucking, hit-man hiring mobster!

--- The Musk empire has paid more bribes to politicians than almost any other modern entity. That is why no full investigation of the Musk scams has ever been completed.

---- Elon Musk, Larry Page, Steve Jurvetson and Jared Birchell hire Ex-CIA losers right after they are fired by the CIA, or directly from IN-Q-TEL or from Fusion GPS, Media Matters and other CYBER ASSASSIN KILL SERVICES. They send their hit men after competitors, reporters, ex-employees and whistle-blowers because they chose to CHEAT RATHER THAN COMPETE! ---- Elon Muskâ... s â... Twitter Purchaseâ... is just a scam to sell his Tesla stock without the SEC or his old investors noticing: THEY NOTICED!

---- Googleâ... s Eric Schmidt and Larry Page have a bromance relationship with Musk and use the global resources of Alphabet to hide any negative news about Musk assets. The 2008 Department of Energy Cleantech Crash proves that a federal agency was used as just one big slush-fund to pay-off political campaign financiers, operate insider-trading stocks and sabotage those financiers competitors using taxpayer-financed resources!

---- We have used private investigator, FBI resources and deep AI research to reveal that all government staff working on our application were getting quid-pro-quoâ... they were on the take. (Can anyone point out to us EVEN ONE person who was in the DOE/White House loop who was not working for, invested in, getting a future job from or other wise conflicted?) What do you do when The U.S. Government convinces you to invest millions of dollars, and your life, into one of their projects.

---- Then their project turns out to be a scam where they had covertly hard-wired the upside to a couple of Senatorâ... s and their campaign financier friends. The fix was in and the game was rigged to use a government program as a slush-fund for friends-with-benefits. We, and the public, got defrauded. Now the damages must be paid for, one way, or another.

---- Every one of the insiders who did get government funding got it in the exact same size and order as their covert political campaign funding and stock market bribes to the deciders. Chamath Palihapitiya and other Silicon Valley insiders have now exposed the fact that Greylock, Kleiner, etc. are just a VC Ponzi Scheme! in this whole mess.

---- Musk used crooked Senators to get his funds. Those Senators and government agency bosses were financed by, friends with, sleeping with, dating the staff of, holding stock market assets in, promised a revolving door job or government service contracts from, partying with, personal friends with, photographed at private events with, making profits by consulting for, exchanging emails with, business associates of or directed by; one of those business adversaries, or the Senators and politicians that those business adversaries pay campaign finances to, or supply political search engine manipulation services to.

--- Elon Musk is notorious for getting Department of Energy money by bribing public officials and placing his friends: Steven Chu, Matt Rogers, Steve Westly, Steve Spinnerâ... s â... special friendâ... , etc. on the staff of the Department of Energy and in the White House. We have FBI-class records, financial tracking, emails, stock market relay records and other forensic data that proves it.

---- We can swear, warrant, certify and prove these assertions in front of Congress in a live Congressional hearing or Civil Jury trial, given non-compromised legal backing. If you think you have bribed the same number of Senators, bought a President and taken over most of the Department of Energy like Musk didâ... go for it! In this day and age, with every citizen able to track every public figure, with FBI-quality databases, on their home computers, it might be a crash-and-burn but you are welcome to try.

---- Lithium metals, and other rare earth mining materials, are monopolized by Elon Musk and his Silicon Valley Cartel, in rare-earth corrupt mining scams. Lithium's widespread use in cars is hindered by a challenging obstacle: upon multiple charge-discharge cycles, fractal filaments called dendrites always grow through the electrolyte from the negative to the positive electrode and short-circuit the battery from the inside, thus guaranteeing that Tesla Cars will eventually all explode. Musk and Panasonic have known this since 2007 (They are dumping the batteries via Tesla) and have paid U.S. Senators, who own stock in Tesla, to cover it up.

---- The lithium fires and toxic vapors are a major safety concern because they have killed, poisoned and injured too many citizens. Musk gets away with his scams because he pays U.S. Senators bribes with stocks in his corporations and has a thousand crooked Goldman Sachs investment bankers selling his hair-brained schemes to your parents pension funds.

---- Tesla is known as the official car of douche-bags. The safety defect cover-ups on the Tesla are extreme. Musk's narcissistic trophy-wife mom and his extremist father (who got his young sister pregnant) are thought to be the cause of Musk's racism and sociopath behaviors.

---- Musk is the POSTER BOY OF WHITE ANTI-BLACK PRIVILEGE

---- He is the #1 crony capitalist government mooch in America and has received billions of dollars of your tax money to help him buy his mansions, starlets and sex parties.

---- He pays women for sex and pays other women not to disclose that he tried to sexually extort them. He paid Amber Heard at least $500K for sex, paid his stewardess $250K to report his sex abuse of her, and has a provider service via a layer of insiders.

---- His cars and rockets blow up, his tunnels are unsafe, his satellites spy on consumers and his brain chip company tortures small animals. He swiped all of his technology from someone else and has never come up with his own inventions.

---- Space-X is just a domestic spying company. Don't buy Musk's bullshit about Space-X doing any good deeds. Everything Space-X launches is to spy on the poor folks on the ground and monitor their internet. Also, Musk's Neuralink company tortures small animals to try out Musk's pseudo-science mind-reading chips.

---- There are hundreds of millions of people in America. The same 120 of them are all involved in operating the same crimes and corruption including: the Sony Pictures corruption; the Afghanistan rare earth mine scandals operated through The Energy Department political slush fund that involves the lithium battery cover-ups (headed by Elon Musk); the Big Tech Brotopia rape, sex trafficking, bribery, exclusionism, racism and misogyny issues they were taught at Stanford University; The Facebook Meta Google Alphabet Netflix, et al, coordinated news manipulation and domestic spying that they engage in; the hiring of Fusion GPS Black Cube Gizmodo/Gawker assassins; the destruction of the housing market by their mass real estate manipulations; patent theft and industrial espionage; and the bribery of almost every politician all the way up to the Oval Office.

---- So, while the categories covered in this investigation may seem diverse. They are connected through an enterprise of criminality and illicit, coordinated operations. We list, by name, the 120 most complicit individuals organizing these crimes, in the evidence documents already submitted to the FBI, FINCEN, DOJ, FTC, SEC, FEC, Congress, InterPol and other authorities. Digital financial tracking of those persons and all of their family members should be assumed to have been under way for some time. Wire-taps and device taps of those persons and all of their family members should be assumed to have been under way for some time.

However, some of these flaws have seemingly been ignored or swept away from the public eye. There are some things that are never openly admitted or speculated about Tesla vehicles, yet we harshly criticize run-of-the-mill autos with ease. Out of fairnessâ... and for potential buyers, necessityâ... we should take a look at a few of the complaints that current owners have raised about these beloved EVs.*

---- AWFUL BUILD QUALITY: If you have ever experienced difficulties with a Tesla, firsthand, then you probably know better than anyone how pricey repairs can become if theyâ... re not covered by a warranty or insurance. This explains why insurance premiums are so high for these vehicles. However, the truth of the matter is that even if youâ... re not paying to replace those parts, they are much poorer quality than weâ... re all led to believe. If Teslaâ... s parts were, in fact, of great quality, then we wouldnâ... t have freak issues such as bolts rusting off after a mere few years of ownership, or falcon doors constantly misaligning themselves. Not everything on a Tesla is inherently low-quality, but Tesla is certainly cutting corners. The durability shows in the longevity of the parts and by how early rattling, squeaking, and other common problems seem to surface.

---- HORRIBLE SPEEDOMETER PLACEMENT: The golden rule weâ... re all taught in driving school is to keep your eyes on the road. This is, obviously, why police have been cracking down on drivers who use handheld electronic devices while driving. You would expect that a carmaker would probably build a car with safety in mind and take things like this into consideration during the design process. But technology comes first for Tesla. Their (controversial) touchscreen is also the home for the speedometer, which on the edge of the driverâ... s peripheral vision, which means that they have to look away from the road in order to see what speed theyâ... re going. Itâ... s not necessarily the biggest problem, at least in hindsight, but it can become a dangerous feature for the unsuspecting.

Still, the feature is shared with the Mini Cooper, including the electric Mini Cooper SE.

---- INSANELY EXPENSIVE TO REPAIR: Part of the appeal of buying something expensive is the expectation that it will save you money in the future. But Tesla has earned a spot in the hall of fame for overpriced vehicles, and that doesn't just apply to the sticker price but also takes into account all the maintenance costs that plague owners. Even though the Tesla doesn't need oil changes, spark plug replacements, or oil filters, Tesla recommends drivers invest in their maintenance plans that include a thorough inspection of the vehicle every 12,000 miles. The prices vary based on the year and model of the car, as well as which specific plan the driver chooses, but standalone inspections range anywhere from $475 to $750 per visit (not including repairs). A four-year maintenance plan is around $2,500. Needless to say, you'll need to have a good chunk of change set aside for these evaluations. Issues extend to tires and poor suspension, and yes, we will certainly mention the battery.

---- EXTENSIVE STEERING FAILURES: It's true that Teslas tend to carry a bit of technological baggage with their state-of-the-art devices. Most of it is just annoying more than it is dangerous, but rest assured, Tesla has also managed to squeeze in a few mechanical problems as well. They've been much less common than the cosmetic flaws but can have life-threatening outcomes. A few new Tesla owners have experienced problems with the steering wheel locking up while turning. Not only will you see your life flash before your eyes, but you may be dismayed to find out that several weeks of repairs are typically involved since it's not an issue that Tesla has completely resolved. This is before we even bring to light the new "yolk" steering wheel in the Model S Plaid.

---- YOU CAN NEVER GET YOUR CAR BACK FROM THE SERVICE CENTERS: Speaking of car troubles, Tesla dealerships are so sparse that many owners are forced to plan out their trip to the service center much more thoroughly than the average driver would. Unfortunately, the plight with their new Tesla's can sometimes be uncharted territory for mechanics—this is a relatively new technology, after all—so it may take several days, and sometimes even weeks, before owners get to see their cars again. What's worse is that many of these technical difficulties aren't fully resolved during the first visit. Like we've said before, there isn't much knowledge on electric vehicles and technicians may not be as familiar with the problems that plague these vehicles, primarily because a Tesla operates more like a computer than it does an old gas guzzler.

---- TESLA CARS SPY ON YOU: Teslas are incredibly connected... to the point that they're able to (potentially) predict when you plan to drive them and what routes. Elon hasn't been known for respecting privacy and his first company, PayPal, has even been in lawsuits for it. All respect to his technological advancement, but consider what a man creating a chip for your brain is trying to do with your car! Face recognition, video sharing with or without consent, and Tesla monitoring your driving history and patterns are all open for discussion and unless you dig really deep or have a law degree, you might not be safe. If you're a criminal or just worry about being watched, this is one of the last bit of tech pieces you would want. Some have even raised red flags over issues of hacking Teslas for a new world of issues.

---- THE EMERGENCY RELEASE WILL SCREW YOU: It may seem like a nitpick (and it is) but the terrible placement of the emergency handle is also a potential threat to the car and therefore, it's a necessary point to bring up. Since Tesla's vehicles don't have your average door handle and everything in the car is electric, the manufacturer was witty enough to install an emergency handle on the interior to prevent passengers from getting trapped inside. There's just one little flaw with this idea: the placement. Since new passengers aren't used to the high-tech vehicle, they tend to go for the emergency handle instead of using the standard electric button that opens the door. This is an honest mistake since the emergency handle is near where a door handle normally would be, but if it's pulled too often it can and will crack the window. And that's the last thing any Tesla owner wants to deal with.

---- DEADLY BLIND SPOTS: Another feature that is seen in many modern-day vehicles (electric or not) is blind-spot detection. This is a nice touch to have and is practically expected on a high-end vehicle these days. The only thing that separates Tesla from other manufacturers that are employing blind-spot detection is the placement of the detector. Similar to the difficulty that people have seeing the speedometer, the blind-spot detection doesn't alert drivers of a threat on the side-view mirrors like most vehicles do. Instead, a notice pops up on the touchscreen. A lot of people have something against the touchscreen and, while we don't find it to be all bad, there are instances such as this one when it's understandable why it can become a nuisance. If every feature is integrated into the touchscreen, it seems like the entire car revolves around a mounted iPad.

---- BAD COSMETIC DETAILS: Have you ever bought something nice only to have it experience defects shortly after? If you've put a good amount of cash into it, it's not only inconvenient but also extremely frustrating. Proud Tesla owners have been extremely let down to find that their overpriced electric vehicle has scratches all over their car and bulges in the windshield. These unfortunate Teslas were born with cosmetic defects from the factory. Clearly, the newbie manufacturer hasn't been able to get the assembly process down yet. Waiting out the initial wave of manufacturer defects would be wiser than jumping on a waiting list for the latest and greatest model.

---- ZERO FUTURE PROTECTION: Except Tesla and Rivian, there have been no major car manufacturers to emerge in almost 100 years. Naturally, this doesn't include off-shoot luxury brands or foreign brands that were bought out. Tesla respectably came from the ground-up in the 21st century on its own. That being said, it doesn't have a long carefully-recorded history of reliability, work ethic, or quality control, and it shows hard. Besides body gaps that range from dog doors to atomic fusion, the real longevity of a Tesla is almost entirely unknown. The used market for a Tesla is not great to begin with, but with the emergence of high battery replacement costs, how the old Teslas hold up is a big fat question mark. New rules and restrictions like to speed or features can be turned off without your consent remotely at the whim of the bureaucrats.

---- VERY UNSAFE WHEEL DESIGN: There are some things that you never know about a car until you personally own it. And, to be fair, owners tend to critique their own cars harshly. A common nitpick with the Tesla Model 3 is the obnoxious fact that it comes with all-terrain (otherwise known as, "all season") tires. Many Model 3 owners dislike this because they want more performance-oriented tires. Not to say that it's not a smooth ride... it has received incredible reception for that alone... but if it was included with performance tires, the experience could be enhanced tremendously. The shared belief among many owners (specifically, those who don't need winter tires) is that all-terrain tires should be something that a buyer can purchase on their own if they happen to need them.

---- BATTERY REPLACEMENT IS A NIGHTMARE: Along with the sketchy aspect of having an electric vehicle, there's also a major setback on the cost to repair it as well. While a charge may not be so pricey, the cost to replace any of the parts on a Tesla can really become a burden. For instance, if you had to buy a new battery for a Model 3, the base would cost around $9,500 (on the low end) and the extended-range battery would come close to $16k. Sadly, that's as much as a used car (maybe even a few). There's a domino effect with these overpriced repairs as well, as the price to insure a Tesla tends to be more than the average vehicle. The high rate of accidents in Teslas is partly to blame, but their expensive repairs are no help.

---- THERE ARE NO DEALERSHIPS AROUND TO HELP YOU: Tesla has just recently begun opening service centers in areas with a large amount of foot traffic, but the idea of dealerships is a concept of the past for Tesla. Following a completely different business model from the traditional car manufacturers, Tesla sells its cars directly to its customers through their own small, intimate stores. This allows Tesla to educate the customers on what exactly they're getting into with an electric vehicle and to choose precisely how they'd like their car to look. Of course, it takes months for customers' vehicles to be delivered, but this still allows them to get exactly what they want. It also means that Tesla makes money off of their cars, while traditional dealerships make money from their service departments. The drawback for a Tesla owner is that these are located, largely, in metropolitan areas and so are the service centers. Unlike traditional dealerships that are in every town, Tesla selects store and service center locations based on foot traffic.

---- TESLA STILL COSTS MORE THAN A GAS CAR AND IS WORSE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT: Even though Tesla has managed to bring down the customer's cost of a vehicle by cutting out dealerships altogether, they're still pretty pricey. Many of Tesla's major competitors have a bit of an edge by offering vehicles that aren't 100% electric, which is an appealing point for many buyers, but they're also less expensive. The base Chevy Volt, for instance, is cheaper than Tesla's base Model 3. Less people are as willing to go for the Model S purely because they have no desire to have an electric vehicle that revolves around performance. For many, the price just isn't worth it, not when the battery will need to be replaced in a matter of a few years (depending on use). This goes hand-in-hand with the cost of Tesla's parts because consumers don't want to spend a lot of money on a car that will also be pricey to fix down the road.

---- TESLA'S AUTOPILOT CAN KILL YOU: Tesla's autopilot has been known to get people in trouble, napping, reading, and working on the freeway. The fact is, there's still no legal protection for someone to sit down and be driven away. Though Tesla gets close with tools like "tow mode," allowing for an empty car to follow another Tesla with some limitations. Legally you still need to keep your hands on the wheels and be alert, despite the statistically safer autopilot driving and advancements in technology. While a truly autonomous car would open up a new world; safe transport for the elderly, fewer fatalities, easier commutes, and the like, we may be a few major traffic law changes away from that world, and Tesla can't change that yet.

---- COLD WEATHER KILLS YOUR TESLA: There are so many common glitches that go on with a Tesla that drivers have become paranoid of serious troubles, especially anything involving that precious battery. If you haven't tested one out in cold weather, don't be alarmed at that slow acceleration, it's normal. Yep. If you buy a $35,000 (and up!) vehicle, you can expect that the cold air will affect the battery just like it would any other vehicle. But cold prevents the battery from regenerating as quickly as it typically would, which limits the driver's ability to move faster. It sounds simple in retrospect, but it can be a frightening few minutes for a Tesla owner to discover their car is having trouble moving quickly.

---- ACCELERATION SURGE DEFECTS WILL KILL YOU: Contrary to what Elon Musk has claimed on social media, Tesla has been accused of having a fatality rate that's more than triple what you see in luxury vehicles. Musk claims that Tesla's are the safest vehicles on the road, which is either an ill-researched claim or a blatant lie on his part. Since his stats are based on vehicle miles (rather than vehicle years) it leads you to an inaccurate conclusion, and we don't actually know how many miles these vehicles have traveled, and this also leaves out passengers. After thorough research, many of the Tesla accidents weren't even properly coded, meaning that Musk's claim leaves out several accidents within the US and other countries (such as China) that have higher accident rates. Really, this could all be because of accident-prone drunk Tesla owners who are, mostly, drunk douche bags.

---- CONSTANT RATTLING NOISES: The little things in life shouldn't bother you, but when it's an incessant rattling noise in your brand-new luxury car, those little things can be difficult to ignore. Thereâ... s a common problem with Teslas experiencing rattling in several areas of the cars. Owners have taken their cars to service centers numerous times for this issue but a very rare few have seen the annoyance resolved. In fact, a few have even documented their experience online, while some have even received their car from the service center only to discover that the rattle has not gone away plus there is a new one! It shouldnâ... t be blown out of proportion, but the fact of the matter is that consumers have put a lot of their money into these cars and they expect a decent level of quality so if problems occur then some resolutions would be nice.

---- TESLA SOLAR STUFF IS NEVER IN STOCK: Lesser known than Teslaâ... s famed electric vehicles is the Solar Roof and Powerwall. As the names imply, these are solar panels that store energy that is even cleaner for the car to run off of. Just two years into this accessory, though, sales have dropped over 70% from their peak. The Powerwall 2 is said to lose 70% of its efficiency after 10 years and solar tiles are close to $42 per square foot, which is part of why most consumers steer clear. Investors arenâ... t extremely pleased with the outcome of SolarCityâ... s products (which Musk has endorsed with open arms), but the signs were written on the walls, as it were. If solar panels were cheap enough for everyone to afford, wouldnâ... t we all have them on our houses? Since they donâ... t even have a guaranteed longevity, consumers generally feel that the Powerwall and Solar Roof are simply not worth it. In the home solar markets, even if consumers beg for the still "available" Powerall or new shingle-replacing solar roof, it's almost guaranteed they won't be able to find or get any of them anywhere!

---- TESLA CUSTOMER SUPPORT JUST SUCKS: The underworld of the customer service department is dreaded by customers of just about any major corporation. No customer wants to call in and get passed around from rep to rep and robot to robot. Youâ... d think that Tesla would have come up with a more efficient way to handle their â... valuedâ... customers' problems and have a decent customer service team. Thatâ... s wishful thinking, though. If you need any help, particularly with SolarCityâ... s products, then you can forget ever getting through to anyone the first time. Attempting to get ahold of the â... rightâ... representative is a game of cat-and-mouse, and youâ... ll have a pretty challenging time catching them in a spare moment (when they can actually speak, at all).

---- TESLA IS ALWAYS ON THE VERGE OF BANKRUPTCY: While itâ... s no secret that Tesla has struggled with sales, it raises a few questions about what that means for the future of the corporation. We donâ... t really know how close Tesla truly came to going under, seeing as how Elon Musk has repeatedly glossed over Teslaâ... s issues instead of being frank about things (e.g., the SolarCity investments, accident rates, etc). So, Muskâ... s exasperated croaks of how Tesla nearly went bankrupt almost sound like the boy who cried wolf, at least from an outside perspective. If Musk is being honest about the companyâ... s financial struggles, then the future looks bleak. Scraping by when the economy is relatively stable is not a good sign for a new car company, and what happens when those battery costs skyrocket? No one is going to be willing to pay more than $40k for a base Model 3.

---- TESLA CARS HAVE AWFUL BODY PANEL GAPS: You donâ... t have to give a Tesla, specifically the Model 3, a thorough inspection to notice that thereâ... s an insane amount of space between the body in some parts and less in others. Itâ... s not an overly invasive issue, but when youâ... re paying around $35,000 for a car, there are a few minimum expectations that should be met. One of those is definitely a clean look. Each of the Tesla models has perfectly executed an aerodynamic style, with concealed handles and sleek lines, which makes the gap that much more noticeable to anyone who happens to glance in the direction of a Model 3. Since Tesla factory workers have been killing each other in Tesla's parking lot in Fremont, you can't expect too much from them.

---- DEADLY TESLA DOOR HANDLES: One of the most notable characteristics of every Tesla is their futuristic door handles that pop out with ease. The higher-end models have nice, metal handles with chrome finishes. However, if you happen to compare, say, a Model S to a Model 3, you'll immediately notice the lack of strength behind the latter's handles. Not only are the door handles on the Model 3 thinner, but they seem to be made with inferior materials to the higher-tier models. There have even been a few people who have had the door handles freeze to the car, leaving them unable to get inside. We have to note that there hasn't been a plague of door handle issues, so this isn't an official defect, but it's more of a cosmetic problem that could become a mechanical one in the future.

---- TESLA CARS ADD AWFUL INCONVENIENCE TO YOUR LIFE: The naïve car buyer is often led to believe that electric cars are all ponies and rainbows. However, many manufacturers acknowledge that we have yet to get everything down to a science. Plus, there's a learning curve for those new to EVs, which is why most semi-electric cars are still able to be powered with gasoline. The serious drawback with a Tesla is the lack of a safety net should the battery run dead. Jumper cables are entirely out of the question, which is why owners of EVs get anxiety on road trips and long-distance commutes. The remaining range can be inaccurate, potentially leaving a driver stranded if they don't judge their car's abilities correctly.

---- TESLA'S ALL LOOK ALIKE AND ARE NOW RUN-OF-THE-MILL: Although this isn't much of a shock at all, little fail to recognize the total lack of variety that's offered in the Tesla fleet. Of course, the higher-end models have prettier finishes and tend to look nice no matter what, but each and every Tesla is almost identical. This is obviously the case with everyday run-of-the-mill vehicles as well, but that's sort of the point, isn't it? If you're spending a good chunk of change to claim that over-hyped Tesla as your own, wouldn't it be nice if you at least had a decent amount of options to truly make it feel like your own? For what you're paying, it seems like there should already be a plethora of options.

---- ABOVE ALL ELSE: Tesla's battery system is the worst designed, most deadly, awful power system in history! IT WILL KILL YOU AND BURN YOUR FAMILY ALIVE, LIKE IT HAS DONE TO MANY TESLA VICTIMS ---Also see the additional Tesla issues, above, involving 'rare earth mines', 'lithium battery dangers', 'Elon Musk's constant use of "hit-men" and character assassins' to destroy competitors and reporters, the vast racism and women abuse and the dead workers poisoned in his battery factories around the globe.

THE SPIES THAT POLITICIANS AND OLIGARCHS HIRE TO END YOUR LIFE - "THEY SENT THEM AFTER ME!"

- Stella Penn Pechanac worked for a Mossad-linked Israeli intelligence company

- Weinstein hired the firm just months before sexual allegations ruined his career
- But Stella told the actress she was executive at London asset management firm

By Adam Luck And Ben Lazarus For The Mail On Sunday

With her long blonde hair, catwalk figure and dazzling smile, it's easy to believe that Stella Penn Pechanac could have been one of the victims of disgraced Hollywood mogul Harvey Weinstein.

Indeed, that's exactly what she told New York Magazine writer Ben Wallace when she introduced herself as 'Anna' with another terrible story about the influential producer.

However, with his journalist's instinct, Wallace smelled a rat.

Stella Penn Pechanac (pictured) was a spy working for the infamous Mossad-linked Israeli intelligence company Black Cube

This was 2016, well before the #MeToo scandal emerged, and even Wallace's colleagues had no idea he was investigating claims of sexual harassment against Weinstein.

When they met for coffee, 'Anna' confided she had had an affair with Weinstein that had ended badly.

But there was something about her story that didn't quite ring true. She seemed far more concerned, in fact, with asking questions about other Weinstein victims than her own story.

Call it paranoia, but Wallace had a sneaking suspicion she was recording him.

However, Rose McGowan, the actress who first accused Weinstein of rape, was rather more easily fooled.

Stella's plausible manner and hard-to-place European accent convinced the actress that she was Diana Filip, an executive from London asset management firm Reuben Capital Partners, who wanted to invite McGowan to speak at a gala dinner.

She befriended actress Rose McGowan (alongside Harvey Weinstein in 2007) after telling her that she was an executive from a London asset management firm who wanted to invite her to speak at a gala dinner

Over the course of several months, 'Diana' inveigled her way into the Scream star's life. Whether McGowan was in California or New York, Diana always seemed to be conveniently nearby.

They met for long walks, drinks and girls' nights out. McGowan even told her 'there was no one else in the world she could trust'.

But it was all a con. Just like Anna, Diana was merely a cover dreamed up by Stella, a spy working for the infamous Mossad-linked Israeli intelligence company Black Cube.

Weinstein had hired the firm in the months before his career and reputation were ruined by a welter of sexual allegations.

An extraordinary contract, dated July 11, 2017, between the mogul's lawyers and the British arm of the Israeli firm show that Weinstein had tasked Black Cube with two primary objectives: to 'provide intelligence which will help the Client's efforts to completely stop the publication of a new, negative article in a leading NY newspaper', and to 'obtain additional content of a book which is currently being written and which includes harmful negative information on and about the Client'.

To achieve this, Black Cube promised a dedicated team. As part of the operation, codenamed Parachute, the organisation introduced Stella to Weinstein.

Her main objective was to befriend McGowan, obtain a draft of her memoir 'and discredit it. And she was tasked with finding out about and blocking other allegations about Weinstein' — just like the stories Ben Wallace was working on.

Stella, now 36, went undercover to meet a worker in a bank that had been critical of a Black Cube client but she has since turned her back on the world of espionage

In late 2017, Weinstein met three Black Cube operatives in the back room of a New York restaurant. There, one of the agents told Weinstein 'we got something good for you'.

After a short pause, a woman with long blonde hair and high cheekbones stepped forward and introduced herself as Anna.

She read passages from McGowan's upcoming book. Listening in a state of shock, Weinstein muttered repeatedly: 'Oh my God.'

Today, Stella Penn Pechanac has left her lucrative job at Black Cube and claims to have turned her back on the murky world of espionage.

She is pregnant with her second child and, in an exclusive interview with The Mail on Sunday, has agreed to lay bare her extraordinary and disturbing double life as an agent for hire.

It is clear from the first moment that Stella is ideal spy material. She comes across as open, engaging and honest, with an unwavering gaze and a seemingly puncture-proof self-confidence.

The first thing she wants to make clear is that she was never involved in any honeytraps.

'I was never a Bond girl,' she insists.

'I was James.'

So how did she come to be a central figure in the most explosive scandal ever to grip Hollywood?

'I acted for years, I spoke five languages, and I travelled a lot,' she says.

'They approached me.'

If that seems unlikely, consider that Black Cube was set up by former Israeli intelligence officers in 2010 and is known for â... and trades on â... its links with the feared Mossad intelligence service.

Consider also that Stella's fractured background could have been dreamed up by John le CarrÃ©: she was born in Sarajevo into a mixed Muslim/Orthodox Christian family that had sheltered Jewish Yugoslavs during the Holocaust. Her grandfather perished in a concentration camp.

Her family converted to Judaism and escaped the bloody Balkans civil war in 1994 and Stella volunteered for the Israeli Defence Force as soon as she turned 18, rising to lieutenant in the air force.

She graduated from an elite Israeli university and went to drama school before joining Black Cube. Although there appear to be puzzling gaps in her CV, she doesn't admit to any previous intelligence training.

However, she did divulge it was the ex-Israeli premier Ehud Barak who put Weinstein's lawyers in touch with the firm.

'The company received the project, examined it, found it legitimate,' Stella says.

'Weinstein was respected, everyone wanted to work for him, with him. We had this new project, it was like a big deal, a huge client coming in. He was facing serious allegations, and there were suspicions there was a negative campaign against him.

'I've worked on cases like this before so it was just another of those, a commercial negative campaign but on a much bigger scale because of Weinstein.'

Stella, 36, is eager to stress that Black Cube field agents usually do not meet the clients, but in this case Weinstein insisted on seeing her face-to-face. The initial meeting, she says, gave her a rare insight into the disgraced titan.

'He was 100 per cent sure people were out to get him,' she says.

'So when I met him, contrary to the huge reputation he had â... how powerful, strong, dominant he had been portrayed â... he was vulnerable.

'He was saying, 'Someone out there is trying to get me, I need your help and everything they are saying is a bunch of lies. I have never done anything that is not consensual. Someone is trying to ruin me, my business, my family and I need to find out who that is.'

Weinstein must have been happy with the meeting and the material Stella and her team subsequently produced. The former head of Miramax went on to spend more than Â£1million with Black Cube to protect his reputation.

Stella sees her efforts as a professional job aimed at protecting her client. Some of those at the other end of Black Cube's techniques, however, describe a sinister and complex web designed to ensnare and cripple those fighting him.

Key witnesses have had their reputations badly damaged since the Weinstein allegations first surfaced, while journalists working on the story have been intimidated.

Ronan Farrow, the writer who broke the Weinstein story, details in his book Catch And Kill how the 67-year-old mogul's intimidation tactics left him so frightened that friends advised him to buy a gun.

He was so certain his calls and emails were being monitored he took to communicating with an encrypted messaging app and only connected to the internet through anonymous wi-fi hotspots.

Farrow was so worried that he asked a rival Israeli spy firm what to do if he was being followed by a Black Cube operative. The man replied: 'Just start running.'

The campaign certainly seems to have been successful. Several high-profile cases against Weinstein, including those by actress Ashley Judd and Hollywood producer Lucia Evans, have been struck out.

Weinstein's legal team, led by Donna Rotunno, nicknamed the Bulldog, are confident of getting their client off when his trial on five counts of sexual assault and rape begins on January 6.

Faced with the prospect of potentially spending the rest of his life behind bars, it is no surprise Weinstein turned to Black Cube to save him. But just how does it operate?

Stella explains that every mission begins with a team brain-storming session, but that the field operative always has the final say.

'You are involved in the think-tank process. No one is going to tell you to be a brain surgeon if you cannot hold that cover,' she adds.

'The team builds the operation and does the analysis and research, and the psychologists build the psychological profile of the person you are supposed to meet.

'Then they bring in the agent, present them with different options and see what works best.'

Recalling her approach to Rose McGowan using the identity Diana Filip, Stella says: 'At that point it was just another cover. It has to be really in-depth, you have to know the role really well and the character really well. Essentially it is all just theatre, right?'

The former agent does not appear to recognise that her approach may have been immoral.

Indeed, during a two-hour interview, Stella only betrays her discomfort once and that is when she is asked what she would think of someone approaching her daughter in the same manner that she approached McGowan.

After a jarringly long pause, the former field agent calmly recovers her equilibrium and says: 'You are not meeting them in order to do anything wrong or harmful to themâ...! in 99 per cent of projects I reveal the bad guys.'

When asked whether this was true in the Weinstein case, she confidently replies: 'Me talking to someone is not harmful. I am just extracting information.'

McGowan, however, was distraught to discover that a woman she regarded as a friend was actually an agent working for Weinstein.

'Everyone lied to me all the time,' she said later.

'I've lived inside a mirrored fun house.' She is now suing Weinstein and Black Cube over what she describes as an attempt to smear and defraud her.

So was Stella acting during her 'friendship' with the actress? 'In a lot of aspects we are very much alike, so the connections were very real,' she says, seemingly unable to comprehend why her actions would appear distasteful to most people.

'In a parallel universe, in a different dimension, in different circumstances, we really could have been friends because although the circumstances wereâ...! a lieâ...! the human aspect was very authentic.'

Stella claims that her traumatic childhood in war-torn Sarajevo gave her the ability to have empathy for her targets like McGowan.

'The only way I can get to people and get into their heads is by empathy and you cannot fake that. The empathy is real even if the circumstances are tricky.'

But no matter how many mental blocks she has put up to rid herself of any feelings of guilt, there is no doubt her actions with McGowan were truly questionable. And she was not the only one in the Black Cube cast of actors.

Briton Seth Freedman, a one-time Guardian journalist and a former equities broker, who spent time in the Israel Defence Forces, told The Mail on Sunday that he, too, was tasked with 'finding out who was talking to the press'.

Freedman had some success with McGowan. He used the cover story of being a journalist working on an article about Hollywood to convince McGowan's literary agent to encourage the star to speak to him.

There followed a 75-minute call in which she believed she was talking to a concerned British journalist and revealed information about her accusations against Weinstein.

Freedman denies he was involved in any black ops against Weinstein's victims.

'The line that is always used is Black Cube are hired to investigate, harass and silence victims,' he says. 'I wasn't hired to do any of these things.'

Just like Stella, Freedman was unmasked by Farrow and no longer works for Black Cube.

Stella claims she left the firm in June for personal reasons.

'Being a mother changed my priorities, the risk assessment, everything,' she says.

'You cannot do the job with small children. The universe sends you clues and that was mine.'

So what would she say to McGowan today?

'I think she is very brave, very strong, and I am very supportive of what she was doing,' she says, smiling.

'I am sorry if she ever felt betrayed or hurt by anything that I had to do. I am sorry that I was another person in her life that was there under false pretences. My goal was never to hurt her.'

As with everything she says over the course of the interview, it is impossible to tell whether the trained spy is lying or not.

Regardless, it is perhaps a little too late for apologies.

Mr Weinstein's attorneys said in a statement: 'Mr. Weinstein had a right to examine any claims against him to attempt to prove they were false, as anyone facing false allegations would do.'

'The firm is a recognized investigative agency that was referred by the largest law firm in the world devoted solely to business litigation and arbitration. In addition, the research that was done was more comprehensive than so much of the fiction dreamed up for [Ronan Farrow's] book.'

THE SPLC IS A MASSIVE, MULTI-MILLION-DOLLAR CHARACTER ASSASSINATION MACHINE

The establishment media continues to try to destroy opposition to Sharia.

As Brett Kavanaugh defended himself on Thursday against scurrilous and unsubstantiated allegations brought forward by the Democrats, who have now richly earned the sobriquet â€¦ the Evil Party,â€¦ David Horowitz tweeted: â€¦ The left lives by character assassination - Bork, Thomas, Kavanaugh.â€¦ Yes it does, and this doesnâ€™t manifest itself solely in Supreme Court nominee hearings. The Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC), the establishment mediaâ€™s principal source for determining who is acceptable in the public square and who isnâ€™t, is a well-heeled, unscrupulous character assassination machine, destroying lives and reputations with impunity for years now.

The SPLC has for years defamed me as a â€¦ hate group leaderâ€¦ and an â€¦ anti-Muslim extremist.â€¦ These are not mere words. Tyler Oâ€™Neil reported in PJ Media last September that former SPLC spokesman Mark Potok declared: â€¦ Sometimes the press will describe us as monitoring hate groups, I want to say plainly that our aim in life is to destroy these groups, completely destroy them.â€¦

Potok added: â€¦ You are able to destroy these groups sometimes by the things you publish. Itâ€¦ s not so much that they will bring down the police or the federal agents on their head, itâ€¦ s that you can sometimes so mortally embarrass these groups that they will be destroyed. â€¦! We see this political struggle. Weâ€¦ re not trying to change anybodyâ€¦ s mind. Weâ€¦ re trying to wreck the groups. Weâ€¦ re trying to destroy them. Not to send them to prison unfairly or to take their free speech rights away, but as a political matter to destroy them.â€¦

The SPLC is making headway in that plan in my case, prevailing upon both MasterCard and Discover card to refuse to process donations to my organization, Jihad Watch. Iâ€¦ ve started an Indiegogo fundraiser to raise money to sue the SPLC. It will be interesting to see if the SPLC prevails upon Indiegogo to quash a fundraiser that is critical of the SPLC.

Those who may be applauding MasterCard and Discover Card for quashing a â€¦ hate group leaderâ€¦ should stop and think for a minute. The first question for them to ponder is this: What if the SPLC is wrong? It is already established that the SPLC is not infallible in determining who is â€¦ hatefulâ€¦ and who isnâ€¦ t -- witness the \$3,375,000 it paid to Maajid Nawaz for smearing him as â€¦ anti-Muslim extremist.â€¦

Then consider a hypothetical world in which credit card companies and social media platforms shunned people on the word not of the Southern Poverty Law Center, but on the word of, say, the American Family Association. In that event, the Left, which is so authoritarian today, would suddenly become champions of the freedom of speech. But this will remain a hypothetical, because outside of The Handmaidâ€™s Tale, the AFA and other socially conservative groups would never crack down on dissent the way that the Left is doing today.

Nonetheless, the point is still sound: once it is generally accepted that people can be barred from services based on their political views, America has ceased to exist as a free society.

What will be the next step? Will MasterCard and Discover deny me a personal credit card as well, because Iâ€¦ m on the SPLCâ€¦ s hit list? Will the SPLC pressure other companies to deny service to me and others that the SPLC has defamed?

In five or ten years, if this trend is not checked, will it be possible for me and others whom the SPLC is trying to destroy to buy a house? A car? Groceries? If the precedent is established that people can be discriminated against based on their political views, there is no telling where it could end, or if it will end at all.

Whatever you may think of me and of the other people that the SPLC has targeted for destruction, the implications of what is being done are clear. America is at a crossroads today. The choice before us is whether we will continue to exist as a free society, or whether we will become a totalitarian state in which holding the proper opinions is an indispensable prerequisite of being able to function as a citizen at all.

If the Southern Poverty Law Center is not decisively exposed and repudiated, and if MasterCard and Discover donâ€¦ t back down, and if others join them, it isnâ€¦ t just I who am threatened. At risk is the basic and hard-won principle of equality of access to services. When that goes, our other freedoms will swiftly follow -- more swiftly than most Americans realize.

THE WHITE HOUSE PARTNERS WITH EVIL CORPORATIONS TO PUT HIT JOBS ON CITIZENS

Recent Court cases and law enforcement revelations reveal that: â... The Federal Government And White House Letâ... s Their Financiers Destroy Citizens Lives.â... With the full awareness and support of White House executives, Congress and agency bosses at The Department of Energy and other government agencies, THEY HAVE THEIR BILLIONAIRE FINANCIER/BENEFICIARIES DO THE DIRTY DEEDS in order to try to hide the fact that the government officials want a certain citizen destroyed in reprisal/vendetta for whistle-blowing.

A couple subjected to threats and bizarre deliveries, including live spiders, cockroaches, a funeral wreath and a bloody pig mask, have continued to fight back, even after several eBay employees were sentenced in the case. Federal investigators have confirmed this and THOUSANDS of other similar attacks on citizens exactly like the Plaintiff.

Ina and David Steiner filed a civil suit against Obama and Bidenâ... s massive political financiereBay and former executives after the 2019 cyberstalking campaign. A U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts investigation into the auction site is ongoing.

"It felt like corporate terrorism because we were terrorized. And it was very calculated. It was very vicious," Ina Steiner told 60 Minutes correspondent Sharyn Alfonsi.

Ina Steiner and her husband have worked together from their home for more than 20 years. They publish a news website called EcommerceBytes, which focuses on players in the e-commerce industry. David Steiner handles the business side of things while Ina Steiner handles the reporting.

Most of their 600,000 readers are sellers on sites like eBay, Amazon and Etsy, but the Steiners say e-commerce executives also read the articles closely.

On the morning of Aug. 8, 2019, they started receiving strange emails. The couple were bombarded with newsletters they'd never signed up for: Sin City Fetish Night, the Satanic Temple, the Communist Party, and dozens of others. Then the harassment started on Twitter.

"It was basically 'shut up, or else,'" Ina Steiner said. "And it was, it was as blatant as that."

Three days later, the Steiners got a strange call.

"Somebody left a voicemail for us, saying they couldn't fulfill the order for a wet specimen. And David was the one who called. And he said, 'What is a wet specimen?' And, and it was a pig fetus," Ina Steiner said. "That's when I really, my heart sank, because I thought, 'Who might be angry at something I wrote?' And I couldn't figure it out. I mean, we were, we were desperately trying to think, 'Who could it be?'"

Police began investigating as the harassment continued. Pornography was sent to the couple's neighbors, but it was addressed to David Steiner. On social media, the Steiners' home was listed as the site of yard sales and sex parties.

And then a book about surviving the loss of a spouse, addressed to David Steiner, arrived at their doorstep in Natick, Massachusetts.

A book and a bloodied pig mask that former eBay employees allegedly mailed to a Natick, Massachusetts couple who wrote critical articles about the company. U.S. ATTORNEY FOR THE DISTRICT OF

"It was a death threat. And to be followed up a few short days later with a funeral wreath, an expensive funeral wreath," David Steiner said. "It only confirmed that these people were going to hurt or kill Ina."

For three weeks, the packages and threats kept coming, even as police investigated and the Steiners installed security cameras. They started sleeping in separate rooms, so that if someone broke in, at least one of them would be able to call the police or escape, David Steiner said.

"When it would get dark out at night, that's when I would really be terrified," Ina Steiner said.

They were afraid inside and afraid to leave the house after David Steiner noticed he was being followed by a van one day, and later a car. He snapped a photo of the license plate. That picture broke open the case.

Sergeant Jason Sutherland and Detective John Haswell of the Natick, Massachusetts police department tracked the license plate. The number traced back to a rental agency where Veronica Zea, an eBay employee, had rented the van, Sutherland said.

"I don't know, I can't describe how flabbergasted we were," Ina Steiner said. "eBay? I mean, what was an eBay employee doing in a rental van, following David?"

The FBI took over the case. Ten months later, then U.S. Attorney Andrew Lelling announced the indictments of several eBay employees and contractors, including Zea.

"It didn't take us an hour to realize the ramifications of a public company trying to destroy a journalist. They were attacking the First Amendment, freedom of the press," David Steiner said. "They wanted to destroy Ina and our publication."

Lelling said the plan to target the Steiners, which he described as a "campaign of terror," was hatched in April 2019 at eBay. Devin Wenig, who served as eBay's CEO at the time, shared a link to a post Ina had written about his annual pay. The company's chief communications officer, Steve Wymer, responded: "We are going to crush this lady."

About a month later, Wenig texted: "Take her down." Prosecutors said Wymer later texted eBay security director Jim Baugh.

"I want to see ashes. As long as it takes. Whatever it takes," Wymer wrote.

Investigators said Baugh set up a meeting with security staff and dispatched a team to Boston, about 20 miles from where the Steiners live.

Seven people who worked for eBay's Safety and Security unit, including two former cops and a former nanny, all pleaded guilty to stalking or cyberstalking charges. Baugh was sentenced to five years in prison and Zea was sentenced to a year of home confinement and probation.

To date, eBay has not been charged with any crimes. The company said in a statement to 60 Minutes that the conduct of the former employees was wrong, adding that eBay has cooperated fully with the government investigation.

There wasn't enough evidence to file criminal charges against Wenig or Wymer, even with the texts they'd sent, Lelling said.

"People say things like that all the time, especially senior people in companies," Lelling said. "It's not the same as, 'I am knowingly joining a criminal conspiracy to cyberstalk a couple in Natick.' People use loose talk like that all the time."

Wymer was fired for cause by eBay and now runs the Boys and Girls Clubs of Silicon Valley. He has said his texts were mischaracterized and that he learned of the employees' conduct only after the fact.

Wenig, the former CEO, resigned from the company in 2019. He said in a statement to 60 Minutes that he was appalled at what happened. He said had he been aware of it at the time, he would have stopped it.

Wenig resigned from eBay in September 2019 with a $57 million exit package but Wenig was not the top of the pile. Meet the real boss of ht-jobs at Ebay: Pierre Omidyar is the founder of the multinational e-commerce corporation eBay, a philanthropist, and a financier of left-wing organizations, including investigative journalism projects. Omidyar is a funder of left-wing politics; as such, he gave $100,000 to the NeverTrump PAC, a group opposed to 2016 Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump.<sup>1</sup> Omidyar is a donor to the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee and Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee.

Pierre Omidyar was born on June 21, 1967 to Iranian parents in Paris, France. His family immigrated to the United States due to his father's work. He graduated from Tufts University with a bachelor's degree in computer science in 1988.

In 1995, Omidyar opened Auction Web, which would later become eBay. <sup>2</sup> Omidyar became a billionaire when eBay became a publicly traded company in the fall of 1998. Omidyar resigned as chairman of the board in 2015.

Omidyar has used some of his wealth to fund journalism ventures. In October 2013, Omidyar pledged $250 million to found First Look Media, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that publishes a number of online left-wing media publications.<sup>3 4</sup>

The Intercept, First Look Media's first publication, was launched in February 2014. Controversial left-wing journalist Glenn Greenwald is one of the website's editors. Gawker editor John Cook joined as editor-in-chief of the website in March 2014.<sup>5</sup> The Intercept's original staff, including Greenwald, were involved in the disclosure of classified national security documents by onetime National Security Agency contractor Edward Snowden, who later fled to Russia.<sup>6</sup>

First Look Media also publishes the websites Field of Vision (a documentary project), The NIB (a comic site), and Topic (an entertainment and culture site).<sup>7</sup>

In 2017, Omidyar pledged $100 million to fight so-called "fake news."<sup>8</sup> The money will reportedly be used to support investigative journalism. In 2011, Omidyar founded the Democracy Fund, a 501(c)(3) private foundation headquartered in Washington, D.C. In a March 2013 article in the Huffington Post, Omidyar stated part of his reason for creating the Fund as "support[ing] social entrepreneurs and others working to directly address the conditions that threaten the ability of our government to represent the public's highest interests, to retain the public's trust, and to meet the many great challenges that we face."<sup>9</sup> Joe Goldman is president of the Democracy Fund.<sup>10</sup>

The Fund calls itself "bipartisan" and distributes grants and funds various political and journalism groups including the Aspen Institute, Millennial Action Project, and the National Institute for Civil Discourse, according to its website.<sup>11</sup> Data from the website Foundation Search shows nearly $8.9 million in 46 grants in 2015, many of which went to left-wing organizations. Some of the 2015 grantees include the Bipartisan Policy Center, Pew Charitable Trusts, Proteus Fund, Democracy Works, Knight Foundation, Free Press, Public Citizen Foundation, and New Venture Fund.<sup>12</sup>

Omidyar also founded Democracy Fund Voice, a 501(c)(4) â... sister organizationâ... to Democracy Fund. The organizationâ... s website notes it â... is solely funded by eBay founder Pierre Omidyar and his wife Pam,â... and its 2016 Form 990 federal filing shows $5,510,000 in contributions from Omidyar. The organizationâ... s filings also note it has a â... cost-sharing agreementâ... with Democracy Fund. 13

The organizationâ... s Form 990 filing for 2016 lists one of its principal projects as supporting â... organizations that educate, register, and activate voters,â... but claims it does not â... support efforts or organizations that endorse candidates.â... 14

Democracy Fund Voice notes that it has funded politically active groups, including the Sixteen Thirty Fund, Stand Up Republic, Human Rights First, New America, Faith and Public Dialogue, Institute for Social Policy Understanding, and ReThink Media.15 Its Form 990 for 2016 also shows grants to the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials \(NALEO\) Educational Fund and Vote.org (a 501(c)(3) voter mobilization nonprofit). 16

The Omidyar Network Fund is a Redwood City, California-based 501(c)(3) foundation created in 2004 that serves as Omidyarâ... s primary philanthropic vehicle. It is closely connected to the Omidyar Network, a for-profit venture capital LLC that makes grants to â... companies focused on social changeâ... through its 501(c)(3) affiliate.17 As of 2014, the Network had nearly $322 million in assets, and in that year distributed $45 million in grants.18

The Omidyar Network is a major funder of the Sunlight Foundationâ... a left-leaning nonprofit also funded by liberal foundations like the Rockefeller Family Fund, Knight Foundation, and Bloomberg Family Foundationâ... giving the group over $17 million in 9 grants between 2007 and 2013.1920 Other grant recipients include the Tides Foundation, Tides Center, George Sorosâ... Open Society Foundations, and the Brennan Center for Justice.21

Omidyar has given $213 million to various causes, many of which are active in left-wing politics. Among those groups that have been funded are the Open Society Foundations, the Tides Foundation, the Center for Public Integrity, and the Center for Responsive Politics.22

Omidyar has also donated to Democratic Party candidates. During the Democratic Party presidential primaries in 2008, he donated to the campaigns of both Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama. Ahead of the 2016 election, it was reported that Omidyar and his wife have donated $200,000 to the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee and $150,000 to the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee â... over the years.â...23

Between 2021 and 2022, the Omidyar Network had donated roughly $509,500 in a series of grants to online speech advocate Accountable Tech, one of several organization that launched a â... Stop the Dealâ... campaign which called for a boycott of Twitter in June 2022 should tech entrepreneur Elon Musk buy the platform; the billionaire began an acquisition in April 2022 that concluded in October of that year. 24 25 The grant listings showed that Omidyarâ... s Omidyar Network had donated roughly $2 million in grants between 2019 and 2022 to several groups part of the June 2022 campaign, including SumOfUs and UltraViolet, as well as those which signed a letter in November 2022, including the Center for American Progress and the Tech Oversight Project, asking Twitterâ... s top 20 advertisers to boycott the platform.2627 28 Spokeswoman Omidyar Network Spokeswoman Beth Kanter released a statement to Free Beacon in regard to the companyâ... s connections to the Twitter boycott campaign, claiming, â... We routinely support organizations that share our vision for a responsible technology system, but do not direct their day-to-day activities.â... 29

It was reported by the Free Beacon that his Omidyar Network had donated over $300,000 to fund the February 2023 Summit for Digital Content Next, a trade summit for media companies that include Warner Brothers Discovery, Bloomberg, NBC Universal News Group, the New York Times, and Politico. 30 31 In December 2022, the groupâ... s CEO Jason Kint posted on Twitter demanding Musk to be â... hauled in front of Congressâ... if he didnâ... t restore the twitter accounts of those previously tracking the billionaireâ... s private jet. 32 33

While the OMIDYAR vendetta and attack services for high level politicians are well documented, the attack partnerships that the Biden Administration and Obama Administration maintain with the majority of Bay Area Big Tech billionaires is not as well publicly documented.

BUT!!!!.. Those vendetta services relationships between Obama/Biden and the Silicon Valley VC and Tech Cartel are VERY WELL documented by FINCEN, SEC, FTC, ICIJ and a massive volume of investigators which we shall expose to the Jury in this case!

PUBLIC

Black Cube, Wikistrat, Fusion GPS and 45 other companies sell 'CIA-like' hit jobs to Silicon Valley Oligarchs

Wikistrat bills itself as a â... crowdsourcedâ... analysis agency based in Washington. But interviews with current and former employees and documents tell a very different story.

KEN KLIPPENSTEIN

EXCLUSIVE

KENDALL MCMINIMY/GETTY

In the fall of 2016, Donald Trump Jr. and other key aides to the future president reportedly met in Trump Tower with Joel Zamel, the founder of a company called Wikistrat.

Wikistrat bills itself as a â... crowdsourcedâ... geopolitical analysis firm based in Washington, D.C. But interviews with current and former employees and documents reviewed by The Daily Beast tell a different story: that the vast majority of Wikistratâ... s clients were foreign governments; that Wikistrat is, for all intents and purposes, an Israeli firm; and that the companyâ... s work was not just limited to analysis. It also engaged in intelligence collection.

Robert Muellerâ... s office is investigating Wikistrat and Zamel, according to The Wall Street Journal, as the special counselâ... s probe expands into Middle Eastern governmentsâ... attempts to influence American politics.

Publicly, Wikistrat touts its crowdsourcing interface it has described as â... Wikipedia meets Facebookâ... to develop reports for clients. The documents also highlight Wikistratâ... s heavy reliance on â... gamificationâ... â... applying game design features to encourage user engagementâ... to solicit information from sources. Former Wikistrat employees say its founder viewed himself as the Mark Zuckerberg of the national-security world.

But despite the firmâ... s purported commitment to â... transparent, open-source methodologies,â... the documents provided to The Daily Beast show something different: that the company exploits â... in countryâ...! informantsâ... as sources.

Wikistratâ... s â... Aboutâ... page includes mention of â... on-the-ground collection.â...

And according to internal Wikistrat documents marked â... highly confidential and sensitive material,â... 74 percent of the firmâ... s revenue came from clients that were foreign governments.

Although Wikistratâ... s clients were overwhelmingly foreign governments, the company boasted incredible access to top U.S. military and intelligence officials. The firmâ... s advisory council lists former CIA and National Security Agency director Michael Hayden, former national security adviser James L. Jones, former deputy director of the National Security Council Elliott Abrams, and former acting director of the Defense Intelligence Agency David Shedd, among others.

Perhaps itâ... s no surprise, then, that the companyâ... s website is adorned with the insignias of U.S. military agencies and that it claims D.C. as its headquarters.

But exactly how much of a connection these advisers have with the company isnâ... t totally clear. â... I have always been informalâ...! but I support the concept of their work (as my quote [on Wikistratâ... s website] points out),â... Hayden told The Daily Beast in an email. â... There is no paperwork between us and I have never been to a board meeting.â...

A former senior analyst for Wikistrat, James Kadtke, described his experience with the company to The Daily Beast. A physicist by training, Kadtke worked as a defense and technology adviser to Sen. John Warner from 2002-05 and as a senior fellow at the National Defense University before joining Wikistrat in 2016.

When Kadtke first interviewed with a couple of Wikistrat executives to discuss working for them, he said it became obvious to him that there was more to this company than meets the eye.

â... It was clear to me that both of these guys had intelligence backgrounds, intelligence professionals, not academics or analysts,â... Kadtke told The Daily Beast. â... They were using their experts for tacit information going on in various parts of the world. I got the impression they were doing things outside of Wikistrat. It seemed mysterious.â...

Working for Wikistrat didnâ... t seem to clear up Kadtkeâ... s questions. Kadtke said that, in retrospect, Wikistrat appeared to be more about intelligence collection than anything else.

Elad Schaffer, the Wikistrat CEO who succeeded Zamel this year, did not respond to a request for comment.

Asked about Kadtkeâ... s remarks about intelligence collection, one former high-ranking employee said, â... Could he [Wikistratâ... s founder] have done this? Yes, by all means,â... adding that Wikistratâ... s work â... was not limited to geopolitics.â...

HUSH HUSH

The documents provide rare insight into a company that Wikistrat employees repeatedly described as extraordinarily secretive.

â... Joel ran a very compartmentalized organization,â... one former high-ranking staffer said.

â... I felt like I had no real visibility into what the company was really doing,â... another former senior employee said.

â... He was very secretive, everything was highly compartmentalizedâ...! It was clear that he kept the entire company in the dark. Even [company executives] didnâ... t have the whole picture,â... a former employee said, adding that if someone took a photo at a company gathering, Zamel would leave the room.

â... He never allowed anyone to get near his phone, his laptop, stuff like that.â...

Even in the internal company documents, which include a page about the companyâ... s leadership, photos of each of the executives are includedâ... except Zamelâ... s.

â... I suspected he was involved in other stuff simply because a man without secrets doesnâ... t need to be secretive. If he had nothing to hide, he wouldâ... ve been much more open. I thought he was involved in other operations.â€¦

THE ISRAEL CONNECTION

If Wikistrat was engaged in intelligence collection, an obvious question arises: For whom?

Much of the reporting so far has focused on Wikistratâ€™s relationship with the United Arab Emirates. For instance, The New York Times recently reported a secretive Trump Tower meeting three months before the 2016 presidential election, between Donald Trump Jr., Zamel, and George Nader, an emissary for the UAE. The meeting drew comparison to the infamous Trump Tower meeting between Trump Jr., Jared Kushner, Paul Manafort, and a Russian lawyer with ties to the Kremlin.

Zamel is reported to have pitched Trump Jr. on a social-media manipulation strategy to help his father win the election. After Trump was elected, Nader is said to have paid Zamel a large sum of moneyâ€¦ as much as $2 million.

In light of the scrutiny of Zamelâ€™s ties to the UAE, itâ€™s natural that news coverage would focus on that country. But Wikistrat may, in fact, have stronger ties to Israel.

Zamel is a citizen of Israel and masterâ€™s graduate of IDC Herzliyaâ€¦ a small, elite college thatâ€™s often compared to U.S. Ivy League schoolsâ€¦ where he studied government, diplomacy, and strategy, specializing in counterterrorism and homeland security.

(The internal documents reviewed by The Daily Beast confirm that Zamel also owned the lionâ€™s shareâ€¦ 86 percentâ€¦ of Wikistrat, with the next biggest shareholder possessing less than 6 percent of the company.)

Though Wikistratâ€™s website lists its location as Washington, Kadtko said the company was run out of Israel the entire time he worked there.

A former Wikistrat employee confirmed the company was run out of Tel Aviv, with the D.C. office only handling sales and business development, he said.

â€¦ He knew a whole lot of people there [in Israel]. One of his connections was the former head of the [Israeli] intelligence directorate, Amos Yadlin.â€¦

In fact, each of Wikistratâ€™s principals listed Tel Aviv as their address in a 2015 copy of Wikistratâ€™s Virginia business license.

Former employees say that at the core of Wikistratâ€™s leadership were three Israelis: Daniel Green, the CTO, Elad Schaffer, formerly the COO and now the CEO, and Zamel, the founder and, until this year, its CEO.

â€¦ Those people were very close, and it wasnâ€™t just professional,â€¦ one former employee said.

That former employee added, â€¦ I had an initial conversation with Joel where I said, â€¦ One of the issues youâ€™re going to run into, if you want to be focused on [U.S.] government work, youâ€™re going to run into problems every day because of the Israeli connection.â€¦ He said, â€¦ Well, why is that? Theyâ€™re amazing allies?â€¦ â€¦

â€¦ There were many conversations internally [about this]... Israel is one of the top counterintelligence concerns for the U.S.â€¦

One of the internal documents reviewed by The Daily Beast lists a former â... major in [an] elite Israeli intelligence-analysis unit,â... Shay HersHKovitz, as its chief security officer and director of analytic community. That document also describes Schaffer as a former â... counterterrorism officer for Israeli intelligence.â...

â... Elad was involved in a very elite, select group of individuals performing a very important missionâ...! dealing with the height of the global war on terrorism,â... one former employee said. â... He did some collaborative work with U.S. special-operations counterparts who were working in the Middle East to deal with threats coming from al Qaeda.â...

â... Elad kept a very low profile.â...

Schaffer did not respond to a request for comment.

â... FLYNN TOOK A REAL SHINING TO JOELâ...

Zamel apparently wanted former national security adviser Michael Flynn to be a member of the firmâ... s advisory board; Zamel spoke with him about it on multiple occasions around the time Flynn was forming his ill-fated Flynn Intel Group, a former high-ranking Wikistrat employee told The Daily Beast.

â... Flynn took a real shining to Joel,â... the source said.

Another former Wikistrat employee appeared to confirm Zamelâ... s links to Flynn, saying a mutual contact, Adam Lovinger, helped introduce Zamel to numerous Pentagon officials. Lovinger, a Pentagon strategist and former Trump NSC analyst, had been named to the National Security Council by Flynn and was reportedly associated with Flynn Intel Group.

Flynn Intel Group would later be investigated by special counsel Robert Mueller in connection to a $530,000 payment it received from a company owned by a Turkish businessman close to Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan.

Lovinger told The Daily Beast that he had introduced Zamel to Pentagon officials after a Navy commander brought him to the Pentagonâ... s Office of Net Assessment.

â... I know both Joel and Mike Flynn, but I donâ... t know the extent of their relationship,â... Lovinger added.

Zamel had apparently been introduced to Flynn by Bijan Kian, Flynn Intel Groupâ... s former vice chairman of its board of directors, according to one source. Kian had been a partner at Flynn Intel Group and served as point man on Flynnâ... s discussions with Zamel.

Neither Flynn nor Kian responded to requests for comment.

â... Joel Zamel has never met Michael Flynn,â... Zamelâ... s attorney, Marc Mukasey, told The Daily Beast via telephone. Asked about Zamelâ... s relationship with Kian, Mukasey hung up.

However, shortly after this reportâ... s publication, Mukasey confirmed via email that Zamel had indeed communicated with Flynn. In an email to The Daily Beast, Mukasey wrote: â... Regarding Joel and Wikistrat, your information and your statistics and your numbers and your descriptions are flat-out wrong. Youâ... ve been fed misinformation (likely by a disgruntled ex-employee) or youâ... re simply making things up. By way of example, there was oneâ... and only oneâ... conversation with Flynn.â...

BUT WHY?

The appeal of working with a high-profile intelligence officer like Flynn is easy to see. Whatâ... s more opaque is why Zamel moved away from harvesting â... crowdsourcedâ... intel to making foreign deals.

The allure of quick and easy money from extravagantly wealthy Middle East leadership figures, coupled with an increasingly personal relationship with them, represented a â... shiny objectâ... that lured Zamel away from Wikistratâ... s original mission, a former senior Wikistrat employee said.

And although Zamel was rich, he might not have been wealthy enough to float Wikistrat on his own.

â... It was never clear to me how much Joel was actually paying out of pocket to subsidize the company vs. what was brought in,â... another former employee said. â... Clients paid decently but not enough to sustain the company. So Joel was either substantially funding the company or we were getting money from somewhere else. That naturally leads you to focus on non-U.S. sources of income.â...

The documents appear to corroborate this, showing that Wikistrat had been losing large amounts of money. For example, an income statement summary shows Wikistratâ... s income as -$603,000 in 2013, -$110,000 in 2014, and a projected -$773,000 for 2016.

Kadtke said that, toward the end of 2017, Wikistratâ... s ordinary operations (i.e., war games and analysis) went â... way down.â...

â... Around the beginning of 2017, the three people I knew there left very abruptlyâ...! The last study on the website was January 2017 (they used to do a lot). They seemed to have ceased operations,â... Kadtke said. â... It was very strange to me that they just sort of collapsed. It was probably a three-month period after which everyone I knew there left.â...

THE ASSASSINS OF SILICON VALLEY

By Brent Easton and Shelley Connors

There are teams of former Mossad members you can hire to kill people in undetectable ways. You have seen the names of Black Cube, Black Water, ShoaX, Fusion GPS, IN-Q-Tel, Palantir, EDS and others in the news lately. These companies are private CIA services. Some of them kill for cash.

There are now a number of dead executives who were a competitive or whistle-blower risk to famous Silicon Valley Oligarchs Jared Cohen, Vinod Khosla, David Drummond, John Doerr, Eric Schmidt, Elon Musk, Larry Page and Mark Zuckerberg.

Did one, or more of these famous digital big shots have their operatives kill for them?

The black operations people involved use shell fish toxins, nerve warfare chemicals, reverse electric heart devices, fires, exotic gas, high frequency nervous system interrupters and all sorts of other James Bond-type tools to kill.

Each of the tools makes the death look like an ordinary heart attack or other natural death.

You are dead and no ordinary coroner can detect the difference between a murder and a bizarre 'accidental' death.

Gary D. Conley was a Silicon Valley competitor and whistle-blower against all of the suspects. He was found behind Beale Air Force Base in Northern California with a bullet in his head. All of the videos from the nearby base security cameras have gone "missing". A witness claims that there was a man in the back seat of the car Conley was in on the way to the field Conley told others, in emails and phone calls, that he knew the suspects had a 'Silicon Valley Cartel that was out to get him' and he said to others that he was 'spilling the beans on them'. His family and friends say he would never have killed himself. California Attorney General Kamala Harris refused to investigate the case because the suspects are her campaign financiers.

Silicon Valley Oligarchs are generally thought to be sociopaths who have little, or no, respect for laws and who seek to manipulate politics in order to steer trillions of dollars of taxpayer cash into their pockets.

THE "HATCHET-JOB" LAW

It does not have anything to do with First Amendment or Freedom-of-Speech issues. It is about making it a felony to exchange remuneration for "killing people".

Oh! You thought there was already a law against that? There is not!

When Nick Denton, Adrian Covert, and their "hit-men" at Google, exchange goods, jobs, contracts, stock and services in order to process over thirty million dollars of "media services" to try to end someone's life using defamation, character assassination, hacking, server manipulation, search engine rigging, DNS manipulation and other dirty tricks, that "kills" the targeted victim.

It is murder of a person, their brand, their family and their revenue. It does not matter that a President, a Senator or a tech oligarch hired them. It is a criminal endeavor.

We have worked with the finest law enforcement, intelligence and forensic investigators to track the money, the accounts, the covert funding routes and the clients.

While we terminate, 100% legally, every party involved in the attacks, we have asked Congressional leaders to enact this law.

Those who do not sponsor this law are part of the problem!

The law simply says that it is a felony to exchange compensation for trying to assassinate a person in America using conspired media distribution for economic advantage.

TWITTER EXPOSES THE SILICON VALLEY MEN WHO HIRE ASSASSINS TO TAKE OUT THOSE WHO DISPLEASE THEM

Twitter has issued a flurry of legal requests seeking information about an array of elite Silicon Valley investors in Elon Musk's inner circle, as the company pursues its lawsuit attempting to force the billionaire to complete his $44 billion takeover.

In one subpoena issued on Monday, Twitter requested information on a wide range of Musk's inner circle, including some who were not previously reported as having any involvement with the deal, according to the Washington Post.

Named in the request wereÂ investors Chamath Palihapitiya, David Sacks, Steve Jurvetson, Marc Andreessen, Jason Calacanis and Keith Rabois, among others.

Investor Joe Lonsdale, an associate of Musk, said on Twitter that he had also received a subpoena from the social media firm.

Chamath Palihapitiya: A prominent venture capitalist with an estimated net worth of $1.2 billion. His connection with the deal is unclear, but he attended theÂ All-In Summit in May with Musk's other financial backers.

David Sacks: Sacks is a member of the so-called PayPal mafia who helped found the payments startup with Musk in the late 1990s. He was said to be a key advisor in Musk's inner circle as the takeover bid unfolded this spring.

Steve Jurvetson: Another member of Musk's reported 'brain trust' who counseled the billionaire. Jurvetson was an early investor in Tesla, where Musk is CEO. He once served on the Tesla board, and currently serves on the board of Musk's SpaceX.

Marc Andreessen: A Silicon Valley titan worth an estimated $1.6B and co-founder of the VC firm Andreessen Horowitz, which agreed to invest $400 million in Musk's takeover deal.

Jason Calacanis: Also previously reported as involved in funding the deal. Launched an investment pool known as a special purpose vehicle to raise money from smaller investors at a minimum buy-in of $250,000

Keith Rabois: Another early PayPal executive alongside Musk. His connection to the Twitter deal is unclear.

Joe Lonsdale: A partner at 8VC, a San Francisco-based VC firm. 'I have nothing to do with this aside from a few snarky comments,' he said of Musk's Twitter takeover.

â... How A Modern Character Assassination and Political â... Kill Orderâ... Is Executed By the Silicon Valley Oligarchs and their total control of propaganda media. Patrick George At Jalopnik attacks outsiders under contract with Elon Musk and the DNC. Silicon Valley campaign finance oligarchs hire him to run hatchet jobs on innocent outsiders and then Gawker-Gizmodo-Jalopnik uses their financial partnership with the DNCâ... s Google to push the character assassination articles to the top of Google web products and searches.

--- Patrick George, Adrian Covert, John Hermann and Nick Cook are the sexually degenerate cabin boys that report to boy-loving sleaze-tabloid oligarch Nick Denton. They created the Fake News crisis in the media by flooding the internet with defamation posts and reprisal hatchet job articles designed to damage political enemies of the Socialists. They coordinate a large number of the character assassination efforts at Gawker, Gizmodo, Jalopnik, CNN, New York Times and other propaganda outlets. These Millennial boys are â... Media Rapistsâ... and should be treated as abusers.

â... How and why did a Donald Trump stripper-date named â... Stormyâ... or an Elon Musk sex party or a Kavanaugh drinking incident or the Moonves and Weinstein indiscretions suddenly hit the news at about the same time in news history?

â... In addition to actual murder, Politicians and Silicon Valley Oligarchs hire operatives to end peopleâ... s lives in other creative ways.

â... --- It is all part of the modern trend in vendetta, revenge and political payback when a Senator or a tech oligarch issues a â... kill orderâ... on an opponent. â... The client does not like to get their hands dirty so the actual social hit job is performed by companies such as: IN-Q-Tel â... (DNC); Gawker Media â... (DNC); Jalopnik â... (DNC); Gizmodo Media â... (DNC); K2 Intelligence â... (DNC); WikiStrat â... (DNC); Podesta Group â... (DNC); Fusion GPS â... (DNC/GOP); Google â... (DNC); YouTube â... (DNC); Alphabet â... (DNC); Facebook â... (DNC); Twitter â... (DNC); Think Progress â... (DNC); Media Matters â... (DNC); Black Cube â... (DNC); Mossad â... (DNC); Correct The Record â... (DNC); Sand Line â... (DNC/GOP); Blackwater â... (DNC/GOP); Undercover Global Ltd (DNC/GOP) Stratfor â... (DNC/GOP); ShareBlue â... (DNC); Wikileaks (DNC/GOP); Cambridge Analytica â... (DNC/GOP); Sid Blumenthal- (DNC); David Brock â... (DNC); PR Firm Sunshine Sachs (DNC); Covington and Burling â... (DNC), BuzzFeed â... (DNC) Perkins Coie â... (DNC); Wilson Sonsini â... (DNC) and hundreds of othersâ...!These are the people and companies that except cash, revolving door jobs, political appointments, insider trading stock in Silicon Valley tech companies, prostitutes and real estate in exchange for destroying the lives of others.

â... These attackers deserve to be punished for the rest of their lives for taking away the lives of others in exchange for cash. Any company who is corrupt enough to hire any of these assassins should be forced out of business.

---- These attack services are responsible for 90% of the â... Fake Newsâ... problem in the world because they are the authors of most fake news. Congress must act to make these kinds of companies illegal! â... These digital assassination services offer hit-jobs, character assassinations and economic reprisal programs to famous billionaires and corrupt politicians who are seeking revenge, retribution and vendetta executions.

â... In the case of reporters getting targeted for attacks, President Donald Trump has been accused by the liberal corporate media of whipping up a hateful frenzy against the press. But while CNNâ... s Jim Acosta grandstands against Trump, real journalists are still reeling from the draconian extrajudicial measures that Barack Obama and his administration used to target them for exposing truth.

â... This secretive targeting occurred while Obama speechwriter and hate-filled ANTIFA supporter Ben Rhodes was running â... Operation Echo Chamber,â... which reportedly continues, in which he fed information to willing corporate media scribes. â... They literally know nothing,â... Rhodes said of the twentysomething journalists he easily manipulated.

---- The Freedom of the Press Foundationâ... s Trevor Timm published documents showing how former attorney general Eric Holder changed the rules to more effectively intimidate and surveil members of the press.

â... Timm writes: â... Today, we are revealingâ... for the first timeâ... the Justice Departmentâ... s rules for targeting journalists with secret FISA court orders. The documents were obtained as part of a Freedom of Information Act lawsuit brought by Freedom of the Press Foundation and Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University.â...

â... Obama is also clearly linked to the plot to obtain fraudulent FISA warrants on President Trumpâ... s team, as evidenced by Peter Strzok and Lisa Pageâ... s texts confirming that Obama was overseeing their fly-by-night operation.

â... Larry Schweikart reported for Big League Politics: For months pundits and researchers have been pondering the mystery of the FISA approval that led to the illegal and historically titanic scandals to ever hit the U.S. government.

---- Some have argued that Assistant Attorney General Rod Rosenstein knew the FISA was bogus when he extended it. Others have wondered if Special Counsel Robert Mueller knew about the fraudulent basis of the FISA when he used it, in part, to indict Michael Flynn. Other still, that Mueller was fooled by the FBI. This is what President Trump calls â... SPYGATEâ... . â... It may well be that the surveillance that was conducted began with UK intelligence services and then was fed back to the White House of Barack Obama. Hereâ... s the kicker: President Barack Obama did not need a FISA warrant to authorize spying/electronic surveillance on Trump because Obama all along had legal authorization to by-pass the normal court vetting process. According to 50 U.S. Code 1802, the â... Electronic Surveillance Authorizationâ... () â... Foreign intelligence in relation to a US person (Trump or his associates) is information thatâ... s necessary for the US to protect against attack, hostile acts, sabotage, . . . as well as other clandestine activities by a foreign power . . . OR . . . information relevant to national defense/security of the US, or the conduct of foreign affairs of the U.S.â... Such an authorization by Obama required certification by Attorney General Loretta Lynch that must be logged with the FISC court. (â... The [AG]+ shall immediately transmit under seal to the court [FISC] a

â... In short, the DOJ has this. If we are correct, a copy of that certification is currently under seal at least with the DOJ and the FISC.

â... This is what they are hiding. â... However, the Act requires the AG to keep the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Senate Committee on Intelligence informed of these authorizations and unmaskings therein. See 1803 (a) (1) (C) If indeed this is what happened, did Lynch reportâ... or only selectively reportâ... to the committees in a way that excluded non-friendlies? Can you see why Adam Schiff, Mark Warner, and their ilk are terrified?

â... These are the playbook tactics that Senators and tech oligarchs most often use to destroy the lives of their political and business enemies: â... Government agency bosses sometimes solicit the target victims with false promises of future loans, contracts or grants from their agency and cause the target victims to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for projects which those government bosses had covertly promised to their friends. They use the target victims as a â... smokescreenâ... to cover their illegal government slush-funds for the victims competitors and personal enemies.

---- By using this tactic, the attackers can drain the target victims funds and force them into an economic disaster in plain view of everyone without the government bosses fearing any reprisal for their scam.- Every match.com, okcupid.com, Plenty Of Fish, Seeking Arrangements and all other IAC-owned, or similar, dating sites (IAC is managed by Hillary Clintonâ... s daughter) have had their profiles, texts, and inter-member communications, since those companies were started, hacked or purchased. The attack service providers use Palantir and In-Q-Tel financed data analysis software to analyze every activity in those dating services in order to find honey-trap, blackmail, sextortion and social conflict exploitation opportunities.

If you had a bad date with someone, that someone will be hunted down and convinced to help harm, #metoo or â... rape chargeâ... the intended target. All dates involve a search for sex, so the likelihood that a sexual disappointment experience will exist in each persons dating history is high. Searching every past dating email and text of a subject is quite easy with modern software and hacking techniques. A synthetically amplified, PR-agency optimized sex scandal can destroy any target. Your dating experiences from the 70â... s or 80â... s will come back to haunt you decades later. Most dates involve drinking alcohol and taking drugs. If you were unattractive or had bad sexual skills your bad date will be called â... date rapeâ... , â... drugging your date for sexâ... and related twisted narratives that are designed to shame you, the target.

---- If you try to get a date in the future, your potential date will be contacted by a third party who will slander and libel you to make sure your potential first date gets cancelled. Your social life will, essentially, end. Every photo on every dating site is cross checked with every other photo on the internet in order to cull your Facebook, Linkedin, Snapchat and other social media together to create a total psychological manipulation profile data file on you. A single photo on a dating site can be cross searched on every mugshot archive, photo album and corporate database in the worth within minutes using modern super-computers. Your sex life will be on public record in a flash.- Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits are stone-walled. Applications of targets are â... lostâ... .

---- Files in the application process â... disappearedâ... . Lois Lerner hard drive â... incidentsâ... are operated in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

â... Government officials and tech oligarchs contact members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national â... black-listsâ... to blockade target victims from ever receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Stry and in published testimony. If Silicon Valley political campaign finance oligarchs black-list you (see the â... AngelGateâ... Scandal and the â... High Tech No Poaching Class Action Lawsuitâ... cases) you will never get investor funding again.

â... FOIA requests are hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.- State and federal employees will play an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed. This can bankrupt a target victim.- Some Victims found themselves strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case.

---- Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after their work with the Department of Energy weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if these â... targetsâ... were intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of these people were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via DOE, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which DOE officials knew were required.

â... Victims employers are called, and faxed, and ordered to fire target victims from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic. â... On orders from Obama White House officials, DNC-financed Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produce attack articles and defamation videos. Google locks this attack media on the internet on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world.

---- This attack-type uses over $40 million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging. The forensic data acquired from tracking some of these attacks proves that Google rigs attacks against individuals on the internet and that all of Googleâ... s â... impressionsâ... are manually controlled by Googleâ... s executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. This data was provided to the European Union for itâ... s ongoing prosecution of Googleâ... s political manipulation of public perceptions. â... Victims HR and employment records, on recruiting and hiring databases, are embedded with negative keywords in order to prevent the victim targets from ever gaining future employment. â... Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani and many other whistle-blowers in these matters, turned up dead under strange circumstances. It is very possible that some of these attack services, operated by former CIA operatives, even offer discrete murder-for-sale services using high-tech assassination tools that make murders look like heart attacks and brain failures.

---- Disability and VA complaint hearings and benefits are frozen, delayed, denied or subjected to lost records and â... missing hard drivesâ... as in the Lois Lerner case.- Paypal (A DNC-biased operation) and other on-line payments for on-line sales are de-platformed, delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for target victims who competed with the attackers interests and holdings.- DNS redirection, â... website spoofingâ... sends target victims websites to dead ends where no sales orders or customer inquiries actually get back to the target. These internet revenue activity manipulations are conducted using Google and Amazon servers. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by target victims, will have had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by a massively resourced facility located in Virginia, Texas or Palo Alto, California in order to terminate revenue potentials for the target victims.

---- Over 50,000 trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments are deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about victims in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility.

â... Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors are hired by campaign financiers to attack the friends and family members of the target victim in order to create low morale for the target victims psyche and motivation.- Are you getting weird headaches and hearing a â... buzzing soundâ... in your head? The U.S. Government has now acknowledged that the Cuban, Chinese and other embassy â... sonic attacksâ... are from a known microwave beam weapon. Any one of the technical departments of the attack services listed at the top of this article can build such a biological harassment weapon.

---- It can be aimed at the target victims office, bedroom or vehicle and, within a week, have caused biological and emotional damage using a weapon that has no visible track of trajectory. It is designed to make the target victim think they are â... going crazyâ... or â... hearing sounds in their headâ... .

---- In one case covert political partner: Google, transferred large sums of cash to dirty tricks contractors and then manually locked the media portion of the attacks into the top lines of the top pages of all Google searches globally, for years, with hidden embedded codes in the links and web-pages which multiplied the attacks on Victims by many magnitudes.- Covert Cartel financier: Google, placed Googleâ... s lawyer: Michelle Lee, in charge of the U.S. Patent Office and she, in turn, stacked all of the U.S. Patent Office IPR and ALICE review boards and offices with Google-supporting employees in order to rig the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google from being prosecuted for the vast patent thefts that Google engages in.

---- Google has hundreds of patent lawsuits for technology theft and a number of those lawsuits refer to Googleâ... s operations as â... Racketeeringâ... , â... Monopolistic Cartelâ... and â... Government Coup-likeâ... behaviors. Thousands of articles and investigations detail the fact that Google, â... essentiallyâ... ran the Obama White House and provided over 80% of the key White House staff. A conflict-of-interest unlike any in American history. Googleâ... s investors personally told Applicant they would â... kill himâ... . Google and the Obama Administration were â... the same entityâ... . Applicant testified in the review that got Michelle Lee terminated and uncovered a tactical political and social warfare group inside Google who were financed by Federal and State funds.

