Tech Giants Google and Facebook are currently purging conservative content from Facebook and YouTube — They are hiding conservative stories on Google — They are shadow-banning conservative news on all social media.

In February Facebook launched a new algorithm to ensure that conservative news would not spread on the social media platform.

This was after Facebook announced it was losing 50,000,000 user hours a day in the previous quarter.

The algorithm change caused President Donald Trump's engagement on Facebook posts to plummet a whopping 45%.

In contrast, Senators Elizabeth Warren (D-MA) and Bernie Sanders (I-VT) do not appear to have suffered a comparable decline in Facebook engagement.

Top conservative Facebook pages with daily traffic in the millions have seen 75% to 95% drop in traffic.

Young Cons, Western Journalism, SarahPalin.com, Independent Journal Review, Right Wing News, and several others have seen dramatic loss in traffic.

On Tuesday Senator Ted Cruz blasted Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg on the company's censorship of conservative news.

Mark Zuckerberg said it wasn't happening.

Mark Zuckerberg was lying.

Facebook has cut off traffic to all the top conservative and Trump-supporting websites.

But at the same time Facebook allows hateful pages calling for President Trump's assassination.

Facebook administrators recently decided the "Kill Trump, Hang Him, Hunt Him" page did not violate community standards.

Unbelievable.

A screenshot of the report was posted by comedian Owen Benjamin, who was banned earlier this month.