---- Honeytraps and moles were employed by the attackers. In this tactic, people who covertly worked for the attackers were employed to approach the â... targetâ... in order to spy on and misdirect the subject. â... Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Snopes, SPLC and other hired media assassins will be retained to produce â... hatchet jobâ... character assassination articles about you. Then those articles will be faxed, mailed and emailed to your employer and investors with a note saying: â... You donâ... t want to have anything to do with this person, do you..?â... in order to get you fired from your job and get your loans or financing pulled. The attackers will use their round one attack media, that they authored, to create a round two second wave attack designed to end your life via economic warfare.

---- Mortgage and rental applications will have had red flags added to them in databases to prevent the targets from getting homes or apartments.- Krebs On Security, Wired, Ars Technica, The Wall Street Journal and most major IT publications have reported that hundreds of spy â... back-doorsâ... have been found on every Intel, AMD, Apple, Xfinity, Cisco, Microsoft, Juniper Networks motherboard, chip-set and hardware component set.

---- This means that any kid with the â... keyâ... code can open any computer, server, router, cloud-network or other network connected device and read every file, photo, video, your calendar and email on your devices at any time from any location on Earth. The key codes have been released to every hacker community in the world for over ten years. There is now no government, corporate or personal data that canâ... t be hacked, even data from decades ago.

Every single one of your darkest secrets can be in the hands of your enemy within 60 minutes, or less. Important meetings you had planned with potential investors, employers, clients, dates, suppliers and others will suddenly get cancelled at the last minute. They will get cancelled because your enemies are reading your calendar remotely and covertly sending slander information to those you had hoped to engage with in order to sabotage your life.

---- Nothing you have ever typed on a computer or Smartphone is safe. it WILL be acquired and it WILL be used against you.

â... McCarthy-Era â... Black-listsâ... are created and employed against target victims who competed with Obama Administration executives and their campaign financiers to prevent them from getting funding and future employment.

â... Obama Administration targets were very carefully placed in a position of not being able to get jobs, unemployment benefits, disability benefits or acquire any possible sources of income. The retribution tactics were audacious, overt..and quite illegal.

â... There are thousands of additional Dirty Tricks tactics being used by these Attack Services yet Congress refuses to pass laws out-lawing such attack services.

---- The cost of an attack on a person ranges from $150,000.00 to over $50,000,000.00. While a Silicon Valley billionaire can afford to launch counter-measures to these attacks, any regular taxpayer will be utterly destroyed, and incapable of fighting back, against even the smallest version of one of these â... kill ordersâ... .

---- A number of modern office shootings are the results of these attacks against an individual who has lost everything because of the attack and has no options left. â... Federal law enforcement, the United States Congress and the highest level investigators in the U.S., and abroad, have documented (per the â... FISA Memoâ... , Congressional Reports and federal employee testimony) and proven the fact that the Obama Administration regularly engaged in the operation of retribution, vendetta and reprisal campaigns known as â... hit-jobsâ... against domestic natural born U.S. citizen domestic taxpayers.

---- The Federal Court, in at least one previous court case,has ruled that Applicants, in this particular matter, were the victims and target of a number of these attacks designed to inflict permanent medical, emotional, character assassination, brand negation, economic and career damage. The FBI has been asked to interview John Cook, Nicholas Guido Denton, Adrian Covert, Patrick George, Ian Fette and John Hermann of Gawker/Gizmodo re: their financing, payola and hit-job attacks on third parties.

---- There are hundreds of millions of people in America. The same 120 of them are all involved in operating the same crimes and corruption including: the Sony Pictures corruption; the Afghanistan rare earth mine scandals operated through The Energy Department political slush fund that involves the lithium battery cover-ups (headed by Elon Musk); the Big Tech Brotopia rape, sex trafficking, bribery, exclusionism, racism and misogyny issues they were taught at Stanford University; The Facebook â... Meta â... Google â... Alphabet â... Netflix, et al, coordinated news manipulation and domestic spying that they engage in; the hiring of Fusion GPS â... Black Cube â... Gizmodo/Gawker assassins; the destruction of the housing market by their mass real estate manipulations; patent theft and industrial espionage; and the bribery of almost every politician all the way up to the Oval Office.

---- So, while the categories covered in this investigation may seem diverse. They are connected through an enterprise of criminality and illicit, coordinated operations. We list, by name, the 120 most complicit individuals organizing these crimes, in the evidence documents already submitted to the FBI, FINCEN, DOJ, FTC, SEC, FEC, Congress, InterPol and other authorities. Digital financial tracking of those persons and all of their family members should be assumed to have been under way for some time. Wire-taps and device taps of those persons and all of their family members should be assumed to have been under way for some time.

TYPICAL KAMALA HARRIS HIRES CHARACTER ASSASSINS TO DAMAGE OTHER CANDIDATES

Cop-O Research: Nasty Kamala Harris Is Planting Evidence on Her VP Rivals

- KAMALA HARRIS AND HER INVESTMENT BANKER HUSBAND WILL STOP AT NOTHING TO RIG ELECTION

Andrew Stiles -

Sen. Kamala Harris (D., Calif.), whose failed presidential campaign flamed out before any primary votes were cast, is a top contender to be Joe Biden's running mate in 2020. Curiously enough, negative stories about Harris's potential rivals for the VP slot have been popping up of late in mainstream media outlets. Imagine that.

Biden's promise to select a female running mate, along with the increasing pressure to pick a woman of color, has left the former vice president with limited options. Only two women of colorâ€¦ Harris and Sen. Elizabeth Warren (D., Mass.)â€¦ campaigned for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Despite her failings as a candidate, Harris is widely considered the favorite thanks to her relatively high profile compared with the other black women rumored to be on Biden's shortlist, such as Atlanta mayor

Keisha Lance Bottoms (D.), Rep. Val Demings (D., Fla.), and Rep. Karen Bass (D., Calif.). In recent weeks, all three have had negative stories published about themâ... almost certainly the result of opposition research fed to reporters by a rival.

Within a span of two days earlier this month, Vox and Politico published similar stories criticizing Demings's record as Orlando police chief. Harris has been criticized in similar fashion for pursuing "tough on crime" policies as California attorney general back when the Democratic Party still believed in crime preventionâ... although neither story mentions Harris's record.

Around the same time, ABC News published a story highlighting Bottoms's ties to "controversial figure" Kasim Reed, the former Atlanta mayor who left office in disgrace amid a federal corruption investigation that resulted in prison time for a number of his senior staffers. Harris herself is no stranger to controversial figures. Her political career emerged as she was in a relationship with former San Francisco mayor (and Washington Free Beacon Man of the Year) Willie Brown, who was also the subject of a federal corruption investigationâ... but once again, Harris's similar background went unmentioned.

Following reports that Biden was considering Bass because of her relative lack of interest in using the VP gig as a platform to launch a presidential campaign in 2024, Politico came through with an article about how the congresswoman once described Cuban dictator Fidel Castro as "comandante en jefe" (commander in chief). "Florida Democrats recoil at Karen Bass VP float," the headline read.

Harris clearly wants the gig. Pretty much everyone does, given the likelihood that the elderly and cognitively declining Biden might not even serve a full term in office. Enough to be shopping oppo about the other black women under consideration? Obviously.

The Atlantic described Harris's "shadow campaign for vice president" as a "very open secret," and noted the efforts of supporters to make the case that Harris is the only woman of color with "the experience to understand the scrutiny and pressure of being part of a national campaign." The New York Times reported that Harris has been "maneuvering privately" to avoid coming across as pathetically desperate.

Harris is reportedly "frustrated with the bureaucracy" in Congress and pines for the executive authority she enjoyed as attorney general of California, when she launched a war on truancy that led to the arrest of impoverished parents. Meanwhile, celebrity truants such as climate activist Greta Thunberg continue to evade justice.

The Attacks On Whistle-Blowers

Lin Wood Whistleblower Connects VERY IMPORTANT Dot on Deep State Surveillance and Rosenstein Activity With FBI To Compromise People

Attorney Lin Wood has released an interview with a whistleblower [pdf here] who operated for years within part of the apparatus connected to Deep State surveillance. While the focus is upon the activity of Rod Rosenstein and even Mike Pence as it relates to the Trump administration, there is part of the interview that connects to a much deeper aspect. The testimonial connects a larger story of mass attacks on citizens who report crimes:

While I am still reviewing the overall content, within the first few pages of the interview this segment jumps out â€¦ :

The whistle-blower is describing his activity in Baltimore, Maryland, while working with then U.S. Attorney Rod Rosenstein. At first review this part seems attributed only to attest the validity of the whistle-blower himself. However, read carefully what he just stated while reminding yourself of the issue encountered by former CBS reporter Sharyl Attkisson.

Most people have forgotten that Sharyl Attkissonâ... s story originated with some unknown entity planting â... classified materialâ... on her laptop, which she discovered and then independently had reviewed by forensic auditors. Attkissonâ... s computer audit identified government intrusion into her computer system, which not coincidentally is exactly what the whistleblower is outlining in this segment of the testimonial. Stay with meâ...!

You might also remember that later on â... early 2020- someone provided Attkisson with details and a tip about the intrusion. That information then led to Ms. Attkisson refiling the lawsuit and, this is the important partâ...!. Attkisson named Rod Rosenstein and Shawn Henry, a former FBI in her follow-up lawsuit. Shawn Henry was the former head of the FBI DC field office, who was also became the head of Crowdstrike, a contracted intelligence gathering operation for the government and a politically connected data security and forensic company.

With the information from the Lin Wood whistle-blower, it appears the activity he is admitting to undertaking is in direct alignment with the computer intrusion and illegal compromise that Attkisson narrowly avoided. All of the participants, and the identified corrupt activity, now merge.

The Lin Wood whistle-blower outlines how the Deep State was conducting electronic surveillance on political interests in order to compromise people. Shawn Henry was the head of Crowdstrike, a known FBI contractor with access to the NSA database as outlined in the 2016 admissions by NSA Director Admiral Mike Rogers. The database was compromised by FBI contractors conducting political surveillance.

Both the Lin Wood whistle-blower and the tipster to Sharyl Attkisson are noting that Rod Rosenstein was one of the organizers of the operations from his role as U.S. Attorney in Maryland. Now all of the compromises are pictured, and all of the motives behind all of these players starts to make a lot more sense.

Now overlay: (1) what we previously know about the NSA database exploits; and (2) Sharyl Attkissonâ... s computer intrusion:

A very interesting development appeared early in 2020 amid the ongoing effort of former CBS investigative journalist, Sharyl Attkisson, to resolve the issue of who spied on her, planted spyware and infiltrated her computer systems for illegal surveillance. [Attkisson website here]

According to a 2020 court filing [Source Here] a person who was engaged in the â... wrongful activityâ... has come forward to provide Ms. Attkisson with details about the operation. As a result of those whistle-blower revelations Attkisson is able to name specific individuals who were running the operation:

Former DOJ Deputy AG Rod Rosenstein is named as the person who was in charge of the operation; and the former head of the FBI DC field office, Shawn Henry is also outlined.

Mr. Henry is the head of Crowdstrike, a contractor for the government and a politically connected data security and forensic company. Those who have followed the aspects related to the FBI use of the NSA database to illegally monitor U.S. persons; and those who followed the DNC cover story of Russia â... hackingâ... ; will be familiar with Crowdstrike.

According to the updated lawsuit (full pdf below) Rod Rosenstein, as the U.S. Attorney for Maryland, was in charge of the Obama 2011 and 2012 operation to monitor journalists specific to Ms. Attkissons reporting on Fast-n-Furious and Benghazi.

What I find additionally interesting is the overall timeline in the bigger picture.

In the April 2017 release from FISC Judge Rosemary Collyer outlining the abuses of the FISA-702 process by FBI contractors, where the NSA database was being used for unlawful surveillance of U.S. persons, Collyer specifically noted the findings of her review of the period from November 16 to May 17 (85% non compliant rate) was likely to have been happening since 2012. [\[Go Deep\]](#)

The IRS Scandal were the DOJ was creating a list of U.S. persons for political targeting, and requested CD ROMs of tax filings, was the lead-up to the 2012 exploitation of the NSA database. [The Secret Research Project] So there's a larger picture of government surveillance under the Obama administration that becomes more clear.

Political spying 1.0 was actually the weaponization of the IRS. This is where the term Secret Research Project originated as a description from the Obama team. It involved the U.S. Department of Justice under Eric Holder and the FBI under Robert Mueller. It never made sense why Eric Holder requested over 1 million tax records via CD ROM, until overlaying the timeline of the FISA abuse:

The IRS sent the FBI 21 disks constituting a 1.1 million page database of information from 501(c)(4) tax exempt organizations, to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The transaction occurred in October 2010 (link)

Why disks? Why send a stack of DISKS to the DOJ and FBI when thereâ... s a pre-existing financial crimes unit within the IRS. All of the evidence within this sketchy operation came directly to the surface in early spring 2012.

This is the same time-frame when DNI James Clapper falsely denied to congress about the U.S. government -through the NSA- collecting metadata on all U.S. electronic communication. This is the same time-frame where CIA Director John Brennan was monitoring the computer networks of congressional intelligence oversight staff.

When you overlay the new information from the Attkisson lawsuit, what emerges is the picture of an intentional effort by the Obama administration to weaponize the ability to collect electronic information on domestic political opposition. Itâ... s one long continuum. (We got hit by them too...)

Hereâ... s the new Attkisson lawsuit (using new information from a whistle-blower):

[scribd id=442442161 key=key-ofGwM1QU9XasFEPCWdSq mode=scroll]

Within the lawsuit the DOJ inspector general (Michael Horowitz) is identified as adverse to the interests of the case. Meaning DOJ Inspector General Michael Horowitz was engaged in behavior to help the institution cover-up what independent computer forensic technicians were able to discover. Employees from the IGâ... s office also told Ms. Attkisson they had received instructions from the DC offices adverse to the interest of truthful discovery.

In addition to the institutional cover-up effort; it would be worth noting the then current DOJ and FBI officials, who were identified as holding corrupt motives, were still positioned at key offices. An example is FBI Supervisory Special Agent David Archey (Mueller Team) being promoted to head up the Virginia FBI field office.

Obviously the DC institutional swamp is very deep and very corrupt. Current and former politicians and federal officials who have engaged in corrupt behavior, or who have facilitated corrupt -potentially unlawful- surveillance activity, are still working within the system to avoid exposure.

Another example was Christine Blasey-Ford hoax facilitator and Andrew McCabe attorney, Michael Bromwich, being hired by corrupt Chicago prosecutor Kim Foxx in an effort to protect herself from the outcome of the Jussie Smollett hoax in Chicago. Why does a Cook County, Illinois, State Attorney need to hire a DC-based lawyer?

It was obvious early on the Jussie Smollett hoax was connected to several members of the Obama team and network, the Smollett story directly connects to Kamala Harris. Michael Bromwich, who became Kim Foxxâ... s lawyer, is a former DOJ inspector general with ongoing direct contacts with corrupt DOJ and FBI officials inside the institutions. Chicago State Attorney Foxx hiring Bromwich is yet another example of DC managing the cover.

Suddenly all of the motives for all of these characters starts to merge with direct sunlight.

Whether itâ... s the identified weaponization of NSA databases to gain political leverage; or whether it was corrupt FBI officials covering for eachother and the DOJ â... declining to prosecuteâ... ; or whether it was the need to put Rod Rosenstein into a position where he could cover for Deep State activity; or whether it was AG

Bill Barr covering for the transparently corrupt former DAG Rod Rosenstein; or whether was the institutional need to hide DOJ scope memos given to Andrew Weissmann and Robert Mueller which initiated a false investigation (insurance policy) of a sitting United States President; or whether it is simply the need for the Obama crew to install an oblivious and cognitively impaired Biden so that Kamala Harris could continue the cover operation; one thing remains brutally obviousâ....!

Let all of this settle in, contemplate it for a while, follow the dots and citations, and a very clear picture emerges that explains the motives all of these corrupt characters are carrying.

Everything reconciles.

The Character Assassination And Defamation Plot Against Nikola Tesla

(See the new film: The Current War, about this story)

Hundreds of newspaper defamation and character assassination articles were paid for and published against Nikola Tesla by his oligarch enemies!

Who filled the newspapers with these attack articles designed to demoralize and financially damage Nikola Tesla?

It was Thomas Edison, George Westinghouse, Guglielmo Marconi and J.P. Morgan!

Oligarchs in Silicon Valley try to destroy inventors today just like the oligarch's did in the 1800's. They do it because the oligarchs are sociopath, egotistical frat boys who can buy their way out of any legal repercussions. Elon Musk, Tim Draper, Tom Perkins, Eric Schmidt, Steve Jurvetson, Larry Page, and the other nut-ball tech billionaires of today, use their windfall cash, daily, to hire Black Cube, Gizmodo, Fusion GPS, CrowdStrike and other "kill services" to destroy inventors and small companies who compete with them. In Ronan Farrow's Book: Catch And Kill, you can read about the dirty tricks services these oligarchs use today to criminally end the lives of those they dislike.

Per Tia Ghose: The Serbian-American scientist was a brilliant and eccentric genius whose inventions enabled modern-day power and mass communication systems.

His nemesis and former boss, Thomas Edison, was the iconic American inventor of the light bulb, the phonograph and the moving picture. The two feuding geniuses waged a "War of Currents" in the 1880s over whose electrical system would power the world â... Tesla's alternating-current (AC) system or Edison's rival direct-current (DC) electric power.

Tesla had an eidetic memory, which meant he could very precisely recall images and objects. This enabled him to accurately visualize intricate 3D objects, and as a result, he could build working prototypes using few preliminary drawings.

"He really worked out his inventions in his imagination," Carlson told Live Science.

Edison held 1,093 patents, according to the Thomas Edison National Historic Park. Tesla garnered less than 300 worldwide, according to a study published in 2006 at the Sixth International Symposium of Nikola Tesla. Edison had scores more assistants and underlings helping him write up inventions, and also bought some of his patents from others. Tesla was the more effective, disruptive and sole inventor of amazing technologies!

Most forward thinking

Though the light bulb, the phonograph and moving pictures are touted as Edison's most important inventions, other people were already working on similar technologies, said Leonard DeGraaf, an archivist at Thomas Edison National Historical Park in New Jersey, and the author of "Edison and the Rise of Innovation" (Signature Press, 2013).

"If Edison hadn't invented those things, other people would have," DeGraaf told Live Science.

In a shortsighted move, Edison dismissed Tesla's "impractical" idea of an alternating-current (AC) system of electric power transmission, instead promoting his simpler, but less efficient, direct-current (DC) system.

By contrast, Tesla's ideas were often more disruptive technologies that didn't have a built-in market demand. And his alternating-current motor and hydroelectric plant at Niagara Fallsâ... a first-of-its-kind power plant â... truly electrified the world.

Tesla also spent years working on a system designed to wirelessly transmit voices, images and moving pictures â... making him a futurist, and the true father of radio, telephone, cell phones and television. [\[Creative Genius: The World's Greatest Minds\]](#)

"Our entire mass communication system is based on Tesla's system," said Marc Seifer, author of "Wizard: The Life and Times of Nikola Tesla," (Citadel Press, 2001).

Edison's enduring legacy isn't a specific patent or technology, but his invention factories, which divided the innovation process into small tasks that were carried out by legions of workers, DeGraaf said. For instance, Edison got the idea for a moving picture camera, or kinetoscope from a talk by photographer Edward Muybridge, but then left most of the experimentation and prototyping to his assistant William Dickson and others. By having multiple patents and inventions developing in parallel, Edison, in turn, ensured that his assistants had a stable financial situation to continue running experiments and fleshing out more designs.

"He invents modern innovation as we know it," DeGraaf said.

Steve Jobs and Bill Gates. They were genius rivals: two American titans who transformed the technology industry and lived to see their visions of computers and electronic devices in billions of homes and offices around the world. Still, their philosophies and personalities were as different as night and day, or Macs and PCs, and over the years, they could not resist needling and antagonizing each other as they staked their claims in the global technology marketplace.

â... The only problem with Microsoft is they just have no taste,â... Jobs famously said in 1996. â... They have absolutely no taste. And I donâ... t mean that in a small way, I mean that in a big way, in the sense that they donâ... t think of original ideas, and they donâ... t bring much culture to their products.â...

In 2006, when Apple released its popular Mac vs. PC ads, wherein a hip young Jobs-like character interacts with a bumbling, back-office, brown-suited Gates type, Gates was clearly irritated. â... I donâ... t know why acting like itâ... s superior. I donâ... t even get it,â... Gates said. â... If you just want to say, â... Steve Jobs invented the world, and then the rest of us came along,â... thatâ... s fine.â...

Yet despite the barbs, (and occasional lawsuits) and despite the obvious competition, both Jobs and Gates were smart enough to know that there was room in the consumer market for Apple and Microsoft to coexist, and over the years, neither was too proud or too stung by the otherâ... s words to stop them from entering into various partnerships along the way. (In fact, in 1997 Microsoft infused Apple with $150 million in cash at a time when Jobs was brought back by the board of directors to serve as interim CEO, as Apple was suffering crippling financial losses.) The same, however, cannot be said for Thomas Edison and George Westinghouse, who, more than a century ago, engaged in a nasty battle over alternating and direct current, known as the â... War of Currents.â... Both men knew there was room for but one American electricity system, and Edison set out to ruin Westinghouse in â... a great political, legal and marketing gameâ... that saw the famous inventor stage publicity events where dogs, horses and even an elephant were killed using Westinghouseâ... s alternating current. The two men would play out their battle on the front pages of newspapers and in the Supreme Court, in the countryâ... s first attempt to execute a human being with electricity.

After Edison developed the first practical incandescent light bulb in 1879, supported by his own direct current electrical system, the rush to build hydroelectric plants to generate DC power in cities across the United States practically guaranteed Edison a fortune in patent royalties. But early on, Edison recognized the limitations of DC power. It was very difficult to transmit over distances without a significant loss of energy, and the inventor turned to a 28-year-old Serbian mathematician and engineer whom heâ... d recently hired at Edison Machine Works to help solve the problem. Nikola Tesla claimed that Edison even offered him significant compensation if he could design a more practical form of power transmission. Tesla accepted the challenge. With a background in mathematics that his inventor boss did not have, he set out to redesign Edison's DC generators. The future of electric distribution, Tesla told Edison, was in alternating current where high-voltage energy could be transmitted over long distances using lower current miles beyond generating plants, allowing a much more efficient delivery system. Edison dismissed Tesla's ideas as splendid but utterly impractical. Tesla was crushed and claimed that Edison not only refused to consider AC power, but also declined to compensate him properly for his work. Tesla left Edison in 1885 and set out to raise capital on his own for Tesla Electric Light & Manufacturing, even digging ditches for the Edison Company to pay his bills in the interim, until the industrialist George Westinghouse at Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company, a believer in AC power, bought some of Tesla's patents and set about commercializing the system so as to take electric light to something more than an urban luxury service. While Tesla's ideas and ambitions might be brushed aside, Westinghouse had both ambition and capital, and Edison immediately recognized the threat to his business.

Within a year, Westinghouse Electric began installing its own AC generators around the country, focusing mostly on the less populated areas that Edison's system could not reach. But Westinghouse was also making headway in cities like New Orleans, selling electricity at a loss in order to cut into Edison's business. By 1887, after only a year in the business, Westinghouse had already more than half as many generating stations as Edison. The concern at Edison was palpable, as sales agents around the country were demoralized by Westinghouse's reach into rural and suburban areas. But Thomas Edison had an idea. Surely Westinghouse's system must be more dangerous, what with all that voltage passing through the wires. Just as certain as death, Edison predicted, Westinghouse will kill a customer within 6 months after he puts in a system of any size.

In November 1887, Edison received a letter from a dentist in Buffalo, New York, who was trying to develop a more humane method of execution than hanging. Having witnessed a drunk man accidentally kill himself by touching a live electric generator, Alfred P. Southwick became convinced that electricity could provide a quicker, less painful alternative for criminals condemned to death. Perhaps the Wizard of Menlo Park might have some thoughts about the best electric current to produce death with certainty in all cases. Edison, who opposed capital punishment, at first declined to get involved with Southwick's project. But when the dentist persisted, Edison, recognizing the opportunity that had landed in his lap, wrote back to say that although he would join heartily in an effort to totally abolish capital punishment, he did have some thoughts about electric currents in which to dispose of criminals under sentence of death.

The most effective of these, he wrote, are known as alternating machines, manufactured principally in this country by Mr. Geo. Westinghouse, Pittsburgh.

In June 1888, Edison began to demonstrate the lethal power of alternating current for reporters. He rigged a sheet of tin to an AC dynamo and led a dog onto the tin to drink from a metal pan. Once the dog touched the metal surface, it yelped and the little cur dog fell dead.

Electricity will kill a man â... in the ten-thousandth part of a second,â... Edison told one reporter shortly after the demonstration, and he was quick to remind him that â... the current should come from an alternating machine.â...

The battle of the currents had begun. Westinghouse recognized what Edison was up to and wrote the inventor a letter, stating, â... I believe there has been a systemic attempt on the part of some people to do a great deal of mischief and create as great a difference as possible between the Edison Company and The Westinghouse Electric Co., when there ought to be an entirely different condition of affairs.â... Edison saw no reason to cooperate, and he continued his experiments at varying levels of voltage with dozens of stray dogs purchased from neighborhood boys in Orange, New Jersey at 25 cents each. Edisonâ... s research was soon proving that alternating current was, as he said, â... beyond all doubt more fatal than the continuous current.â... By the end of the year, Edison arranged a demonstration before a New York State committee impaneled to investigate the use of electricity in executions. At his West Orange laboratory, the inventor wired electrodes to several calves and a horse; even though the animalsâ... deaths were not quick, the committee was impressed. New York State expressed a desire to purchase â... three Westinghouse alternating-current dynamos,â... but Westinghouse refused to sell them for the purpose of what was now being described as â... electrocution.â... It did not matter. An electricity salesman named Harold Brown was commissioned by the state to build an electric chair, and Edison was paying him behind the scenes to use alternating current in his design. Somehow, Brown got his hands on some AC dynamos.

When New York State sentenced convicted murderer William Kemmler to death, he was slated to become the first man to be executed in an electric chair. Killing criminals with electricity â... is a good idea,â... Edison said at the time. â... It will be so quick that the criminal canâ... t suffer much.â... He even introduced a new word to the American public, which was becoming more and more concerned by the dangers of electricity. The convicted criminals would be â... Westinghoused.â...

Westinghouse was livid. He faced millions of dollars in losses if Edisonâ... s propaganda campaign convinced the public that his AC current would be lethal to homeowners. Westinghouse contributed $100,000 toward legal fees for Kemmlerâ... s appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, where it was argued that death in the electric chair amounted to cruel and unusual punishment. Both Kemmler and Westinghouse were unsuccessful, and on August 6, 1890, Kemmler was strapped into Harold Brownâ... s chair at Auburn prison and wired to an AC dynamo. When the current hit him, Kemmlerâ... s fist clenched so tight that blood began to trickle from his palm down the arm of the chair. His face contorted, and after 17 seconds, the power was shut down. Arthur Southwick, â... the father of the electric chair,â... was in attendance and proclaimed to the witnesses, â... This is the culmination of ten years work and study. We live in a higher civilization today.â...

Yet behind the dentist, Kemmler began to shriek for air.

â... Great God! Heâ... s alive!â... someone shouted.

â... Turn on the current! Turn on the current instantly!â... another screamed. â... This man is not dead!â...

But the dynamo needed time to build its current, and Kemmler wheezed and gasped before the horrified witnesses as the electricity began to course through his body. Some witnesses fainted while others vomited, as it appeared that Kemmler was on the verge of regaining consciousness. The back of his coat briefly caught fire. Minutes passed until Kemmler finally went rigid. The current stopped and he was pronounced dead by Dr. Edward Spitzka, who predicted, â... there will never be another electrocution.â...

Westinghouse was horrified by the reports of Kemmlerâ... s execution. â... It has been a brutal affair,â... he said. â... They could have done better with an ax.â...

Topsy the Elephant was electrocuted by Thomas Edisonâ... s technicians at Coney Island before a crowd of thousands. (Chicago Tribune)

Thomas Edison believed that future executions by AC current would go more smoothly, â... without the scene at Auburn today.â... To further demonstrate the lethal nature of alternating current, he held a widely attended spectacle in Coney Island, New York, where a circus elephant named Topsy was to be executed after she was deemed to be too dangerous to be around people. The elephant had killed three men in recent yearsâ... one a trainer who had tried to feed Topsy a lit cigarette. Edison had Topsy fitted with copper-wire sandals, and before a crowd of thousands, an AC current of 6,000 volts was sent coursing through the elephant until she toppled to her side, dead.

Despite all of Edisonâ... s efforts, and despite his attempts to persuade General Electric otherwise, the superiority of the AC current was too much for Edison and his DC system to overcome. In 1893, Westinghouse was awarded the contract to light the Chicago Worldâ... s Fair, bringing all the positive publicity he would need to make alternating current the industry standard. For his part, Edison later admitted that he regretted not taking Teslaâ... s advice.

The most important point about the Tesla- J P Morgan business relationship is: In essence, it was a clash between being led by greed and egotism, on the one side, vs being driven by the wish to benefit humanity, on the other. J P Morgan funded Teslaâ... s electrical projects for a while. When Tesla explained to him that his wireless transmitter-receiver would produce free electricity for the whole planet, and J P Morgan realized that it would not bring any profits for him, he withdrew his support. This way he, along with others like him, denied humanity of free energy. Free energy would have bankrupted their energy industries, including the oil industry. He was responsible, along many other ruthless businessmen, politicians and people without scruples, for denying the world free access to electricity, among other technological breakthroughs made by Tesla, and also for ruining and discrediting the greatest scientific mind of the 20th century.

About Edisonâ... s relationship with Tesla, it is true that he stole some of Teslaâ... s patents. Most of Edisonâ... s inventions were made by other people, who worked for him. He patented those discoveries under his name, and payed the real inventors very little money. Tesla said he was promised by Edison a much higher sum for his inventions, than the one he was given. So Edison criminally defrauded Tesla.

The Character Assassination And Defamation Plot Against Nikola Tesla

Hundreds of newspaper defamation and character assassination articles were paid for and published against Nikola Tesla!

Who filled the newspapers with these attack articles designed to demoralize and financially damage Nikola Tesla?

It was Thomas Edison, George Westinghouse and J.P. Morgan!

Oligarchs in Silicon Valley try to destroy inventors today just like the oligarch's did in the 1800's. They do it because the oligarchs are sociopath, egotistical frat boys who can buy their way out of any legal repercussions. Elon Musk, Tim Draper, Tom Perkins, Eric Schmidt, Steve Jurvetson, Larry Page, and the other nut-ball tech billionaires of today, use their windfall cash, daily, to hire Black Cube, Gizmodo, Fusion GPS, CrowdStrike and other "kill services" to destroy inventors and small companies who compete with them.

Per Tia Ghose: The Serbian-American scientist was a brilliant and eccentric genius whose inventions enabled modern-day power and mass communication systems.

His nemesis and former boss, Thomas Edison, was the iconic American inventor of the light bulb, the phonograph and the moving picture. The two feuding geniuses waged a "War of Currents" in the 1880s over whose electrical system would power the world â... Tesla's alternating-current (AC) system or Edison's rival direct-current (DC) electric power.

Tesla had an eidetic memory, which meant he could very precisely recall images and objects. This enabled him to accurately visualize intricate 3D objects, and as a result, he could build working prototypes using few preliminary drawings.

"He really worked out his inventions in his imagination," Carlson told Live Science.

Edison held 1,093 patents, according to the Thomas Edison National Historic Park. Tesla garnered less than 300 worldwide, according to a study published in 2006 at the Sixth International Symposium of Nikola Tesla. Edison had scores more assistants and underlings helping him devise inventions, and also bought some of his patents from others.

Most forward thinking

Though the light bulb, the phonograph and moving pictures are touted as Edison's most important inventions, other people were already working on similar technologies, said Leonard DeGraaf, an archivist at Thomas Edison National Historical Park in New Jersey, and the author of "Edison and the Rise of Innovation" (Signature Press, 2013).

"If Edison hadn't invented those things, other people would have," DeGraaf told Live Science.

In a shortsighted move, Edison dismissed Tesla's "impractical" idea of an alternating-current (AC) system of electric power transmission, instead promoting his simpler, but less efficient, direct-current (DC) system.

By contrast, Tesla's ideas were often more disruptive technologies that didn't have a built-in market demand. And his alternating-current motor and hydroelectric plant at Niagara Fallsâ... a first-of-its-kind power plant â... truly electrified the world.

Tesla also spent years working on a system designed to wirelessly transmit voices, images and moving pictures â... making him a futurist, and the true father of radio, telephone, cell phones and television. [Creative Genius: The World's Greatest Minds]

"Our entire mass communication system is based on Tesla's system," said Marc Seifer, author of "Wizard: The Life and Times of Nikola Tesla," (Citadel Press, 2001).

Unfortunately, Tesla's grand scheme failed when his financial backer, J.P. Morgan sabotaged Tesla in an ego battle.

What is it about the European Union and bad tech laws with boring names? Brussels managed to transform four harmless letters into a byword for irritating compliance-induced spam and pop ups as well as a consolidation of power for the internet's biggest players. Now that the GDPR dust has settled, along comes Article 13 of the Directive for Copyright in the Digital Single Market, which was approved by the European Parliament's Committee on Legal Affairs yesterday.

Article 13 requires websites to take appropriate and proportionate measures to make sure copyrighted material doesn't appear on their pages. It would also require sites to provide rightsholders with adequate information on the functioning and the deployment of measures. Then there is the jargon-laden instruction for Member States to facilitate cooperating between the information society service providers and rightsholders through stakeholder dialogues to define best practices.

Those appropriate and proportionate measures mean content recognition technologies along the lines of Content ID, the copyright filter that Google uses to stop YouTube users from uploading copyrighted videos. As open internet campaigner and writer Cory Doctorow has explained, everyone hates the filter:

â... Big rightsholders say that it still lets crucial materials slip through the cracks.

Indie rightsholders say that it lets big corporations falsely claim copyright over their works and take them down.

Google hates Content ID because they spent $60,000,000 developing a system that makes everyone miserable,...

and YouTubers and their viewers hate it because it overblocks so much legit content.â...

The EU seems to have looked at this way of doing things and decided it should be extended â... by law â... not just to all online videos, but to everything on the internet.

It is hard to overstate the extent of the threat this piece of legislation is to online culture as we know it. In an open letter to European Parliament President Antonio Tajani, a group of internet pioneers that includes Tim Berners-Lee, Vinton Cerf and Jimmy Wales spell out the danger:

â... Article 13 takes an unprecedented step towards the transformation of the Internet from an open platform for sharing and innovation, into a tool for the automated surveillance of its users.â...

Article 13 essentially amounts to an outsourcing of copyright enforcement to internet companies and imposes a requirement to check everything posted online for copyright infringement. That will have grave consequences for both free expression and competition.

That the legislation is bad news for free expression is inevitable for two reasons. The first is the inadequacy of the technology. As Doctorow explains, YouTube's filter just isn't very good at distinguishing copyright from non-copyright material. The same would be true of whatever firms are forced to implement by Brussels. And so, plenty of material that in no way falls foul of copyright law will be caught by the filters. Given that the internet platforms now responsible for policing copyright have little reason to be anything other than risk averse when it comes to preventing infringement, overkill seems unavoidable under Article 13.

But the bigger problem is that identifying material shouldn't be enough to automatically block its use. It's not hard to think of harmless pictures that could be caught by a filter because of a logo on a t-shirt or a poster on the wall. There is also the question of what is known as fair dealing in UK copyright law and fair use elsewhere. These are the exceptions that allow people to use copyrighted material if they are doing so for research, criticism, review, parody or a number of other uses. A filter that automatically blocks copyrighted material would make no allowance for these important cases.

This is, among many other things, bad news for good fun. Memes â... which very often involve the sharing, tweaking and re-sharing of copyrighted material â... wouldn't make it passed the proposed filters. Nor would countless other ways we use the internet.

Article 13 wouldn't just hurt users directly by limiting what they can post online, but indirectly by further tilting things in favour of the internet giants. The EU likes to talk tough â... and impose big fines â... on big tech. So why does it keep passing laws that impose regulatory burdens large firms can shoulder more easily than their smaller competitors?

The benefits of this copyright clampdown are nothing compared to the benefits of an open, vibrant online culture. But whereas the former are concentrated among a handful of industries, the latter are spread thinly across society. Such fights will always be imbalanced ones. But they are made worse when, as in Brussels, decision making is dysfunctional, remote and democratically deficient. That makes the legislative process easier to exploit by vested interests. Healthy political systems sometimes pass bad laws. But unhealthy political systems pass many more of them.

It is probably too late to stop Article 13. After very little public debate, it is set to be waved through a plenary session of the European Parliament. And so, with lamentably little fuss, the EU will have taken a big step towards ruining what makes the internet so great.

ZOG has been struggling to get control of the internet since its inception. If it can force these copyright laws on the EU goyim, then that will serve as a foundation to enforce it on all the planet's goyim.

ZOG genocide, warfare and false flags have become a part of the internet the same way they have history.

The Internet is great for one thing: It lets people connect and go viral.

You're talking ZOG? Well.. at my current company my phone witnessed them satanist Jews expel an abduction and sacrifice threat about me. I'm the real deal. Here you can download the sound bite: <https://ufile.io/854rb> . The snippet says "Trojka, do you want Goyim!", in Dutch as it's spoken, "Trojka, wil je gojim!".

It's a snippet from an 8+ hours recording during my work day where a good number of evil Jews work; one called me a 'scrawny bite' early in my employment. This recording is them talking in an integrated sports room at work, just after 5pm. I am constantly being terrorized by them. I have a good number of audio files recorded at work with condemning evidence.

Here you can read why they are on me. I have been under siege by them in my own country for a while now, by these Satanist Jew Kabballah cultists. They're real. And they've infested Western society everywhere.

Here are the posts, I suggest you read them well:

In 2015 I uncovered proof that the narrative surrounding the take-down of MH-17 is a total farce, a fabrication (the take-down by BUK missile). I can prove most Belling Cat images to be photoshop fraud by virtue of Laws of Physics. I've been on a truth-offense and they don't like it - I'm threatened and harassed. And, they're planning an abduction. As their Mossad Satanist agents call it: A "confiscation mission". After abduction, a satanic ritual murder by their female assassins will follow, after which they pass around goblets of blood obtained from the victim amongst their hard core satanist Jew culties.

MH-17 has been taken down by command of the Trojka through rogue NATO jet fighters under Zionist-Satanist control. They don't like their ruse being exposed by me. Let's make this go viral

I agree on MH17, one of the most crass false flags in history. But that isn't saying much.

Eric Karlstrom has written extensively about gang stalking. Peddling Fiction on this blog has written about them gas lighting him. I can well imagine that working in a feminized office in Holland is hell. I think most of Antifa are members of one or more satanist sect. You can usually tell them because they look like ghouls and their skin is grey and pasty.

The Hit Job

How much do you have to pay Google, Alphabet, YouTube and Black Cube to dedicate a portion of their servers to push a character assassination set of links, against a competitor, to all five billion people on Earth with internet access? How much did Obama, Clinton, Bloomberg spend using those exact same systems to attack their political enemies?

We know. We have their financial records, invoices and receipts and so does the FBI and the NSA.

How much do you have to pay to get them to lock those attack links on one of the first 4 lines of EVERY search result, in the same position in the search results, for over a decade (which proves that their search results are not "organic", they are manually manipulated by Google and YouTube)? How much did Obama, Clinton, Bloomberg spend using those exact same systems to attack their political enemies?

We know. We have their financial records, invoices and receipts and so does the FBI and the NSA.

How much does it cost to make a Disney-like animated movie about a whistle-blower? How much does the production and software and person-hour billings cost? How much does it cost to distribute that movie world-wide and lock it in the top line of all search results?

We know. We have their financial records, invoices and receipts and so does the FBI and the NSA.

How much does it cost to hire a warehouse full of Russian, Nigerian and Chinese click-farm operators who use Palantir and Google software to instantly be alerted of any mention of a person's name on the internet and to then go slam that person in the comment sections with endless troll remarks? Elon Musk uses these same people to hype his narcissistic need for attention. Obama, Clinton, Bloomberg and other politicians hire these same people to attack their political adversaries. How much does it cost to have anonymous trolls in foreign countries kill a person's brand globally?

We know. We have their financial records, invoices and receipts and a huge number of lawsuits, court records, federal investigation and investigative journalism reports have exposed those records and details. The FBI, NSA, SEC, FTC and Congressional investigators can also confirm these numbers!

So it turns out that it costs: $35,422,152.00 to have a person and their business killed!

That is how much they spent on their attack on the Plaintiff! The people at the top of the heap who organized the attacks were David Plouffe, Jay Carney, David Axelrod, Denis McDonough, Steve Rattner, Robert Gibbs, Rahm Emanuel and their associates and they did it from The West Wing and The Oval Office in The White House.

The attacks were edited by Nick Denton and his seedy tabloid empire Gawker/Gizmodo.

The money was conduited and assisted for pass-through by political financiers Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Sergey Brin, Elon Musk, John Doerr, Vinod Khosla, Steve Westly, Steve Spinner and their Silicon Valley oligarch Cartel black-listing operation.

It was a felony. It violated R.I.C.O., Anti-Trust and Constitutional laws.

So they spent over thirty five million dollars attacking the Plaintiff and shutting down a competitor that was targeted to make over six billion dollars in profits. The attackers then made the six billion dollars in profits for themselves, at the expense of the Plaintiff.

So how much do you think they owe the Plaintiff, per previous court awards for such crimes against a member of the public?

The attached article provides some fun holiday reading

IN-Q-TEL SPIES ARE PUBLICLY ACKNOWLEDGED TO BE WORKING AT ELON MUSK'S COMPANIES, ERIC SCHMIDT'S COMPANIES AND MARK ZUCKERBERG'S INVESTMENTS

Special submission to the Intercept by Rob Martin and S. Brown with The Guardian

Five tons of cocaine may seem like a lot of cocaine for a 501 C 3 non-profit charity to have on it... s airplanes but the little rogue Silicon Valley spy agency called I.N.Q.T.E.L. said that ... it just couldn't imagine how it got there... or why I.N.Q.T.E.L. flight manifests had decided to name the airplane ... Cocaine One...

Former editors at Silicon Valley's TechCrunch say that ... I.N.Q.T.E.L. is just an off-shoot of the Mark Zuckerberg/Eric Schmidt scheme to try to steer defense money to Silicon Valley VC's who funded the Obama campaign. In fact, all of the Big Data technologies that Silicon Valley tried to push off onto the Pentagon have failed on every front, found not a single terrorist ahead of time, been exploited by those VC's to spy on Americans for marketing and political manipulation and, got every major corporation hacked by the Russians and Chinese and, generally, turned into one of the biggest social technology disasters in history.

Chris Byron writes in the The New York Post that he thinks that the THE SPY AGENCY SHOULD CLOSE ITS VENTURE CAPITAL FIRM

... If former National Security Agency chief Michael Hayden hangs in there as President Bush's nominee to head the CIA and makes it to a Senate confirmation hearing, one of the panel's members should ask him this: "Sir, please tell the committee how much further you anticipate allowing the CIA to expand its presence on Wall Street via the private venture capital firm known as In-Q-Tel, Inc."

Hayden came under withering fire in Washington last week as word spread that the ex-NSA chief had presided over the White House's post-9/11 surveillance program of monitoring domestic U.S. telephone calls. The White House, politically weakened from a year of setbacks both at home and abroad, may decide to withdraw Hayden from consideration and submit an alternative nominee burdened with less civil liberties baggage.

Yet whoever winds up in the CIA's top job will inherit a developing mess involving In-Q-Tel that was largely ignored by the agency's departing director, Porter Goss. Hints that all is not well with In-Q-Tel have begun seeping into view as this little-known domestic CIA front operation continues to funnel agency money into penny stock and micro-cap companies in Wall Street's murkiest back alleys. Two In-Q-Tel CEOs have resigned from the six-year-old venture capital fund in just the last four months; the fund is being run on a day-to-day basis by a man from Washington's politically greased Carlyle Group who has been with In-Q-Tel for only a few weeks. Headhunters are said to be having trouble coming up with candidates for a permanent replacement.

And there are even reports, largely unconfirmed, that the Securities and Exchange Commission is looking into several penny stock promoters with ties to In-Q-Tel.

Launched in 1999 by CIA director George Tenet as a Wall Street venture fund to finance new technologies for the spy world, In-Q-Tel quickly found friends on Capitol Hill, where policymakers seized on the fund as a way to remind constituents that the ghost of Vietnam no longer walked the land. The attacks of 9/11 gave In-Q-Tel even more stature in Congress, where the fund came to be seen as an essential element in the war effort.

Yet the public's visceral reaction to last week's NSA revelations suggests that war or no war, a backlash against government snooping may be starting. And that in turn promises to crank up the heat under In-Q-Tel, where at least some of the fund's investments raise questions of judgment regarding how taxpayer money is being spent by the organization, as well as who it is choosing for business partners. A year ago, this column drew back the curtain on a fishy In-Q-Tel investment, financed out of the black box budget of the CIA, in a defense-sector start-up called Ionatron Inc.

Run by a longtime Wall Street regulatory violator named Robert Howard, Ionatron used a cash infusion from In-Q-Tel to promote itself around Washington as the developer of a laser-equipped, remotely controlled device the size of a golf cart that could patrol the highways of Iraq, ferreting out and detonating insurgent land mines ahead of troop movements.

We warned in this space that the technology being trumpeted by Ionatron was not only unproven, but had been obtained by Howard and some midlevel researchers at Raytheon Corp. under highly irregular circumstances designed to persuade a West Coast laser researcher into turning over his research to Howard's group.

Nonetheless, Sen. Hillary Clinton and her Democratic colleague from California, Barbara Boxer, quickly embraced the Ionatron program, which eventually devoured more than $12 million in government funding before the Pentagon finally concluded last week that the devices are not reliable and cancelled plans to deploy them.

Ionatron's stock price has tumbled more than a third in the last three weeks, leaving the company's largest investor - prominent hedge fund SAC Capital Advisors, run by Steven A. Cohen of Connecticut - sitting with millions in paper losses.

SAC Capital has acknowledged that it is under investigation by the SEC in what appears to be a separate matter involving stock trading, and the SEC may soon start taking a look into the hedge fund's buying of Ionatron's shares.

In-Q-Tel's growing portfolio of investments includes a few successes. Yet the fund has more often poured money into companies that were barking dogs long before In-Q-Tel showed up, and have failed to improve since.

Consider a North Carolina outfit called ID Technologies Corp., which began life in 1994 as CardGuard International Inc. to promote a fingerprint identification system no one wanted to buy. In the four years that followed, the company racked up losses of $3 million on a mere $92,000 in revenues.

In 1998, the company changed its name to ID Technologies and added $2.5 million more to the loss column on barely $100,000 more in revenues.

Along the way, In-Q-Tel popped up with plans to invest $400,000 more in ID Tech, but the firm collapsed, leaving investors with $5.58 million in cumulative losses and a stock that now sells for a fraction of a penny per share. Another In-Q-Tel investment, in a data software company called Convera Corp., may be headed in the same direction, bearing much greater losses. In 2004 the fund took a stake in Convera, which had yet to turn a profit while piling up more than $1 billion in cumulative losses since its founding in the mid-1980s.

By the end of 2005, a resulting bounce in Convera stock had topped out at $16, and the shares have since lost half their value. Last week they were trading below $8 on investor disenchantment with the perennial money loser's latest offering: an Internet search engine for extracting information from video files.

Because its funding comes from the CIA, In-Q-Tel has been an irresistible target for conspiracy theorists who charge that the CIA is somehow linked through it to every penny stock that goes south. Last week, one left-leaning Web site reported that SEC investigators think the CIA-backed venture fund has been steering money into penny stock "pump and dump" firms in Israel, Dubai and Malaysia. But a day's worth of phoning around traces these claims to a tireless complainant named Tony Ryals, who has been bombarding the SEC and Internet message boards for years with claims that he has uncovered a submerged world of In-Q-Tel-linked fraud stretching for Kuala Lumpur to the Middle East.

The alleged linkages are bewildering in their complexity and typically impossible to follow, but conspiracy buffs find them irresistible, since they seem to echo some of the CIA's worst excesses from 30 to 40 years ago, and by their nature, they can never be entirely disproved.

WHETHER the SEC has looked into Ryals' charges and found them baseless isn't known, but thanks to In-Q-Tel and the lengthening shadow of the CIA on Wall Street, the most improbable of such claims once again have a whiff of credibility.

Bottom line: There are many sensible ways the CIA could have gone about developing the technologies it needs, but funneling money into Wall Street via an outfit like In-Q-Tel was never one of them. So it will be a good thing for Wall Street - and for America, too - if the CIA's next spymaster simply shuts the operation down. (cbyron@nypost.com)

Bob Simon, of the CBS News 60 Minutes TV show, thought that I.N.Q.T.E.L. was a bunch of wanna beâ... s from Stanford and Yale. The internetâ... s Corbett Report has produced numerous documentaries which describe I.N.Q.T.E.L. as nearly psychotic fringe-mentality yuppie spies with their own private agenda.

Thomas Ricks explains how I.N.Q.T.E.L. and New America Foundation, who are, essentially the same organization want all war to now be fought by Silicon Valley technologies. Isnâ... t that convenient for those Silicon Valley campaign financiers?

â... The Future of War: A New America project looking at 21st century conflict. In the interest of improving our national security, protecting our rights, and helping get us out of the endless "war on terror," the New America Foundation is launching a project on the future of war. Here is a look at the initial thinking, which is liable to change as our various participants bring to bear their very different areas of expertise. Plus, isn't it time that there was a study of the future of defense funded by neither the Pentagon nor the defense industry?

By the Future of War team, New America Foundation (Controlled by Eric Schmidt and Google) Best Defense office of the future. Throughout history, changes in the conduct of warfare have been one of the primary drivers of shifts in how societies and states are organized. Today, the evolution of autonomous weapons systems, the emergence of ever more sophisticated surveillance technologies, the militarization of cyberspace and outer space, and a range of similar developments are dramatically changing the nature of war -- with profound implications for the nature of the international order, the manner in which we control and constrain power and violence, and the nature of the state itself. Few seem fully to grasp this, however. For the most part, these changes in the means and methods of warfare are usually viewed narrowly, and understood as matters of interest mainly to specialized communities of policy wonks, military planners, civil libertarians, or counterterrorism experts. As with the story of the blind men and the elephant, many people are looking at different facets of the changing nature of war, each trying to describe what they see (and often misunderstanding what it is they are seeing). That's not good enough: We need to look at the whole elephant.

With the United States still locked into a "forever war" paradigm that doesn't comport with American values or history, it's more urgent than ever to understand the ways in which changes in the nature of war both drive and are driven by changes in state-level, sub-state-level, and international policies and institutions. At the same time states are developing unprecedented military technologies, the means of mass destruction have been democratized: Today, terrorist organizations and other non-state actors can cause damage and destruction on a scale we normally associate with states. Meanwhile, new technologies are eroding old assumptions about sovereignty and state autonomy. Nonetheless, we still operate mainly within a legal and political paradigm that draws sharp -- if increasingly arbitrary-- lines between domestic and international matters, between states and non-state actors, and between war and crime.

It's increasingly apparent that existing legal paradigms neither provide adequate tools for responding to new kinds of threats nor offer an appropriate framework for protecting human rights and human dignity. As we move forward, we need to find a way to evolve beyond the post-9/11 state of perpetual war -- and we need to do so in a way takes into account these seismic changes, allows for an adaptive response to evolving threats, and enhances the robust protection of human rights.

The New America Foundation is well positioned to sort out the thorny issues that arise from the changing nature of warfare. Unlike most think tanks and NGOs, New America isn't made up of specialists having "insider" conversations with one another: lawyers talking to other lawyers, or defense policy experts talking to other defense policy experts. Instead, New America connects the worlds of law, technology, political science, history, policy, the military, the human rights community, and the media, each of which often operates in isolation.

Core members of New America's Future of War team include journalists, technologists, military history and terrorism experts, human rights experts, and international law and defense policy experts. Our individual and collective expertise and connections enable us to convene the most creative and influential thinkers, writers, and decision-makers from these varied and often separate worlds; develop bold conceptual frameworks combined with more specific legal and policy proposals; write and talk about these intelligibly and interestingly; and attract extensive media coverage to our work and our recommendations. The Future of War project is led by Peter Bergen, director of national security studies at the New America Foundation and the author of several books. This series was drafted by him and the team's other members: Rosa Brooks, Anne-Marie Slaughter, Sascha Meinrath, and Tom Ricks.â... If that isnâ... t a pitch for â... # The Mechanics of Deception

Much has been said and written about Christopher Steele's authorship of the notorious document that alleges Russia-Trump collusion. According to Glenn Simpson of Fusion GPS (who plead the Fifth and only spoke through his lawyers), Steele was hired by them in June 2016 to gather information about "links between Russia and [then-presidential candidate] Donald Trump." Pursuant to that business arrangement, Steele prepared a series of reports styled as intelligence briefings, some of which were later compiled into a collection of documents and published by a number of media outlets and later become known as the "Trump dossier."

On the face of the dossier, it appears that Steele gathered his data from multiple sources in Russia, former Soviet union (FSU) countries, and the US. He then edited the raw intelligence which seems to be a combination of conversations and notes organized it in a summarized brief format, and published/leaked it in parts or in its entirety on a spiraling schedule.

Image 1: The Dossier events and publication schedule

My initial impression reading the dossier was that the writing was sloppy and that it did not resemble an intelligence report. It exhibited multiple writing styles and writers, both English and non-English speakers, and it was assembled in haste. I also thought that in many ways, it paralleled the plot line of the Dreyfus Affair. As in the case of the â... dossierâ... and the Bordereau from the Dreyfus case, the Trump dossier was presented as undeniable proof of collusion. Yet, itâ... s uncertain who composed it, how it was collected, or even if the document is genuine.

Just like its nineteenth century French predecessor, the Trump dossier too had a powerful social and political impact in the US. Its content has dominated the news and has raised substantial questions about the rule of law, the political impartiality of senior federal career bureaucrats, and the true extent of the separation of powers in government.

Russia vs. Non-Russia issues on MSNBCâ... s news coverage

Considering all of the dossierâ... s unusual aspects, I decided to take a little time and do a deeper dive into its structure and content. In this post, Iâ... ll demonstrate how by using readily available OSINT tools and techniques, video analytics, and writing style analysis, we can pinpoint the likely sources, methods, and the individuals involved in the creation and distribution of this document.

I would like to apologize for the lengthy and somewhat overwhelming amount of detail in this write-up. Contrary to common belief, the truth is rarely concise, pure, and never simple. As Proverbs 1:2-7 implies, the acquisition of knowledge and understanding does require an investment of time and effort. in the spirit of full disclosure, I was not paid to produce this research and I am not affiliated with democratic or republican circles. My objective in writing this posting was to provide the layman reader not otherwise versed in intelligence gathering and analysis techniques with basic facts and insight so that they can form their own educated opinions on the matter.

The Dossier Team

Even after several testimonies and investigative reports, the composition of the dossier team is still shrouded in secrecy. When Glenn Simpson testified on November 8th and 14th in front of the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, he was vague and evasive about the names of the people that worked on the document and just said that he hired Steele, who then:

â... Use[d] hisold contacts and farmed out other research to native Russian speakers who made phone calls on his behalfâ... .

Two of these â... native Russian speakersâ... were subsequently identified as Nellie Ohr and Edward Baumgartner. But even after this revelation, there are still many unanswered questions about this team. For example, what was the organizational structure of their network? How and where was the raw intelligence collected, stored, and transmitted? Or, how was Steele, a private British national living in England able to so quickly and effectively reach top US politicians like McCain and Pelosi, publish through and get full backing from media outlets like Yahoo, NYT and WaPo, and gain access to senior officials at the State Department, the DOJ, and FBI?

Before we jump-in, letâ... s first review ourdramatis personÃ!

Glenn Simpson and Fusion GPS

Simpson is the public face of Fusion GPS. He was the prime contact for Perkins-Coie, the US law firm that paid for the dossier on behalf of the DNC, the Clinton presidential campaign, and several other financiers. Simpson controlled and managed dossier contractors like Nellie Ohr, Edward Baumgartner, Chris Steele, and Chris Burrows. From his own testimony we know that he was the â... architect of the researchâ... and the first contributor to it. He graduated from George Washington University in 1986 with a degree in journalism. From 1989-1994 he worked as a reporter for Roll Call, where he met his wife Mary Jacoby, and then later at The Wall Street Journal 1995-2009.

Simpson also held a number of consulting and freelance investigative positions including one in 2004 with the International Assessment and Strategy Center (IASC).

The 2004 IASC website and Glenn Simpson's profile

In 2010 Simpson, his wife Mary Jacoby, Peter Fritsch, and Benjamin Schmidt formed Bean LLC, and gave it the trade name Fusion GPS. Shortly afterwards, Neil King Jr. and Tom Catan joined the team.

According to the original Fusion GPS website (before its content was purged and replaced with a single generic paragraph):

â... Fusion GPS brings to your project years of experience in collecting and sifting open source and proprietary intelligenceâ... . They also claimed to have a â... global network of contacts and a proven record for accuracy and professionalism and having a â... high-level relationships in government and the media, legal, and policy communitiesâ... .

The statement about having a â... global networkâ... of resources and â... high-level relationships in governmentâ... is interesting because Chris Steele makes this identical claim about his own company Orbis. Fusion GPS also prided itself on its team of experts that had special depth in matters of financial fraud and complex due diligence. Their value proposition was described as:

â... Our work begins where routine surveys of public information leave off: we explore sources others overlook, as well as the complex human and cultural relationships crucial to investment decisions and performanceâ... .

Image 2: Fusion GPS Website circa January 2011

Fusion GPS original founder biographies

The Fusion GPS mission statement was:

Based in Washington, DC, Fusion also stands at the crossroads of the regulatory, policymaking and enforcement communities increasingly important to the sound allocation of capital. We know the people on the front lines of issues related to trade, technology, natural resources and security. Our specialists can provide support in matters of regulatory compliance, asset recovery and market intelligence.

We have the ability to present information in powerful products written by a team of specialists trained in producing material for some of the most discerning readers in the world, including the President of the United States and the readers of The Wall Street Journal.

It is clear from Fusion GPS's own materials that in 2011 and onwards that the company was already producing products in the form of commercial, financial, and political reports that were reaching the Oval Office and were being read by the president himself.

The stripped down version of the Fusion GPS website in 2018

By 2015, Fusion GPS had offices in Washington D.C., LA, and London with a headcount in excess of 22 individuals that included:

1. Glenn Simpson
2. Mary Jacoby

3. Peter Fritsch
4. Tom Catan
5. Jason Felch
6. Neil King Jr.
7. David Michaels
8. Taylor Sears
9. Patrick Corcoran
10. Laura Seago
11. Jay Bagwell
12. Erica Castro
13. Jason Raymond
14. Benjamin Schmidt
15. Joshua Levy
16. Jackie Flores
17. David Ford
18. Jason Schwartz

The political makeup of the team was exclusively democratic with many of the employees and interns having a strong political connection to the Clinton or Obama administrations. Jason Raymond, the Research Director, came from John Kerry's press office and was affiliated with USAID; Laura Seago, a senior analyst, came from the Brennan Center for Justice and was also affiliated with USAID. It's also noteworthy that the senior management had a documented history of misconduct and ethical-related issues. Glenn Simpson has a Profane Cursing and Public Intoxication conviction; Jason Felch, a former reporter and the managing partner of the LA office, was fired from the LA Times for deceitful reporting. He was also cheating on his wife on multiple occasions with his Occidental College investigative source. Tom Catan, his wife Begoña Seguro, and Peter Fritsch were involved in vicious attacks and a character assassination campaign against a fellow reporter.

Christopher David Steele and Orbis Business Intelligence

Steele is â... officiallyâ... the primary author of the dossier and a second contributor after Simpson. He graduated from Cambridge University in 1986 with a degree in Social and Political Sciences. While at college, he wrote for the student newspaper Varsity. Steele was recruited by MI6 directly following his graduation. From 1987 to 1989, he worked in London at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO), then from 1990 to 1993 at the UK Embassy in Moscow. Steele returned to London in 1993 and was posted to Paris in 1998. In 1999, his cover was blown when a media leak disclosed the identity of 116 MI6 agents.

In 2009, Steele and his fellow MI6-retiree Chris Burrows and Nicholas Butcher founded the private intelligence agency HL3299 Limited, later renamed Orbis Business Intelligence. In 2014, Steele and Burrows registered Walsingham Training, with Orbis being the majority controller.

In 2017, Steele and Burrows formed the holding company Chawton Holdings Limited and renamed â... Walsingham Trainingâ... to â... Walsingham Training Limitedâ... , then renamed it again to â... Walsingham Partners Limitedâ... . The majority control of the company was then switched to Chawton Holdings.

Image 3: Christopher Steele and Chris Burrows LinkedIn profiles

According to the Orbis website, the company draws on extensive experience at the boardroom level, in government, multilateral diplomacy, and international business to develop bespoke solutions for clients. In 2011 before the dossier affair blow up, they were also promoting their surveillance, psychological warfare expertise, and influence operations capabilities which included services such as:

- Creating public opinion groundswells
- Delivering targeted political media campaigns

Just like in the case of Fusion GPS, Orbis also claims to have a â... global network of senior associates which is made up of regional, industry and academic experts, as well as prominent government and business figures, their expertise and a closed network of contacts worldwideâ... .

Orbis Business Intelligence Website in 2011

Image 4: Orbis Business Intelligence Website 2018

The Orbis mission statement is:

â... Our core strength is our ability to meld a highâ... level source network with a sophisticated investigative capability. We provide strategic advice, mount intelligenceâ... gathering operations and conduct complex, often crossâ... border investigations.â...

Unlike Orbisâ... business pitch, Walsingham Training professed to deliver full logistic and tactical intelligence agency services.

â... Itâ... s a hostile world out there. Whether â... out thereâ... is in the back streets of Kinshasa or negotiating around a table in New York, we understand this all too well. The same skills apply whether you are penetrating terrorist networks, winning over African warlords, or making nuanced corporate decisions in London or in frontier markets: you have to build a team you can trust, equip and then motivate to deliver. Fortunately, these skills can be learnt and honed so that they become second nature.

Walsingham Training delivers bespoke training programs for our clients based off our proprietary modules:

- Targeting and crafting approaches to investors or potential clients using intelligence to spot opportunities, vulnerabilities and access points.
- Instrumentality persuading people using a diplomatic and psychological skill set is an essential part of manipulating personal encounters to your own advantage.
- Deployment High pressure, high stakes decision-making in complex environments like Russia and China as demonstrated by former senior diplomats.
- Tradecraft Understanding and mitigating the cyber and physical risk posed by hostile states, criminals and companies.
- Taking risks Identifying, quantifying and managing risks in developed and frontier markets to stay ahead of the competition compliantly.

Walsingham Training Website 2015

Orbis and Walsingham have an interesting association with a number of companies such as: PS21, the SETA Foundation, and Grace Electronics Limited. Grace Electronics for example, is a 40 year old PC and laptop distributor. The now hidden Orbis/Walsingham ICANN registry lists one Alex Buckland, an employee of Grace Electronics, as the website technical and administrative contact since 2009.

Registrant: Orbis Business Intelligence Limited

But according to Grace Electronics, they donâ... t provide any website support, development, nor management. Sounds like the IT equivalent of the Monty Python sketch about the cheese store that doesnâ... t sell any cheese.

Nellie Hauke Ohr

Ohr was the third contributor to the dossier. She earned a degree in history and Russian literature from Harvard-Radcliff 1982â... 1983 and MA and PhD in history from Stanford 1986-1990.

Image 5: Nellie Ohr

After graduation she worked for:

- Accenture iDefense (acquired from VeriSign) â... Principal Mar 2017
- VeriSign iDefense â... Cyber Threat Intelligence Researcher Dec 2016 â... Feb 2017
- Fusion GPS â... Analyst content Creator Mar 2016 â... Dec 2016
- Miklos Systems â... Senior Analyst Mar 2015 â... Dec 2015
- Plessas Experts Network â... Analyst content Creator Oct 2013 â... Jan 2015

- MITRE Corporation â... Linguist analyst Jan 2000 â... Dec 2008
- Vassar College â... Assistant Professor, History Department Jan 1990 â... Dec 1998

She spent some time in Russia during the 1990s and according to at least one source, had powerful political connections there. In her book Adventures in Russian Historical Research, Cathy Frierson writes: â... Nellie encouraged me to call the Smolensk archive [the home of Russiaâ... s historical state secrets] director, assuring me that he would welcome me.â...

Edward Emil Baumgartner

Baumgartner was the forth contributor to the dossier. He is a British/French national. He earned his BA in history from Vassar College in 1995 and an MA in Russian, Eastern European, and Central Asian Studies from Harvard in 2000.

Image 6: Edward Baumgartner

Baumgartner's university track (source LinkedIn profile)

Baumgartner specializes in the Former Soviet Union (FSU). He started as an independent consultant in the FSU focusing on research and business intelligence. From 2002 to 2005, he was a Russia consultant at a London-based public relations company. His clients included Russian and Ukrainian government-owned and private organizations.

In 2008, Baumgartner founded the UK based political consultancy Baumgartner Limited. In 2010, together with Peat Austin Alexander, he co-founded the UK-based intelligence consulting firm Edward Austin.

The firm's mission statement:

With an established network spanning the FSU and beyond, Edward Austin serves clients in the private and public sectors worldwide. We are pan-FSU. Alongside extensive work in Russia, Kazakhstan and Ukraine the region's three main economies we have completed numerous projects on the ground in the wider Central Asia region (Kyrgyzstan, Mongolia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan), the Caucasus (Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia), the Baltics (Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania), Belarus and Moldova. Reinforcing this is a global network of trusted partners, enabling us to undertake work across jurisdictions worldwide.

The Analysis: Methods and Tools

The data collection and analysis environment was based primarily on open source tools. Iâ... ve also utilized several commercial packages to fill-in the gaps in the framework. The following are the solution components:

- OS â... Windows Server 2016
- Big Data Stack â... Hadoop, Zeppelin, Kafka, Storm, and Spark frameworks
- Scripting â... VisualBasic.Net and Python

The Analysis:

System Architecture

The Analysis: Data Sources

To identify the entities and build the dossier network Iâ... ve used the following publically available sources (see above architecture diagram for more details):

- Server and computer logs
- Network scans and maps
- Federal, state, media, and news archives
- Email, forum, websites, blog, and message archives and backups
- Publically accessible IoT devices and cams
- On-line image and file depositaries
- Social media postings by friends, neighbors, and family
- LinkedIn profiles
- Twitter profiles
- FB profiles
- Corporate and court filings
- Commercial BR sources

The Analysis: Data Processing

The total data storage was about 7TB, the loading time for the data was about 6 hours, and the processing time (entity creation, enrichment, linkage, and anomaly detection) was about 36 hours. I also spent about 2 hours writing scripts to FR, LPR, and OCR some of the PDFs and images before they could be loaded into the database. The operation was executed on a Dell PowerEdge R630 server with a 4 x 4TB array of SSD Intel P4500 series drives, a quad Intel Xeon E5-4669 2.1GHz processor, and 64GB of RAM.

The following is a summary of the objects in the inventory database:

| Object Type                | Quantity | Comments                                            |
|----------------------------|----------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| Facial Images              | 72,284   | Used for Person of Interest (POI) searches          |
| Company Logos              | 1306     | Used for on-line searches                           |
| Emails                     | 27,051   | Individual emails                                   |
| Linkages                   | 80,190   | Total number of individuals in the network          |
| Gravatars                  | 617      | Used for on-line ecommerce activity                 |
| Avatars                    | 4564     | Images used in lieu of photos                       |
| Icons                      | 71,388   | Icons used in SM and other platforms                |
| Image Patterns             | 43       | Used to general entity searches                     |
| Classified graphic objects | 12,591   | Conference tags, name tags, business cards, etc.    |
| Cars                       | 11,914   | License plate, made, and model                      |
| General images             | 270,855  | General photographs containing geo tagged data      |
| Sound files                | 180      | Recordings of speeches and interviews               |
| Video Files                | 823      | Video of interviews and presentations               |
| Writing samples            | 112      | Assays, dissertations, articles, book reviews, etc. |

For the image processing Iâ... ve used an ML based object classifier to detect and track items such as social media avatars, gravatars, icons, and logos.

An example of a Facebook avatar, company logos, and patterns used in image object searches

An example of pattern match search results for a Grace Electronics Limited logo

In order to conduct face recognition (FR) on persons of interest (POI), Iâ... ve digitized and reconstructed the portraits of all key dossier team members. These digital portraits where then used to perform recursive on-line searches to discover and catalog the identity of additional individual in the proximity of the POI.

A sampling of digitized and indexed faces from a 72,284 POI database used for face recognition, image searches, and linkage analysis

In addition to the automated linkage and entity identification generated by the system, Iâ€¦ ve also used manual searches utilizing FR, keywords (both literal and keyword Insight based), and object searches. This was done to review anomalies (e.g. an individual that is using two completely different names) and help seed the system with quality entry data. The following are a few illustrations of various search methods and their results.

FR matches for keyword searches â... Nellie+Bruce Ohrâ... and â... Martha Ohr+EKMâ... and example of one 2 degree network linkage to the ABC News anchor Jeremy Hubbard and his reporter wife Taunia Hottman and their SM Russia collusion and anti-Trump activity

2. Geospatial data for his network including: residence, travel patterns, family events, and vacation locations
3. Social network linkage

4. Professional network linkage
5. Anomalies such as association with drug use, firearms, deviance, etc.

In the pre-data processing operation, Iâ... ve used a number of scrubbing algorithms like cleansing, parsing, name standardization, and shingling in order to account for variation in name spelling, different home addresses, and multiple phone numbers. This insured that we would get the most accurate entity linkage, match, rate, and entity details. The process flow below illustrates how a company name and address are processed to insure that any permutation and variation in the name would be accounted for in the on-line searches.

Cleansing, parsing, standardization, and permutation generation process flow for phrase linkage processing

Also, the identification of the strongest relationships between entity names was based on several proximity calculations. In the example below, the relationship between â... Mary Jacobyâ... and â... Glenn Simpsonâ... is determined by a number of known linkage points.

| ID | Entity Name           | Glenn R Simpson | Glenn Simpson | Glenn Richard Simpson |

All entities were crossed correlated with multiple public registries and databases such as sex offender, criminal, and civil records, DMV, and real-estate registries. As can be seen from the example below Glenn Simpson matched in multiple categories and jurisdictions.

... we also taken into account the possibility that some of the entities did not want to be identified and were utilizing countermeasures like false portrait images, names, addresses, and fictitious registration in order to disguise their location and relationships (a technique used by almost every dossier affiliated team member). Any such linkage anomaly mismatch was flagged and verified manually. For example, Mary Jacoby who according to her professional profile is typically associated withâ...

To determine the network graph of people, companies, and content (Image 8), Iâ... ve used these seven entity relationships rules:

- Place and time affiliation
- Share the same professional, educational, family, or recreational circles
- Have a marital, teacher-student, parent-child, or employee-employer relationship
- Demonstrate a known public association (i.e. belong to the same social network)
- Communicate with each other via email, phone, text, blog comments, etc.
- Work for the same company or organization
- Confirm a relationship via a statement or testimony

Iâ... ve limited the input/output to two degrees of separation between entities and organizations. However, I did use a three degrees of separation linkage several times in order to trace indirect relations between what on the surface appeared to be random groupings of individuals (e.g. the five person party listed with the same UID U99520 accompanying Mary Jacoby during her April 19 White House visit).

Image 8: An examples of two user entity profiles

The Dossier Network

The network graph analysis indicates that the fellowship of the dossier is a close-knit group; everyone knew each other long before embarking on the quest to find the alleged Russian collusion. All of the project key players are related through marriage, family relations, or work affiliations. As can be seen in images 9-10, this team collaborated in various member configurations on many other “dossier projects” and utilized the same collection methods, materials, resources, political network, and publication channels. Some of these affiliations go back more than 30 years.

Image 9: The Dossier Network, the actors, entities, and their roles

These relationships between the team members transcended their changing places of employment and job titles. The following is a short sampling of the dossier network linkage results:

Christopher Steele knew Sir Andrew Wood from his days at the UK Diplomatic Service since 1986. In 2013, Wood had a paid consulting gig with Orbis. Sir Richard Dearlove, the former head of MI6 who promoted the Dossier in UK, Australian, Canadian, and US government circles was Steele's boss in MI6. Steele knew and worked with Paoblo Miller in MI6 since 1994 and Luke Harding from The Guardian since 1996; Harding and Miller were also Orbis and Hakluyt contractors since 2009.

Steele and Chris Burrows worked with Stefan Halper as early as 2005. Steele knew Jonathan Clarke from his days in MI6 and communicated and met him in the US. Burrows knew and communicated with Joseph Mifsud since 2010. Edward Baumgartner had been contracting with Orbis and Hakluyt since 2011. Steel and Burrows knew and worked with Nigel Inkster from MI6 for over twenty years. They continued to work with him when he joined IISS and PS21. Inkster was also Sir Richard Dearlove's deputy in SIS.

Orbis hired US nationals that previously held US government positions. For example, Tatianna Duran, an Orbis Senior Intelligence Analyst, previously worked for the US State Department and had a US government 'Secret' security clearance. Tatianna Duran and Nigel Inkster worked together at PS21 and with Ilya Zaslavskiy at the Chatham House.

An example of Tatianna Duran, one of the Orbis employees, and her linkages using FR and keyword searches such as: 'Orbis', 'PS21', and 'Chatham House'.

Chris Burrows exchanged dossier related emails with Nicholas Fishwick, the former director of PGI and an MI6 officer, and with Stefan Halper who consulted for Hakluyt, a private UK intelligence firm similar to Fusion GPS and Orbis Business Intelligence.

Steele and Burrows had a long term working relationship with several other semi-active British foreign office individuals like, Charles Crawford, a former UK ambassador to South Africa, who was stationed with Steele in Moscow in 1993 and Raymond Asquith, a former British diplomat to Russia in 2009.

Steele's and Burrows's professional network and email communications also include multiple active and retired British intelligence officers like Claire Smith, a member of the UK Joint Intelligence Committee who Steele knew from their joint work in Afghanistan. Steele met with Sir Richard Dearlove in person and communicated with him via email and text messaging in March 2016 and onwards regarding the dossier.

Halper, Clarke, Downer, Smith, Dearlove, Crawford, Lobban, MI6, LAD, and Hakluyt Linkage

Steele worked with the FBI as early as 2010 on the FIFA investigation. In 2016, he met them several times including at two meetings with agent Michael Gaeta, a leading FBI Russia corruption expert, in Rome and in London to discuss the dossier. Gaeta coordinated and got clearance for these meetings from Victoria Nuland at the State Department. Gaeta was the FBI case officer in Europe and controlled Orbis, Stefan Halper, and the Hakluyt dossier assets.

Michael Gaeta Linkage to US embassy in Rome and dossier related activity

Agent Michael Gaetaâ s Biography

Michael Gaeta began his FBI career in 1996 in the New York Field Office where he investigated and supervised La Cosa Nostra organized crime cases for thirteen years. In 2009, Mr. Gaeta became the supervisory special agent for the Eurasian Organized Crime squad. Under his direction, the Eurasian Organized Crime squad aggressively addressed the Eurasian Organized Crime threat and engaged with domestic and international law enforcement partners to advance cases and develop and share intelligence. The squad had scores of successful indictments in high profile cases that indicted fraud amounts over $400 million (USD) and indicted laundered amounts over $200 million (USD) during his tenure. Mr. Gaeta joined the FBIâ s Legal AttachÃ© Office in Rome as the Assistant Legal AttachÃ© in May 2014. Prior to working for the FBI, Mr. Gaeta practiced law in New York City.

Baumgartner, Nellie Ohr, Bruce Ohr, and David Kramer are all Harvard alumni. Nellie Ohr knew Stefan Halper since at least 2000. Nellie Ohr also worked in the MITRE Corporation with Halperâ s son Marin Halper for six years from 2002-2008.

Example of Linkage based on MITRE company name and logo, address, and phone number for Stefan Halper, Marin Halper, and Nellie Ohr

Peter Fritsch, Nellie Ohr, and Baumgartner all attended Vassar College. Nellie Ohr and Baumgartner were together at the History department at Vassar between 1991-1995, where Baumgartner was her student.

Between 2008-2014, Ohr worked for Open Source Works and Plessas Experts Network, a company specializing in OSINT. The company had a contract to provide OSINT development and training for the US Intelligence community (IC). Both, Nellie and Kirby Plessas, the owner of the company knew each other since at least 2008. Both also communicated with each other and with Dale Walter, the director of Open Source Works using email accounts on @open-source-works.org email system.

Nellie Ohr, Kirby Plessas, Plessas Experts Network, and Open Source Works linkages

Tom Catan, knew and worked with Steele, Harding, Burrows, and Baumgartner since 2011. Catan's wife Begoña Segurola and Fritch's former wife Beatriz Hidalgo are from Spain/Mexico and the two families have known each other for over 30 years.

Glenn Simpson and his wife Mary Jacoby knew Bruce and Nellie Ohr from their days at the International Assessment and Strategy Center as early as 2004. Simpson and Jacoby knew and worked with Stefan Halper at the WSJ since 1996. They also knew Steele from their days at the WSJ going back to 2009.

Glenn Simpson's wife, Mary Jacoby, founded Main Justice in 2009, a company specializing in paid corruption research and reporting. She has been the Chief Executive at Fusion GPS since 2010. Jacoby also worked as a reporter for organizations such as GIR, and Law Business Research (which purchased Main Justice in 2015). While at Main Justice, she worked with Bruce Ohr and in fact nominated his FIFA investigation for the GIR Anti-Corruption award.

As can be gleaned from Main Justice's mission statement below, Mary and her merry band of for rent corruption fighters were assembling and selling opposition research and dossiers as early as 2009.

â... Main Justice and our subscription-only site, Just Anti-Corruption, services top law firms and corporate counsel, business leaders of Fortune 500 companies, U.S. Department of Justice, Securities and Exchange Commission, World Bank, and International Monetary Fund. It offers on-demand research tools, published analysis from leading practitioners, access to a preparatory searchable FCPA (The Foreign Corrupt Practice) database with links to public documents and associated news stories. We also provide profile guides, high powered VIP networking events, and the highest insight and intelligence reports.â...

While working in Main Justice, GIR, Law Business Research, and the WSJ, Jacoby cultivated a large network of key Federal (FBI, SEC, and DOJ) executives that included notables such as Adam Hickey, the Deputy Assistant Attorney General for National Security at the DOJ who was familiar with the dossier and the FISA application and Andrew Weissmann, the Chief of the DOJ's criminal fraud section, who is now working for Robert Mueller the Special Counsel investigating the alleged Russian efforts to influence the 2016 election and leading the Manafort prosecution.

Adam Hickey and Andrew Weissmann presenting in one of several GIR events

Jacoby also facilitated special recognition awards for "strategically" placed attorneys such as Leila Babaeva, a Russian speaking attorney who is now working at the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act unit at the DOJ and Kathryn Cameron Atkinson.

Mary Jacoby, Leila Babaeva, and Kathryn Cameron Atkinson at the 2015 GIR Awards

2004.

Sidney Blumenthalâ... s network is noteworthy because his email address book contains many of the dossier characters including Jacoby, Simpson, Winer, and others. It also contains most of the journalist involved in the â... favorableâ... dossier coverage. For example his friendly reporter count includes:

On April 19, 2016, two months before the content of the dossier was leaked to the media, Jacoby spent a few hours in the White House in the company of the following five seemingly unrelated individuals:

| 4 | Mary C. Jacoby                   | Reporter         | Husband â... Co founder of Fusion GPS                        |

A second degree linkage analysis revealed that despite what appears to be a random group of tourists, these six individuals were in fact related to the dossier team through:

- Involvement in the Clinton Campaign
- Direct contact with the core and auxiliary Fusion GPS team via email communications
- Work at the State Department
- Participation in news production and reporting
- Had HLS and government legal services positions

It is noteworthy that all of the six members of this groupâ... s home and office address are clustered within 4 miles of each other, (see below), and that most attempted to scrub (not always successfully) their online presence and 2016 SM activity. Another interesting observation is that in two cases, it is the spouse of the individual on the list that was the link to the dossier team.

In 2007, Simpson and his wife, Jacoby, authored an article entitled: How Lobbyists Help Ex-Soviets Woo Washington... This mercenary form of journalism promoted the specific political interests of one Ukrainian faction and alleged that prominent Republican politicians provided US business access to Kremlin-affiliated oligarchs and other friends of Putin. One such friend was Viktor Yanukovich who became president of Ukraine in 2010. According to the article, Yanukovich's facilitator in the US was Paul Manafort. Manafort figures prominently throughout the article and later in the dossier.

Keeping in mind Simpson's and Jacoby's paid interest in Manafort and Yanukovich, it is important to note that Rinat Akhmetshin, the alleged facilitator of the 2016 Trump Tower meeting with Natalia Veselnitskaya, is married to Lyudmila Vereshchagina, a Ukrainian national with ties to FISU who has been living in the US since 2008. Both Akhmetshin and Vereshchagina knew and communicated with Simpson, Jacoby, and Alexandra Chalupa (the junkyard dog of the DNC) and were involved in the organization of anti-Putin/Yanukovich/Trump activity across the US.

Rinat Akhmetshin's lawyer/partner was Edward Lieberman, who concurrently worked for the Albright Stonebridge Group and used the Liebermane@dco.coudert.com email account. The Albright Stonebridge Group is a Commercial Diplomacy firm in Washington DC that is heavily involved with Ukrainian politics and lobbying activity in the US. Even more noteworthy, is Edward Lieberman's wife, Evelyn Lieberman's senior affiliation with the Clintons, Madeleine Albright and Joseph Biden. The following short bio illustrates her political R&R from 1988-2015.

Evelyn Lieberman's Political Bio

Jonathan Winer from the State Department knew Steele from mid-2000s. Winer also knew and worked with Glenn Simpson and Douglas Farah, his partner at IASC in 2004. Winer and Farah even cross endorsed each other on their LinkedIn profiles.

Jonathan Winer and Glenn Simpson and Douglas Farah linkage

Nellie Ohr, Peter Fritsch, and Jonathan Clarke knew each other from the Wilson Center.

Neil King Jr. from Fusion GPS is married to Shailagh Murray who was President Obama's Senior Policy Advisor. She was also Joe Biden's Deputy-Chief-of-Staff. King and Murray knew Steele, Kramer, Winer, and the Ohrs going back to the mid-2000s.

In 2010, several of the members of the future dossier team participated in a workshop dedicated to Racketeering in Russia. The event was hosted by the National Institute of Justice and featured among others:

Glenn Simpson Senior Fellow International Assessment and Strategy Center

Nellie Ohr Researcher Open Source Works

Bruce Ohr â... Chief Organized Crime and Racketeering Section Criminal Division DOJ

Lisa Holtyn â... Intelligence Advisor Organized Crime and Racketeering (who hosted Bruce Ohr multiple times at the White House)

In 2012, Steele did some work for the US state Department and was in communication with Winer and the Assistant Secretary of State Victoria Nuland. This was done directly and through Sir Andrew Wood, who was the former British Ambassador to Russia and an employee of Orbis. Steeleâ... s communications included over 100 reports on the Ukraine-Russia conflict. These reports were based on information from UK and Ukrainian government sources and contained political and financial data about Russian companies that was shared with Bruce Ohr at the DOJ.

When questioned about Steeleâ... s relationship with Jonathan Winer, Victoria Nuland said:

â... During the Ukraine crisis in 2014-15, Chris Steele had a number of commercial clients who were asking him for reports on what was going on in Russia, what was going on in Ukraine, what was going on between them. Chris had a friend [Jonathan Winer] at the State Department and he offered us that reporting free so that we could also benefit from it.â...

In June 2018, Nuland also confirmed that Steele was invited to the State Department on October 2016 (just two weeks before the elections) to give a dossier briefing. The meeting lasted over 3 hours, and included a presentation, handouts, a Q&A, and representatives from several federal agencies.

Steeleâ... s information didnâ... t only flow in one direction. In January 2016, before the Fusion GPS dossier project kicked-into-gear, Jonathan Winer and Strobe Talbott were sharing with Steele via Orbisâ... s Canada hosted servers and email system documents authored by Cody Shearer, who produced a â... second Trump-Russia dossierâ... . This document consisted of two four-page reports, one titled â... Donald Trumpâ... Background Notesâ... The Compromised Candidate,â... the second â... FSB Interviewâ... .

The reports are almost identical in terms of content and layout to the Steele dossier but references unnamed Turkish businessman with â... excellent contacts within the FSBâ... as the source. The reports echo the same salacious claims and alleged corruption and collusion. Cody Shearerâ... s mysterious â... one-eyed man from Istanbulâ... source claims that Trump was â... filmed in Moscow in November 2013, during the Miss Universe pageant in the presidential suite of the Ritz Carlton Hotelâ... . He also said that there was a copy of the video somewhere in Bulgaria but that he couldnâ... t get it.

Strobe Talbott is Cody Shearerâ... s brother in law and was Codyâ... s brother Derekâ... s roommate in Yale. Talbott is a State Department Russian expert who served as Deputy Secretary of State in the Clinton Administration. Talbottâ... s wife Brooke Shearer was Hillary Clintonâ... s personal aide and the lead investigator (nicknamed â... The Dumpster Diverâ... ) responsible for digging-up dirt on Bill Clintonâ... s sexual misconduct accusers. Strobe Talbott and his wife Brooke Shearer knew and worked with Mary Jacoby, Glenn Simpson, Peter Fritsch, Neil King, and Shailagh Murray since the mid 1990s. Talbott knew Steele since at least 2006.

Nellie Ohrâ... s relationship with Steele goes back to the early-2000s or even earlier. Bruce Ohrâ... s relationship with Steele began long before Trumpâ... s presidential bid. It goes back to Steeleâ... s 2009 FIFA corruption investigation. Bruce was then chief of the Organized Crime and Racketeering section in the DOJ which had a keen interest in the early stages of the case.

Nellie Ohrâ... s maintained active communications channels with a number of diplomatic, State Department, and IC members prior, during, and after the dossier publication this included the likes of Robert Otto, Chris Brot, Nathaniel Reynolds, and Donald Jensen.

Robert Otto, who worked for Victoria Nulandâ... s at the State Department (resigned in December 31, 2016) frequently communicated via a number off private aliased emails dossier and Russia collusion and anti-Trump content with his â... Russian Workgroupâ... that among others included David Kramer, Andrew Wood, and a long list of current and former US, British, and Australian Intelligence professionals such as:

An example of content transmitted in July 26, 2016 via Robert Ottoâ... s â... Russia Workgroupâ...

Many of the correspondences are addressed to and from State Department and UK government emails and indicate that the content was written and read during business hours.

One example of these emails dates to April 29, 2016 (written 6 weeks before Steele was hired by Fusion GPS) and is titled, â... Why Is Donald Trump a Patsy for Vladimir Putin?â... In this communication to David Kramer, the former Assistant Secretary of State and the Director at the McCain Institute, he wrote:

â... *To the degree they have attacked him on foreign policy, Trumpâ... s critics in both parties have mostly confined themselves to the themes that are digestible extensions of his personal style â... he is ignorant, inconsistent, temperamentally unfit to lead, and a danger to blunder the country into war. All of those charges are true, yet they manage to deny something that, in a candidate without such flamboyant drawbacks, would itself be a campaign-threatening scandal: Trump is Vladimir Putinâ... s stooge.*â...

Several of Ottoâ... s email correspondences also included Bruce Ohr and Nellie Ohr. From these emails, itâ... s evident that Bruce was co-sharing his wifeâ... s AOL account. as the responses that Otto is getting back are tagged as both, â... Bruce Ohr neohr@aol.comâ... , and â... Nellie Ohr neohr@aol.comâ... .

Image 10: The Dossier Graph

So is it reasonable to assume that all of these incestuous relationships are coincidental? Ian Fleming, a naval intelligence officer and the creator of James Bond, contemplated the problem of coincidental relationships in intelligence operations and came up with the answer in his maxim:

â... Once is happenstance. Twice is coincidence. The third time itâ... s enemy action.â...

Computer and Communication Network

In 2016, Fusion GPS and Orbis had a pretty sophisticated computer and a communications networks, far beyond what one would expect to find in large law firm or even a bank. They spent a lot of time and money setting up a DoD 8570 and NIST SP 800-37, 39, 53, 53A grade environment, which included among other things:

- High-end security equipment like Cisco FirePOWER ASA appliances
- High-end networking equipment like Cisco Catalyst managed switches
- Multi-layered security and authentication using tokens and VPN
- Multiple subnetted segments
- Central configuration and patch management
- Policy based user ACL
- Development, test, and production environments
- An IDS
- An air-gapped file storage

The complexity of this network (see table below) and some of the artifacts found on it (such as the NISPOM manual) suggests that this was due to some external mandate rather than by choice. Considering the fact that Fusion GPS was not a regulated service provider, it begs the question of who was responsible for such a directive.

The Great Dossier Authorship Debate

The House Intelligence Committeeâs hearings on November 2017 attempted among other things to answer the dossier authorship question. Simpson testified that Steele used his old contacts and farmed out other research to native Russian speakers who made phone calls on his behalf. In the hearing transcripts, Simpson comes through as being evasive and ambiguous; he hemmed and hawed a lot and had problems remembering and recalling details. Despite his fogginess, however, he was crystal clear about Steele being the author of the documents.

From Simpsonâs testimony, we also know that while contracting for Fusion GPS in mid-2016 Edward Baumgartner was working on these two projects:

- Magnisky Act â Russian government lobbying effort to overturn the Magnisky Act. This case revolved around one Sergei Magnitsky, a Russian tax accountant working for Hermitage Capital who allegedly outed some Russian officials for fraud. He was arrested and detained and died in prison in 2009. The Russian on the other hand, claim that he was targeted because of a $230 million dollar tax evasions involving Hermitage Capital and its CEO William Browder. The details of the case are unclear, but Interestingly, Robert Otto and a few of his â Russia Workgroupâ colleagues believed that the story was William Browderâs PR stunt. Some of the evidence and testimonies in the case subsequently turned out to be substantially inaccurate.

In one example William Browder, the CEO of Hermitage Capital and the brain behind the Magnitsky act, stated in an interview on MSNBC on February 5, 2015 that â *Eight riot guards with rubber batons beat him [Magnitsky] for an hour and 18 minutes until he died.*â But the post mortem examination didnât show any evidence of beating beyond rough handcuff bruising.

Browder also suspiciously communicated and coordinated his story with several officials at the State Department and House Foreign Affairs Committee including with one Kyle Parker who was using both, his kyle@kyleparker.net and Kyle.Parker@mail.house.gov email addresses in these correspondences.

- Prevezon Money Laundering â... Russian government lobbying effort to help Prevezonâ... a Russian government owned company Prevezon defend itself against a US government charge alleging a 230 million dollar money laundering scheme.

During the Prevezon and Magniseky contracts which ran through October 2016, Baumgartner was the lead writer and researcher working closely in Russia and Ukraine. In his testimony, Simpson identified Baumgartner as a contributor to the dossier:

Foster: And what type of work did Mr. Baumgartner undertake for Fusion?

Simpson: Discovery mostly, helping locate witnesses. He speaks Russian. So he would work with the lawyers on gathering Russian language documents, gathering Russian language media reports, talking to witnesses who speak Russian, that sort of thing. He may have dealt with the press. I just donâ... t remember.

Foster: So was Mr. Baumgartner also working on opposition research for Candidate Trump?

Simpson: At some point, I think probably after the end of the Prevezon case we asked him to help with I think â... my specific recollection is he worked on specific issues involving Paul Manafort and Ukraine.

Somewhat surprising is Baumgartnerâ... s denial of Simpsonâ... s statement that he did work on the dossier. Specifically:

â... I was helping them [Fusion GPS] on this other project, which was unrelated, and they mentioned it to me in July 2016, I was never made aware of Chris Steeleâ... s work or the dossier, and it was kept that way deliberately. I would have had nothing to add, anyway. I produce memos based on information that is in the public record that can be given to the feds or shared with journalists.â...

But then in a contradictory statement, Baumgartner said that he produced memos that could be given to the feds. We now know that the only memos given to the feds (DOJ and FBI) by Steele and Fusion GPS were the dossier documents.

The third contributor, Nellie Ohr, was another Russia intelligence analyst working for Fusion GPS and Steele. She has not been deposed nor has voluntarily offered any insight into her role in the writing process so itâ... s difficult to ascertain the exact part she played. Not surprisingly, when questioned, Simpson didnâ... t mention her. However, from a recent House Intelligence Committee memo, itâ... s clear that Nellie Ohr was in fact â... employed by Fusion GPS to assist in the cultivation of opposition research on Trumpâ... . The memo adds that Bruce Ohr â... later provided the FBI with all of his wifeâ... s opposition researchâ... .

Asked by intelligence panel staff if he verified Steeleâ... s â... sources in Russiaâ... or corroborated their information, Simpson said heâ... d never been to Russia himself and couldnâ... t â... evaluate the credibility of someone on the other side of the [Atlantic]â... , nor could he confirm that Steele actually spoke directly with any of his Russian sources.

Private companies like Orbis or Hakluyt (unless they are a front for SIS) lack the means to properly vet foreign intelligence sources let alone vet the sourceâ... s information. But that didnâ... t create any doubt in Simpsonâ... s and Jacobyâ... s mindsâ... both former investigative reporters for the WSJ. Simpsons said that he completely deferred to Steeleâ... s expertise and did not question his findings because of his â... sterling reputationâ... .

The sterling reputation the he and the FBI were referring to was Steeleâ... s work on the FIFA corruption case. According to Steele, he provided investigative services and intelligence to the Interpol, DOJ, and FBI which resulted in the arrest and prosecution of a number of FIFA officials. The problem with this caseâ... s sources and methods is the same as with the dossier initiative.

The whole FIFA case revolved around Englandâ... s hope to host either the 2018 or 2022 World Cup, but FIFA awarded those tournaments to Russia and Qatar. Steele was then â... hiredâ... in 2009 by Englandâ... s Football Association to investigate allegations of corruption by FIFA. In 2015, the DOJ indicted a number of FIFA affiliated individuals. Interestingly, the DOJ did not charge anyone at FIFA with bribery because US Federal bribery laws cover only payments to government officials. Bruce Ohrâ... s team, instead alleged racketeering, wire fraud, and money laundering conspiracies.

Steele didnâ... t perform any hands-on investigative work on the FIFA case himself. From the documentary evidence, a few of his contacts in MI5/MI6 shared with him some of the SIGINT, HUMINT, and FININT intercepts. He then repackaged the data and passed the file to the DOJ and FBI, all the while collecting a lot in service fees and building his credibility with them. The dossier initiative was also no altruistic act. Steele received over $270K for his report.

Steeleâ... s payment for his FIFA services can be confirmed from pages 15-16 of the Carter Page FISA warrant bellow. Steele is identified as â... Source #1 has been compensatedâ... .

The Carter Page FISA application referencing Steele as â... Source 1â... , his compensation by the FBI, and the identification of Glenn Simpson as â... U.S. personâ...

It is also interesting to note that the DOJ statement about Glenn Simpson â... Never advising source #1 as to the motivation behind the researchâ... is untrue. In his testimony in front of the Senate Judiciary Committee on August 22, 2017, Simpson was very clear about having previous discussions and actively working with Steele to discredit Trump as early as 2009. On pages 77-86 of his testimony he states:

â... â...!weâ... re friends [referring to Steele] and share interest in Russian kleptocracy and organized crime issues. I would say thatâ... s broadly why I asked him to see what he could find out about Donald Trumpâ... s business activities in Russia.

â...!it was opaque what Donald Trump had been doing on these business trips to Russia. We didnâ... t know what he was doing there. So, I gave Chris â... we gave Chris a sort of assignment that would be typical for us which was pretty open ended. We said see if you can find out what Donald Trumpâ... s been doing on these trips to Russia. Since Chris and I worked together over the years thereâ... s a lot that didnâ... t need to be said. That would include who is he [Trump] doing business with, which hotels does he like to stay at, you know, did anyone ever offer him anything, you know, the standard sort of things you would look at.â...

The Dossier Structure

The dossier is 35 pages long and has the following layout and structure (see the sample from page 13 below):

Section 1 â... Company intelligence report number date/running total

Section 2 â... Report subheading â... Russia/USA Growing Backlash in Kremlinâ...!â...

Section 3 â... Summary of report usually in bullet point format (the â... raw intelligenceâ... )

Section 4 â... Detailed discussion of summary points with a citation of sources

Image 11: Dossier sample report

The dossier reports are not sequential and are spaced unevenly. It is also unclear if the report numbering applies to the dossier or if itâs a running total of all the reports produced by Orbis for multiple customers in that time frame. As can be seen from the table below, the reports also have formatting problems and data entry errors (e.g. report 86 is dated 20-Jul-2015) which suggests some haste and carelessness in their preparation.

The reports production schedule and volume is also problematic. As can be gleaned from the above frequency graph, the report numbers between Oct-16th to Dec-16th 2016 spike from 135 to 166. This is an anomaly (see red trend line spike) and could indicate that Steele is gaming the numbers.

A Vast Shadow Legion of Sources

Simpson pimped Steele as a real-life James Bond with deep connections inside the Kremlin and because of this, he didn't have to corroborate any of his reports. But Steele's previous contacts in Russia now long gone had to rely on others like Ohr, Baumgartner, and Ukrainian sources to generate his so-called raw intelligence.

When Simpson was asked how Steele procured the intelligence he said:

I don't know. I think there's been a little bit of confusion I would like to clear up. Some people were saying that he was paying people for information. I don't know whether he does or not, but that's not basically how I understand field operations to work. You commission people to gather information for you rather than sort of paying someone for a document or to sit for an interview or something like that. That's not how I understand it works.

Considering the fact the Simpson paid Steele about $160K (according to Orbis's income statement it was over $270K) for the information, it is a somewhat puzzling that he didn't bother getting the specifics. But luckily for us, Steele was kind enough to share his methods with The New Yorker. It consisted of the following process:

Orbis employs dozens of confidential collectors around the world whom it pays as contractors. Some of these collectors are private investigators; others are investigative reporters or highly placed experts in strategic positions. Depending on the task and the length of project, the fee for a collector can be as high as two thousand dollars per day. The collectors harvest intelligence from a larger network of unpaid sources, some of whom donât even realize they are being treated as informants. These sources occasionally receive favorsâsuch as help in getting their children into Western schoolsâbut money doesnât change hands because it could violate laws against bribing government officials or insider trading.

So in other words, Orbis has a âlarge networkâ of highly placed government informants in Russia, that donât know that they are informantsâand none of them gets paid for the classified information because that would violate European union bribery laws. So what is the incentive of all for these FSB, Kremlin, and Russian Foreign Ministry personnel to share state secrets with Steele?

This business model also raises some serious questions. Assuming that by âWestern schoolsâ Steele means Ivy League and not your average local community college and that his secret compensation formula is:

âHigh value intelligenceâ = âGetting the sourceâs child into a Western schoolâ

Then how is Steele able to perform this magic with the university admissions office? Is it plausible that Orbis is bribing admission committee members in Cambridge University? And who pays for these studentsâtuition, room, and board? The cost of attending a school like Cambridge university for an international student is over $60k per year. How can an FSB source who draws a $10K per year salary possibly afford it? And what about the FSBâs counter intelligence team? Wouldnât they have a few questions for their fellow employees regarding their childrenâs attendance at western Ivy League schools?

And if this is the model, is this how Ivanna Voronovych, Pelosiâs legislative aide got into a top US university?

Ivanna Voronovychâs admission confirmation to the U-M

33. A Russian Foreign Ministry official
34. Igor Sechin's close associate

If this list of assets is genuine and so is the chain of acquisition, then Steele somehow succeeded in building a collection network in Russia that rivals any national intelligence agency. This is a pretty impressive feat for someone who left Russia in 1993 and had his cover blown in 1999.

Finding one highly placed and reliable Russian source with access to such explosive materials would be considered the equivalent of winning a multi-million dollar lottery. To have thirty four such sources is virtually impossible.

Steele's claims of access to top political and security resources in Russia also makes one wonder why would MI5 and MI6 tolerate a private firm like Orbis actively engaging in espionage against Russia from British soil. Is it plausible that the British security services just didn't know that smack dab in the middle of London and just a skip and a jump 300 feet from Buckingham Palace, Dr. Evil and his mini-me's were in a castle at Grosvenor Gardens and were remotely controlling legions of deep Russian assets and aggressively plotting against a US presidential candidate?

Image 12: Orbis Business Intelligence building location in London

Simpson, Steele's handler, was asked by Congressman Trey Gowdy during the House Intelligence Committee's November 14 Hearing, (see excerpt below), if Steele had gone to Russia as part of this project, to which Simpson replied: No, sir at the time he compiled the dossier, Steele hadn't been back to Russia in 17 years. Gowdy then asked him:

Gowdy: How was he able to accumulate information in Russia if he didn't go?

Simpson: and generally, you have a network of sources who live in or came from the place that you're interested in. So, you know, generally speaking, you would have you would run a network of sub-sources or subcontractors who travel around and gather information for you. And so without getting into who his sources are, I can say generally, he hires people who can travel and talk to people and find out what's going on.

On the possibility that he was just fed a steady diet of dezinformatsiya, according to Steele's own words that was unlikely because:

â... Disinformation is an issue in my profession, it is a central concern, and we are trained to spot disinformation, and if I believed this [the dossier] was disinformation, or I had concerns about that, I would tell you [Fusion GPS] that. And Iâ... m not telling you that. Iâ... m telling you that I donâ... t believe this [the dossier] is disinformation.â...

So what Steele is saying here is essentially: â... I am a wise old British gentleman spy, I was trained at the Hogwarts School of spy Wizardry, and you can trust everything Iâ... m telling you. Now, BEGONE!â...

This is laughable! Vetting sources is a critical part of the evaluation and reliability of intelligence. Itâ... s such an essential part of the craft that no decisions about the information can be made without it. Given the poor quality of his raw intelligence, Steeleâ... s lack of concern for the possibility that he was being fed disinformation is alarming.

The Media Blitz and the Tradecraft

While still in the early stages of his clandestine dossier project, Steele and Fusion GPS launched a coordinated media blitz to publish the briefs. Steele was sharing the details with a handful of DOJ, FBI, State Department, and other political figures such as Kramer and his friend Winer, who even endorsed him on LinkedIn.

Steele and Simpson were also regularly briefing reporters from The New York Times, The Washington Post, Yahoo! News, MSNBC, The New Yorker, and CNN.

Many of the reports betray source information. For example:

â... Speaking in July 2016, a Russian source close to Rosneft President confided the details of a recent secret meeting between him andâ...!Carter PAGEâ... .

In March 2017, after Steele started getting negative media coverage, Orbis came out with the following media release:

Orbis Business Intelligence has an established track record of providing strategic intelligence, forensic investigation and risk consulting services to a broad client base. The nature of our business, and our high standards of professionalism dictate that we would not disclose to the public information on any specific aspects of our work.

This is an almost identical copy of Hakluytâ... s statement: We donâ... t ever talk about anything we doâ...!

Reading this statement, itâ... s difficult to reconcile Steeleâ... s professed discretion and the vow to â... not disclose to the public information on any specific aspects of our workâ... with the fact that he is a serial leaker.

Even if we assume that Steele didnâ... t intentionally plan to burn his sources, leaking such details to the media shows total lack of craft.

In December 2016, when the story about the mysterious death of Oleg Erovinkin came out, Simpson attempted to leverage it to shut down questions about Steeleâ... s sources and methods. He was hinting that Erovinkin, a former general in the FSB, was one of Steeleâ... s deep sources. A number of other individuals within Steeleâ... s and Fusion GPSâ... s circles were also aggressively promoting this narrative. In one example, Scott Dworkin, the head of DNCâ... s opposition research group the â... Democratic Coalitionâ... tweeted:

In another example, Luke Harding, who worked for Orbis and was one of Steeleâ... s collectors in Russia until he was expelled from there in 2011, in his book, Collusion: Secret Meetings, Dirty Money, and How Russia Helped Donald Trump Win wrote:

â... A person close to Steele admitted that in the wake of the dossier the Kremlin did appear to be wiping out some kind of American or Western espionage network.â...

So in the unlikely case that the Russians were now eliminating Steeleâ... s assets, then the death of these people can be blamed squarely on his ongoing whirlwind dossier media tour and his criminal negligence.

Typos and Errors

The report contains a number of errors and inaccuracies that should have been caught and corrected at the final copyedit before publication; after all, Simpson, Jacoby, Steele, Ohr, and Baumgartner earn their living writing. You would certainly expect that one of them would read and clean up the document before it was distributed.

The errors in the briefs include the consistent misspelling of names like the â... Alfa Groupâ... with â... Alpha Groupâ... which betrays the fact that the writer is not versed in the material he is writing about. This could alternatively be written off as gangsta Ali-G style spelling, but itâ... s odd that someone like Steele who was raised on the Queensâ... s English is going to adopt this style of writing in an official intelligence report. It may also be of some relevance that Dworkin uses the same Alpha/Alfa alternate spelling in his publications.

What Language was the Report Written in?

Itâ... s clear from the grammar, punctuation, spelling, idioms, and sentence structure that the report is suffering from some serious English language deficiencies. It is filled with sentences like:

â... *Russians meanwhile keen to cool situation*â... , or â... *Educated US youth to be targeted as protest*â...!â...

Many dossier apologists point out that this is because the raw intelligence came from some â... Vladâ... who â... donâ... t speak de Englishâ... . This is also one of the leading arguments in favor of the authenticity of the intelligence. After all, would you expect perfectly written British English prose from an FSB source? Itâ... s hard to buy this argument. It has the hallmarks of a false flag operation written all over it. Steele doesnâ... t speak fluent Russian nor for that matter does he even read or write Russian. So, these notes could not have been the transcribed recordings or the transcripts of his conversations/communications with his sources.

According to Simpson, Steele: â... â...! *farmed out other research to native Russian speakers who made phone calls on his behalf*â... . So he wasnâ... t personally conducting the debriefings of his assets; some other Russian speaker conducted the interviews and/or translated the written intel into English. The only other plausible members of the dossier team to be able to do this were Ohr and Baumgartner. Simpson confirmed that Baumgartnerâ... s job for Fusion GPS was the translation of Russian language documents, writing reports, and interviewing assets who speak Russian. He said:

â... *So we retained Ed toâ... originally in the Prevezon caseâ... to do some interviews in Moscow, I think, and retrieve some records from Russia. And other Russian language-related tasks.*â...

Baumgartner and Ohr are native English speakers with advanced degrees from Ivy League schools. So if they wrote down the bulk of the raw intelligence, then why did they dumb down their writing style and forget how to form proper English sentences? After all, Baumgartner prides himself on his flawless spoken Russian and touts his firmâ... s translation services:

â... *Several blue-chip corporate names in the region retain Edward Austin to write, translate and edit their press releases, presentations and other corporate material.*â...

Ohr also practically lived in the Lenin Library and the Smolensk archive for almost a year reading and translating documents in Russian. She also made a name for herself as a book reviewer writing in perfect English.

Finally, assuming that the â... raw intelligenceâ... came from some FSU sources, was it received in Ukrainian or Russian? We canâ... t determine this with certainty because the translation into English destroyed the fine nuances of these two similar languages. Or perhaps, it was written in British English in the first place and then rewritten in a â... Russian styleâ... to make it look more authentic?

VC Funding and The Protocols of the Elders of Zion

It is interesting that the dossier contains a significant amount of non-political and business-related activity.

There is also a generous amount of emphasis on cyber warfare and cyber crime. Neither of these subjects has much to do with the stated objectives of the original research of gathering information about â... links between Russia and [then-presidential candidate] Donald Trumpâ... .

Russian involvement in cyber-related crime is also old news. Russian, Ukrainian, and other FSU based botnets that distribute malware have been operating at full capacity since the mid-2000s. With some of the more significant players having quasi-government affiliations.

Why then the sudden increase in Russian cyber warfare related chatter in the dossier? The reason could be that someone asked Steele to include this material in order to address the DNC internal email leak which was published in June-July 2016.

An illustration for this somewhat irrelevant cyber related material can be found in report 86 dated 26 July 2016. Under item 3 we find the following paragraph:

In terms of the FSBâ... s recruitment of capable cyber operatives to carry out its, ideally deniable, offensive cyber operations, a Russian IT specialist with direct knowledge reported in June 2016 that this was often done using coercion and blackmail. In terms of â... foreignâ... agents, the FSB was approaching US citizens of Russian (Jewish) origin on business trips to Russia. In one case a US citizen of Russian ethnicity had been visiting Moscow to attract investors in his new information technology program. The FSB clearly knew this and had offered to provide seed capital to this person in return for them being able to access and modify his IP, with a view to targeting priority foreign targets by planting a Trojan virus in the software. The US visitor was told this was common practice. The FSB also had implied significant operational success as a result of installing cheap Russian IT games containing their own malware unwittingly by targets on their PCs and other platforms.

I donâ... t know what the term â... IT Specialistâ... means in Steeleâ... s world of rent-a-spy, but for most of us in the field it describes individuals who use their technical expertise to implement, monitor, or maintain IT systems. Even if this IT Specialist was working for the FSB, IT staff in any intelligence organization is usually not privy to case files and sources and methods used to recruit agents. It doesnâ... t take much imagination to cross-reference Steeleâ... s fictitious â... IT Specialistâ... to Snowden and his fantastic exploits. In fact, Snowden describes an almost identical story where allegedly coercion and blackmail were used to turn a Swiss banker into an informant.

As for the term â... with direct knowledgeâ... , does he mean that this IT Specialist claimed to have participated in one of these offensive cyber operations and willingly shared this information with one of Steele interviewers?

The same goes for the proposition that an â... IT Specialistâ... would have firsthand knowledge of the FSBâ... s playbook for recruitment of US citizens of (Jewish) Russian origin. The whole premise that the FSB is targeting US Jews because they are greedy and would flip for a price sounds like it was taken from Borat in the nest of the Jews or the protocols. It reeks of institutionalized anti-Semitism which could have been planted in the report deliberately to generate reader outrage.

Further more, even from the point of view of original research, its obvious that this allegation didnâ... t come from one of Steeleâ... s FSB sources. It can be traced directly to Glenn Simpson through his testimony during the House Intelligence Committee hearing, where he stated:

[Simpson] â... The Mossad was my source for the belief that Russian intelligence has been operating through the Jewish Orthodox Chabad movement, and the Russian Orthodox Church. The Orthodox church is also an arm of the Russian State nowâ...! the Mossad guys used to tell me about how the Russians were laundering money through the Orthodox church in Israel, and that it was intelligence operations.â...

This begs the obvious question of how did the subject of Simpson's alleged conversations with the Mossad guys make it into Steele's independent intelligence reports?

Steele also seems to be conflating multiple Russian intelligence services under the FSB. The FSB is the Russian equivalent of the FBI and is responsible for domestic security, they typically don't recruit and manage foreign agents. The actual Russian intelligence agencies responsible for conducting wide scale foreign surveillance and cyber operations are the Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) and the Main Intelligence Directorate (GRU).

Another noteworthy observation is the general vagueness of the cyber section and the writer's poor understanding of computer and software terminology in frequently confusing terms like IP (intellectual property) with a code base and Trojans with Viruses.

Besides, whoever wrote this section needs to make up his/her mind about which attack vector is it. A trojan? A virus? Or cheap Russian IT games (probably meant to say IT Utilities like rogue anti-virus) infected with malware.

To illustrate the FSB's recruitment method, Steele tells us about a US citizen who travels to Russia hoping to attract investors in his information technology program. What does that even mean? Is he talking about an executive of a US startup that is looking for seed money in Russia? If so, the proposition is ridiculous; anyone that has ever tried to raise capital in a startup knows that because of IP and regulatory constraints, the funding source is always country specific. Also, the idea that a US executive running a US-based software company would willingly allow the FSB to plant a virus in his software is laughable and shows a childish understanding of cyber warfare practices. You don't have to be a genius to know that when he is caught the question is when, not if the company would be destroyed and he would be looking at massive personal civil penalties and a very long jail sentence! not to mention the likelihood that as part of his plea bargain he would sing like a canary implicating the FSB in a crime.

Recycled Content

In 2013, Bruce Ohr acting as the Assistant Deputy Director at DOJ participated in the third St. Petersburg International Legal Forum. He was a speaker at a session titled Criminal Matters and Allegations of Crimes in International Arbitration, a topic connected to the Magnitsky Act. It's interesting that his lecture included many of the components of the yet-to-be dossier: money laundering operations, payment of large bribes and kickbacks, forged documents, and collusive schemes.

Image 13: Bruce Ohr 2013 St. Petersburg talk

In 2016, after her position with Fusion GPS ended, Nellie Ohr landed a new gig with VeriSign iDefense as threat analyst in cybersecurity. In February 2017, VeriSign sold their iDefense business to Accenture. Ohr's new title became Principal at Accenture Security. In this capacity, she delivered a presentation during the ISO-ISAC Fall 2017 session entitled: "Ties Between Government Intelligence Services and Cyber Criminals Closer Than You Think?"

Nellie Ohr, Principal Accenture Security

Ohr's presentation focused on enforcement activity in 2016-2017 and provided examples of how cyber threat actors were arrested, indicted, or identified in intelligence reports by US and European governments. She pointed out connections and ties between government intelligence services (such as the FSB) and cybercrime actors. She discussed the drivers and mechanisms between state and criminal cooperation and offered a case study that explored how seemingly ordinary cybercrime was combined with strategic espionage.

It may also be of interest that many of the dossier's cybersecurity allegations such as the ties between the Russian government intelligence services and cybercrime actors and the drivers and mechanisms between state and criminal cooperation are repeated almost verbatim in Nellie Ohr's Accenture Security presentation that she delivered almost a year after the dossier came out in the FS-ISAC 2017 Summit.

for example, the case study in her 2017 presentation explored how seemingly for profit Romanian and Bulgarian hackers combined with strategic Russian espionage initiatives. This case study mirrors dossier report #166.

Image 14: Nellie Ohr's presentation to the FS-ISAC 2017 Fall Summit

Nellie's 2017 presentation was itself recycled almost verbatim from the 2010 symposium hosted by the National Institute of Justice. The subject of that event was: Legal Racketeering in Russia and National Security Issues. The talk raised these questions:

How are international criminal organizations attempting to co-opt the state to suit its interests? How are states attempting to use international criminal organizations to advance their interests? How does international organized crime present itself as a national security threat to different types of countries? How do links to other malevolent actors, like terrorist or insurgent groups, manifest themselves and factor into the previous questions?

So it seems that the Ohrs have been cannibalizing and presenting this raw intelligence for several years from DOJ, FBI, and other agency sources long before it made it into the dossier.

Source Credibility and Verifiability

The context of a source is an important part of all intelligence reports. It describes in greater detail the circumstances under which the source acquired the intelligence, the source's reporting history, and other pertinent details such as source's credibility (i.e. his past success and failure). None of Steele's briefs contain this information. It seems that all of his sources have the same monolithic credibility and the method of obtaining the intelligence is always shrouded in obscurity.

Every source can have a credibility ranging from â... Pathological Liarâ... to the â... Word of G-dâ... . All intelligence and law enforcement organizations have grading systems for their sources. Credibility is also a subtle thing that depends on many constantly changing factors. The Key tradecraft for any case officer is the ability to constantly evaluate and determine the credibility of his sources. One of the glaring problems with Steeleâ... s reports is that his source credibility indicator uses vague fluffy terms like â... well-placedâ... , â... trustedâ... , â... knowledgeable, etc. Steele is not assigning sufficient granularity of trust to his sources.

None of the briefs show any doubts about the sources. The general impression is that Steeleâ... s assets are all wheat and no chaff, one hundred percent reliable and are the cream of the crop of Russian politics, security services, and the Kremlin. They read like a cast of characters from a corny John le CarrÃ© novel.

What is ostensibly missing from his stellar list of informants are common everyday sources like:

- Low level bureaucrats
- Western intelligence sources
- Reporters
- Academics
- Political opposition figures
- Other anti-Russian FSU sources like Ukrainian and Polish intelligence
- Business figures
- Black-hat hackers (working as contractors for Steele)
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
- The legions of the disgruntled and the axe-grinders

Steele also seems to be enamored with the titles of his sources and doesnâ... t provide any indication that he cross-verified their intelligence. In the instance of the alleged sexual acts in the Ritz-Carlton Moscow, he cites the following triple-source:

- A senior staff employee at the hotel
- An active FSB officer
- A senior security officer at the hotel (who would likely be a former FSB or GRU officer)

With assets like this he could have easily confirmed the story by checking out the hotelâ... s video surveillance footage from the hallway in question. The Ritz-Carlton Moscow has been using CCTV cameras from the mid-2000â... s and have in fact switched to a VMS based system in 2012. Steele could have asked his â... active FSB officerâ... for the specific day and time of the alleged November 2013 incident and then used his â... senior security officerâ... at the hotel to use a phone to take a screenshot of the video frame showing the individuals in the hallway entering and leaving the room.

In a recent court testimony Steele has acknowledged that his final December 2016 report (# 166), contained information he never vetted. He stated that:

â... The contents of the report did not represent (and did not purport to represent) verified facts, but were raw intelligence which had identified a range of allegations that warranted investigation given their potential national security implicationsâ... .

Itâ... s easy to get lost in all of these weasel words but the common term for â... raw intelligenceâ... that does not represent nor purport to represent credible or verified facts is called a rumor.

On the question of chain of transmission, we have the same problem as with the verifiability. When asked about his collection methods, Steele said:

â... Such intelligence was not actively sought; it was merely received.â...

This is a dream come true for every collection officerâ... a gift of priceless information with no strings attached, no risk, no clandestine work, itâ... s high-value actionable intelligence just tossed over the transom.

In late 2016, the FBI finally homed-in on the problem that they had when they used the dossier for the FISA applications and Steeleâ... s lack of source credibility and verifiability. They allegedly offered him about $50K to corroborate the dossier. For reasons unknown, he didnâ... t, couldnâ... t, or wouldnâ... t do it.

The House of Cards

In intelligence analysis, there is a concept of a runaway feedback loop that occurs when information becomes re-iterated and rewarded in perpetual cycles. For example, â... Analyst Aâ... releases a bit of dubious intel. â... Analyst Bâ... reads the claim and puts it in his report. â... Analyst Aâ... reads the intel in Analyst Bâ... s report and decides that his intel may actually be true. â... Analyst Câ... picks up â... Analyst Aâ... sâ... and â... Analyst Bâ... sâ... reports and expands on it creatively. â... Analyst Aâ... and â... Analyst Bâ... now are certain that their original piece was accurate. Actually, none of it is accurate. The same applies to many of Steeleâ... s briefs; they progressively build upon previous dubious intel using terms like â... Continuing on this themeâ... .

Information or Disinformation

The general impression of the reports is that they contain threads of truth, but also spurious content. For example, report #080 describes the Miss Universe 2013 event but then it provides a dubious account of sexual activity that even the author claims canâ... t be verified (â... all direct witnesses to this recently had been â... silencedâ... ). Almost all of the â... valuableâ... intelligence in the reports exhibits the hallmarks of professional disinformation such as:

- Fabricated contentâ• Creating content that is completely false
- Imposter contentâ• Impersonating a genuine source with some made-up details
- Misleading contentâ• Misattributing valid information to a wrong topic or a person
- Manipulated contentâ• Doctoring genuine information

Syntax and Formulation

The briefs are inconsistent with Trumpâ... s name. In some, they use the moniker â... TRUMPâ... , in others, they uses lengthy titles like: â... Republican US presidential candidate Donald TRUMPâ... . Clearly, the target audience of the reports knows who Trump is, so why is it necessary to use a 4-5 word qualifier to identify him? One possible explanation is that the information came from some foreign intelligence repository where the details on each target were stored in a structured format like:

[Party affiliation]

[Nationality]
[Political office]
[First Name] & [Last name]
[Incident Details]

The briefs also contain many poorly formed sentences. For example, the subheading of Company Intelligence Report 2016/080 title is: â... Republican candidate Donald Trumpâ... s activities in Russia and compromising relationship with the Kremlin.â... The phrase is missing the word â... hisâ... and should read: â... Republican candidate Donald Trumpâ... s activities in Russia and hiscompromising relationship with the Kremlin.â...

One â... Summaryâ... phrase says: â... â...!So far TRUMP has declined various sweetener real estate business dealsâ...!â... The word that the author is looking for here is sweetheart.

Another sentence begins with â... Speaking to a trusted compatriot.â... After trying to make sense of the sentence, itâ... s clear that the writer meant â... according to a trusted compatriot.â... The â... speaking toâ... jumbles the meaning.

It is difficult to explain how Steele actually wrote this. â... Chris Steele,â... known in his early days as a reporter for the Versity Cambridge University student publication, also served as president of the Cambridge Union Society, a debating club. So the riddle is: how could a Cambridge University journalist and master English debater form such phrases and confuse a common figure of speech like sweetener with sweetheart?

Run-on Sentences and Poor Punctuation

Paragraphs like the following need no further discussion:

â... Alpha [Alfa] held â... kompromatâ... on Putin and his corrupt business activities from the 1990s whilst although not personally overly bothered by Alphaâ... s failure to reinvest the proceeds of its TNK oil company sale into the Russian economy since, the Russian president was able to use pressure on this count from senior Kremlin colleagues as a lever on Fridman and AVEN to make them do his political bidding.â...

Gilded and Sensational Language

There are many gilded passages that have no other purpose beyond creating indignation and outrage. For example, one paragraph states:

â... Trumpâ... s previous efforts had included exploring the real estate sector in St. Petersburg as well as Moscow but in the end Trump had had to settle for the use of extensive sexual services there from local prostitutes rather than business success.â...

The writer could have simply noted that while in St. Petersburg on business, Trump allegedly engaged the services of prostitutes.

Besides the obvious contextual problem with this paragraph, it is difficult to logically balance â... sexual servicesâ... and â... business successâ... . So in lieu of business success, Trump settled for extensive sex? What is the significance of qualifier â... extensiveâ... ? Does the writer mean to say â... frequentâ... ? And what is the significance of the term â... localâ... in the context of prostitutes? Does the source know these prostitutes personally and is vouching for the fact that they are from St. Petersburg or Moscow?

It also appears that some of the report headers were written in the style of sensational newspaper headlines like in: â... Further evidence of extensive conspiracy between TRUMPâ... s campaign team and Kremlinâ... . This style doesnâ... t fit the succinct and factual standards expected in an intelligence report.

Finally, from literary point of view, this whole episode seems to be a revival of the 2009 story about Silvio Berlusconi spending the night with a prostitute in a hotel room in Rome â... defilingâ... Putinâ... s bed.

Non-English Idioms

In writing about sex, the author is particularly byzantine. He says that Russian authorities had compromised Trump by catching him in his â... personal obsessions and sexual perversion.â...

In another instance, Trump was alleged to have gotten revenge on the Obamas by: â... defiling the bed where they had stayed on one of their official trips to Russia by employing a number of prostitutes to perform a â... golden showersâ... urination show.â...

These archaic terms hint that the writer had some classical training because it sounds like he/she is using phraseology from Suetoniusâ... s The Twelve Caesars (see reference to Tiberius and his â... licentious indulgences and sexual perversionâ... and Neroâ... s â... defilingâ... acts).

The usage of â... a numberâ... with the plural form â... prostitutesâ... seems forced and is designed to emphasize the â... largenessâ... of the event. As far as showers go, the phrase is â... golden showerâ... singular. And what is the purpose of the explanatory â... AKAâ... term â... urination showâ... ? Itâ... s redundant and suggests that the writer himself didnâ... t understand the original term.

Missing Articles

One expects to find definite and indefinite articles that are often omitted. For example, the phrase â... *to encourage splits and divisions in western alliance*â... is missing â... theâ... before â... western alliance.â... The phrase â... *anchored upon countriesâ... interest*â... should read: â... *anchored upon the countryâ... s interest*â... . The author frequently misuses the possessive form as well.

Punctuation

Sentences that begin with the word â... howeverâ... without a comma as in: â... However it has not as yet been distributed abroad.â... In other instances, â... howeverâ... is followed by a comma: â... However, there were other aspects â...!â... . There is no consistency in the use of serial commas before or after conjunctions like â... andâ... and â... butâ... .

Multiple Authors?

The briefs suggest that there were multiple authors, one perhaps Russian/Ukrainian and one British\American. At one point, the reader is told that the Trump campaign leaked the DNC documents to WikiLeaks â... to swing supporters of Bernie SANDERS away from Hillary CLINTON and across to TRUMP.â... The â... Summaryâ... section cleans up the language. Now the goal is to switch voters â... away from CLINTON and over to TRUMP.â... This stenographic sleight of hand is forced and artificial. Whoever was conducting the original interview or data collection would/should have corrected this at the moment of transcription.

Russian Speaker and British Spelling

Steele is a Brit educated in British English. The document contains distinctly British spellings such as â... programme,â... â... defence,â... â... authorised,â... and â... manoeuvre.â... So, are we to assume that Steeleâ... s deep intelligence assets in the FSB and Kremlin also attended Cambridge? Or perhaps these intelligence sources did attend Cambridge and like Steele were either current or former employees British foreign service.

There are other little details that bog the mind like when the author writes: â... Things had become even â... hotterâ... since August on the TRUMP-RUSSIA track.â... What does the term â... hotterâ... mean? Does he mean busier? More complex? And what is the significance of the quotes?

Talking Points vs. Raw Intelligence

One point that repeats itself toward the end of the document is the notion of â... Moscowâ... s interference in the US Presidential election campaign.â... Another is Trumpâ... s perceived â... unfitnessâ... for office. These statements read less like raw intelligence and more like some talking points for a political speech.

Writing Style

The dossierâ... s content and network graphs are interesting, but what about the writing style? Can we find the authorâ... s fingerprints? To perform this analysis, I needed writing samples of a few hundred words from each potential author.

Iâ... ve managed to get writing samples for all three dossier musketeers. Nellie Ohr has a significant amount of book reviews and articles online. Baumgartner was little more challenging. Most of his writings are not on-lineâ... which is quite an achievement for a person who claims to have been a reporter for several years. I found a depository with some of his commercial work and his Thesis. Steeleâ... s was by far the most difficult to locate. Despite his working as a reporter for the Cambridge Varsity student newspaper, all of the digitized copies of his prose have disappeared without a trace from the Cambridge library. I was fortunate enough to be able to pull a few copies of his articles from another source (see sample below).

Heseltine heckled â... STOP PRESS with Varsity 14th February 1986 â... Chris Steele

An excited atmosphere prevailed at Michael Heseltineâ... s address to the C.U.C.A. last Friday. Speaking to a packed Union chamber, the ex-cabinet minister broached a wide range of defence issues whilst having to overcome some vociferous heckling.

This being his first public meeting since the Bristow knighthood allegations, Heseltine raised the question of unethical trading practices in the City of Westland share sales. The member for Henley declared his belief in the substance of Bristowâ... s account and quoted an uncharacteristic ally, when he used a â... Guardianâ... story to allege that directors of Westlands have been encouraging premium share sales on the stock market for political reasons.

The television cameras then beat a hasty retreat from the meeting. A newfounded sense of humour was evident from Heseltineâ... s quip to the generally sympathetic C.U.C.A. audience, â... I have never got rid of the press so easilyâ... . The substance of the speech which followed developed familiar themes of the problems resulting from American technological dominance of N.A.T.O. and contained a veiled critique of Mrs. Thatcherâ... s brand of ideological Conservatism.

On the subject of the Tory Party, the ex-minister advocated a return to â... pragmatic policiesâ... . Heseltine state that he had never believed this party to be on of â... monolithic intellectual commitmentâ... , clearly a criticism of Mrs. Thatcherâ... s ideological stridency. Historically the Tory Party has proved â... a remarkable achievement of political artâ... . The Henley M.P. claimed that aristocratic Conservative leaders had shown a commitment to political issue and possessed a laudable social conscience. According to Heseltine, the great challenge facing the party today is whether those wielding power in modern centres of influence, such as the City, would prove worthy heirs to their landed gentry forbears.

Despite Heseltineâ... s self-relegation to the backbenches his mythical power lives on. During the speech abuse and barracking was launched at him from the balcony. At one point this dyslexic M.P. was forced to curtail his address whilst stewards evicted several protestors. Questions afterwards revealed Heseltineâ... s cynical attitude to arms negotiations. His speech also studiously avoided the thorny question of the danger of defence policy being dominated by the interests of what Eisenhower termed â... the military-industrial complexâ... .

Writer Baseline Profile

As can be seen from the analysis below, Steele, Ohr, and Baumgartner demonstrate a distinct writing style (images 16-18).

Image 16: Christopher Steele's profile

Image 17: Nellie Ohrâ... s profile

Image 18: Edward Baumgartnerâ... s profile

The textual analysis of the reports comprising the dossier shows some interesting results. First, I created a ground truth baseline for each of the dossier team members. The ground truth seen in images 19-21 was based on writings they published prior to 2016.

Image 19: Steeleâ... s writing style

Image 20: Ohrâ... s writing style

Image 21: Baumgartner writing style

Once I had a good baseline and a stylistic fingerprint, I proceeded to analyze the individual reports. From the sample below, we can see that despite Steele's claim that he wrote the document, (images 22-25), it is almost certain that it was written by another person(s), likely a foreign source, possibly Baumgartner, or Ohr. The writing style fits their writer profile in multiple categories.

There are, however, a few anomalies in the data (image 26) that indicate that some of the content—especially the latter reports that are written in an American English and have a "talking point" style—have been written by another unidentified author(s).

Image 23: Dossier report sample 2

Image 24: Dossier report sample 3

Baumgartner and Social Media

In addition to the writing style analyses, Iâ... ve also correlated the content of the dossier briefs with various social media sources like Twitter, LinkedIn, and Facebook. The results reinforce the conclusion of the writing style results. As you can see below, Baumgartnerâ... s tweets touch on many of the topics and phrases in the dossier such as: Mikhail (Misha) Fridman, The Alfa group, rigging the elections, divisive campaigning, US citizens of Russian (Jewish) origin, Kremlin buyerâ... s remorse, and others. They also closely match the dossier composition dates.

Image 27: Baumgartnerâ... s tweets with key dossier keywords

Baumgartner social media posting history is also noteworthy because it correlates directly with his work in Fusion GPS. For example, he is re-posting information about the dossier utilizing pre-public leaked information. Heâs essentially betraying prior knowledge of the dossier by including these specific buzzwords in his tweets.

On October 31, 2016, Baumgartner was already retweeting the â dossierâ. Of interest are the dates. According to the date stamp on the last dossier, report # 186, it was written on 13 December 2016. So, if we to accept this chronology, then we must conclude that individual reports were leaked out as soon as they were written, indicating that the dossier was not released in a single final batch form.

Image 28: Baumgartnerâs tweets of the dossier publication

After his initial retweet of the dossier, he embarks on a regular publication schedule further discussing some of the core talking points in the document. This includes topic like â Trump is a Russian agentâ. He also makes a sheepish reference to â Christopher Steele, ex-British Intelligence officer, said to have repared [sic] dossier on Trumpâ...!â... , and the rationale for why a private security firm (i.e. Fusion GPS and Orbis) had to do Clapperâ... s job.

Image 29: Baumgartner's on-going dossier postings

As time goes on and the dossier story fails to create a groundswell, Baumgartner starts exhibiting signs of outrage. In addition to a lot of profanity, his posts also include calls for a coup against the "scumbag" elected president.

Image 30: Comrade Baumgartner and the call to arms

Fusion GPS's Role

We know that Simpson and Jacoby played a significant role in the dossier's "architectural", "editorial", and "creative" writing processes. In his testimony, Simpson confirmed sharing his investigative research with Steele. Obviously, he also directly supervised Ohr, Baumgartner, and several other resources. Fusion GPS's involvement certainly went beyond just coordinating SMEs and acting as the general contractor for the law firm Perkins Coie who had commissioned the report and paid them over $1.2 million for it.

Simpson and Jacoby also acted as the sources (using their original research) and intakes for some of the US political material found in the dossier that shows up in phrases like "... an American political figure..." and "... TRUMP's associate...". This included communications with: Shailagh Murray, Lisa Holtyn, Cody Shearer (who was working on a "... second Trump-Russia dossier..."), and direct emails to and from Sidney Blumenthal, Jonathan Winer, and Scott Dworkin who managed the Democratic Coalition's opposition research and publication (see samples below).

Image 31: Scott Dworkin's links and dossier Tweets

Jonathan Winer himself sheds light on this information pipeline. According to his own account, he and Steele met and became friends in 2009 when both were in the business of selling intelligence about Russia. Winer went back to work at the State Department in 2013 but stayed in touch with Steele. He regularly shared Steele's work with the State Department's Russia desk.

... Over the next two years, I shared more than 100 of Steele's reports with the Russia experts at the State Department, who continued to find them useful.

Contrary to Simpson's claim that Steele leaked the dossier content on his own initiative, Fusion GPS took a leading role in the publication process. In addition to coordinating a regular stream of social media postings, they also worked the friendly commercial media outlets like CNN, MSNBC, NYT, WaPo, New Yorker, and Yahoo News, and published op-eds and expert reviews that supported the dossier's credibility.

One thing worth noting is that just like in the case of the core dossier network, many of these receptive reporters such, David Corn, Joe Palazzolo, David Cay Johnston, Scott Dworkin and Evan Perez (images 32-33) had long incestuous relationships with Fusion GPS and its team members.

Image 32: Dworkin on multiple MSNBC News investigative interviews defending the dossier and promoting Russian collusion Joe Palazzolo, Aruna Viswanatha, Steve LeVine, and David Johnston from the New York Times worked for Jacoby as early as 2010 producing Russia and corruption related reports. Between 2016-2018, Palazzolo and Viswanatha, now working for the WSJ wrote dozens of anti-trump articles. Their publications rate sometime reached one article a week.

Steve LeVine, who now works for Axios delivering trustworthy news, wrote a lengthy apologetic article about Fusion GPS and its team, vouching for their credibility and professionalism. LeVine is just one of a dozen of objective reporters that have been promoting the dossier and collusion narratives and shielding Fusion GPS, but never disclosing that they had a previous and/or a current business affiliation with Mary Jacoby, Glenn Simpson, and other Fusion GPS actors.

David Cay Johnston, an NYT and an Al-Jazeera reporter is an acquaintance of Glenn Simpson, is one of the leading paid anti-Trump authors. He has written several books, multiple articles, and participated in dozens TV interviews that promote the some of the dossier allegations. He and his social and professional network also produce and distribute a large volume of Russian collusion related materials.

ABC Television. Karl was also at Vassar College with Peter Fritsch and Martha Ohrâ... s sister-in-law Nellie Ohr.

A good illustration of how effective this â... rent a journalistâ... process is can be glanced from the activity of William Browder the CEO of Hermitage Capital and the brain behind the Magnitsky act. In April 2016, When the European parliament was about to screen Andrei Nekrasovâ... s â... The Magnitsky Act-Behind the Scenesâ... movie. Browder sent an email to Matthew Kaminski, the executive editor of Politico and a WSJ reporter (and a close friend of Kramer, Simpson, Jacoby, and Fritsch) asking him to â... coverâ... the upcoming event. In the email dated 4/24/16 Browder writes:

â... â...!The filmmaker [Andrei Nekrasov] is the boyfriend of the Vice Chair of the Green Party, Heidi Hautula, who is hosting the film. We have a bunch of things planned to make this a real scandal and Iâ... d love for Politico to report on what weâ... re doing. Do you have time for a chat today? My mobile is +447785904192. Can you send me yours or a good time to talk? Thanks and best regards, Billâ...

On 4/27/16, only three days after Browder ordered the hit, Politico published an article titled â... MEPs dragged into Russia film rowâ... . It goes without saying that the coverage was derogatory towards the movie and director and used the same unverified Intel that Browder provided Kaminsky.

This is by no means a single isolated incident, Matthew Kaminski, just like Evan Perez, David Johnston, and other â... dossier friendlyâ... reporters dedicate significant amount of their commercial publications as well as their own private Twitter activity to anti-Trump and Russia collusion content.

In a similar fashion to Kaminskiâ... s and Baumgartnerâ... s Twitter posts, Perezâ... s, Tapperâ... s, Sciuttoâ... s, and Bernsteinâ... s tweets (see below) strongly suggest that they also had early and direct access to the dossier team and were actively distributing its content as it was being written.

As far as the journalist's motivation to publish content favorable to the dossier, it's clear from the congressional records that this was certainly not due to concerns about the integrity of our republic. In at least 3 cases, Fusion GPS/other sources paid reporters five digit figures for these publications. This can be deduced from image 34, where the length of redacted payment fields for transactions 198 and 205 are the same length as a visible $91K payment in transaction 171.

Image 34: Sample Fusion GPS payment records

Whatâs with the Ham?

There is a lot of buzz on-line about Nellie Ohrâs Ham radio license and her possible uses for it. On May 23rd, 2016, just as the dossier project was kicking into gear, (Steele was only hired in June), Nellie Ohr, at the ripe old age of give-or-take 55, got a Technician radio license.

Her registration information was:

Nellie H. Ohr,
Call sign: KM4UDZ
6435 Tucker Ave
McLean, VA 22101
USA

License Class: Technician
License Issue Date: May 23 2016
License Expiration Date: May 23 2026
FCC Last Transaction: LISS
FCC Licensee ID: L02028239
FCC FRN Number: 0025607250
Latitude: 38.94, 38d 56m 24s N
Longitude: -77.19, 77d 11m 24s W
Grid: FM18
County: Fairfax

There are a number of curious things about Ohr getting an amateur radio license so late in her career.

- Her professional profile does not show her to be the techie type. She doesnât possess any hacker, computer, or engineering skills (which is what typically motivates people to get an Amateur Radio license).
- She doesnât belong to any ARRL radio club in the Fairfax area
- The radio clubs in her registration area have no records of administering the exam (Ham Radio exams are typically administered by the local ARRL club).
- Her call sign, KM4UDZ, shows no public activity which is odd, because new Hams are typically very chatty and canât stay off the air when they first get their license.

As can be seen in Image 35, her technician rating is the lowest class of amateur radio license and has limited privileges with regard to the available frequencies and transmitter power output.

Image 35: Technician Class Frequency Privileges in Ham Radio

So for all of the conspiracy theorists out there that believe that Ohr was engaged in OSS style night transmissions from a secret compartment in the barn to her controller in Moscow: she wasn't. The radio class limits would only give her a line of sight range of 5-10 miles. In a repeater mode, she could push the range to 20-200 miles. If you don't think that a 10-mile range is sufficient, think again. It is likely that Ohr's rationale for using a Ham radio was a substitution for a cell and landline phones in order to communicate with person(s) nearby. As you can see from the map below, even with a 7.5 radius she was well within the range of the entire downtown Washington D.C. area.

Image 36: Nellie Ohr's Ham radio broadcast range map

We know that Nellie Ohr was the dossier's liaison to some other agencies. It's not unlikely that someone versed in SIGINT told her that she had to use a Ham radio because if the project went south, the first line of investigation would have been to subpoena all of her cell and phone records and analyze them to completely re-construct her operational network.

We know that Nellie Ohrâ... s husband, Bruce Ohr, was the Department of Justiceâ... s contact for Steele and Fusion GPS and in fact held meetings with both about the dossier. We also know that Ohr headed a task force code named Cassandra and Operation Fast and Furious that among other things utilized cell phone tracking technology to identify money laundering, drugs, and weapon smuggling. So, it makes sense that he was aware of the need for electronic surveillance countermeasures.

But what about tracing her Ham call sign during transmission, wouldnâ... t that eliminate her radio anonymity?

In theory, yes, but in practice, it can be circumvented. This problem could have been solved with devices like the Harris XG-75P/100P. Encrypted radio transmissions can be used to obscure the identity of the sender/receiver of the message. For example, unencrypted HSMM uses a ping packet containing the station call sign to identify the station, similar to how a 2-meter repeater periodically announces its call sign. But if HSMM is operated using WEP encryption (available as a plug-in), those packets would be obscured and the call sign of the station licensee could not be received by anyone without the keys. So, in addition to the encrypted voice the identity of the sender call signs would also be hidden.

The Modus Operandi

The dossier does not stand out as a unique document. Hakluyt seems to have used the same technique before. In 2002, they were contracted by Medusa Oil and Gas Limited to do some opposition research and dig-up dirt on a rival Czech company. Hakluyt, used UK government back channels to deliver a dossier style brief to the UK Ambassador in Prague and to the First Commercial Secretary at the British Embassy in Prague who was also a principal representative in the Czech Republic of British Trade International. The purpose of the document was to pressure the Czech government to prosecute the Czech targeted company. The letter made some defamatory claims about the companyâ... s principals and its structure closely resembled Steeleâ... s dossier. It had a bulleted layout with an intro section and a detailed discussion. Contextually, It made the same type of unverified allegation that included corruption and other crimes.

The Fusion GPS work style on the dossier is also well-documented and is based on a long track record of political and media influence operations world-wide. Alek Boyd, an investigative reporter who managed to run into the Fusion GPS buzzsaw, is a good illustration of how they operate. Boyd was reporting on Derwick Associates, a Venezuelan company that allegedly skimmed billions of dollars from rigged contracts with Hugo Chavezâ... s regime and partnered with Gazprom, a Russian state owned oil conglomerate. Fearing US criminal charges and regulatory sanctions, Derwick Associates contracted Fusion GPS to help them spike a potential investigation and negative US media coverage.

On Monday July 21, 2014, Peter Fritsch and Adam Kaufmann, the former New York district attorney chief prosecutor, boarded a Falcon 2000 private jet at the Ft. Lauderdaleâ... Hollywood International Airport with the destination of Caracas Venezuela. The plane was piloted by Gilbert Enrique Deleaud, an employee of Derwick Associates. The flight reservation was done through Massiel Hernandez, the pilotâ... s domestic partner who was also an employee of Derwick Associates. The purpose of Fritschâ... s three day visit to Caracas was to do some damage control by meeting with Wall Street Journal reporter JosÃ© de CÃ³rdoba who was writing an investigative article about Derwick Associates. Fritsch previously worked with JosÃ© de CÃ³rdoba at the WSJ.

Derwick Associates linkage to aircraft, pilot, airport, and US based offices

After the meeting, Boyd emailed Tom Catan, a partner at Fusion GPS who he knew personally and asked him about Peter Fritschâ... s visit to Venezuela and the meeting with the WSJ reporter. Catan denied they were working on any Venezuela related project, Boyd then sent Catan a proof of Fritschâ... s visit to Caracas. Catanâ... s email response was:

Shortly after the publication, Boyd had his London apartment broken into and his two laptops stolen. Someone even created blogger site with a fake Spanish police arrest warrant and Twitter account under his name with postings of photos of him walking around London with his daughters.

Conclusion

So who researched and wrote the core parts of the dossier? It looks like it was a team effort. Most of the textual evidence points to Glenn Simpson and his wife Mary Jacoby as the architects of the dossier framework. This can also be gleaned from Jacoby's June 24, 2017 Facebook posting (which was deleted promptly with most of her SM activity after the project derailed) where she brags about her husband's leading role in its composition and vents her frustration about Steele monopolizing the limelight.

Image 37: Mary Jacoby's FB Post regarding the dossier

When it comes to the research, promotion, and distribution work, the linkage shows that a fair amount of staging activity took place in both the US (in the pre dossier stages) and the UK and involved individuals such as, Stefan Halper, Jonathan Clarke, Richard Dearlove, Charles Crawford, Iain Lobban, and Alexander Downer. It is also interesting that many of Robert Otto's Russia Workgroup's pen pals include the same Australian and UK diplomatic and IC actors that by July 2016 aggressively promote the dossier and vouch for its authenticity.

The same type of staging and delivery took place in the US through the State department sources like Robert Otto and the political and PR work of Alexandra Chalupa, Natalie Budaeva, and Ilya Zaslavskiy and their pro-Ukraine Free Russia Foundation NGOs. It is notable that a lot of this activity dates to first week of April-May 2016, almost 8 weeks before Steele's official June 2016 contract with Fusion GPS. This strongly suggests that there was a proto-dossier in place and that there was a wider coordinated effort between the US and UK teams with Orbis Business Intelligence likely acting as a front for Hakluyt & Co.

The existence of a proto-dossier that predates Steele's work is further supported by an email written by Robert Otto to John Williams, the director of the Office of Analysis for Russia and Eurasia in the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research. In this email titled "...the fried document" and dated May 1, 2016, Otto comments on some of the building blocks of the future dossier including how effective or damaging various claims would be. For example, on the subject of "Fridman" and "Alfa" (see Dossier page 25 report 112) he writes:

"It's not clear that Aven/Fridman's investments in Ukraine are in line with Kremlin policy. Alfa is a bank; banks issue loans. So what's the big deal with its loans to UVZ? It's a loss making enterprise and Alfa has threatened bankruptcy proceedings over non-payment. I fail to see how that's at the Kremlin request.

"I know nothing about Karimova's ties to Alfa. She has them to Usmanov. And it's Usmanov and Shvidler (Abramovich) who allegedly bribed Shuvalov, not Alfa!"

"A search in Integrum on "magnitskiy" and "al" "fa" gets five hits. Not a one is about Alfa laundering Magnitskiy money, let alone a central role. Why repeat something so easily checkable. Was it some sort of Alfa subsidiary? If so, name it. See above on Shuvalov "some of the money may have went through Alfa, but that's not what went public. (tidbit: one of the folks exposing Shuvalov is Natalya Plevin that same who shared Kasyanov's bed and chatted about an anti-Navalny front)

"A very serious allegation that requires investigation!" We have former Alfa fellows working in the building.

Ottoâ... s comment that â... *We have former Alfa fellows working in the building*â... also suggests that other active State Department Intelligence resources were privy to these conversations.

Ilya Zaslavskiyâ... s early 2016 activity in the UK also shows some of the Trump dossier themes such as the business relationship with the â... Alfa-Bankâ... (see award below) in several of his anti-Russian Oligarch campaigns.

Ilya Zaslavskiyâ... s June 10, 2016 certificate of corruption award

Ohrâ... s and Baumgartnerâ... s roles were likely to research specific Russian content and re-write the narrative in â... Russian styleâ... in order to make it appear authentic. The â... hardâ... intelligence probably came from British and Ukrainian sources who may have also provided some of the juicy gossip. Nellie Ohr utilized DOJ and State Department documents that pertained to Russian organized crime, cybersecurity, corruption, and opportunistically incorporated them into the dossier briefs.

This careful mixture of partial truth and fiction explains all of the tidbits of information in the report that are marginally plausible and give the dossier a first-person witness quality and a thin veneer of credibility. Simpson alludes to this when he said in the testimony:

We â... you know, they [Steeles network of resources] identified -one memo identified a Russian guy who worked for an NGO called Rossotrudnchestvo, which is â... you know, I didnâ... t know it at the time, but I was able to learn from looking at it that the FBI considers that to be a front for the SVR. So, you know, either the people were extremely knowledgeable about a lot of obscure intelligence stuff or, you know, they â... what theyâ... re saying had some credibility.

When it comes to the bulk of the literary work, Simpson, Jacoby, Baumgartner and Ohr likely authored it and Steeleâ... if he did any actual writingâ... just formatted the reports in order to tag them with his scent and make them look spishy by using terms like â... Source Xâ... and redacting some phrases.

Nellie Ohrâ... s, Shailagh Murray, and Mary Jacoby also played a secondary organizational role and acted as the liaisons between the Fusion GPS team, State Department, DOJ, and the White House, and possibly as a cut-outs to other agencies.

Image 38: The Steele Dossier Timeline

Anyone who has ever worked in intelligence knows that a good brief should answer the who, what, when, where, how, and why questions. Almost none of the allegations in the dossier offer hard corroboration. It is mostly based on generalizations, truisms, and a lot of materials that were circulating on the internet and Ukrainian circles since the mid 2000s. The writers of the dossier anticipated this criticism and countered it by building-in plausible deniability for most of the allegations through statements like:

â... but key witnesses silenced and evidence hard to obtainâ... or â... all direct witnesses to this recently had been â... silencedâ... â...!â...

It seems that the real dossier story is not the scandalous insinuations that it makes, but rather itâ... s the funding sources, the teams that worked on it, and its compilation and distribution channels. At peak capacity, the dossier team must have consisted of at least 25 individuals who worked on it for over 6-12 months. Assuming a modest $200 per hour rate per person, some first/business class travel and accommodations, media, consulting, IT, and legal services, this project must have cost an upwards of 5-10 million dollars. According to Simpsonâ... s testimony and documents, Fusion GPS was only paid about a million dollars by the DNC and Clinton campaign, which begs the questions of what was Hakluytâ... s cut and where did the rest of the money go?

Simpson and Steele did far more than simply conduct sordid opposition research for the Clinton campaign. By various machinations, they successfully reached the most influential people in UK and US politics, the media, and federal government agencies and shaped/influenced the narrative of the 2016 presidential elections. There is little doubt that Simpson/Jacoby and their US political/media network and Steele with his enablers in Hakluyt, the British media, and the Foreign Office successfully waged a full-scale influence operation against the US and are continuing to do so even now.

In the end, this modern version of the â... Black Hand Societyâ... failed to deliver the goods and as the Elections of 2016 came to an end, Baumgartner posted this tweet:

It is just this sort of Machiavellian statement that you might expect from a sleazy literary hitman. In response, I must point out that after you, Monsieur Edward Emil Baumgartnerâ... indeedâ... did come the flood!

James , April 13, 2018 at 2:29 am

The storage size is a function of the size of the group and the numbers of degrees of separation. It grows exponentially with the size of the population and linkage. Video and image processing also takes a significant amount of storage and processing overhead. As far as exploits, none were used :-). A lot of files and email backups are kept unprotected on file servers so the crawler just fetched them.

I don't know of any good OS VA tools. OpenCV doesn't have commercial grade capabilities and COTS FR won't handle low res low-quality images. You will have to do a fair amount of customization to traditional ACL FR to get it to work.

How much time would it take the system to run four degrees of separation linkage? Also, how difficult would it be to integrate feeds from sources like travel data and realtime credit card transactions?

Mark Sokol , April 13, 2018 at 5:43 am

Reply

Time would be a function of storage, memory, processor, and number of feeds. The processing curve tends to be logarithmic if you are doing VA and pattern matching. I haven't tried a 4-degree, but it would probably take several days. Yes, you can integrate any type of feed as long as you can parse and tag the data in it.

Great work, but you missed a huge chunk of information: For instance, names like Melanne Verveer, Marcy Kaptur, etcâ...!.

I believe that Alexandra Chalupa is the original author of the Steele dossier. I believe that she was taken out of the picture because the DNC couldnâ... t burn their biggest asset: Melanne Verveer.

And I believe this whole Paul Manafort witch hunt is about nothing but a love affair gone bad.

Nice! Hereâ... s what my research revealed and my timeline substantiates:

â... On 10/1/2015 Alexandra Chalupa claims she started an investigation on Team Trump but that she had been doing research on Paul Manafort for some period of time before this dateâ...

Thatâ... s the very first mention of that term, collusion with Russia. The date she started her research is pretty odd because nothing happened in the news that would have triggered that suspicion. The only notable thing that happened is that Trump announced he was running for office.

Alexandra Chalupa started writing a dossier on Paul Manafort before Manafort was ever even mentioned. She made a prediction that if Trump hires Manafort that itâ... s proof that Trump is colluding with Russia.

Soon after Trump did start mentioning Manafortâ... s hiring, Chalupa then became a very hot commodity in the DNC, achieving an almost prophet-like status. Everybody wanted to talk to her then.

Yeah, Iâ... m not buying that sheâ... s got a crystal ball. Did they have a mole on the inside of the Trump campaign?

One of the meetings she had was with Marcy Kaptur (D). Isnâ... t that a really strange name to be popping up in Operation Russian Collusion? Like, sort of completely out of the blue, right? Or is it?

Who is Melanne Verveer? I did that research on that connection here: <https://sites.google.com/view/politicscentral/home/who-is-melanne-verveer-for-one-thou>

But look what Hillary had to say about Verveer: As Hillary Clinton said of Melanne Verveer, â... I used to joke there wasnâ... t a single person in Washington she didnâ... t know. Not only was she a legend in the nationâ... s capital; so was her Rolodexâ...! There is no way to catalog the many projects that Melanne mastermindedâ...! She also became a key player on the presidentâ... s team.â...

And thereâ... s your link of the dossier to EVERYBODY else in the DNC.

And what was one of the things that Chalupa discussed with Marcy Kaptur? Oh, yeah, that she can guarantee a congressional investigation of Manafort by September of 2016.

So they ask Chalupa to continue her investigation. Chalupa gets put onto this committee and is described as having a â... very important role.â... Sheâ... s an ambassador to the Ukraine for the DNCâ...! why is that so important?

One of the things Chalupa did was, Alexandra Chalupa is invited to discuss her research about Paul Manafort with 68 investigative journalists from Ukraine at Library of Congress for Open World Leadership Center, a U.S. congressional agency. Chalupa invites investigative reporter Michael Isikoff to â... connect(s) him to the Ukrainians. Guess who funded that little symposium? Why, John Kerryâ... s State Dept. Guess who hosted it? FactCheck.org. (Which thereâ... s more to that story that I wonâ... t even go into here)

Then Alexandra Chalupa emails DNC that sheâ... ll share sensitive info about Paul Manafort â... offlineâ... including â... a big Trump componentâ...! that will hit in next few weeks (which never happened, at least by Alexandra Chalupa)

In the leaked exchange of emails of that committee, Chalupa starts getting freaked out about having her private Yahoo email account hacked. That really, really freaks out the heads of that committee, so much so that they â... fireâ... Chalupa. Really? You fire people for getting hacked? Why not just move her onto your DNC system of emails? Is it maybe because they need to keep her activities off-site, you know, where a FOIA canâ... t touch them? Anyway, they fire Chalupa. After four years of working for the DNC, she gets fired, and Chalupa isnâ... t upset about that not one bit, over something that wasnâ... t even her faultâ...!â...!

But what happens on the very day Chalupa is fired? Oh, Christopher Steele is hired. What a coincidence.

And what happens FIVE DAYS after Christopher Steele was hired? Oh, he publishes his first report on his dossier, a report that discusses FIVE YEARS of investigation.

Five days isnâ... t even enough time for the check to clear, much less conduct five years worth of research.

And what happens to Chalupa after that point? Nothing, not a word. They completely remove her from the picture entirely. My belief is that they couldnâ... t put her face on Operation Russian Collusion because she connects EVERYBODY together.

Chapeau! A tour de force.

Regarding authors of the dossier(s): Another employee of Orbis, not mentioned here is Pablo Miller, former MI6 officer. He was (happily still is) the handler for Sergei Skripal of â... Novichokâ... (*) fame.

Skripal, it is alleged, was a contractor for Orbis. Note that the last NAMES in the reports are capitalised. This is the Russian way of doing things, so that the names stand out. Also you said British spelling but Russian style? Skripal has lived in Britain for a decade. He travels regularly to Estonia, and to the Czech Republic, both of which are long used to dirty tricks to discredit Russia. The SBUâ... s involvement is highly likely too.

Reporting of Pablo Miller's name was restricted in the UK by two D-Notices :

<http://spinwatch.org/index.php/issues/propaganda/item/5998-two-d-notices-for-skripal-affair>

And reporting of the Skripal poisoning was covered, sticking rigidly to the official story, by Mark Urban of the BBC. He just happens to be a brother officer of Pablo Miller:

Hi David,

Thanks for the feedback. Two comments:

1. Yes, Pablo Miller showed up in multiple linkages, both, UK government and Orbis/Hakluyt related, but just like other former/current MI6 sources in the linkage, his role was more of a controller/facilitator. From the writing style analysis, it doesn't look like he contributed any significant written content to the dossier.

Hi Knowitall,

Thanks for your comment. Just to be clear. Simpson/Jacoby/Steele worked on a number of Trump-Russia/Ukraine related activities as early as early as 2009. Iâ... ve referenced this in the post in the paragraph that refers to the FISA warrant (see below):

â... It is also interesting to note that the DOJ statement about Glenn Simpson â... Never advising source #1 as to the motivation behind the researchâ... is untrue. In his testimony in front of the Senate Judiciary Committee on August 22, 2017, Simpson was very clear about having previous discussions and actively working with Steele to discredit Trump as early as 2009.â...

The June 2016 date refers to the â... official Orbis contract dateâ... when Steele started billing Fusion GPS. This date is important because all of the dossier reports are supposed to be sequential and the information in each was supposed to have been harvested in a close proximity to the published date on each brief.

An excellent piece of research, itâ... s like the Rosetta or the codex to this story. What put you on to choosing this form of data mining and where did you first start?

Miguel cervantes , August 12, 2018 at 1:46 am

Thank you, Miguel, for the feedback.

Thomas Jefferson observed that â... Whereas it appeareth that however certain forms of government are better calculated than others to protect individuals in the free exercise of their natural rights, and are at the same time themselves better guarded against degeneracy, yet experience hath shewn, that even under the best forms, those entrusted with power have, in time, and by slow operations, perverted it into tyranny; and it is believed that the most effectual means of preventing this would be, to illuminate, as far as practicable, the minds of the people at large...!â...

I decided to use OpenSource tools, ML, and computer vision because I wanted to create a reference architecture and demonstrate how this mostly free technology can be used to solve one of the most complex political and government transparency problems.

ML-based text analysis and AI-based computer vision have a tremendous potential for benefit and abuse. We always think about the negative connotations of an Orwellian surveillance state, but as you can see from this example, it can also be a major force multiplier for good, allowing us to quickly/effectively conduct an analysis on massive amounts of unstructured data that would otherwise require a large intelligence team and months to complete.

As far as how I first started, I do have an intelligence background and have been developing OSINT/cyber/intelligence platforms for many years.

I donâ... t have the vocabulary to tell you how much your research impressed me. I send msgs. to the Whitehouse, usually just telling the president Iâ... m praying for him and his family for continued strength and courage. The day I first read this last week, my Whitehouse email also suggested that â... The Mechanics of Deceptionâ... be read (realizing his team should have researched this information, too, but I also thought your work should be noticed.) I also said that I knew it was silly for someone like me to think what I said could get â... throughâ... to anything more than a robot screener. But, it makes me feel less helpless in the face of the devious schemes of these unscrupulous people behind the dossier.

What Happens To Our Enemies - A Payback Playbook Against Corruption

"When You Political And Corporate Goons Attack Us And Operate Character Assassination Smear Campaigns, This Is What You Can Expect:"

Dear Attackers:

You may work for a sociopath industrialist oligarch. You may actually be one of those sociopath billionaire tech oligarchs. You may only be one of the low-life blogger scum at the bottom of their political pig trough. In any case, you are going down.

You have more money than us but we have more time, dedication, creativity and voting members of the public on our side. We also have the law, ethics and tactical resources on our side.

Because you chose to try to end our lives we are coming after you and we are coming for the rest of your life, the rest of your families life and for 100 years of your legacy in any historical publications.

We play the â... long gameâ... for people like you. Everything that will now happen to you will be done 100% legally and the law enforcement and intelligence community will help us do it to you.

Slowly, over time, you will notice your life falling apart. Your business efforts will fail. Your romances will fail. Your investments will fail. Your health will fail. Things will seem to be falling apart, in slow motion, all around you. You must know that YOU brought everything on yourself that is about to happen.

Every member of the public that hears about your deviant, repulsive activities will help make what is going to take place come to fruition.

Here is what you can look forward to:

We will have justice served up with a big cold scoop of vengeance.

You will eventually be bankrupted but that will be the least of your worries.

Take a look at any stock you own, right now. Your stock market valuations are going to dive. Your brand is going to crash. Your profits will start to vaporize. By the time you notice, it will be too late.

Using these proven tactics and methodologies, a task-force of voters, journalists, investigators and forensic experts have caused over 300 billion dollars in losses to corrupt companies and individuals and bankrupted their criminally evil operations with 100% legal procedures. Any member of the public can do this too, on their own, without breaking a single law and with the gratitude of every citizen.

As a target, letâ... s take a look at the corrupt politicians that work for dirty corporations. Let's deeply examine the Silicon Valley oligarch financiers, their dirty corporate law firms and their media attack squads that have demonstrated a cycle of attack and harm to citizens.

Now we are ripping you, and your kind, a new one.

Signed,

Your Victims

Dear Public:

They use criminally corrupt and illicit operations designed to steal taxpayer monies and they character assassinate, defame, murder, black-list, and monopolize industries against anyone who speaks out against them.

They formed a business and political manipulation â... Cartelâ... intended to inflict corruption upon the United States Federal Government, The New York State Government and the California State Government, as defined by law under RICO Racketeering Statutes for the purpose of manipulating the value of stock market holdings and controlling political policy decisions. They violated â... Treasonâ... laws against the nation.

The criminally corrupt are enabled by criminally corrupt law firms who spend all day operating legal evasion schemes. Public efforts took down the Brobeck law firm and hundreds of others that were doing such crime cover-ups. There are many more needing to be terminated. Wilson Sonsini, Perkins Coi, Covington and Burling are targeted for termination next. Watch the TV show called â... Queen Of The Southâ... and watch how the cartel lawyer for the main drug queen is actually running the system. Every lawyer like that needs to be hunted down and 100% legally terminated.

These criminally corrupt people, companies and organizations are now going to experience payback, for their crimes against society, for the rest of their time on Earth. Their historical legacy after they die will remember each of them, in every history book, as: â... ...political criminals, insider trading mobsters and crony taxpayer abusing scum...â... .

Society provides only 3 options when these people try to take your life and your ethical society: 1.) Kill them â... This is illegal. 2.) Sue them - While it is easy to sue them for their crimes, their criminally corrupt law firms will only blockade and/or delay such litigation. 3.) Expose them and boycott them â... This has proven to work best.

Because they are scumbags who have been accused, by reporters, employees, spouses and tipsters, of very evil bribery, sex abuse, drug deals, political crimes, tax evasion, crony government payola, industry black-lists, money laundering, defamation, libel, slander, misogyny, stock market rigging, election manipulation, global search engine fake news, employee abuse and other horrific crimes against society. Exposing them, and their enablers, is proven method to take them down. A person, company or organization who commits crimes has always, according to historical forensics data, been indicative as only just one small part of a deeply infected body which is fully corrupt and one which requires termination.

The take-down effort must last for the rest of their lives. It must not just be a passing fad inspired by a single news exposéâ... . Society must never forget about what they did and never forgive them for attacking and damaging you, as a citizen, and for damaging and abusing society.

You will learn how to wipe out their eco-system. You will investigate, expose and demand prosecution of their corrupt:

- A.) Law Firm Corporations
- B.) CPA Firms
- C.) Investment Banks
- D.) Crony Politicians
- E.) Fake Money Laundering â... Charitiesâ...
- F.) False Front Stock Market Accounts
- G.) Covert Family Trust Funds And Shell Corporations
- H.) Internet Search Engine Manipulation Services
- I.) PR And Advertising Agency News Cover-Up Services
- J.) Offshore Money Laundering Services
- K.) And Every Other Intermediary Money Laundering Conduit...

There are now massive free database software systems the public can use to build your collaborative case files. CERN in Switzerland uses billions of dollars of free global database software that you can use too. You will use the web to create shared public collaboration peer-to-peer crime interdiction databases. The databases have every piece of information about the bad guys that was ever created, ie: all of their addresses, account numbers, tax records, bank accounts, dating site records, phone numbers, fax numbers, IMEI device records, IP addresses, device serial numbers, every lover they cheated on, service calls, drug deals, hookers, rent boys, Uber and Lyft trip addresses, neighbors, GPS records, etc. All of this information can be legally acquired by the public. These narcissistic criminals put most of it out on the web themselves. The public has already built their own versions of Palantir, XKEYSCORE, and other CSI database tools. You must now use these tools to end corruption.

If you have the funds, you can hire ex-FBI, CIA, NSA, GCHQ and other top intelligence and crime interdiction experts. They have ways of watching the bad guys every second of every day. Many of them are already doing it out of a sense of public service and you can find them on Voat.co, Reddit.com, 4Chan and tens of thousands of online web sleuth and citizen investigator sites.

Did you know that WiFi and the ceramic objects around you can make it look like there are not even walls where the bad guys are right now? Science has created a new world in which technology can see through walls and there is, LITERALLY, no place crooks can hide!

Face recognition can also source up every image of them that was on security cameras, store cameras, restaurant cameras, Google and Bing image databases, social networks, dating sites, traffic cameras, hotel and motel cameras and everything that has ever recorded their face; which is public domain. Everything they are connected to will be connected to them and psychologically analyzed. A map of every â... secretâ... meeting they had each day can now be computer generated in minutes.

If these political crooks ever, for the rest of their life, cheat on taxes, take money off-the-books, lie on an application, get arrested, get sued, buy drugs, buy sex, cheat, hide money, use off-shore conduits, set-up an illicit trust fund or shell corporation, get an STD, lie on a dating site, abuse or extort an employee, abuse a co-worker, plagiarize, break the law, run a real estate scam, hide insider stock trading, provide political campaign services without filing detailed and accurate FEC disclosures, support a political campaign, spend or receive any money that they do not report, etcâ...! THE PUBLIC CAN NOW CATCH THEM!

There is now no place on Earth a corrupt politician or their corrupt financier can hide from the crowd-sourced investigations. The public now has investigators online across the globe. The public can now count on friends in Congress, journalists, law enforcement and the intelligence community to help taxpayers never let the corrupt out of their sights!

You, as a PUBLIC INVESTIGATOR never have to do creepy illicit things, like they do, so you have nothing to worry about.

THEY have PLENTY to worry about. These tactics only work on Bad Guys like them!

Each of these crooks are, today, sitting at the edge of the same precipice that BILL COSBY, FOREX, SOLYNDRA, ABOUND SOLAR, A123, ENERDEL, AMY PASCAL, E.F.HUTTON, RADIO SHACK, ENRON, MCI WORLDCOM, EASTERN AIRLINES, STANDARD OIL, ERIC HOLDER, STEVEN CHU, ARTHUR ANDERSON, DELOREAN, PETS.COM, BEAR STEARNS, BEATRICE FOODS, HEALTHSOUTH, ALLEN STANFORD, TYCO, LANCE ARMSTRONG, PARMALAT, BANINTER, HSBC, GLOBAL CROSSING LTD., BLACKBERRY, HIH INSURANCE, IMCLONE, DEUTSCHE BANK

(SPY CASE), URBAN BANK, JEROME KERVIEL, BARCLAYS BANK, BRE-X, FISHER, BARINGS BANK, PATRICIA DUNN, SIEMENS AG, PETROBAS, FERNANDO MARCOS, KELLOGG BROWN AND ROOT, BAE SYSTEMS, KERRY KHAN, ALCATEL-LUCENT SA, PRESIDENT RICHARD NIXON, HARVEY WEINSTEIN, ERIC SCHNIDERMAN, JAMES COMEY...and many, many more, sat at just before they slid down their filthy funnels straight to hell. We all hope they enjoy the ride! Our public efforts took those players down! If the crooks think they are immune, they are 100% wrong! Google, Facebook, Twitter, Kliener Perkins, Snapchat, Musk, and the rest of the Silicon Valley Cartel should expect a life-time of investigations.

Here are a few of the thousands of 100% legal methods for wiping out creeps like them.

These corrupt politicians, the Silicon Valley Mafia, their political shills and their crony companies can be terminated from the comfort of any voter's living room.

This only works on criminals and the corrupt.

The "good guys" have nothing to fear.

Our goal is to get over 300 million voters working on these efforts ASAP:

Step-By-Step Termination Instructions For The Public To Use On Corrupt Targets:

" - Make sure your interdiction of their illicit deeds lasts the rest of their life. Make it your hobby and engage in it every month. Put it on your calendar to have a monthly action day.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single advertising director for EVERY company that advertises with them to show them the evidence and encourage them to stop advertising with the suspect under threat of boycott.

- List out every past employee of the tabloid that was used to attack the taxpayers.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single employee that works for them to show them the evidence and encourage them to quit.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single investor that funds them to show them the evidence and encourage them to divest.

- Use "Espionage Journalism" like Project Veritas does. Sneak in to the bad guys operation using your cell phone as a broadcast camera and film the crooks doing crooked things.

- Contact billionaire's (ie: Peter Thiel, Larry Ellison, etc.) to get them to sponsor a RICO, or other kind of lawsuit, against these corrupt parties. Use proxies to sue the corrupt (ie: Get Thiel to pay for some other guy to sue Gawker for you). The Legal Proxy is one of your biggest assets. You can get billions of dollars of lawsuits executed against corrupt mega giants. Make Hulk Hogan be YOUR proxy. He takes all of the risk and YOU get to see a criminally corrupt oligarch (ie: Nick Denton and Gawker/Gizmodo Media) ground into the dirt. Read the news daily and PACER.GOV and FIND YOUR PROXY!

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY user of their company, via mass media and personal out-reach, to show them the evidence and encourage them to cancel their subscriptions and â... poisonâ... their data by filling their profiles with fantasy data.

- See the movie: â... DARK MONEYâ... ! Understand what â... Dark Moneyâ... is. Then cut off every possible source of the bad guys â... Dark Money and expose every party involved in Dark Money schemes.

- Write every government agency with a short, concise, detailed complaint letter and say IN YOUR LETTER that â... THIS LETTER IS ON FOIA PUBLIC RECORDâ... . These days, all government documents are leaked, hacked or FOIAâ... d so assume the public will be reading your letter. Compose your letter as if you were writing it for the audience of the Jerry Springer show so that the public will be interested in it, excited about it and amused by it. This will help the public help you to push your issue. Audacious controversy gets traction.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by contacting EVERY single member of Congress and regulatory agencies to show them the evidence and demand, in writing, a federal investigation.

- Bankrupt their corrupt companies by exposing corrupt sources of supply to the news and the public; ie: Elon Musk uses â... blood cobaltâ... mines in the Congo which rely on child labor and mercenaries to operate the cobalt mineral mines.

- Expose the covert sex cults (ie: Pizza Gate, NXIUM, Burning Man, Mission Control, Power Exchange, etc.) that they frequent.

- Look on Linkedin and other databases to contact their former interns to see if they sexually or mentally abused that intern and help that intern find lawyers (ie: Lawless Firm, AllRed, etc.).

- All of the data of famous corrupt persons and corporations has been hacked and acquired by many, many parties over the last decade. Watch for it to get leaked on the web or go search the ICIJ, Wikileaks and related databases for keywords about your targets. Expose what you find to the public. Cross reference what you find with the Palantir, Taleo, Bitcoin Trace, PayPal Trace, VISA Trace, D&B Insider, Gust-Scan, etc. commercially available databases and you will have an even more powerful search than the NSAâ... s XKEYSCORE tool.

- Expose the trust funds, shell corporations and real estate contracts that they and their family own and make sure the IRS and SEC knows about those slush fund pots. Find all of their insider trading payola scams and expose them.
- Expose every reporter and â... stock analystâ... that is actually a shill for the corrupt. Call them out by name in press releases and your own news articles. Demand to see their financial records if they claim to have never been paid by the corrupt entity in question.
- Expose the racist, tribal, misogynist organizations that the majority of their executive hires are part of.
- Investigate them and share your investigation data, from public data resources, on databases. All of their addresses, account numbers, tax records, bank accounts, dating site records, phone numbers, fax numbers, IMEI device records, IP addresses, device serial numbers, etc. are on public record.
- As Comey, et al; proved, there are crooks at the FBI...but there will always be, at least, one Elliot Ness kind of good guy at the FBI. DO report your findings to the FBI, in writing, but report to EVERY main, and regional FBI office, in writing, with a carbon copy to the media. It only takes one good FBI agent to get an official FBI case going. The same goes for the SEC, The EU and the CFTC.
- These incredibly abusive people have an inordinate number of divorce lawsuits for abusive behavior. Showcase the most revealing text from those abusive divorce court filings.
- Write â... Request For Prosecutionâ... requests to every major law enforcement agency and send copies of those requests to every other law enforcement agency and independent news reporters.
- If they run for office, confront them (legally) at public speaking events and hand out one page fliers about their crimes to the public at these events. Name their crony financial backers out loud at these events.
- File charges with the FEC for campaign finance violations. Ie: In one year Google reported a million in campaign contribution cash to one party but they actually provided many billions of campaign contributions via search engine rigging and perception manipulation services. Report that to the FEC and demand to know what the FEC is doing about it. Ask the FEC, in writing, every month until you get an answer in writing.
- Donâ... t just â... follow the moneyâ... . Make fun charts and diagrams of the illicit funds routes and mass distribute those graphics.
- Meme them forever.
- Uncover every: illicit sex partner and who they cheated on; drug deals; hooker; rent boy; Uber and Lyft trip route; neighbors who complained about them; GPS records, social media posting that hinted at a political agenda, etc. All of this information can be legally acquired. They put most of it out on the web themselves and agreed to let Facebook, Uber and Google sell the data.

- Search every face recognition database with automated search tools. They agreed to allow their image on databases for security cameras, Walmart cameras, restaurant cameras, Google and Bing image databases, social networks, dating sites, traffic cameras, hotel and motel cameras and everything that has ever recorded their face; which is public domain. Check out what they were doing at each place they were recorded.

- Report every illicit deed done by the corrupt to large Congressional, news writer, social network and voter mass distribution systems.

- Learn â... Corporate Veil Protection Strategiesâ... and How to Bust Them With Doxing And Public Lawsuitsâ... .

- Break their cover-ups. Carbon copy every Inspector General (IG), reporter and social media resource you can find. Never allow only a few people to be the only ones that know what you uncovered. Tell everyone and never stop finding new people to tell. Use the â... Streisand Effectâ... .

- If they ever, for the rest of their life: cheat on taxes, take money off-the-books, lie on an application, get arrested, get sued, buy drugs, buy sex, cheat, hide money, use off-shore conduits, set-up an illicit trust fund or shell corporation, get an STD, lie on a dating site, abuse or extort an employee, abuse a co-worker, plagiarize, break the law, run a real estate scam, hide insider stock trading, provide political campaign services without filing detailed and accurate FEC disclosures, support a political campaign, spend or receive any money that they do not report, etc.; THEN YOU EXPOSE THEM AND THE ILLICIT ACTIONS THEY TOOK.

- Educate yourself by typing this phrase into the top 5 non-Google search engines: â... How To Be A Private Investigatorâ... and read all of the results. Try more searches, like: â... Investigation methodsâ... or â... Background check methodsâ... or â... Investigate a politicianâ... , etc. There are thousands of other legal techniques in addition to those few listed here. They all work if you are persistent.

- Learn how to put a covert media alarm in â... Corporate Poison Pillsâ... and find â... Criminal Back-Datingâ... .

- Track the spouses finances of corrupt Senators and expose the crony deals to the world.

- Make certain that you find every other voter and community group who might help you. Support their efforts and share what you have uncovered with them. Use the web to guarantee that there is no place on Earth they can hide from justice. Work to mesh investigators, Congress, journalists, law enforcement, intelligence community, voters and your friends and family to never let them out of your sights!

- Use social media, press releases, direct mail, PR and publicity stunts to seek out and join every other person or group, in the world, who also hates corruption. Share these notes with them and ask them to â... pass them around...â...

Hundreds of corrupt public officials have now been terminated since the main public web corruption purge efforts began in 2009. The corrupt are fools if they think they are immune. There is no â... invisible cloak of corruptionâ... . Every single day a shocking new set of revelations ends the career or some, now notorious, well known political figure.

If the corrupt think they hid their deeds in private texts, whispered restaurant conversations, secret home servers, the back seats of Uber and Lyft, closed doors in the back room or Cayman Islands hotel rooms THEY COULD NOT BE MORE MISTAKEN!

Every trust fund that they and their family own has been tracked.

Every Goldman Sachs, JP Morgan, Wells Fargo, and other I-Bank account they, and their corrupt family own, has been tracked and cross referenced to every political action they participated in that resulted in valuation increases to their crony insider accounts.

Every stock market account they and their family own has been tracked and cross referenced to every political action they took that might have increased the valuation of those stocks. Every sale of stock they engaged in is being analyzed for â... pump-and-dumpâ... illegality. ICIJ and Wikileaks still have tens of thousands of investigative documents that need to be reviewed. Volunteer to help find keywords and incrimination data in those records.

Every dirty off-shore account in Switzerland, the Caymans, Brazil and all of their other hiding places has been tracked and data-based on fully resourced online tracking databases.

Every person these criminal politicians ever communicated with on a dating site is being contacted. Any abuse, sexual misdeeds, sexting, porno pictures and lies are being documented and reported. Dating sites sell their user data and all of their server records, since inception, are available to the public, investigators and law enforcement with a single credit card purchase thanks to Facebook, Google and Axiom. They caught two different NY AGâ... s by reading their Match.com messages.

The Russians, Chinese, activists and bored teens have been entering the electronic device back doors on every router and consumer electronics device for decades and vacuuming up every record and file on every corporate and government network. Now they sell, or freely provide, those records to every public-interest law suit litigant to help them sue corrupt politicians and their financiers.

If they ever beat or abused a woman or child, it will be uncovered and reported just like Harvey, Humaâ... s Weiner and the New York AG were outed!

Hundreds of thousands of new non-main-stream, non-party-controlled, non-corporate owned news outlets have been created and they now reach the majority of the voting public. Hundreds of thousands of new voters are invited to these sites every hour, around the world. These news sites are exposing them and exposing the â... Main Stream Fake Newsâ... that the corrupt thought they controlled.

There is no under-age sex scheme that they are involved in that will not be found out and exposed.

There is no male or female prostitute that they used that will not be found out and exposed.

There are no abuse charges in your divorce filings and other documents that will not be uncovered.

There is no intern that they sexually abused that will not be protected when they tell their story about them.

TIPS FOR THE TAXPAYING PUBLIC:

For major anti-corruption lawsuit efforts we had to find the hidden money that corrupt Silicon Valley political financing billionaires had spent billions of dollars to hide. How hard was it to peel the skins off of Googleâ... s onion? Thanks to modern law enforcement and intelligence technology, it was not hard at all.

The fluency and practice of piercing the corporate veil & alter ego liability shields of political manipulation bosses such as George Soros, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Elon Musk and their colleagues, has become increasingly important in recent years due to changes in the law and business cycles.

As more small taxpayers need to help hunt down the corrupt, it is increasingly critical for taxpayers to be fluent with the cutting-edge techniques and best tools to pierce & dissolve the corporate veil, as well as determine alter ego liability. The growing number of bankruptcies, foreclosures, and judgments has dramatically increased the need for forensic experts proficient in the science of effective judgment enforcement and asset recovery against the Silicon Mafia collection of corrupt California tech companies.

Ie: Any corrupt Department of Energy employer or contractor can now be sued, lose their home and have the courts transfer all of their assets away.

It is critical for action groups to understand the best strategies to suck dry the corporate assets in judgments for cases and how to sue individual State and Federal workers.

Any member of the public can now begin piercing of the Google corporate veil, navigating complex determinations on corporate liability, strategies involving legal alter ego, and breaking open both corporate & personal liability with your home computer.

We use tools that not only include, but exceed, the capabilities of XKEYSCORE, Palantir, Taleo, Bitcoin Trace, PayPal Trace, VISA Trace, D&B Insider, Gust-Scan, and hundreds of other executive asset tracking and intelligence engines.

You, as a voter, need to learn how to:

â...Expose Veil Protection Strategies and How to Bust Through Them

â...Expose Liabilities for the Obligations of the Entity That Wilson Sonsini Created For Google & Tesla and How We Busted Through Them In Less Than 24 Hours

â...Employ Best Practices in Litigating the Veil Piercing Case in a Gawker Media-Like Laundering Operation

â...Snag The Corrupt With Veil Piercing Tactics & Fraudulent Conveyances With Sting Operations

â...Inform The Corrupt About How Dire Their Situations Are In the New Information Age

â...Expose Corporate Entities Used to Diminish Liability And Use Them As Evidence Against The Corrupt

â...Understand the Alter Ego of Insane Silicon Valley Tech Billionaires

â...Run Reverse Veil Piercing Investigations

â...Connect the Separate "Personalities" of the Corporation & Shareholders

From the underlying substantive law to practical aspects of asset protection planning (i.e., what works and what does not), new groups are teaching the public everything they need to know about dissolving corporate and executive asset protection like butter on a frying pan.

From Gawker to Enron and from Solyndra to Nigerian War Lords, From Steven Chu and Eric Holder to Brian Goncher and Steve Jurvetson; taxpayers are now only a few mouse clicks away from the deepest family trust fund hide-aways and the darkest sexual services transactional relationship disclosure.

The public can now see how to uncover assets from tort plaintiffs, lenders, government entities and other creditors, hidden in thousands of corporations, partnerships, LLCs and offshore entities. Online web sleuths who are distinguished CIA-FBI-NSA-Class staff will teach you specific approaches and solutions, including the most effective tactics, best practices, and the cutting-edge strategies to peel an Eric Schmidt or a John Doerr veil open like a Taco, 100% legally.

The public is learning various ways, from the very simple to the very sophisticated, to expose specific assets of State and Federal corrupt employees and illicit contractors: houses, bank and brokerage accounts, private islands, billionaire bunkers, hookers with billionaires homes in their names, rent-boy services, rental real estate, businesses and professional practices and retirement plans. Sue Obama? Yes! He is now a private, corrupt citizen!

Every taxpayer is now able to easily acquire the most effective strategies and latest law in destroying all corrupt asset protection for the criminal titans.

You, as a taxpayer, can learn and use these methods:

â...¿Practical Goals and Limitations of Asset Protection â... Google bosses were never as safe as their consultants told them they were

Every bad and immoral thing the corrupt did yesterday will be on the lead stories in the Wall Street Journal tomorrow.

Use this document as your check-list. Try to accomplish everything on it against the most corrupt entity you see in the news. It does not matter how big they are. These tactics work on a corrupt entity of ANY size!

Not only is this effort 100% legal, it is your moral obligation to undertake it. Even if you donâ... t care about the moral issues, you should care about the fact that your personal assets will increase and the quality of your life will improve as this program increases in effectiveness.

In â... The 25% Revolutionâ... How Big Does a Minority Have to Be to Reshape Society?â... David Noonan describes how this sort of program by a committed few can influence the many and sweep away social conventions. In fact MASS, PEER-TO-PEER, CROWD-SOURCED POLITICAL CORRUPTION INTERDICTION has already moved to the influence of many.

Social changeâ... from evolving attitudes toward gender and marijuana to the rise of Donald Trump to the emergence of the Black Lives Matter and #MeToo movementsâ... is a constant. It is also mysterious, or so it can seem. For example, â... How exactly did we get here?â... might be asked by anyone who lived through decades of fierce prohibition and now buys pot at one of the more than 2,000 licensed dispensaries across the U.S.

A new study about the power of committed minorities to shift conventional thinking offers some surprising possible answers. Published this week in Science, the paper describes an online experiment in which researchers sought to determine what percentage of total population a minority needs to reach the critical mass necessary to reverse a majority viewpoint. The tipping point, they found, is just 25 percent. At and slightly above that level, contrarians were able to â... convertâ... anywhere from 72 to 100 percent of the population of their respective groups. Prior to the efforts of the minority, the population had been in 100 percent agreement about their original position.

â... This is not about a small elite with disproportionate resources,â... says Arnout van de Rijt, a sociologist at Utrecht University in the Netherlands who studies social networks and collective action, and was not involved in the study. â... It's not about the Koch brothers influencing American public opinion. Rather, this is about a minority trying to change the status quo, and succeeding by being unrelenting. By committing to a new behavior, they repeatedly expose others to that new behavior until they start to copy it.â...

The experiment was designed and led by Damon Centola, associate professor in the Annenberg School of Communications at the University of Pennsylvania. It involved 194 people randomly assigned to 10 â... independent online groups,â... which varied in size from 20 to 30 people. In the first step group members were shown an image of a face and told to name it. They interacted with one another in rotating pairs until they all agreed on a name. In the second step Centola and his colleagues seeded each group with â... a small number of confederatesâ...[who attempted to overturn the established convention (the agreed-on name) by advancing a novel alternative.â...

For the second step, as Centola explains it, the researchers began with a 15 percent minority model and gradually increased it to 35 percent. Nothing changed at 15 percent, and the established norm remained in place all the way up to 24 percent.

The magic number, the tipping point, turned out to be 25 percent. Minority groups smaller than that converted, on average, just 6 percent of the population. Among other things, Centola says, that 25 percent figure refutes a century of economic theory. â... The classic economic modelâ... the main thing we are responding to with this studyâ... basically says that once an equilibrium is established, in order to change it you need 51 percent. And what these results say is no, a small minority can be really effective, even when people resist the minority view.â... The teamâ... s computer modeling indicated a 25 percent minority would retain its power to reverse social convention for populations as large as 100,000.

*But the proportion has to be just right: One of the groups in the study consisted of 20 members, with four contrarians. Another group had 20 members and five contrariansâ... and that one extra person made all the difference. â... In the group with four, nothing happens,â... Centola says, â... and with five you get complete conversion to the alternative norm.â... The five, neatly enough, represented 25 percent of the group population. â... One of the most interesting empirical, practical insights from these results is that at 24 percentâ... just below the thresholdâ... you donâ... t see very much effect,â... adds Centola, whose first book, How Behavior Spreads: The Science of Complex Contagions, comes out this month. â... If you are those people trying to create change, it can be really disheartening.â... When a committed minority effort starts to falter there is what Centola calls â... a convention to give up,â... and people start to call it quits. And of course members have no way to know when their group is* just short of critical mass. They can be very close and simply not realize it. â... So I would say to Black Lives Matter, #MeToo and all of these social change movements that approaching that tipping point is slow going, and you can see backsliding. But once you get over it, youâ... ll see a really large-scale impact.â...

Real-life factors that can work against committed minoritiesâ... even when they reach or exceed critical massâ... include a lack of interaction with other members, as well as competing committed minorities and whatâ... s called â... active resistanceâ... â... which pretty well describes the way many people in 2018 respond to political ideas with which they disagree. But even with such obstacles, Centola says the tipping point predicted in his model remains well below 50 percent.

Certain settings lend themselves to the group dynamics Centola describes in his study, and that includes the workplace. â... Businesses are really great for this kind of thing,â... he says, â... because people in firms spend most of their day trying to coordinate with other people, and they exhibit the conventions that other people exhibit because they want to show that theyâ... re good workers and members of the firm. So you can see very strong effects of a minority group committed to changing the culture of the population.â...

The other environment in which the 25 percent effect is particularly evident, Centola says, is onlineâ... where people have large numbers of interactions with lots of other people, many of them strangers. This raises some tricky questions: Can a bot stand in for a member of a committed minority? And can a committed minority be composed of bots and the real people the bots influence, so that bots are actually driving the change? According to Centola, â... In a space where people canâ... t distinguish people from bots, yes. If you get a concerted, focused effort by a group of agents acting as a minority view, they can be really effective.â...

You owe it to society, and yourself, to fight against political and corporate corruption.

The Weekly Standards Ties to Media Assassins At Fusion GPS

By Julie Kelly

In his online appeal for money after being fired this week, disgraced former FBI agent Peter Strzok credited an unlikely source to vouch for his victim status: The Weekly Standard.

At one time a leading conservative magazine, the Standard declared last month that Strzokâ... s plight was merely an â... overwrought tale of biasâ... and the case against him is â... just sound and fury.â... The article brushed off Strzokâ... s actions as â... several bad judgment callsâ... and blasted Congressional Republicans for continuing a criminal investigation into the now-unemployed G-man.

Strzok is following only 32 people on his newly-verified Twitter account. Bill Kristol, the editor-at-large of the Standard, is one of them.

So, whatâ... s with the fanboying between the *Standard*â... an allegedly serious publication dedicated to advancing conservative principlesâ... and a corrupt government bureaucrat who embodies everything the conservative movement fought against for decades?

I found an article in the Standard archives this week that might explain why. On July 24, 2016, just days before Strzok helped launch a counterintelligence probe into the Trump campaign, Kristol gave Strzok and the Obama Justice Department a big assist from the anti-Trump Right by posting a flawed and questionably-sourced article. â... Putinâ... s Partyâ... is compelling evidence that Kristol and the Standard were far from mere sideline observers as the Trump-Russia collusion scam took shape in the summer of 2016.

At the very least, the timing of the article suggests there was careful coordination between the central playersâ... including the Hillary Clinton campaignâ... and Bill Kristol to derail Trumpâ... s candidacy just weeks before the election. But the articleâ... s content also serves to raise alarming questions about the claims by many Republicans that â... conservativesâ... had no knowledge of or involvement with the Christopher Steele dossier.

Letâ... s back up a bit. On the morning that Kristolâ... s piece posted, the Trump-Russian election collusion story was in its embryonic stageâ... nearly all American voters that summer remained blissfully unaware of the details in this preposterous storyâ... but secretly it was being peddled to the media by Fusion GPS, a political opposition research firm hired by the Clinton campaign and the Democratic National Committee to dig up Russian-related dirt on Donald Trump. Talking points produced by Glenn Simpson, the head of Fusion, and contained in the Steele dossier, were making the rounds in the D.C.-NYC media clique during July 2016. (At the same time, Steele was working with the FBI and alerting the agency to his dubious findings about the Trump campaign.)

Kristolâ... s article hits on every single one of the Simpson-Steele talking points: Trump forced the GOP to water-down language on the Ukraine in the partyâ... s platform (it didnâ... t happen); the Russians were behind Wikileaksâ... release of the DNCâ... s hacked emails (unproven); Trump encouraged foreign powers to interfere in the election (he didnâ... t); and Trump would not honor U.S. commitments to NATO (an overblown assessment of Trumpâ... s NATO criticism nearly all the Republican candidates made). He listed a handful of unknown Trump campaign associates who would soon become household names, including campaign manager Paul Manafort; national security advisor, Lt. General Michael Flynn; and foreign policy aide Carter Page. (Strzok and the FBI formally opened their investigation into the three menâ... and campaign aide George Papadopoulosâ... on July 31, 2016.)

The content of Kristolâ... s piece closely mirrored reporting by other news outlets at the same time. (Lee Smith wrote about how the Fusion-planted media echo chamber evolved before the election.) But despite the flimsiness of the accusations, Kristol took his advocacy a step further.

These indications provide sufficient grounds for Trumpâ... s links to Putin to be further investigated. Politicians who are currently supporting Trump should withdraw their unconditional support. We donâ... t know how direct and close a financial relationship Trump and Manafort have with the Putin regime. If Trump and Manafort donâ... t act to allay these concerns by releasing their tax returns (or in other ways), wouldn't it be advisable for a Republican member of Congress to lead an urgent investigation into whether Putin is interfering in the current American election? Trump and Manafort may be Putin's chumps. Will other Republicans sit by as the whole Republican party becomes Putin's party?

A few hours after the Standard piece went online, Clinton campaign manager Robby Mook reinforced Kristol's message in an interview on CNN. Desperate to change the subject from DNC chairwoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz's pending resignation, Mook also claimed the Russians were behind the DNC's computer hack because Putin wanted Trump to win. There were other similarities to Kristol's article. Trump and his allies made changes to the Republican platform to make it more pro-Russian, Mook told Jake Tapper. And we saw him talking about how NATO shouldn't intervene to defend our Eastern European allies if they are attacked by Russia. So, I think, when you put all this together, it's a disturbing picture.

The next day, Carter Page received his first text from a reporter and former Wall Street Journal colleague of Simpson's, asking him about his ties to Russia and mentioning dossier-sourced specifics. White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest fielded his first (planted) question during the daily press briefing by an AP reporter, who oddly asked whether the DNC hack was an attempt to influence the election in favor of Donald Trump.

Coincidence? Not a chance.

Kristol would take to Twitter dozens of times before the election to promote the Trump-Russia collusion fantasy, even referring to the GOP as the Putin Party. Kristol's handpicked candidate to challenge Trump, Evan McMullin, also pushed the Trump-Russia narrative. (On the other hand, despite Fusion and Glenn Simpson being covered in the conservative media for more than a year, Kristol has zero tweets about the firm.)

It might be easy to dismiss all of this as mere happenstance, the rantings of a fierce Trump foe determined to do whatever he could to stop Trump from winning. But there is an important sidebar to consider: The Washington Free Beacon admitted last year that they retained Fusion from late 2015 until April 2016 to gather opposition research on Republican primary candidates. The website is run by Kristol's son-in-law, Matthew Continetti. The Beacon posted numerous negative stories about the Trump campaign in 2016, including hit pieces on Carter Page in March and July.

The Beacon's story keeps changing, however. At first, Continetti admitted that the Beacon retained Fusion GPS to provide research on multiple candidates in the Republican presidential primary. Days later, Continetti explained why his website failed to mention its relationship with Fusion in several related articles prior to October 2017. After some blather about aggregated articles, Continetti vowed that future articles will mention its history with Fusion.

And they did. A few days after that, the Beacon posted an article with this disclaimer: The Washington Free Beacon was once a client of Fusion GPS. That relationship ended in January 2017.

Say what? Something is not adding up here; in fact, it stinks.

We are expected to believe that Bill Kristol's son-in-law paid Fusion throughout the 2016 presidential campaign cycle but Simpson doesn't pitch one dossier-related story to either one? Kristol just comes up with the very same flimsy talking points that Simpson and Steele are peddling at the exact same time and it's pure coincidence? Kristol just happens to call for an investigation one week before the FBI takes the outrageous and unprecedented step of probing private citizens working on an opposing presidential campaign? Kristol and Robby Mook just strangely regurgitate the identical Trump-Russia plotlineâ... on the same morning?

Since the election, Kristol and the Standard have ignored major developments in Spygate while shamefully working with Democratic operatives to smear lawmakers such as Rep. Devin Nunes (R-Calif), chairman of the House Intelligence Committee, who are trying to get to the bottom of the scandal. Kristol has been in the forefront of keeping Special Counsel Robert Muellerâ... s investigation working in perpetuity.

And the Standard has yet to report on Strzok getting fired. (Nor has Kristol tweeted about Strzok.)

Unfortunately, there are still some conservatives who trust Kristol and the Standard fairly to report on the Trump presidency and Republican Congress. Itâ... s important that the public fully understands what role Kristol and his publication playedâ... and continue to playâ... in fueling the biggest political corruption scandal in American history.

Kristol asks a lot of questions on Twitter. Itâ... s time for him to answer some now.

The biggest problem with trying to kill citizen whistle-blowers and reporters is that, when you take away everything someone has you create a group of enemies who have nothing to lose.

Thereâ... s a very good reason why they named it AMAZON!

of the Nation

State

Just like Walmart was used to take over the American retail industry after it was incorporated in October of 1969, Amazon was actually established to completely dominate the Internet-based retail industry, which it has successfully done.

As of January 31, 2019, Walmart has 11,348 stores and clubs in 27 countries, operating under 55 different names.[1]

Not only did Walmart put hundreds of thousands of â... mom and popsâ... out of business across America, the retail giant greatly diminished both access and choice for the shopper in the pre-Internet Age.

Amazon

Do you really think that the very name â... A M A Z O N â... wasnâ... t chosen with purposeful design?

Not only is this joint C.I.A.-Corporate venture a stone-cold black operation, itâ... s also a massive psyop that only gets bigger by the day.

How so?

Well, once again, the American retail sector has been collapsed with stores and malls closing around the country at breakneck speed.

Where Walmart effectively functioned as an F5 tornado for small rural communities everywhere, Amazon is rapidly morphing into a Cat 5 mega-hurricaneâ... NATIONWIDE.

Amazon went from a company that did not make a cent for many years and literally operated at a loss, to becoming â... *the most valuable public company in the world after passing Microsoft*â... in 2019.

In point of fact, the Amazon River is the longest river in the world as well as the largest by discharge volume of water. Its tributary system of rivers and streams and rivulets is the most complex and convoluted on the planet. Itâ... s pervasive and profound impacts on South America is greater than any of the other major rivers on any other continent.

Not only that, but Amazonâ... s business model was set up and structured from the get-go as an octopus innervating and interpenetrating every segment of the corporate sector. This is how Amazon is being used to monitor and control much of Corporate America. Just like the gargantuan Amazon River snakes through the northern half of South America as it numerous tributaries profoundly affect everything in their path, the enormous Amazon.com platform exerts influence far beyond Internet commerce.

The bottom line here is that Amazon can act like the 800-pound gorilla, who sits anywhere it wants to, because it was made that way. Just watch the drama being acted out in New York City with the withdrawal of Amazonâ... s proposition to set up shop there. What a complete jokeâ...! on everyone except Deep State.

Kabuki theater

The hidden back story to that AOC debacle in NYC is that itâ... s all Kabuki theater being deliberately staged so that every community in United States is aware that Amazon is very serious â...! and not to be messed withâ...!by anyone. They will always get what they want because itâ... s a full-blown government-corporate operation.

Now see stage right and the melodramatic Jeff Bezosâ... Lauren Sanchez â... Peyton Placeâ... being staged with maximum effect. In this case, the wife is the real covert CIA operative who everyone is missing. Not only was she the real brains behind Amazon, sheâ... s also the handlerâ... Bezosâ... handler. See exactly how this is done at the link below.

PEDOGATE: Women Operatives In Very High Places

---

Anyone who thinks that MacKenzie S. Bezos is just an innocent girl being pushed out of her marriage to billionaire Bezos ought to consider the true MO behind every major start-up that is born in a DARPA lab.

By the way, how does a guy like Jeff Bezos come to own the primary organ of the CIAâ... s Mockingbird Media â...! â...! â...! except by purposeful designâ... EXTREMELY PURPOSEFUL?!

Likewise, how does Amazon come to take over the cloud computing market in a day and a night? Talk about a major Big Brother move to lock down the cloud space! Now Amazon is going after logistics: Amazon took over the \$176 billion market for cloud computing. Now itâs using the same playbook in logistics.

All of these enormous moves throughout Corporate America reflect the covert scheme to significantly concentrate corporate power and influence in the hands of just a few corporations as well as a few company CEOs /presidents / business magnates.

Even the main metrics gauging the success of the markets indicate that, in 2019, it all comes down to the AAAA â Amazon, Apple, Alphabet, AT&T â as well as Walmart, Microsoft, Facebook, Exxon Mobil, and a few other corporate behemoths that were also set up as government-corporate enterprises from the very beginning.

Command & Control

The real problem that emerges time and time again with all of these corporate monsters is that they eat everything in sight so that they can monopolistically control the marketplaceâ EVERY MARKETPLACE, either directly and/or indirectly.

However, itâs the marketplace of ideas and innovation that really suffers at the hands of these CIA-controlled control freaks. Who does not see the draconian control that Big Social Media currently exerts on our freedom of speech? Both Facebook and Twitter shut down anyoneâs voice they care not to hear, as does the ever-censoring Google.

What follows is just one chilling example of the way that Amazon is being used to terminate any and all dissent in the USA against the detrimental and sometimes deadly super-vaccination agenda.

Now here are two other glaring examples of Amazon censorship that ought to concern every reader in America. And, this pattern is only getting more frequent and audacious by the month, just as Facebook and Twitter are recklessly terminating user accounts right and left for doing nothing but exercising free speech.

Not only are extremely important ideas eliminated with a single keystroke by the Sultans of Silicon Valley, so are people who oppose the New World Order agenda. As owner of The Washington Post, Bezos is notorious for taking down any enemy of Deep State in a D.C. moment. See: C.I.A. Pawn Jeff Bezos Uses WashPo to Smear Political Opponents of Deep State

How did Bezos even come to own the WAPO in the first place? The same way his grandfather was mysteriously made the President of Monsanto. BLOCKBUSTER: Jeff Bezos's Grandfather Was President of Monsanto

Everything points to the Bezos family as being one of those C.I.A. families that goes back generations. The is the type of family who will take orders from TPTB and unquestionably carry out those orders no matter what the consequences to people and planet. In and of themselves, they wield no real power, but are wittingly used as agents of Deep State and operatives of the U.S. Intelligence Community... 24/7.

In this regard, Bezos is nothing but a C.I.A. contractor whose main job is to expand and solidify the reach of The Company (as the C.I.A. is known in intelligence circles) worldwide. Pretty soon Amazon will be as pervasive and powerful, internationally, as Walmart is and as Coca Cola once was on the ground.

KEY POINT: Very few really understand but the primary reason why the C.I.A. is called The Company is because they [COMPLETELY] control Corporate America. You can't even become a corporate CEO and/or President without being a card-carrying CIA agent or contractor. The Fortune 1000 companies are populated with so many CIA spooks in top management that they can be counted on to carry out the CIA's multifarious covert agenda(s), both domestically and internationally.

---

The very nature of the publicly held or publicly traded corporation is such that as soon as it goes public and shares can be traded, the influence of its original owners and founders and officers is immediately diluted to the extent that it is owned by outside CIA-chosen shareholders. Whenever the C.I.A. wants to take over any particular corporation, they merely buy their stock, bonds and every other publicly traded security. Then they dictate who the Board of Directors will be, who then approve the carefully selected and compromised top management and their compensation packages.

Intelligence

There has been no greater public collaboration between the Central Intelligence Agency and a US-based corporation than that of Amazon and the C.I.A.

The number of HUGE joint projects that have been made public is both unprecedented and alarming. That the world's largest online retailer would be so closely associated with the C.I.A. is a reflection that Deep State really doesn't care what the American people think anymore. They don't even care if citizens are asking: Is Amazon Echo a CIA listening device?

What makes this quickly evolving partnership so dangerous and distressing is that there is a fake shine put on these state-corporate entities that so many wants to be a part of. In this way, people are in awe of these corporate Frankenteins, instead of being extremely wary of them.

Which begs the question: Just how much has the CIA collaborated with AMAZON to change American intelligence gathering?

Which demands further investigation into this inquiry: What's the CIA Doing on Amazon's Cloud? . Surely, there are many more inquiries that need to be made post-haste into these various joint projects that will profoundly affect each and every one of us in the future.

What is beyond dispute is that the Amazon.com has morphed into one of the largest data-mining operations in world history. Some folks spend all day long there shopping and leaving comments and flipping from video to video, book to book and audio to audio. Each of these past-times creates more data that is undoubtedly captured and stored and analyzed in ways that only the C.I.A. can do.

What's of paramount importance to comprehend is that the CIA, NSA and DIA are at the hub of this global intelligence-gathering operation. Amazon, Google, Facebook, Twitter, Apple, Microsoft, Instagram, Snapchat, etc. are continuously feeding their stealthily collected data to the government, as well as to other buyers of the data who then use it in highly manipulative ways. Wow... what a complex and convoluted scheme to strip the citizenry of their privacy, and yet how many folks know about the sheer depth and breadth of it?

Amazon censorship

With this critical understanding, Amazon was intentionally created to centralize much of the nation's retail buying and selling power in one company. The world-famous Amazon website is not only a one-stop shop for everything under the sun, it establishes a digital record of every buyer's purchases and other online habits. To say that a highly detailed social profile is also being established would be a gross understatement because a LOT more profiling is being accomplished with every visit to their site.

However, it's the raw state power to unlawfully censor that is of greatest concern to a free and open society. In this regard, when Amazon throws its weight around, We the People get crushed without recourse. And, the government will not so much as raise a finger in the defense of the First Amendment or any other lofty principle or God-given right. After all, Amazon is wholly owned and operated by the secret government entities that are virtually impossible to identify and, therefore, difficult to check.

This is the rubric under which the whole of American society is really governed and controlled; it's a fascist corporatocracy where the corporate sector is joined at the hip with the government...but no one really knows about the criminal collusion except a few power-players at the very top.

The cast of characters goes way beyond these main stars of 'The Jeff Bezos Affair'...

The Jeff Bezos Affair and Divorce

In light of these crucial revelations, how does one make sense of the most captivating soap opera in the history of Hollywood? Remember, the C.I.A and Hollywood have always been joined at the hip as well. They're experts at creating spectacles that distract and deceive, divert our attention and misdirect.

Even The New York Times has labelled the 'Bezos affair and divorce' the biggest VIP melodrama ever to have entranced so many watchers around the world. Even the star of the show 'Jeff Bezos' seems to revel in his new roles as both screen star (smartphone) and lawyer. See: What in the world is really

Truly, this whole Bezos affair makes â... DALLASâ... look like the â... FLYING NUNâ... . You really canâ... t make this stuff up; unless, of course itâ... s been scripted by Hollywoodâ... s best and brightest CIA contractors, which it has.

However, there is a highly radioactive political back story here. That story concerns Donald Trump and Jeff Bezos, the C.I.A. and the Trump organization, The Washington Post and the National Enquirer. And, â... Yes!â... , it has a lot to do with the fact that C.I.A. Pawn Jeff Bezos Uses WashPo to Smear Political Opponents of Deep State.

But whatâ... s the real back story here?

Conclusion

Weâ... ve got some very serious problems with the way that Amazon has taken over so much of American society. Whatâ... s especially concerning is the way that the growing Bezos empire has arrogated so much power unto itself so quickly, particularly during the lawless Obama years.

When headlines read like this: Trump Leak Now Points To Bezosâ... Hidden \$600M Deal With Obama CIA To Feed Washington Post, you know weâ... ve got BIG problems. That a retail website could develop so many corrupted and compromising inter-relationships throughout the intel community makes one wonder what Deep State has put into place over several decades way under the radar.

At the end of the day, Amazon is just one more fascist entity that will have to be decisively dealt withâ...! before they deal US out of everything we hold sacred and important to the American way of life. Oh, and by the way, almost every employee of Amazon will tell you that working there is like working in the Third Reich, where the Bezos-directed â... Gestapoâ... is running the show from behind.

Twitter, already facing accusations of anti-conservative bias, has hired some academics to study â... healthy conversationsâ... on the social media site â... and most of them are publicly anti-Trump. Fox News reported.

Out of a group of six academics who are tasked with studying social media political â... echo chambers,â... four of them have posted tweets that are blatantly against the president.

â... Many of Twitterâ... s actions continue to be concerning for conservatives,â... Republican Party chair Ronna McDaniel told Fox News. â... If Twitter wants to restore healthy conversations, they should start by talking with Americans outside of their bubble.â...

What is Twitter doing?

Twitter is trying to examine and improve upon the increasingly polarized and hostile environment in which political discussions take place.

â... In the context of growing political polarization, the spread of misinformation, and increases in incivility and intolerance, it is clear that if we are going to effectively evaluate and address some of the most difficult challenges arising on social media, academic researchers and tech companies will need to work together much more closely,â... said Rebekah Tromble, one of the hired researchers.

What did the anti-Trump people say?

Tromble and several other researchers have posted tweets expressing their dislike of Trump. Some excerpts:

â... Trump quintupled down on his commitment to white nationalists,â... Tromble tweeted last year after the Charlottesville rally that ended violently. â... Theyâ... re just about all heâ... s got left. Bannon ainâ... t goin nowhere.â...

Twitter's response?

â... The two proposals were selected from more than 230 submissions from around the world because of their inexperience and the rigorous academic standards of their work,â... a Twitter spokesman said in an email to Fox News. â... The spokesperson emphasized that the researchers would not be doing work related to bias, but only evaluating communication.

U.S. Intelligence Shuts Down Damning Report on Whistleblower Retaliation

A top watchdog investigated 190 cases of alleged retaliation against whistleblowersâ... and found that intelligence bureaucrats only once ruled in favor of the whistleblower.

The nation's top intelligence watchdog put the brakes on a report last year that uncovered whistleblower reprisal issues within America's spy agencies, The Daily Beast has learned. The move concealed a finding that the agenciesâ... including the CIA and the NSAâ... were failing to protect intelligence workers who report waste, fraud, abuse, or criminality up the chain of command.

The investigators looked into 190 cases of alleged reprisal in six agencies, and uncovered a shocking pattern. In only one case out of the 190 did the agencies find in favor of the whistleblowerâ... and that case took 742 days to complete. Other cases remained open longer. One complaint from 2010 was still waiting for a ruling. But the framework was remarkably consistent: Over and over and over again, intelligence inspectors ruled that the agency was in the right, and the whistleblowers were almost always wrong.

The report was near completion following a six-month-long inspection run out of the Intelligence Community Inspector General office. It was aborted in April by the new acting head of the office, Wayne Stone, following the discovery that one of the inspectors was himself a whistleblower in the middle of a federal lawsuit against the CIA, according to former IC IG officials.

Stone also sequestered the mountain of documents and data produced in the inspection, the product of three staff-years of work. The incident was never publicly disclosed by the office, and escaped mention in the unclassified version of the IC IG's semiannual report to Congress.

The IC IG's office declined to comment for this story.

The affair casts serious doubt on the intelligence agencies' fundamental pact with the rank and file: that workers who properly report perceived wrongdoing through approved channels won't lose their job or, worse, their security clearance, as a result. It also adds another layer of controversy to the Intelligence Community Inspector General office, already under fire for cuts to its whistleblower protection program and the unexpected sacking of the program's executive director in December. In a confirmation hearing last month, Trump's pick to head the watchdog agency acknowledged the apparent chaos in the office, citing a detailed expose by Foreign Policy magazine. "My first objective as Inspector General, if confirmed, will be to make sure the IC IG's house is in order," said former Justice Department prosecutor Michael Atkinson.

Stone shut down the whistleblowing inspection just days after taking over for Charles McCullough III, who'd served as the intelligence community inspector general from the day the office was founded in 2010 until his retirement in March of last year.

None of this was supposed to happen. In 2012, then-President Barack Obama signed a policy directive called PPD-19, which prohibits intelligence agencies from punishing workers who report abuses through approved government channels. The directive has been left in place under President Trump.

Among other things, PPD-19 requires the Office of Inspector General (OIG) at each agency to carry out an investigation when a worker complains he or she suffered retaliation for lawful whistleblowing. If, after investigating, the OIG finds no evidence of reprisal, the whistleblower can appeal up to the Intelligence Community Inspector General, who can choose to impanel a three-person appellate board, comprised of IGs from other agencies, to review the case and either affirm or disagree with the OIGâ... s decision.

The investigators found that basically never happened. â... Absent a review process which adheres to mandated legal standards for reprisal investigations, the protections remain weak with minimal chance for a complainant to have a reprisal complaint substantiated,â... read one of the conclusions in the suppressed inspection. â... From the data it appears PPD-19 has had no impact on Agency reprisal investigations and/or protections for complainants making protected disclosures.â...

Rob Johnson, the former deputy IC IG under McCullough, broadly confirmed the findings in an interview with The Daily Beast, attributing some of the problems to the expected growing pains in implementing a new policy.

â... We saw a couple of cases from some offices that showed that they didnâ... t speak to witnesses that they should have, or that the cases had languished,â... says Johnson. â... And we saw cases where they took no action... Whether it was systemic or not, well, thatâ... s why we were doing the inspection.â...

The IC IG probe was billed as the first independent check-up on how seriously the intelligence inspector generals were taking the presidential directive, and a possible first step in setting a formal peer review process in the future. Six experienced inspectors had been chosen for the probe: three permanent members of the IC IG staff, and three more who were on extended loan from other agencies, the Defense Intelligence Agency, the FBI, and the CIA.

Of the six, the CIA officerâ... weâ... re calling him James Pars, the alias the CIA assigned him for his lawsuitâ... was likely the least accustomed to working in the comfortable climes of the IC IGâ... s air-conditioned office. Cuban-American and now in his early fifties, Pars was part of the CIAâ... s controversial Directorate of Operations, the division responsible for, among other things, carrying out covert actions abroad. A mosaic of interviews with colleagues, court filings and details in other documents seen by The Daily Beast paint a picture of a man who has seen a lot of nasty stuff over the years, serving in war zones in Iraq and Afghanistan, South American jungles, and cities like Bagdad and at least one other Middle East capital.

(Pars' lawsuit was first reported last year by the Project on Government Oversight.)

A sanitized autobiography Pars prepared in connection with his court action is riddled with staccato bursts of trauma: â... â...! sleep deprived, and having to constantly relay threat information to appropriate entitiesâ...!â... ; â... â...! the direct line of fire for one rocket which must have missed my exact location by meters as it tore through our living quarterâ...!â... , â... â...! helicopters which had to take evasive maneuvers and discharge flares because of a perceive threatâ...!â... â... â...! a leaking casket by my feet and two decomposing dead bodies in body bags not far from meâ...!â... The anecdotes, shorn of locations and dates, donâ... t lend themselves to easy verification, but a former intelligence colleague confirms the gist of it. â... He understands what happens in the field. Heâ... s been in the mud and blood.â...

There are notes of regret in Parsâ... subjective career rundownâ... particularly over the long stints away from his wife and young daughterâ... but few traces of resentment or personal grievance. That is, until he recounts, with agonizing precision, two occasions when he clashed with a superior, and felt mistreated by the CIAâ... s bureaucracy afterward. The first incident in 2009 ended with him being sent home from a long-term assignment in South America. The second, and the one that ultimately led to his lawsuit, began in December 2014 when he was made the CIAâ... s deputy chief of base at a U.S. military site that Pars doesnâ... t name, but which matches the sprawling Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan.

At Bagram, Pars had issues with his new boss, the chief of base, who he believed was running her command â... like a college dormitory,â... as Pars later wrote in a court filing. She allegedly adopted favorites within her staff, and placed â... her personal needs of cooking, baking, socializing, entertainment, exercise and shopping above the needs of the mission, often going days and sometimes more than a week without meeting with key personnel.â...

Parsâ... most serious complaint charged that the base chief frequently led her personnel on unnecessary errandsâ... â... food, shopping or to the gymâ... â... that took them through parts of the base hit frequently by Taliban rocket fire; one such excursion allegedly crossed a flight ramp that was hit by a rocket just 10 minutes later.

Without more information itâ... s hard to weigh the merits of Parsâ... complaint, and his version of events contains obvious echoes of longstanding gender stereotypes. But under PPD-19 the relevant question isnâ... t whether Parsâ... concerns were well founded, completely imagined or something in between. Only whether he faced retaliation for reporting them.

Following procedure, Pars sent his concern up the chain of command. Word of his complaint got back down to the base chief, who allegedly retaliated on a scale that ranged from the pettyâ... assigning him to duty as the compound â... noise monitorâ... â... to the serious, writing a critical performance review of Pars faulting him for poor communication skills and lack of leadership. Soon after, the CIAâ... s station chief in Afghanistan issued a â... short-of-tourâ... cable reporting that Pars no longer had the confidence of the chief of base. The cable cut short Parsâ... one-year detail after four months, and sent him home to Virginia with a reduction in take-home pay.

Upon his return, Pars spent months applying for new CIA assignments that would fit his experience and qualifications, according to his lawsuit, but with the poor performance review and short-of-tour cable on his record, he was rejected again and again. His finances went to ruin, as did his family life; his wife left the country, taking their daughter with her. Pars appealed to the Equal Employment Opportunity office for aid, and worked through the CIA bureaucracy to try and clear his name. He finally lodged a whistleblower reprisal complaint in April 2015.

While waiting for the reprisal investigation to run its course, he applied to a detail that would take him outside the CIA for a while. In September 2015, Pars reported for work at a Reston, Virginia, office park that houses the office of the Intelligence Community Inspector General.

Pars worked as an inspector at the office for nearly a year before he was recruited onto the team that would examine whistleblower retaliation issues. It was a delicate inspection from day one. The intelligence OIGs had recently lost enthusiasm for the PPD-19 whistleblower protection regime, after the very first reprisal case to reach an appeal panel was decided by an independent review board.

In that case, the whistleblower claimed that the NSA's own inspector general, George Ellard, had retaliated against him for reporting wasteful spending on a conference. The Defense Department's OIG ruled against the whistleblower, but the decision was reversed on appeal. In the aftermath, an incensed NSA director Mike Rogers fired Ellard.

â... That really did tarnish the IGs perception of PPD-19,â... says Irvin McCullough, an investigator at the nonprofit Government Accountability Project (and the son of the former IC IG). â... They thought the first case would be a manager, and instead it was an IG. They didn't like that.â...

â... Pars's most serious complaint charged that the base chief frequently led her personnel on unnecessary errandsâ... food, shopping or to the gymâ... that took them through parts of the base hit frequently by Taliban rocket fire.â...

At a setup meeting for the whistleblower inspection on Sept. 1, 2016, Jeanette McMillian, the IG's general counsel, suggested the inspection should focus on the five largest intelligence agenciesâ... CIA, NSA, NRO, NGA, and DIAâ... as well as the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, according to an official memorandum memorializing the meeting seen by The Daily Beast. She added that PPD-19 might go away after the next president was sworn in, and, in a departure from protocol, urged the inspectors to conduct a quick evaluation that would end by Inauguration Day and reach a positive conclusion. â... Conducting a review and affirming that PPD-19 is working would help to continue these protections with a new presidential administration,â... reads the memo, paraphrasing McMillian.

Continuing in that vein, McMillian noted that a positive finding would also provide a nice send-off for departing Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, according to the memo. Clapper's term had largely been defined by the Edward Snowden revelations, and he was a staunch supporter of PPD-19, hoping that clear, protected avenues would encourage American spies to keep their complaints in the intelligence family instead of in the press. (Contractors like Snowden aren't covered by PPD-19, but a measure renewed by Congress last month offers contractors similar protections.) McMillian expressed the view that â... an evaluation that affirms that PPD-19 is working would be a feather in the capâ... for DNI Clapper, and a good way to send DNI Clapper on his retirement,â... according to the memo.

The IG officially kicked off the inspection in early October 2016, and the six inspectors, including Pars, began conducting interviews inside the agencies (the three inspectors on joint detail were recused from the interviews inside their home agency), gathered the procedures, forms, and manuals used in reprisal cases, and collected and crunched the internal numbers.

Two months later, Pars quietly filed his retaliation lawsuit against the CIA.

Getting into court is a complicated process for an undercover CIA officer. Pars first had to receive his agency-assigned alias, and hire a lawyer who had, or could get, a security clearance... in this case, Washington, D.C., employment law attorney Susan Kruger. "... I sent the complaint to be reviewed by the CIA first, because I didn't want to file something that contained information that was secret," said Kruger. "... So you might say they were on notice..."

When the lawsuit finally hit the docket in December 2016, some 630 days had elapsed since Pars lodged his reprisal complaint... two-and-a-half times the 240-day limit endorsed by PPD-19. And still there was no decision. Without an OIG ruling one way or the other, Pars couldn't appeal to the IC IG (where he worked) for an external review board, for the simple reason that there was no ruling to appeal. It... s PPD-19... s Catch-22. "... We just wanted them to take the first step and complete their investigation," Kruger said.

For whatever reason, though, Pars didn't tell his superiors that he was suing the CIA for whistleblower retaliation at the exact same time that he was serving on a large-scale inspection of the same.

By February, it was clear that the results of that inspection would be a feather in nobody's cap. The data alone was troubling. The inspectors general at the six agencies had received 190 allegations of reprisal from 2010 through 2016, according to unclassified memoranda from the inspection seen by The Daily Beast. Less than half, 61 complaints, had been investigated, and of those 57 were ruled unsubstantiated.

The NSA had received 56 of the retaliation complaints and investigated 12; the CIA got 62, investigated 13 and shunted 21 to other offices, primarily Equal Employment Opportunity. The Defense Intelligence Agency, or DIA, received 50 complaints, and investigated 19. In the entire batch of 190 cases, only once did an OIG find in favor of the whistleblower. That was in a DIA case that took 742 days to complete. Other cases remained open longer. One complaint from 2010 was still waiting for a ruling.

Beyond the numbers, the inspectors found endless obstacles to effective whistleblower protection in the spy agencies, according to documents from the probe. There was no clear standard for conducting reprisal investigations; even the standard of proof... probable cause? preponderance of the evidence?... was murky to the OIGs. The investigation manuals at most agencies gave retaliation probes only cursory attention. There were mixed incentives in play: The primary metric for weighing an OIGs effectiveness was how much money the office saved taxpayers through its waste and fraud investigations, and a successful whistleblower claim could cost the government money in the form of back wages or attorneys fees. Some inspectors complained that reprisal cases were too difficult and time consuming compared to other OIG tasks, and even the most dedicated investigator might struggle to definitively prove a connection between an intelligence worker's subpar performance review, reduced security clearance or missed promotion to their prior whistleblowing.

In March the inspection moved into the final stage and the team was preparing the official report, earmarked for Donald Trump's newly confirmed director of national intelligence, Daniel Coats. Copies would have gone to all the intelligence IGs, as well, according to Johnson, and probably to Congress. A public release was also on the table.

Instead, it went nowhere.

In early April, rumors of Pars' lawsuit reached the IC IG's office. Under questioning, Pars acknowledged he was the pseudonymous plaintiff in the case. Stone immediately removed Pars from the inspection and sent him back to the CIA.

Pars wasn't a zealot, and his work was always diligent and thorough, say former colleagues. But removing him from the project was largely uncontroversial. â... We have a standard in the IG to not only avoid a conflict of interest, but to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest,â... Johnson says, and Pars wouldn't have been permitted to work on the inspection if they'd known he had a whistleblower retaliation complaint pending at CIA.

But Stone's next action was more puzzling. The following day he ordered the entire inspection halted, according to sources from the agency. Data, files, memos, charts, and graphs were locked down and work on the final report stopped on a dime. The official explanation was that the inspection had been tainted by Pars' involvement. But even now questions loom over the decision.

Johnson says there's virtually nothing a single inspector could do to contaminate a report that relies heavily on verifiable numbers. â... Everything has to be backed up with data... There's not a lot of opinion on those reports. â... Some former IC IG officials believe that Stone used the Pars affair as an pretext to kill an inspection that was producing inconvenient results. â... Pars was told to cease and desist and they walked him out the door and buried the program,â... says one former IC IG official who worked with Pars. â... They pulled the carpet out from under him because they wanted an excuse to quash the report.â...

MANDEL NGAN/GETTY

Though the whistleblower report never appeared, last October the nonprofit Project on Government Oversight got ahold of a leaked copy of one of the inspection memos. They quoted from it in an article. â... A complainant alleging reprisal for making a protected disclosure has a minimal chance to have a complaint processed and adjudicated in a timely and complete manner.â...

Calling the language â... stark,â... Dianne Feinstein brought up the memo the next day in a tense exchange at the Senate confirmation hearing for Christopher Sharpley, the acting CIA inspector general and Trump's pick for the permanent position.

â... I would ask that you provide a copy of that document to our office, the Intelligence Committee's office,â... she told Sharpley.

â... Senator, I am unfamiliar with that document,â... said Sharpley, seemingly taken aback. â... I am not aware of its contents! The IC IG did not make me aware of it as acting IG at CIA. This is the first I'm hearing of this particular program.â...

One source familiar with the abortive whistleblower inspection says this particular memo was written by Pars.

Pars' lawsuit is still pending, but the Justice Department has asked the court to dismiss the claim, pointing to language in PPD-19 that more or less says the directive can't be used as the basis for a lawsuit. After the drama in the IC IG, Pars' future in the CIA is even dimmer. Two sources with knowledge of the matter say the agency recently referred Pars to an executive review board as the first step to possibly terminating his service to the CIA. Attorney Kruger said she couldn't comment on anything beyond the lawsuit, but after a pause added, â... In general we believe that the CIA is taking further actions in retaliation against him.â...

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Federal prosecutors are investigating allegations that Uber deployed an espionage team to plunder trade secrets from its rivals. The revelation triggered a delay in a high-profile trial over whether the beleaguered ride-hailing service stole self-driving car technology from a Google spinoff.

The probe under way at the U.S. Justice Department centers on a 37-page letter that described allegations made by Richard Jacobs, Uber's former manager of global intelligence. Jacobs had the letter sent in May to an Uber lawyer. The letter contended that Jacobs had been wrongfully demoted and then fired for trying to stop the company's alleged misconduct.

The investigation hadn't been publicly known until Tuesday, when it surfaced in a court hearing that was supposed to set the stage for a trial pitting Uber against Waymo, a self-driving car pioneer that started within Google eight years ago.

The hearing instead quickly turned into a forum raising more questions about Uber's ethics and corporate culture. Over the past year, Uber has been rocked by revelations of rampant sexual harassment inside the company, technological trickery designed to thwart regulators and a yearlong cover-up of a hacking attack that stole the personal information of 57 million passengers and 600,000 drivers.

Jacobs, whose lawyer wrote the letter at the center of the courtroom drama, testified Tuesday that Uber had set up a unit called Marketplace Analytics to steal trade secrets from its rivals overseas. He didn't specify which competitors Uber had targeted. His allegations had been kept under wraps until the Justice Department passed them along to U.S. District Judge William Alsup last week.

In an unusual move, Alsup had recommended in May that the Justice Department open a criminal investigation into Uber, based on the evidence he had heard in the Waymo case.

To protect itself against potential trouble, Uber frequently communicated on a service called Wickr that automatically erases messages, according to Jacobs. The company also relied on a surreptitious computer system to eliminate all digital trails, and dispatched its security team to train self-driving car engineers in Pittsburgh how to conceal their electronic tracks, Jacobs testified.

Uber's espionage team also hired contractors who employed former CIA agents to help with its surveillance, according to Jacobs.

Pressed under questioning, Jacobs acknowledged that the letter also alleged that Uber had stolen trade secrets from Waymo, as well as other intellectual property in the U.S.

But Jacobs said that his lawyer was mistaken in making that allegation. He insisted he didn't know anything about Uber's espionage team trying to steal anything in the U.S., suggesting he missed the purported mistake because he spent only about 20 minutes reviewing it while he was on vacation with his wife.

Uber paid Jacobs $4.5 million as part of a confidential settlement after his firing, Jacobs said while being grilled by Waymo lawyer Charles Verhoeven. Part of that settlement includes Uber stock, a $1 million consulting fee and a provision requiring him not to say anything that would harm Uber.

It is possible that he has been bought off by Uber, Alsup said of Jacobs at one point during Tuesday's drama.

Alsup described the allegations in the letter as "scandalous" and lashed out at Uber's legal team for not informing him about them before he was notified by the Justice Department. "I can't trust anything you say because it has been proven wrong so many times," Alsup told Uber attorney Arturo Gonzalez. The judge also called Uber's espionage team "a plumber's unit doing bad deeds."

Gonzalez repeatedly tried to persuade Alsup that the allegations in Jacobs's letter had nothing to do with Waymo's case against Uber. The lawyer also argued that the company used secretive communications channels for employee safety reasons. But the judge wasn't swayed.

There is a 50-50 chance that this is going to turn out very bad for Uber," Alsup said. "And there is a 50-50 chance that this will turn out to be a dry hole."

In a statement defending itself, Uber pointed to Jacobs's testimony that he wasn't aware of the company stealing any of Waymo's trade secrets. "None of the testimony (Tuesday) changes the merits of the case," Uber said.

In its statement, Waymo called the latest allegations against Uber "significant and troubling."

Alsup postponed the scheduled Dec. 4 start of the Waymo-Uber trial to give Waymo more time to gather evidence. He didn't immediately set a new trial date.

Waymo is alleging that Uber has been building its own fleet of self-driving cars by using trade secrets taken by former Waymo engineer Anthony Levandowski. Uber paid $680 million last year for a self-driving vehicle startup founded by Levandowski after he left Waymo in January 2016.

The latest bombshell to drop on Uber came as the company is trying to complete a $10 billion sale of its privately held stock.

Softbank, the Japanese firm leading the proposed investment, is proposing to buy the shares at a 30 percent discount from Uber's previous valuation of roughly $68 billion, according to multiple media reports citing people familiar with the terms. The markdown stems, in part, from the turmoil that has stained Uber's reputation and opened opportunities for rivals such as Lyft to lure away alienated passengers looking for alternative rides.

Unpatriotic? Whistleblowers have been speaking up, and suffering the consequences, from the beginning

Obama Administration ordered "hit-jobs" on whistleblowers

By Laura King, Los Angeles Times

Video by MSNBC

WASHINGTON — It was 1777. The Revolutionary War was raging, and a small band of officers and seamen in the Continental Navy faced a dangerous dilemma.

Their commodore was one of the most powerful men in colonial America. But his subordinates had seen him engage in — barbarous — mistreatment — torture, in their eyes — of captured British sailors.

Eleven years before the U.S. Constitution was ratified, the 10 worried sailors became the new republic's first whistleblowers, reporting what they had witnessed to the Continental Congress — and getting legal protection to shield them from retribution.

— Whistleblowing is really in America's DNA — it's as American as apple pie, — said Allison Stanger, a political scientist at Middlebury College whose book on the subject was published the same day last month that House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, spurred by a whistleblower's complaint, announced the impeachment inquiry into President Donald Trump.

The lonely individual speaking truth to power is an enduring American archetype. Whistleblowing — when an insider in government or a private company or organization draws attention to illegal or unethical activity — is codified in law, enshrined in history, immortalized in Hollywood movies and popular culture.

Whether celebrated or controversial, the recent roll call is long: from Karen Silkwood on nuclear power to — Deep Throat — in Watergate; from Frank Serpico in the New York Police Department to Erin Brockovich and water pollution in California; from Daniel Ellsberg in the Pentagon Papers to, his supporters maintain, Edward Snowden and government surveillance.

But a decision to come forward with damaging information can carry enormous personal costs. Virtually every whistleblower, according to those who study the phenomenon, is forced to confront the ugly flip side of a heroic image: Stool pigeon. Tattletale. Snitch. Rat.

Job loss and ruptured relationships are common consequences; so is grief over the loss of a once-shared identity. Whistleblowing can end with ignominy, imprisonment or exile. Sometimes it is a secret carried to the grave, or nearly so.

— I didn't, I couldn't, even use that word about myself — whistleblower, — said Jacqueline Garrick, 56, the founding director of a Department of Defense suicide prevention program who said she ran afoul of Pentagon officials when she raised still-contested allegations, first internally and then publicly, of fraud and abuse.

© Alberto E. Rodriguez/Getty Images North America/TNS Activist Daniel Ellsberg attends the L.A. Press...

A former Army officer, Garrick likened her experience in the three years since she came forward to the post-traumatic stress sometimes suffered by combat veterans — sleeplessness and anxiety, isolation and despair. She went on to found a peer-support group, Whistleblowers of America, to help others deal with the psychological and practical consequences of making accusations of workplace wrongdoing.

— You just don't realize at first, — she said, — that your life is never going to be the same.

The whistleblower at the center of the Trump impeachment inquiry, reportedly a CIA analyst temporarily assigned to the White House, probably had a better sense than most of what might lie ahead.

The individual's complaint, filed Aug. 12, landed like a bombshell in official Washington when the House Intelligence Committee made it public on Sept. 26.

Except for two blacked-out paragraphs in a classified appendix, the nine-page document spelled out in crisp, measured prose the writer's belief that Trump was — using the power of his office to solicit interference from a foreign country in the 2020 U.S. election.

The acting director of national intelligence, Joseph Maguire, told lawmakers that the whistleblower had followed the law — every step of the way — in submitting it to the intelligence community's inspector general.

Disclosure of the complaint prompted a response familiar in the annals of whistleblowing: attack the messenger.

The president denounced the whistleblower as a — partisan hack, — a — Deep State — operative, — close to a spy, — a betrayer of trust. Trump said the whistleblower should be unmasked — contrary to legal guarantees of anonymity — and demanded to personally confront his accuser.

Although federal rules do not require a whistleblower's information be firsthand, the president seized on the fact that the complainant acknowledged not having heard Trump's crucial July 25 telephone call with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy, when Trump pressured the new leader to investigate his political rival, Joe Biden.

But the declassified White House memorandum of the call, essentially a rough transcript, appeared to confirm large parts of the whistleblower's complaint.

Lawyers representing the whistleblower said over the weekend that a second individual had come forward, also from the intelligence community. That is also a well-worn whistleblower scenario — especially if the second individual brings firsthand knowledge that could bolster the original complaint.

On Sunday, 90 former national security officials — with service under both Republican and Democratic presidents — released an open letter calling for privacy and protection from retaliation for the person whose complaint set the impeachment inquiry in motion.

— A responsible whistleblower makes all Americans safer, — they wrote.

The term “whistleblower” is of uncertain origin, thought to refer to a police officer’s response when spotting a criminal, or to a sports referee calling out a foul.

But most researchers say its animating principle dates to medieval times, with recognition of the right of individuals, not only officialdom, to sound the alarm about wrongdoing.

In English common law, the writ of qui tam meant a private individual who assisted in an official prosecution was entitled to a share of the penalty paid. So it carried a connotation of bounty hunting, when a person was acting for the king as well as for self.

In the United States, the term “whistleblower” only came into wide use around 1975, with headline-grabbing cases such as the Pentagon Papers, which exposed White House deceit in the Vietnam War, the Watergate scandal that brought down President Richard Nixon, and the work of crusading consumer advocate Ralph Nader.

Stanger’s book, “Whistleblowers: Honesty in America From Washington to Trump,” details the case of the Revolutionary War seamen who won the legal protection of the Continental Congress when their wealthy and well-connected commodore, Esek Hopkins, sought to retaliate against them for reporting him.

The Civil War ushered in incentives for exposing graft associated with the procurement of military supplies. In modern times, landmark legislation included the Whistleblower Protection Act of 1989 and several major updates in the following three decades.

But advocates say federal workers, and especially members of the intelligence community, still lack sufficient protections if they expose wrongdoing.

“To truly protect whistleblowers, there’s a lot of unfinished business,” said David Colapinto, general counsel for the National Whistleblower Center.

“ “ “

The Hollywood image of a feisty firebrand spoiling for a fight is rarely reflected in reality, according to Tom Mueller, who said he interviewed 200 whistleblowers for his book on the subject.

Many whistleblowers believe their own organization will fix whatever wrong they brought to light, and are shocked and disillusioned when that doesn’t happen.

And although a few may be disgruntled employees “another popular assumption that clings to whistleblowers “many more are motivated by personal values, Mueller said.

Elin Baklid-Kunz said her upbringing in Norway, with its societal emphasis on equality and the common interest, led her to complain of serious financial misconduct at the Florida hospital where she worked, including overbilling Medicare and paying kickbacks.

“I just wasn’t raised to think I was better than anyone else, or to think it was all right to take advantage of others,” said Baklid-Kunz, who appeared with Mueller at a recent panel on whistleblowing at a Washington bookstore.

The crowd groaned at the description of hospital officials performing a bizarre “money dance,” with rap lyrics and costumes festooned with dollar signs, to convey the message that extracting cash, not patient care, was the top priority.

Muellerâ... s book, â... Crisis of Conscience: Whistleblowing in an Age of Fraud,â... takes a Martin Luther King Jr. quotation as its epigraph â... reflecting, he said, a worldview that many who blow the whistle finally, reluctantly, take to heart.

â... A time comes,â... the civil rights icon told a New York City congregation in 1967, the year before his assassination in Memphis, â... when silence is betrayal.â...

WHAT IS AN NPC?

Is the NPC Meme TOO Accurate?

by Laura SHARE3

It started on the boards of 4chan and made its way to Twitter, but what exactly is the NPC meme, and why is it upsetting so many people?

Anybody who is familiar with video games will be familiar with the term NPC. It stands for Non-Player Character, and is a term which is used to describe a character in a game who is not controlled by the player, but is instead pre-programmed by a computer via predetermined or responsive behaviour. NPCs are the villagers in Skyrim and World of Warcraft who give you quests and repeat the same three instructed sentences over and over again whenever you address them.

The term NPC is now being applied to people in the real world to describe those who share the same uncritical worldview, are unable to think for themselves, and those who regurgitate the same obvious talking points of the mainstream narrative.

I was going to give some examples of real-life NPC talking points, however, what better way to demonstrate this to you than by showing you the memes themselves?

The NPC meme is a simple yet effective way to illustrate those who have no agency and no capacity for independent and critical thought, yet often choose to engage with those who do. This process, as demonstrated in the memes above, often involves the NPC displaying faux public outrage at more original and innovative ideas in a bid to demonstrate to their also NPC audience that theyâ€¦ re towing the non-offensive mainstream line.

What is perhaps the most interesting chapter in the NPC meme saga is the response of the progressive left. The NPC meme was never meant to set a divide between the right and the left, yet it has. In the same way that the Jewish community adopted offence at Viktor OrbÃ¡nâ€™s comments about our enemy speculating with money and not having its own homeland but feeling as though it owns the whole world, the left have taken it upon themselves to adopt the NPC meme. If the shoe fits, as they sayâ€¦!

A quick internet search of the NPC meme will return an article by Kotaku which complains about the concept of the NPC label and describes it as â€¦ dehumanisingâ€¦ .

The article writes:

ITâ€™S ONE THING TO CLAIM THAT A PERSONâ€™S STRONGLY-HELD VIEWS ARE INFORMED BY NOTHING AT ALL, BUT ENTIRELY ANOTHER TO IMPLY THAT THEYâ€™RE COMPLETELY ON AUTO-PILOT. THAT IS DEHUMANIZATION, A WAY OF RECONCEIVING YOUR ENEMIES AS OBJECTS, PAWNS, STRAWMEN, TOOLS.

The progressive left have also been channeling their inner â€¦ I am fineâ€¦ Wojak on Twitter, embodying NPC meme mode, and alternating between pretending they donâ€™t care and full-blown meltdown mode.

Twitter themselves have published an anti-dehumanising policy and, following on from this, a number of suspensions have been made over the last couple of days for accounts who have displayed the NPC meme in their Twitter name or profile picture. The most noticeable of these was Tolerant Fellow, one of our most prominent and effective accounts who had over 40,000 followers.

It is unclear at this stage why these accounts have been suspended as they were masquerading as NPCs themselves rather than labelling anybody else. What is clear though, is that the NPC meme has really touched a nerve with everybody from Twitter, to journalists to the progressive left.

I would advise at this stage if youâ€¦ ve built up quite a following on social media to resist the temptation to change your profile to display the NPC meme. The images above should also be used at your own risk. Some memes are just too powerful and should be handled with care.

I suspect under these new â€¦ dehumanisingâ€¦ rules that Twitter will be following suit and will also follow up on accusations of â€¦ Russian Botâ€¦ and â€¦ Gammonâ€¦ â€¦! Or perhaps not.

WHEN THE FEDS USE HUD AS A WHISTLE-BLOWER REPRISAL TOOL AGAINST CITIZENS

CIA, NSA, MI6, Russian and Chinese spy agency leaks of those agencies â... how toâ... documents for spy-type attacks on members of the public all recommend a text-book standardized attack ploy of using state agencies to harm reporters or whistle-blowers. The White House, in the USA, has been charged in thousands of lawsuits and tens of thousands of investigative news reports, with using these reprisal tactics. This is now common knowledge. While your neighbors may not use spy agency tactics: The White House, Nancy Pelosi, Dianne Feinstein and others DO! This involves trillions of dollars of profits! People KILL OTHER people over that much cash!

Applicant worked 60+ hours per week from 1970 to 2007. SSA only recognizes 1/3 of that work time. The United States Government metrics agencies have published figures stating that the minimum needed income rate in Applicantâ... s region is $3200.00 per month. SSA has reduced Applicantâ... s income to $800.00 per month even though Applicant has a past work history, peer metrics and qualifications for a $10,000.00 per month equivalency based on Google, Twitter, Tesla, Netflix, Disney, Pixar, Genentech, and similar regional comps, equivalencies and SALARY.COM published industry standards.

In 2007 Applicant applied for SSDI with 19 disabling conditions documented. After meeting, in-person at the San Francisco SSA office, SSA staff told Applicant that he appeared to be fully qualified for SSDI.

In 2008 SSA denied SSDI stating that SSA â... did not think the conditions would last longer than a yearâ... .
This caused Applicant to lose his home because the promised SSA payments were never produced.

Here is the big question from this citizen (APPLICANT A): â... Why does Isa Butler get $2800.00 free cash from the government to get to live in a house when I get nothing, and have to live in a â... closetâ... , even though I am vastly more qualified to get the $2800.00?â...

See this, below, latest referenced evidence document:

The Housing Authority Of The County Of San Mateo, which works for, and is directed by the United States agency: HUD; has been sending us other people's housing records. Some records we had requested in a HUD investigation, some we had requested in some federal lawsuits and the rest we had not requested at all but keep receiving. We now have ABSOLUTE PROOF, in hand that HUD, HACSM and public officials ordered harms against Applicant A, in reprisal, because he helped with a corruption investigation.

Applicant A started applying to buy or build a home in San Mateo, San Francisco and Marin Counties in 2008.

Some HUD officials said that Applicant A met EVERY disabled, senior, low income, preferred waiting list and other requirement NON-STOP, Since 2008. Community service groups and housing rights groups reviewing this case have all agreed that Applicant A DID meet EVERY disabled, senior, low income, preferred waiting list and other requirement NON-STOP, Since 2008.

Isa Butler, and, ACCORDING TO HUD and State records, THOUSANDS of other applicant's, have been given their housing cash payments, or entire single family homes, ahead of Applicant A, even though he applied years ahead of them with better qualifications and met more of the requirements to receive such funds that 95% of the other applicants..

We are going to use poor Isa, in this example, simply because Isa is the latest shocker to get exposed by yet another government filing error. Isa is only one of many thousands who, unfairly and illicitly, got jumped ahead of Applicant.

Every time, since, 2008, Applicant A contacted any government housing official about this issue the response is always a playbook canned answer of either: "we have no record of you", "we can't find you in our files", "we will look into it" (which is never responded back from), "we lost our records", "our server crashed"...etc... or some similar cover-up response. This sounds exactly like the LOIS LERNER Scandal: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Finding\_Lois\_Lerner\_in\_contempt\_of\_Congress

That won't work any longer for those in office who to use policy as a weapon to hide their crimes. We now have enough records proving reprisal actions by public officials that a press conference, regulatory and law enforcement actions would seem to be needed here.

The "give us your social security number and private data" again, request. Has only resulted in "benefits" and rights hit-jobs being aimed at Applicant using attack contractors such as Black Cube, Google, Fusion GPS, Etc. ie:

It is shocking and painful for Applicant to hear DAILY about all those who got moved ahead of him and to read all of these documents, CREATED AND PRODUCED BY GOVERNMENT OFFICES, essentially saying: *we are going to endlessly F*ck you over and cut off your housing because you helped the police investigate public officials*... !

There it is!

We won a federal lawsuit, in Washington, DC, overseen by a Supreme Court Judge, proving that government agency officials ordered benefits and funding blockades against Applicant because he helped law enforcement bust some public officials for corruption.

Applicant A has donated and built public homes for the area and donated housing and housing services and supports CalMatters, Turner Housing, Habitat for Humanity and has given so much time and resources to house others yet he is denied a home out of pure political vindictiveness.

REDFIN REALTY STATES THAT ISA LIVES IN (<https://www.redfin.com/CA/San-Mateo/983-S-B-St-94401/home/1951522>) a $1,787,914 valued, 5 Bed, 2 Bath, 2,100 Sq Ft home. <http://zillow.com> states that the home is 2575 sq. feet. Why does is get a house and Applicant gets a closet?

Tens of thousands of high tech workers just got laid off and none of them can afford to live in the Bay Area any more, The layoffs have flooded out the job market locally so none of them will get new jobs. There is about to be a glut of new available houses in the Bay Area. It is virtually impossible for government housing officials to say there is no inventory coming... . On top of that, multiple national mortgage agencies have agreed to finance Applicant A building his own home in if he can get the HUD CONFIRMED $2000.00+ that he is owed from HUD. Senior HUD staff says he should get it but is must be paid through the County offices and counties have been told to black-lists, delays, Lois Lerner's and deletes Applicant's files, records and applications.

The fact that we even have the attached document about Isa Butler PROVES that government officials can't keep it's business together. We have thousands of other similar records from HUD, reporters, whistle-blowers and others just like this (which a jury, housing rights groups and Congress will enjoy reading). We have also received many OTHER PEOPLE's medical records, sent to us by government agencies, in violation of federal medical records privacy laws, purporting to be Applicant's medical records. These errors prove that Applicant's records have been deeply manipulated and error-ridden by the very agencies that are supposed to be protecting Applicant.

Any reference to Isa Butler stating that Isa is â... just an anomalyâ... would be considered by any forensic investigator to be a lie, based on the evidence in hand.

The government needs to hand â... Applicant Aâ... HIS $2800.00 per month housing payments or explain, in writing, why not!

That explanation needs to satisfy Applicant A, the Police, The Attorney General, The HUD Inspector General, Congress, HANC, FINcen, the FBI, The public, the reporters and all related parties. We have the direct personal email and mailing addresses of all of those parties and they will get a dossier on this matter within seconds at the push of a button. This will include a chart of the stock market ownership records of EVERY public official, and their family members, and their campaign financiers and tech companiesâ...!. A chart supplied by FINcen and Congressional investigators. You know how thatâ... s going to turn out.

In 2008, SSA servers were hacked per Congressional records. In 2008 Applicant was a federal witness for an investigation of insider trading by federal officials. Applicant later won a famous federal lawsuit, overseen by a Supreme Court judge, proving that federal agencies â... infected by corruptionâ... had cut off Applicantâ... s funds in reprisal for being a witness and reporting corruption crimes. The White House Staff and California Senator staff who had threatened Applicant, owned Applicantâ... s competitors and were partners and financiers of those competitors had the means, motive, past history of similar executions and intent to manipulate Applicantâ... s Social Security benefits process and determinations.

Applicantâ... s SSA process, determinations, records, files, benefit and rights are known to have been manipulated, in reprisal, by high level Senate, White House and agency public officials in reprisal for assisting law enforcement with the investigation of trillions of dollars of Congressional insider trading which has resulted in the generation of the Congressional STOCK ACT; H.R.2655 - Insider Trading Prohibition Act; Bipartisan Ban on Congressional Stock Ownership Act (S. 3631); The SEC Congressional Insider Trading Ban investigations and other ongoing law enforcement and regulatory actions.

In 2009 SSA refused to examine Applicantâ... s request for SSDI stating that he had run out of work credits because of his inability to work since Applicant first applied for SSDI. The delay, was, of course caused by SSA advising Applicant that he must wait a year to see if his conditions last longer than a year.

Government disability offices sent Applicant the medical records of other citizens while stating that those medical records were copies of Applicantâ... s medical records. This was a federal medical privacy law felony violation and also proved that Applicantâ... s medical records had been manipulated by third parties. Those records prove that the SSA records of Applicant were manipulated.

For one SSA ALJ hearing in Marin County, the first hearing was canceled by the ALJ because he found that his records request could not be met by the SSA because the SSA files were awry.

For another SSA ALJ hearing in San Francisco, the judge refused to allow recording of the hearing and refused to review the Secretary of State and fiscal records proving that Applicant was one of many shareholders in the two multi-shareholder corporations.

Investigators hired on behalf of Applicant discovered that doctors hired by SSA for the 2007 and 2008 medical reviews were paid by SSA, in other words: the doctors made money by NOT awarding SSDI and had a strong financial incentive to write negative reviews.

Investigators also word scanned every document provided by SSA in Applicantâ... s case and found no mention of, or research on, most of the originally claimed 19 disabling conditions. In other words, most of Applicantâ... s conditions were ignored.

SSA staff were found to have owned stock in Applicantâ... s competitors or to have gone to work for politicians who owned and financed large portions of Applicantâ... s competitors.

After being unable to work or receive income for years, Applicant took two short term jobs. One to help a friend move and other to deliver a package. SSA said that these were â... proof of gainful employmentâ... and negated all previous SSDI application efforts.

Notes were placed in SSA records, by reprisal operatives stating that Applicant was a â... conservative republicanâ... in order to damage Applicant. Applicant is well documented in his office-holder filings; national green energy and affordable housing programs; pictures and videos of famous DNC officials hugging him and other evidence as NOT a republican. 95% of SSA staff, executives, contractors and employees are DNC. This political name calling political dirty trick attack caused SSA staff to further harm Applicant.

Applicant was a shareholder in two multi-shareholder corporations, one of which worked for the government, which hundreds of other third-parties were shareholders in. Because Applicantâ... s name was on 2 accounts for those corporations an SSA official â... Mario Uâ... in San Mateo, who knew that Applicant was just a shareholder and who was politically opposed to Applicant, threatened Applicant and ran a reprisal by reversing Applicantâ... s SSI payments. Mario wrote disparaging and presumptive notes about Applicant in SSA records; looked up Applicant online, in front of Applicant, and made politically disparaging comments to Applicant; waived his arm tattoos at Applicant and said that â... you donâ... t mess with his peopleâ... ; lectured Applicant about â... immigrationâ... and Marioâ... s hatred of certain politicians ; and refused to examine evidence supplied because it conflicted with Marioâ... s reprisal plans.

According to 42 U.S. Code Â§ 1983, violations of civil rights typically involve an individual who is acting from a position of governmental power or â... under the color of the lawâ... enforcing a decree. Individuals acting under governmental authority can also be government officials when theyâ... re off-duty or independent contractors. The conduct of specific private organizations, individuals, and entities can be treated as â... state actionâ... if the state validated, encouraged, or caused the action. Such circumstances are common when private entities are contracted to take over functions that are traditionally considered state responsibilities. Examples include: Private citizen hired to administer primary or general elections; Organizations contracted to maintain and operate specific government services; SSA staff using their email accounts and computers at home; SSA staff working for a competitor or adversary of Complainant during or right after their work at SSA.

The targeted and negligent harms to Applicant, by these actions, are substantial and quantifiable.

For reasons of corruption, political bias discrimination, low IQ staff emotionalism and high-level directed reprisal revenge hit-jobs, your own government agencies are sometimes used as weapons against you. No matter what, government staff are YOUR EMPLOYEES. They work for YOU, The Citizen! They must be held accountable and punished for any abuse of the Constitution and Democracy!

A vast number of agency abuse cases and lawsuits are now on public record in the Inspector General's offices and federal courts.

It is an indisputable fact that some government agencies run "hit-jobs" on citizens on orders from certain corrupt politicians. These actions are felony violations of the law.

Federal and State Agencies including SSA, FEC, DOE, HHS, VA, CIA, NSA, SEC, FBI, DOJ and many others, have been charged, and found guilty, in these crimes against citizens.

In the Congressional investigation published by the United States Congress in review of the U.S. Department of Energy LGP/ATVM programs, it is clearly proven that the U.S. Department of Energy was used as a slush-fund by some DOE executives in order to pay off campaign financiers by attacking and sabotaging their competitors.

For example: The DOE Paducah Gaseous Diffusion Plant under contracts with the Department of Energy and the government-owned U.S. Enrichment Corp paid $5M whistle-blower awards to those whistle-blowers who were attacked, using government agency resources, for reporting a crime.

Dept. of Energy Hanford URS has agreed to settle a lawsuit brought by former employee Walter Tamosaitis for $4.1 million. The settlement in the whistle-blower case comes almost one year before the case was set for a jury trial in federal court in Richland and compensates Tamosaitis for attacks against him, by DOE officials, in retribution for reporting a crime.

VA officials attacked hundreds of citizens who reported corruption, ie:

As shown in this report:

<https://www.pogo.org/analysis/2018/08/new-report-confirms-whistleblower-retaliation-is-alive-and-well-at-departmen>

...Agencies attack often and harshly.

CIA and NSA executives have been widely shown to use spy tools to attack domestic citizens they don't like, ie:

...and hundreds of other news links that can be provided.

Elon Musk and Tesla, as well as Eric Schmidt and Larry Page at Google, have been proven to use the CIA group: IN-Q-TEL, to run government sponsored/financed attacks on business competitors.

In Civil Action No. 1:13-cv-00777-RBW GOVERNMENT AGENCIES WERE CAUGHT BEING USED FOR ATTACKS AGAINST CITIZENS AND PUNISHED IN THE COURT AND THE MEDIA!

The IRS, and hordes of other government agencies have been caught and proven, IN COURT, to target and attack people for presumed political differences.

Why should we assume that the Social Security Administration is not ALSO doing this too to harm citizens who speak out?

The Lois Lerner IRS attacks took many years to resolve. In an unprecedented victorious conclusion to a four year-long legal battle against the IRS, the bureaucratic agency admitted in federal court that it wrongfully targeted citizens, during the Obama Administration, because of their political viewpoints and issued an apology to those people for doing so.

In addition, the IRS is consenting to a court order that would prohibit it from ever engaging in this form of unconstitutional discrimination in the future.

In a proposed Consent Order filed with the Court, the IRS has apologized for its treatment of U.S. citizens including organizations from 20 states that applied for 501(c)(3) and (c)(4) tax-exempt status with the IRS between 2009 and 2012 -- during the tax-exempt determinations process. Crucially, following years of denial by the IRS and blame-shifting by IRS officials, the agency now expressly admits that its treatment of our clients was wrong and a total violation of our Democracy..

As set forth in the proposed Order:

â... The IRS admits that its treatment of Plaintiffs during the tax-exempt determinations process, including screening their applications based on their names or policy positions, subjecting those applications to heightened scrutiny and inordinate delays, and demanding of some Plaintiffsâ... information that TIGTA determined was unnecessary to the agencyâ... s determination of their tax-exempt status, was wrong. For such treatment, the IRS expresses its sincere apology.â...

Throughout litigation of this case, activists have remained committed to protecting the rights of the public who faced unlawful and discriminatory action by the IRS and other agencies. The objective from the very beginning has been to hold agencies accountable for corrupt practices.

This Consent Order represents a historic victory for the public and sends the unequivocal message that a government agencyâ... s targeting of citizens organizations, or any organization, on the basis of political viewpoints, will never be tolerated and that revenge will be swift and vast. The Applicantâ... s â... political viewpointâ... is simply that: â... CORRUPTION AND BRIBERY SHOULD NOT BE DEPLOYED IN APPLICANTâ... S GOVERNMENTâ... .

The Order will put an end, once and for all, to the abhorrent practices utilized against citizens, as the agreement includes the IRS's express acknowledgment of and apology for its wrongful treatment of the public. While this agreement is designed to prevent any such practices from occurring again, rest assured that all public interest lawyers will remain vigilant to ensure that the IRS, SSA, DOJ or SEC does not resort to such tactics in the future.

Per detailed reports, in March of 2012 lawyers began being contacted by literally dozens of citizens and groups who were being harassed by the Obama IRS after submitting applications for tax-exempt status.

Their tax-exempt applications were held up for years (over seven years in some cases), and they began receiving obtrusive and unconstitutional requests for donor and member information. That began a now more than five and a half year fight with the burgeoning bureaucracy at the IRS. Then on May 10, 2013, Lois Lerner, the then head of the IRS Tax Exempt Organizations Division, publicly implicated the IRS in one of the worst political targeting scandals of the century.

This is an extraordinary victory against government agency abuse. It sends a powerful warning to the deep state bureaucracy that it will not be allowed to violate the Constitution in order to silence and shut down the whistle-blowers.

In addition to the IRS's admissions of and apology for its wrongful conduct, the Consent Order would specifically award Plaintiffs the following:

- A declaration by the Court that it is wrong to apply the United States tax code to any tax-exempt applicant or entity based solely on such entity's name, any lawful positions it espouses on any issues, or its associations or perceived associations with a particular political movement, position or viewpoint;
- A declaration by the Court that any action or inaction taken by the IRS must be applied evenhandedly and not based solely on a tax-exempt applicant or entity's name, political viewpoint, or associations or perceived associations with a particular political movement, position or viewpoint; and
- A declaration by the Court that discrimination on the basis of political viewpoint in administering the United States tax code violates fundamental First Amendment rights. Disparate treatment of taxpayers based solely on the taxpayers' names, any lawful positions the taxpayers espouse on any issues, or the taxpayers' associations or perceived associations with a particular political movement, position or viewpoint is unlawful.

In the Order, the IRS has also agreed that (unless expressly required by law) certain actions against the Plaintiffs—i.e. the sharing, dissemination, or other use of information unnecessarily obtained by the IRS during the determinations process (such as donor names, the names of volunteers, political affiliations of an organization's officers, etc.)—would be unlawful. In addition, the IRS promises not to take any retaliatory action against our clients for exposing the targeting scheme.

Finally, and of crucial significance, the IRS admits it targeted persons and groups based on their viewpoints (i.e., policy positions) and that such viewpoint discrimination violates fundamental First Amendment rights. This is the first time the IRS has admitted that its targeting scheme was not just inappropriate—as TIGTA found—but, as alleged, blatantly unconstitutional.

To ensure consistency and uniformity within the agency's operations going forward, the IRS is required, pursuant to the Order, to inform all employees within the Exempt Organizations Division, as well as the Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners within other divisions, of the Order's terms.

This Order not only validates allegations about their treatment at the hands of the corrupt Obama-era IRS but also provides important assurances to the American public that the agency understands its obligation to refrain from further such discriminatory conduct. As Attorney General Sessions acknowledged in this regard, â... [t]here is no excuse for [the IRSâ... s] conduct,â... as it is â... without questionâ... that the First Amendment prohibits the conduct that occurred here, i.e., subjecting American citizens to disparate treatment â... based solely on their viewpoint or ideology.â... Sessions further confirmed his Departmentâ... s commitment to ensuring that the â... abuse of powerâ... in which the IRS engaged here â... will not be tolerated.â...

It is impossible to overstate the importance of this victory. This marks a years-long fight for justice in defense of the constitutional rights of the public.

This is an extraordinary victory against abuse of power and corruption.

It sends a powerful warning to the deep state bureaucracy that it will not be allowed to violate the Constitution and manipulate the IRS, SSA and other agencies in order to silence and shut down those who speak out about political corruption crimes.

In the wake of Wisconsin Watchdogâ... s investigation into SSA staff allegations of incompetence, misconduct, and retaliation in Social Security disability appeals offices, several employees have taken their complaints to a Senate committee led by Wisconsin Sen. Ron Johnson.

An official with knowledge of the complaints said the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee, chaired by the Oshkosh Republican, has received emails and other contacts from â... certain peopleâ... inside the Social Security Administrationâ... s Office of Disability Adjudication and Review.

The initial complaints came from an employee inside the Milwaukee office following Wisconsin Watchdogâ... s opening investigative report that found some claimants waiting more than 1,000 days for an appeals decision on their disability benefits claim.

Following Wednesdayâ... s story of a whistleblower in the Madison ODAR office, the committee has received more specific complaints about retaliation against employees, the source said.

Committee staff members sent the latest Watchdog piece to SSA administrators hoping they will â... cooperate,â... the source said. To date, the agency has been less than cooperative.

â... This is an ongoing process, and they are not always as forthcoming as weâ... d like them to be,â... the source said. â... Hopefully with your continued reporting, this is an issue they canâ... t duck.â...

A Senate committee member said officials there are working with the Office of Special Counsel on â... multiple whistleblower retaliation claims.â... The committee continues to request information from the SSA.

The whistleblower in the Madison office claims management retaliated against her after she was called to testify in a misconduct case. The incident involved â... inappropriate behaviorâ... by an administrative law judge, she said.

â... They are so corrupt. Itâ... s absolutely horrible,â... said the woman, a lead case technician in the Madison Office of Disability Adjudication and Review.

She spoke on condition of anonymity, fearing more retribution from her supervisors. While she said recounting her particular experiences will more than likely betray her identity anyway, the ODAR case worker insisted she has had enough.

â... Iâ... m at point where they donâ... t care about me, I donâ... t see why Iâ... m protecting them. This is my last resort,â... she said. â... I want to do my work without fear of retaliation.â...

She said she has contacted the Senate committee.

â... I forwarded my information to them and I got an email back from them. They said people are coming out of the woodwork with their complaints (about ODAR) following your story,â... the whistle-blower said.

Ronald Klym, a long-time senior legal assistant in the Milwaukee ODAR office, alleges he has been retaliated against by supervisors for going public with his charges of incompetence and misconduct in the agency.

The federal employee, who has worked for SSA for 16 years, provided Wisconsin Watchdog with documents showing extremely long wait times for claimants appealing their denied applications for benefits.

Doug Nguyen, SSA regional spokesman, in a previous story said the agency acknowledges that Milwaukee ODAR has a â... high average processing time for disability appeal hearings, and we are working to address the issue.â... but everyone thinks that his response is bullshit!

Beyond the delays is what Klym calls the â... shell game,â... the wholesale transferring of cases to other parts of the country by administrators to make the Milwaukee officeâ... s numbers look better than they are.

The Madison office whistle-blower confirmed Klymâ... s allegations, saying at one point she saw 2,000 cases from the Milwaukee office handed off to the Oak Brook operation.

There are over 10,000 SSA disability manipulation charges against SSA executives and staff.

New Whistleblower Protection Office Is Under Investigation for Retaliating Against Whistleblowers The Veterans Affairs Departmentâ... s watchdog is investigating a new office created by President Trump early in his administration that was designed to protect whistleblowers from reprisal but is now facing allegations of aiding retaliation against them.

VAâ... s Office of Inspector General is leading the investigation from its new Office of Special Reviews, which the IG created to conduct â... prompt reviews of significant eventsâ... and examine allegations of senior VA employee misconduct, an IG spokesman said. The new IG office is looking into activities at the Office of Accountability and Whistleblower Protection as part of an ongoing review of the implementation of the 2017 law that created OAWP.

Trump created OAWP by executive order in 2017 and later codified it when he signed the 2017 VA Accountability and Whistleblower Protection Act into law. The office was mostly celebrated, with advocates hopeful that the focus on the rights and protections for whistleblowers would reverse a culture infamous for intimidation and reprisal. That optimism has largely soured, however, leading to hotline tips to the inspector general and bipartisan scrutiny from Congress.

â... There has been considerable interest by some members of Congress and other stakeholders in this effort,â... said Mike Nacincik, the IG spokesman, who said he could not comment further on ongoing work.

President Trump has frequently touted the law as one of his signature legislative achievements, focusing primarily on the reforms it made to expedite the disciplinary process for VA employees. But Trump also spoke of the promises on which skeptics now say the law has failed to deliver: "... This bill protects whistleblowers who do the right thing," Trump said. "... We want to reward, cherish, and promote the many dedicated employees at the VA."

Government Executive spoke to several VA employees who expressed frustration or anger toward OAWP, three of whom have already been interviewed by IG investigators. They described feeling betrayed or neglected by an office they believed was going to help them but ended up doing the opposite. They said they have shared information with the investigators, including documentation of alleged reprisal.

Curt Cashour, a VA spokesman, said the department "... welcomes the inspector general's oversight," but defended it against most allegations. He acknowledged that the office experienced some growing pains, but said it has "... evolved over time, refining and improving its policies and practices along the way."

What Whistleblowers Are Telling Investigators:

"... It's a crooked system where literally the fox is guarding the hen house," said Jay DeNofrio.

DeNofrio, an administrative officer at a VA facility in Altoona, Pa., had prior experience as a whistleblower before OAWP was created. "... years ago, he disclosed information about a doctor he said was losing mental capacity and putting veterans at risk," so he thought he understood the investigative process that takes place after employees make disclosures to investigators. OAWP, however, was the first body he "... d ever worked with that coordinated with VA headquarters to find blemishes on his own record after he reported wrongdoing, he said. Investigators questioned his coworkers, telling them DeNofrio does not "... walk on water," just because he is a protected whistleblower and encouraged them to immediately report "... any instances of poor behavior," according to transcripts of those conversations obtained through records requests and provided to Government Executive.

DeNofrio said IG investigators took the allegations against OAWP seriously and called their review "... high profile" and "... high priority."

Dan Martin, a chief engineer at VA's Northern Indiana Health Care System, said OAWP failed to protect him when his case came before it. Martin said in 2016 he discovered contracting violations related to a non-functioning water filtration system, but when he reported the problems to superiors he was stripped of his responsibilities and sent to work in an office without heat or air conditioning. The VA inspector general launched an investigation into the contracting practices, and asked Martin to surreptitiously record conversations with procurement officers, Martin said.

It was not until OAWP got involved in the case that Martin's supervisors became aware of that cooperation. When OAWP allegedly shared that information with leadership at his facility, Martin said his supervisors "... had no choice but to shut me down," so he could no longer send recordings about the supervisors' "... very inappropriate relationships with contractors" to investigators in the OIG.

"... OAWP set me up," said Martin, who initially felt far more optimistic about OAWP's capacity to help his cause. "... They incentivized [my facility] to go after me."

Martin is also fighting his case through the Merit Systems Protection Board. During that process, VA's Office of General Counsel came to Martin and his attorneys asking for certain information about the case. The attorneys representing Martin told the lawyers in the Office of General Counsel they would only hand the information over during discovery. Shortly after rejecting the request, Martin said, OAWP followed up to ask for the same information.

â... Some of them are so crooked they swallow nails and spit up corkscrews,â... Martin said.

â... They Turned on Whistleblowersâ...

The alleged collaboration between the Office of General Counsel and OAWP has troubled observers.

Tom Devine, legal director at the Government Accountability Project, a whistleblower advocacy group, said his initial excitement about OAWP has been dampened by â... structural developments,â... including what he called veto power the department's general counsel has over the whistleblower protection office.

This would appear to be in violation of the 2017 law that permanently authorized OAWP, which prohibits the office from existing â... as an element of the Office of General Counselâ... and its leadership from reporting to OGC. Cashour said it was false to suggest that the Office of General Counsel exercises veto power over whistleblower claims, but acknowledged OAWP and OGC do coordinate.

â... OAWP has a collaborative working relationship with OGC, but OAWP retains final decision making authority on all OAWP matters,â... Cashour said.

Rebecca Jones, policy counsel at the Project on Government Oversight, said the office can likely not completely fix its issues while it remains an â... internal clearinghouseâ... for whistleblowers rather than a truly independent office. Jones praised the IG for investigating the alleged retaliation.

â... I wish it hadnâ... t come to this,â... she said.

Devine praised some of OAWPâ... s early accomplishments, such as delaying VAâ... s disciplinary decisions that involved alleged reprisal and the hiring of high-profile whistleblower Brandon Coleman as a liaison between whistleblowers and the office. Coleman even established a mentoring program to help assist victims of retaliation, but it has since been shut down.

â... They didnâ... t have the teeth to enforce their good deeds,â... said Devine, who has significantly curbed his cooperation with OAWP. â... They turned on whistleblowers.â...

â... You Donâ... t Want to Come Forwardâ...

A third VA employee, who requested anonymity to protect his ongoing cases, recently informed IG investigators about what he alleged is OAWPâ... s betrayal of trust and subsequent inactivity. The employee made an initial whistleblower disclosure in early 2017 that was bounced around to several offices within VA. He subsequently was removed from his position as a technician and is now relegated to â... brain-dead work,â... he said.

He contacted OAWP about the alleged reprisal later that year. During his interactions with the whistleblower office, he turned over sensitive information about his hospital that a colleague had providedâ... the OAWP investigator was the only individual with whom he shared the information. Days later, the employee said, the colleague was â... chewed outâ... by leaders at the facility for sharing the information. To the employee, it felt like OAWP had betrayed him, he told Government Executive.

The employee said he then experienced 21 months of â... radio silence.â... He recently spoke with OIG about his negative experiences with OAWP. A few days later, the employee said he unexpectedly heard from the OAWP investigators. He said he is now â... very, very cautiousâ... in his interactions with OAWP.

â... It scares you,â... he said. â... You donâ... t want to come forward. People are afraid.â...

Tonya Van, formerly a doctor at a VA facility in San Antonio, also became a whistleblower after disclosing to a supervisor that a doctor at her facility was giving incorrect diagnoses. She filed a complaint with OAWP after she alleged her supervisor made her work life so miserable she was forced to resign. But she quickly became disenchanted with the office due to lack of communication, she said.

She tried to follow up with OAWP but never heard back. The office eventually closed out her case, though it later contacted her about opening a second investigation. She said she has “no idea” what the results of either investigation were.

Van alleged that her supervisors’ reprisal against her took the form of accusations of using foul language in the workplace. Martin, the Northern Indiana employee, said he faced an investigation for similar accusations.

Changes and Cautious Optimism

Cashour, the VA spokesman, said OAWP does not provide “detailed information related to the specific outcome of an investigation to employees” due to privacy concerns. He added that the office has revised its policies to disclose more information to claimants, including when an investigation has been closed and if claims of retaliation were substantiated.

Multiple VA employees criticized this practice, calling it counterintuitive that VA would claim privacy concerns over investigations that the employees themselves requested.

Cashour said OAWP has changed other practices after a draft of a June 2018 Government Accountability Office report faulted the office for its investigatory practices, including allowing officials accused of retaliation to be directly involved in the inquiries in which they are named. VA told GAO it would not end its practice of “referring cases of misconduct back to facilities and program offices where the misconduct occurred.” However, Cashour said OAWP now informs employees upfront when their matters will be referred elsewhere for review. To protect whistleblowers, he said, OAWP now allows employees “to either opt-out of the disclosure or withhold the release of their name.”

In August 2018, however, when Van had an in-person interview with OAWP investigators, she and her attorney were still alleging retaliation by OAWP. While asking about Van’s allegations, an OAWP investigator told Van she could be penalized for violating a prior settlement with VA by asking a former colleague to write a recommendation. Her attorney said Deirdre Weiss, the OAWP employee, was ignoring the intent of that prior agreement.

“The bottom line is that, as accountability investigators, where we see possible wrongdoing we cannot look the other way just because somebody is a complainant, okay,” said Weiss, according to a transcript of the proceedings.

Last year, before his office formally launched an official investigation into the practices of OAWP, VA Inspector General Michael Missal became part of a public spat with then acting Secretary Peter O’Rourke over documents housed within the office. The IG requested access to information on the cases filed with OAWP, but O’Rourke refused to comply. They aired their grievances through a series of public letters, which included O’Rourke harshly reminding Missal that the IG served as the secretary’s subordinate. Congress ultimately intervened by emphasizing in a spending bill that the IG had the right to any and all documents it requested.

O’Rourke had previously served as the first head of OAWP, a period in which many of the complaints against the office originated. Current VA Secretary Robert Wilkie reportedly asked O’Rourke to resign last year after determining he was doing little work as a senior advisor.

OAWP is still a small office, employing just 96 workersâ... 28 of whom are investigatorsâ... for a workforce of 380,000. Its employees receive standardized training in investigative techniques, both by and from outside experts such as those at the Homeland Security Department and the Office of Special Counsel.

The office is now headed by Tammy Bonzanto, who previously served as an investigator on the House Veterans Affairs Committee. Her tenure has received mixed reviews. DeNofrio, for example, is still concerned by what he calls her lack of transparency. Other observers are cautiously optimistic that her leadership could get the office back to its original mission.

â... Weâ... re confident they have good-faith leadership now,â... said GAPâ... s Devine. â... The question is how much professional freedom sheâ... ll have.â...

Nearly 100,000 Pentagon whistleblower complaints have been silenced

I donâ... t know if Iâ... d have the nerve to be a whistleblower. Iâ... d like to think I would. We all like to think we would, just like we all like to think we could catch the game-winning touchdown or fold a fitted sheet without cursing

But to blow the whistle on a huge organization with a lot of power, likely drawing that power to come crashing down on your head â... that takes some serious spine-age. Now, imagine the organization youâ... re calling out is arguably the largest, most powerful, most secretive and most violent organization on planet Earth. Iâ... m speaking, of course, of the US Department of Defense.

Pentagon books so wrong on every level itâ... s impossible to detect fraud â... Matt Taibbi Pentagon books so wrong on every level itâ... s impossible to detect fraud â... Matt Taibbi

12Yet thousands, even tens of thousands, of people have taken that step over the past five years. (More on this in a moment.)

All the while our organized human murder machine continues its work around the world. Every day.

Every hour. Never a moment of rest. Never pausing to clip their toenails or scratch their ass. Bombs dropped. Buildings blown up. People killed or imprisoned. No end in sight.

By the way, thatâ... s the term I like to use instead of â... militaryâ... â... Organized Human Murder Machine.

It has a nice ring to it, doesnâ... t it? â... Mili-taryâ... sounds too boring, too banal. Sounds like a super-lame couple you met at a party. â... Yeah, Millie and Terry over there are accountants. If I have to hear one more joke about capital gains taxes, Iâ... m gonna kill myself.â...

But thatâ... s not what the military is. The military is a gigantic organized human murder machine, and even if you â... supportâ... every action our military has ever taken, you can still acknowledge itâ... s an organized human murder machine. (You would just bizarrely argue that all the murder has been just and sound and pure.)

Eleven months ago I covered $21 trillion of unaccounted-for adjustments at the Pentagon over the past 20 years. Donâ... t try to think about the number $21 trillion because youâ... ll pass out and hit your head on the desk. If your salary is $40,000 a year, in order to earn $21 trillion, it would take you 525 million years. (At which point you canâ... t even enjoy the new jet ski you just bought with all your money because youâ... re almost certainly a brain in a jar â...! though a nice embroidered jar that only the rich brains can afford.)

Also on rt.com The Pentagon failed its audit amid a $21 trillion scandal (yes, trillion) - Lee Camp Over the past year there has been a little more coverage of the utterly preposterous amount of money unaccounted for at our human murder machine. The Nation magazine, Forbes and Congresswoman Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez all covered it. Then the white blood cells of the military-industrial complex kicked into action in order to destroy the â... infection.â... The New York Times and Vox both claimed the $21 trillion is merely the result of large-scale misdocumentation and therefore doesnâ... t matter at all. Of course, the idea that tens of TRILLIONS of dollars of unaccountable adjustments donâ... t matter and couldnâ... t mask any fraud, abuse or corruption is an assertion that makes Charlie Sheenâ... s statement that he runs on tiger blood seem downright levelheaded.

Probably the best article to date on the $21 trillion was written a few weeks ago by Matt Taibbi for Rolling Stone.

Point is, even though most of the mainstream media wonâ... t get near this subject (or worse yetâ... actively attack those who do), the word is getting out: There is a giant sucking sound in the center of the Pentagon, and whateverâ... s down there feeds on trillions of secretive dollars, then sh*ts out incalculable death and destruction. (Itâ... s the Death Star if officials at the Death Star spent $10,000 on a toilet seat.)

A month ago the Government Accountability Office came out with a report showing the total number of whistleblower complaints over the past five years at the Department of Defense. Itâ... s nearly 100,000.

Hereâ... s the only part of the report that references that number:

â... The Department of Defense Inspector General identified 8 substantiated violations of whistleblower confidentiality between fiscal years 2013 and 2018, representing approximately .01 percent of the 95,613 contacts handled by the Inspector General during that timeâ...!â...

We are being lied into war again â... Lee Camp We are being lied into war again â... Lee Camp 95,613 whistleblower complaints over five years.

Sadly, the Government Accountability Office was trying to brag in that sentence. They were proudly stating, â... We only breached the confidentiality of .01 percent of our 95,000 whistleblower complaints.

Itâ... s kind of like saying, â... Of the 10,000 dolphins Iâ... ve killed, not a single one has accidentally been a human.â... The sane response is, â... Well, Iâ... m glad to hear that, but did you say you killed 10,000 dolphins?â...

To try to get the 95,000 number to make a little more sense, that averages out to a whistleblower every six minutes of every weekday for five straight years. (That waiting room must be truly nuts. I bet all the good magazines were claimed years ago.)

But maybe Iâ... m looking at this all wrong. Perhaps the number 95,613 shouldnâ... t be all that shocking, and I need to roll my tongue back up and store it back within my mouth. When you have $21 trillion of unaccounted-for adjustments, it means a seizure-inducing amount of money, parts, pieces, bombs, missiles, manpower and devices are flying around with no accountability â... likely creating loads of fraud, which would probably create loads of whistleblowers. Hence, maybe we all should have expected this number of whistleblowers rather than being shocked.

For example, thereâ... s the time in 2003 when the US flew $12 billion in cash to Iraq and promptly lost track of it. As the Guardian makes clear in this article, this was not an instance of hackers on a computer system stealing a bunch of ones and zeroes. This was giant pallets of cash money vanishing without a trace. In fact, it was 281 million $100 bills, weighing in at 363 tons. Thatâ... s not really the type of thing you can just smuggle away in your sweatshirt while humming â... Sheâ... ll be cominâ... â... round the mountain.â...

Or hereâ... s another example journalist David DeGraw highlights from the Government Accountability Report:

â... â...! according to a Department of Defense official, during an initial audit, the Army found 39 Blackhawk helicopters that had not been recorded in the property system. [$819 million in value]

Similarly, the Air Force identified 478 buildings and structures at 12 installations that were not in the real property systems.â...

The Army lost and then found 39 helicopters.

The Air Force lost and then found 478 buildings.

How does one lose a goddamn building? Unless you just had a bad breakup with David Copperfield, thereâ... s no explanation for losing a building. (Side note: It must suck divorcing David Copperfield.

â... Really, honey? You think youâ... re gonna take the house?? PAFOOMPF! What house?!â... )

Ya see, this madness stems from the fact that the Pentagon has a standard operating procedure of simply making up numbers to fill their books â... which, for normal human beings, is termed â... fraud.â... But in the case of the Pentagon, itâ... s termed, â... We get to make sh*t up because â...! ummmâ...! national security.â...

Also on rt.com Cold War is good for business: US contractors rejoice at the new Red Scare

Hereâ... s more from a 2013 Reuters article:

â... Linda Woodford spent the last 15 years of her career inserting phony numbers in the Department of Defenseâ... s accounts â...! but many mystery numbers remained. For those, Woodford and her colleagues were told by superiors to take â... unsubstantiated change actionsâ... â... in other words, enter false numbers, commonly called â... plugs,â... to make the Navyâ... s totals match the Treasuryâ... s.â...

Have no fear, patriotic Americans, this is not â... lying to the American people, stealing their money, and using it for war,â... this is just â... unsubstantiated change actions.â... Try that on your next tax return. Put in $10,000 marked â... Unsubstantiated change actions.â... Iâ... m sure theyâ... ll love that.

So letâ... s sum this up, shall we? The Pentagon sucks up 55% of all the discretionary tax money we pay to our government (thanks to our bought-off Congress who receive more Christmas cards from weapons contractors than they do from relatives). Those who work at the Pentagon have no idea where or how the money is spent. They make up many of the numbers resulting in tens of trillions of dollars of â... unaccounted-for adjustmentsâ... . They lose helicopters, buildings and, in a few instances, even nuclear warheads. There is an unimaginable amount of fraud and corruption at every level and literally thousands of whistleblowers have tried to come forward every single year â... one every six minutes.

When they do take that incredibly brave action, over 90% of the claims are dismissed without even being investigated.

You would think, in this topsy-turvy world, if there were one organization we could trust with a trillion dollars a year of our taxpayer money, it would be the Department of Unauthorized Highly Secretive

16DOE corruptionâ... appointed and elected officials should face prison time

Marita Noon states that an exhaustive review of 350+ pages of leaked emails regarding the Obama administrationâ... s handling of the various green-energy loan and grant programs makes several things very clear: they lied, engaged in favoritism, and rushed application approvals to suit the political agenda of the White House.

At the same time, worthy projects that went through a complete due diligence process were denied or ultimately withdrawn, as the lengthy approval process â... taxed investorsâ... patienceâ... â... as was the case with Aptera Motors, which worked closely with the DOE for two years.

Paul Wilbur, President and CEO at Aptera, didnâ... t think they were treated unfairly. He told me, â... At the end of the day, we couldnâ... t get through the process.â... But, he admits, he hasnâ... t read the emails.

Aptera was trying to build a very efficient electric vehicle with an under $30K price point. Wilbur met with Secretary Chu who could see the value in the technology. But our research shows that value was not the deciding factor in which projects got funded and which ones didnâ... t. Wilbur reports that he didnâ... t donate to any candidate. He wanted to keep the whole process clean and do what was â... good for America.â...

The report from the House Oversight Committee says Aptera first applied for an ATVM loan in December of 2008 and â... shut down on December 2, 2011.â... The report implies that Aptera was led on:

â... After numerous negotiations with DOE, in September 2011, Aptera received a conditional loan commitment of $150 million if the company was able to raise $80 million privately.â... And: â... The loans given to Fisker and Tesla gave Aptera hope that DOE would eventually act on their application. More importantly, since the DOE continued to engage with the company throughout the time period, management was convinced that DOE was interested and willing to provide financing for the company.â€¦

Apteraâ€¦ s 100% US technology has since been sold to a Chinese company.

Aptera was applying for an Advanced Technology Vehicle Manufacturing loan (ATVM). Only five loans were given out through the program and all have political ramifications. Christine Lakatos, who has worked with me on the green-energy, crony-corruption reports Iâ€¦ ve written, has done thorough research on the topic. She has read each and every one of the 350+ pages of emails released on October 31 and has written a blog post specifically addressing the ATVM program and its hijinks. As she cites, Fisker and Tesla (which Romney referenced in the first debate), got loans in 2010 and then the Vehicle Production Groupâ€¦ s loan was the only ATVM loan closed in 2011; all have ties to Obama bundlers. The other two ATVM loans went to Ford and Nissanâ€¦ both of which, according to the House report, â€¦ were heavily engaged in negotiations with the Administration over fuel economy standards for model years 2012-2016 at the time the DOE was considering their applications. Both companies eventually expressed publicly their support for these standards, which the Administration described as the â€¦ Historic Agreement.â€¦ â€¦

Armed with the sweeping knowledge of the House reports and subsequent hearings, evidence from DOE staffers (many of whom were appointed by Obama), Lakatosâ€¦ research, and personal experience, a different ATVM applicant has now taken its case to court citing â€¦ corruption and negligence.â€¦

On November 16, 2012, XP Technologies filed a lawsuit against the federal government concerning the DOEâ€¦ s denial of XP Technologyâ€¦ s loan guarantee application. The complaint alleges: â€¦ criminal activities did take place by DOE staff and affiliates.â€¦ A November 23 press release announces that XP Technologies is now represented by Cause of Action, â€¦ a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that uses investigative, legal, and communication tools to educate the public on how government accountability and transparency protects taxpayer interests and economic activity.â€¦

According to the document filed on November 16, â€¦ Plaintiffs' backgrounds include extensive issued patents on seminal technologies in use world-wide, White House and Congressional commendations and an engineering team of highly experienced auto-makers. Plaintiff brought a vehicle design, which was proposed as the longest range, safest, lowest cost electric vehicle, to be built in America in order to deliver extensive American jobs nationwide. No other applicant, or award â€¦ winnerâ€¦ , has succeeded in meeting, or (is) intending to meet, that milestone. XP Technology developed a patented lightweight, low-cost, long-range, electric vehicle using air-expanded foam-skinned material for a portion of the polymer body and received numerous patents, acclaim and superior computer modeling metrics over any competing solution. XP presented a vast set of letters of support to DOE from pending customers.

Major auto-industry facilities and engineers had joined forces to bring the vehicle to the defense, commercial and consumer market.â€¦

Over the weekend, we had an exclusive interview, on condition of anonymity, with a senior official at XP Technologies about the lawsuit and the experience.

He reported: â€¦ Staff from within the DOE have provided evidence which is quite compelling.â€¦ As Aptera's Wilbur made clear, the individuals within the DOE were very thorough. One of the emails, in the 350+ pages, was from Secretary Chu himself in which he criticized staffers for taking a â€¦ principled stand,â€¦ which held up the approval process of projects the White House wanted advanced. Another indicated that the pressure to rush was coming from â€¦ above the agency.â€¦ Overall, the emails show that projects were rushed so that announcements could coincide with visits, speeches, and photo opsâ€¦ as well as providing talking points for the president.

Our XP source told us â... We experienced, and have been provided evidence of, applicant submissions and reviews being modified in order to benefit some and disadvantage others, and the business connections between the different parties associated with the ones that benefited is quite extraordinary.â... The leaked emails support this accusation, specifically regarding the â... business connections.â... In her post, Lakatos calls it â... green fraternizing.â... The emails show that certain applicants and decision makers went bike riding together, had coffee meetings, sleepovers, beer summits, parties, dinners, and fundraisers.

While he didnâ... t provide us with a name, the XP official said, â... We experienced a senior senator (Feinstein) blockading our efforts and then providing favors to a competitor, which then benefited her family financially.â... The discovery the lawsuit will provide will expose the â... senior senator,â... but our previous research shows that Senator Harry Reidâ... s actions seem to fit the XP officialâ... s comment.

XP Technologies believes that â... DOE officials changed the first-come-first-served published rules and standards of the funding in order to take applicants in order of who they favored and who had purchased the most influence instead of the order in which they applied, as required.â...

Having extensively studied the DOEâ... s various loan programs, including the ATVM, Lakatos and I agree with our sourceâ... s startling conclusion: â... Based on the evidence provided by investigators, an experienced directly by our team, it is hard to imagine that at least one or more elected, or?appointed, officials might not be seeing measures ranging from censure or even federal prison time.â...

Time, the lawsuit, and subsequent investigation will tell.

While the House Oversight Committee has been digging deeply into the mismanagement and corruption of the green energy loans, the media has paid little attention. Other than our report, the October 31 release of the emails cited here received virtually no news reporting. Even the Fox News Channel ignored the story. The plight of promising companies like Apera and XP Technologies would have gone unnoticed if not for the lawsuit. The legal complaint attracted attention.

On November 16, the Heritage Foundation broke the XP story: â... A lawsuit filed in federal court on Wednesday alleges mass favoritism in the Department of Energyâ... s decisions to award federal grants to major car companies to develop electric vehicles, according to a legal complaint obtained by Scribe.â...

On November 19, Lakatos, whose work is listed as â... evidenceâ... in the legal complaint, received a call from Fox Newsâ... Gary Gasteluâ... who reported on the story on November 20. The next day, Fox News covered the lawsuit on Americaâ... s Newsroom. Even the Drudge Report picked up on the story.

XP has a litigation website on which the company states: â... The case has nothing to do with complaining about not getting the loans. It has everything to do with HOW the applicants didn't get the loans!â... They are communicating with other applicants about participating in the lawsuit.

The XP story and subsequent media coverage offers a lesson for othersâ... especially industries who have been wronged by the Obama Administrationâ... s practices (such as energy). The lawsuit mayâ... or may notâ... send officials to federal prison, as our XP source suggests, but it could go a long way to winning in the court of public opinion.

If you thought that Mossack Fonseca and the Panama Papers was "The Story": IT WAS ONLY THE BEGINNING AND THE BRIBES, STOCK MARKET RIGGING AND CORRUPTION ARE STILL INCREASING!!!

In the USA; Mofo, Wilson Sonsini, Perkins Coie, Covington & Burling, and other firms, do the same corruption today that Mossack Fonseca did when they got caught.

THIS IS ABOUT THE U.S. SENATORS AND THEIR CRONY DARK MONEY POLITICAL BRIBES AND CRIMINAL KICK-BACKS, THE TECH OLIGARCHS WHO DEPLOYED THE BRIBES AND THE VICTIMS OF THESE CRIMES.

- Google, Tesla, Facebook, Linkedin and their VC's (and deeply bribed Senators) ordered and operated hit-jobs on the public and their competitors, supported by the Obama White House and U.S. Dept. of Energy. The FBI raided their scheme and the investigations tracked all the way back to the Oval Office!
- How Obama's U.S. Department of Energy Defrauded Americans Out Of Their Life Savings In A Massive Dark Money Crony Crime Cover-up
- "DARK MONEY" IS THE WAY THAT CORRUPT POLITICAL CRIMINALS EXCHANGE COMPENSATION, BRIBES AND INFLUENCE WITHOUT THE FBI CATCHING THEM
- For these politicians to say: "We are excluded from the law for these crimes because we changed the laws in order to exclude ourselves" is like the Mafia saying: "Killing people isn't illegal only if we do the killing".
- This is about a group of tech oligarchs, and their corrupt Senators, who commit crimes in order to manipulate over a trillion tax dollars (YOUR MONEY) into their, and their friends pockets.
- They create fake issues that they hype-up through their controlled media. They use media monopoly tricks to try to shut out any other viewpoints. They push pretend issues that they believe will get more tax money allocated to "issue solutions" that they, and their friends, happen to already own the monopolies for.
- They are felons yet they control some of the offices of the agencies who are supposed to arrest them. Silicon Valley bought K Street and U.S. Senators, gave them more Dark Money than history has ever seen and then had giant tech-law firms bribe, hit-job and blockade any attempts to solve the problem.
- Some of the largest bribes in American history were paid via billions of dollars of pre-IPO cleantech stock, insider trading, real estate, Google search engine rigging and shadow-banning, sex workers, revolving door jobs, nepotism, state-supported black-listing of competitors and under-the-table cash.

Why are these Silicon Valley Oligarchs and their K-Street law firms and lobbyists immune from the law?

=====

HOW SILICON VALLEY'S "SCALED" CRIME CARTEL WORKS:

A crime with hookers and a very big shark

There are millions of sharks in the ocean but only "Jaws" was big enough to earn himself (The Shark) so many feature films about trying to kill him. It was simply because he was so big and so hungry.

Judging by the endless sequels, Jaws seems pretty hard to kill.

This is about the biggest sharks. They are from Silicon Valley.

Google, Facebook, Amazon, Linkedin, Netflix, et al; exist because they operate under the criminal umbrella of the tech Cartel frat boys and Government officials.

These guys are addicted to sex, and they are also huge assholes, so they can't keep any partners around unless they pay them to be trophy wives or "beard" wives. Buying sex from Italian escorts, young girls and New York Rent Boys is really, really expensive. This drives them to do anything to suck up huge amounts of cash.

These guys are also addicted to power, so they buy East and West Coast U.S. Senators, British Parliament members and partner with corrupt Russian oligarchs. Buying Senators is also really, really expensive. This also drives them to do anything to suck up huge amounts of cash.

These guys need, and spend, massive amounts of cash. Being a tech oligarch is really, really expensive.

They can't have the IRS cutting into their hooker-budgets. They spend massive amounts on big law firms to hide money in real estate, trusts, fake charities and in a huge array of off-shore spider holes.

These guys can't afford to get caught so they hire In-Q-Tel, Gawker Media, Black Cube, Fusion-GPS, and a huge army of other attackers, to destroy anybody who questions their motives.

Their Cartel exists because they own all of the main servers, banks, venture capital firms, tech law firms, K Street lobbyists and tech HR firms.

They control their entire eco-system and black-list anybody that offends them.

They own the internet and they delete anybody who steps in their circle.

Nobody can operate outside of it.

No start-up can compete with them without getting a hit-job put on it.

Since the year 2000, together, they have put over a million smaller companies out of business.

They exist because of "Scaling": the ability to use monopolized networks to reach everyone on Earth, have lower prices, and destroy all competition because they control all infrastructure. Scaling is all they talk about at their AngelGate "power lunches" in the back rooms of Restaurants on University Avenue in Palo Alto.

The FBI can't stop them because they owned James Comey, the head of the FBI.

The SEC, FEC and FTC can't stop them because they own the regulators at those agencies.

They Obama White House could not stop them because most of the Obama Administration was staffed by, and directed by, the staff of Google, Amazon and Facebook, et al.

The Silicon Valley tech Cartel makes the Mafia look like small potatoes.

They are a criminal organization!

If certain politicians are as 'impassioned to serve the public' as they say, then shouldn't they volunteer for office and allow the public to see all of their bank accounts?

Of course they will never do that because many of them are getting "DARK MONEY" covert payola and they are in office only to serve criminal kick-back schemes.

Politician's Dianne Feinstein, Barbara Boxer, Nancy Pelosi, Harry Reid and 42 others, sent out letters, emails, meeting requests and pitches to solicit members of the public to join a cause. The top staff of the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) sent out the same pleas. They promised a "wonderful new opportunity for all" in the first market break for outsiders in 30 years.

In meetings, on camera, they promised to give members of the public a fair shot at a group of new Department of Energy funds that Obama had put in place.

They failed to mention one key fact: ALL OF THE TAXPAYER MONEY HAD ALREADY BEEN SECRETLY PROMISED ("Hard Wired" it is called) TO OBAMA'S, AND THE DOE BOSSES, FRIENDS, IN ADVANCE.

That is a felony violation of the law. A crime which FBI Director James Comey, and his staff covered up and which DOE Boss Steven Chu and his staff actively implemented. Our team knows this, as fact, because they reported directly to Comey, Chu and their offices.

It was not an 'accident', it was not an 'oversight', it was not 'an agency just overwhelmed with paper'. It was a precision controlled, coordinated organized crime effort designed to rape, both, the U.S. taxpayers and the non-crony applicants for these funds.

The crime used the traditional bribes, crony payola contracts, revolving doors, sex worker payoffs and other political corruption but it mainly used a new tactic called "Dark Money".

Our team knows this because some of them were solicited to participate in these crimes and some of them had close personal relationships with the politicians who are now known to have operated these crimes. Some of our witnesses and insiders have been involved with the DOE since before 2000. They have 'seen it all'.

Companies, their executives and their investors were induced by California and New York Senators, White House Staff and the top staff of the U.S. Department of Energy to invest many years of their lives, and tens of millions of dollars of their personal cash in a fake government program which only existed to pay off Obama's political financiers.

American taxpayers were lied to and ruined by the U.S. Department of Energy and their damages are increasing monthly. The DOE never apologized, offered fixes or provided anything other than Fusion- GPS kinds of attacks on those who asked for help or who reported the crimes.

This scam happened in 2008. History has proven that the DOE funds, since then, were rigged.

Congress, the news media and special investigations have proven that these crimes happened. Nothing has ever been done to help the victims (over 100 companies and over 1800 individuals) recover from their state-sponsored losses.

Former House Speaker Nancy Pelosi bought stock in initial public offerings (IPOs) from the very Cleantech companies that earned hefty returns (ie: Solyndra, Tesla, Abound, etc.) while she had access to insider information that would have been illegal for an average citizen to trade with â... even though itâ... s perfectly legal for elected officials, CBSâ... s "60 Minutes" reported Sunday night.

In a piece relying on data collected from the conservative Hoover Institution, "60 Minutes" revealed that elected officials like Pelosi are exempt from insider trading laws â... regulations that carry hefty prison sentences and fines for any other citizen who trades stocks with private information on companies that can affect their stock price.

In the case of elected officials â... this secret information ranges from timely details on lucrative federal contracts to legislation that can cause companiesâ... stocks to rise and fall dramatically.

How do they get away with it? Lawmakers have exempted themselves from the laws that govern every other citizen.

Pelosi, D-Calif., and her husband have participated in at least eight IPOs while having access to information directly relating to the companies involved. One of those came in 2008, from Visa, just as a troublesome piece of legislation that would have hurt credit card companies, began making its way through the House.

â... Undisturbed by a potential conflict of interest the Pelosis purchased 5,000 shares of Visa at the initial price of $44 dollars. Two days later it was trading at $64. The credit card legislation never made it to the floor of the House,â... Steve Kroft of "60 Minutes" reported.

Kroft confronted Pelosi at a regular press conference after she declined an interview.

Kroft: Madam Leader, I wanted to ask you why you and your husband back in March of 2008 accepted and participated in a very large IPO deal from Visa at a time there was major legislation affecting the credit card companies making its way through the â... through the House.

Nancy Pelosi: But â...

Kroft: And did you consider that to be a conflict of interest?

Pelosi: The â... y â... I â... I don't know what your point is of your question. Is there some point that you want to make with that?

Kroft: Well, I â... I â... I guess what I'm asking is do you think it's all right for a speaker to accept a very preferential, favorable stock deal?

Pelosi: Well, we didn't.

Kroft: You participated in the IPO. And at the time you were speaker of the House. You don't think it was a conflict of interest or had the appearance--

Pelosi: No, it was not â...

Kroft: â... of a conflict of interest?

Pelosi: â... it doesn't â... it only has appearance if you decide that you're going to have â... elaborate on a false premise. But it â... it â... it's not true and that's that.

Kroft: I don't understand what part's not true.

Pelosi: Yes sir. That â... that I would act upon an investment.

â... There are all sorts of forms of honest grafts that congressmen engage in that allow them to become very, very wealthy. So it's not illegal, but I think it's highly unethical, I think it's highly offensive, and wrong,â... he told Kroft.

â... â...! Insider trading on the stock market. If you are a member of Congress, those laws are deemed not to apply,â... Schweizer added. â... The fact is, if you sit on a healthcare committee and you know that Medicare, for example, is â... is considering not reimbursing for a certain drug that's market moving information. And if you can trade stock on â... off of that information and do so legally, that's a great profit making opportunity. And that sort of behavior goes on.â...

Pelosiâ... s office issued a statement Sunday saying, â... It is very troubling that â... 60 Minutesâ... would base their reporting off of an already-discredited conservative author who has made a career out of attacking Democrats.â...

Schweizerâ... s books include â... Do as I Say (Not as I Do): Profiles in Liberal Hypocrisy,â... and â... Architects of Ruin,â... according to Schweizerâ... s page on the Hoover Institution website.

What happened when the victims of these crimes reported the incidents to authorities? The Obama Administration ordered and operated attacks on the victims. Those attacks included the following reprisal, retribution and revenge efforts:'

- DOE solicited the victims with false promises and caused them to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for projects which DOE had covertly promised to their friends and were using the victims as a â... smokescreenâ... to cover their illegal DOE slush-fund for the victims competitors and personal enemies.

- Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits were stone-walled. Applications were â... lostâ... . Files in the application process â... disappearedâ... . Lois Lerner hard drive â... incidentsâ... took place in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- DOEâ... s Jonathan Silver, Lachlan Seward and Steven Chu contacted members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national â... black-listsâ... to blockade Victims from ever receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Stry and in published testimony.

FOIA requests were hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- State and federal employees played an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed.

- Some Victims found themselves strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case. Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after their work with the Department of Energy weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if these â... targetsâ... were intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of these people were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via DOE, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which DOE officials knew were required.

- Victims employers were called, and faxed, and ordered to fire Victims from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic.

- On orders from Obama White House officials, DNC-financed Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produced attack articles and defamation videos and locked them on the internet on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world, at a cost of over $40 million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging.

The forensic data acquired from this attack proved that Google rigs attacks against individuals on the internet and that all of Google's impressions are manually controlled by Google's executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. This data was provided to the European Union for its ongoing prosecution of Google's political manipulation of public perceptions.

- Victims HR and employment records, on recruiting and hiring databases, were embedded with negative keywords in order to prevent them from gaining future employment.

- Our associates: Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani and over 30 other whistle-blowers in this matter, turned up dead under strange circumstances. They are not alone in a series of bizarre deaths related to the DOE investigations.

- Disability and VA complaint hearings and benefits were frozen, delayed, denied or subjected to lost records and "missing hard drives" as in the Lois Lerner case.

- Paypal and other on-line payments for on-line sales were delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for Victims who competed with DOE interests and holdings.

- DNS redirection, website spoofing which sent Victims websites to dead ends and other Internet activity manipulations were conducted. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by Victims, had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by an massively resourced facility in order to terminate revenue potentials for those victims.

Over 50,000 trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments were deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about victims in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility.

- Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors IN-Q-Tel, Think Progress, Black Cube, Podesta Group, Stratfor, Fusion GPS, IN-Q-Tel, Media Matters, Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Syd Blumenthal, etc., were hired by DOE Executives and their campaign financiers to attack Victims who competed with DOE executives stocks and personal assets.

- Covert DOE partner: Google, transferred large sums of cash to dirty tricks contractors and then manually locked the media portion of the attacks into the top lines of the top pages of all Google searches globally, for years, with hidden embedded codes in the links and web-pages which multiplied the attacks on Victims by many magnitudes.

Covert Cartel financier: Google, placed Google's lawyer: Michelle Lee, in charge of the U.S. Patent Office and she, in turn, stacked all of the U.S. Patent Office IPR and ALICE review boards and offices with Google-supporting employees in order to rig the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google from being prosecuted for the vast patent thefts that Google engages in. Google has hundreds of patent lawsuits for technology theft and a number of those lawsuits refer to Google's operations as Racketeering, Monopolistic Cartel and Government Coup-like behaviors. Thousands of articles and investigations detail the fact that Google, essentially ran the Obama White House and provided over 80% of the key White House staff. A conflict-of-interest unlike any in American history. Google's investors personally told Applicant they would kill him. Google and the Obama Administration were the same entity. Applicant testified in the review that got Michelle Lee terminated and uncovered a tactical political and social warfare group inside Google who were financed by Federal and State funds.

- Honeytraps and moles were employed by the attackers. In this tactic, people who covertly worked for the attackers were employed to approach the target in order to spy on and misdirect the subject.

- Mortgage and rental applications had red flags added to them in databases to prevent the targets from getting homes or apartments.
- McCarthy-Era "Black-lists" were created and employed against Victims who competed with DOE executives and their campaign financiers to prevent them from funding and future employment.
- Targets were very carefully placed in a position of not being able to get jobs, unemployment benefits, disability benefits or acquire any possible sources of income. The retribution tactics were audacious, overt..and quite illegal.

So how does the federal government dark money bribe network ?

Let's take a look:

In the politics of the United States, dark money is funds given to nonprofit organizationsâ... and include 501(c)(4)(social welfare) 501(c)(5) (unions) and 501(c)(6) (trade association) groupsâ... that can receive unlimited donations from corporations, individuals, and unions, and spend funds to influence elections, but are not required to disclose their donors.[3][4] Dark money first entered politics with Buckley v. Valeo (1976) when the United States Supreme Court laid out Eight Magic Words that define the difference between electioneering and issue advocacy.

According to the Center for Responsive Politics, "spending by organizations that do not disclose their donors has increased from less than $5.2 million in 2006 to well over $300 million in the 2012 presidential cycle and more than $174 million in the 2014 midterms." [3] The New York Times editorial board has opined that the 2014 midterm elections were influenced by "the greatest wave of secret, special-interest money ever raised in a congressional election." [5]

The term was first used by the Sunlight Foundation to describe undisclosed funds that were used during the United States 2010 mid-term election. [6] [7] Its practical effect has been described by Donald Trump as Congress "being under the magical spell of the donors." [8]

In some elections, dark money groups have surpassed traditional political action committees (PAC) and "super PACs" (independent-expenditure-only committees) in the volume of spending. [4] In 2014, the group Freedom Partners was identified as the "poster child" for the rise of dark money. [4] In 2012, Freedom Partners had the ninth-highest revenues among all U.S. trade associations which filed tax returns that year, more than "established heavyweights" such as the American Petroleum Institute, PhRMA, and U.S. Chamber of Commerce. [4] Freedom Partners largely acted as a conduit for campaign spending; of the $238 million it spent in 2012, 99 percent went to other groups, and Freedom Partners itself did not have any employees. [4] This was a major distinction between other high-revenue trade associations, which typically have many employees and devote only about 6 percent of spending to grants to outside groups. [4]

The rise of dark money groups was aided by the U.S. Supreme Court decisions in FEC v. Wisconsin Right to Life, Inc. (2008) and Citizens United v. FEC (2010). [4] In Citizens United, the Court ruled (by a 5â... 4 vote) that corporations and unions could spend unlimited amounts of money to advocate for or against political candidates. [9]

According to the Center for Responsive Politics, dark money (which it defined as funds from outside groups that did not publicly disclose donors, plus groups that received a substantial portion of their contributions from such nondisclosing groups) accounted for nearly 44% of outside spending in the 2010 election cycle. [10]

In the 2012 election cycle, more than $308 million in dark money was spent, according to the Center for Responsive Politics. [11] An estimated 86 percent was spent by conservative groups, 11 percent by liberal groups and 3 percent by other groups.[11]

The three dark money groups which spent the largest sums were Karl Rove's American

Crossroads/Crossroads GPS ($71 million), the Koch brothers' Americans for Prosperity ($36 million) and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce ($35 million), all conservative groups.[11][12] Aside from a complex, and still highly covert network created by The Clinton Foundation, Media Matters and The Podesta Group, the three liberal groups with the largest dark-money expenditures were the League of Conservation Voters ($11 million), Patriot Majority USA, a group focusing on public schools and infrastructure ($7 million), and Planned Parenthood (almost $7 million).[11]

The 2014 election cycle saw the largest amount of dark money ever spent in a congressional election; the New York Times editorial board described 2014 "the greatest wave of secret, special-interest money ever." [5] On the eve of the election, Republican-leaning dark money groups dominated, with $94.6 million in expenditures, exceeding dark money expenditures by Democratic-leaning dark money groups ($28.4 million), and by expenditures that could not be classified ($1.9 million).[13] Karl Rove's dark money group Crossroads GPS alone spent over $47 million in the 2014 election cycle.[14]

In the Senate elections, dark money spending was highly concentrated in a handful of targeted competitive states, and especially in Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Kentucky, and North Carolina.[15] In the eleven most competitive Senate races, $342 million was spent by non-party outside groups, significantly more than the $89 million spent by the political parties.

In the 2014 Kentucky election, a key player was the "Kentucky Opportunity Coalition," a group supporting Mitch McConnell, Republican of Kentucky,[16] whom the New York Times editorial board has described as "the most prominent advocate for unlimited secret campaign spending in Washington." [5] The Kentucky Opportunity Coalition, a 501(c)(4) "social welfare" group,[17] raised more than $21 million, while McConnell raised about $32 million and McConnell's opponent, Democratic candidate Alison Lundergan Grimes, raised about $19 million.[17] According to a Center for Public Integrity analysis of data provided by advertising tracking firm Kantar Media/CMAG, the group ran more than 12,400 television advertisements.[17] Every Kentucky Opportunity Coalition's television advertisements mentioned either McConnell or Grimes; overall, about 53 percent of the group's ads praised McConnell while the rest were attack ads against Grimes.[18] The Kentucky Opportunity Coalition relied heavily on political consultants in Washington, D.C. and Virginia linked to Karl Rove's Crossroads groups,[19] and received $390,000 in a grant from Crossroads GPS.[17]

Described as "mysterious," the group was listed by a Post Office box,[17] and the only name formally associated with the group was political operative J. Scott Jennings, a deputy political director in the George W. Bush administration, a worker for McConnell's previous campaigns.[18] Melanie Sloan of the watchdog organization Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington said that the Kentucky Opportunity Coalition was "nothing more than a sham." [17]

In North Carolina, the pro-Tillis group "Carolina Rising" received nearly all (98.7%) of its funds from Crossroads GPS; the Center for Responsive Politics highlighted this as an example of how Crossroads GPS, a 501(c)(4) group, "evades limits on political activity through grants" to other 501(c)(4) groups.

[16][21] In the 2014 cycle, Crossroads GPS also gave $5.25 million to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, $2 million to the American Future Fund, and $390,000 to the Kentucky Opportunity Coalition.[21] In total, Crossroads GPS spent more than $13.6 million on grants to other groups, which it described as being for the purposes of "social welfare." [21]

In 2014, the Democratic Party-aligned dark money group Patriot Majority USA, a 501(c)(4), spent almost

$13.7 million on "direct and indirect political campaign activities," airing 15,000 television ads in targeted Senate races.[22] About half of the $30 raised by the group came from five anonymous donors.[22] The group was led by Craig Varoga, "a staunch ally" of Senate Minority Leader Harry Reid, Democrat of Nevada.[22]

In Alaska, Mark Begich was "one of the few Democratic candidates to come close to receiving as much support from dark money as his Republican opponent." [15] The pro-Begich Alaska Salmon PAC, funded entirely by the League of Conservation Voters and its Alaska affiliate, spent funds in support of Begich.[15]

According to the Center for Responsive Politics, by October 2015, $4.88 million in dark money had already been spent for the 2016 election cycle, "more than 10 times the $440,000 that was spent at this point during the 2012 cycle." [11] The money was spent by six groups - five conservative groups (including the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, which spent $3 million, and Americans for Prosperity, which spent $1.5 million) and one liberal group (Planned Parenthood, which spent just under $75,000).

[11] According to Richard Skinner of the Sunlight Foundation, "the focus of early dark money being spent in the 2016 cycle" is on competitive U.S. Senate elections and some U.S. House of Representatives races.[11] However, dark money also is playing a role in the 2016 Republican presidential primaries; by June 2015, at least four Republican presidential candidates were raising funds via 501(c)(4) organizations: Bobby Jindal's America Next, Rick Perry's Americans for Economic Freedom, John Kasich's Balanced Budget Forever, and Jeb Bush's Right to Rise.[23]

501(c) "dark money" groups are distinct from super PACs.[25] While both types of entity can raise and spend unlimited sums of money, super PACs "must disclose their donors," while 501(c) groups "must not have politics as their primary purpose but don't have to disclose who gives them money." [25]

However, a single individual or group can create both types of entity and combine their powers, making it difficult to trace the original source of funds.[25][26] ProPublica explains: "Say some like-minded people form both a Super-PAC and a nonprofit 501(c)(4). Corporations and individuals could then donate as much as they want to the nonprofit, which isn't required to publicly disclose funders.

The nonprofit could then donate as much as it wanted to the Super-PAC, which lists the nonprofit's donation but not the original contributors." [25] In at least one high-profile case, a donor to a super PAC kept his name hidden by using an LLC formed for the purpose of hiding their personal name.[27] One super PAC, that originally listed a $250,000 donation from an LLC that no one could find, led to a subsequent filing where the previously "secret donors" were revealed.[28]

During the 2016 election cycle, "dark money" contributions via shell LLCs became increasingly common.[29] The Associated Press, Center for Public Integrity, and Sunlight Foundation all "flagged dozens of donations of anywhere from $50,000 to $1 million routed through non-disclosing LLCs to super PACs" backing various presidential candidates, including Marco Rubio, Hillary Clinton, Ted Cruz, John Kasich, Jeb Bush, and Carly Fiorina.[29] Bradley A. Smith, a former FEC chairman who is now with the Center for Competitive Politics, a group that opposes campaign-finance reform, argues that this practice is not problematic, writing that "it is possibly the making of a campaign contribution in the name of another," a violation of existing law.[30]

According to Kathy Kiely, managing editor of the Sunlight Foundation, "untraceable dark money is a preferred tactic of conservatives, while Democrats tend to use traceable super PACs." [31]

The first federal law requiring disclosure of campaign contributions, the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, was passed in 1910. By the late 1970s, virtually all states and the federal government required public disclosure of campaign contributions and information on political donors. Most states and the federal government also required public disclosure of information about donors and amounts spent on independent expenditures, that is, expenditures made independently of a candidate's campaign.

In January 2010, at least 38 states and the federal government required disclosure for all or some independent expenditures or electioneering communications, for all sponsors.[32]

Yet despite disclosure rules, it is possible to spend money without voters knowing the identities of donors before the election.[33][34] In federal elections, for example, political action committees have the option to choose to file reports on a "monthly" or "quarterly" basis.[35][36][37] This allows funds raised by PACs in the final days of the election to be spent and votes cast before the report is due.

In addition to PACs, non-profit groups ranging from Planned Parenthood to Crossroads may make expenditures in connection with political races. Since these non-profits are not political committees, as defined in the Federal Election Campaign Act, they have few reporting requirements beyond the amounts of their expenditures. They are not required by law to publicly disclose information on their donors. As a result, voters do not know who gave money to these groups. Reports have disclosed instances where non-profits were managed by close associates, former staff, or a candidate's family member, and this has led to concern that the candidates benefiting from their expenditures would be able to know who donated the funds to the non-profit group, but the public would not.[38] [39]

For example, in the 2012 election cycle, one organization, the National Organization for Marriage, or NOM, operated two non-profit arms that received millions in donations from just a few donors. It in turn funded several different PACs. While these PACs had to disclose that NOM contributed the funds, they were not required to disclose who gave money to NOM.[40]

On March 30, 2012 a U.S. District Court ruled that all groups that spend money on electioneering communications must report all donors that give more than $1,000.[41][42] However, this ruling was overturned on appeal.[43]

Legislative and regulatory proposals and debate over dark money According to Columbia Law School's Richard Briffault, disclosure of campaign expenditures, contributions, and donors is intended to deter corruption.[45]

The Federal Elections Commission, which regulates federal elections, has been unable to control dark money. According to the Center for Public Integrity, FEC commissioners are voting on many fewer enforcement matters than in the past because of "an overtaxed staff and commissioner disagreement." [12] The IRS (rather than the FEC) is responsible for oversight of 501(c)(4) groups.[12]

The IRS "found itself ill-prepared for the groundswell" of such groups taking and spending unlimited amounts of money for political purposes in the wake of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission in 2010.[12] The agency particularly "struggled to identify which organizations appeared to be spending more than the recommended 50 percent of their annual budgets on political activities... and even to define what 'political spending' was." [12] When the IRS began looking at nonprofit spending, it was accused of improper targeting in a 2013 controversy.[12]

"With the FEC and IRS duly sidelined" advocates for disclosure turned to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC); nine academics from universities across the U.S. filed petitioned the SEC in August 2011 for the agency to "develop rules to require public companies to disclose to shareholders the use of corporate resources for political activities." [12] The petition received over a million comments in the following month, "a record amount for the SEC, with the overwhelming majority of voters asking for better disclosure." [12] According to Lucian Bebchuk, a Harvard professor of law, economics, and finance who helped draft the petition, the request had drawn the support of "nearly a dozen senators and more than 40 members of the House." [12] Under current SEC regulations, public corporations must file a Form 8-K report to publicly announce major events of interest to shareholders.

[46] The Sunlight Foundation, a group which advocates for a comprehensive disclosure regime, has proposed that the 8-K rule should be updated to require that aggregate spending of $10,000 on political activities (such as monetary contributions, in-kind contributions, and membership dues or other payments to organizations that engage in political activities) should be disclosed and made publicly available via the 8-K system. [46] In 2015, Republicans in Congress successfully pushed for a rider in a 2015 omnibus spending bill that bars the IRS from clarifying the social-welfare tax exemption to combat dark money "from advocacy groups that claim to be social welfare organizations rather than political committees." [47]

Other provisions in the 2015 bill bar the SEC from requiring corporations to disclose campaign spending to shareholders, and a ban application of the gift tax to nonprofit donors. The Obama administration opposed these provisions, but President Obama eventually acceded to them in December 2015, with the White House declining to comment. The nonpartisan Campaign Legal Center said in a statement that the dark-money provision ensures "that the door to secret foreign dollars in U.S. elections remains wide open through secret contributions to these ostensibly 'nonpolitical' groups that run campaign ads without any disclosure of their donors." [47]

The Center for Competitive Politics (CCP), chaired by former FEC chairman Bradley A. Smith, opposes legislation to require the disclosure of dark-money groups, saying: "Our view is that many people will be driven out of politics if they are forced to disclose their names and their personal information. The purpose of disclosure is to help people monitor the government, not for the government to monitor the people." [12] The Center for Competitive Politics views "dark money" as a pejorative term, stating that the phrase "evokes an emotional, fearful reaction" and contending that "many of the statistics published on the topic aim to mislead rather than enlighten." [48] The CCP maintains that dark money "comprises a very small percentage of total campaign spending," calculating the percent of money spent in federal elections by organizations that did not provide itemized disclosure of their donors as 4.3% in 2012 and 3.7% in 2014.

The U.S. Department of Energy was complicit in the processing of Dark Money payola cycling to Obama's financiers as a 'hand-on' operator of a RICO-class crime.

All of the ruckus with Donald Trump and California/DOE VS. Trump is almost entirely based on West Coast and New York corrupt senators, and their insiders, freaking out about their Dark Money organized crime payola scam coming apart and getting exposed.

Thereâ€¦ s a reason why David Brock chooses to house an unregistered Professional Solicitor in his office to raise money for his conglomerate of Super PACs and non-profits.

DARK MONEY IS THE WAY THAT CORRUPT POLITICAL CRIMINALS EXCHANGE COMPENSATION, BRIBES AND INFLUENCE WITHOUT THE FBI CATCHING THEM.

Public officials do such onerous crimes because they, and their friends, want to control and direct over five trillion dollars of taxpayer cash into their, and their friends pockets. That check you write on April 15 every year is the pot of gold that they are trying to put in their personal bank accounts. Some of them will even kill to get that cash. A person is killed every few minutes for robberies involving less than $25.00; Why would you doubt that corrupt politicians would not murder citizens and reporters for over a trillion dollars?

- This is about a group of tech oligarchs, and their corrupt Senators, who commit crimes in order to manipulate over a trillion tax dollars (YOUR MONEY) into their, and their friends pockets.

- They are felons yet they control some of the offices of the agencies who are supposed to arrest them. Silicon Valley bought K Street and U.S. Senators, gave them more Dark Money than history has ever seen and then had giant tech-law firms bribe, hit-job and blockade any attempts to solve the problem.

- Some of the largest bribes in American history were paid via billions of dollars of pre-IPO cleantech stock, insider trading, real estate, Google search engine rigging and shadow-banning, sex workers, revolving door jobs, nepotism, state-supported black-listing of competitors and under-the-table cash.

Why are these Silicon Valley Oligarchs and their K-Street law firms and lobbyists immune from the law?

U.S. Senators, Agency Heads and Congress are bribed with: Billions of dollars of Google, Twitter, Facebook, Tesla, Netflix and Sony Pictures stock and stock warrants which is never reported to the FEC; Billions of dollars of Google, Twitter, Facebook, Tesla, Netflix and Sony Pictures search engine rigging and shadow-banning which is never reported to the FEC; Free rent; Male and female prostitutes; Cars; Dinners; Party Financing; Sports Event Tickets; Political campaign printing and mailing services "Donations"; Secret PAC Financing; Jobs in Corporations in Silicon Valley For The Family Members of Those Who Take Bribes And Those Who Take Bribes; "Consulting" contracts from McKinsey as fronted pay-off gigs; Overpriced "Speaking Engagements" which are really just pay-offs conduited for donors; Private jet rides and use of Government fuel depots (ie: Google handed out NASA jet fuel to staff); Real Estate; Fake mortgages; The use of Cayman, Boca Des Tores, Swiss and related money-laundering accounts; The use of HSBC, Wells Fargo, Goldman Sachs and Deutsche Bank money laundering accounts and covert stock accounts; Free spam and bulk mailing services owned by Silicon Valley corporations; Use of high tech law firms such as Perkins Coie, Wilson Sonsini, MoFo, Covington & Burling, etc. to conduit bribes to officials; and other means now documented by us, The FBI, the FTC, The SEC, The FEC and journalists.

FOR EXAMPLE:

David Brockâ... s Media Matters gave a $930,000 cash grant to David Brockâ... s Franklin Education Forum
David Brockâ... s Franklin Education Forum credited the Bonner Group for raising those funds, triggering the 12.5% commission

David Brock paid the Bonner Group a $124,250 commission to solicit a cash grant â...! from himself!

IT DOESNâ... T STOP THERE

After the Franklin Education Forum retained $869,750, they sent a $816,224 cash grant to David Brockâ... s
The Franklin Forum:

Note: The â... Franklin Education Forumâ... is a 501(c)3, and â... The Franklin Forumâ... is a 501(c)4. They are not the same company.

Since The Franklin Forum 501(c)4 paid Bonner a commission in 2013, itâ... s safe to assume fundraiser received a $102,028 commission in 2014. Unfortunately, itâ... s hard to tell for sure. They still havenâ... t filed their taxes for 2014!

LETâ... S RECAP

Say, for example, you donate $1,062,857 to Media Matters for America. This is how David Brock would have used your charitable donation in 2014:

In the end, Brockâ... s solicitor would have pocketed $350,825, almost a third of your initial donation!

Thatâ... s a far cry from the advertised 12.5% commission.

As bizarre as that scenario may sound, this is exactly what David Brock did in 2014.

HOW CAN WE BE SURE THIS IS INTENTIONAL?

David Brock is the Chairman for each of these organizations! How could he not know whatâ... s going on?

Heâ... s a hands-on Chairman. According to their tax returns, Brock allocates time, weekly, to his organizations:

Furthermore, the New York Times reports that David Brock shares a summer rental in the Hamptons with Mary Pat Bonner, the President of the Bonner Group!

David Brock will have a hard time claiming ignorance on this. These transfers are intentional. He vacations with his solicitor. Case closed.

STILL NOT CONVINCED?

David Brock didnâ... t even bother to give his organizations different phone numbers. They all share the same phone number!

WHAT IFâ... !?

We even located the Bonner Groupâ... s solicitation agreement with Media Matters on Floridaâ... s Gift Giversâ... Guide. Clarification on their commission can be found on page 2:

In English: Contractually, David Brock has the option to exclude certain contributions from triggering the commission. In spite of this option, he intentionally chooses to trigger the 12.5% commission for money grants between his organizations.

Note: Yes, we are making the assumption that all of Brock's organizations have the same solicitation agreement with the Bonner Group. Given that his organizations share the same address, board members, and telephone number, we feel it's safe to assume they also share the same solicitation agreement.

THIS BARELY SCRATCHES THE SURFACE

Utilizing public facing tax returns, along with records submitted to the FEC, we mapped out all the significant money transfers from 2014 that took place in Brock's office:

This is all from just one year!

I have been asking myself lately; how were there so many corrupt people in the Obama Administration? The only answer I can come up with is that Barack Obama himself was a very corrupt person. Who else would have had so many corrupt people that he chose or tolerated in his Administration.

Do you remember Lois Lerner from the IRS and Barack Obama asking her to go after his political rivals using the most feared government agencies, the IRS. The last place you want to be is between the government and your money.

Obama Attorney General Eric Holder who was found in Contempt of Congress for lying to Congress and looking the other way on every illegal act Obama or someone in his administration perpetrated.

Secretary of Energy Steven Chu, earned his spot among Obama's corrupt appointees thanks to his admitted role in the "green energy" scams, specifically the Solyndra scandal in which the Obama gave more than $500 million to a failed company and one of its key investors, Obama backer George Kaiser.

Do not forget Obama's corrupt cabinet appointee Secretary of Health and Human Services Kathleen Sebelius. According to the U.S. Office of Special Counsel, she was guilty of violating the Hatch Act by campaigning for the president in her official capacity. Violators of this act are normally fired, but Obama would not allow his AG Eric Holder to do any such thing. So Sebelius got off without punishment after claiming she said she "... got a little caught up in the notion that the gains which had been made would clearly not continue without the president's reelection..."

I am not even going into the details of the corrupt John Brennan former CIA Director and James Clapper Director of National Intelligence.

And let us not forget about the most corrupt person Obama appointed and that was Hillary Clinton.

After thinking about all of the people above how could we not think Obama himself was the Godfather of this mob?

Now let us add another and that is James Comey, former disgraced FBI Director. Politico is reporting that on Friday night the FBI released a two-page summary former disgraced FBI Director James Comey used to brief then President-elect Donald Trump on the "dossier" about Trump's ties to Russia.

<https://www.judicialwatch.org/press-room/press-releases/judicial-watch-uncovers-doj-records-showing-numerous-bruce-ohr-communications-with-fusion-gps-and-christopher-steele/>

The document, asserts that Christopher Steele, the person who compiled the dossier, was working â... on behalf of private clientsâ... in his investigation of Trumpâ... s possible ties to Russia. Comey was not honest to the court because Steele was actually working for the DNC and Clinton campaign. Comey also did not inform the court or President-Elect Trump Hillary Clinton and the Democratic Party paid the Russian government via Steele and Fusion GPS for the opposition research document. Why didnâ... t Comey inform the court or President-Elect Trump that the information came from the Russian government: because then he would be admitting that the true collusion was between Hillary, the Democratic Party and Russia.

No matter which political party corruption is found in we must drain the swamp of all these corrupt people and prosecute them if we actually want to improve the political climate in the United States.

These parties appear to have exploited taxpayer government resources to line their pockets at tax payer expense as proven by finance reports, FEC filings, Congressional studies, Panama Papers, espionage journalism, state election reporting forms, Goldman Sachs and ICIJ Swiss Leaks documents and journalists, on-staff whistle-blowers, covert accounts revelations, forensic audits, Congressional action comparison charts and other evidence. Connected on XKEYSCORE, FBI, Palantir, Linkedin and other investigative databases. Confirmed in cross-over financial dealings and transfers. Sourced as beneficiaries and financiers of the activities.

Expert Witness Jack Lazzereschi says heâ... s seen government stalking cases double in a few years. Victims are often filmed naked or having sex and threatened with the threat of footage being put online and in the worst cases children are also recorded.

Jack says UK law is woefully unprepared to deal with these devices compared to countries in the Asian-Pacific region.

In South Korea authorities have cracked down on a scourge of perverts planting cameras in public toilets.

James Williams, director of bug sweepers QCC Global says snooping devices used to be the preserve of people with deep pockets and technological know-how.

He said: "It's gone from that to really being at a place where anybody can just buy a device from the internet.

"Anything you can possibly think of you can buy with a bug built into it. I would say they're getting used increasingly across the board."

Suky Bhaker, Acting CEO of the Suzy Lamplugh Trust, which runs the National Stalking Helpline, warned using these gadgets could be a prelude to physical violence.

She said: "We know that stalking and coercive control are extremely dangerous and can cause huge harm to the victim, both in terms of their psychological wellbeing and the potential for escalation to physical violence or even murder.

Over 100,000 pages of confirming data regarding the above claims have been previously filed with the court in past EXHIBIT filings in this and related case matter. The evidence is voluminous and irrefutable.

WHEN THE WHITE HOUSE ORDERS ATTACKS ON CITIZENS AS POLITICAL REPRISAL

The dictionary defines a "Character Assassination Attack", ie:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Character\_assassination, as "...The state-sponsored destruction of reputations, fostered by political propaganda and cultural mechanisms, can have more far-reaching consequences. One of the earliest signs of a society's compliance to loosening the reins on the perpetration of crimes (and even massacres) with total impunity is when a government favors or directly encourages a campaign aimed at destroying the dignity and reputation of its adversaries, and the public accepts its allegations without question. The mobilisation toward ruining the reputation of adversaries is the prelude to the mobilisation of violence in order to annihilate them. Generally, official dehumanisation has preceded the physical assault of the victims."

One of Plaintiff's greatest complaints in this case is the organized use of "The Silicon Valley Cartel" RICO and Antitrust violating racketeering organization to operate a global character assassination attack on Plaintiff. The media group of the Cartel is widely known to consist of Google, Alphabet, YouTube, Gizmodo/Gawker Media, Black Cube, Twitter and the like, which are COVERTLY owned by the government figures involved in these corruption matters. To use an 8 Billion person global media Silicon Valley attack engine is to end someone's life, to permanently destroy them. The White House and the Department of Energy have been exposed in investigations doing this thousands of times!

Some online articles list an example set of the Silicon Valley Cartel members in a manner such as this:

THE TWITTER FILES: PART 1

How And Why Twitter Blocked The Hunter Biden Laptop Story

By Josh Boswell and Paul Farrell

Files showing Twitter's suppression of the Hunter Biden laptop scandal were released on the social media giant today.

The documents include internal Twitter emails appearing to show staffers censoring tweets at the behest of the Joe Biden 2020 presidential campaign.

Weeks ahead of the election in October 2020, Twitter prevented sharing of a story about Hunter's involvement with a Chinese oil giant and his then-presidential candidate father Joe Biden's potential slice of a multi-million-dollar deal with the foreign firm.

Emails between Twitter staffers show them censoring people sharing the story, including the White House Press Secretary Kayleigh McEnany, citing their hacked materials policy.

Elon Musk, the billionaire owner of Twitter, gave journalist Matt Taibbi access to the explosive documents, which he began to publish excerpts of on the social media site on Friday evening.

Twitter also allegedly used blocks in an attempt to halt the spread of the story, published in October 2020 weeks before the election, including tactics usually reserved for preventing the sharing of child porn.

Amid the scramble to limit sharing of the New York Post's Hunter story, Taibbi claimed emails showed Dorsey intervening multiple times to question the censorship.

The journalist also added that he had not seen any evidence that the federal government had a role in suppressing the story.

However, in a recent interview with Joe Rogan, Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg admitted that his company received a briefing from the FBI ahead of the 2020 election warning of disinformation campaigns.

The briefing led to Facebook being on high alert for Russian propaganda which Hunter's laptop was initially tarred as by top former intelligence officials, until DailyMail.com proved it was real.

Twitter CEO Elon Musk has promised that: What happened with the Hunter Biden story suppression by Twitter will be published on Twitter at 5pm ET!

Emails showed recommendations from the DNC to review certain tweets on the social media giant

There were requests from the Biden and Trump team, but the vast majority were shown to be from Democrats

Public policy executive Caroline Strom asked staff what was the cause for the story being blocked

Elaine from the comms global escalations team replied, claiming the story breached Twitter's hacked materials policy

Former Trust and safety chief Yoel Roth was roped into the email chain, as well as legal chief Gadde

Communications official Trenton Kennedy writes: â... Iâ... m struggling to understand the policy basis for marking this as unsafeâ...

White House spokeswoman Kaleigh McEnany was locked out of her account for tweeting about the story

Taibbi, a popular podcaster and former Rolling Stone politics correspondent, shared one October 14 2020 email from Donald Trumpâ... s campaign team to Twitter staff complaining that McEnany had been locked out of her account â... for simply talking aboutâ... the New York Post story.

Twitterâ... s public policy executive Caroline Strom forwarded the email to an â... ops analystâ... at the social media company, who wrote back that: â... the user was bounced by Site Integrity for violating our Hacked Materials policy.â...

At that time, the Biden campaign had not disputed the veracity of the material from Hunterâ... s abandoned laptop, which DailyMail.com later authenticated using top cyber forensics experts.

Taibbi wrote then-CEO Jack Dorsey was unaware of the censorship, but alleged that an executive, â... former head of legal, policy and trustâ... Vijaya Gadde, played a â... key roleâ... .

â... They just freelanced it,â... one former employee told the podcaster. â... Hacking was the excuse, but within a few hours, pretty much everyone realized that wasnâ... t going to hold. But no one had the guts to reverse it.â...

â... Everyone knew this was f***ed,â... an anonymous ex staffer reportedly told Taibbi.

Emails showed internal arguments breaking out among senior Twitter staff over the suppression of the Postâ... s story â... which included lurid details of Hunterâ... s escapades with prostitutes and hard drugs, as well as worrying evidence of potential corruption involving Ukrainian gas company Burisma and his links to Chinese firms.

Taibbi wrote then-CEO Jack Dorsey was unaware of the censorship, but alleged that an executive, â... former head of legal, policy and trustâ... Vijaya Gadde (pictured glaring at Musk when he took over), played a â... key roleâ...

Former Twitter CEO Jack Dorsey is pictured last year in Miami. He was apparently kept out of discussions over the Hunter Biden laptop story

One staffer, Trenton Kennedy, allegedly wrote: â... Iâ... m struggling to understand the policy basis for marking this as unsafe.â...

â... I think the best explainability argument for this externally would be that weâ... re waiting to understand if this story is the result of hacked materials. Weâ... ll face hard questions on this if we donâ... t have some kind of solid reasoning for marking the link unsafe.â...

Another, Katie Rosborough, shot back with a link to a Fox News article about Hunterâ... s laptop, asking:

â... will we also mark similar stories as unsafe?â...

The internal discussions showed that despite admitting â... the facts remain unclearâ... , Twitter decided on â... preventing this content from being amplified.â...

One staffer, Ian Plunkett, wrote that the site should be â... cautiously interpreting this through the lens of our hacked materials policy and allowing the link with a warning and a significant reduction of spread.â...

Even senior executives were questioning the veracity of the claims the laptop material was hacked.

Former VP of global communications Brandon Borrman, wrote: â... To Ianâ... s point, can we truthfully claim that this is part of the policy? i.e. As part of our approach to addressing potentially hacked materials, we are limiting visibility of related stories on Twitter while our investigation is ongoing.â...

The censorship even caused one Democrat Congressman Ro Khanna to write to Gadde that it was â... generating huge backlash on hill re speechâ... â... referring to concerns in Washington DC over limitations on free speech being imposed by Twitter.

â... In the heat of a Presidential campaign restricting dissemination of newspaper articles (even if NY Post is far right) seems like it will invite more backlash than it will do good,â... Khanna wrote.

Research firm NetChoice wrote to Twitterâ... s head of Public Policy Lauren Culbertson the next day on October 15 2022, warning that â... both Democrats and the Republicans were angryâ... about the suppression, according to the emails obtained by Taibbi.

NetChoice general counsel Carl Szabo told Culbertson one congressional staffer even described the debacle as â... techâ... s Access Hollywood momentâ... â... referring to a leaked tape of Donald Trump saying he grabbed married women â... by the p***y.

Among the most shocking emails is an exchange between two staffers, showing the Biden campaign were making requests for Tweets to be taken down, and Twitter was duly complying.

â... More to review from the Biden team,â... one staffer wrote on October 24, days ahead of the presidential election, listing five tweets. â... Thanks all.â...

â... Handled these,â... another replied three hours later.

Taibbi wrote that the Trump campaign had takedown requests granted too, but reported that staffers were taking far more from Bidenâ... s team.

â... By 2020, requests from connected actors to delete tweets were routine,â... he wrote. â... Celebrities and unknowns alike could be removed or reviewed at the behest of a political party.

â... Both parties had access to these tools. For instance, in 2020, requests from both the Trump White House and the Biden campaign were received and honored.

â... However: this system wasnâ... t balanced. It was based on contacts. Because Twitter was and is overwhelmingly staffed by people of one political orientation, there were more channels, more ways to complain, open to the left (well, Democrats) than the right.â...

He shared statistics from OpenSecrets, showing political donations by Twitter staff were between 96% and 99% to Democrats, with a total $909,431 given to Democrats in the 2020 election cycle and just $14,137 to Republicans by individuals linked to the company.

In the email to Culbertson, Szabo wrote that he had polled several lawmakers and their staff on the Hill, and that some Democrat lawmakers were less concerned about the First Amendment.

â... The Democrats were in agreement: social media needs to moderate more because theyâ... re corrupting democracy and making all â... truthâ... relative,â... Szabo wrote. â... When pushed on how the government might insist on that, consistent with the First Amendment, they demurred: â... the First Amendment isnâ... t absolute.â...

According to the emails, Twitter was feeling the heat from both sides of the political aisle: Republicans livid over censorship, and Democrats complaining the site â... doesnâ... t moderate enough harmful content so when it doesâ...! it becomes a story.â...

Szabo wrote that Democrat lawmakers â... complained that the companies are inept: They let conservatives muddy the water and make the Biden campaign look corrupt even though Biden is innocent.â...

â... They linked this to Hillary Clintonâ... s email scandal: she did nothing wrong but because the press wouldnâ... t let the story go, it became a scandal far out of proportion,â... Szabo added in his email to the Twitter executive.

â... In their mind, social media is doing the same thing: it doesnâ... t moderate enough harmful content so when it does, like it did yesterday, it becomes a story. If the companies moderated more, conservatives wouldnâ... t even think to use social media for disinformation, misinformation, or otherwise.â...

Muskâ... s choice to grant behind-the-scenes access to Taibbi may be interpreted as a sign of his unfavorable views of major media organizations.

The journalist has written books critical of cable news on both the right and left of the political spectrum, accusing both MSNBC and Fox of polarizing the country.

He has said he admires liberal firebrand Bernie Sanders, but also has enraged left wing activists by slamming cancel culture.

He also was critical of Twitterâ... s suppression of the Biden scandal from the beginning.

On October 24 2020, about a week after the story about Hunterâ... s abandoned laptop and its shocking contents broke, Taibbi wrote a post on his substack titled: â... With the Hunter Biden expose, suppression is a bigger scandal than the actual storyâ... .

The piece was sent by Dorsey to his head of legal Gadde, one of the Twitter internal emails shows.

In a tweet on Friday evening, Musk accused the Twitter staffers: â... If this isnâ... t a violation of the Constitutionâ... s First Amendment, what is?â...

Taibbi wrote that according to his sources, censoring tweets because they shared â... hacked materialsâ... usually required an official finding of a hack by law enforcement, but that policy was abandoned with Hunterâ... s laptop.

In an email the day after the story broke, one executive allegedly wrote to staff admitting that the New York Post and the Trump campaigns tweets had been censored, among others.

â... Twitter actioned Tweets yesterday relating to two NY Post articles that were tweeted out that allegedly included pictures and screenshots of emails from a laptop that allegedly belonged to Hunter Biden, Presidential candidate Joe Bidenâ... s son,â... the alleged internal Twitter email shared by Taibbi said.

â... Our teams made the determination that the materials fall under our Hacked Materials Policy, in addition to sharing personal information, so links were actioned. As you may know, this existing policy framework was launched in 2018 to mitigate real-time harm based on hack and leak scenarios coming out of the 2016 election.

â... I know there are questions that you probably have and are also probably getting a lot of incoming from stakeholders â... governmental, academic, civil society, etc. The last 24 hours certainly has been a whirlwind with lots of curves and unknowns and we fully expect that the issues surrounding this matter will continue to swirl in the coming days so thank you to everyone for your patience.â...

Musk had earlier promised: â... What happened with the Hunter Biden story suppression by Twitter will be published on Twitter at 5pm ET!â...

Musk sent out the tweet announcing the publishing of the report around 4:00 pm on Friday

The South African billionaire followed that up with a message reading: â... This will be awesomeâ... accompanied by a popcorn emoji.

He went on to say that the publishing will be accompanied by a live question and answer session. Itâ... s not clear who will be featured in the session.

Musk said the publication of the internal Twitter documents was â... necessary to restore public trustâ... in the site, after it deliberately prevented users from sharing links to a front-page newspaper article about Hunterâ... s private life and his controversial business ties to Ukraine in the run-up to the 2020 election between Bidenâ... s father and Donald Trump.

The New York Post first published documents and photos in October 2020 from Hunterâ... s laptop which he abandoned at a Delaware computer store a year earlier.

Sensational emails showed Hunterâ... s involvement in a multi-million deal with a Chinese oil giant, and references to Joe Biden allegedly having his own 10% stake in the deal.

They showed the then-Vice President met with Hunterâ... s foreign business partners, including an executive at Ukrainian gas firm Burisma.

The Post published excerpts of emails and photos from the laptop ahead of the 2020 election. But without authentication, they were widely dismissed as fake or â... Russian disinformationâ... , and suppressed by social media sites including Twitter and Facebook.

DailyMail.com was the first to prove that the laptop and its files were real in April 2021, using a forensic analysis by top experts who founded the FBIâ... s cyber forensics unit.

Its contents then became a trove for outlets to report on.

In a November 2020 testimony to Congress, Twitter founder Jack Dorsey said: â... We were called here today because of an enforcement decision we made against the New York Post based on a policy we created in 2018 to prevent Twitter from being used to spread hacked materials. This resulted in us blocking people from sharing a New York Post article publicly or privately.â...

He continued: â... We made a quick interpretation using no other evidence that the materials in the article were obtained through hacking, and according to our policy, we blocked them from being spread. Upon further consideration, we admitted this action was wrong and corrected it within 24 hours.â...

Elon Musk said Twitter would be releasing files on its own â... free speech suppression,â... in a tweet on Monday

On Wednesday, Yoel Roth, the former head of trust and safety at Twitter admitted that the company made a mistake when censoring the Hunter Biden laptop story.

Roth resigned in November following Musk's $44 billionaire takeover of the company. He said the authenticity of the New York Post's laptop story was difficult for the social media company to verify, and it was quickly censored in October 2020.

Speaking at an interview with journalist Kara Swisher, Roth said: "We didn't know what to believe, we didn't know what was true, there was smoke and ultimately for me, it didn't reach a place where I was comfortable removing this content from Twitter."

"But it set off every single one of my finely tuned APT28 hack and leak campaign alarm bells. Everything about it looked like a hack and leak."

Roth's comments come as Musk is set to release files on Twitter's free speech suppression, which is expected to include details on the censorship of the laptop story.

John Paul Mac Isaac, the owner of the computer store where Hunter abandoned his laptop, gave a copy of its hard drive to Donald Trump's lawyer Rudy Giuliani in September 2020.

Giuliani reportedly leaked documents and photos from the drive to the New York Post, and also gave a whole copy of the drive to Trump's former advisor Bannon and his podcast co-host Maxey.

The Post published excerpts of emails and photos from the laptop ahead of the 2020 election, but without authentication, they were widely dismissed as fake or Russian disinformation.

DailyMail.com eventually proved that the laptop and its files were real, and its contents became a trove for outlets to report on.

Roth repeatedly claimed on Wednesday that despite the alarm bells ringing, he never believed the story should've been censored.

"So it was a mistake?" Swisher asked.

"In my opinion, yes," he responded.

Elon Musk is expected to disclose the full details of Twitter's 2020 censorship of the New York Post's reporting on Hunter Biden's laptop

Twitter's former head of trust and safety noted that social media platforms were on high alert in 2020, saying that both he and Meta CEO Mark Zuckerberg were warned by the FBI about foreign propaganda and misinformation ahead of the election.

Roth is the latest to criticize the company's decision after former CEO Jack Dorsey said last year that it was a "total mistake."

"We made a total mistake with the New York Post, we corrected that within 24 hours," Dorsey said during a meeting with lawmakers. "It was not to do with the content, it had to do with a hacked materials policy, we had an incorrect interpretation."

Both Roth and Dorsey have not said who it was that ultimately oversaw the censorship of the story.

Democrats lawmakers blasted Twitter for failing to censor MORE content after New York Post Hunter Biden laptop scandal â... with lawmakers claiming â... free speech isnâ... t absoluteâ...

Elon Musk has released explosive files detailing how bosses at Twitter suppressed the New York Postâ... s factual story about Hunter Bidenâ... s laptop in the run-up to the 2020 election. A Twitter thread shared with Muskâ... s blessing by author Matt Taibbi pinned the blame on Twitterâ... s former head of legal Vijaya Gadde, who was fired shortly after Musk bought the firm last month. Taibbi says many top Twitter bosses immediately knew theyâ... d overstepped the mark in censoring the Postâ... s story, but that they did not have the â... gutsâ... to immediately reverse their decision.

â... The FBI is brokenâ... : GOP drops 1,000-page report saying Bureau is â... rotten at its coreâ... , manipulated domestic violent extremism stats for political purposes, and deliberately downplayed â... serious allegations of wrongdoingâ... from Hunter Biden

Republicans on then House Judiciary Committee released a 1,000-page report on the politicization and misconduct in the FBI. The damning file said the bureau is â... rotted at its coreâ... , manipulated domestic violent extremism statistics for political purposes and downplayed investigations and â... serious allegations of wrongdoingâ... levelled at Hunter Biden. â... The Federal Bureau of Investigation, under the stewardship of Director Christopher Wray and Attorney General Merrick Garland, is broken,â... the GOP report states. â... The problem lies not with the majority of front-line agents who serve our country, but with the FBIâ... s politicized bureaucracy.â...

Big Tech lawsuit has uncovered one of the most disturbing revelations yet about social media companiesâ... collusion with law enforcement agencies to police speech on the Internet.

Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt, one of the attorneys general that filed the lawsuit, disclosed an overview of FBI agent Elvis Chanâ... s testimony on â... weekly meetingsâ... about censoring Internet posts ahead of the 2020 election.

â... In our deposition of FBI agent Elvis Chan on Tuesday, we found that the FBI plays a big role in working with social media companies to censor speech â... from weekly meetings with social media companies ahead of the 2020 election to asks for account takedowns,â... Schmitt wrote in a Twitter thread.

â... Chan, the FBIâ... s FITF, and senior CISA officials had meetings with social media companies in the lead-up to the 2020 election, in which Chan personally told the social media companies that there could potentially be a Russian â... hack and leakâ... operation shortly before the election,â... he continued. â... Those meetings were initially quarterly, then monthly, then weekly heading into the 2020 election.â...

â... Chan stated that the FBI regularly sent social media companies lists of URLs and social media accounts that should be taken down because they were disinformation from â... malign foreign influence operationsâ... ,â... Schmitt went on. â... The FBI then inquired whether the platforms have taken down the content. On many occasions, the platforms took down the accounts flagged by the FBI.â...

Chan testified because of the agentâ... s extensive knowledge of the FBIâ... s interaction with social media companies, the judge in the case stated.

â... Chan had authority over cybersecurity issues for the FBI in the San Francisco, California region which includes the headquarters of major social-media platforms and played a critical role for the FBI in coordinating with social-media platforms related to censorship,â... Judge Terry A. Doughty wrote in his court order.

â... Even if Chan played no role in the Hunter Biden laptop communication issue, he may have knowledge of who did, and his deposition is nonetheless warranted,â...

On Friday night, Twitter released a trove of internal documentation about the social media platformâ... s coordination with Biden campaign staff and DNC officials ahead of the 2020 election. But one thing was missing, as pointed out by New York Post columnist Miranda Devine.â... Elon Musk half-delivered on his promise to tell all about Twitterâ... s censorship of The New York Postâ... s Hunter Biden laptop story before the 2020 election,â... Devine said. â... What was missing were details of specific warnings we know the FBI made to Twitter about a Russian â... hack and leak operationâ... involving Hunter during their weekly meetings with top executives of the social media giant in the days and weeks before The Post published its exclusive bombshell.â...

â... We know that FBI Supervisory Special Agent Elvis Chan testified Tuesday in a lawsuit against the Biden administration brought by Republican attorneys that he organized those weekly meetings with Twitter and Facebook in San Francisco for as many as seven Washington-based FBI agents in the run-up to the 2020 presidential election,â... she noted.

â... Taibbi said he had been shown no evidence of the collusion between the FBI and Twitter that we know occurred,â... she added.

â... Although several sources recalled hearing about a â... generalâ... warning from federal law enforcement that summer about possible foreign hacks, thereâ... s no evidence â... that Iâ... ve seen â... of any government involvement in the laptop story,â... Taibbi remarked.

But we know from Mark Zuckerbergâ... s interview with Joe Rogan, and subsequent testimony before Congress, that the FBI was deeply involved in policing information ahead of the 2020 election, especially the Hunter Biden laptop story.

â... So, we took a different path than Twitter,â... Zuckerberg said. â... I mean, basically the background here is the FBI, I think, basically came to us some, some folks on our team and was like, â... Hey just so you know, like you should be on high alert. There wasâ...! we thought that there was a lot of Russian propaganda in the 2016 election. We have it on notice that basically thereâ... s about to be some kind of dump of â... thatâ... s similar to that. So just be vigilant.â... â...

â... So our protocol is different from Twitterâ... s,â... he went on. â... What Twitter did is they said â... you canâ... t share this at all.â... We didnâ... t do that. What we do is we have â... if somethingâ... s reported to us as potentially misinformation, important misinformation, we also use this third party fact-checking program, â... cause we donâ... t want to be deciding whatâ... s true and false. And for, I think it was five or seven days when it was basically being being determined, whether it was false, the distribution on Facebook was decreased, but people were still allowed to share it. So you could still share it. You could still consume it.â...

â... Can we say the distribution is decreasedâ...! how does that work?â... Rogan asked.

â... Itâ...! basically the ranking in newsfeed was a little bit less, so fewer people saw it than wouldâ... ve otherwise,â... Zuck replied.

â... By what percentage?â...

â... I donâ... t know off the top of my head,â... Zuck answered. â... But itâ... s meaningful. But I mean, basically a lot of people were still able to share it. We got a lot of complaints that was the case. You know, obviously, this is a hyper-political issue. So, depending on what side of the political spectrum, you either think we didnâ... t censor it enough or censored it way too much. But we werenâ... t sort of as black and white about it as Twitter, we just kind of thought, â... Hey look, if the FBI â... which I still view as a legitimate institution in this country, itâ... s like very professional law enforcement â... they come to us and tell us that we need to be on guard about something.â... Then I want to take that seriously.â...

â... Did they specifically say you need to be on guard about that story?â... Rogan asked.

â... No, I donâ... t remember if it was that specifically,â... Zuckerberg said. â... Butâ...! it basically fit the pattern.â...

But Facebook wasnâ... t done doing the Democratic Party favors during the 2016 election. Multi-billionaire owner Mark Zuckerberg spent hundreds of millions on â... Zuckerberg boxesâ... that disproportionately benefited Democrats, as the Thomas More Society documented in a 2020 report.

Thus, Twitter, Facebook, and Big Tech companies like it, acted like censors for the United States government instead of private, independent companies. The actions raise serious questions about constitutional violations of Americansâ... rights, respect for freedom of the press, and 2020 election interference.

HIRED TO KILL â... THE CYBER ASSASSINS HIRED BY WHITE HOUSE STAFF

- A Report To Federal Investigators And The Public

A group of companies and individuals sell cyber assassination services designed to end peopleâ... s lives. When we spoke with California Senators Speier, Pelosi, Feinstein and Harris; their staff said that they refuse to regulate such activities because it would violate â... *Freedom Of Speech*â... . We also noticed that THEY hire these cyber assassins to attack political enemies, reporters, competitors and whistle-blowers. We asked about that conflict-of-interest. They did not respond... We then asked: â... *If it is OK for these people to engage in the attacks listed herein, (see the ATTACKERS PLAY-BOOK list; Below), are you OK with them doing all of these things to YOU for the next 5 years?*â...

They did not respond...

The attackers, (ie: The White House and Government agency staff) set-up a tentacular, layered, covert payment and command/control system in order to operate and disguise their attacks on citizens, reporters, whistle-blowers and competitors. The problem, for these â... *Bad Guys*â... in the post-2000 era, is that nothing can be hidden, any longer, because digital technology monitors everything. It is said that â... *DEEDS DONE IN THE DARK, ALWAYS COME TO LIGHT*â... and, in this case, that turns out to be quite accurate.

â... Have you ever wondered whoâ... s pulling the strings?â...

Hired cyber assassins hide in the shadows at the tip of the spear of political and market monopoly wars. ... Anything they touch is a weapon. They are government-trained to deceive, persuade, change, influence, and inspire others to their ideology. They come in many forms: from fat gamer neck-beards to attractive business suit corporate brunettes. They are everywhere that money buys vengeance.

They spy on you to manipulate your politics, ideology and intentions and to report you to bill collectors, tax collectors, investigators and political parties. The spy, on, and harm you and your company if you speak out about corruption and if your product is better than their bosses product. They help people who cheat rather than compete.

Google, Netflix, YouTube, Facebook, etc. exist to mass manipulate populations and run stock market scams for their sociopath owners. Even these big companies covertly sell their services as cyber assassins to certain buyers for huge amounts of government wire transfers. From INSIDE Google, our team saw Google manipulate the entire internet to hype up Larry Pageâ... s â... boyfriendâ... : Elon Musk and Tesla, which Google execs owned a portion of, while sabotaging Teslaâ... s competitors. Google illicitly and illegally timed these manipulations with stock market pump-and-dump efforts to exploit insider trading. That is a felony violation of RICO, Antitrust and other laws. Every single thing that Google does is contrived to harm a competitor, a politician, an employee whistle-blower or some other business adversary.

There are no â... bugsâ... , â... operator errorsâ... , â... server anomaliesâ... or other media â... accidentsâ... at Google, Facebook, Youtube, Twitter, et al

Everything Google, etc, does is contrived, at a psychological warfare kind of level, to change a social perception. Google must show its software to FBI, SEC, FTC and our search engine optimisation experts to prove that they did not engage in these crimes. The fact is: We can prove they did the crimes and FBI experts can help us prove it! Google is known as the â... Naziâ... s of the Internetâ... .

In a case unfolding in Britain over whether Google wrongly demoted price comparison rival Foundem from its search results in favour of paid-for adverts, Google must now decide which it values more: the algorithms that rank its search results, or its stance that manually fiddling with those results to promote its own paid-for products over rivalsâ... sites doesnâ... t break competition laws.

The integrity of Googleâ... s ranking processes relies upon all webmasters or website owners having the same degree of access to information about Googleâ... s rankingâ...! This will no longer be the case if information of this kind is made available to some individuals offering commercial services to assist companies to improve their Search ranking.

Google is a criminal operation. Itâ... s executives have been publicly exposed as participants in horrific sex scandals, money laundering, political bribery and racism. It is time for the bought and paid shill politicians to stop protecting them! â... Google spies on competitors and steals their technology â... Google runs tens of millions of dollars of defamation attacks against competitors â... Google hides all media and news coverage for competitors of Larry Pageâ... s boyfriend: Elon Musk â... Google lies to the public about what they really do with the publicâ... s data â...

Google promotes illegal immigration in order to get cheap labor and control votes â... Google runs VC funding back-lists against start-ups that are competitive â... Google bribes thousands of politicians â... Google is a criminal RICO-violating monopoly â... Google rigs the stock market with Flash-boy, Pump/Dump and Microblast SEC violating computer tricks â... Google pays bribes to politicians in Google and YouTube stock â... Google manipulates who gets to see what web-sites, globally, for competitor black-lists â... Google has a â... no poachingâ... Silicon Valley jobs blacklist â...

Google bosses sexually abuse women and young boys â... Google bosses run sex trafficking operations in the Epstein and NXVIUM cults â... Google bosses control the NVCA financing cartel over start-ups â... Google has placed the majority of the corporate staff in at least one White House â... Google controls national elections for anti-competitive purposes â... The company â... Polyhopâ... , in the HOUSE OF CARDS tv show, does all the crimes that Google actually does in reality â... Googleâ... s law firms, like Wilson Sonsini, are corrupt conduits for payola and political conduit-relays â...

Google bribes some politicians with revolving door jobs â... Google is primarily responsible for destroying the Bay Area Housing opportunities â... Google runs DDoS attacks on competitors by massively crawling their sites â... Google boss Andy Rubin runs a sex slave farm according to his own family â... Google boss Eric Schmidt was a philandering sex-penthouse owner according to vast news articles â... Google executives hire so many hookers that one of them, Mr. Hayes, was killed by his hooker â...

Google executives sexually abuse so many women that the women staff of Google walked out one day â... In the 2009 White House, you could not swing a cat without hitting a Google insider â... Google has paid covert bribes, PAC funds, real estate and search rigging payola to every CA Senator â... Google has paid bribes, through its lobby fronts, to halt FBI, SEC, FEC and FTC investigations of Google crimes â... Google was funded by the CIA, via In-Q-Tel, a so called â... 501 c3 charityâ... which was caught with tons of cocaine â... Google gets millions of dollars of taxpayer cash for spying on Americans inside the USA â... Googleâ... s map service was a spy system paid for by taxpayers money that Google now profits off of â...

Nancy Pelosi and Dianne Feinstein have promised to â... protectâ... Google because their families profit off Google stocks â... Payment receipts prove that Google and Gawker/Gizmodo exchanged cash and staff for Character Assassination attacks â... Google VCâ... s and bosses have spent $30M+ rigging the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google and harm Google competitors â...

Google bribed itâ... s lawyer into position as head of the U.S. Patent office in order to have her protect Google â... To rig insider stock trades, Google hides negative Tesla stories and pumps positive Tesla stories on â... push daysâ... â... Google and Elon Musk Co-own, co-invest and co-market stocks covertly while running anti-trust schemes â... Google rarely likes, or hires, black employees per federal and news media investigations â... Google hired most of the Washington, DC K Street lobby firms and told them to â... do what ever they couldâ... â... The film: â... Miss Sloaneâ... depicts only 2% of the illicit lobbying tactics Google employs daily â...

Demands for an FTC and FBI raid of Google, for criminal activity, securities law and election felonies have been filed â... Googleâ... s David Drummond had his Woodside, CA Quail Road house bugged revealing sex and financial misdeeds â... Google, and itâ... s Cartel (Alphabet, Youtube, and hundreds of other shell-company facades) are a criminal organization engaged in felony-class crimes. Googleâ... s bosses bribe politicians, regulators and law enforcement officials to hold off prosecution.

At Google: Kent Walker, Andy Rubin, Larry Page, Eric Schmidt, Sergy Brin, Jared Cohen, Yasmin Green, David Drummond and Ian Fette are so enmeshed in sex scandals, election manipulation, and White House bribes that it is hard to comprehend how they can get any legitimate work done. Google executives came from most of the fraternity houses involved in the college rape scandals. Google sells covert character assassination services to politicians and fellow oligarchs. Youtube/Google/Alphabet/Deep State are all the same entity. They conspire to hide news about their corruption and they control most of the internet.

There are hundreds of millions of people in America. The same 120 of them are all involved in operating the same crimes and corruption including: the Sony Pictures corruption; the Afghanistan rare earth mine scandals operated through The Energy Department political slush fund that involves the lithium battery cover-ups (headed by Elon Musk); the Big Tech Brotopia rape, sex trafficking, bribery, exclusionism, racism and misogyny issues they were taught at Stanford University; The Facebook â... Meta â... Google â... Alphabet â... Netflix, et al, coordinated news manipulation and domestic spying that they engage in; the hiring of Fusion GPS â... Black Cube â... Gizmodo/Gawker assassins; the destruction of the housing market by their mass real estate manipulations; patent theft and industrial espionage; and the bribery of almost every politician all the way up to the Oval Office.

So, while the categories covered in this investigation may seem diverse. They are connected through an enterprise of criminality and illicit, coordinated operations. We list, by name, the 120 most complicit individuals organizing these crimes, in the evidence documents already submitted to the FBI, FINCEN, DOJ, FTC, SEC, FEC, Congress, InterPol and other authorities. Digital financial tracking of those persons and all of their family members should be assumed to have been under way for some time. Wire-taps and device taps of those persons and all of their family members should be assumed to have been under way for some time.

Twitter, Splunk, Google, Facebook, Netflix, YouTube and the Silicon Valley internet Cartel serve you custom manipulated content by automatically creating a covert digital dossier on you reflecting the content consumption preferences they have spied on about you. They continually evolve their dossier on you in order to steer you towards their ideology and their Democrat political party. At these companies, â... data miningâ... , â... machine learningâ... and â... AIâ... means computerized propaganda processing for certain political entities. They began hiring off-shore people (because they would work so cheap) but most of those people turned out to be Muslim. This created conflicts with the entire southern part of the United States (which is anti-Muslim) because those workers steered content to pro-Muslim positions.

Their spy dossier on you uses abstract content-specific features of the consumed content, such as categories, topic models, and entities, which they automatically extract using natural language processing by comparing every word you use to a giant computer library of what those words might mean about your psychology. So itâ... s like you are getting â... mind-rapedâ... without any penis use. Their assessment of what your words might mean is based on what rich, white male, $200K/year, DNC-promoting programmers think they might mean. Their computers scale and expand their tools with algorithmic software created by those politically and socially biased frat white boys that wrote the code. It is all biased as hell. They never hire blacks or women in system creation roles so everything these companies do only supports rich white soyboy snowflake type gamer thinking.

Because the White House told them to spy on billions of people, even for these web giants, it is impractical to store the entire dynamic history of a userâ... s interaction features. They, thus, out of greed, use algorithms that selectively decay information in order to generalize users and populations. To them, you are just a generalized data point, like cattle on a ranch, to be harvested and fed upon by Silicon Valley.

These cyber assassin attackers are often fired CIA staffers and disgruntled and naive news bloggers from Gawker, BuzzFeed, etc. They conduct influence activities to target psychological vulnerabilities and create or intensify fissures, confusion, and doubt in adversaries.

They use all available means of dissemination â... from sensitive and high tech, to low-tech, to no-tech, and methods from overt, to clandestine, to deception.

These PSYOPS attackers are trained to confuse, mislead, redirect, and occupy your mind with thoughts that a targeted candidate, reporter or whistle-blower is â... badâ... or to be shunned.

They are ghosts in the machine, watching and warping everything to trick you into hating someone that might tell the truth about them, or their bosses,

A site known as The Vigilant Citizen suggests believes their intent may be darker, and possibly related to the occult. These allusions to magic are not merely figurative. PSYOPS extensively researched occult and supernatural phenomena such as ESP (extra-sensory perception) and remote viewing,â... Vigilant Citizen reports. â... There was always a â... magicalâ... , supernatural element to PSYOPS. The 4th Psychological Operations Group has a Task & Purpose report which is a master class in psychological warfare. A big part of the attackers psychological operations is creating persuasive fake news media. One wonders who Americans should be most afraid of: foreign powers or their own government.

Law enforcement agencies, intelligence agencies and private investigators have identified these attackers complicit in this matter.

Figure 3: THERE ARE TENS OF THOUSANDS OF BANK, SEC, FINCEN, IRS AND OTHER RECORDS PROVING THE CASH MOVING THROUGH THESE EFFORTS WAS HUGE AND CAME FROM GOVERNMENT CONTACTS

Figure 5: ONE ATTACKER PAYMENT SCHEME HAD OVER 980 PASS POINTS VIA SHELLS, TRUSTS AND MONEY DROPS

While the thousands of graphics, that forensic investigators have acquired, provide a good visual tale of the crimes, corruption and attacks, the following text description of an FBI-level investigation is even more shocking. It is important to keep in mind that U.S. Government officials faxed, emailed, U.S. mailed and delivered the character assassination materials to their targetâs employers, family, friends, associates, fiance and others, in order to maximize the harm to the targeted citizens.

All of the attackers got paid cash, stock perks, job advancements and other compensation. Here are some of the ways they hid the compensation transfers:

- â Based on publicly available FEC records, repeatedly throughout the 2016 presidential campaign, HVF would purportedly transfer funds to its constituent political committees, which included between 34 and 40 state parties,â the complaint states. â On the very same day each of these transfers supposedly occurred, or occasionally the very next day, every single one of those state parties purportedly contributed all of those funds to the DNC.â

- In New York City, No. 9 East 71st Street is a well-known sex mansion used to pay off politicians and operatives via sex favors

- On Nov. 8, Craig B. Hulet, a well known and highly respected analyst on government policy, terrorism, and international relations, spoke on Coast to Coast AM regarding the growing scandal involving a lawsuit against the Federal Reserve, major banks, and many members of the Bush and Obama administrations. During his one hour interview, Hulet offered the assessment that many members of the Obama cabinet, including Hillary Clinton, Timothy Geithner, and Eric Holder, were resigning their offices due to their potential roles in the TARP money laundering lawsuit.

- Attorney General Jeff Sessions encouraged the DOJ to reopen the Uranium One case. This indictment may be a byproduct of their investigation into the Clinton Foundation and Russia. Fitton doesnât think itâs coincidental that the DOJ under Obama was â hiding this in plain sight from the American peopleâ, and certainly hiding â key elementsâ from congress. Then the DOJ under â Jeff Sessions responds by saying weâre going to take another look at this. Thereâs a new indictment to follow up on the indictment that is already out there, or a convictionâ from 2015.â According to Fitton, this is a follow-up investigation that started in Little Rock Arkansas. Both the FBI and the Attorney General are looking into pay to play allegations on the part of the Clinton Foundation. â One would hope Uranium One is part of it.â He claims there were tens of millions of dollars that were laundered by the Russians through the Clinton Foundation.

- The Committee to Defend the President, a political action committee, filed its complaint with the FEC on Monday with the allegations that the Hillary Victory Fund (HVF) solicited cash from big-name donors, including Calvin Klein and â Family Guyâ creator Seth MacFarlane -- money that was allegedly sent through state chapters and back to the DNC before ending up with the Clinton campaign.

- The FBI and FINCEN found that attacker David Brock, a professional cyber attacker and media assassin, has 7 non-profits, 3 Super PACs, one 527-committee, one LLC, one joint fundraising committee, and one unregistered solicitor crammed into his office in Washington DC.

Uncovered records expose a constant flow of money between these organizations. The Bonner Group, his professional solicitor, works off a commission. Every time money gets passed around, Bonner receives a 12.5% cut. It appears that Brock has been passing around donations quite a bit, giving The Bonner Group a handout each time. In 2014, Media Matters for America raised $10,021,188. The Bonner Group was credited for raising these funds. Media Matters paid them a $1,147,882 commission. That same year, Media Matters gave a $930,000 cash grant to David Brockâ... s Franklin Education Forum, an organization that shares office space with Media Matters. In 2014, the Franklin Education Forum reported $994,000 in total contributions. 93.6% of that total came from Media Matters! Surprisingly, though, the Franklin Education Forum gave full credit to Bonner for raising that money. They paid the fundraiser a $124,250 commission in 2014! As all of these groups exist within Brockâ... s DC office, it would be difficult for him to claim he had no idea this was going on. The report continues: Furthermore, the New York Times reports that David Brock shares a summer rental in the Hamptons with Mary Pat Bonner, the President of the Bonner Group!

The above quoted sections of investigations are not the exception but, rather, the rule in money-laundering and covert payola to attackers. We have over 200,000.. let me repeat, OVER TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND OTHER EXAMPLES OF THESE ILLICIT PAYMENT SCHEMES TO POLITICAL AND ANTI-COMPETITION ATTACKERS FINANCED, SUPPORTED, ENABLED AND OPERATED BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT! These payments occur in government offices DAILY! Government officials do not halt these methods, stop stock ownership by politicians, or delay this money laundering because THEY PROFIT FROM IT. That is WRONG, ILLICIT, CRIMINAL and a VIOLATION OF THE BASIC PRECEPTS of AMERICA!

A lifetime analysis of the published work, payments and who paid them, often via covert payment routes, conducted at an FBI-level of research, reveals some pretty interesting illicit and overt connections between all of them.

THE NAMES OF THE ATTACKERS

These are the people that the tech oligarchs, The White House and U.S. Senators hire to end your life if you report their crimes. It should be against the law for these cyber assassination kill services to even exist, but Congress won't outlaw them because Senators use them every day. If they can do the things they do, to you, then it must be legal to do the same things back to them. While they spend millions of dollars and get paid millions of dollars to destroy you, the average person only has a fraction of that money, if any at all, to fight back with. Since they are hired to destroy you, you have every right to destroy them...as long as you do it legally and in the most creative and insidious ways possible. In payback for accepting compensation for trying to destroy you and your family, they must be hunted and tracked for the rest of their lives! Criminal referrals and RICO charges appear to have been filed against every party on this list:

Congressional and FEC investigators have a big question here. The big question is: If the people, above, are manipulating public elections with information trickery: IS THAT TREASON?

Because almost every one of them coordinated to attack others and their businesses, they broke the RICO Racketeering and anti-trust laws in America! In an FBI interview, it is believed that every person on this list would be implicated in charges when asked, under oath: "ARE YOU, OR HAVE YOU EVER HIRED, A CYBER ATTACKER?"

These were not just â... some peopleâ... who wrote something mean on a Facebook post. They had exclusive publishing resources on a national and global network that they systematically, and in a highly coordinated manner, operated on in exchange for compensation, to harm and attack specific targets that they were instructed to harm.

More names will be forthcoming as investigators complete their reviews.

ATTACKERS Daniel Jones, Michael Sussmann, Nicholas Guido Denton, John Herrman, Adrian Covert, Media Matters, John Cook, Ian Fette, Gabrielle Darbyshire, Patrick George, Eric Schmidt, Jay Carney and David Axelrod have already been placed under federal surveillance for some time. TARGET will request their case records from the FBI, FINCEN, Interpol, The NSA, The IRS, their banking and stock market accounts, and other sources, which will prove the assertions about their attacks, who hired them and the top-level command-and-control authority over their actions.

THE REPRISAL ATTACK TOOLS USED ON AMERICAN CITIZENS â... THE ATTACKERS PLAY-BOOK:

HARM #1: MANIPULATION AND BLOCKADE OF TARGET's EARNED GOVERNMENT FUNDS

In a typical reprisal case a Plaintiff (also known as a â... TARGETâ... ) applied for government SSDI and a HUD home certificate. SSA stated that all of TARGETâ... s disabling conditions existed but that TARGET must confirm they will last more than a year. TARGET's SSDI and HUD certificate were blockaded by Pelosi and Feinstein in reprisal for TARGET helping law enforcement on anti-corruption investigations that involved Pelosi, Feinstein and their political financial backers.

California Senators, all of whom have vast documented court and news report records of hiring attackers from spy agencies for reprisal attacks on whistle-blowers, used their resources to stop all funding in the TARGETâ... s SSDI funding as reprisal for whistle-blowing. They got SSA to say that TARGET WAS permanently disabled, but that because he could not work, he lost his SSA credits waiting the one year and one day that SSA required to prove that his disabilities would last longer than a year. Dianne Feinstein's own staff and family, who had cohabitated with TARGET, confessed to these â... dirty-tricksâ... actions as reprisal for TARGETâ... s testimony accidentally cutting off $120 million+ of potential profit the family expected. Her staff have been exposed by CIA staff as â... the masters of dirty tricks reprisals...even as good as the ones we (THE CIA) pull off..â...

Another time, a TARGET applied for his HUD Mortgage coupon. He was forced to wait 15+ years and he still has not received it after over 100 inquiries as to the status. City and County officials have stated that they have â... never seen it take so longâ... . According to all experts, the only way it could have been stone-walled this long is if a public official (ie Feinstein, Pelosi, Harris...) had ordered it slow-walked as part of the political reprisal attacks on TARGET. Three different counties have checked on this and said that TARGET's records â... went missingâ... in a Lois Lerner type of error set.

The cut-off of TARGETâ... s finances and benefits coincides, exactly, with his whistle-blower testimony AND to the reprisal threats and promises by THE ONLY PEOPLE IN THE WORLD capable of accomplishing such state-sponsored attacks. The ATTACKERS were the only entity with the means, the motivation and the proven history of such actions on a regular historical basis.

Feinsteinâ... s current and former staff members (See the Dossier on Daniel Jones) (See the fact that TARGET lived with, dined with and partied with her family and senior staff) have stated that the Feinstein and Pelosi offices commonly order citizens government funding to be cut off as political reprisal. The White House does it almost every other day. In this case they did it to TARGET at least three times.

TARGET, had an industry standard pay rate of $10,000.00 per month, based on Salary.com, his high highest recorded salary and accomplishment records in Silicon Valley contrasted with the salaries of less experienced executives at Google, Facebook, Netflix and Tesla. The U.S. Government states, via all of its agencies, that the minimum survivable cost-of-living in the Bay Area is $3200.00 per month. By intentional actions of government officers, in reprisal, TARGET's income was reduced to $300.00 per month for most of the past decades. Two SSA officials confessed to assisting in hit jobs on him including Mario U from the San Mateo SSA office and an official who worked at the San Francisco SSA office and who then went to work for a Senator who assisted in the attacks on TARGET. When asked for TARGETâ... s medical records SSA sent a huge number of medical records for two strange women in massive violation of federal medical privacy rights. The SSA Inspector General has shown TARGET thousands of cases of politicians using SSA for political reprisal punishments. FBI IT experts and â... Black Hatâ... hackers can hack into every SSA server in minutes and change records, files and decisions. Rahm Emanuel, Nancy Pelosi and Dianne Feinstein can do it with a single phone call. It should be noted by the Court that EVERY background check file in AMERICA was hacked and stolen by China within a few hours and that every hacking tool of the NSA and CIA was hacked by Russia and posted on the internet. It is IMPOSSIBLE for anyone to ever assert that â... nobody can hack SSAâ... . That would be a remarkable lie. In fact, TARGET has agency confirmation that 95% of the Silicon Valley oligarchs entire family tax records, stock accounts, political payments and payola and pretty much everything that would destroy them, has been hacked and is in the hands of ICIJ (Panama Papers investigators), Propublica, FINCEN and pretty much everybody they would not want to have it.

The TARGET has demanded that the Court order SSA to award TARGET his full SSDI backpay from up to today, with interest, based on the fact that SSA was used to harm Plaintiff as a reprisal tool. The Inspector General has proven this happens regularly and hundreds of other whistle-blowers are prepared to confirm this fact.

HARM #2: THREATS OF DEATH AND ACTUAL MURDERS OF PEERS

One TARGET has actually been attacked as enumerated below and has active cases with SFPD, FBI, OSC and other agencies. Twice TARGET's car was rammed. The first time the attacker performed a PIT maneuver, flipping TARGET's car onto the concrete median wall on the Freeway, causing massive damage. The attacker sped away. A car next rammed TARGET's parked car in front of his home and, at the same location, a man tried to drive his car through the fence into TARGET's cottage. Two other times, strangers pulled up along TARGET, pointed at him and yelled â... *you are dead*â... . TARGET has received threats by email and voicemail and had dead animals tossed over his fence. Further proving the at-risk claims of TARGET.

TARGET, and his peers, had contact with the following persons in the corruption case: Rajeev Motwani; Gary D. Conley; Seth Rich; Philip Haney; David Bird; Doug Bourn; Misti Epstein; Joshua Brown; Kenneth Bellando; Moritz Erhardt; Imran Aliev; Kate Matrosova; David Drye; Vincent Foster; Kathy Ferguson; Duane Garrett; Eric S. Fox; Judi Gibbs; Berta Caceres; Suzanne Coleman; L.J. Davis; John Hillyer; Stanley Huggins; Sandy Hume; Shawn Lucas; Gary Johnson; John Jones; John F. Kennedy, Jr.; Stephen Ivens; Mary 'Caitly' Mahoney; Eric Butera; Danny Casolara; John Ashe; Tony Moser; Larry Nichols; Joseph Rago; Ron Brown; Bob Simon; Don Adams; Peter Smith; Victor Thorn; Lori Klausutis; Gareth Williams; Daphne Caruana Galizia; James D Johnston; Dave Goldberg; Loretta Fuddy; Paul Wilcher; Gary Webb; Beranton J. Whisenant Jr; Stanley Meyer; Jon Parnell Walker; Tyler Drumheller; Barnaby Jack; Dominic Di-Natale; Barbara Wise; Ilya Zhitomirskiy; Jeff Joe Black; Robin Copeland; John Wheeler; Ashley Turton; Michael Hastings; Antonin Scalia; David Koschman; David Werner; Alex Okrent; Kam Kuwata; Larry Frankel; And hundreds more connected to this case who suddenly, and strangely, turned up dead in this case and, ironically, their deaths all benefit the suspects in this caseâ...! Rajeev Motwani taught Google how to Google. Suddenly, in perfect health, he was found floating face-down, dead, in his Silicon Valley swimming pool. It helps certain people that he can no longer talk. Gary D. Conley was the CleanTech competitor to, and whistle-blower on, the suspects. He was suddenly found with a bullet in his head behind Beale Air Force base. It helps certain people that he can no longer talk. He TOLD TARGET that someone from Google was going to kill him. Google programmer Forrest Hayes, who worked on Google search engine rigging, was suddenly found dead with the story that â... he was overdosed by a Google hooker on his sex yachtâ... . Google associate and Tesla Investments founder Ravi Kumar was also killed by his hooker. Deep Google investor VC liason and husband of Facebook executive Cheryl Sandberg was suddenly found dead with a hole in his head. The â... officialâ... story is that he was the first person in history to be killed by his treadmill. David Bird was the Wall Street Journal energy reporter who was working on a story that involved Cleantech energy connections of some of the suspects. He was working on a story about who controlled the modern energy industry and cleantech. He went for a walk and was found a long time later, dead, floating in a pond. It helps certain people that he can no longer talk. One Mr. Breitbart was a famous blogger, who railed on the web about the political manipulations of the suspects. Suddenly, he had a "heart attack" in his shower and died. It helps certain people that he can no longer talk on the blogs. Mr. Karl Slym, with Tata Motors was involved in a car deal with some of the suspects for one of the biggest Indian auto-makers. Suddenly he was a stain on the sidewalk, accomplished by his fall from the top of a skyscraper hotel. It helps certain people that he can no longer talk. Doug Bourn, The senior electrical engineer at Tesla (Google's covert partner), Andrew Ingram of Palo Alto, a top systems electrical engineer at Tesla; and Brian M. Finn the senior manager of interactive electronics, at Tesla, had deep knowledge of financial misdeeds and technical cover-ups at Tesla Motors. They were key parts of the Tesla operation. For some reason, they all got into a private airplane, in perfect health, and then the airplane plowed into the ground, killing all three at once. It helps certain people that they can no longer talk. They wrote, and helped describe, in Tesla's own federal patent filings, the fact that Tesla's batteries would kill you, maim you and/or burn your house down. Tesla did not realize this when they paid the federal patent filing fees. When Tesla, later realized this, they were forced to give all of their patents away for free. These three senior engineers had deep inside knowledge of the Tesla Motors operations. Their aircraft suffered an "Engineering failure". This case involves potential crimes by two Presidents of The United States, their staffs, U.S. Senators and the Silicon Valley oligarchs that financed and controlled them, two wars and trillions of dollars of manipulated U.S. Treasury monies and stock market monies. How could anyone think this was NOT a life-endangering situation for the TARGET?

HARM #3: THE GOVERNMENT DEFRAUDED A TARGET OVER AND OVER:

Government agency bosses solicited a TARGET with false promises of future loans, carbon credit sales, billions of dollars of stock market valuation profits, contracts and/or grants from their agencies and caused the TARGET and his associates to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for projects which those government bosses had covertly promised to their friends. They used TARGET's nice guy brand as a smokescreen to cover their illegal government slush-funds for TARGET's competitors and personal enemies who were OWNED by government officials. By using this tactic, the attackers drained the TARGET's funds and forced TARGET into an economic disaster, without the government bosses fearing any reprisal for their scam. The crony insiders made hundreds of billions of dollars in profit in the notorious Solyndra-type scandals as seen in the CBS 60 Minutes episode: The Cleantech Crash, thousands of TV news segments and the related GAO and Congressional corruption reports.

HARM #4: THE PLACING OF MOLES AND SPYING ON TARGET:

White House financier Kleiner Perkins placed moles inside of TARGET's companies in order to sabotage, delay and misdirect operations. The moles were discovered to be staff of Kleiner Perkins. The main offices of Kleiner Perkins were broken into, per San Mateo County police reports, and records of corruption copied or duplicated by a state-sponsored intelligence agency entity, which provided further proof that Kleiner Perkins and the White House were exchanging Quid Pro Quo. Tom Perkins, one of the founders of Kleiner Perkins told TARGET that he was on a government hit-list for exposure of the corruption of Silicon Valley titans and government executives. John Doerr, another partner, told one TARGET at a VC conference, that he will make sure the government kills off any effort to support fuel cells (which compete with his and Elon Musk's lithium batteries)

HARM #5: BLOCKADES OF TARGET'S ACCESS TO LEGAL COUNSEL:

The hired cyber assassins used every trick in the book to keep Targets from gaining equitable legal justice or representation because exposure of The ATTACKERS crimes would shame them. Government officials and the federal agency: Legal Services Corporation (LSC corporation -A federal agency dedicated to providing legal services to citizens) blockaded TARGET's rights to legal representation in order to prevent TARGET's from personally suing the attackers because such a lawsuit would have embarrassed corrupt public officials. High tech law firms that were discussing a services agreement with TARGET's were threatened and ordered to not help TARGET's or ... they would be black-listed or be cut-off from tens of millions of dollars of Google, Netflix, Facebook and government contracts... Individual lawyers were threatened with black-listing and getting ... flooded with more filings than you could ever respond to in your life-time... LSC officials, who were almost entirely Obama Administration associates, refused to assist with lawyer referrals. That is a violation of their federal contract with The U.S. Government. Every other possible lawyer had either 1.) been threatened, by the attackers, from representing the Plaintiff, 2.) contracted by the attackers so that they were conflicted from representing the Plaintiff, 3.), or intimidated by the attackers in one of many ways.

HARM #6: HIRED CHARACTER ASSASSINATION AND DEFAMATION SERVICES THAT The ATTACKERS USED TO DESTROY TARGET'S LIFE

In one case the attackers purchased over $30 Million dollars of attacks against the TARGET with Media Matters, The Gawker/Gizmodo Tabloid empire and Google. It was equal in scope and cost the amount of money Bloomberg spent IN ONE WEEK to attack Presidential candidate Trump. A sophisticated animated attack film was produced by Google/YouTube and Nicholas Denton attacking TARGET's. An animated film is an expensive effort involving considerable time and expense. An attacker must be well financed to undertake such an effort. The film was published on YouTube and locked onto the very top search result line on every YouTube search in front of 7.5 billion internet users for over a decade. The damage to TARGET's reputation is estimated in the tens of millions of dollars. YouTube steadfastly refused to remove or adjust the search results even though YouTube executives knew TARGET personally and knew that the video represented a character assassination attempt against TARGET. YouTube owners finance the political campaigns of the public officials who ordered the attacks. While Google/YouTube stated to Congress that all of its search results are arbitrary, the never-moving search result of this attack video proved that Google's and YouTube's search results are manually manipulated by human maintained black-lists. The corrupt officials hired Nicholas Guido Denton and his character-assassination-for-hire sleazy tabloid publication empire known as Gawker Media AKA Gizmodo Media. They own Gawker, Gizmodo, Jalopnik and a number of fake news sites based in the USA and near-Russian regions. The offshore sites are used for money laundering and tax evasion. The FBI has been asked to interview and financially trace the payments and command-and-control orders back and forth between Nicholas Guido Denton and his attacker/operatives: Ian Fette, Adrian Covert, Nick Cook, Gabrielle Darbyshire, John Hermann, Patrick George, et al and Google. Forensic data proves that the attackers transferred payments and communications between each other to conspire, operate, produce and publish the articles, videos, blogs and server manipulations for the attacks against their victims around the world. These attacks resulted in billions of dollars of damages to the victims. The orders for these attacks can be traced back to The White House. This ended the TARGET's lives but created an enemy for the attackers that has lots of investigator contacts and nothing to lose. Silicon Valley has caused the deaths of more children than any other entities. Harassment is harassment - whether it happens at school, at the playground, on the job, or on the internet. But online bullying is downplayed. Victims are stigmatized, mocked as oversensitive snowflakes who can't take a joke. Plenty of people are unwilling to accept that victims can be seriously hurt by this behavior. Internet harassment is not only real and damaging, it represents a threat to the most vulnerable among us: children. The attacker's Cyberbullying statistics show the high cost of online harassment. From increased depression and suicide rates to social anxiety and alienation, the pain and consequences of online harassment are as severe as they are undeniable. Imagine every new friend, potential date, your fiancée, your bank, anybody.. typing your name on the internet and seeing that Google says that you are a scumbag. Nobody will ever talk to you, hire you or help you ever again. Google, Gawker and Gizmodo are now known to partner together on character assassination efforts. One of their bloggers hired to kill TARGET even advertises himself on Facebook, globally, as an assassin-for-hire. TARGET has acquired the banking records of these Co-conspirators showing that they, and the U.S. government wired millions and millions of dollars between each other for these spy agency dirty tricks hit jobs.

Google knew one TARGET personally. The TARGET went to school and events with the founders. It was a lie for Google and YouTube to say over-and-over that they never heard of TARGET so they can't remove the attacks because it is just how their algorithm works. The founder's teacher: Rajeev Motwani, revealed to TARGET that Google manually sets all of their key search results BY HAND. Rajeev died ~~was murdered~~ for telling the truth about Google's insidious plans and internet manipulations. Investigators suspect shell fish toxin or a reverse taser-like electronic heart-attack inducing defibrillator device was used to kill him.

TARGET's charges proved that Google manually rigs search results based on cronyism and that Google/YouTube lied to Congress about not doing so. This allowed TARGET to drive U.S. agencies and State AG's to sue Google/Alphabet/Youtube for being lying, manipulate, society-abusing, child-killing, monopolistic monsters. Even though the Google/Gawker/Gizmodo produced and hosted attack articles and animated videos were completely discredited as a character assassination hatchet job paid for by politicians; by every known expert, The ATTACKERS still post them on their servers with hidden P8 codes covertly embedded in the search engines to trick the public, in front of 7 billion internet readers as payback, in order to operate their reprisal attacks. No other servers or publishers in the world host and lock this attack media on their search results EXCEPT The ATTACKERS MEDIA COMPANIES. This ALONE would seem to prove that The ATTACKERS did the harms that they are charged with doing as The ATTACKERS are the only ones running, hosting and operating the attacks on TARGET on all of Earth!

TARGET has, over and over, demanded that the FBI, POLICE, FINCEN and other enforcement investigators reveal what they discovered when they traced the compensation routes and command-and-control management of these attackers. TARGET demands that this Court order the FBI, FINCEN and the NSA to reveal those compensation path records on the attackers from their investigations.

One might wonder why it has been so hard to get this information from the authorities. If the FBI reveals that the path-of-compensation goes from Adrian Covert, Nicholas Guido Denton and John Herrman right to the Oval Office in the White House, then the question is asked and answered. White House staff members Jay Carney, David Axelrod and Robert Gibbs have said maybe. White House staff insider Jofi Joseph has said without a doubt. Rahm Emanuel's White House staff say that, while in the White House, Rahm ordered all kinds of hit-jobs on whistle-blowers.

Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media have engaged in the origination of, production of and global broadcast of compensated character assassination videos and articles as a reprisal-service-for-hire (like Fusion GPS, Black Cube, Black Water and other related services) because we were FBI and GAO witnesses against Gawker and Gizmodo financiers. As 1.) the only publishing group on Earth to have engaged in such attacks and 2.) since the attacks were financed by complainants business competitors and 3.) since adversaries own staff have admitted to the scheme and 4.) since communications, FBI records and previous litigation records prove complainants assertions, complainants are justified in their demands.

The attacks and broadcast of multiple defamation attack articles and videos by Gawker Media, Google, YouTube and Gizmodo Media has been operating as recently as this today, thus the statutes of limitations are not exceeded. Well known U.S. government political figures and political financiers hired Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media and â... Nickâ... Denton to undertake these ongoing attacks and to manipulate web servers to operate those attacks globally and permanently. The attackers hired Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, â... Nick Guido Dentonâ... , Univision/Unimoda, Google and YouTube (essentially all the same people) to engage in reprisals because of the TARGETâ... s testimony against the Cartel in federal investigations and because the TARGET had superior technologies that the attackers could not compete with. Transaction documents showing payments between the â... bad guysâ... in this case, were recently uncovered in other court cases.

Defendant adversaries produced a series of videos and defamation articles and used internet server technology tricks to place those attack materials in front of 7.5+ billion people day after day, year after year, refreshing the attack daily. This is, essentially, a â... hit-jobâ... service that Univision provides as a side gig through itâ... s TV networks and itâ... s offensive tabloid brands of: Gizmodo, Jalopnik, Jezebel, Gawker and other Univision/Unimoda assets along with itâ... s partnership with Google for the operation of such attacks. â... Univision uses this service as a political-payback tool for politicians as well as an anti-trust violating anti-competition tool for its clientsâ... , claim TARGET's. The TARGET's are informed and believe and, based on that information and belief, allege that the named The ATTACKERS herein and each of the parties designated as a â... DOEâ... and every one of them, are legally responsible jointly and severally for the Federal RICO Statute violating events and happenings referred to in the within Complaint for Intentional Interference with Contractual Relations, Intentional Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage, Cyberstalking, Fraud, Invasion of Privacy, Unfair Competition and Theft of Intellectual Property and RICO statute violations. In particular, The ATTACKERS took compensation for, and engaged in, malicious and coordinated tactics to seek to destroy, damage, harm and ruin TARGET's via an illicit media â... hit-jobâ... service which The ATTACKERS regularly offered in covert commerce and engaged in regularly against targets that The ATTACKERS were hired to seek to ruin as part of reprisal, vendetta, retribution programs operated for business and political competitors of the targets. Historical facts and other history-making lawsuits by third parties, has proven The ATTACKERS to be the single largest core violator of human rights, in this manner, in the world. The ATTACKERS offer the service of creating and publishing contrived â... hatchet jobâ... movies, fake news articles, faked comments and repercussion backlinks describing the TARGET's in horrific descriptors. The ATTACKERS media holdings manipulate national elections.

Letâ... s be clear on this: TARGET does swear, warrant and certify that Google, Facebook, YouTube, The Elon Musk Group, Twitter and Linkedin plan and operate the conscious and manual manipulation of national American elections and international elections.

The attack material is reposted, â... impression acceleratedâ... , â... click-farm fertilizedâ... and Streisand array cloned over-and-over by The ATTACKERS massive character assassination technology via servers, algorithms and technical internet manipulation, daily, as recently as yesterday. The ATTACKERS also embed the article in job hiring databases on Axiom, Palantir, Taleo and other databases used by all hiring and recruiting services in order to prevent TARGET's from ever receiving income for W2 or 1099 work ever again. The ATTACKERS own staff then post thousands of fake comments, below each attack item, under fake names, designed to make it appear as if a broad consensus of the public agreed with the defamation messages by The ATTACKERS. Almost all of the fake comments were created by a handful of The ATTACKERS own staff pretending to be a variety of outside voices. The ATTACKERS provide the service of delivering â... weaponized text and media to corporate clientsâ... . The ATTACKERS replicated various versions of these attack items across all of their different brands and facade front publications and addedadditional fake comments to each on a regular basis.

The ATTACKERS have formed a business and political and industry manipulation â... Cartelâ... . The bosses of the the ATTACKERS intended to inflict corruption upon the United States Federal Government, The State Government and the California State authorities, as defined by law under RICO Racketeering Statutes for the purpose of manipulating the value of stock market holdings and controlling political policy decisions.

In exchange for financing, The ATTACKERS Clients gave The ATTACKERS Associates business monopolies and government contract monopolies and media distribution exclusives worth trillions of dollars. This was an illegal quid-pro-quo arrangement. TARGET's designed, produced, received patent awards on, received federal commendations for, received federal funding for and first marketed the very products which The ATTACKERS copied and made billions of dollars on and which The ATTACKERS felt might beat them in hundreds of billions of dollars of competitive market positions and stock market trades. Companies operated by TARGET's included automobile design and manufacturing companies, global television broadcasting companies and energy companies which are commonly known to have generated hundreds of billions of dollars in profits, revenue and stock market transactions for The ATTACKERS competing holdings at TARGET's expense. The ATTACKERS operated a criminal CARTEL as defined by RICO LAWS and that Cartel ran an an anti-trust market rigging and crony political payola operation. The ATTACKERS spent tens of millions of dollars attacking TARGET's because The ATTACKERS were not clever enough to build better products. The ATTACKERS chose to â... CHEAT RATHER THAN COMPETEâ... and to try to kill TARGET's lives, careers, brands, revenues, assets, businesses and efforts via malicious and ongoing efforts.

The U.S. Attorney General has been informed, in writing, of these charges and TARGET's understand that DOJ officials have an ongoing investigation into these matters. Under investigation for these crimes, New York State attorney general Eric Schneiderman was recently forced to quit over corruption and sexual cult charges involving the NXIUM group and related matters.

Due to The ATTACKERS fears of the loss of up a trillion dollars of crony payola from their illegal abuse of taxpayer funds, The ATTACKERS engaged in felonious actions in order seek to intimidate others.

Just as, over time, the Watergate crimes are now intimately documented and detailed; over time The â... Cleantech Crash Scandalâ... as featured on CBS News 60 MINUTES TV Show, has been detailed and exposed in numerous federal, news media and public investigations. Significant barriers to justice were illicitly placed in front of TARGET's by The ATTACKERS.

The ATTACKERS organized and operated a series of malicious attacks and thefts against TARGET's as reprisals and competitive vendettas. The ATTACKERS report to the FBI, GAO, FTC, SEC, Congressional Ethics Committees, The White House and other entities on a regular basis.

The ATTACKERS and their associates Elon Musk, Jon Doerr, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Steve Jurvetson, Vinod Khosla and other members of the â... Silicon Valley Cartelâ... are documented in tens of thousands of news reports, federal law enforcement reports and Congressional reports in their attempts to infiltrate and corrupt the U.S. Government in an attempt to route trillions of tax dollars to The ATTACKERS private accounts. The ATTACKERS perceived TARGET's as a threat to their crimes. Federal investigators, news investigators and whistle-blowers have reported to TARGET's that The ATTACKERS were the financiers and/or beneficiaries and/or command and control operatives for the crimes and corruption disclosed in the CBS NEWS 60 Minutes investigative reports entitled: â... The Cleantech Crashâ... , â... The Lobbyists Playbookâ... and â... Congress Trading on Insider Informationâ... ; The Feature Film: â... The Car and the Senatorâ... Federal lawsuits with case numbers of: USCA Case #16-5279; and over 50 other cases including the ongoing â... Solyndraâ... investigation and federal and Congressional investigations detailed at:

â...! and thousands of other documentation sites. TARGET's are charged withengaging in these crimes and corruptions against TARGET's and financing and ordering attacks on TARGET's. TARGET's engaged in U.S. commerce and did everything properly and legally. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not steal technology. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not bribe elected officials in order to get market exclusives. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not poach The ATTACKERS staff. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's were the original inventors of their products. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not operate â... AngelGate Collusionâ... schemes and â... High Tech No Poaching Secret Agreementsâ... and a Mafia-like Silicon Valley exclusionary Cartel. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not place their employees in the U.S. Government, The California Government, The U.S. Patent Office and The U.S. Department of Energy in order to control government contracts to The ATTACKERS exclusive advantage. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not place moles inside of competitors companies. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not hire Gawker Media and Think Progress to seek to kill TARGET's careers, lives and brands. Unlike The ATTACKERS, TARGET's did not rig the stock market with â... pump-and-dumpâ... , â... Flash Boyâ... and â... Google-stock/PR-pumpâ... schemes. TARGET's engaged in hard work every day of their lives for the time-frame in question under the belief that the good old American work ethic and just rewards for your creations was still in effect in the U.S.A., and that the thieves and criminals that attempted to interdict TARGET's would face Justice. In a number of circumstances The ATTACKERS took advantages of TARGET's hard work via come-ons; The ATTACKERS then made billions of dollars from Plainiffs work at TARGET's expense and attacked TARGET's in order to reduce TARGET's competitive and legal recovery options.

The ATTACKERS exchanged payments for services via cash, stock warrants, illicit personal services, media control and a technology known as a â... Streisand Effect Massive Server Arrayâ... which can control public impressions for, or against a person, party, ideology or issue. The ATTACKERS StreisandEffect internet system was used to destroy TARGET's in reprisal, retribution, and vendetta for TARGET's help with law enf ment efforts in the case and because TARGET's companies competed with The ATTACKERS companies with superior technologies.

The ATTACKERS have used their Streisand Effect technology to build a character assassination ring of bloggers and hired shill â... reportersâ... who engage in a process called a â... Shivaâ... . This process is named after a TARGET in a similar case named: Shiva Ayyadurai, the husband of Actress Fran Drescher. Shiva Ayyadurai holds intellectual property rights to part of The ATTACKERS email technology. In fact, the people most threatened by the Shiva Ayyadurai patent right claims, ironically turn out to be The ATTACKERS and, in particular, The ATTACKERS associates Elon Musk, Jon Doerr, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Steve Jurvetson, Vinod Khosla and other members of the â... Silicon Mafiaâ... who own most of the main companies exploiting email technology. Were Shiva Ayyadurai to prevail in his claims, The ATTACKERS would owe him billions of dollars. â... Running A Shivaâ... involves the production of a series of Defamation articles by bloggers who act asif they are independent from The ATTACKERS but are in fact, not. The ATTACKERS used â... the Shivaâ... to attack and seek to destroy Donald Trump, Shiva Ayyadurai, TARGET's, and numerous political figures. Univision, Unimoda,Jalo pnik, Gawker Media, Gizmodo and over a hundred stealth-ed, and overt, assets of The ATTACKERS have been using â... The Shivaâ... network to attack Donald Trump, Shiva Ayyadurai, TARGET's, and numerous political figures as recently as this morning, thus, the time bar restarts every day. TARGET's have pleaded with The ATTACKERS to cease their attacks but The ATTACKERS have refused to comply. Even with Fran Drescherâ... s ongoing royalty payments from her popular television series, friends have reported that the attacks on the Ayyadurai family have been devastating and have caused massive damages and personal and emotional devastation.

The ATTACKERS produced animated movies, attack articles, fake blog comments, DNS routes, â... Shivaâ... Campaigns, and other attack media against TARGET's and expended over $30 million dollars in value, as quantified by The ATTACKERS partner: Google, in placing the attack material in front of 7.5 billion people on the planet for the rest of TARGET's lifetime. No person could survive such an attack and in the case of TARGET's, lives were destroyed and multiple companies invested into by TARGET's, which The ATTACKERS made over $50B off of the copies of, were destroyed because they competed with The ATTACKERS.

The TARGET's are informed and believe, and based on that information and belief allege that at all times mentioned in the within Complaint, all The ATTACKERS were the agents, owners and employees of their affiliated insiders and, in doing the things alleged in this Complaint, were acting within the course and scope of such agency and employment.

As to any corporate employer specifically named, or named as a â... DOEâ... herein, the TARGET's are informed and believe and therefore allege that any act, conduct, course of conduct or omission, alleged herein to have been undertaken with sufficient, malice, fraud and oppression to justify an award of punitive damages, was, in fact, completed with the advance knowledge and conscious disregard, authorization, or ratification of and by an officer, director, or managing agent of such corporation. The Statute of Limitations and time bar on this case has not expired. TARGET's only became aware of all of the facts recently due to the FBI, Congressional and hacker-exposed investigation data on The ATTACKERS operating and receiving cash, rewards and assets from an illegal and illicit set of political slush-funds established to compensate them for financing political campaigns. The Sony, Clinton, DNC, HSBC, Panama Papers and other hacks and publication of all of the relevant files and the Congressional investigation of illicit activities and the continuing issuance of federal documents to TARGET's confirming TARGET's intellectual property are all vastly WITHIN the statutes of limitations to allow this case to proceed to Jury Trial. TARGET's has had a long, ongoing and high-level interaction with Defendant in both the work effort and the monetization and collection effort. TARGET's has been continually interactive with Defendant in order to try to collect his money. Attacks and interference with TARGET's has occurred as recently as this week by The ATTACKERS. The TARGET's, whose multiple businesses ventures had already suffered significant damage as the result of the online attacks of the The ATTACKERS, contacted renowned experts, and especially Search Engine Optimization and forensic internet technology (IT) experts, to clear and clean the internet of the false, defamatory, misleading and manufactured information belittling the TARGET's, attacking them and discrediting their reputation as an inventor, product developer and project director from their websites.

None of the technology experts hired by the TARGET's, at substantial expense, were successful in their attempts to clear, manage or even modify the false, defamatory, misleading and manufactured information belittling the TARGET's, attacking him and discrediting their reputation as an inventor, product developer and project director which only The ATTACKERS, the controlling entity of the internet, refused to remove. In fact, those experts were able to even more deeply confirm, via technical forensic internet analysis and criminology technology examination techniques that The ATTACKERS was rigging internet search results for its own purposes and anti-trust goals.

All efforts, including efforts to suppress or de-rank the results of a name search for â... TARGET'sâ... failed, and even though tests on other brands and names, for other unrelated parties did achieve balance, the SEO and IT tests clearly proved that The ATTACKERS was consciously, manually, maliciously and intentionally rigging its search engine and adjacent results in order to â... mood manipulateâ... an attack on TARGET's.

In fact, the experts and all of them, instead, informed the TARGET's, that, not only had The ATTACKERS locked the false, defamatory, misleading and manufactured information belittling the TARGET's, attacking them and discrediting their reputation as an inventor, project developer and project director into its search engine so that the information could never be cleared, managed or even modified, The ATTACKERS had assigned the false, defamatory, misleading and manufactured information belittling the TARGET's, attacking them and discrediting their reputation as an inventor, project developer and project director â... PR8â... algorithmic internet search engine coding embedded in the internet information-set programmed into Defendantsinternet architecture. [See, Information received from one of over 30 IT, forensic network investigators and forensic SEO test analysts, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto in the Exhibits.]

Per the many world-wide search engine results forensic analysis experts TARGET hired â... They had never seen search engines results that were locked so maliciously, manually and unmovably into Googleâ... s and YouTubeâ... s search results. â... It was as if the CIA, or Larry Page himself, was doing thisâ... , said one. TARGET placed associates inside of Google and, among other things, acquired bank records proving Google and the attackers were exchanging millions of dollar with each other.

TARGET even went to the effort of placing nearly a thousand virtual forensic test servers around the globe, using empty space on third-party existing servers owned by hundreds of other people, in order to monitor and metricize the manipulations of search results of examples of the TARGET's name in comparison to the manipulations for PR hype for The ATTACKERS financial partners, for example: the occurrence of the phrase â... Elon Muskâ... , The ATTACKERS business partner and beneficiary, over a five year period. The EU, China, Russia, and numerous research groups (ie:

<http://www.politico.com/magazine/story/2015/08/how-google-could-rig-the-2016-election-121548> By Robert Epstein ) have validated these forensic studies of The ATTACKERS architect-ed character assassination and partner hype system .

The â... PR8â... codes are hidden codes within the The ATTACKERS software and internet architecture which profess to state that a link is a â... factâ... or is an authoritative factual document per The ATTACKERS research. By placing â... PR8â... codes in the defamatory links that The ATTACKERS was manipulating about TARGET's, The ATTACKERS was seeking to tell the world that the links pointed to â... Factsâ... and not â... Opinionsâ... . The ATTACKERS embedded many covert codes in their architecture which marketing the material in the attack links and video as â... factsâ... according to The ATTACKERS.

The â... PR8â... codes are a set of codes assigned and programmed into the internet, by the The ATTACKERS to matters it designates as dependable and true, thereby attributing primary status as the most The ATTACKERS is known to have provided tens of millions of dollars to this tabloid chain per The ATTACKERS financial staff, SEC filings and disclosures in other legal cases.

TARGET also used CIA technology call â... Steganographyâ... to embed text-based messages and codes into photos and videos in order track Google and YouTubeâ... s global impression manipulations and create a significant and important link to be viewed by online researchers regarding the subject of their search.

The ATTACKERS were fully aware that all of the information in the attack articles against TARGET's was false, The ATTACKERS promoted these attacks as vindictive vendetta-like retribution against TARGET.

At all times The ATTACKERS maintained it had no subjective control or input into the rankings of links obtained by online researchers as the result of a search on its search engines and that its search engine algorithms and the functions of its media assets were entirely arbitrary according to the owners and founders of The ATTACKERS.

In or about April 15, 2015, The European Union Commission took direct aim at The ATTACKERS charging the their Internet-search giant with skewing and rigging search engine results in order to damage those who competed with The ATTACKERS business and ideological interests.

In those proceedings, although The ATTACKERS continued to maintain that it has no subjective control or input into the rankings of links obtained by online researchers as the result of a search on its search engines and that its staff had no ability to reset, target, mood manipulate, arrange adjacent text or links, up-rank, down-rank or otherwise engage in human input which would change algorithm, search results, perceptions or subliminal perspectives of consumers, voters, or any other class of users of the worldwide web, also known as The Internet, the court, in accord with evidence submitted, determined that The ATTACKERS, does in fact have and does in fact exercise, subjective control over the results of information revealed by searches on its search engine.

The ATTACKERS has a variety of such hidden codes and has various internal names for such codes besides, and in addition to, PR8. The ATTACKERS has been proven to use these fact vs. fiction rankings to affect elections, competitors rankings, ie: removing the company: NEXTAG from competing with The ATTACKERS on-line; or removing political candidates from superior internet exposure and it is believed by investigators and journalists, that The ATTACKERS are being protected from criminal prosecution by public officials who The ATTACKERS have compensated with un-reported campaign funding. As a result of receiving this information, the TARGET's became convinced of the strength and veracity of their original opinion that the The ATTACKERS, had, in fact posted the false, defamatory, misleading and manufactured information belittling the TARGET's, attacking them and discrediting TARGET's reputation as inventor, project developer and project designer had been intentionally designed, published, orchestrated and posted by them in retaliation to the true testimony provided by the TARGET's, to the Government Office of Accountability of the United States in May of 2005, and to the Securities and Exchange Commission, The Federal Bureau of Investigation, The United States Senate Ethics Committee and other investigating parties, and had been disseminated maliciously and intentionally by them in an effort to do damage to their reputation and to their business prospects and to cause him severe and irremediable emotional distress. In fact, the TARGET's, has suffered significant and irremediable damage to their reputation and to their financial and business interests. As a natural result of this damage, as intended by the

The ATTACKERS, Plaintiffs has also suffered severe and irremediable emotional distress.

To this day, despite the age of the false, defamatory, misleading and manufactured information belittling the TARGET's, attacking him and discrediting their reputation as an inventor, project developer and project director, in the event any online researcher searches for information regarding the TARGET's, the same information appears at the top of any list of resulting links.

In addition, due to their control of all major internet database interfaces, The ATTACKERS have helped to load negative information about TARGET's on every major HR and employment database that TARGET's might be searched on, thus denying TARGET's all reasonable rights to income around the globe by linking every internal job, hiring, recruiter, employment, consulting, contracting or other revenue engagement opportunity for TARGET's back to false "... red flag..." or negative false background data which is designed to prevent TARGET from future income in retribution for TARGET's assistance to federal investigators.

HARM #7: The ATTACKERS USED FACTORY-PROCESSED SOCIAL MEDIA ATTACKS AGAINST THEIR TARGETS:

In the book: "... ATTACKED...", the Court will see the CIA, FSB and MI6 tactics and techniques that are trained and practiced, illicitly, by political officials. Social networking sites including MeetUp, Match, Facebook, etc. and all other IAC-owned, or similar, sites (IAC is managed by Hillary Clinton's daughter, whose Mother knew TARGET's) have had their profiles, texts, and inter-member communications, since those companies were started, hacked or purchased. The financiers of almost everyone of these sites are also the financiers of the suspects. The attack service providers use Palantir, Acronym, In-Q-Tel financed data analysis software to analyze every activity in those services in order to find honey-trap, blackmail and social conflict exploitation opportunities. Your social life will, essentially, end. Every photo on every social site is cross checked with every other photo on the internet in order to cull your Facebook, LinkedIn, Snapchat and other social media together to create a total manipulation profile data file on you. New contacts on these sites were contacted by the attackers and told to "... avoid..." the TARGET's in order to damage TARGET's. These attacks were all documented and operated against TARGET as detailed in the EXHIBITS and evidence repositories. The ATTACKERS bought these services from Eastern Bloc nations, China and South America. "... The Agency...", in Russia does much of this work. They are hard at work, even as recently as today according to the CIA, pushing a "... positive spin..." on Russia's invasion of the Ukraine based on Hunter Biden's computer leaks.

HARM #8: GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS CAUSED SSA AND HUD BENEFITS BLOCKADES AND MANIPULATIONS AS REPRISAL AGAINST TARGET:

Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits were stone-walled. Applications for benefits for the TARGET's were intentionally "... lost..." like a "... Lois Lerner hard drive..." . Files in the application process "... disappeared..." . A U.S. Senator ordered TARGET's benefits to "... never be approved..." even though TARGET's worked 60 hour+ weeks for decades in service to their nation and their community. A SSA official in the local SSA office, who had a devout expressed hatred against one United States President ordered a benefits blockade against TARGET's because he found out that TARGET's ex-lawyer now worked in the White House. Forensic evidence and backgrounders on every person who worked on, or had access to, Applicants files, records, benefits decisions and related data sets shows that a number of those employees and contractors were members, financiers, web promoters or supporters of ANTIFA anarchy groups or KKK or Proud Boys related political activist-type groups. In San Francisco and Marin Counties SSA offices, in employees workspaces and on their Facebook and MySpace sites, many employees proudly display pictures of themselves wearing their pink "pussy hats", black riot gear and sporting political tattoos. FBI records and IG investigations show that SSA has the highest percentage of political activist employees of any federal agency. Such persons are inclined to become drunk with power when allowed access to the trillions of dollars of government technology on the SSA file and decisions systems. A number of these persons have worked for, or with, U.S. Senators and other politicians who targeted Applicant in political reprisal. At least 3 persons in the San Francisco SSA office, at least 2 persons in the San Mateo SSA office and at least 2 persons in Marin SSA office are known to have engaged in such actions. Applicants funding and benefits were manipulated, so as to harm Applicant, as political reprisal as vendetta for his provision of testimony to federal investigators in a trillion dollar political corruption matter involving famous political figures featured in global news coverage. A vast number of agency abuse cases and lawsuits are now on public record in the Inspector General's offices and federal courts. It is an indisputable fact that some government agencies run "hit-jobs" on citizens on orders from certain corrupt politicians.

These actions are felony violations of the law. Federal and State Agencies including SSA, FEC, GOVT, HHS, VA, CIA, HUD, SA, SEC, FBI, DOJ and many others, have been charged, and found guilty, in these crimes against citizens. In the Congressional investigation published by the United States Congress in review of the U.S. Department of Energy LGP/ATVM programs, it is clearly proven that the U.S. Department of Energy was used as a slush-fund by some GOVT executives in order to pay off campaign financiers by attacking and sabotaging their competitors. The GOVT Paducah Gaseous Diffusion Plant under contracts with The U.S. Government and the government-owned U.S. Enrichment Corp paid $5M whistle-blower awards to those whistle-blowers who were attacked, using government agency resources, for reporting a crime. Dept. of Energy Hanford URS has agreed to settle a lawsuit brought by former employee Walter Tamosaitis for $4.1 million.

The settlement in the whistle-blower case comes almost one year before the case was set for a jury trial in federal court in Richland and compensates Tamosaitis for attacks against him, by GOVT officials, in retribution for reporting a crime. VA officials attacked hundreds of citizens who reported corruption, ie:

<https://www.thenewamerican.com/usnews/health-care/item/18610-va-whistleblowers-facing-retribution>.

As shown in this report:

<https://www.pogo.org/analysis/2018/08/new-report-confirms-whistleblower-retaliation-is-alive-and-well-at-de>

Agencies attack often and harshly. CIA and NSA executives have been widely shown to use spy tools to attack domestic citizens they don't like, ie:

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2435011/NSA-employees-used-phone-tapping-tools-spy-girlfriends->

, and hundreds of other news links that can be provided. Elon Musk and Tesla, as well as Eric Schmidt and Larry Page at Google, have been proven to use the CIA group: IN-Q-TEL, to run government sponsored/financed attacks on business competitors. In Civil Action No.

1:13-cv-00777-RBW GOVERNMENT AGENCIES WERE CAUGHT BEING USED FOR ATTACKS AGAINST CITIZENS AND PUNISHED IN THE COURT AND THE MEDIA! The IRS, and hordes of other government agencies have been caught and proven, IN COURT, to target and attack people for presumed political differences.

Why should we assume that the Social Security Administration is not ALSO doing this too to harm citizens who speak out? The Lois Lerner IRS attacks took many years to resolve. In an unprecedented victorious conclusion to a four year-long legal battle against the IRS, the bureaucratic agency admitted in federal court that it wrongfully targeted citizens, during the Obama Administration, because of their political viewpoints and issued an apology to those people for doing so. In addition, the IRS is consenting to a court order that would prohibit it from ever engaging in this form of unconstitutional discrimination in the future. In a proposed Consent Order filed with the Court, the IRS has apologized for its treatment of U.S. citizens including organizations from 20 states that applied for 501(c)(3) and (c)(4) tax-exempt status with the IRS between 2009 and 2012 -- during the tax-exempt determinations process. Crucially, following years of denial by the IRS and blame-shifting by IRS officials, the agency now expressly admits that its treatment of our clients was wrong and a total violation of our Democracy. As set forth in the proposed Order: â... The IRS admits that its treatment of TARGET's during the tax-exempt determinations process, including screening their applications based on their names or policy positions, subjecting those applications to heightened scrutiny and inordinate delays, and demanding of some TARGET'sâ... information that TIGTA determined was unnecessary to the agencyâ... s determination of their tax-exempt status, was wrong.

For such treatment, the IRS expresses its sincere apology.â... Throughout litigation of this case, activists have remained committed to protecting the rights of the public who faced unlawful and discriminatory action by the IRS and other agencies. The objective from the very beginning has been to hold agencies accountable for corrupt practices.

This Consent Order represents a historic victory for the public and sends the unequivocal message that a government agencyâ... s targeting of citizens organizations, or any organization, on the basis of political viewpoints, will never be tolerated and that revenge will be swift and vast. The Order will put an end, once and for all, to the abhorrent practices utilized against citizens, as the agreement includes the IRSâ... s express acknowledgment of â... and apology for â... its wrongful treatment of the public. While this agreement is designed to prevent any such practices from occurring again, rest assured that all public interest lawyers will remain vigilant to ensure that the IRS, SSA, DOJ or SEC does not resort to such tactics in the future. Per detailed reports, in March of 2012 lawyers began being contacted by literally dozens of citizens and groups who were being harassed by the Obama IRS after submitting applications for tax-exempt status. Their tax-exempt applications were held up for years (over seven years in some cases), and they began receiving obtrusive and unconstitutional requests for donor and member information. That began a now more than five and a half year fight with the burgeoning bureaucracy at the IRS. Then on May 10, 2013, Lois Lerner, the then head of the IRS Tax Exempt Organizations Division, publicly implicated the IRS in one of the worst political targeting scandals of the century.

This is an extraordinary victory against government agency abuse. It sends a powerful warning to the deep state bureaucracy that it will not be allowed to violate the Constitution in order to silence and shut down the whistle-blowers. In addition to the IRSâ... s admissions of and apology for its wrongful conduct, the Consent Order would specifically award TARGET's the following: - A declaration by the Court that it is wrong to apply the United States tax code to any tax-exempt applicant or entity based solely on such entityâ... s name, any lawful positions it espouses on any issues, or its associations or perceived associations with a particular political movement, position or viewpoint; - A declaration by the Court that any action or inaction taken by the IRS must be applied evenhandedly and not based solely on a tax-exempt applicant or entityâ... s name, political viewpoint, or associations or perceived associations with a particular political movement, position or viewpoint; and - A declaration by the Court that discrimination on the basis of political viewpoint in administering the United States tax code violates fundamental First Amendment rights.

Disparate treatment of taxpayers based solely on the taxpayersâ... names, any lawful positions the taxpayers espouse on any issues, or the taxpayersâ... associations or perceived associations with a particular political movement, position or viewpoint is unlawful. In the Order, the IRS has also agreed that (unless expressly required by law) certain actions against the TARGET'sâ... i.e. the sharing, dissemination, or other use of information unnecessarily obtained by the IRS during the determinations process (such as donor names, the names of volunteers, political affiliations of an organizationâ... s officers, etc.) â... would be unlawful. In addition, the IRS promises not to take any retaliatory action against our clients for exposing the targeting scheme. Finally, and of crucial significance, the IRS admits it targeted persons and groups based on their viewpoints (i.e., â... policy positionsâ... ) and that such viewpoint discrimination violates fundamental First Amendment rights.

This is the first time the IRS has admitted that its targeting scheme was not just â... inappropriateâ... â... as TIGTA found â... but, as alleged, blatantly unconstitutional. To ensure consistency and uniformity within the agencyâ... s operations going forward, the IRS is required, pursuant to the Order, to inform all employees within the Exempt Organizations Division, as well as the Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners within other divisions, of the Orderâ... s terms. This Order not only validates allegations about their treatment at the hands of the corrupt Obama-era IRS but also provides important assurances to the American public that the agency understands its obligation to refrain from further such discriminatory conduct. As Attorney General Sessions acknowledged in this regard, â... [t]here is no excuse for [the IRSâ... s] conduct,â... as it is â... without questionâ... that the First Amendment prohibits the conduct that occurred here, i.e., subjecting American citizens to disparate treatment â... based solely on their viewpoint or ideology.â... Sessions further confirmed his Departmentâ... s commitment to ensuring that the â... abuse of powerâ... in which the IRS engaged here â... will not be tolerated.â... It is impossible to overstate the importance of this victory.

This marks a years-long fight for justice in defense of the constitutional rights of the public. This is an extraordinary victory against abuse of power and corruption. It sends a powerful warning to the deep state bureaucracy that it will not be allowed to violate the Constitution and manipulate the IRS, SSA and other agencies in order to silence and shut down those who speak out about political corruption crimes. In the wake of Wisconsin Watchdogâ... s investigation into SSA staff allegations of incompetence, misconduct, and retaliation in Social Security disability appeals offices, several employees have taken their complaints to a Senate committee led by Wisconsin Sen. Ron Johnson. An official with knowledge of the complaints said the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee, chaired by the Oshkosh Republican, has received emails and other contacts from â... certain peopleâ... inside the Social Security Administrationâ... s Office of Disability Adjudication and Review. The initial complaints came from an employee inside the Milwaukee office following Wisconsin Watchdogâ... s opening investigative report that found some claimants waiting more than 1,000 days for an appeals decision on their disability benefits claim. Following Wednesdayâ... s story of a whistle-blower in the Madison ODAR office, the committee has received more specific complaints about retaliation against employees, the source said. Committee staff members sent the latest Watchdog piece to SSA administrators hoping they will â... cooperate,â... the source said. To date, the agency has been less than cooperative. â... This is an ongoing process, and they are not always as forthcoming as weâ... d like them to be,â... the source said. â... Hopefully with your continued reporting, this is an issue they canâ... t duck.â... A Senate committee member said officials there are working with the Office of Special Counsel on â... multiple whistle-blower retaliation claims.â... The committee continues to request information from the SSA. The whistle-blower in the Madison office claims management retaliated against her after she was called to testify in a misconduct case.

The incident involved â... inappropriate behaviorâ... by an administrative law judge, she said. â... They are so corrupt. Itâ... s absolutely horrible,â... said the woman, a lead case technician in the Madison Office of Disability Adjudication and Review. She spoke on condition of anonymity, fearing more retribution from her supervisors. While she said recounting her particular experiences will more than likely betray her identity anyway, the ODAR case worker insisted she has had enough. â... Iâ... m at point where they donâ... t care about me, I donâ... t see why Iâ... m protecting them. This is my last resort,â... she said. â... I want to do my work without fear of retaliation.â... She said she has contacted the Senate committee. â... I forwarded my information to them and I got an email back from them. See these reports:

They said people are coming out of the woodwork with their complaints (about ODAR) following your story,â... the whistle-blower said. Ronald Klym, a long-time senior legal assistant in the Milwaukee ODAR office, alleges he has been retaliated against by supervisors for going public with his charges of incompetence and misconduct in the agency. The federal employee, who has worked for SSA for 16 years, provided Wisconsin Watchdog with documents showing extremely long wait times for claimants appealing their denied applications for benefits. Doug Nguyen, SSA regional spokesman, in a previous story said the agency acknowledges that Milwaukee ODAR has a â... high average processing time for disability appeal hearings, and we are working to address the issue.â... Beyond the delays is what Klym calls the â... shell game,â... the wholesale transferring of cases to other parts of the country by administrators to make the Milwaukee officeâ... s numbers look better than they are. The Madison office whistle-blower confirmed Klymâ... s allegations, saying at one point she saw 2,000 cases from the Milwaukee office handed off to the Oak Brook operation. There are over 10,000 SSA disability manipulation charges against SSA executives and staff.

HARM #9: The ATTACKERS USED BLACKLISTING AGAINST TARGET:

ie: The U.S. Stops Silicon Valley's 'No Poaching' Deals... a ...

☐ <https://www.aol.com/â...°2010â...°09â...°26â...°doj-stops-silicon-valleys-no-poaching-deals-a-few-years-t>

DOJ Stops Silicon Valley's 'No Poaching' Deals. ... But anyone on the ground in Silicon Valley knows that a full-blown war for talent is under way, with checkbooks blazin. Government officials and tech oligarchs contacted members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national â... black-listsâ... to blockade TARGET's from receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Strydom and in published testimony. If Silicon Valley political campaign finance oligarchs black-list you (see the "AngelGate" Scandal and the "High Tech No Poaching Class Action Lawsuit" cases) you will never get investor funding again.

HARM #10: The ATTACKERS ORDERED FOIA OBFUSCATION OF TARGETâ... S FOIA AND STILL HAVE NOT RESPONDED TO MANY FOR YEARS BECAUSE THEY SHAME The ATTACKERS:

Federal FOIA requests were hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups. In once instance, even though GOVT FOIA staff had the requested FOIA files in their top desk drawers, they delayed handing the FOIA copies over for nearly a decade in order to run a cover-up.

HARM #11: The ATTACKERS ENGAGED IN ARBITRARY DEADLINE MANIPULATION:

Crony state and federal officials play an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed. DOEâ... s PATTERN OF SUPPORTING WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIATION:

In case # 2:11-cv-05157-LRS ECF; it was proven that when a DOE contractor employee files a complaint alleging whistleblower retaliation, it is the practice of the DOE to align itself with the contractor and to assert attorney client privilege. For example, in an eleven-TARGET whistleblower retaliation case litigated against Fluor Federal Services, Inc., DOE attorney Robert Carosino refused to disclose evidence relating to meetings between DOE and the offending contractors claiming attorney client privilege because DOE and the contractor share a common interest in the litigation. A13-18. This practice prevents the DOE from effective oversight of contractor retaliation and creates a culture of fear among the Hanford workforce.

Upon Dr. Tamosaitis filing a whistleblower complaint with the DOL in 2010, the DOE, Bechtel and URS asserted attorney client privilege as to their discussions concerning Dr. Tamosaitisâ... claim owing to their common interest. This fact has been verified by the sworn testimony of Jean Dunkirk in her deposition, which was taken in connection with the state claim (transcript available).

There is a practice of DOE managers, and most other government agency managers, supporting retaliation against contractor employees who oppose unsafe practices. For example, in 2008, then URS Chief Nuclear Engineer and Manager of Nuclear Safety Donna Busche, was terminated from her position at the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in Carlsbad, New Mexico, with the approval of DOE officials, after she refused to rescind a Technical Safety Violation report that she had filed regarding the improper handling of a drum from Hanford that contained transuranic waste.

In 2009, Ms. Busche was reassigned to the WTP as Manager of Environmental and Nuclear Safety. A155-6. In October 2010, she was berated by Ines Triay, the DOE EM1, after giving truthful testimony at a hearing a by the DNFSB. A198-199. At a post-hearing meeting with Ms. Triay and numerous URS managers, Triay said, â... If your intent was to piss people off, you did a very good job. You pissed people off.â... A199. Ms. Busche has suffered retaliation since then, which has been compounded by her having been a witness in this case. 2.60 In 2010, DOE WTP Federal Project Director Dale Knudson submitted a sworn statement to the DOL indicating that he â... did not direct BNI or URS to take any specific actions with regards to Dr. Tamosaitis.â... A14. In fact, Knudson was directly involved in the decision to terminate Dr. Tamosaitis from the WTP. A114. He also participated in the decision that Dr. Tamosaitis not be returned to the WTP after hearing that Dr. Tamosaitis was a whistleblower. Throughout the Tamosaitis retaliation, DOE managers supported Bechtel and URS efforts to stop necessary design changes to the WTP so that artificial deadlines could be met, and did nothing to protect, or supported, retaliation by contractors against employees who opposed those improper decisions.

PLACING A CONTRACTOR EMPLOYEE INTO AN OVERSIGHT POSTION

CREATED AN INHERENT CONELICT OF INTEREST: In 2010, DOE placed PNNL manger Dale Knudson into the position of DOE Federal Project Director of the WTP. A52-3. This created an inherent conflict of interest in that a contractor employee who, on information and belief, is not motivated by government service and placing the public interest before profit, is placed in a temporary position, overseeing the work of other contractors. On information and belief, after about two years, Knudson will return to his position at PNNL or to another position in the private sector.

HARM #12: POLITICAL POISONING & TOXIC EXPOSURE BY The ATTACKERS HARMED TARGET:

TARGET's were found to be strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case, The Salisbury Case and hundreds of other political poisoning cases. Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after TARGET's work with The U.S. Government weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if TARGET's was intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of TARGET's were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via GOVT, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which GOVT officials knew were required. TARGET was awarded an exceptional number of issued patents on the energy technologies he had developed for the Dept of Energy. 3rd Party outside legal valuation experts appraised the value of these patents at over $200,000,000.00. The patents, clearly visible in full detail, on the US Patent office website, list many of the chemicals and compounds TARGET was working with without adequate hazmat resources of Sandia, Argonne or other National Labs safety oversight.

HARM #13: WORKPLACE SABOTAGE AND OBSTRUCTION OF TARGET'S RIGHT TO WORK:

TARGET's contacts at ARTECH and KAISER PERMANENTE were called, and faxed, and ordered to fire target TARGET's from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic.

HARM #14: MEDIA ASSASSINATION PROGRAMS WERE CONTRACTED BY The ATTACKERS TO HARM TARGET:

On orders from Obama White House officials Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produced attack articles. Google locked these contrived attack articles from the Nicholas Guido Denton tabloid empire on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world. This attack-type uses over $40 million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging. The forensic data acquired from tracking some of these attacks proves that Google rigged these attacks against TARGET's on the internet and that all of Google's impressions are manually controlled by Google's executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. This data was provided to the European Union for its ongoing prosecution of Google's political manipulation of public perceptions. Hired attackers Nicholas Guido Denton, John Herman, Adrian Covert, Ian Fette, Patrick George, Gabrielle Darbyshire and John Cook have been referred to the FBI for surveillance, tracking and interview relative to the command, control and compensation for those attacks.

HARM #15: COMMERCIAL EMPLOYMENT DATABASE POISONING AND RED-FLAGGING OF TARGET'S HR DATABASE REFERENCES WERE CREATED TO HARM TARGET'S INCOME POTENTIAL:

TARGET's HR and employment records, on Taleo, Palantir and EVERY recruiting and hiring database, was embedded with negative keywords and â... flagsâ... in order to prevent the TARGET's from ever gaining future employment.

HARM #16: ATTEMPTS ON THE LIVES OF WHISTLE-BLOWERS BY THE ATTACKERS WERE MEANT TO FRIGHTEN TARGET:

Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani who TARGET's knew, and many other whistle-blowers in these matters, turned up dead under strange circumstances. TARGET's has received ongoing death threats for his help to federal investigations in the larger organized crime investigation relative to this matter. See the list of over 120 dead victims, lower down in this document, 1/3 of whom worked with TARGET's and were threatened in advance of their deaths.

HARM #17: THE ATTACKERS ENGAGED IN REVENUE BLOCKADES AND INTERNET INCOME RE-DIRECTION TO MINIMIZE TARGET RESOURCES SO HE COULD NOT FIGHT BACK:

Paypal, and other on-line payments for on-line sales by TARGET's are de-platformed, delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for target who competed with the attackers interests and holdings. This further denied TARGET's income. As a test, TARGET's built an online store with hundreds of thousands of products and marketed it globally. Trackers, placed by TARGET's technicians, on servers, discovered that Paypal and an outside â... Virginia-based systemâ... were DNS and payment re-directed all traffic away from the store so that TARGET's received no traffic and no income. In DNS redirection, "website spoofing" sends target TARGET's websites to dead ends where no sales orders or customer inquiries actually get back to the target. These internet revenue activity manipulations are conducted using outside covert servers operated by the attackers and revealed in the Snowden Leaks. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by target TARGET's, had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by a massively resourced facility located in Virginia, Texas or Palo Alto, California in order to terminate revenue potentials for the TARGET's.

HARM #18: The ATTACKERS USED THE TROLL FARM DEPLOYMENTS AGAINST TARGET THAT THEY USE AGAINST PRESIDENTIAL OPPOSITION CANDIDATES:

Contracted trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments are deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about TARGET's in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility. Some of these troll farms were uncovered in Russia, Ukraine, Israel and Brazil. Renown author Farrow writes about this technique in his book: â... Catch And Killâ... . FUSION GPS, BLACK CUBE and MEDIA MATTERS Brand, Reputation and Credibility â... KILLâ... CONTRACTS were executed by The ATTACKERS targeting TARGET. Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors were hired by campaign financiers to attack the friends and family members of the target TARGET's in order to create low morale for the target TARGET's psyche and motivation. The Fusion GPS Scandal implicates Gawker and Gizmodo Media In Pay-To-Publish Scheme. A court ruling from the U.S. district court for DC shows that Fusion GPS paid several journalist to run hit jobs on political adversaries and was paid by a media organization. All of those players were attackers hired to attack TARGET. FBI interviews can verify this.

HARM #19: MANUAL SEARCH ENGINE LOCK-IN ATTACKS WERE CONTRACTED FROM GOOGLE AND YOUTUBE, BY The ATTACKERS, TO HARM TARGET:

In one case covert political partner: Google, transferred large sums of cash to dirty tricks contractors and then manually locked the media portion of the attacks into the top lines of the top pages of all Google searches globally, for years, with hidden embedded codes in the links and web-pages which multiplied the attacks on TARGET's by many magnitudes.

HARM #20: THE U.S. PATENT OFFICE MANIPULATION WAS USED TO BLOCKADE REVENUE FROM TARGET'S INVENTIONS:

Facebook and Google executives sit on the boards and run The United States Patent Office. That fact alone says it all. For details see <https://www.usinventor.org>

Covert Cartel financier: Google, placed Google's lawyer: Michelle Lee, in charge of the U.S. Patent Office and she, in turn, stacked all of the U.S. Patent Office IPR and ALICE review boards and offices with Google-supporting employees in order to rig the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google from being prosecuted for the vast patent thefts that Google engages in. Google has hundreds of patent lawsuits for technology theft and a number of those lawsuits refer to Google's operations as "Racketeering", "Monopolistic Cartel" and "Government Coup-like" behaviors. Thousands of articles and investigations detail the fact that Google, "essentially" ran the Obama White House and provided over 80% of the key White House staff. A conflict-of-interest unlike any in American history. Google's investors personally told TARGET's they would "kill him". Google and the Obama Administration were "the same entity". TARGET's testified in the review that got Michelle Lee terminated and uncovered a tactical political and social warfare group inside Google who were financed by Federal and State funds. For additional proof, SEE THE VIDEO at: The Battle to Save Inventing.m4v

Silicon Valley has taken over the U.S. Patent Office with lobbyists and influence payments. Per Randy Landreneau, the President the U.S. Inventor guild: "Independence Day is that special time when we Americans remember and celebrate our country's freedom. While it may mean different things to many people, suffice to say, it is the reason we are Free, we have Liberty. Founder, writer, statesman and inventor Benjamin Franklin wrote, "On Historical occasions, Questions of Right and Wrong, Justice and Injustice, will naturally arise." Here, on this honored day, we take a quick look at Invention and our Independence. Towards the beginning of the Declaration of Independence, whose principal author was our eventual third president, Thomas Jefferson, the very purpose of our Founders' quest was established. It is stated: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." These were men and women of incredible vision, of intense courage, and they succeeded in accomplishing their seemingly insurmountable task, rising up and defeating perhaps the most powerful global Empire of the time, Great Britain. The United States of America eventually became the beacon of hope and individual freedom around the world. People from virtually every land came to this country to seek the American Dream, which ideals include individual and property rights, religious freedom, liberty, equality and the opportunity for upward mobility, achieved through dedication and hard work. One of the reasons America became the world leader in nearly all categories is due, in no small part, to how our Founders recognized and encouraged invention and innovation. They understood what builders, creators and designers could mean to a small, fledgling country with such a noble purpose. After declaring our independence and fighting a long and bloody war to establish it, our Founders gathered once again in Philadelphia for the Constitutional Convention to form a government that would embody those ideals embodied in our Declaration of Independence. The Father of our Constitution and eventual fourth President, James Madison wrote, in Federalist 43 (January 23, 1788): "A power 'to promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing, for a limited time, to authors and inventors, the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries.' "The utility of this power will scarcely be questioned. The copyright of authors has been solemnly adjudged, in Great Britain, to be a right of common law. The right to useful inventions seems with equal reason to belong to the inventors. The public good fully coincides in both cases with the claims of individuals. The States cannot separately make effectual provisions for either of the cases, and most of them have anticipated the decision of this point, by laws passed at the instance of Congress." Thus, within our U.S. Constitution is that short item, located in Article I Section 8 as Clause 8: "To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries." That clause is, in reality, a significant and powerful part of the American Dream, allowing people from all walks of life who have a bright and useful idea to capitalize on their innovations and creations. For more than two centuries that which our Founders established for inventors and patent holders held true, for the most part. However, the biggest blow to true Independence for Inventors came with passage of the America Invents Act of 2011 (AIA). Due to ambiguous language and loopholes in that piece of legislation, multinational conglomerates and Big Tech have all but wiped out what our Founders had set up, which they hoped would endure - patent holder property rights. When any form of poor legislation is passed and enacted we are reminded of what Samuel Adams, Sons of Liberty founder and a leader of the Boston Tea Party, said; "The grand end of civil government, from the very nature of its institution, is for the support, protection, and defense of those very rights; the principal of which, as is before observed, are Life, Liberty, and Property."

Indeed, Jefferson states it quite succinctly, â... Our legislators are not sufficiently apprized of the rightful limits of their power; that their true office is to declare and enforce only our natural rights and duties, and to take none of them from us.â... Madison adds to that, â... A Government is instituted to protect property of every sort...This being the end of government, that alone is a just government, which impartially secures to every man, whatever is his own.â... As we celebrate Independence Day, and all that our Founders provided for our great country, we at US Inventor are working to correct the wrongs and injustices that have befallen inventors, particularly since the AIA was enacted, by revitalizing the spirit of our Declaration of Independence ("...Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.") through restoration of patent rights and protection as guaranteed in Article I Section 8 Clause 8 of our United States Constitution ("securing, for a limited time, to ... inventors, the exclusive right to their respective ... discoveries."). We will not rest until the rights of inventors have been restored. We're gaining ground, but our enemies are powerful. We need your help in forwarding our cause and becoming involved when it matters. This isn't just for us, it's for our children, our grandchildren, and the future existence of the American Dream.â...

Silicon Valley oligarchs have spent billions of dollars to put their people inside the United States Patent Office and to manipulate patent rulings in order to harm WITNESS and his peers for the purposes of: 1.) cheating instead of competing by stealing technologies and not paying for them and, 2.) operating reprisal, vendetta, retaliation campaigns against competitors and political enemies. TARGET was awarded an exceptional number of issued patents on the energy technologies he had developed for the Dept of Energy. 3rd Party outside legal valuation experts appraised the value of these patents at over $200,000.000.00. By itâ... s actions, The U.S. Government made TARGETâ... s patents unusable for monetization by causing black-listing of those patents with NVCA investors and by using online trolls to make the marketing for those patents close off. TARGET demands that the U.S. Government now purchase ALL of TARGET's patents at fair market value to partially offset his loss.

HARM #21: HONEY-TRAPS WERE PLACED ON SOCIAL MEDIA SITES BY The ATTACKERS SPY OPERATIVES TO HARM TARGET:

â... Honeytrapsâ... and moles were employed by the attackers. In this tactic, people who covertly worked for the attackers were employed to approach the â... targetâ... in order to spy on and misdirect the subject. Match.com and other dating sites are owned by famous politicians and election campaign financier involved with Jeffrey Epstein and those sites were used to source girls for Epstein and Honey-traps to lure political adversaries.

HARM #22: A FAKE NEWS TABLOID EMPIRE WAS CREATED JUST FOR DEFAMATION ATTACKS, BY THE ATTACKERS, AND USED TO HARM TARGET:

Gawker Media, Gizmodo Media, Snopes, SPLC and other hired media assassins were retained to produce "hatchet job" character assassination articles about TARGET's. Then those articles were faxed, mailed and emailed to Kaiser Permanente and investors with a note saying: "You don't want to have anything to do with this person, do you..?" in order to get TARGET's fired from their job and get TARGET's loans or financing pulled. The attackers use their round one attack media, that they authored, to create a round two second wave attack designed to end TARGET's life status via economic warfare. All of the other attack victims received between $100,000.00 to $75,000,000.00 but TARGET received ZERO DOLLARS because the Judge was friends with the The ATTACKERS.

HARM #23: HOUSING BLOCKADES WERE DEPLOYED BY The ATTACKERS TO HARM TARGET:

Mortgage and rental applications had red flags added to them in databases to prevent the targets from getting homes or apartments. HUD applications were manipulated or stalled from 2007 to today, as reprisal.

HARM #24: HACKING OF TARGET's DEVICES OCCURRED ON ORDERS OF The ATTACKERS:

Krebs On Security, Wired, Ars Technica, The Wall Street Journal and most major IT publications have reported that hundreds of spy "back-doors" have been found on every Intel, AMD, Apple, Xfinity, Cisco, Microsoft, Juniper Networks motherboard, chip-set and hardware component set. This means that the attackers used a "key" code can open any of TARGET's computer, server, router, cloud-network or other network connected device and read every file, photo, video, your calendar and email on devices at any time from any location on Earth. This has been widely reported on by Glenn Greenwald, Edward Snowden, Scahill, Cheryl K of CBS News and others. TARGET's was hacked at least 10 times. In a number of instances, people, who TARGET's had been communicating with online, were mysteriously contacted by a third party who sent them the Gizmodo attack article or phoned them with warnings to avoid TARGET's. These kinds of Man-In-The-Middle interceptions would only have been possible from hacking and MITM surveillance tactics.

HARM #25: TECH INDUSTRY BLACK-LIST COORDINATION AGAINST TARGET HAD COMMAND-AND-CONTROL OUT OF The ATTACKERS OFFICES:

McCarthy-Era "Black-lists" were created and employed against target TARGET's who competed with Obama Administration executives and their campaign financiers to prevent them from getting funding and future employment. This White House process is known as â... RatFuckingâ... , a tactic that is documented in a variety of published reports and on Wikipedia. Using Gust, Google Docs, Dropbox and secret meetings, a black-list has been maintained to attack TARGET's for whistle-blowing. TARGET has named specific individuals to this court and demanded that the Court request the FBI 302 reports on those individuals. Additional, TARGET demands the FINCEN financial mapping records for those Defendant parties. That data, cross referenced in the XKEYSCORE database, provides indisputable, fully incriminating, follow-the-money evidence about every single party mentioned in this complaint.

HARM #26: HUD AND USDA MORTGAGE RIGHTS BLOCKADES TO HARM TARGET HOUSING IN REPRISAL AS DIRECTED BY The ATTACKERS VIA THEIR â... DIRTY TRICKSâ... TEAM:

The housing rights of TARGET's were stalled in reprisal. Public records show that tens of thousands of other TARGET's were moved ahead of TARGET's even though TARGET's validation metrics exceeded those of almost every other TARGET's. TARGET's was â... black-listedâ... .

10. ...and thousands of additional reports proving the attacker assertions.

TARGET is aware of the FBI procedure of the filing of FBI â... 302â... Reports on subjects. TARGET has, on multiple occasions, via the DC and SFO FBI offices, requested that the FBI interview, observe and track the attackers and confirm the command and control communications authority authorizing, managing and financing their attacks and the paths of compensation of those attacks. The FBI has had the full capacity and resources to easily confirm who ordered and operated the attacks on TARGET via an interview and investigation of the The ATTACKERS hired attackers, specifically Nicholas Guido Denton, John Herrman, Gabriel Darbyshire, Patrick George, Jay Carney, Robert Gibbs, Adrian Covert, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Perkins Coie, John Cook, Elon Musk, The Secretary of Energy Jennifer Granholm, et. al; and those other parties listed within the main complaint..

The FBI â... 302â... reports on those attackers is hereby requested, and a request for the Court to demand those reports is hereby requested for review by all parties concerned.

(G) Court ordered back payments from SSA from 2007 to today because public officials ordered blockade of TARGETâ... s SSDI payments as political reprisal for whistle-blowing in 2007 as proven by Inspector General and attached Exhibits:

TARGET hereby places a plea before the Court for the Court to order the Social Security Administration to pay TARGET back payments from SSA for SSDI from 2007 to today because, as proven in the Master Complaint, public officials, including White House staff and California Senators with intelligence agency access to government â... dirty tricksâ... teams, ordered the blockade of TARGETâ... s SSDI payments as political reprisal for whistle-blowing in 2007 as proven by Inspector General and attached Exhibits in the Master Complaint. Some SSA officials now work for the charged The ATTACKERS. This illicit federal reprisal circumvention of TARGETâ... s income cost him his house and all many of the damages listed, in detail, in the Master Complaint. It has been proven, in the evidence, that Senatorâ... s Pelosi, Harris, Reid, Feinstein, and other senior public officials regularly order hacking, data manipulation and de-funding of political whistle-blowers. Dianne Feinsteinâ... s staffer: Daniel Jones, is world known as the â... CIA Master of Dirty Tricksâ... . In fact, TARGET and his peers, previously won federal lawsuits, as detailed in the Master Complaint, proving that, â... government agencies infected by corruption use their resources to put reprisal hit-jobs on citizensâ... . Any Senate aide can hack or manipulate SSA, DOE, HUD and other agency decision files within minutes and order ANY citizen to have their funds cut-off with a single phone call. That happened in this case, as TARGET, and federal evidence has sworn, certified and verified as to the veracity of such dirty tricks operations within the Government. Senatorâ... s staff and family cohabited with TARGET and revealed such tactics.

There are a vast number of other attack tactics. You can find those tactics listed in the, now public, CIA manuals and British JTRIG manuals.

WHEN YOU REPORT A CRIME IN WASHINGTON DC, THIS IS HOW THEY COVER IT UP

The process of Cover-Your-Ass is actually Cover-Your-Bosses-Ass in Washington DC. Everybody knows that their boss will get fired and that they will get more stress if they report a crime than if they cover up a felony that their co-workers did.

Nothing will ever get prosecuted and "Justice" will get stone-walled for decades if you go through the "proper channels". You will get finger-pointing, the endless run-around and every single person will find some reason to say: "ohhh, that's not in our jurisdiction" to avoid paperwork.

There are now thousands of reports from top CIA, NSA, White House, Department of Energy, NASA and other agency experts about how each and every one of them suffered vendetta and reprisal attacks and their crime reports were never acted on. Even Edward Snowden tried over and over to go through proper channels until he was forced to take matters into his own hands.

Here are actual responses from one case in which over 100 federal agencies said: "Not my circus, not my monkeys" and ran blow-off, after blow-off finger-pointing to someone else for over a decade. At no point in this entire process did any investigator or agency executive respond, reach out or engage in even the most remote attempt to look into the crime :

"Thank you for contacting the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC). Please note that OSC cannot respond to every email we receive. This email addresses the most frequently asked questions we receive about prohibited personnel practices (PPPs) and disclosures of wrongdoing (Disclosures). Please see below for additional information about filing complaints and checking the status of existing claims. For more information about what we do and our processes, please see www.osc.gov. OSC cannot: (1) initiate a new complaint via email--see below about how to file; (2) issue advisory opinions, (2) tell you whether or not to file a claim, (3) tell you whether or not yours is a winning claim, or (4) provide you legal advice.

If you already filed a complaint, thank you! Your complaint will be assigned to an attorney or investigator for review within 30 days of our receiving it, if it hasn't been already. We will forward the email you sent us today to the employee assigned your case who will reach out to you directly.

The #1 question we receive is how long will this process take? It's an understandable question but also the one we are least able to answer. Know that we strive to resolve claims as quickly as we can and in the order in which we receive them. Because we receive thousands of complaints each year, it may be some time before we are able to address your claim. We know this can be a lengthy and stressful process for you. We will be in touch as soon as possible, but we appreciate your patience as we review the complaints we received before yours.

If you want to file a complaint or make a disclosure, you must formally file with OSC. We cannot initiate a complaint or disclosure based on your email to us today. The fastest way to get your complaint to us is to file electronically via our website www.osc.gov. From the home page, locate the large, red button in the upper right-hand side of the screen that reads "... File a Complaint..." Click that button, identify which type of claim you want to file (see below for more information about what we do), enter or establish your username and password, and answer the questions that follow. Be sure to scroll down to the end of the page. If you do not want to file your claim electronically, the only other way to initiate a complaint is to mail or fax us your complaint form. The form for filing a PPP complaint, which includes our mailing address and fax number, is available at: <https://osc.gov/Resources/osc11.htm>. The form for filing a disclosure, to report fraud, waste, abuse, or a danger to public health or safety, is available at: <https://osc.gov/Resources/osc12.htm>.

If you have not filed a complaint and do not know if you can file, please see below for additional information about OSC, our mission, and our processes. If you still have questions, please review our Frequently Asked Questions at <https://osc.gov/Pages/Resources-FAQ.aspx>.

Prohibited Personnel Practices

Can I file a claim? OSC is empowered to review PPP complaints filed by current and former Federal employees and applicants for Federal employment. OSC does NOT have jurisdiction to consider complaints from employees of: the FBI, CIA, DIA, NGA, NSA, ODNI, NRO, and other intelligence agencies; the GAO; government corporations; residents in a Department of Housing and Urban Development property; patients in a Department of Veterans Affairs facility; government contractors; non-appropriated fund employees; or uniformed members of any branch of the U.S. military and/or Public Health Service. If you are unsure if we have jurisdiction over you, go ahead and file your claim.

- What is a PPP? Prohibited personnel practices, commonly called PPPs, are personnel actions that are banned in the Federal workforce because they violate the merit system through some form of employment discrimination; retaliation; improper hiring practices; or failure to adhere to laws, rules, and regulations that concern the merit system principles.
- What is a personnel action? Any claim of prohibited personnel practices must begin with a personnel action taken, or threatened, against the employee. A "... personnel action..." means: (i) an appointment; (ii) a promotion; (iii) an action under chapter 75 of this title or other disciplinary or corrective action; (iv) a detail, transfer, or reassignment; (v) a reinstatement; (vi) a restoration; (vii) a reemployment; (viii) a performance evaluation under chapter 43 of this title or under title 38; (ix) a decision concerning pay, benefits, or awards, or concerning education or training if the education or training may reasonably be expected to lead to an appointment, promotion, performance evaluation, or other action described in this subparagraph; (x) a decision to order psychiatric testing or examination; (xi) the implementation or enforcement of any nondisclosure policy, form, or agreement; and (xii) any other significant change in duties, responsibilities, or working conditions.
- Is there a statute of limitations for filing a PPP complaint? No. However, it may be difficult to investigate a complaint if there has been a significant lapse of time between an alleged violation and an employee's decision to file with OSC. So, file your complaint promptly.
- Does OSC investigate every PPP complaint? Yes! We review every claim we receive to the extent necessary to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that a PPP occurred, or is about to.
- Will my employer know I filed a claim? Obviously, in order to correct a PPP, OSC must notify an agency of the complaint and the employee who made it. Know that OSC will never tell your employer that you filed a complaint without your permission and, even with your consent, we will not identify you as the complainant until absolutely necessary.

- Am I protected from reprisal for filing with OSC? Of course. Retaliation for filing an OSC complaint or cooperating with an OSC investigation is a PPP. 5 U.S.C. Â§ 2302(b)(9). If you believe your agency has taken a personnel action against you in reprisal for engaging in either of these protected activities, you may file your own PPP complaint with our office.

- If my case is meritorious, what can OSC do for me? Many forms of relief are available, including job restoration, reversal of suspensions or other adverse actions, and back pay. Where appropriate, OSC may also seek disciplinary action against any employee who commits a PPP.

Reporting Wrongdoing (Disclosures)

OSC reviews disclosures of information filed by current and former Federal employees and applicants for Federal employment, which the employee, former employee, or applicant reasonably believes evidence: a violation of law, rule, or regulation; gross mismanagement; a gross waste of funds; an abuse of authority; or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety.

OSC accepts disclosures from current federal employees, former federal employees, and applicants for federal employment (executive branch only). OSC does not have jurisdiction over disclosures filed by:

- Employees of the U.S. Postal Service and the Postal Regulatory Commission;
- Members of the armed forces of the United States (i.e., non-civilian military employees);
- State employees operating under federal grants;
- Other employees or federal agencies exempt by federal law (see: "Jurisdiction"); or
- Congressional or judicial branch employees.

Disclosures that involve foreign intelligence or counterintelligence information must be transmitted by the Special Counsel to the National Security Advisor and to the congressional intelligence committees.

If you are unsure if we have jurisdiction over you, please file your disclosure. More information about reporting wrongdoing to OSC is available on our website at: <https://osc.gov/Pages/dow.aspxat>. The answers to frequently asked questions may be found here: Disclosure FAQs.

If you are not a current, former, or prospective federal employee, you may be able to report wrongdoing to the Inspector General for the agency involved in the wrongdoing. For a list of Inspectors General, please click here.

Wall Street Journal Exposes Washington Post as Bezos Character Assassination Project Against Trump Just For Bezos Payback Personality

“... These reporters can’t even begin a news account of a presidential visit to a military base,” the Wall Street Journal editorial page says

Jon Levine |

The Wall Street Journal’s editorial page offered a feisty Boxing Day piece on Wednesday lashing into the Washington Post over coverage of President Trump’s Christmastime visit to the troops.

The Journal focused on this piece by the Post’s Philip Rucker and Paul Sonne, citing the opening two paragraphs and accusing it of needlessly working in unrelated Trump scandals into a piece that did not call for it.

“... Can anyone reading those opening two sentences wonder why millions of Americans believe Donald Trump when he tells them that he can’t get a fair shake from the press?” the Journal asked. “... The point isn’t to feel sorry for Mr. Trump, whose rhetorical attacks on the press have often been contemptible. The point is that such gratuitously negative reporting undermines the credibility of the press without Mr. Trump having to say a word.”

Also Read: Wall Street Journal Corrects Story That ID'ed 'Vladimir Trump' as President of Russia

â... These reporters canâ... t even begin a news account of a presidential visit to a military base without working in a compilation of Mr. Trumpâ... s controversies, contradictions, and failings,â... the paper added.

The offending paragraphs were quoted verbatim by the journal:

â... President Trump touched down Wednesday in Iraq in his first visit to a conflict zone as commander in chief, a week after announcing a victory over the Islamic State that his own Pentagon and State Department days earlier said remained incomplete.

â... The presidentâ... s visit to Al Asad Air Base west of Baghdad, which was shrouded in secrecy, follows months of public pressure for him to spend time with troops deployed to conflicts in the Middle East and punctuates the biggest week of turmoil the Pentagon has faced during his presidency.â...

The story with the passages cited was subsequently picked up by several local news sites like The Oregonian but no longer appeared to exist in any version of the story on the Postâ... s own site Thursday morning. A look at the Internet Archiveâ... s WayBackMachine reveals the piece was edited after publication, though the original language cited by the Journal appears to have been removed before being archived.

Also Read: 'Apprentice' Staffers Had to 'Reverse Engineer' Episodes Because 'Unprepared' Trump Would Fire Contestants on a Whim

When asked for comment, reps for the Post told TheWrap: â... The story was updated as news developed over the course of the day. It presented facts that were accurate and context that was clearly relevant, as evidenced by the presidentâ... s own comments to American troops regarding Syria and U.S. military commanders.

â... As for President Trump making the trip after criticism for not previously visiting a war zone, the Wall Street Journalâ... s own news story makes the same point,â... the statement added.

Wall Street Journal editorial chief James Taranto also did not immediately respond to an inquiry from TheWrap about the matter.

What Happens When The White House Orders An Attack On A Domestic Taxpaying Citizen As An Illegal Vendetta?

You get attacked by White House operatives when you have the power to change the course of history or to reveal evidence that may get The President removed from office. It is, in fact, a tribute to your significance if it happens to you. A "Tier One" hit job is a high honor because it validates the assertions you are making about the corruption you witnessed. On the other hand, no matter how noble, you will end up ruined, or dead.

So there's that!

In one particular case, the FBI, special investigators and Congressional researchers say that there were only 6 people capable of operating attacks of this scale and sophistication against the victim (known as "Witness 7" in reports).

All 6 of these people are U.S. Government senior officials working in the White House and/or the U.S. Senate.

Every one of the attack technologies and resources used against Witness 7 were previously deployed against Presidential candidates in past elections. The providers, operators and compensation conduits of the attack services are known to law enforcement. The payment records have been uncovered, revealing that over $30M of billings were incurred in the production of, and compensation for, these vendetta attacks. By way of comparison: $30M is the typical WEEKLY expenditure for opposition character assassination programs in a U.S. Presidential election using Gawker, Gizmodo, Facebook, Google and Fusion GPS media attack services.

Witness 7 and his peers swear, warrant and certify that this is true. Witness 7's representatives can prove in a Grand Jury, Civil Jury and Congressional Hearing that White House staff, U.S. Senators and their Silicon Valley financiers did order, operate and finance a massive "hit-job" on the witness as revenge/retribution/vendetta because he reported an organized crime activity involving well known public officials.

EVERY PUBLIC OFFICIAL WHO WAS, BY LAW, SUPPOSED TO HELP THE WITNESS HAS, SO FAR, BEEN PROVEN BY INVESTIGATORS TO HAVE BEEN IN DIRECT COMPETITION AND CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST WITH THE WITNESS AND SOCIALLY PARTYING WITH THE COMPETITORS. Investigators have not found a single political entity in this case who was not either: financed by, friends with, sleeping with, dating the staff of, holding stock market assets in, promised a revolving door job or government service contracts from, partying with, personal friends with, photographed at private events with, making profits by consulting for, exchanging emails with, business associates of or directed by; one of those business adversaries, or the Senators and politicians that those business adversaries pay campaign finances to, or supply political search engine manipulation services to.

The effort made by political executives to steer the annual expenditure of trillions of dollars of taxpayer funds and stock market perks to one group of friends or another is called "Cronyism" and it is operated by U.S. Senators and White House staff for profiteering purposes. The corrupt public officials involved here used real estate, tech company stock market ownership, revolving door payola jobs, quid-pro-quo deals and investment bank accounts to profiteer from each deal that the charged officials pushed in Congress.

FBI-level tracking of the covert accounts, trusts, shell corporations, family members and associates of every public official involved in this case proves that they made money by competing with the Applicant's business ventures. The conflicts-of-interest were massive. The Panama Papers leaks, Swiss Leaks, Snowden Leaks, and all of the other leaks prove this as fact. The facts prove that A modern Character Assassination and political "Kill Order" was executed by famous politicians, and their Silicon Valley oligarch financiers, against the Witness and that government officials blockaded the victims Constitutional rights.

This is how a vendetta, revenge and political payback operation was implemented against an American taxpayer when a "kill-order" was issued against a whistle-blower.

In such Lewinsky-style attacks the main client does not like to get their hands dirty so the actual hit job mechanics are performed by companies such as: IN-Q-Tel; Gawker Media; Jalopnik; Gizmodo Media; K2

Intelligence; WikiStrat; Podesta Group; Fusion GPS; Google; YouTube; Alphabet; Facebook; Twitter; Think Progress; Media Matters; Black Cube; Correct The Record; Orbis Business Intelligence, Undercover Global Ltd; Stratfor; Jigsaw; Kroll; ShareBlue/Acronym; Cambridge Analytica; Sid Blumenthal; David Brock; Plouffe Consulting; David Drummond; Draper Family Fund; Eric Schmidt Family Fund; PR Firm Sunshine Sachs; Yasmin Green; Jared Cohen; Covington and Burling; BuzzFeed; Perkins Coie and Wilson Sonsini to run hit-jobs, character assassinations, dirty tricks and economic reprisal attacks on any party who reported the crimes. Each of those entities are now under federal and civil investigation. These are the people and companies that except cash, revolving door jobs, political appointments, insider trading stock in Silicon Valley tech companies, prostitutes and real estate in exchange for destroying the lives of others.

These attackers deserve to be punished for the rest of their lives for taking away the lives of others in exchange for remuneration. People that they have attacked have committed to hunting them for the rest of time and exposing them in the media and to law enforcement at every opportunity. Most victims of their attacks feel that "...these assassins should be publicly shamed in the media and forced out of business..." like Gawker, Cambridge Analytica and other attack services were.

These attack services are responsible for 90% of the "Fake News" problem in the world because they are the authors of most fake news. Congress must act to make these kinds of attack companies illegal!

These digital assassination services offer hit-jobs, character assassinations and economic reprisal programs to famous billionaires and corrupt politicians who are seeking revenge, retribution and vendetta executions.

These are the specific attacks undertaken against Witness 7:

- Government agency bosses solicited the target with false promises of future loans, contracts and grants from their agency and caused the target victim to expend millions of dollars and years of their time for government projects which those government bosses had covertly already promised to their friends. They defrauded Witness 7 and his investors, knowing that the federal insiders had already hard-wired the money exclusively for their friends and that, from Day One, Witness 7 and his Team were never going to be allowed to compete with the Government agency bosses friends like Elon Musk, Mark Zuckerberg, Larry Page and John Doerr. Even though, Witness 7's Team beat every competitor on every competitive metric, the reviewers were all of their competitors. They used the target victim as a â... smokescreenâ... to cover their illegal government slush-funds for the victims competitors and personal enemies. By using this tactic, the attackers drain the target victims funds and forced victims into an economic disaster without the government bosses fearing any reprisal for their scam. The mobsters made billions of dollars in profit and wind-fall tax gains in the notorious Solyndra scandals as seen in the CBS 60 Minutes episode: â... The Cleantech Crashâ... , thousands of TV news segments and the related GAO and Congressional corruption reports.

- Government officials and LSC Corporation (A federal agency dedicated to providing legal services to victims) blockaded victimâ... s rights to legal representation in order to prevent victim from personally suing the attackers because such a lawsuit would have embarrassed corrupt public officials. High tech law firms that were discussing a services agreement with victim were threatened and ordered to not help victim or â... they would be black-listed or be cut-off from tens of millions of dollars of Google, Netflix, Facebook and government contractsâ... . Individual lawyers were threatened with black-listing and getting â... flooded with more filings than you could ever respond to in your life-time...â... LSC officials, who were almost entirely Obama Administration associates, refused to assist with lawyer referrals, which is against their federal contract. Court-requested legal services applications were stone-walled and "lost".

- An animated attack film was produced attacking victim. An animated film is an expensive effort involving considerable time and expense. An attacker must be well financed to undertake such an effort. The film was published on YouTube and locked onto the very top search result line on every YouTube search in front of 5 billion internet users for over a decade. The damage to victimâ... s reputation is estimated in the tens of millions of dollars. YouTube steadfastly refused to remove or adjust the search results even though YouTube executives knew victim and knew that the video represented a character assassination attempt against victim because YouTube owners finance the political campaigns of the public officials who ordered the attacks. While Google/YouTube stated to Congress that all of its search results are arbitrary, the never-moving search result of this attack video proved that Google's and YouTube's search results are manually manipulated by human maintained black-lists. Any counter-measures videos refuting each and every attack point were hidden or deleted by YouTube.

- Social networking sites including MeetUp, Match, Facebook, etc. and all other IAC-owned, or similar, sites (IAC is managed by Hillary Clinton's daughter, whose Mother knew victim) have had their profiles, texts, and inter-member communications, since those companies were started sold to outside adversaries, hacked or purchased. The financiers of almost every one of these "social" sites are also the financiers of the suspects. The attack service providers use Palantir, In-Q-Tel, Taleo, etc. data analysis software to analyze every activity in those services in order to find honey-trap, blackmail and social conflict exploitation opportunities. Your social life will, essentially, end. Every photo on every social site is cross checked, by computer AI, with every other photo on the internet in order to cull your Facebook, Linkedin, Snapchat and other social media together to create a total manipulation profile data file on you. New contacts on these sites were contacted by the attackers and told to avoid the victim in order to damage victim.

- Social Security, SSI, SDI, Disability and other earned benefits were stone-walled. Applications for benefits for the victim were intentionally lost like a Lois Lerner hard drive. Files in the application process disappeared. A U.S. Senator ordered Applicant's benefits to never be approved even though victim worked 60 hour+ weeks for decades in service to their nation and their community. That same Senator was revealed housing Chinese spies and hiring Fusion GPS for other hit jobs. An SSA official ("Mario") in the local SSA office, who had a devout expressed hatred against one United States President ordered a benefits blockade against victim because he found out that victim's ex-lawyer now worked in the White House. That was a felony violation of victim's rights.

- Government officials and tech oligarchs contacted members of the National Venture Capital association (NVCA) and created national black-lists to blockade victim from receiving investor funding. This was also confirmed in a widely published disclosure by Tesla Motors Daryl Strydom and in published testimony. If Silicon Valley political campaign finance oligarchs black-list you (see the "AngelGate" Scandal and the "High Tech No Poaching Class Action Lawsuit" cases) you will never get investor funding again.

- Federal FOIA requests were hidden, frozen, stone-walled, delayed, lied about and only partially responded to in order to seek to hide information and run cover-ups.

- Compromised State and federal officials play an endless game of Catch-22 by arbitrarily determining that arbitrary deadlines had passed that they, the government officials, had stonewalled and obfuscated applications for, in order to force these deadlines that they set, to appear to be missed.

- Multiple victims were found to be strangely poisoned, not unlike the Alexander Litvenko case. Heavy metals and toxic materials were found right after victim's work with the Department of Energy weapons and energy facilities. Many wonder if victim was intentionally exposed to toxins in retribution for their testimony. The federal MSDS documents clearly show that a number of victims were exposed to deadly compounds and radiations, via DOE, without being provided with proper HazMat suits which DOE officials knew were required. Cellular level exotic laboratory toxins are found in victims biology including cesium, nano-particles and telomere-killing materials.

- Victims employers including Kaiser Permanente, Artech, Sony, etc. were called, and faxed, and ordered to fire target victims from their places of employment, in the middle of the day, with no notice, as a retribution tactic. The attackers openly discussed a planned attack on social media, then executed the attack.

- On orders from David Plouffe, David Axelrod, John Podesta and other Obama White House officials Google, YouTube, Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media produced attack articles and defamation videos. Google locked these contrived attack articles from the Nicholas Guido Denton tabloid empire on the top line, of the front page of all Google searches for a decade in front of 7.5 billion people, around the world. This attack-type uses over $40+ million dollars in server farms, production costs and internet rigging. The forensic data acquired from tracking some of these attacks proves that Google rigged these attacks against victim on the internet and that all of Google's impressions are manually controlled by Google's executives who are also the main financiers and policy directors of the Obama Administration. For all of time, when-ever any person in the world typed victim's name on the Google-controlled internet, they were directed to defamation articles operated and created by Google's financiers and partners. This data was provided to the European Union for its ongoing prosecution of Google's political manipulation of public perceptions. The FBI has been formally asked to interview attackers including: Nicholas Guido Denton, Ian Fette, Adrian Covert, Nick Cook and John Hermann. Victim's of those attackers have hired private investigators to place them under permanent surveillance. See more in: How Google Controls Government Policy And Process In America FREE.pdf

- Victims HR and employment records, on Taleo, Palantir, SAP, IBM DB and EVERY recruiting and hiring database, was embedded with negative keywords and flags in order to prevent the victim from ever gaining future employment.

- Gary D. Conley, Seth Rich, Rajeev Motwani who victim knew, and many other whistle-blowers in these matters, turned up dead under strange circumstances. Many of them seem to have been murdered using sophisticated spy agency-style tactics. Victim has received ongoing death threats for his help to federal investigations in the larger organized crime investigation relative to this matter.

- Paypal (A DNC-biased operation) and other on-line payments for on-line sales by victim are de-platformed, delayed, hidden, or re-directed in order to terminate income potential for target who competed with the attackers interests and holdings. This further denied victim income. As a test, victim built an online store with hundreds of thousands of products and marketed it globally. Trackers, placed by victim's technicians, on servers, discovered that Paypal and an outside Virginia-based system were DNS and payment re-directed all traffic away from the store so that victim received no traffic and no income. In DNS redirection, "website spoofing" sends target victim's websites to dead ends where no sales orders or customer inquiries actually get back to the target. These internet revenue activity manipulations are conducted using outside covert servers operated by the attackers and revealed in the Snowden Leaks. All commercial storefronts and on-line sales attempts by target victims, had their sites hidden, or search engine de-linked by a massively resourced facility located in Virginia, Texas or Palo Alto, California in order to terminate revenue potentials for the victim.

- Contracted trolls, shells, botnets and synth-blog deployments are deployed to place defamatory statements and disinformation about victim in front of 7.5 billion people around the world on the internet in order to seek to damage their federal testimony credibility by a massively resourced facility. Some of these troll farms were uncovered in Russia, Ukraine, Israel and Brazil.

- Campaign finance dirty tricks contractors were hired by campaign financiers to attack the friends and family members of the target victim in order to create low morale for the target victim's psyche and motivation.

- In one case covert political partner: Google, transferred large sums of cash to dirty tricks contractors and then manually locked the media portion of the attacks into the top lines of the top pages of all Google searches globally, for years, with hidden embedded html and php codes in the links and web-pages which multiplied the attacks on Victims by many magnitudes.

- Covert Cartel financier: Google, placed Google's lawyer: Michelle Lee, in charge of the U.S. Patent Office and she, in turn, stacked all of the U.S. Patent Office IPR and ALICE review boards and offices with Google-supporting employees in order to rig the U.S. Patent Office to protect Google from being prosecuted for the vast patent thefts that Google engages in. Google has hundreds of patent lawsuits for technology theft and a number of those lawsuits refer to Google's operations as "Racketeering", "Monopolistic Cartel" and "Government Coup-like" behaviors. Thousands of articles and investigations detail the fact that Google, essentially, ran the Obama White House and provided over 80% of the key White House staff. A conflict-of-interest unlike any in American history. Google's investors personally told Applicant they would "kill him". Google and the Obama Administration were "the same entity". Applicant testified in the review that got Michelle Lee terminated and uncovered a tactical political and social warfare group inside Google who were financed by Federal and State funds. Most of the corrupt politicians in this case own parts of Google or have been paid campaign funds by Google. Revenue from the U.S. Patent Office assigned rights for Witness 7 were blockaded on political orders from a political campaign financier. This blockade cost Witness 7 millions of dollars in losses. It was yet another political trick that only Witness 7 was hit with when all of his peers were exempt.

- "Honey-traps" and moles were employed by the attackers. In this tactic, people who covertly worked for the attackers were employed to approach the "target" in order to spy on and misdirect the subject.

- Mortgage and rental applications had red flags added to them in databases to prevent the targets from getting homes or apartments for over a decade. These public services database manipulations take only seconds to do but affect the target for the rest of their lives!

- Krebs On Security, Wired, Ars Technica, The Wall Street Journal and most major IT publications have reported that hundreds of spy "back-doors" have been found on every Intel, AMD, Apple, Xfinity, Cisco, Microsoft, Juniper Networks motherboard, chip-set and hardware component set. This means that the attackers used a "key" code can open any of victims computer, server, router, cloud-network or other network connected device and read every file, photo, video, your calendar and email on devices at any time from any location on Earth. This has been widely reported on by Glenn Greenwald, Edward Snowden, Jeremy Scahill, Cheryl Atkisson of CBS News and others. Victim was hacked at least 10 times. In a number of instances, people, who victim had been communicating with online, were mysteriously contacted by a third party who sent them the Gizmodo attack article or phoned them with warnings to avoid victim. These kinds of Man-In-The-Middle interceptions would only have been possible from hacking and MITM surveillance tactics. Microsoft Outlook, an easily hacked software program, was found to be sending copies of communications to adversaries via a "dark drop".

- McCarthy-Era "Black-lists" were created and employed against target victims who competed with Obama Administration executives and their campaign financiers to prevent them from getting funding and future employment. This White House process is known as "RatFucking", a tactic that is documented in a variety of published reports and on Wikipedia.

- The housing rights of Applicant were stalled in reprisal. Public records show that tens of thousands of other applicants were moved ahead of victim even though victim's validation metrics exceeded those of almost every other Applicant. Victim was "black-listed".

Federal law enforcement, the United States Congress and the highest level investigators in the U.S., and abroad, have documented (per the "FISA Memo", Congressional Reports and federal employee testimony) and proven the fact that the Obama Administration regularly engaged in the operation of retribution, vendetta and reprisal campaigns known as "hit-jobs" against domestic natural born U.S. citizen domestic taxpayers. The Federal Court, in at least one previous court case, has ruled that the corporation in which victim was an investor, in this particular matter, were the victims and target of a number of these attacks designed to inflict permanent medical, emotional, character assassination, brand negation, economic and career damage.

The law says that any of these attack tactics, that are not illegal, may be freely done back to the attackers. Thousands of citizen groups and citizen sleuth public crowd-sourced forensics investigators are doing just that!

** 'They Can't Beat Him On The Law So They Are Trying To Destroy His Life' -Sen. Graham Questions Dems' Motives On Brett Kavanaugh Sexual Assault Allegations (dailycaller.com)

** Silicon Valley Has Been Manipulating The Entire BREXIT Campaign !!!!! Second former employee of controversial data firm to be questioned by special counselâ... s inquiry into Russia collusion. Per Carole Cadwalladr: Brittany Kaiser is said to be cooperating fully with the Mueller inquiry. A director of the controversial data company Cambridge Analytica, who appeared with Arron Banks at the launch of the Leave.EU campaign, has been subpoenaed by the US investigation into possible collusion between the Trump campaign and the Russian government. A spokesman for Brittany Kaiser, former business development director for Cambridge Analytica â... which collapsed after the Observer revealed details of its misuse of Facebook data â... confirmed that she had been subpoenaed by special counsel Robert Mueller, and was cooperating fully with his investigation. He added that she was assisting other US congressional and legal investigations into the companyâ... s activities and had voluntarily turned over documents and data. Kaiser, who gave evidence to the UK parliament last April in which she claimed Cambridge Analytica had carried out in-depth work for Leave.EU, is the second individual connected to the firm subpoenaed by the special counsel. The Electoral Commission has said its investigation into Leave.EU found no evidence that the campaign â... received donations or paid for services from Cambridge Analytica â... beyond initial scoping workâ... . Damian Collins, chairman of parliamentâ... s inquiry into fake news, said it was â... no surpriseâ... that Kaiser was under scrutiny by Mueller because â... her work connected her to WikiLeaks, Cambridge Analytica and [its parent company] SCL, the Trump campaign, Leave.EU and Arron Banksâ... . He said it was now vital Britain had its own inquiry into foreign interference: â... We should not be leaving this to the Americans.â...

** CBS NEWS 60 MINUTES Lara Logan "Iâ... m Being â... Targetedâ... . Per Tamar Auber: former CBS News foreign correspondent Lara Logan spoke with Fox News Sean Hannity about her recent comments slamming the media as â... mostly liberal.â... Logan told Breitbart podcaster Mike Ritland the remarks made on his show â... which drew widespread attention online â... amounted to â... professional suicide.â... Defending her remarks on Hannityâ... s show, Logan said that as the result of her speaking out about how the media is â... mostly liberal.â... she has been targeted because she is an independent voice. â... Any journalists who are not beating the same drum and giving the same talking points,â... she insisted â... pay the priceâ... for not going along with the liberal crowd. She also called out her targeters by name. â... I know theyâ... re going to come after me,â... she told Hannity. â... Michael Calderone who is at the Huffington Post. I can give you the script now. I can tell you who the players are. Joe Hagan. Brian Stelter.â... She added:â... They smear you personally. They go after your integrity. They go after your reputation as a person and a professional. They will stop at nothing. I am not the only one. And I am just, I am done, right, I am tired of it. And they do not get to write my story anymore. They donâ... t get to speak for me, I want to say loudly and clearly to anybody who is listening, I am not owned. Nobody owns me, right? Iâ... m not owned by the left or the right.â... Logan made headlines recently when, during a scorched earth podcast interview with Ritland, she said that there was a lot of â... weightâ... in most news organizations on â... one side of the political spectrum.â... â... The media everywhere is mostly liberal. But in this country, 85 percent of journalists are registered Democrats. So thatâ... s just a fact, right?â... she told Ritland. She also trashed reporting based on single, anonymous government sources. â... Thatâ... s not journalism, thatâ... s horseshit,â... Logan stressed. â... Responsibility for fake news begins with us. We bear some responsibility for that, and weâ... re not taking ownership of that and addressing it. We just want to blame it all on somebody else.â...

** Internal documents from a private Israeli intelligence firm called Psy-Group show that, at the time of many incidents, the company, and possibly other private investigators, were targeting U.S. citizens because they spoke up about crimes. Psy-Groupâ... s intelligence and influence operations, which included a failed attempt in the summer of 2017 to sway a local election in central California, were detailed in a New Yorker investigation that I co-wrote earlier this month. Before it went out of business (ie: changed it's name) , last year, Psy-Group was part of a new wave of private-intelligence firms that recruited from the ranks of Israelâ... s secret services and described themselves as â... private Mossads.â... Psy-Group initially stood out among its rivals because it didnâ... t just gather intelligence; its operatives used false identities, or avatars, to covertly spread messages in an attempt to influence what people believed and how they behaved. In 2016, Psy-Group held discussions with the Trump campaign and others about conducting covert â... influenceâ... operations to benefit the candidate. Psy-Groupâ... s founder and C.E.O., Royi Burstien, a veteran Israeli intelligence officer who established the firm in 2014, told me that his talks with the Trump campaign went nowhere. The companyâ... s posturing, however, attracted the attention of Robert Mueller, the special counsel, who has been investigating interference in the 2016 Presidential race.'

** FED BOMBHELL: Fusion GPS Bribe Dozens of MSM Journalists With Cash To Run Character Assassinations. High-ranking FBI insiders are pulling back the curtain on Fusion GPS, the firm that commissioned and spread the bogus Trump dossier. It appears the embattled intelligence firm was quite busy paying off Big Media reporters, according to federal sources who have traced dozens of transactions between TD Bank and media members as well as media organizations, sources confirm. But stunningly, Big Media organizations have employed Fusion GPS to dig dirt on politicians and D.C.â... s elite â... namely Donald Trump. â... Fusion GPS was on the payroll of the media and in turn had members of the media on its payroll,â... one FBI insider said. FBI insiders confirm Fusion GPS employed law firms as well as shell companies to send and receive funds to and from media and reporters. But the embattled firm also used its accounts at TD Bank to directly commission reporters. Likewise, Fusion GPS received funds from media companies into its own accounts at TD Bank, FBI insiders said, â... There are dozens of payments from the media flowing into their (Fusion GPSâ... ) account,â... one federal law enforcement official said. â... One company wired funds to Fusion (GPS) more than a dozen times.â... Why would media companies commission Fusion GPS? Likely to dig dirt on enemies or secure records that reporters could not legally obtain, one federal law enforcement insider said. One FBI insider said the payments to Fusion GPS coincide with Donald Trumpâ... s run for the White House. The payments were made between Sept. 2015 and Sept. 2017, records show. The unthinkable: The mainstream media paying Fusion GPS for dirt on Trump to the same firm the Democratic National Committee paid to fund the bogus Trump dossier. And at the same time Fusion GPS bribing journalists to place stories â... likely negative about Trump, as well as spread the bogus

Trump dossier around.

A few weeks ago, Glenn Greenwald, while working with NBC News, revealed some details of a GCHQ presentation concerning how the surveillance organization had a "dirty tricks" group known as JTRIG ...

** Snowden Drip: Government Funded Character Assassination Squads Rampant Online

From The Intercept:

One of the many pressing stories that remains to be told from the Snowden archive is how western intelligence agencies are attempting to manipulate and control online discourse with extreme tactics of deception and reputation-destruction. It's time to tell a chunk of that story, complete with the relevant documents.

Over the last several weeks, I worked with NBC News to publish a series of articles about a... dirty trick... tactics used by GCHQ's previously secret unit, JTRIG (Joint Threat Research Intelligence Group). These were based on four classified GCHQ documents presented to the NSA and the other three partners in the English-speaking a... Five Eyes... alliance. Today, we at the Intercept are publishing another new JTRIG document, in full, entitled a... The Art of Deception: Training for Online Covert Operations.

By publishing these stories one by one, our NBC reporting highlighted some of the key, discrete revelations: the monitoring of YouTube and Blogger, the targeting of Anonymous with the very same DDoS attacks they accuse a... hacktivists... of using, the use of... honey traps... (luring people into compromising situations using sex) and destructive viruses. But, here, I want to focus and elaborate on the overarching point revealed by all of these documents: namely, that these agencies are attempting to control, infiltrate, manipulate, and warp online discourse, and in doing so, are compromising the integrity of the internet itself.

There... s a common misconception in the public that there are briefcases full of cash changing hands in Washington, DC, and votes of Members of Congress are for sale to the highest cash bidder. Make no mistake, the votes are still for sale, but the direct cash payments are (mostly) gone. While bags of bills may have been how it worked in the past, that... s not how corruption happens anymore. A lot of money still changes hands and people are getting rich, but it... s now done through "conduit intermediaries".

Hunter Biden knew as much about Ukraine and the oil and natural gas business as he did about not smoking crack, so of course him getting a position with a Ukrainian gas and oil company for $50,000 per month was a pay-off to his dad. Every parent wants their kids to do well, few are in a position to actually make that happen. Or, in the case of the former vice president, in charge of a US administration... s policy for a country most people couldn... t find on a map.

But Biden... s shady dealings are not unique to him, or to Democrats. It... s political graft by proxy. You can... t pay off a politician anymore because there are digital fingerprints everywhere, so they find other covert ways to achieve the same outcome.

Children and spouses of politicians are raking in cash from campaigns and corporations seeking to buy influence. California's Bay Area Senators excel at such graft. Remember: these are the people who write the rules and they only write the rules for themselves, not you!

Board seats, real estate, revolving door jobs and sweetheart ... consulting... , "speaking" and lobbying contracts are the new bags of cash. Department of Energy free loans are the ultimate political payola to campaign financiers. Want a chairman of a specific committee to look favorably on your bids for government contracts? Put someone close to them in a position to benefit from it. Want protections from regulators or to use regulators to harm your competitors or guard against foreign competition? Make the livelihood of someone who matters to the people in power dependent upon getting your way. Watch the seas part.

Campaigns are not the cash cows corporations are, no one is raking in more than the average American family... s annual income every month from them like Hunter Biden was from Burisma. But for the closest to direct payoffs you can get, look no further than campaign cash.

Politicians beg for money every single day. If you have the misfortune to end up on a campaign... s email list, you find yourself getting emails begging for money from big name politicians and people you... ve never heard of.

They all breathlessly try to spin the reader up about how important it is you give, even just a couple of dollars, to them to keep or get them in office. You likely laugh at them, they... re absurd to normal people. But they must work on someone because they keep sending them and the money flows.

Much of that money goes to politicians who have a better shot of waking up naked on the moon than they do losing their reelection bids. After they contract with the necessary power-brokers and kick â... walking around moneyâ... to the required people, a good chunk of that cash ends up in the pockets of their family members.

Hereâ... s just one example: Maxine Waters won reelection in 2018 with 78 percent of the vote even though she doesnâ... t live in her district. Her job is so safe that she could hold a press conference the week before the vote and call her constituents morons while whipping puppies into a wood-chipper and sheâ... d still win in a walk. But she still raises a fortune for her campaign.

Being Chair of the House Financial Services Committee has its perks, people with a lot of money want to suck up to Waters so they can make even more.

To remain in the good graces of Waters or any Member of Congress you gotta cut a check, whether their campaign needs the money or not. In the case of Waters, she hired her daughter to handle campaign mailing to voters. Why mail voters who are going to reelect you no matter what when mailing constituents is budgeted for in every congressional office? Because your campaign can pay family a ton of money to do it.

The news reports Karen Waters, Maxineâ... s daughter, was paid hundreds of thousands of dollars to send out mailers for her motherâ... s campaign. Those campaign contributions donâ... t go directly into the pockets of the politicians, theyâ... re laundered through the campaigns to family members, sometimes spouses. Waters is not alone, not by a long shot.

Right out in the open, there are payoffs, kickbacks, and graft happening every day. Hunter Biden is in the spotlight right now, and with good reason, but heâ... s just the tip of the iceberg. Itâ... s all corrupt as hell, and no one is saying a damn thing about it...until now! Corruption - Your Termination Notice Has Been Served!

No matter where you stand politically, a growing body of facts raises the question: Is there systemic corruption or misfeasance at work inside Americaâ... s intelligence agencies?

By that, I donâ... t mean people stealing money. I mean officials who are stealing our privacy â... using the tools of intelligence-gathering and law-enforcing, which are meant to protect Americans, to instead spy on them, to gather information that isnâ... t the governmentâ... s business (at least not without a courtâ... s approval). And, in some instances, it appears, to punish or silence those with whom they disagree â... personal and political foes, in and out of government â... rather than to pursue and protect Americans from the country's real enemies.

Perhaps more alarming is the growing evidence that suggests some officials at all levels in intelligence and justice agencies are operating in a way that is clearly intended to serve their own political beliefs and interests â not the public's interests.

ADVERTISEMENT And sometimes, it appears, they operate not just in direct defiance of their superiors but of the Congress, the courts and the very laws of the land as well.

(Almost as disturbing, Congress, for its part, seems all too willing to allow all of this to take place, when it becomes known, rather than using its authority to stop the misfeasance, punish the miscreants who lie or stonewall, and protect their constituents.)

This is not, in my view, a partisan political question. The evidence leading us to ask such a disturbing question indicates there are forces inside our intelligence agencies that are more persistent and powerful than any single political party or administration. They can usurp the intentions of the many fine intelligence officers serving our country.

The following examples are not a comprehensive list; instead, they are a representative guidepost that demonstrates the cause for concern while showing that this is not a new phenomenon or one confined to a single administration:

Telecom takeover

Joe Nacchio, CEO of telecom giant Qwest, said that after he refused to spy on his customers for the National Security Agency (NSA) without a warrant in February of 2001, the government retaliated by yanking a contract worth hundreds of millions of dollars and filing an insider trading case against him. He went to prison. The government denied charges of retaliation.

Olympic spying

In 2002, the NSA reportedly engaged in â blanket surveillanceâ of the Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, Utah, collecting and storing â virtually all electronic communications going into or out of the Salt Lake City area, including â emails and text messagesâ to â experiment with and fine tune a new scale of mass surveillance.â... NSA officials had denied such a program existed.

Spying on Congress

In 2005 intel officials intercepted and recorded phone conversations between then-Congresswoman Jane Harman (D-Calif.) and pro-Israel lobbyists who were under investigation for espionage. In 2009, someone â... exactly who was never revealed â... leaked Harmanâ... s â... unmaskedâ... name to the press. In 2011, intel officials captured private communications between then-Congressman Dennis Kucinich (D-Ohio) and a Libyan official. The wiretapped recordings were later leaked to the press â... again, by unknown sources.

Journalist "witch hunts"

Internal emails from a â... global intelligence companyâ... executive in 2010 stated: â... Brennan is behind the witch hunts of investigative journalists learning information from inside the beltway sources. Note -- There is specific tasker from the [White House] to go after anyone printing materials negative to the Obama agenda (oh my.) Even the FBI is shocked.â... The name â... Brennanâ... appears to reference then-U.S. homeland security adviser John Brennan, who went on to become CIA director.

Misleading on mass spying

On March 12, 2013, Director of National Intelligence James Clapper told Congress that intel officials were not collecting mass data on tens of millions of Americans. NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden soon revealed material that proved Clapperâ... s testimony false: The government had been gathering and storing data from ordinary Americansâ... phone records, email and Internet use.

More spying on Congress

CIA officials improperly accessed Senate Intelligence Committee computers, according to an Inspector General report in July 2014, contradicting denials by then-CIA Director Brennan. Meantime, Obama intel officials secretly captured communications of a half-dozen members of Congress and organizations in the U.S. while wiretapping Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

NSA privacy violations

In fall 2016, the government confessed to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court â... significant non-complianceâ... of crucial procedures designed to protect privacy rights of U.S. citizens. The judge accused the NSA of â... institutional â... lack of candorâ... â... and declared: â... This is a very serious Fourth Amendment issue.â...

Intel mutiny?

Government requests to see or â... unmaskâ... names of Americans whose communications are â... incidentallyâ... captured during national security surveillance are supposed to be rare and justified. Yet Obama administration officials made them on a near-daily basis during the 2016 election year. U.N. Ambassador Susan Rice admitted under pressure that she â... unmaskedâ... senior Trump transition officials who met with a foreign official under surveillance at Trump Tower. In early 2017, the CIA, NSA and FBI refused congressional requests to provide a list of unmasking requests made by Obama officials. Meantime, the FBI also stonewalled Congress about the opposition research â... dossierâ... against Trump that the FBI obtained during the campaign.

Politically motivated press leak

In May 2017, former FBI Director James Comey secretly orchestrated a â... leakâ... to The New York Times of negative memos he said he wrote contemporaneously about President Trump, with the motive of spurring the appointment of a special counsel to investigate the presidentâ... s alleged Russia ties. Special counsel Robert Mueller (who has served under Presidents Reagan, Clinton, Obama and both Bushes) was appointed a short time later.

Conflicted investigators

One purpose of special counsel investigations, such as the Russia investigation being led by former FBI Director Mueller, is to avoid the appearance of conflicts of interest. But multiple investigators working on Muellerâ... s team have been removed after being caught in compromising positions. They include FBI agent Peter Strzok who sent a questionable text message to a fellow agent with whom he was having an affair. The message talks about needing an â... insurance policyâ... in case Donald Trump were elected president.

Think all this really doesnâ... t matter to you, as a private citizen? You never know. Reality hit home for me when multiple computer forensics reports confirmed extensive government surveillance of me while I reported for CBS News during the Obama administration. Rather than cooperate or expose the bad actors, todayâ s Department of Justice is opposing my lawsuit over those intrusions in Virginia federal court.

Debate rages in the GOP over ObamaCare repeal

A debate is raging in the Republican Party over the future of ObamaCare, with some urging the party to take another shot at repeal in 2018.

Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.), whose majority will fall to a single seat in January, has signaled he intends to move on from legislation repealing the Affordable Care Act and instead look for bills that can pass with bipartisan support.

"Well, we obviously were unable to completely repeal and replace with a 52-48 Senate," McConnell told NPR. "We'll have to take a look at what that looks like with a 51-49 Senate. But I think we'll probably move on to other issues."

That answer isn't sitting well with some conservatives, who say the party shouldn't turn its back on a long-standing campaign pledge.

Repealing ObamaCare is â... absolutely necessary for the conservative base,â... said Dan Holler, a spokesman for Heritage Action.

As congressional Republicans decide what major legislation to tackle next year, it â... needs to be ObamaCare,â... Holler said.

Heading into a midterm election year, Republican leaders are eager to leave behind the turmoil of the ObamaCare repeal push â... a failed effort that wasted months of valuable time â... and turn to issues like welfare reform.

Like McConnell, Speaker Paul Ryan (R-Wis.) has made clear heâ... s eager to tackle other legislative priorities next year.

â... I donâ... t think the health care issue is done,â... Ryan said in an interview with The Weekly Standard published Friday. The report noted Ryan indicated a willingness to return to ObamaCare as soon as January.

â... At the end of the day, weâ... ve got to go after the root cause â... health care inflation and entitlements. Welfare reform is going to be our next lift,â... Ryan said.

The emerging focus on reforms to domestic programs does have support on the right, as many conservative groups have long called for action to rein in programs like food stamps and Medicaid.

FreedomWorks is supportive of the welfare reform effort, according to Jason Pye, the groupâ... s vice president of legislative affairs.

â... I think the House is outlining some ambitious plans for next year,â... Pye said, adding, â... weâ... re certainly on board with that, moving on welfare reform or welfare reform and entitlement reform.â...

McConnell, meanwhile, has talked of wanting to seek bipartisan victories in 2018 and pointed to infrastructure as a likely area of cooperation.

"I think it's pretty popular with Democrats and Republicans," McConnell said at an Axios event Thursday.

President Trump has long urged action on infrastructure and is expected to release a legislative proposal next year. He tweeted support Friday for working with Democrats on a bill.

â... At some point, and for the good of the country, I predict we will start working with the Democrats in a Bipartisan fashion. Infrastructure would be a perfect place to start. After having foolishly spent $7 trillion in the Middle East, it is time to start rebuilding our country!â... Trump tweeted.

But conservative groups warn Republicans should not stray from the core issues that helped them win power in 2016.

â... It's important for Republican members of Congress to recall that they made a promise during last year's campaign to repeal ObamaCare,â... said Andy Roth, vice president of government affairs for Club for Growth, a conservative group.

â... So even though they had a difficult time doing that earlier this year, they still owe it to the American public to try again,â... he said. â... We definitely think that they need to tackle it.â...

Asked whether Republicans should use reconciliation to pass an ObamaCare repeal bill, Roth responded: â... If they think they can tackle entitlement reform of a material size, and whether thatâ... s ObamaCare repeal or welfare reform, theyâ... ve got to do one or the other.â...

Rep. Mark Walker (R-N.C.), the chairman of the conservative Republican Study Committee Chairman (RSC), said he hopes Republicans can get both entitlement reform and ObamaCare repeal done next year.

Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.), who has co-authored an ObamaCare repeal bill with Sen. Bill Cassidy (R-La.), last week reiterated his commitment to pushing his legislation in 2018.

â... To those who believe â... including Senate Republican leadership â... that in 2018 there will not be another effort to Repeal and Replace Obamacare -- well you are sadly mistaken,â... Graham tweeted, along with a link to McConnellâ... s NPR effort.

McConnell and others have noted the difficulty Republicans are likely to have in passing an ObamaCare repeal bill with a 51-49 majority. Repeal legislation failed in the Senate repeatedly this year, when the GOP still enjoyed a 52-48 advantage.

With the midterm elections fast approaching, passing ObamaCare repeal legislation could prove a heavy lift.

â... The Graham-Cassidy proposal, they intend to, obviously, continue to work on. And my view of that is, as soon as we have the votes to achieve it, I would like to do that,â... McConnell said at a year-end press conference Friday. â... The only observation I made yesterday that you may be referring to is, 51-49 is a pretty â... is a pretty tight majority. But I'd love to be able to make more substantial changes to Obamacare than we have.â...

Failing to repeal ObamaCare was a â... big broken promiseâ... that conservatives will remember, Pye, of FreedomWorks, said. But he, too, acknowledged the challenge of getting 51 votes in the Senate.

"[Graham's] comments on Twitter the other day, just saying that it's imperative that we come back and revisit this issue at some point in time, I think he's absolutely right. We should,â... Pye said. â... But there's got to be some evidence of getting to 50 or 51 before we can do that."

WHY OBAMA REALLY SPIED ON TAXPAYERS

Obama had to spy on the public to protect himself.

September 20, 2017

Daniel Greenfield

Last week, CNN revealed (and excused) one phase of the Obama spying operation on Trump. After lying about it on MSNBC, Susan Rice admitted unmasking the identities of Trump officials to Congress.

Rice was unmasking the names of Trump officials a month before leaving office. The targets may have included her own successor, General Flynn, who was forced out of office using leaked surveillance.

While Rice's targets weren't named, the CNN story listed a meeting with Flynn, Bannon and Kushner.

Bannon was Trump's former campaign chief executive and a senior adviser. Kushner is a senior adviser. Those are exactly the people you spy on to get an insight into what your political opponents plan to do.

Now the latest CNN spin piece informs us that secret FISA orders were used to spy on the conversations of Trump's former campaign chairman, Paul Manafort. The surveillance was discontinued for lack of evidence and then renewed under a new warrant. This is part of a pattern of FISA abuses by Obama Inc. which never allowed minor matters like lack of evidence to dissuade them from new FISA requests.

Desperate Obama cronies had figured out that they could bypass many of the limitations on the conventional investigations of their political opponents by â... launderingâ... them through national security.

If any of Trumpâ... s people were talking to non-Americans, the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) could be used to spy on them. And then the redacted names of the Americans could be unmasked by Susan Rice, Samantha Power and other Obama allies. It was a technically legal Watergate.

If both CNN stories hold up, then Obama Inc. had spied on two Trump campaign leaders.

Furthermore the Obama espionage operation closely tracked Trumpâ... s political progress. The first FISA request targeting Trump happened the month after he received the GOP nomination. The second one came through in October: the traditional month of political surprises meant to upend an election.

The spying ramped up after Trumpâ... s win when the results could no longer be used to engineer a Hillary victory, but would instead have to be used to cripple and bring down President Trump. Headed out the door, Rice was still unmasking the names of Trumpâ... s people while Obama was making it easier to pass around raw eavesdropped data to other agencies.

Obama had switched from spying on a political opponent to win an election, to spying on his successor to undo the results of the election. Abuse of power by a sitting government had become subversion of the government by an outgoing administration. Domestic spying on opponents had become a coup.

The Democrat scandals of the past few administrations have hinged on gross violations of political norms, elementary ethics and the rule of law that, out of context, were not technically illegal.

But itâ... s the pattern that makes the crime. Itâ... s the context that shows the motive.

Obama Inc. compartmentalized its espionage operation in individual acts of surveillance and unmasking, and general policies implemented to aid both, that may have been individually legal, in the purely technical sense, in order to commit the major crime of eavesdropping on the political opposition.

When the individual acts of surveillance are described as legal, thatâ... s irrelevant. Itâ... s the collective pattern of surveillance of the political opposition that exposes the criminal motive for them.

If Obama spied on two of Trumpâ... s campaign leaders, thatâ... s not a coincidence. Itâ... s a pattern.

A criminal motive can be spotted by a consistent pattern of actions disguised by different pretexts. A dirty cop may lose two pieces of evidence from the same defendant while giving two different excuses. A shady accountant may explain two otherwise identical losses in two different ways. Both excuses are technically plausible. But itâ... s the pattern that makes the crime.

Manafort was spied on under the Russia pretext. Bannon may have been spied on over the UAE. Thatâ... s two different countries, two different people and two different pretexts.

But one single target. President Trump.

Itâ... s the pattern that exposes the motive.

When we learn the whole truth (if we ever do), we will likely discover that Obama Inc. assembled a motley collection of different technically legal pretexts to spy on Trump's team.

Each individual pretext might be technically defensible. But together they add up to the crime of the century.

Obama's gamble was that the illegal surveillance would justify itself. If you spy on a bunch of people long enough, especially people in politics and business, some sort of illegality, actual or technical, is bound to turn up. That's the same gamble anyone engaged in illegal surveillance makes.

Businessmen illegally tape conversations with former partners hoping that they'll say something damning enough to justify the risk. That was what Obama and his allies were doing with Trump.

It's a crime. And you can't justify committing a crime by discovering a crime.

If everyone were being spied on all the time, many crimes could be exposed every second. But that's not how our system works. That's why we have a Fourth Amendment.

Nor was Obama Inc. trying to expose crimes for their own sake, but to bring down the opposition.

That's why it doesn't matter what results the Obama surveillance turned up. The surveillance was a crime. Anything turned up by it is the fruit of a poisonous tree. It's inherently illegitimate.

The first and foremost agenda must be to assemble a list of Trump officials who were spied on and the pretexts under which they were spied upon. The pattern will show the crime. And that's what Obama and his allies are terrified of. It's why Flynn was forced out using illegal surveillance and leaks. It's why McMaster is protecting Susan Rice and the Obama holdovers while purging Trump loyalists at the NSC.

The left's gamble was that the Mueller investigation or some other illegitimate spawn of the Obama eavesdropping would produce an indictment and then the procedural questions wouldn't matter.

It's the dirty cop using illegal eavesdropping to generate leads for a clean case against his target while betting that no one will look too closely or care how the case was generated. If one of the Mueller targets is intimidated into making a deal, the question of how the case was generated won't matter.

Mueller will have a cooperative witness. And the Democrats can begin their coup in earnest. It will eventually turn out that there is no there there. But by then, it'll be time for President Booker.

There's just one problem.

If the gamble fails, if no criminal case that amounts to anything more than the usual investigational gimmick charges like perjury (the Federal equivalent of resisting arrest for a beat cop) develops, then Obama and his allies are on the hook for the domestic surveillance of their political opponents.

With nothing to show for it and no way to distract from it.

That's the race against the clock that is happening right now. Either the investigation gets results. Or its perpetrators are left hanging in the wind. If McMaster is fired, which on purely statistical grounds he probably will be, and a Trump loyalist who wasn't targeted by the surveillance operation becomes the next National Security Adviser and brings in Trump loyalists, as Flynn tried to do, then it's over.

And the Dems finally get their Watergate. Except the star won't be Trump, it will be Obama. Rice, Power, Lynch and the rest of the gang will be the new Haldeman, Ehrlichman and Mitchell.

Once Obama and his allies launched their domestic surveillance operation, they crossed the Rubicon. And there was no way back. They had to destroy President Trump or risk going to jail.

The more crimes they committed by spying on the opposition, the more urgently they needed to bring down Trump. The consequences of each crime that they had committed spurred them on to commit worse crimes to save themselves from going to jail. Itâ... s the same old story when it comes to criminals.

Each act of illegal surveillance became more blatant. And when illegal surveillance couldnâ... t stop Trumpâ... s victory, they had to double down on the illegal surveillance for a coup.

The more Obama spied on Trump, the more he had to keep doing it. This time it was bound to pay off.

Obama and his allies had violated the norms so often for their policy goals that they couldnâ... t afford to be replaced by anyone but one of their own. The more Obama relied on the imperial presidency of executive orders, the less he could afford to be replaced by anyone who would undo them. The more his staffers lied and broke the law on everything from the government shutdown to the Iran nuke sellout, the more desperately they needed to pull out all the stops to keep Trump out of office. And the more they did it, the more they couldnâ... t afford not to do it. Abuse of power locks you into the loop familiar to all dictators. You canâ... t stop riding the tiger. Once you start, you canâ... t afford to stop.

If you want to understand why Samantha Power was unmasking names, thatâ... s why. The hysterical obsession with destroying Trump comes from the top down. Itâ... s not just ideology. Itâ... s wealthy and powerful men and women who ran the country and are terrified that their crimes will be exposed.

Itâ... s why the media increasingly sounds like the propaganda organs of a Communist country. Why there are street riots and why the internet is being censored by Google and Facebookâ... s â... fact checkingâ... allies.

Itâ... s not just ideology. Itâ... s raw fear.

The left is sitting on the biggest crime committed by a sitting president. The only way to cover it up is to destroy his Republican successor.

A turning point in history is here.

If Obama goes down, the left will go down with him. If his coup succeeds, then America ends.

In the fall of 2016, Harvey Weinstein set out to suppress allegations that he had sexually harassed or assaulted numerous women. He began to hire private security agencies to collect information on the women and the journalists trying to expose the allegations. According to dozens of pages of documents, and seven people directly involved in the effort, the firms that Weinstein hired included Kroll, which is one of the world's largest corporate-intelligence companies, and Black Cube, an enterprise run largely by former officers of Mossad and other Israeli intelligence agencies. Black Cube, which has branches in Tel Aviv, London, and Paris, offers its clients the skills of operatives "highly experienced and trained in Israel's elite military and governmental intelligence units," according to its literature.

Two private investigators from Black Cube, using false identities, met with the actress Rose McGowan, who eventually publicly accused Weinstein of rape, to extract information from her. One of the investigators pretended to be a women's-rights advocate and secretly recorded at least four meetings with McGowan. The same operative, using a different false identity and implying that she had an allegation against Weinstein, met twice with a journalist to find out which women were talking to the press. In other cases, journalists directed by Weinstein or the private investigators interviewed women and reported back the details.

The explicit goal of the investigations, laid out in one contract with Black Cube, signed in July, was to stop the publication of the abuse allegations against Weinstein that eventually emerged in the New York Times and The New Yorker. Over the course of a year, Weinstein had the agencies "target, or collect information on, dozens of individuals, and compile psychological profiles that sometimes focussed on their personal or sexual histories. Weinstein monitored the progress of the investigations personally. He also enlisted former employees from his film enterprises to join in the effort, collecting names and placing calls that, according to some sources who received them, felt intimidating.

In some cases, the investigative effort was run through Weinstein's lawyers, including David Boies, a celebrated attorney who represented Al Gore in the 2000 Presidential-election dispute and argued for marriage equality before the U.S. Supreme Court. Boies personally signed the contract directing Black Cube to attempt to uncover information that would stop the publication of a Times story about Weinstein's abuses, while his firm was also representing the Times, including in a libel case.

Boies confirmed that his firm contracted with and paid two of the agencies and that investigators from one of them sent him reports, which were then passed on to Weinstein. He said that he did not select the firms or direct the investigators' work. He also denied that the work regarding the Times story represented a conflict of interest. Boies said that his firm's involvement with the investigators was a mistake. "We should not have been contracting with and paying investigators that we did not select and direct," he told me. "At the time, it seemed a reasonable accommodation for a client, but it was not thought through, and that was my mistake. It was a mistake at the time."

Techniques like the ones used by the agencies on Weinstein's behalf are almost always kept secret, and, because such relationships are often run through law firms, the investigations are theoretically protected by attorney-client privilege, which could prevent them from being disclosed in court. The documents and sources reveal the tools and tactics available to powerful individuals to suppress negative stories and, in some cases, forestall criminal investigations.

In a statement, Weinstein's spokesperson, Sallie Hofmeister, said, "It is a fiction to suggest that any individuals were targeted or suppressed at any time."

In May, 2017, McGowan received an e-mail from a literary agency introducing her to a woman who identified herself as Diana Filip, the deputy head of sustainable and responsible investments at Reuben Capital Partners, a London-based wealth-management firm. Filip told McGowan that she was launching an initiative to combat discrimination against women in the workplace, and asked McGowan, a vocal women's-rights advocate, to speak at a gala kickoff event later that year. Filip offered McGowan a fee of sixty thousand dollars. "I understand that we have a lot in common," Filip wrote to McGowan before their first meeting, in May, at the Peninsula Hotel in Beverly Hills. Filip had a U.K. cell-phone number, and she spoke with what McGowan took to be a German accent. Over the following months, the two women met at least three more times at hotel bars in Los Angeles and New York and other locations. "I took her to the Venice boardwalk and we had ice cream while we strolled," McGowan told me, adding that Filip was "very kind." The two talked at length about issues relating to women's empowerment. Filip also repeatedly told McGowan that she wanted to make a significant investment in McGowan's production company.

Filip was persistent. In one e-mail, she suggested meeting in Los Angeles and then, when McGowan said she would be in New York, Filip said she could meet there just as easily. She also began pressing McGowan for information. In a conversation in July, McGowan revealed to Filip that she had spoken to me as part of my reporting on Weinstein. A week later, I received an e-mail from Filip asking for a meeting and suggesting that I join her campaign to end professional discrimination against women. "I am very impressed with your work as a male advocate for gender equality, and believe that you would make an invaluable addition to our activities," she wrote, using her wealth-management firm's e-mail address. Unsure of who she was, I did not respond.

Filip continued to meet with McGowan. In one meeting in September, Filip was joined by another Black Cube operative, who used the name Paul and claimed to be a colleague at Reuben Capital Partners. The goal, according to two sources with knowledge of the effort, was to pass McGowan to another operative to extract more information. On October 10th, the day The New Yorker published my story about Weinstein, Filip reached out to McGowan in an e-mail. â... Hi Love,â... she wrote. â... How are you feeling? . . . Just wanted to tell you how brave I think you are.â... She signed off with an â... xx.â... Filip e-mailed McGowan as recently as October 23rd.

In fact, â... Diana Filipâ... was an alias for a former officer in the Israeli Defense Forces who originally hailed from Eastern Europe and was working for Black Cube, according to three individuals with knowledge of the situation. When I sent McGowan photos of the Black Cube agent, she recognized her instantly. â... Oh my God,â... she wrote back. â... Reuben Capital. Diana Filip. No fucking way.â...

Ben Wallace, a reporter at New York who was pursuing a story on Weinstein, said that the same woman met with him twice last fall. She identified herself only as Anna and suggested that she had an allegation against Weinstein. When I presented Wallace with the same photographs of Black Cubeâ... s undercover operative, Wallace recalled her vividly. â... Thatâ... s her,â... he said. Like McGowan, Wallace said that the woman had what he assumed to be a German accent, as well as a U.K. cell-phone number. Wallace told me that Anna first contacted him on October 28, 2016, when he had been working on the Weinstein story for about a month and a half. Anna declined to disclose who had given her Wallaceâ... s information. Over the course of the two meetings, Wallace grew increasingly suspicious of her motives. Anna seemed to be pushing him for information, he recalled, â... about the status and scope of my inquiry, and about who I might be talking to, without giving me any meaningful help or information.â... During their second meeting, Anna requested that they sit close together, leading Wallace to suspect that she might be recording the exchange. When she recounted her experiences with Weinstein, Wallace said, â... it seemed like soap-opera acting.â... Wallace wasnâ... t the only journalist the woman contacted. In addition to her e-mails to me, Filip also e-mailed Jodi Kantor, of the Times, according to sources involved in the effort.

The U.K. cell-phone numbers that Filip provided to Wallace and McGowan have been disconnected. Calls to Reuben Capital Partnersâ... number in London went unanswered. As recently as Friday, the firm had a bare-bones Web site, with stock photos and generic text passages about asset management and an initiative called Women in Focus. The site, which has now been taken down, listed an address near Piccadilly Circus, operated by a company specializing in shared office space. That company said that it had never heard of Reuben Capital Partners. Two sources with knowledge of Weinsteinâ... s work with Black Cube said that the firm creates fictional companies to provide cover for its operatives, and that Filipâ... s firm was one of them.

Black Cube declined to comment on the specifics of any work it did for Weinstein. The agency said in a statement, â... It is Black Cubeâ... s policy to never discuss its clients with any third party, and to never confirm or deny any speculation made with regard to the companyâ... s work. Black Cube supports the work of many leading law firms around the world, especially in the US, gathering evidence for complex legal processes, involving commercial disputes, among them uncovering negative campaigns. . . . It should be highlighted that Black Cube applies high moral standards to its work, and operates in full compliance with the law of any jurisdiction in which it operatesâ... strictly following the guidance and legal opinions provided by leading law firms from around the world.â... The contract with the firm also specified that all of its work would be obtained â... by legal means and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.â...

Last fall, Weinstein began mentioning Black Cube by name in conversations with his associates and attorneys. The agency had made a name for itself digging up information for companies in Israel, Europe, and the U.S. that led to successful legal judgments against business rivals. But the firm has also faced legal questions about its employeesâ... use of fake identities and other tactics. Last year, two of its investigators were arrested in Romania on hacking charges. In the end, the company reached an agreement with the Romanian authorities, under which the operatives admitted to hacking and were released. Two sources familiar with the agency defended its decision to work for Weinstein, saying that they originally believed that the assignment focussed on his business rivals. But even the earliest lists of names that Weinstein provided to Black Cube included actresses and journalists.

On October 28, 2016, Boiesâ... s law firm, Boies Schiller Flexner, wired to Black Cube the first hundred thousand dollars, toward what would ultimately be a six-hundred-thousand-dollar invoice. (The documents do not make clear how much of the invoice was paid.) The law firm and Black Cube signed a contract that month and several others later. One, dated July 11, 2017, and bearing Boiesâ... s signature, states that the projectâ... s â... primary objectivesâ... are to â... provide intelligence which will help the Clientâ... s efforts to completely stop the publication of a new negative article in a leading NY newspaperâ... and to â... obtain additional content of a book which currently being written and includes harmful negative information on and about the Client,â... who is identified as Weinstein in multiple documents. (In one e-mail, a Black Cube executive asks lawyers retained by the agency to refer to Weinstein as â... the end clientâ... or â... Mr. X,â... noting that referring to him by name â... will make him extremely angry.â... ) The article mentioned in the contract was, according to three sources, the story that ultimately ran in the Times on October 5th. The book was â... Brave,â... a memoir by McGowan, scheduled for publication by HarperCollins in January. The documents show that, in the end, the agency delivered to Weinstein more than a hundred pages of transcripts and descriptions of the book, based on tens of hours of recorded conversations between McGowan and the female private investigator.

Weinsteinâ... s spokesperson, Hofmeister, called â... the assertion that Mr. Weinstein secured any portion of a book . . . false and among the many inaccuracies and wild conspiracy theories promoted in this article.â...

The July agreement included several â... success feesâ... if Black Cube met its goals. The firm would receive an additional three hundred thousand dollars if the agency â... provides intelligence which will directly contribute to the efforts to completely stop the Article from being published at all in any shape or form.â... Black Cube would also be paid fifty thousand dollars if it secured â... the other halfâ... of McGowanâ... s book â... in readable book and legally admissible format.â...

The contracts also show some of the techniques that Black Cube employs. The agency promised â... a dedicated team of expert intelligence officers that will operate in the USA and any other necessary country,â... including a project manager, intelligence analysts, linguists, and â... Avatar Operatorsâ... specifically hired to create fake identities on social media, as well as â... operations experts with extensive experience in social engineering.â... The agency also said that it would provide â... a full time agent by the name of â... Annaâ... (hereinafter â... the Agentâ... ), who will be based in New York and Los Angeles as per the Clientâ... s instructions and who will be available full time to assist the Client and his attorneys for the next four months.â... Four sources with knowledge of Weinsteinâ... s work with Black Cube confirmed that this was the same woman who met with McGowan and Wallace.

Black Cube also agreed to hire â... an investigative journalist, as per the Client request,â... who would be required to conduct ten interviews a month for four months and be paid forty thousand dollars. Black Cube agreed to â... promptly report to the Client the results of such interviews by the Journalist.â...

In January, 2017, a freelance journalist called McGowan and had a lengthy conversation with her that he recorded without telling her; he subsequently communicated with Black Cube about the interviews, though he denied he was reporting back to them in a formal capacity. He contacted at least two other women with allegations against Weinstein, including the actress Annabella Sciorra, who later went public in The New Yorker with a rape allegation against Weinstein. Sciorra, whom he called in August, said that she found the conversation suspicious and got off the phone as quickly as possible. "... It struck me as B.S.,..." she told me. "... And it scared me that Harvey was testing to see if I would talk..." The freelancer also placed calls to Wallace, the New York reporter, and to me.

Two sources close to the effort and several documents show that the same freelancer received contact information for actresses, journalists, and business rivals of Weinstein from Black Cube, and that the agency ultimately passed summaries of those interviews to Weinstein's lawyers. When contacted about his role, the freelancer, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said that he had been working on his own story about Weinstein, using contact information fed to him by Black Cube. The freelancer said that he reached out to other reporters, one of whom used material from his interviews, in the hopes of helping to expose Weinstein. He denied that he was paid by Black Cube or Weinstein.

Weinstein also enlisted other journalists to uncover information that he could use to undermine women with allegations. A December, 2016, e-mail exchange between Weinstein and Dylan Howard, the chief content officer of American Media Inc., which publishes the National Enquirer, shows that Howard shared with Weinstein material obtained by one of his reporters, as part of an effort to help Weinstein disprove McGowan's allegation of rape. In one e-mail, Howard sent Weinstein a list of contacts. "... Let's discuss next steps on each," he wrote. After Weinstein thanked him, Howard described a call that one of his reporters made to Elizabeth Avellan, the ex-wife of the director Robert Rodriguez, whom Rodriguez left to have a relationship with McGowan.

Avellan told me that she remembered the interview. Howard's reporter "... kept calling and calling and calling," she said, and also contacted others close to her. Avellan finally called back, because "... I was afraid people might start calling my kids..." In a long phone call, the reporter pressed her for unflattering statements about McGowan. She insisted that the call be off the record, and the reporter agreed. The reporter recorded the call, and subsequently passed the audio to Howard.

In subsequent e-mails to Weinstein, Howard said, "... I have something AMAZING . . . eventually she laid into Rose pretty hard..." Weinstein replied, "... This is the killer. Especially if my fingerprints r not on this..." Howard then reassured Weinstein, "... They are not. And the conversation . . . is RECORDED..." The next day, Howard added, in another e-mail, "... Audio file to follow..." (Howard denied sending the audio to Weinstein.) Avellan told me that she would not have agreed to cooperate in efforts to discredit McGowan. "... I don't want to shame people," she said. "... I wasn't interested. Women should stand together..."

In a statement, Howard said that, in addition to his role as the chief content officer at American Media Inc., the National Enquirer's publisher, he oversaw a television-production agreement with Weinstein, which has since been terminated. He said that, at the time of the e-mails, "... absent a corporate decision to terminate the agreement with The Weinstein Company, I had an obligation to protect AMI's interests by seeking out... but not publishing... truthful information about people who Mr. Weinstein insisted were making false claims against him. To the extent I provided ... off the record... information to Mr. Weinstein about one of his accusers... at a time when Mr. Weinstein was denying any harassment of any woman... it was information which I would never have allowed AMI to publish on the internet or in its magazines..." Although at least one of Howard's reporters made calls related to Weinstein's investigations, Howard insisted that he strictly divided his work with Weinstein from his work as a journalist. "... I always separated those two roles carefully and completely... and resisted Mr. Weinstein's repeated efforts to have AMI titles publish favorable stories about him or negative articles about his accusers," Howard said. An A.M.I.

representative noted that, at the time, Weinstein insisted that the encounter was consensual, and that the allegations were untrue.

Hofmeister, Weinstein's spokesperson, added, "In regard to Mr. Howard, he has served as the point person for American Media's long-standing business relationship with The Weinstein Company. Earlier this year, Mr. Weinstein gave Mr. Howard a news tip that Mr. Howard agreed might make a good story. Mr. Howard pursued the tip and followed up with Mr. Weinstein as a courtesy, but declined to publish any story."

Weinstein's relationship with Kroll, one of the other agencies he contracted with, dates back years. After Ambra Battilana Gutierrez, an Italian model, accused Weinstein of sexually assaulting her, in 2015, she reached a settlement with Weinstein that required her to surrender all her personal devices to Kroll, so that they could be wiped of evidence of a conversation in which Weinstein admitted to groping her. A recording of that exchange, captured during a police sting operation, was released by The New Yorker last month.

During the more recent effort to shut down emerging stories, Kroll again played a central role. E-mails show that Dan Karson, the chairman of Kroll Americas' Investigations and Disputes practice, contacted Weinstein at his personal e-mail address with information about women with allegations. In one October, 2016, e-mail, Karson sent Weinstein eleven photographs of McGowan and Weinstein together at different events in the years after he allegedly assaulted her. Three hours later, Weinstein forwarded Karson's e-mail to Boies and Weinstein's criminal-defense attorney, Blair Berk, and told them to "scroll thru the extra ones." The next morning, Berk replied that one photo, which showed McGowan warmly talking with Weinstein, "is the money shot."

Berk defended her actions. "Any criminal defense lawyer worth her salt would investigate unproven allegations to determine if they are credible," she said. "And it would be dereliction of duty not to conduct a public-records search for photographs of the accuser embracing the accused taken after the time of the alleged assault."

Another firm, the Los Angeles-based PSOPS, and its lead private investigator, Jack Palladino, as well as another one of its investigators, Sara Ness, produced detailed profiles of various individuals in the saga, sometimes of a personal nature, which included information that could be used to undermine their credibility. One report on McGowan that Ness sent to Weinstein last December ran for more than a hundred pages and featured McGowan's address and other personal information, along with sections labelled "Lies/Exaggerations/Contradictions," "Hypocrisy," and "Potential Negative Character Wits," an apparent abbreviation of "witnesses." One subhead read "Past Lovers." The section included details of acrimonious breakups, mentioning Avellan, and discussed Facebook posts expressing negative sentiments about McGowan. (Palladino and Ness did not respond to multiple requests for comment.)

Other firms were also involved in assembling such profiles, including ones that focussed on factors that, in theory, might make women likely to speak out against sexual abuse. One of the other firm's profiles was of Rosanna Arquette, an actress who later, in The New Yorker, accused Weinstein of sexual harassment. The file mentions Arquette's friendship with McGowan, social-media posts about sexual abuse, and the fact that a family member had gone public with an allegation that she had been molested as a child.

All of the security firms that Weinstein hired were also involved in trying to ferret out reporters' sources and probe their backgrounds. Wallace, the reporter for New York, said that he was suspicious when he received the call from the Black Cube operative using the pseudonym Anna, because Weinstein had already requested a meeting with Wallace; Adam Moss, the editor-in-chief of New York; David Boies; and a representative from Kroll. The intention, Wallace assumed, was to "come in with dossiers slugging various women and me." Moss declined the meeting.

In a series of e-mails sent in the weeks before Wallace received the call from Anna, Dan Karson, of Kroll, sent Weinstein preliminary background information on Wallace and Moss. â... No adverse information about Adam Moss so far (no libel/defamation cases, no court records or judgments/liens/UCC, etc.),â... Karson wrote in one e-mail. Two months later, Palladino, the PSOPS investigator, sent Weinstein a detailed profile of Moss. It stated, â... Our research did not yield any promising avenues for the personal impeachment of Moss.â...

Similar e-mail exchanges occurred regarding Wallace. Kroll sent Weinstein a list of public criticisms of Wallaceâ... s previous reporting and a detailed description of a U.K. libel suit filed in response to a book he wrote, in 2008, about the rare-wine market. PSOPS also profiled Wallaceâ... s ex-wife, noting that she â... might prove relevant to considerations of our response strategy when Wallaceâ... s article on our client is finally published.â...

In January, 2017, Wallace, Moss, and other editors at New York decided to shelve the story. Wallace had assembled a detailed list of women with allegations, but he lacked on-the-record statements from any victims. Wallace said that the decision not to run a story was made for legitimate journalistic reasons. Nevertheless, he said, â... There was much more static and distraction than Iâ... ve encountered on any other story.â...

Other reporters were investigated as well. In April, 2017, Ness, of PSOPS, sent Weinstein an assessment of my own interactions with â... persons of interestâ... â... a list largely consisting of women with allegations, or those connected to them. Later, PSOPS submitted a detailed report focussing jointly on me and Jodi Kantor, of the Times. Some of the observations in the report are mundane. â... Kantor is NOT following Ronan Farrow,â... it notes, referring to relationships on Twitter. At other times, the report reflects a detailed effort to uncover sources. One individual I interviewed, and another whom Kantor spoke to in her separate endeavor, were listed as having reported the details of the conversations back to Weinstein.

For years, Weinstein had used private security agencies to investigate reporters. In the early aughts, as the journalist David Carr, who died in 2015, worked on a report on Weinstein for New York, Weinstein assigned Kroll to dig up unflattering information about him, according to a source close to the matter. Carrâ... s widow, Jill Rooney Carr, told me that her husband believed that he was being surveilled, though he didnâ... t know by whom. â... He thought he was being followed,â... she recalled. In one document, Weinsteinâ... s investigators wrote that Carr had learned of McGowanâ... s allegation in the course of his reporting. Carr â... wrote a number of critical/unflattering articles about HW over the years,â... the document says, â... none of which touched on the topic of women (due to fear of HWâ... s retaliation, according to HW).â...

Weinsteinâ... s relationships with the private investigators were often routed through law firms that represented him. This is designed to place investigative materials under the aegis of attorney-client privilege, which can prevent the disclosure of communications, even in court.

David Boies, who was involved in the relationships with Black Cube and PSOPS, was initially reluctant to speak with The New Yorker, out of concern that he might be â... misinterpreted either as trying to deny or minimize mistakes that were made, or as agreeing with criticisms that I donâ... t agree are valid.â...

But Boies did feel the need to respond to what he considered â... fair and importantâ... questions about his hiring of investigators. He said that he did not consider the contractual provisions directing Black Cube to stop the publication of the Times story to be a conflict of interest, because his firm was also representing the newspaper in a libel suit. From the beginning, he said, he advised Weinstein â... that the story could not be stopped by threats or influence and that the only way the story could be stopped was by convincing the Times that there was no rape.â... Boies told me he never pressured any news outlet. â... If evidence could be uncovered to convince the Times the charges should not be published, I did not believe, and do not believe, that that would be aversive to the *Times*â... interest.â...

He conceded, however, that any efforts to profile and undermine reporters, at the Times and elsewhere, were problematic. â... In general, I donâ... t think itâ... s appropriate to try to pressure reporters,â... he said. â... If that did happen here, it would not have been appropriate.â...

Although the agencies paid by his firm focussed on many women with allegations, Boies said that he had only been aware of their work related to McGowan, whose allegations Weinstein denied. â... Given what was known at the time, I thought it was entirely appropriate to investigate precisely what he was accused of doing, and to investigate whether there were facts that would rebut those accusations,â... he said.

Of his representation of Weinstein in general, he said, â... I donâ... t believe former lawyers should criticize former clients.â... But he expressed regrets. â... Although he vigorously denies using physical force, Mr. Weinstein has himself recognized that his contact with women was indefensible and incredibly hurtful,â... Boies told me. â... In retrospect, I knew enough in 2015 that I believe I should have been on notice of a problem, and done something about it. I donâ... t know what, if anything, happened after 2015, but to the extent it did, I think I have some responsibility. I also think that if people had taken action earlier it would have been better for Mr. Weinstein.â...

Weinstein also drafted individuals around him into his effortsâ... willingly and not. In December, 2016, Weinstein asked the actress Asia Argento, who ultimately went public in The New Yorker with her allegation of rape against Weinstein, to meet in Italy with his private investigators to give testimony on his behalf. Argento, who felt pressure to say yes, declined after her partner, the chef and television personality Anthony Bourdain, advised her to avoid the meeting. Another actress, who declined to be named in this story, said that Weinstein asked her to meet with reporters to extract information about other sources.

Weinstein also enlisted two former employees, Denise Doyle Chambers and Pamela Lubell, in what turned out to be an effort to identify and call people who might speak to the press about their own, or othersâ... , allegations. Weinstein secretly shared the lists they compiled with Black Cube.

Hofmeister, speaking on Weinsteinâ... s behalf, said, â... Any â... listsâ... that were prepared included names of former employees and others who were relevant to the research and preparation of a book about Miramax. Former employees conducting interviews for the book reported receiving unwanted contacts from the media.â...

Doyle Chambers declined an interview request. But Lubell, a producer who worked for Weinstein at Miramax decades ago, told me that she was manipulated into participating. In July, 2017, Lubell visited Weinsteinâ... s offices to pitch him on an app that she was developing. In the middle of the meeting, Weinstein asked Lubell if they could have a private conversation in his office. Lubell told me that a lawyer working with Weinstein was already there, along with Doyle Chambers. Weinstein asked if Lubell and Doyle Chambers could write a â... fun book on the old times, the heyday, of Miramax.â... â... Pam,â... she recalled him saying, â... write down all the employees that you know, and can you get in touch with them?â...

A few weeks later, in August, after they had made the list, Weinstein â... called us back into the office,â... Lubell recalled. â... And he said, â... You know what, weâ... re going to put a hold on the book.â... â... He asked Doyle Chambers and Lubell to â... call some of your friends from the list and see if they got calls from the press.â... In early September, Weinstein summoned Lubell and Doyle Chambers to his office and asked them to start making calls to people connected to several actresses. â... It got kind of intense,â... Lubell recalled. â... We didnâ... t know these people, and all of a sudden this was something very different from what we signed up for.â... Several of the targeted women said that they felt the calls they received from Lubell and Doyle Chambers, and from Weinstein himself, were frightening.

Lubell told me that hours before the first Times story broke, on October 5th, Weinstein summoned her, Doyle Chambers, and others on his team, including the attorney Lisa Bloom, who has since resigned, to his office.

â... He was in a panic,â... Lubell recalled. â... He starts screaming, â... Get so-and-so on the phone.â... â... After the story was published, the team scrambled to respond to it. Bloom and others pored over pictures that, like the ones featured in the Kroll e-mails, showed ongoing contact between Weinstein and women who made allegations. â... He was screaming at us, â... Send these to the board members,â... â... Lubell recalled. She e-mailed the photographs to the board ahead of the crisis meeting at which Weinsteinâ... s position at his company began unravelling.

Since the allegations against Weinstein became public, Lubell hasnâ... t slept well. She told me that, although she knew that Weinstein â... was a bully and a cheater,â... she â... never thought he was a predator.â... Lubell has wondered if she should have known more, sooner.

After a year of concerted effort, Weinsteinâ... s campaign to track and silence his accusers crumbled. Several of the women targeted, however, said that Weinsteinâ... s use of private security agencies deepened the challenge of speaking out. â... It scared me,â... Sciorra said, â... because I knew what it meant to be threatened by Harvey. I was in fear of him finding me.â... McGowan said that the agencies and law firms enabled Weinsteinâ... s behavior. As she was targeted, she felt a growing sense of paranoia. â... It was like the movie â... Gaslight,â... â... she told me. â... Everyone lied to me all the time.â... For the past year, she said, â... Iâ... ve lived inside a mirrored fun house.â...

New details have emerged surrounding the demotion of a leading Justice Department official after reports broke last week that he had been in contact with Fusion GPS. *Fox News*â... James Rosen and Jake Gibson reveal the wife of Justice Department official Bruce G. Ohr worked for the opposition research firm during the 2016 presidential election.

Fox News reports:

A senior Justice Department official demoted last week for concealing his meetings with the men behind the anti-Trump dossier had even closer ties to Fusion GPS, the firm responsible for the incendiary document, than has been disclosed, Fox News has confirmed: The official's wife worked for Fusion GPS during the 2016 election.

Contacted by Fox News, investigators for the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) confirmed that Nellie H. Ohr, wife of the demoted official, Bruce G. Ohr, worked for the opposition research firm last year. The precise nature of Mrs. Ohr's duties including whether she worked on the dossier remains unclear but a review of her published works available online reveals Mrs. Ohr has written extensively on Russia-related subjects. HPSCI staff confirmed to Fox News that she was paid by Fusion GPS through the summer and fall of 2016.

In a statement to Fox News, a Justice Department spokesperson said, "It is unusual for anyone to wear two hats as he has done recently. This person is going to go back to a single focus as director of our organized crime and drug enforcement unit. As you know, combatting transnational criminal organizations and drug trafficking is a top priority for the Attorney General."

Over the weekend it was reported Fusion GPS founder Glenn Simpson sought to smear then-candidate Donald Trump by linking him to convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein.

In a statement to the Washington Times, journalist Ken Silverstein, who penned a piece for VICE (poorly) linking Trump and Epstein, admitted that Fusion GPS intel isn't always 100% accurate.

"I have gotten tips from them and stories from them. And every time I do, I go out and re-report because I assume it is for a client and it is not 100 percent accurate. And I've never gotten anything from them that was 100 percent accurate. Not because they were slanting or lying or twisting. Every time I've gotten something from them, this is a report. You've got to check it out. I have a great relationship with those guys," Silverstein told the Washington Times.

Would you kill your whole family for $20.000? How about twenty trillion dollars?

Imagine having a different movie star have sex with you every day on your yacht in the Caribbean while you watched the sun set after eating every dessert you could ever want from your private kitchen...and every single day for the rest of your life will be like that!

That is how some rich people live. Some of those rich people would KILL to keep that cash coming in so they could do those kinds of crazy things. Some of those people that do those things and kill to keep doing those things are elected politicians!

The amount of money that is in play in this corruption case is so large that it makes Silicon Valley oligarchs do insane things. They live in a delusional money-bubble of endless wealth and zero law enforcement!

Most of the money is traded at a few major stock exchanges in the world like London stock exchange, New York stock exchange, Mumbai stock exchange and Tokyo stock exchange etc. Where the most of the currency in the world is under play by the major banks and investment firms of the world. The Stock market actually is the most busiest place in the world handling the stock markets of the whole of the united states selling and buying of stocks this resulting to the size of the world stock market that is approximated at about trillion of US dollars at the beginning of October 2008. Total world derivatives market has been estimated at about $791 trillion face or nominal value, 11 times the size of the entire world economy, making it the busiest in the world.

The World Bank publishes global data on stocks traded by $ value here.

- 2016 - $77.5 trillion for the year.

Most exchanges publish this stat. Here is the data for NASDAQ

- Feb 6, 2018 - $192 billion for the day.

And the Indian stock market volume data (in Indian Rupees) is here.

- BSE + NSE cash market, Feb 2018 - About Rs 40,000 crore daily. Thatâ... s about $6 billion.

A simple ruling on one page of paper from the U.S. Department of Energy has been stock market leveraged and manipulated into billions of dollars and trillions of future dollars.

People have people killed for trillions of dollars. People bribe Presidential candidates for trillions of dollars. Politicians and Silicon Valley Oligarchs will do ANY crime to pay for their sex parties, jets and private islands. Here is one their schemes to control that kind of money that Elon Musk and the Google boys came up with:

"FISA MEMO" proves Obama put HIT JOBS on

"Explosive", "Shocking" And "Alarming" FISA Memo Set To Rock DC, "End Mueller Investigation"

VINDICTIVE, SICK, BULLY OBAMA ATTACKED THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS BECAUSE OBAMA FELT ASHAMED OF HIS DIRTY DEALS

All hell is breaking loose in Washington D.C. after a four-page memo detailing extensive FISA court abuse was made available to the entire House of Representatives Thursday. The contents of the memo are so explosive, says Journalist Sara Carter, that it could lead to the removal of senior officials in the FBI and the Department of Justice and the end of Robert Mueller's special counsel investigation.

These sources say the report is â... explosive,â... stating they would not be surprised if it leads to the end of Robert Mueller's Special Counsel investigation into President Trump and his associates. -Sara Carter

A source close to the matter tells Fox News that "the memo details the Intelligence Committee's oversight work for the FBI and Justice, including the controversy over unmasking and FISA surveillance." An educated guess by anyone who's been paying attention for the last year leads to the obvious conclusion that the report reveals extensive abuse of power and highly illegal collusion between the Obama administration, the FBI, the DOJ and the Clinton Campaign against Donald Trump and his team during and after the 2016 presidential election.

Lawmakers who have seen the memo are calling for its immediate release, while the phrases "explosive," "shocking," "troubling," and "alarming" have all been used in all sincerity. One congressman even likened the report's details to KGB activity in Russia. â... It is so alarming the American people have to see this,â... Ohio Rep. Jim Jordan told Fox News. â... It's troubling. It is shocking,â... North Carolina Rep. Mark Meadows said. â... Part of me wishes that I didn't read it because I don't want to believe that those kinds of things could be happening in this country that I call home and love so much.â...

Rep. Peter King, R-N.Y., offered the motion on Thursday to make the Republican majority-authored report available to the members.

â... The document shows a troubling course of conduct and we need to make the document available, so the public can see it,â... said a senior government official, who spoke on condition of anonymity due to the sensitivity of the document. â... Once the public sees it, we can hold the people involved accountable in a number of ways.â...

The government official said that after reading the document â... some of these people should no longer be in the government.â... -Sara Carter

In October, The Washington Post revealed for the first time that it was the Hillary Clinton campaign and the DNC that financed Fusion GPS.

Congressional members are hopeful that the classified information will be declassified and released to the public.

â... We probably will get this stuff released by the end of the month,â... stated a congressional member, who asked not to be named. -Sara Carter

Releasing the memo to the public would require a committee vote, a source told Fox, adding that if approved, it could be released as long as there are no objections from the White House within five days.

Reactions from the citizenry have been on point:

Republican lawmakers are calling for the public release of a memo they say contains revelations about U.S. government surveillance abuses after the report was made available to all members of the House.

The House Intelligence Committee on Thursday approved, by a party-line vote, to make the four-page memo available to all members of the lower chamber.

Several Republicans, unable to say more about the memo, have rallied for its release to the general public, in some cases using a "ReleaseTheMemo" hashtag on social media.

[\[Edward Snowden calls for public release of FISA abuses memo\]](#)

Rep. Steve King, R-Iowa, said he read the memo and implied there was some sort of bias in favor of Trump's 2016 Democratic opponent Hillary Clinton.

"I have read the memo," he tweeted. "The sickening reality has set in. I no longer hold out hope there is an innocent explanation for the information the public has seen. I have long said it is worse than Watergate. It was #neverTrump & #alwaysHillary. #releasethememo."

â... You think about, â... Is this happening in America or is this the KGB?â... That's how alarming it is,â... Rep. Scott Perry, R-Pa., said, according to Fox News.

Rep. Matt Gaetz, R-Fla., called for the public release of the memo's information "to preserve our democracy."

â... The House must immediately make public the memo prepared by the Intelligence Committee regarding the FBI and the Department of Justice," Gaetz said in a statement. "The facts contained in this memo are jaw-dropping and demand full transparency. There is no higher priority than the release of this information to preserve our democracy."

Gaetz, who has previously called for the removal of special counsel Robert Mueller, said there could be "major changes" for people working in the DOJ and FBI as a result of the memo's release.

On Fox News Gaetz went further, saying he believes people could "go to jail" due to the contents of the memo and the Mueller-led investigation, which is examining possible collusion between the Trump campaign and the Kremlin, is "a lie built on corruption." He also said it became clear to him why Sen. Chuck Grassley, R-Iowa, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, and Sen. Lindsey Graham, R-S.C., recommended the Justice Department criminally investigate the author of the Trump dossier, former British spy Christopher Steele.

Ohio Rep. Jim Jordan and North Carolina Rep. Mark Meadows called the memo "alarming" and "shocking," respectively.

â... Part of me wishes that I didn't read it, because I donâ... t want to believe that those kinds of things could be happening in this country that I call home and love so much," Meadows added.

The Washington Examiner's Byron York reported Thursday that no copies of the report were handed out to House members, but rather a copy would be made available for them to read in a secure room in the Capitol.

Members are not allowed to take the report out of the room.

Jordan explained on Fox News the process for releasing the memo.

"Here is the process: Chairman [Devin] Nunes in the Intelligence Committee in the House he can he bring the committee back together. They can have a vote. If the majority of the committee votes to release these documents, the executive branch gets a certain amount of time to review them. If the executive branch gives the thumbs up they go public," he told Fox News' Sean Hannity. "This could happen real quick. Chairman Nunes is committed to getting this information to the public."

Meadows asked House Speaker Paul Ryan, R-Wis., to authorize a vote on releasing the memo, and Ryan chose to defer to Nunes to decide, Politico reported Thursday.

The top Democrat on the House Intelligence Committee, Adam Schiff, called the memo a "profoundly misleading set of talking points."

â... [T]he Majority voted today on a party-line basis to grant House Members access to a profoundly misleading set of talking points drafted by Republican staff attacking the FBI and its handling of the investigation,â... Schiff, D-Calif., in a statement. â... Rife with factual inaccuracies and referencing highly classified materials that most of Republican Intelligence Committee members were forced to acknowledge they had never read, this is meant only to give Republican House members a distorted view of the FBI.â...

â... This may help carry White House water, but it is a deep disservice to our law enforcement professionals,â... he continued.

Meanwhile, WikiLeaks, a government secrets-leaking organization that published hacked emails from Democratic officials during the 2016 campaign, is actively seeking information on anyone who has access to the memo.

The memo's internal release to House members came after the Senate barely followed the House on Tuesday in voting to reauthorize for six years Section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, a key counterterrorism surveillance tool.

Trump supporters, like Hannity, have long made the case that the Obama administration used FISA warrants to spy on both the Trump campaign and transition team, though Obama officials deny these claims. Last week, before the FISA reauthorization bill's passage in Congress, Trump claimed in a tweet the Obama administration used the controversial surveillance tool to justify the "unmasking" of members of his campaign who were caught up in the surveillance of foreign nationals. However, Trump backed off his critique of the surveillance law in a tweet later that morning, one that reflected his administration's support for the reauthorization of the measure.

"Fact Checking Sites" like Snopes, seem to all be fake political biased propaganda operations covertly paid for by either Soros or Koch money!

The American political civil war which began in earnest once Donald J. Trump was elected to the presidency has spawned dozens of skirmishes â... some are obvious and bloody, and others are taking place surreptitiously behind enemy lines. Wars are rarely fought on the spur of the moment, and it is often the choice of the battlefield that can prove decisive. Thus, today, we have soldiers, in the guise of professional â... fact-checkersâ... being deployed to blast reputations and cast aspersions upon the conservative media. The hope is to stick the bayonet in, twist it, and pray for a long, slow death. Such is the case with Media Bias/FactCheck â... a website that engages in reputational assassination as part of a larger campaign to undermine and ultimately destroy the many and varied voices of the conservative movement.

Making Facts Matter

At Liberty Nation, we aim to provide top news and analysis without the spin. All our articles, podcasts, TV programs, and radio shows go through a rigorous editorial process where the driving ethos echoes President Ronald Reaganâ... s old Russian proverb: Trust but Verify.

LN sources are carefully checked, and links are provided to bolster any facts that may need more verification. On Christmas Day 2017, we published the Media Bias/FactCheck review of our site. Hereâ... s what they had to say:

â... In review, Liberty Nation produces articles and information that strongly favors conservative politics. There is low to moderate use of loaded language that favors the right. Liberty Nation sources their information to credible sources, and in general, the articles are very well written. Overall, we rate Liberty Nation Right Biased based on story selection and High for factual reporting due to proper sourcing of information.â...

Fast forward to 2019, and now it seems all our stellar sourcing and attention to the facts have been thrown into the political dumpster. Media Bias/ Fact Check (MBFC), the self-styled â... most comprehensive media bias resource on the internet,â... now alleges we are engaged in writing â... propaganda.â...

â... In review, Liberty Nation produces articles and information that strongly favors conservative politics. There is moderate use of loaded language that favors the right such as this: DEMS ON SOCIALISM: IGNORANCE AND ANGER. Liberty Nation utilizes poor sources that are on our questionable list such as CNS News, which has a very poor track record with fact checkers. In general, all stories favor the right and are highly opinion based (propaganda).â...

Fake changing to fact with wooden cubes. ( 3d render )

Iâ... m sure the folks over at CNS News will be glad to hear that they are nothing more than a â... questionable source.â... Founded by L. Brent Bozell, CNS has long been regarded as one of the top sources of conservative news in the country and plays host to some of the most respected conservative writers of our time.

While Liberty Nation is not so thin-skinned as to take offense at media catcalling, itâ... s still worthwhile to point out some obvious flaws in the Media Bias/Fact Check modus operandi.

The founder and owner, David Van Zandt, set up the site in 2015. Is Mr. Van Zandt a journalist himself? Well, no. According to their website, this self-styled arbiter of all things real or fake completed a â... Communications Degree before pursuing a higher degree in the sciences. Dave currently works full time in the health care industry.â...

What? The health care industry?

But Surely â...!

But surely, Mr. Van Zandt has a team of experts to evaluate the veracity of news sources? Well, maybe not. Media Bias touts a mix of graduate students and chartered accountants, who appear to make up their frontline.

But surely, they use an unbiased, scientific methodology to determine who gets placed in the naughty seat?
From the organizations About page:

â... Disclaimer: The methodology used by Media Bias Fact Check is our own. It is not a tested scientific method. It is meant as a simple guide for people to get an idea of a sourceâ... s bias.â...

Blind Trust

Declaring a news outlet â... poorly sourcedâ... because other fact checkers claim it so, is not fact-checking: It is repetition in an echo chamber. While the motivation behind MBFC may be a noble one â... after all, who wants to read Fake News â... this seven-degrees-of-separation methodology is open to abuse.

There is something sinister going on here: The discrediting of news outlets is part of a larger scheme to control the flow of information to a voting public; it is politically motivated and underhanded. By first declaring a news source questionable they give tacit permission for other so-called fact checkers to jump on the bandwagon. Then, when tech giants are encouraged to limit the spread of Fake News, they head straight to the lists produced by companies and organizations like MBFC.

Then these â... questionableâ... sites can be blocked, shadow banned, or demonetized. Yes, victory on the battlefield is claimed. What we are witnessing is nothing less than political warfare for the hearts, souls, and minds of Americaâ... s free thinkers. Itâ... s time to call the Fact Checkers to account, call them out, and call them what they are: a bunch of political partisans.

We face today the very dangers cautioned by Roman poet Juvenal in his work Satires: Quis Custodiet Ipsos Custodies? When unwanted and uninvited fact checkers dwell in their ivory palaces and proclaim themselves the watchmen of all things right and true, who will guard us against the guards themselves?

Disinformation campaign targeting Roy Moore's Senate bid has violated law, Alabama AG says, and all of Reid Hoffman emails, texts and bank records to be looked at

Roy Moore and Doug Jones (File)

By Craig Timberg, Tony Romm

Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall said Thursday that his office is exploring whether disinformation tactics deployed against Republican Roy Moore during last year's special election violated state campaign laws and said he was worried that the operation could have affected the closely fought Senate race.

"The information is concerning," Marshall, a Republican, said in a phone interview. "The impact it had on the election is something that's significant for us to explore, and we'll go from there."

Moore lost the election to his Democratic rival, Sen. Doug Jones.

Marshall, who said he learned of the disinformation campaign called Project Birmingham through news reports over the past two weeks, stopped short of announcing a formal investigation but said his office was beginning to gather information about the effort.

"We're planning to explore the issue further," Marshall said.

Internet billionaire Reid Hoffman apologized on Wednesday for giving $750,000 to a group, American Engagement Technologies, that allegedly had ties to an effort to undermine support for Moore and bolster Jones. The new senator has called for a federal investigation into Project Birmingham.

Hoffman said in his statement Wednesday that he did not know that the money had been used for disinformation tactics, including a reported effort to create fake evidence that automated Russian accounts, called bots, were supporting Moore in the race.

Jonathon Morgan, chief executive of Texas-based research firm New Knowledge, has acknowledged being paid by American Engagement Technologies to experiment on a small scale with disinformation tactics, including creating a Facebook page that sought to appeal to Republicans who might not support Moore. Morgan has repeatedly denied that he attempted to affect the outcome of the election or that he had any role in the broader efforts of Project Birmingham.

Morgan did not immediately respond to a request for comment on Marshall's actions in Alabama.

A spokesman for Hoffman did not immediately respond to a request for comment. Hoffman previously said it would be a "good idea" for investigators to probe what happened in Alabama.

"We cannot permit dishonest campaign tactics to go unchecked in our democracy - no matter which side they purportedly help," Hoffman said in his apology.

Dmitri Mehlhorn, a political advisor for Hoffman, declined to comment. Moore, contacted through his former spokeswoman, did not immediately respond. A spokeswoman for Jones did not immediately respond to requests, either.

Marshall said in the interview that the rapidly changing nature of campaigning on social media has made it difficult for authorities to know how to address disinformation tactics in elections.

“... Technology has put us in a difficult position in many respects in terms of the applicability of our current laws,” Marshall said.

Here is what happens to you when you cross paths with a Silicon Valley Mobster:

Did you do something to offend Eric Schmidt, Elon Musk or John Doerr? Here is what will happen to you...

If you happen to make a technology that is better than the last one that a Silicon Valley mobster just stole or,
If you happen to make a technology that a Silicon Valley mobster just wants, and they steal it from you, and you complain to the feds;

If you are a victim of the scandals detailed at:

<http://thefuc.biz/about/case-overview/>

<http://www.xyzcase.com>

<http://vcracket.weebly.com>

<http://greencorruption.blogspot.com>

<http://www.paybackpolitics.org>

or related documentation...

Then this happens to you:

- The people from State and Federal agencies, that most people think would help them in such a case, will do almost nothing at all. The Silicon Valley mobsters will threaten to cut off the campaign funding, for anybody, from the State or Federal government that tries to help you. Don't count on any support from the State or Federal government. Expect to get no help at all except from the few and the bold. You must plan to go it on your own and use every off-the-cuff tactic you, and your friends, can muster.

- They own many digital tabloid newspapers like Gawker, Reddit, Google, Motley Fool, Hearst Publications, ALICE Coalition, Huffington Post, EV World, Mercury News and thousands of on-line special interest publications. They will post some made-up character assassination articles on them and then have Google stick those links to the top, of the top page, of Google so everybody sees it. Many people, and countries, have now proven that Google rigs its search engines to harm its adversaries. If Google did that to you, the technical proof now exists and you can win in court and get compensated for the damages they caused you. Google will refuse to remove those links if you are on the Silicon Valley mobster's hate-list or "no poach black list". In order to control politics they own many of these stealth tabloid publications where they can order attack stories written about you. Some of these kinds of people own famous online media tabloids (ie: Gawker Media Group) and stock tip publications which are really just shill operations for their agendas and attacks. Identify these publications and partner with every person, or company, who they have coordinated attacks on in the past. Read about their attacks on inventor Mike Cheiky, Gary D. Conley, Aaron Swartz, Stan Meyer, Preston Tucker and hundreds of other innovators that they wanted "out of the way". You will see no negative reports about the "bad guys", allowed on those sites, and every bad report about you will be manually up-ranked and locked into the top slot on their page in order to damage you. The down-side for the bad guys, though, is that the internet remembers everything. You can now prove, in court, showing technical and historical metric data, that they intentionally locked and damaged you and you can get compensated for the damages.

- Everything that you read about here: <http://www.whengoogoleattacks.com> gets done to you, and almost nobody in federal agencies will put a stop to it because their bosses might lose campaign funding.
- They will put “moles” in your organization. Crazy rich people have private eye’s and ex-employees that they pay to get a job at your company. They pretend that they are helping you, then they sabotage your effort, report your activities to the VC and circumvent your every move. Consider past jobs that future employees had with your attackers.
- To understand the process, watch some of the movies about how the bad guys sabotage: Francis Coppola’s: Tucker, A Man and His Dream; Greg Kinear’s: Flash of Genius.
- As punishment against you, rich political campaign backers will try to have their federal lackey’s change the law to hurt you. If you are a tech group, for example, the “bad guys”, are currently lobbying and organizing to suddenly try to change the patent laws so that your business is destroyed. When billionaires put bribes in the right pockets, they accomplish sweeping policy change. Don’t let that happen. Expose the “who” and the “why” in such tactics. See the current fabricated “Patent Troll Crisis” that they faked up, as just such a ploy, at: <http://www.savetheinventor.com/>
- They will spy on you. Elon Musk famously emailed all of his employees. He sent them each an email about a company tip with a different sentence, in each email so he could see who was ratting out his crimes to th
- They will hack every device you own and record all of your communications media.
- Watch out for “honey traps” in your activities and in on-line sites. Read the Snowden/Greenwald reports on what “Honey Traps” are. That hottie who just contacted you on Tinder, Match.com or OK Cupid works for them, and intends to sue you in a rape case, paternity case, abuse case or other media embarrassment to destroy your reputation (Like they did to Micheal Arrington for exposing AngelGate), after stealing your secrets.
- They will hire these troll farms (off-shore warehouses full of tens of thousands of on-line attack bloggers working under tactical orders to terminate you on-line) to attack you en masse with tens of thousands of fake character assassination blog postings designed to destroy your reputation and income sources:

- Russian Troll Farms - Mighty Girl | Mighty Girl - Russian Troll Farms. Have you read this piece in the New York Times about the Russian Troll Factory where hundreds of highly paid employees are paid to Every single troll blog comment from these machine-guns-of-slander , every pseudo attack article about you, everything is already tracked back to the actual author. The NSA have done it, that is well known. NO amount of TOR, or VPN on top of VPN or stealthing software can hide a troll attacker any more. What is only now becoming known is that the official, and also the independent hacker, Chinese and Russian spies have got almost all of that information too. Hackers have broken into Sony, The White House, All of Target, All of the Federal Employee Records, everything. In a court case you can now, legally, subpoena NSA records to sue the attackers. Others, hearing of your filed case, may just show up and give you the information. Attackers cannot hide behind anonymity any more. Those who were blogging that you “sleep with goats” and “eat unborn children” can now be found out and delt with.

- Do you have on-line stores and paypal or credit card accounts that take payments at those stores? Trying to make a little cash on the side? Confused about why you never get any orders? The attackers have DNS-re-routed your stores and payment certificates, spoofed your sites and turned off all of your income potential from those on-line options in order to damage your economic potential. Illegal? Yes. Happening to people every day? Yes. Get professional IT services to document the spoofs, and re-routes, and sue the operators of those tactics that are attacking your revenue stream.
- It now only costs $50,000.00 to bribe a Senator. Some of these tech billionaires earn that much in 3 minutes. Beware of your Senator. Senators take stock options in tech companies as bribes, watch for linkages. See the 60 Minutes Episode called: Congress Trading On Insider Information.
- Want a job? Forget about it! The bad guys went into Axciom, Oracle, SAP, and all of the Human Resources and Recruiter databases, and put “red flag notices” on your profile. You will get some great first interviews, but when they run your back-ground check, you will never hear back from that interviewer again. You got “HR Black-listed”, in retribution, for accidentally bothering a campaign billionaire. Hire an HR service to look and print out your false “red flag” HR data-base inserts and use those as evidence in your lawsuit. In the news stories below, and tens of thousands of more on-line, you will see details of the Silicon Valley Cartel’s “No Poaching” Blacklist lawsuits; which kept thousands of people from getting jobs, or changing jobs, based on the whims of a handful of campaign billionaires and a secret Omerta “Do not hire” list. If you have offended the Cartel, your name will go on the list and all of the HR firms will avoid giving you a job, in fear of losing their contracts with these big technology VC’s. That is a felony, though, and in the U.S. you can sue them for it, as many have now done. It was not “just” a No Poaching list, it was a punishment Black-List, as well.
- They will anonymously put all of your email addresses on blacklists, and watch-lists, so that you can’t use services like craigslist, cafe press, zazzle or other on-line services to make money. If you try to open any accounts on those services, you either won’t be able to create an account or, you will get an account, but all of your orders will get “spoofed” into oblivion so you can’t make any money. The attackers believe that by causing you as much economic hard-ship as possible, they can get retribution for what-ever they have perceived that you have done to offend them. Again, use an IT forensic services group to get the data to show this is happening, trace it, and sue the perpetrators.

All of these things are happening, today, to over 500 people and nobody is doing anything about it. California Senators and Attorney Generals are implicated in this so they won’t help. Federal cops are told not to talk to anybody until “the investigation is complete”, but the investigation is going to be stone-walled for over a decade. Their actions provide the proof. When you look out on the internet and add up the pronouncements of “scam”, “sleeping with goats”, against those poor souls who are under attack, you can see that a very large organization, with large resources, is behind it; a group with as many resources as....hmmm.. say a Silicon Valley Crime Cartel!

The volume of attack items proves that no mere mortal, or company, could have acquired that much media unless it was placed there by very wealthy parties. Everyone now knows that the web is controlled. The volume of attacks can often prove that those attacks are fabricated. Additionally, IP Trace Routing and digital tracking now can prove the attackers manipulation of your data, email and website traffic. One of your best sets of evidence will come from the attackers, themselves. The bad guys always leave a digital trail of bread-crumbs leading right back to themselves. You can hire an IT company to build a “tracking array” comprised of hundreds of websites which are bait to catch them in the act. Regarding: Paranoia vs. documented evidence. If you, and others have experienced the tactics, and the police have recorded the tactics being used against you, it isn’t paranoia to be cautious.

Before John Doerr, Elon Musk and Eric Schmidt existed, there were earlier versions of them. Here is article about the predecessors:

The sure sign of a great idea is when some big gorilla steals it from you.

Read and know some of the history, below, so you can see the first signs of trouble:

Inventors+ Who Changed the World and Got Screwed in Return

By Karl Smallwood

As we’ve discussed before, just because your hard work and perseverance led you to create something that changes the world, it doesn’t mean that you’ll get fame, fortune, or the slightest bit of recognition out of it. In fact, some inventors get so little credit that we completely forgot about them in our previous article, and since we really don’t like angering the ghosts of people who could probably invent a way to punch us from beyond the grave, here they are.

#6. Siegel and Shuster, Superman’s Creators

Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster created Superman, the most famous superhero ever, perhaps with the exception of Spider-Man or that kid who changes the channel with his eyes in X2.

Debuting in 1938, Superman was an instant success. DC Comics soon followed up the “man in underpants punches criminals” concept with Batman, and that was it, there was no turning back: Siegel and Shuster’s creation had started a multibillion-dollar industry that is still going strong today, spawning toys, T-shirts, and, oh yeah, some of the highest-grossing movies of all time.

Nice one, Siegel and Shuster!

Alan Light “Take it from us, kids: Work hard, change the world, and you too can see absolutely no reward from it!”

But Then They Got Screwed

“Nice one, Siegel and Shuster” is exactly what DC must have said, in a sarcastic tone, when the duo famously sold them all rights to Superman for a measly $130, a check that’s now ironically worth hundreds of thousands of dollars.

At the time, no one suspected that the guy in blue pajamas that they’d been drawing would turn into a cultural icon — so when he did, and Siegel and Shuster continued getting squat, the pair embarked on perhaps the longest clusterfuck in copyright history.

The duo spent the better part of their lives unsuccessfully trying to reclaim some part of their creation, only to be rebuffed time and time again. While DC raked in billions from Superman alone, Siegel and Shuster lived the lives of paupers. They were given a yearly pension in the late 1970s by Warner Bros. (which had purchased DC), but only because the studio couldn't afford the bad publicity with a Superman movie on the way.

In 1999, three years after Siegel died, his family successfully won the rights to his half of his creation. A happy ending, right? Nope! This meant dick to Warner Bros., who still refused to pay them a penny, leaving them to fight in court for another 10 fucking years. And the superdickery continues: More recently, documents disappeared from Siegel's daughter's attorney's office and somehow wound up in the hands of Warner Bros. executives.

#5. Philo T. Farnsworth, the Farm Boy Who Invented Television

Philo Farnsworth, besides having the supreme honor of inspiring a Futurama character, was a serial inventor with a list of credited patents longer than his forehead.

Among those patents was the one that made television possible: an "image dissector" that could capture images as a series of lines to be displayed electronically. If that isn't impressive enough for you, consider the fact that Farnsworth came up with the idea at age 14, while growing up on a farm in Idaho, and first demonstrated it at 21, in 1927. If that didn't make you feel bad about yourself, it should have.

But Then He Got Screwed

When the young inventor applied for a patent at age 20, David Sarnoff of the Radio Corporation of America took notice. Radio had a pretty cozy spot at the center of the American living room at this point, and Sarnoff wasn't interested in letting that change. And if it did, then he would at least make sure that RCA would be the one getting rich from it.

Sarnoff kept Farnsworth tied in a series of legal battles over the next decade using a number of bullshit tactics, like hiring a Russian inventor to spy on him or using said inventor's earlier patents (which they could never get to work) to argue that he had invented TV. At one point Sarnoff just said "Fuck it" and started making TVs without paying Farnsworth. RCA was eventually forced to pay him a one-time $1 million licensing fee, but it wasn't worth the emotional stress that had left the man crippled.

Then the whole television business was put on hold when the '40s rolled around and the government told everyone to focus on building things that could kill Germans. The final blow came when Farnsworth's patents expired just as World War II ended ... and, what do you know, television sales skyrocketed. RCA, or anyone else for that matter, no longer had to even pretend to give a shit about paying Farnsworth for his invention.

It wasn't until 20 years after his death that the government decided that Farnsworth probably deserved some recognition. No shit.

Following Farnsworth's final wishes, his statue is about to insert something into Sarnoff's anus.

#4. Edwin H. Armstrong, the Father of FM Radio

When is the last time you listened to AM radio? Intentionally? The sound quality is so bad that most of the programming is reduced to things that already sound like shit, like conservative talk radio or a single, never-ending religious sermon in Spanish.

The much superior FM was invented by Edwin Armstrong, who created a system to reduce interference across radio bands in the 1910s. He continued his lifelong vendetta against crappy sound in the '20s, when he came up with frequency modulation (FM) as a way to reduce static. We will now reiterate that he developed all this technology nearly 100 years ago, and it's still present in all modern radios.

But Then He Got Screwed

Things seemed to be going swimmingly for Armstrong for a while, but it was at this point that a remarkably smug asshole came into the picture.

Yes, David fucking Sarnoff from RC-fucking-A proceeded to mess with the life of yet another world-changing inventor. Sarnoff had built his empire with AM radio, so he decided that if FM was the way of the future, then he'd do anything possible to pull a John Connor on that future. Since Armstrong wouldn't relinquish his patent, Sarnoff made sure that RCA not only stopped supporting the development of the new technology, but actively tried to stop it.

In 1937, Armstrong used money from his own pocket to build the very first FM radio station. Another followed, then another, until by the mid '40s a string of stations known as the Yankee Network were busy convincing everyone of the superiority of FM, just by existing. And then it all stopped.

In a dick move of epic proportions, Sarnoff successfully lobbied the FCC to move the FM band to a different place on the dial, from 42 to 50 MHz to 88 to 108 MHz. While there were somewhat valid technical reasons for this, a happy side effect for RCA was that it made all of Armstrong's stations instantly obsolete.

It took decades for FM radio to recover. In the late '70s, it finally surpassed AM, but Armstrong was long gone by then, having committed suicide in 1954 by jumping from the 13th floor of his office building, presumably screaming "FUCK SARNOOOOOOFFFF" all the way down.

#3. John Walker, Inventor of the Match

About 500 billion matches are used every year in the United States — that's the kind of volume you can do when your product sets itself on fire with every use. Before the invention of self-igniting friction matches, people simply used sticks that caught on fire when you, y'know, put them near fire.

This changed when John Walker, an English chemist born in 1871, began coating sticks in a number of dangerous-sounding chemicals until he happened upon one that, when struck against a surface, erupted in flames. Other self-igniting matches had been tried before, but they were extremely impractical, by which we mean that a lot of people probably lost their eyebrows or worse using them.

And clearly, eyebrows were very important to this man.

Walker's invention caught on fire, both literally and figuratively, and we still keep matches around today, despite the fact that we've all heard of lighters.

But Then He Got Screwed

Walker, unaware of the potential of his invention, worked on these new "friction lights" for about a year, then promptly forgot about the whole thing and stopped selling them. People close to him implored Walker to patent his friction light, since he'd just revolutionized the creation of fire and all. Walker declined, believing that his invention could better benefit mankind without a patent.

Others, however, believed that Walker's invention could better benefit mankind by making them rich.

Getty- “How does fire help humanity if it doesn’t allow me to buy prostitutes?”

In 1829, another inventor named Isaac Holden independently came up with an improved version of Walker’s friction matches. Like Walker, Holden neglected to patent his idea ... and that’s where one Samuel Jones came in. Jones, realizing that Walker and Holden had effectively created one of the most useful inventions in the history of civilization and weren’t making money from it, decided to do it on their behalf, because he was nice like that.

Almost immediately, Jones patented the exact same thing and began selling it under the name “Lucifers,” because fuck it — if you’re gonna be evil, you might as well go to the source. Soon other brands began offering improved versions of the same thing, all for a price, of course. It wasn’t until they were all dead that Walker was credited for his invention, and Jones for being a douchebag.

#2. Stephen Foster, the Father of American Music

There are some tunes that you’re just born knowing. If we somehow forced you to hum a melody right now, chances are that a great number of you would go with something like “Oh! Susanna”:

Or “Camptown Races” (you know, the one that goes “doo-da, doo-da”):

Or maybe something more nostalgic, like “Old Folks at Home”:

Man, can you imagine if all these songs had been written by the same guy, and that he’d been actively trying to get money from them? That dude would have been richer than Madonna and Bono combined.

Actually, all those songs and more were written by the same person, and he did try to cash in on them — the keyword being “try.”

Then “she” came around the mountain and snatched up all his royalties.

But Then He Got Screwed

In the 1800s, Stephen Foster wrote classics like “My Old Kentucky Home” and “Beautiful Dreamer” and over 200 other songs. Foster was a professional songwriter before those existed. Seriously: The profession literally did not exist before Foster trailblazed it like a motherfucker.

Of course, the problem with being the first in his profession was that there were no such things as “enforcing copyright” or “not screwing over songwriters” back then. Today, Foster would have earned obscene amounts of money from “Oh! Susanna” alone, but in 1848, he got exactly $100 for the rights to publish the sheet music, while the publisher made $10,000 selling his work.

Even when Foster became a minor celebrity, he continued getting nothing but pennies for every copy of his work that was sold. For his dozens of hit songs, he saw around $15,000 in royalties in his whole life. In the 1860s, he was dumped by his wife, who had probably had enough of sticking around with this dude who wrote like a rock star, and drank like a rock star, but was not rich like one. He died at the age of 37 after hitting his head on a washbasin, with around 40 cents in his pocket.

Some of which were melted down to make this statue.

His contributions can’t be overstated. Not only did he create most of the conventions of popular songwriting as we know them today, but he also demonstrated the need for intellectual property laws by getting repeatedly screwed.

#1. Gary Kildall, the Father of the Operating System

Gary Kildall is one of the guys we have to thank for the fact that you don't need to be a genius to use the ultra advanced computer you are looking at right now to search for porn. Thank you, Gary.

In 1973, Kildall made life a lot easier for nerds everywhere when he created CP/M, a groundbreaking operating system for microcomputers (which is what they called any computer smaller than a semi truck back then). The program became the industry standard for the next decade. This guy was basically Bill Gates before Bill Gates was Bill Gates.

Michael Ochs Archives / Getty

"It's cool, I'll just donate a bunch of money to charity someday when I'm all old and prune-faced."

But Then He Got Screwed

Of course, at the same time, Bill Gates was busy trying to become Bill Gates, and he eventually achieved that at Kildall's expense.

In 1980, IBM was getting ready to launch its first personal computer and needed an operating system to operate the shit out of it. They first knocked on Microsoft's door, but Microsoft wasn't really into the OS-making business at that point, so they directed the IBM suits to Gary Kildall's company. However, as nerd lore has it, Gary picked that day to go flying (he was an amateur pilot), blowing off IBM and his chance at history.

Accounts differ on whether Kildall met the IBM suits that day or not, but either way, the company went back to Microsoft, totally forgetting the whole "We don't make OS's here" part. Not one to miss out on an opportunity, Bill Gates turned to local programmer Tim Paterson, who had built a CP/M clone he called QDOS (for "Quick and Dirty Operating System"), bought it for a paltry 50 grand, then turned around and sold it to IBM under the name PC-DOS.

The term "user-friendly" meant something very different back then.

PC-DOS, later renamed MS-DOS, was included in every computer IBM made, and, long story short, that's why roughly 90 percent of you are using Microsoft Windows right now.

Today, Kildall's name is barely known, while Bill Gates will be a household name in the fucking 25th century. Most of Kildall's innovations ended up being credited to other people — and he can't even defend himself, having died in 1994 after falling down in a tavern, which pretty much just seems like his luck.

Today's lesson is, if you're an inventor, wear a freaking helmet.

Karl Smallwood wrote a book (yes, a real one), which you can read all about here. If you want to read words he's written for free, feel free to follow him on Twitter. Mike Floorwalker has a website that's like ... whoa. Like, seriously, dude ... whoa.

Robert William Kearns (March 10, 1927 – February 9, 2005) was an American inventor who invented the intermittent windshield wiper systems used on most automobiles from 1969 to the present. His first patent for the invention was filed on December 1, 1964.

Kearns won one of the best known patent infringement cases against Ford Motor Company (1978–1990) and a case against Chrysler Corporation (1982–1992). Having invented and patented the intermittent windshield wiper mechanism, which was useful in light rain or mist, he tried to interest the “Big Three” auto makers in licensing the technology.

But then he got screwed.

They all rejected his proposal, yet copied his idea and began to install intermittent wipers in their cars, beginning in 1969. March Abraham made the film: “Flash of Genius” about him.

Preston Tucker was a car-crazy kid who hung around auto speedways and grew up to create an automobile—the Tucker—that was years ahead of its time. He was a man of pioneering spirit, ingenuity and daring, who revolutionized Detroit in the 1940s with his stunning “Car of Tomorrow.” It was streamlined, futuristic and fast—the car every American dreamed of owning, at a price most people could afford.

A man of endless enthusiasm, Tucker publicized his model all over the country to wild acclaim. He sold stock, set up a factory . . .

But then he got screwed.

...and then the auto industry launched a devastating anti-Tucker campaign in order to character assassinate, industrially spy on and sabotage his car. Francis Ford Coppola made a movie: “The Man and His Dream” about him.

Nikola Tesla helped establish robotics, radar, remote control, and he helped expand ballistics, nuclear physics, and theoretical physics.

But then he got screwed.

Practically no one’s heard of him. Why? Because of a man named Thomas Edison, who is widely credited with the invention of the light bulb. Edison was an all-around pretentious ass, who totally tried to steal Tesla’s credit... which kinda worked, considering everyone remembers him and not Tesla.

Anyway, the two men had initially worked together — well, Tesla worked for Edison —and this is where Tesla was first screwed over by the man. Edison had offered $50,000 — over a million bucks, adjusted for inflation — to someone who could fix his crappy and inefficient motors. When Tesla did (probably by staring them down until they worked harder), Edison wrote his deal off as a joke, and continued to pay Tesla $18 per week. Keep in mind, Tesla was one of the most brilliant humans to have ever lived; it didn’t take long for him to flip Edison the bird and get his ass outta there to start his own company.

Soon enough, Edison’s electricity, direct current (DC) was competing with Tesla’s far superior electricity, alternating current (AC). Edison actually tried to discredit Tesla’s AC by having the first electric chair run on it; this was supposed to discourage people from putting it in their home. There are a few movies based on Nikola, one is: “The Prestige”.

THUS...

What do we learn from this lesson?:

- Non-disclosure agreements with investors mean nothing. Only discuss the “How It Can Make Money” part with investors and never discuss the “How it Works” part with anybody!
- Build it and try selling it yourself, first.

– File a patent on it before you tell a single soul about it. If you have told anyone except your patent lawyer, then the cat is out of the tube!

What kind of people get to run a tax payer funded organized crime operation that can take out 65,000 local workers, tell the White House what to do, buy Senators and Attorney Generals, commit possible murders, rig the stock market, and do it all with absolute impunity?
